What constitutes a REAL BARGAIN? Not merely a reduced price. A real bargain—our kind of a bargain—is an article or piece of merchandise—seasonable, desirable and useful—PRICED MUCH BELOW THIS OR ANY OTHER STORE'S REGULAR PRICE—AND AT THE TIME YOU NEED IT MOST. We exercise great care and precision in selecting offerings for Saturday's under-price selling. We keep up to our idea of a bargain—we practice what we preach. If you want real bargains—bargains of usefulness, seasonableness and savings—our brand of bargains—COME TO OUR SATURDAY BARGAIN SALE. Not much profit in these values for us. But they will bring you here—benefit you—win your confidence. That, and the satisfaction of doing better than other stores, is enough for us. Read on—

New Wharf at Birdsalls

Mr. Nathan Payne is in the city today on his way from Birdsalls where he has been engaged in the construction of a new wharf at that place. Mr George Payne has had the contract for the new wharf which it is expected will be completed by the end of next week. It is of concrete and a decided improvement on the old one. It no doubt will be greatly appreciated by steamboat men.

Only an Argument

Just at about 11 o'clock quite a crowd was attracted by a lively argumentative tilt over a small matter by a couple of men who were holding their boisterous debate about a hundred yards or so west of the Review office.

The audience expected a scrap but were disappointed as the men parted without going to blows other than of a conversational character.

Wolves and Bears.

Farmers in the northern part of Hastings county are being pestered by bears and wolves, which are said to be becoming quite bold and numerous. Sheep are being killed and cattle molested. Mr. Mark Mawson ex-Reeve of Limerick township, went out one morning lately to find one of his calves with a large portion of the flesh eaten off its hind leg, leaving the bone bare, evidently the work of wolves or bears. He had to kill it to end its sufferings.—Madoc Review.

"AMATEUR SPORTSMAN" WANTS C.A.A.U. WRESTLING TOURNEY HELD IN THIS CITY

Sporting Editor Review

Dear Sir,—I saw in the Review the other night that the CAAU. championship tournament had been rejected by the board of directors of the YMCA. The tourney provides clean, fast and good sports the bouts only being of six minutes duration and I was surprised to learn that the YMCA. board had not been very eager to accept the proposition to have them held here. They are quite as legitimate and clean as basketball, running or any other kind of sport gone in for by YMCA athletes and seeing that the YMCA board has decided against the tournament why can't some local committee of responsible persons of good standing try and secure it.

It would seem a shame to let the opportunity go by without making a big effort to secure the bouts for Peterborough,

Yours truly,
AMATEUR SPORTSMAN

FRED WHITCROFT IN CITY ON VISIT FROM EDMONTON

Mr. Fred Whitcroft, captain and manager of the Edmonton Hockey team, champions of the Northwestern League, is in the city on a visit. Fred is looking well and is having a busy time of it renewing acquaintances. He is all taken up with the west and likes Edmonton and its people.

Edmonton has challenged the Wanderers for the Stanley Cup and the challenge has been accepted. The games will likely be played in December. "Whitty" thinks his team has a good chance of lifting the trophy.

"Bill" Crowley, like Whitcroft, has a good opinion of the west and Edmonton. The latter says Crowley played a grand game last winter and showed the form of his life.

WILL HAVE HARDER TASK THAN HE EVER HAD ON THE GRIDIRON

"Gene Hurtubise is a big powerful fellow and a good wrestler," said a well known football player last night, "but I think that Wally Barron had it on him on the football field. Gene played snap for Peterborough when that team was in the ORFU. and on several occasions had to stand for a lot of gruelling at the hands of Barron. The Peterborough grappler was always in the thick of the football fray however and I guess that Barron was the only man he would take anything from."

When Hurtubise wrestles Conkle's unknown at the Armory rink on Saturday night he will have a harder proposition that he ever met on the gridiron. Conkle has been working out with the unknown this week and thinks that his man will defeat Hurtubise although Charlie is not an unbiased critic since Hurtubise won some of his money a few weeks ago.

The match will take place at Armory hall on Saturday night and it promises to be a corker. As it will be a great football day here the Ottawa and Hamilton teams will likely attend in a body to see the Peterborough rugby man in action on the mat.

Of course Hurtubise met Barron on the gridiron and not the mat and if he let loose at him now with his added weight, strength and wrestling experience he would probably be able to throw him about as often as he wanted to.

BIG TOURNAMENT AT P.B.C. ALLEYS OPENS TO-NIGHT

The bowling fraternity were out in large numbers last night at the PBC alleys, having a final workout in preparation for the opening of the tournament this evening and a number of very creditable scores were hung up.

Play will start tonight at 8 o'clock and a couple of hours of the best bowling ever witnessed in Peterborough. The scores will be posted as each frame is rolled and the spectators will thus be enabled to follow the play as closely as the players themselves.

Everything is in readiness for the start promptly at the hour mentioned and the draw has been arranged as follows:

McCarroll's Fearnots vs Hemstead's United McCarroll vs Hemstead,
Little vs McIlroy.
Smyth vs Hoolihan,
Gehils vs Sharpe,
Synder vs Mitchell.

Munro's Colts vs Baker's Five
MacRae vs Baker.
Huston vs Dobbin.
Martin vs Parnell,
Bruce vs Young.

HACKENSCHMIDT AND GOTCH WILL WRESTLE ONCE MORE

New York, October 16— Latest advices from England are to the effect that George Hackenschmidt, the wrestler is going into earnest and active training soon for the purpose of meeting Frank Gotch on the mat once more and wrestling from the Iowan the title of world's champion wrestler. Hackenschmidt is now in London and will be in vaudeville in Great Britain for the next few months. The wrestler has been on the continent for several weeks and apparently his knee has recovered from the recent operation that was performed.

Hackenschmidt says that the match with Gotch will be his final appearance in the wrestling arena and that he is going to put up the struggle of his life. Already, according report, he has begun to negotiate with his American rival. Arrangements at present are so uncertain however that it is not known whether the match will come off in England, or in this country. Hackenschmidt regards the proposed meeting with Gotch as "one last great match," before he finally retires from the game and promised that the outcome will differ in many respects from that of the go which the two had in Chicago on April 3rd, last with a $10,000 purse as the prize at stake.

While the prospect of another match between Hackenschmidt and Gotch will be a pleasing one to American followers of the sport, there are a number of wrestlers in England who are not at all delighted with Hackenschmidt's announcement that his go with the Iowan is to be the final one of his wrestling career. Several adepts at the game are bugging the trail of Hackenschmidt anxious to face him on the mat and the coming of Hackenschmidt into his own once more has resulted into a renewal of interest among those anxious to arrange for active doings with him.

HURTUBISE MEETS THE UNKNOWN

In Hamilton To-morrow — Local Grappler is Not Alarmed

Tomorrow, in Hamilton, Gene Hurtubise will meet a man who is looked upon by Mr. Charles Conkle to give the Peterborough heavyweight the run of his career. And the same Mr. Conkle knows pretty nearly how to size up a wrestler when he sees him.

Gene had quite a conversation with the Review and said that he had not the slightest idea who his opponent was and for that matter did not care. He is out to do his best and quite willing to take chances with Conkle's man.

O.R.F.U. EXECUTIVE HELD MEETING

Many Important Matters Taken up—Dr. MacPherson is Vice President

Important matters were taken up at an executive meeting of the Ontario Rugby Amateur Football Union at the Iroquis Hotel. Toronto, last night.

The protested Central Y.M.C.A.-Capital game was thrown out and ordered replayed. The Capitals played two ineligible men without permits.

Jack Beatty, of the Eurekas who, it is alleged, plays baseball in the Northern Professional League, will be asked for an affidavit regarding his amateur standing.

Roland, of the same team, was censured for rough play in the game with T.A.A.C. last Saturday.

As the rules do not cover the point, it was decided to allow anyone who had played in the Inter-Provincial Union to play in O.R.F.U. matches. In future, however players will be placed under the ban.

The resignation of Vice-President Snowdon, of Westmount, was accepted. Dr. A. W. McPherson, of Peterborough, was elected to the position.

The senior schedule was arranged as follows:—

Oct. 17—Peterborough at T.A.A.C.
Oct. 24—TAA..C. at Peterborough.

Games will count. In the event of a tie, the deciding game will be played in Peterborough Oct. 31.

SPORTING TALK

There is a big interest being taken in the bowling tournament which commences tonight at the PBC alleys.

Simpson, the only Indian who ever succeeded in making Tom Longboat step out, will not run in the Montreal Star race.—Globe.

The action of the Peterborough team in playing against the TAAC bunch will just about break up that Lindsay-Peterborough group of the ORFU while the permits to senior players issued by the ORFU in Kingston will be a sad blow to the Gananoque fans.—Hamilton Spectator.

DORANDO FEELS BIG

Rome, Oct. 16.—The friends of Dorando, the Marathon runner, say it is untrue he has been challenged by John J. Hayes, the Irish-American, who defeated him in London. They said that he would not accept, and, further, that he would not run in any race in Italy. Dorando himself says he is sick of Italians and their sporting ways, and will not allow his name to be used in competitions of any sort, only hoping that he will be allowed to go back to Capri, his native town, and resume making confectionery, just as he did before attaining his brif celebrity in the Olympian games.

Dorando's opponents declare he has grown sour because he was not allowed to dictate all the details of the recent Milan race, and adds he returned from London with the worst case of swelled head ever known in Northern Italy. It is declared in the press, that if Dorando's expenses were paid, and if inducements were sufficient, he would be willing to go to America.

RUGBY

Toronto, October 16—Mert Kent will again be seen in TAAC colors when he takes his old place at centre half against Peterborough on Saturday. Kent, it seems, merely availed himself of a technicality to play with Argonauts against Ottawa, there being nothing in either Interprovincial or ORFU, rules which would place him under the ban fro so doing. TAAC had no fixture for that day so the crimson half back thought he might just as well help the Scullers out as far as he could.

Neither Ade Rathbun nor De Gruchy will be able to play against Peterborough at Rosedale to-morrow, but it is not thought that the team will be weakened enough through their absence to give the Quakerites more than a good look-in for the big end of the score. Hugh Clarkson or Campbell will fill the vacant position at quarter. Grant will gain fill a place on the half line.—The Globe.

MAILING LETTERS.

One Trick That Doesn't Go With the Postal Officials.

There are times when, for one reason or another, you may wish to post a letter to some one, indicating in the postmark on the envelope that it came from some other than your own home town. But accordingly, as you value the scheme which you are trying to work, don't make the mistake of trying to work the postmaster of that particular town into this particular scheme of posting the letter for you. In anything, from a harmless practical joke up to a penitentiary offense which you may be planning, the postal service will recognize in you only a scoundrelly intent to deceive and defraud, and it has schooled every postmaster in the country into that fixed belief upon which he must act.

For example, you have written your letter, which you desire to appear as having been mailed at a particular postoffice somewhere in the United States. You seal it, stamp the envelope and address it to the person. This letter you inclose in a larger envelope to the postmaster of that particular town with the written request, "Please post the inclosed letter at your office."

The postmaster will do this. Oh, yes.

The postmaster, taking up the directed, stamped and sealed envelope, writes across a corner of the envelope a full explanation of the matter, reciting that it was received from Mr. So-and-so at a certain place, asking that the postmaster drop it into the mail as originating at that particular office over which he has jurisdiction.

Nice little situation, isn't it?

THE DOLLAR MARK.

A Theory as to the Origin of This Monetary Symbol.

The origin of the dollar mark is one of the curios of our financial history.

In the early days of the nation there was utter confusion in the circulating medium. Several of the colonies had authorized coins of different denominations, and, besides these, there were English pence, shillings, crowns and half crowns; French coins brought from Europe and Canada; Spanish coins of half a dozen denominations, especially reals and doubloons; Mexican coins; in Pennsylvania Dutch and German pieces, and along the coast Portuguese and even Italian money was often seen, brought by seamen.

The United States mint was established in 1791, and the United States coinage became, of course, the legal tender. The mixed coinage, however, was not at once displaced, but continued in local use, so that it became necessary for merchants in keeping accounts to designate that a bill was to be paid in United States currency, or, if in miscellaneous coins, these were received at a discount. So before the sum total of the bills the merchant was accustomed to write the letters "U. S.," signifying United States money. In the hurry of writing the "S" was often written over the "U;" then the connecting line at the bottom easily dropped off, and to the present day most people unconsciously commemorate the original practice by making the two down strokes first, then adding the "S."

State Officials Paid In Pelts.

Probably few people today know that the original name of the state of Tennessee was Franklin or that in 1788 the salaries of the officers of this commonwealth were paid in pelts, but the following is a correct copy of the law:

Be it enacted by the general assembly of the state of Franklin, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, that from and after the first day of January, 1788, the salaries of this commonwealth be as follows—to wit:

His excellency the governor, per annum, 100 deerskins.

His honor the chief justice, 500 deerskins.

The secretary to his excellency the governor, 500 raccoon skins.

County clerk, 300 beaver skins.

Clerk of the house of commons, 200 raccoon skins.

Members of the assembly, per diem, 3 raccoon skins.

Justice's fee for serving a warrant, 1 minkskin.

The Echo.

Small boy David was from the city. While visiting in the country he was one evening driving along the river bank, when an echo was heard, the voices in the valley below which produced it being scarcely distinguishable. After listening some time and being told that the sound he heard was an echo, he turned to his mother and said:

"Mamma, what is an echo?"

His mother tried to explain at some length, though she felt that her explanation was not being followed. Suddenly David broke in.

"Oh, I know all about it!" he exclaimed. "An echo is the shadow of a voice."

All or None.

TURF

A feature of the York Riding and Driving Club's Saturday afternoon programme at Dufferin Park will be the handicap for harness horses in a dash at 1 1-4 miles. This means that the horses will go from a standing start, which will be from the back stretch. The scratch horses will be at the quarter pole, and the others will be on marks back of that. Nat Ray's pacer, John McEwen, will travel the greatest distance, 7400 feet, with Gracie Pointer, his nearest competitor, going 7280 feet. The scratch horses, Emma L., Mechanic and Nettie Star, travel 6600 feet. There are three trotters named to start, Archie on the 6920 foot mark and King Bryson and Fritz Bingen each on the 6,960 foot mark. The race will be an innovation, and if it proves a success other races of the kind will be put on for harness horses.

The horses named to start, together with their handicaps, are as follows:—

Scratch—Emma L., Nettie Star and Mechanic.
120 feet—Joe Allen, Honest Billy and Gussie Scott.
200 feet—Planet and Prairie Oyster.
240 feet—Stroud and Hazel Belle.
320 feet—Archie.
360 feet—King Bryson, Fritz Bingen and Stonewall.
440 feet—Walter S.
680 feet—Gracie Pointer.
800 feet—John McEwen.

A. T. Taylor, of Hamilton, is now physical director of the Y.M.C.A. at Lorraine, O.

THE RING

Toronto, October 14— Artie Edmunds the Canadian wrestler and boxer is very much disappointed over the refusal of Abe Attell, American featherweight champion to give him a match before January. Edmunds had been promised a match with Attell the latter part of this month before the National Club in New York but the champion now refuses to meet him before the latter part of January. The Canadian will put in the time appearing in Peterborough, Belleville and Ottawa with lightweight boxers and may accept a bout in Detroit for Thanksgiving Day.

Keeping It Secret.

Village Postmistress—And what are those dashes? Hodge—Oh, he'll understand them right enough. Postmistress—Yes, but we can't send them by telegraph. Hodge—Well, they're the price o' the pigs. He'll understand. Postmistress—Yes, but you must put it in words or figures, else we can't send it. Hodge—Must I? Well, I'll whisper it to 'e, then.—Punch.

May Have Been Murdered.

Medicine Hat, Alta., Oct. 16.—Great anxiety is expressed by John S. Lehr of Josephsburg concerning the possible fate which may have befallen his son, John, aged 18, who disappeared on Sept. 24.

Sinister rumors are afloat and the whole district is in a state of unrest. Blood clots have been found beside a neighboring fence and examination of horses and cattle in field showed that none had been injured.

The lad was known to be following up a clue discovered in connection with an incendiary fire which recently destroyed the Lehr dwelling, and which brought "The Dreamers" so prominently before the public.

Grate Fire Explodes Gasoline.

Albuquerque, N.M., Oct. 16.—Mrs. Louise H. Chamberlain, a society leader, was burned to death. A servant cleaning a rug with gasoline came too close to an open grate fire and an explosion followed, and Mrs. Chamberlain's clothing caught fire.

THE MAN TO WATCH

When, to use a detestable phrase, you go out into the battle of life you will be confronted by an organized conspiracy which will try to make you believe that the world is governed by the idea of wealth for wealth's sake, and that all means which lead to the acquisition of that wealth, are, if not laudable, at least expedient...... You will live and move and have your being in a world dominated by that thought. Some of you will probably succumb to the poison of it.

Now, I do not ask you not to be carried away by the first rush of the great game of life. That is expecting you to be more than human. But I do ask you, after the first heat of the game, that you draw your breath and watch your fellows for a while.

Sooner or later you will see some man to whom the idea of wealth as mere wealth does not appeal, whom the methods of amassing that wealth do not interest, and who will not accept money if you offer it to him at a certain price. At first you will be inclined to laugh at the man, and to think that he is not smart in his ideas. I suggest that you watch him closely, for he will presently demonstrate to you that money dominates everybody except the man who does not want money. You may meet that man on your farm, in your village or in the Legislature. But be sure that whenever or wherever you meet him, as soon as it comes to a direct issue between you, his little finger will be thicker than your loins. You will go in fear of him. He will not go in fear of you. You will do what he wants: he will not do what you want. You will find that you have no weapon in your armoury with which you can attack him. No argument with which you can appeal to him. Whatever you gain, he will gain more.

I would like you to study that man. I would like you better to be that man, because from the lower point of view it doesn't pay to be obsessed by the desire of wealth for wealth's sake. If more wealth is necessary to you, for purposes not our own, use your left hand to acquire it, but keep your right for your proper wo[illegible] in life. If you employ both arms in that game you will be in danger of stooping; in danger also of losing your soul But in spite of everything you may succeed, you may be successful, you may acquire enormous wealth. In which case I warn you that you stand in grave danger of being spoken and written of and pointed out as a smart man. and that is one of the most terrible calamities that can overtake a sane, civilized white man to-day.

NOW RESIDING IN PETERBORO'

Presentation and Address to Madoc Citizens Who Have Moved to This City

The Madoc Review says:

Friends to the number of seventy-seven called on Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Weart on the evening of Thursday, October 1st, and made the presentation as stated below, accompanied by the following address. A very pleasant evening was spent, all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Weart every success in their new home in Peterborough,

To Mr and Mrs. Weart,

Dear Friends,— The words we speak and the things we do are not snowflakes dropping into the water, "a moment white then gone forever," but are the beginnings of which few can rightly prophesy the endings. For a goodly number of years you have been forming and enriching friendships in our midst and none of us can foretell what a weight of influence for good may yet attach itself to these friendships, but we feel as now a change comes and you leave the old to find the new that some expression of our good-will and of our remembrance of the past may help to cheer and encourage you until you are able to prove the worth of the new friendships of your chosen home in Peterborough. No word can express, no material gift convey to you the hearty good wishes of your many friends in Eldorado and Madoc township, but as far as words and gifts will, we we ask you to accept this oak rocker and the silver cream and sugar service as our messengers. The choir also desires to add their share of good wishes in the slight token of esteem, which they ask their fellow member, Miss Maggie, now to accept. We are sure that by your kindly thought and loving deeds you will win many friends in your new home, where we pray you may ever have the consciousness of the presence of the Divine Comforter, and ever present friends If only we strive to be pure and true,

To each of us all there will come an hour,
When the tree of life will burst into flower,
And rain at our feet the glorious dower,
Of something grander than ever we knew.

May the remaining days of your lives be your happiest days and days rich in experience that angels might covet, rich in a faith that has grown with the years.

Signed on behalf of your friends in Madoc township,

Montague W. Leigh,
Pastor Meth. Church,
Edward Blakely,

WAGES TOO LOW ON THE G. T. P.

The following is an open letter from Unity, Sask., 584 1-2 miles west of Winnipeg, on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. It is as follows:

To the Right Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, KCMG.; Mr. Fred W. Morse, vice-president and general manager Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, the Trades and Labor Councils and all union men in Canada:

Right Hon. Sir and Gentlemen—I beg to introduce myself as the grandson of old Bill Adams, who told the Duke of Wellington how to defeat Bonaparte at the battle of Waterloo The gift of accomplishing great events is hereditary in our family and it depends entirely upon the satisfactory and immediate adjustment of the following grievances whether the Liberal party and yourself, Sir Wilfrid, as leader is returned to power for the next five years on the 26th of this month, or not.

The creation of the G. T. Railway Company was the main issue at the last general elections and in due course it became an accomplished reality. The charter was granted in due course and construction begun. Time-table No. 1 came into effect on the 21st September and regular passenger and freight trains put on between Winnipeg and Wainwright, 667 miles. The road is in every respect second to none on the American hemisphere. The general superintendent, Mr. Brewer, the superintendent, Mr. W. C. C. Mihan, and trainmasters C. and C. D. Fraser, with Mechanical Superintendent Gell, are the officials who operate this new highway. Up-to-date, active, energetic and alive to every contingency, these gentlemen have certainly no superiors and very few if any equals in the operating branch of the railway business. I speak from forty years' experience on the inside track.

There is a clause in the G. T. P. Railway Company's charter making it compulsory for the company to pay the same wages that neighboring roads pay. This has never been done so far as the trainmen and telegraphers are concerned from the opening of the first telegraph office and the running of the first construction train.

The Grand Trunk Pacific has paid the conductors $3.80 for ten hours, and the brakemen $2.58 for nine hours The CPR. and CNR. give conductors and brakemen the same wages for nine hours' work, and also pay way-freight conductors $4.18 for nine hours; the GTP. does not make any difference, way freight or any other freight and by this the trainmen lose one hour's pay out of every ten hours they work. Considering the rush just now it amounts to a nice little sum in a month.

The Grand Trunk Pacific pay telegraphers and agents at way stations $600 per month. No overtime. Although many of the telegraphers stationed at ballast pits and points adjacent work the whole 24 hours without a moment's sleep and many can testify they have not had their clothes off for a week at a time. All this on account of the rush of ballast during the present fine weather to finish up the whole line to Wainwright and perhaps beyond, but not a cent overtime.

The CPR. and CNR. telegraphers' schedule give all operators on main lines $62.70 per month and overtime is as follows; the working day is 12 hours, 7 to 7, or 8 to 8 as it suits with one hour for dinner. After working the day if an agent is called during the night to attend to any train and get orders, he gets 50 cents for the call no matter whether the service performed takes five minutes or one hour, and for every additional hour 25 cents per hour.

The overtime made by the telegraphers on the GTP. from September 21st to September 30th when the 667 miles of railway became a reality, amounts to about fifteen dollars per man. There are about fifty employed, all first-class experienced telegraphers with clear records, and up to date Order of Railroad Telegraphers cards.

There are perhaps 150 trainmen, all experienced and members of their respective orders, Railway Conductors, and Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen the extra hour at 42c and 28 2-3c, respectively which they have not been paid for would considering the long hours they work just now materially supplement their monthly income.

It is up to the Government to enforce the complete observance of the GTP's. charter and let the men be paid for the full time worked on the next pay day 15th inst. If not, then the fact will be made known through the press and all brother unionists in the Dominion and all consistent men who believe in the old adage, that "the laborer is worthy of his hire," will know how to act when they go to the polls to record their votes on October 26th.

All newspapers who would champion fair play and advocate a square deal for the honest, industrious wage-earner as herein set forth are respectfully requested to give this letter prominent space.

Thanking The News, in anticipation and soliciting its editorial influence with prominent space for this letter, I beg to subscribe myself,

Respectfully,

BILL ADAMS, Jr.

THE EXAMINER'S STAND ON RURAL MAIL DELIVERY

A Year Ago the Liberal Organ Said It Was a Politician's Dream, To Gain a Little Popularity

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—In relation to rural delivery of mail that we are promised it will be along mail routes now existing and as North Monaghan has no mail route therefore we can have no delivery in our township. The Government also refuses to let city postmen deliver mail on the township side of the boundary streets. I enclose you what the Examiner had to say about rural delivery of mail in September of last year.

Yours,
TOWNSHIP ELECTOR.

The excerpt from the Examiner is as follows:—

"It is no reproach, but a simple statement of fact, to say that Mr. Borden, leader of the Conservative Opposition has rural ideas as to his ideas on rural mail delivery. He advocates a system of rural mail delivery to farmers, using the argument that it would be far better for one postmaster to go to a hundred farmers than for a hundred farmers to go to one postmaster. Would it be better for the proporetor of the cross-roads 'general store' to deliver his parcel of tea, coffee, sugar, tobacco, thread, etc., to a hundred farmers than to have the hundred farmers come to the general store? It is possible that the farmers would not appreciate the boon of a rural postal delivery. As a rule, and compared with business men in cities, farmers receive a few letters and these are of a character and of a class in respect of which time or prompt delivery is not an important element. Besides, the weekly, or bi-weekly visit to the local postoffice for the letters or the weekly papers is viewed as a pleasure, rather than a hardship; for the farmer, or the members of the family, isolated during the rest of the week, and absorbed in the lonely and hard work of the farm, rather delight in a chance to meet their neighbors at the postoffice, talk over the crops, and exchange the gossip of the neighborhood. When the farmers want rural mail delivery they will ask for it. The average farmer of good sense would far rather have the money spent on free rural delivery—and it would cost a pretty penny—in improving the highways, so that he could get to the postoffice comfortably and readily. Besides, Mr. Borden's rural free delivery would be class distinction. Self-evidently, the poorer farmers, those in the most remote and sparsely settled districts, would not have free delivery; it would only apply to prosperous farmers living in closely populated districts. The prosperous farmer would be benefited, but the struggling farmer while having to pay his share of the cost, would get no benefit. The existing postal arrangements, the city dweller as well as the most remote settler. But the matter is hardly worth arguing. It is a politician's dream, an experiment for creating a little popularity."

How does this square with Sir Wilfrid's new plank? The Examiner is frequently ridiculous enough.

YOUNG MAN INJURED AT BUCKHORN

Brought to Nicholls Hospital Last Evening---Was Working on New Dam

Mr J. Sadlar was the victim of a painful accident a few days ago at Buckhorn and as a result had to be removed to Nicholls hospital last evening. Sadlar was engaged on the new dam. He had his knee badly bruised. Then to add to his injuries he fell and a severe gash was cut in his shin. He came to the city last evening and was removed from the Peterborough house to Nicholls hospital in the Dan Spence ambulance. Dr. Leach is attending him. It will be a week or ten days before he is able to leave the hospital.

HARD LINES ON CAT AND CANARY

Left Alone in House, Bird Died and Cat was Near End

It is said that a family in this city left a few days ago for a visit to friends in another place, and that they absent-mindedly left the family cat and canary bird locked up in the house. Five days later the outcries of the cat alarmed a neighbor, who opened a window and let pussy out. The unfortunate canary had starved to death and the cat was so thin that it would have cast a shadow a little bigger than the Grits prospect of victory.

ARE SHADOWING TWO SUSPECTS

Pinkerton Detectives After Couple They Think Stole $3000 Worth of Jewelery

Vancouver, Oct. 15.—When the train from the east arrived last evening, a Pinkerton detective stepped off, shadowing a well dressed couple from Winnipeg, alleged to have stolen $3,000 worth of jewels.

Another Pinkerton man from Seattle, arrived this morning to take up the case and release the Winnipeg detective, and an officer of the Victoria police department, also came on the Charmer.

The two sleuths continued the surveillance of the couple on board the Princess Royal when she sailed for Victoria at 10 o'clock.

Instead of arresting the couple here, that act of law will not be done until the moment they land at Victoria, for the reason that confederates are said to be located there, and the stolen jewellery was forwarded to them from the interior.

As much as could be learned from the detectives, it seems the man's name is Blackwood and the woman purports to be his wife, although the police say she is not.

The clothing of both of them was of fine quality and each had an air of refinement.

They travelled from Winnipeg direct. Since the Pinkerton man got on their trail, but the officer refuses to give further details until the arrests have been made.

The couple apparently did not suspect that the detectives were so closely in touch with them, or if they did, they kept up a remarkably cool front.

Accuracy Quality and Price

Are three prime considerations in eye glasses. In price we please our patrons, and this is an important factor in our increase of business. We supply glasses from one dollar up, according to requirement of the eyes. And all our kinds of lenses, qualities of frames are of unsurpassed value. In quality of material, style, workmanship we speak with confidence of the eye glasses and spectacles, which we are daily supplying. Accuracy in focal powers best suited to the special requirements of each individual eye, is of course, of first importance, each case receives our undivided attention. In Accuracy, Quality and Price we are pleasing our patrons.

CANADIAN FIRMS ARE TOO HIGH

And That's Why so Much Theatrical Printing and Lithographing are Done in the States

Mr. Harry Wilger, the advance man four "Our New Minister," says the Canadian job houses and lithographers often wonder how it is they do not get a larger share of work for theatrical enterprises. They think that on account of the excessive duty on paper coming from the States to Canada they should get a larger share of the printing and lithographing than they do.

"But it's this way," said Mr. Wilger, "the American firms do the work at so much cheaper a scale that it generally is a saving of money to have it done on the other side and pay the duty, high as it is. If Canadian houses could only see their way to come down in their rates, a lot of the money expended in printing and lithographing now done in the United States would come to Canada."

THE HOOK

This warm weather is evidently the tail of the hot air of the Liberal speakers.

School children in London, Ont. are eating cordite. But that won't be in it with the Liberals around these parts eating crow on October 26th.

A woman's idea of a brave man is one who is not afraid to go into a dark closet in which there may be a mouse.

There would be a greater demand for common sense if it were fashionable.

Probably there is nothing so insincere as the struggle between two women to see which shall pay the car fare.

It is a waste of time to worry about the future. Things will be all right a hundred years from now — as far as you are concerned.

Mr. W. A. Bailey says he is not the Mysterious Mr. E. The only thing mysterious about Mr. Bailey is the meaning of his post card communications.

When Mr. MacFarlane said that Mr Stratton would be elected on April 26th he probably had Arpil 1st in his mind.

We are to be warmed up next week with the politicians. Mr. Burnham will speak on Tuesday evening, the 20th and Mr. Stratton will have a meeting on Thursday evening, the 22nd at 7.30. It is a pity the politicians could not have a tea meeting with their political meetings a cup of tea and a hunk of cake makes a meeting go better.—Nogey's Creek correspondent of the Bobcaygeon Independent.

IN THE ARENA OF POLITICS

Senator Cox does not seem to have cared to make an explicit or extended reference to the "Immigration Question" at last night's meeting.

Mr. John F. McGregor, Conservative candidate in Glengarry, has issued an appeal for a clean and honest election, stating that he would prefer defeat rather than election by corrupt methods or dishonest practices. "For the sake of our common country we must stamp that evil out and the good men of both parties must unite in conducting our elections by means which honest men will approve and by the methods which will bear the scrutiny of the light of day," says Mr. McGregor in his address.

Messrs. W. J. Kearns, Ald. Phelan and Burnham went to Ennismore last evening to attend the Conservative candidate's meeting in T.A.S. Hall. There was a good attendance. The speakers were the three gentlemen above named. Mr. Kearns spoke on corruption. Ald. Phelan described the immense meetings of Saturday last, and Mr. Burnham again spoke against the policy of spending enormous sums of borrowed money providing transportation etc. for districts of Canada remote from the centre, while the centre itself was not half-developed. A wise people does not build itself out-of-doors as the old saying goes.

GREAT ISSUES

(Hamilton Spectator.)

Truly the Laurier Government is making its appeal to the electorate of Canada to-day on a series of GREAT ISSUES. Here are some of them:

In Berlin—A new clock for the Town Hall.

In Essex—A new post office building.

In Wentworth—A rural mail delivery system to Ancaster village, and anything else the people in that constituency may care for.

In the Hamiltons—Branch post offices, a cement wharf, and a revetment wall.

In Norfolk—A promise that the candidate will consider the demands of that particular constituency over and above all other considerations.

From the premier to the country—I'm an old man; let me finish my work.

From the great chorus of grafters and hangers-on who for the past twelve years have been getting rich at the public trough—Hear, hear; let Laurier finish his work. He's a friend of ours.

German and Czech deputies in the Bohemian diet used desks and ink wells on each other.

THE HONEST ELECTORS WILL DEMAND HONEST GOVERNMENT

SOLD OBSCENE POST CARDS ELEVEN MEN ARE ARRESTED

Thousands of Bad Cards Are Circulating Throughout the Province and Central Depots Are Found in Toronto—Half-Dozen Appear in Police Court.

Toronto, Oct. 17.—That thousands of obscene picture cards are being circulated in Toronto, and from the city through the province, has impressed itself upon the public. As a result a "raid" was made yesterday, which landed five men behind the bars. Two of the men are said to be wholesale distributors of the nasty pictorial cards and of similar literature, and three have been retailing the goods.

That there is a lively demand for the stuff is evident in the order found from a Barrie dealer for a thousand better (or worse) than a previous shipment, and which was marked filled. The Barrie police were notified and the dealer's stock seized last evening, while he will be summoned before the magistrate.

The arrests are additional to the appearance in court yesterday morning on summonses of half a dozen dealers who appeared in the Police Court yesterday morning. Staff Inspector Stephen of the Morality Department was the prosecutor.

Athol George Robertson was arrested by Detectives Tipton and Twigg at 15 Wilton avenue. A decoy letter bearing a special delivery stamp was taken to him by a postman. It was addressed to the Rock Co. Robertson signed for it as manager. He was then arrested, admitting that he had also a box at the postoffice under the name of the Ontario News Co.

He admitted having sold a number of the postcards, several thousand of which were found on the premises. These were seized by the police and ranged all the way from a mild raciness to filth.

The second man, who has been supplying the retail trade with these bits of art and song, is William Renwick, who was taken by Detectives Verney and Wallace at room 15, 256 College street, last night. There 6,000 cards of the same vintage as those previously collected were seized. Renwick, too, admitted having secured his supply from Buffalo.

Louis Benson was got at his cigar store, 215 Chuch street. Samuel Beermbohm was arrested at 178 West King street, and Fred Maddock at 151 Brunswick avenue.

Those who appeared in the Police Court yesterday in answer to summonses were A. R. Wicket, 99 Church street; Henry C. Rymal, 370 Yonge street; A. L. Merrill, 304 1-2 Yonge street; Alb. Prouse, 304 1-2 Yonge street; P. B. Brown, 54 Yonge street; Henry Goldenthal, 627 West Queen street.

All save Brown, who pleaded guilty, were remanded till the 23rd without plea or election. Brown will then come up for sentence, he having pleaded guilty.

Robertson was also arraigned in the Police Court and remanded a week.

The penalty ranges up to two years' imprisonment, with heavy fines.

LIBERAL CANDIDATE AT ENNISMORE LAST NIGHT

Held Mass Meeting in Town Hall—Talk Along Much the Same Lines as at Previous Meetings—The Merits of the Respective Causes Discussed.

Hon J. R. Stratton, the Liberal candidate for West Peterborough held a meeting in the town hall, Ennismore last night and was greeted by a large audience. Mr. James Young, of Ennismore, was chairman. The speakers were Messrs. Stratton, Jos. Duffus, D. O'Connell and R. R. Hall.

Mr. Duffus the first speaker said he was taken by surprise when he was asked to speak. He simply came over to see his old friends in Ennismore and to attend the meeting. He did not intend to discuss any political measures at length as there were speakers on the platform in a position better to do so than he was. He said that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had proved that he was the man for this country. Conditions had improved he said since the Premier came to power in 1896. Mr. Hall had been an able representative for the riding. He felt sure that Mr. Stratton would be warmly supported. Mr. Duffus approved of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his administration.

Mr. D. O'Connell said he had the pleasure on very many occasions before of addressing audiences in Ennismore and he could say that that pleasure was constantly growing. Using the words of Mr. Borden, here, Mr. O'Connell admitted that the Conservative party sometimes told the truth. He said he was pleased to see so many ladies in attendance and stated that each married lady controlled a vote and the unmarried ladies three or four. He said that Mr. Burnham had only one plank upon which to base his appeal to the people for election and that was his honesty. He thought Mr. Stratton had many attributes. Mr. O'Connell occupied considerable time in endeavoring to bring forth the good qualities of the Laurier Administration and bespoke great disapproval of the policy of the Conservative party. The speaker stated that the Conservative party could not prove the illegal expenditure of a single dollar by the Liberals of Canada. Mr. O'Conell resented the attacks of Hon. Mr. Roblin on Hon. Clifford Sifton, and gave words of praise for the Minister of Finance. He spoke of charges against Hon. Senator Cox and Mr. Jaffray of robbing the country of $3,500,000 for their own interests through the agency of the Globe and said the charge was without foundation.

"Who are these men," said Mr. O'Connell, "who have the brazen effrontry of coming onto the public platform and accusing the Liberal administration of squandering the public money." In the year 1883, the speaker stated, the Conservative party took 10,000 square miles of timber lands and distributed them amongst themselves, their relatives and their friends and did not bring in one single dollar for the public treasury. He said Mr. Roblin had taken 54,000 acres of land in the very part where it was intended for settlement and distributed 420 000 amongst land grabbers and land speculators. He told of what he considered other grafts by the Premier of Manitoba. Mr. O'Connell uttered a severe arraignment of the Hon. George E. Foster. He said the real master of the Opposition was not Mr. Borden, but George Eulas Foster. His attack on Mr. Foster was most bitter.

Mr. O'Connell thought the Liberal administration had a splendid record and ennumerated what, in his opinion, were advantageous measures that they had put through.

Mr. Hall gave assurance of the great pleasure it gave him to have the privilege of addressing the good people of Ennismore and thanked them for the support they had given him at the last elections. He explained that he was unable to again accept the nomination at the last convention but thought that Mr. Stratton was the man for the party. Mr. Hall compared the work of the late Conservative government with that of the present administration to the advantage according to Mr. Hall of the Laurier government. Mr Hall dwelt on the accomplishments of Sir Wilfrid Laurier whom he referred to as a great statesman. The revision of the tariff under the Liberal administration was spoken of as a grand success. The speaker covered considerable of the ground in his speech that he did at the Opera House on Wednesday night. The Liberal administration had spent large sums of money, it was true, but the people were reaping the benefit of the expenditure. Mr. Hall voiced his support of the Laurier government. He went over the ground of increased transportation faciliteis and the establishment of cold storage service. He said that in the matter of building of railways it was a splendid thing that the Liberal government had taken hold of the work. Mr. Burnham had referred to the tariff as encouraging English goods to be shipped into Canada with Canadian products having small opportunities to reach the British markets. The speaker refuted this statement and said there were large Canadian exportations to the Old Country.

Mr. Stratton was the last speaker and was well received. He was glad to see such a large representation of electors from Ennismore and the surrounding townships. The ladies, of course, came in for some complimentary remarks. Mr. Stratton praised the speeches of Mr. O'Connell and Mr. Hall and said that he had made a statement at the commencement of the campaign that he would invite no outside speaker to come to speak in his interests during the campaign in West Peterborough. They were not needed. With such speakers as there were in the riding and they would be able to dwell on matters foreign to the issues of the riding.

He said not a single wrong thing could be proven against his administration of the affairs of the province while he had been Provincial Secretary. He said the Review had tried to blacken his character by attacking him on matters of a non-political nature. He gave a detailed explanation of the $10,000 of Home Life fame. Mr. Stratton told of his long residence in the West riding of Peterborough and gave the audience to know that he had always been absolutely honest in his public life.

The speaker then went into the affairs of the Dominion and compared the statesmanship of Mr. Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He said Sir Wilfrid had built up not only the name of Canada, but had given it financial prestige as well. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was commended for the policy he pursued in connection with the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway. Mr. Stratton told his accomplishments in a business way and spoke confidently of being returned to represent the riding.

FOUR FARMERS FINED FOR OFFERING FOR SALE BAGS OF POTATOES UNDER WEIGHT

Chief Roszel and P. C. Newhall surprised a few of the farmers on the market this morning and had their bags of potatoes weighed, which in many instances, were below the standard, ninety pounds. Four farmers were fined two dollars and costs, but His Worship did not order that the potatoes be confiscated as this would mean quite a serious loss most of them having over twenty bags.

Over a year ago Chief Roszel summoned a number of farmers for offering for sale bags of potatoes under ninety pounds in weight. At that time they were fined. Many of the farmers do not weigh their potatoes before bringing them to the market. In the case of one man today he was seventy-one pounds short on 21 bags. Another one was ninety-four pounds lacking on fifteen bags.

The third man was only nine pounds short while the fourth one was ninety-six pounds behind on 20 bags.

Mr. F. D. Kerr who appeared for two of the accused argued that under section 31 of the by-law under which the information was laid, the defendant had to represent that in the bag there were ninety pounds. Mr. Kerr further contended that his clients did not say that they had the ninety pounds. They were asked what price they were and were told 85 cents per bag.

No representation as to how many pounds were in the bags was made. He submitted that the farmers were not guilty within the meaning of the by-law.

His Worship did not think that the farmers were deliberately cheating the people. They were just a little careless. The exceedingly dry weather probably had something to do with making the potatoes lighter there not being so much moisture in them. However, the people must get full measure for their money. He therefore imposed a small fine.

LARGE FLAG OF ST. GEORGE

Presented to Rev. Canon Davidson by Rector of Brede, England

The following is from the Brede Church Magazine, of England;—

"The Rev. Canon Davidson, of Peterborough, Ont., Canada, who had been over to the Old Country for the Pan-Anglican Congress, recently paid a short visit to Brede as the guest of the rector, and preached twice in our church on the Sunday included in his stay. His firm belief in the power of Christian gentleness and love to end all the ills and solve all the difficulties of this generation, is very refreshing and inspiring. As a memorial of his visit to us, the rector has presented him with a huge flag of St. George, which is to float on festal occasions in the breezes of Canada, from the tower of St. John's, Peterborough, diocese of Toronto."

MANY REFUGEES MEET DEATH PERISHED ON RELIEF TRAIN

Inhabitants of Village of Metz While Fleeing to Alpena Are Ditched by Spreading Rails Between Blazing Ties and Are Cremated in Coal Gondola Car

Alpena, Mich., Oct. 17.—Seventeen people lost their lives Thursday night in the burning of the Detroit & Mackinaw Railroad relief train, which was carrying the inhabitants of the little Village of Metz, 23 miles north of here, to safety from the forest fires which were sweeping away their homes.

The ill-fated train was ditched by spreading rails at Nowicki siding, a few miles south of Metz, and the terrified refugees were forced to abandon the cars and rush for safety either down the track, with burning forests on either side, or into the plowed fields nearing the siding.

Eleven of the victims were women and children, who were unable to escape quickly enough from the gondola car which they were occupying. Their charred bodies were found there yesterday when rescuers reached the scene.

Two of the men victims were members of the train crew. Four additional fatalities occurred in the neighborhood of the wreck. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner died from heat and exhaustion on their farm near the scene of the wreck, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nowicki, Jr., lost their lives in their burning house near the siding where the wreck occurred.

Following is the list of the dead in the wreck: William Barrett, Alpena, brakeman; Arthur Lee, Alpena, fireman; John Konieszny, Mrs. John Konieszny, John Konieszny, aged two; Joseph Konieszny, aged three; Helen Konieszny, aged seven months; Mrs. George Cicero, Margaret Cicero, aged two; George Cicero, aged five; a third Cicero child, aged eight; Mrs. Emma Hardie and Pauline Hardie, aged nine; Mary Hardie, aged three; Minnie Hardie, aged eight months.

When the forest fires closed in on Thursday about the little village, a special train of three empty box cars and two coal gondolas were rushed to Metz.

As rapidly as possible the people and their goods were loaded in the cars. When the train started there were about 100 frightened people aboard. The flames were already sweeping through the village. Nearing Nowicki Crossing, the engineer saw blazing piles of cedar ties on both sides of the track. Opening wide the throttle he tried to dash through at full speed, but the heat had loosened the rails and they had spread and the train left the track. Blazing piles of ties surrounded it and in an instant the cars caught fire. The terror-stricken people caught by the peril from which they were fleeing, jumped from the cars and rushed down the track. They were cremated in the gondola car, where they were caught.

Sixty people who spent a night of terror on a southbound train from Cheboygan, was hemmed in all night by fires at LaRogue, have just arrived here on a relief train.

The fire yesterday afternoon is reported to be dangerously near Rogers City. La Rogue also seems to be doomed, unless rain comes within a few hours. Women and children have been sent away from this village.

Farms between Metz and Rogers City have been ravaged by the fires.

Detroit, Oct. 17.—A despatch from Hurst, Mich., says: Henry C. Kemps, his wife and two children, were burned to death yesterday or Thursday night. The four bodies were found yesterday in the ruins of the farmhouse.

Forest Fires Threaten Soo.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Oct. 17.—Forest fires have again broken out in Chippewa County and are threatening in the extreme. Brimley, a town 15 miles west, is in serious danger of destruction, and Neebish settlement was saved Thursday night only by heroic efforts of the fire department from the Canadian Soo, which went there with an engine on a tugboat.

The smoke is so thick that it was impossible to see across the river yesterday, and boats are either tied up or operating under check. Unless there is rain soon, the losses will reach hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The flames reached the city limits here Thursday night and threatened a dynamite storehouse.

MR. STRATTON'S EVIDENCE

Mr. Stratton hangs to the question of misappropriating the $10,000, no doubt with the object of drawing public attention aside from the deliberate false swearing done by him before the Commission in his effort to hide the taking of that amount.

He first swore that the whole amount agreed upon with Pattison was $80,000 and that he advanced that amount by his own cheque for that amount. Then when the absurdity of this statement was laid bare by the Commissioners, Mr. Stratton had to acknowledge that the amount agreed upon with Pattison was $90,000, and that he had not given any cheque for $80,000, and that there was no such cheque at any time at all.

He next swore that the money above referred to for the payment of Pattison was brought to his office. He next swore it was not brought to his office, but that Pattison went with him to the bank and the amount was paid there. He next swore that he had the money in his pocket before Mr. Pattison went to the bank.

For plain and fancy swearing this about takes the palm—all to conceal the taking of the $10,000. But it could not be done then and cannot be done now. That is why Mr. Stratton dare not meet Mr. Burnham and discuss it on the public platform.

SAW HOSPITAL AT BELLEVILLE

Members of Peterborough City Council Inspected Isolation Hospital in Nearby City

Ald. Bradburn, Gillespie and Johnston, three members of Peterborough city council, were in this city yesterday afternoon, and in company with Mayor McFee, and Mr. A. McGie, inspected the new Isolation hospital. They are contemplating the erection of such a building in Peterborough and the gentlemen in question were here to obtain information regarding the building. They were favorably impressed with our hospital.—Belleville Intelligencer.

ASSAILED BY TRAMP

Farmer's Wife Choked and Beaten by Man Who Wanted Food.

Brockville, Oct. 17.—Choked and beaten was the experience early yesterday morning of Mrs. William Charlton, the wife of a farmer living three miles from Brockville. Her assailant was a tramp, who had applied for breakfast. She had consented to give it to him, bringing the stranger into the kitchen. Seeing her alone, he demanded money, saying: "I can get my breakfast whenever I like."

Mrs. Charlton screamed and ran to the door in an effort to call the male members of the family, who were in a barn some distance from the house.

The stranger grabbed her by the throat, but she broke away. She did not get the door open, however, before the tramp struck her on the shoulder, knocking her down to the floor unconscious. She remembered nothing for half an hour, and, upon reviving, summoned her husband and others, but the tramp had decamped and no trace of him has been found since. He made a hasty search of the house, as $1.06, which had been placed on a shelf in the kitchen, is missing.

McGILLICUDDY IS COMMITTED

Calgary Editor to be Tried on Criminal Libel Charge.

Calgary, Alta., Oct. 17.—Court was crowded yesterday morning, when Dan McGillicuddy, editor of The Calgary News, appeared, charged with criminal libel on Editor Edwards of The Eye-Opener. E. Taylor and Col. Walker were on the bench, and Lawyer Nolan acted for Mr. Edwards and Clifford Jones for the defendant.

Three linotype operators testified that they set up the letter signed "Nemesis," written in a hand they would swear was McGillicuddy's. News Editor Quayle said the correspondence didn't go through him, as McGillicuddy had handle it, but he saw the manuscript in the hands of the printers and it resembled McGillicuddy's writing in some particulars.

Business Manager Hammond said a thousand papers had been sent to a man named Campbell, at Edmonton, and the same number to Fisher, at Brandon, but he did not know by whose orders.

The justices bound the accused to appear for trial at the Supreme Court Nov. 3. Bail of $5,000 was accepted.

CORNER STONE OF NEW PARK STREET CHURCH LAID TO-DAY

Ceremony Was Performed by Hon. J. R. Stratton—Many in Attendance—Short History of the Congregation.

The corner stone of the new Park street Baptist church at the corner of Park and Stewart streets, was laid this afternoon at three o'clock. A large number were present and the proceedings were watched with interest. The ceremony of laying the stone was performed by Mr. J. R. Stratton. Speeches were delivered by the ministers of the city, every denomination being represented. Rev. Mr. Riddiford, the pastor of the church, had charge of the service.

HISTORY OF PARK ST. CHURCH.

The building of the new church marks a rapid advancement in the history of the congregation. The present building was erected in 1895, when the membership only numbered thirty-five, but which now is 179. This is an evidence of the steady increase which has taken place each year, and of the growing population of this city.

The Murray street Baptist church was built in 1846. This congregation grew to such an extent that it was decided to open a Sunday school in the south end. One was started on Dalhousie street in 1888. Then seven years later the present church was opened when members of Murray st. congregation residing in the south part of the town to the number of thirty-five. From the very first, the congregation has been self-supporting and never yet have they had to receive assistance from a mission board.

The new building will cost seven thousand dollars and the money has been mostly raised by the congregation and by a canvas of the friends of the church.

The first pastor of Park street was Rev. O. C. Elliott, who was succeeded by Rev. A. H. Brace, who left here last summer for Cobourg. Through Mr. Brace's untiring efforts the new church was started and since the arrival of Rev. Mr. Riddiford, the present pastor, the work has gone ahead rapidly until to-day the corner stone is being laid. It is expected that the new edifice will be ready by January next.

THE NEW BUILDING.

The new building is to be of red brick and will be 72x44 feet. It will have a basement ten feet in height, and an octagon tower will give a finished appearance to the structure. The main auditorium will seat 450 people. The basement will have four class rooms and a kitchen. It will accommodate about 250 Sunday school children. The church will be heated throughout by a furnace. It is situated on the corner of Park and Stewart streets and will face on Park street. It will be quite an imposing edifice when completed and will be a credit to Peterborough's already large number of beautiful churches.

Reading circle

The weekly meeting of the W. A. A. Reading Circle will be held at Mrs. Palmer's residence, 468 Gilmour st., at half-past seven on Monday evening.

MORE DETAILS ABOUT DEATH OF THOS. SMITH AT HAVELOCK

Special to the Review.
Havelock, Oct. 16.

Mr. Thos. Smith, of town, was instantly killed in the C.P.R. yards by being run over by a car to-day, at about two o'clock.

The unfortunate man's head was smashed to a pulp, one wheel passing over the centre of his face and one hand and one foot were cut off. Death resulted immediately.

He was making his way to his home and had to cross the C.P.R. tracks. There was a long string of cars and he found it necessary to crawl under them.

No one saw the accident occur, but as he got under the cars an engine on the end of the string of cars started it is thought. When the cars were pulled out, men found the body laying on the tracks.

When the cars started they must have knocked him over and he was unable to catch on any place.

He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss. He was a member of the A.O.U.W.

EATON IS ON TRIAL

Man Who Killed Negro in Temagami Pleads Self-Defence.

North Bay, Oct. 17.—Edward Eaton of Essex, a prospector, was placed on trial yesterday before Justice Britton and a jury charged with the murder of Frank Ellar, a colored man, in Temagami Village.

Eaton shot Ellar in a pool-room at midnight Sept. 14, firing two shots from a 32-calibre revolver. The defence, in the hands of J. W. Mahon, alleges that Ellar habitually carried a revolver and razor, was a dangerous character and on the night of the tragedy had threatened the accused and followed him into the pool-room with his hand in his hip pocket as if to draw a revolver; that Eaton backed into the room, followed by Ellar, who continued to advance in a threatening attitude until Eaton reached his revolver from a shelf and fired two shots and Ellar fell, fatally wounded.

The defence rests largely on the evidence of the prisoner, who alleges that Ellar threatened to kill him.

The crown combats the self-defence theory with medical evidence showing that the fatal wound was inflicted by a bullet in the back under the left shoulder blade.

Eaton is a slight, delicate man, while Ellar was of powerful physique and of a quarrelsome disposition.

MISSTATEMENTS

Mr. Burnham did not say that the building of the C.P.R. was inexcusable. The C.P.R. had to be built, to comply with the pre-Confederation agreement with British Columbia, but he did say that had it not been for that agreement it would have been inexcusable for so small a people to have been loaded with a vast debt simply to develop what could well wait a little for development on easier terms. Mr. Burnham maintains that the same argument applies with greater force to the G. T. P., which would have been built by private enterprise and the offers had already been made without a cent of bonus, had it not been that the Laurier Government was then as it is now, in the grasp of the great financiers and money-lenders, who preferred a sure thing and greater profits in building the whole railway themselves. When the people of Canada as a whole wake up to this great "scheme" as it really is, in all its naked inexcusableness, there will be doings, but alas! it is too late. We are bound and bound both hand and foot.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Mr. O'Connell's fierce attack on Foster looks like a smashing blow dealt under cover, at Mr. Stratton. If Foster is guilty, as Mr. O'Connell alleges, what in Heaven's name is Stratton!

It is rumored that the Laurier et al Spoils' Government local candidate is thinking of adopting a new motto paraphrasing the well-known "Ich Dien" and using "Itch Graft" instead, said motto to be surrounded by a dollar mark rampant.

(From the Canadian Courier.)

"One encouraging feature of this campaign is the emphasis put upon character. People seem to care more than they have at some elections about the character of the men who are asking their franchise. Political opponents take more pains to attack character—to expose facts which cast a baleful light upon character—while political friends feel the necessity of defending character. The old lie that the private character of a public man is nobody's business, will not survive this election. Of course, the private character of the man whom we are asked to lift up before our young men, as the most conspicuous and most honored "successful man" in the district, matters very seriously. If his character is bad, his immunity from punishment for it will preach a more convincing sermon than all the ministers in the country can preach on all the Sundays of the year; and the text of it will be, "The bad man has an easier path to success than the good man." Yes, easier; for things which would damn a good man, because of the revelation of pharisaism, are only laughed at in a frankly bad man."

OFFICIAL VISIT TO BRIGHTON LODGE

Mr. J. J. Turner, sr., was at Brighton last night on an official visit to the AOUW. lodge at that place. Mr. Turner is District Deputy Grand Master of the Order and reports that the Brighton lodge is in a flourishing condition. There was a large turnout of the members last night, over seventy being in attendance.

Emile Paquet aged three, was burned to death on her father's barge at Quebec by upsetting a can of kerosene oil near the stove.

END IT THIS TIME

The "rakeoff" revelation from St. John is surely the last straw.

A government which adds to the contract price for work done for the country in order that the president of a Liberal association may collect from the treasury, $35,933 that he has not earned, will surely not be tolerated by the people of Canada.

Were this the entire story it would certainly be sufficient to bring about the most disastrous defeat of a minister guilty of such conduct in any other part of the world.

But it is merely a sample case.

In all the transactions at Ottawa there is wrongdoing.

The free land of the people in the West is blanketed by politicians, who sell to the incoming settler what has cost them nothing.

By the Winnipeg Free Press this roguery is described as a "cold-blooded swindle."

Other public land is passed to politicians for $1.00 an acre and these men sell it again for eight times what they have paid.

This crookedness drew from Mr. J. W. Bengough, Liberal though he is, a condemnation in the name of humanity. Mr. Bengough has pronounced the thing "legalized robbery."

The timber lands of the people, instead of being sold at public auction, are passed out to politicians of the Burrows and Fraser type, who sell them again for from $100,000 to half a million.

The merchant who does business with the Ottawa Government and the contractor who carries out public works pay tribute at the toll-gate.

Chas. Patton had agreed to give $2,000 for an order for fire extinguishers.

Gershom S. Mayes was compelled to sign a contract to pay 5 cents for every yard of dredging done by him, or $35,933 in all, to George McAvity, the president of the St. John Liberal Association, and the confidential agent of the Government.

Ottawa reeks of this sort of thing. This is why it is that our public expenditures have been lifted from $44,000,000 to $112,000,000. This is why our taxes have jumped from $37,000,000 to $72,000,000 per annum.

The crookedness also explains the corruption and the ballot-box frauds. It is out of the over-payments from the Treasury that the campaign money comes.

Canada is faced with a gigantic conspiracy of graft and of election wickedness. The thing is getting bolder. Another term and the robberies will be conducted on a scale that will be appalling.

LET US END THIS NOW.

THE LAURIER GOVERNMENT AND THE ELECTION LAWS

Promises to Effect Reform Have Been Broken—Some Information For the Electors

In the sessions of 1906 and 1907 the Laurier government promised in speeches from the Throne, to introduce measures reforming the election law. Both promises were broken.

In the session 1907 the government majority in Parliament, at the request of the Premier and his colleagues voted down a motion of Mr R. L. Borden, declaring that legislation against electoral corruption and election fraud was necessary, and regretting that it had been delayed.

In the session of 1907-8 the Government promise was repeated, but it was not until Mr. George O. Alcorn, a Conservative member, had introduced a comprehensive and stringent measure for election reform that the Government took action. Then Mr. Aylesworth brought down a measure containing some of the features of Mr. Alcorn's bill.

"The Liberal-Conservative platform demands effective provisions for the punishment of bribery and fraud at elections, to insure publicity as to expenditures; to prohibit election contributions by corporations, contractors and promoters; to make the trial of election petitions speedy and effective, and to punish offenders against the purity and fairness of the ballot."

By refusing legislation, by protecting and rewarding the perpetrators of ballot frauds, and other election conspiracies, the Government and its allies in provincial adminsitrations have steadily aided and encouraged this class of crime. Take the following examples;

In the session of 1903 Mr. Borden charged that bye-elections held the year before in Brockville and West Huron had been stolen by some form of ballot fraud. Sir Wilfrid at once gave his solemn pledge to do what he could to bring out the truth and to punish the criminals. The matter was referred to the Privileges and Elections Committee where, for weeks, leading government supporters, the most conspicuous of whom have since been rewarded with office exercised all their ingenuity and legal skill to frustrate the inquiry and delay its progress. Though conclusive evidence was produced of ballot manipulation at more than one poll the obstructors succeeded in delaying the finding until the end of the session. It was then agreed that the inquiry should stand over and be taken up at the session following. When the next session opened Mr. Borden produced a sworn affidavit of J. G. Pritchett, confessing that he had instructed deputy returning officers in the art of switching ballots for the elections at West Huron and Brockville. But when Mr. Borden moved that the matter be again taken up in the committee Sir Wilfrid, in direct violation of his solemn pledge opposed the motion and called upon his followers to vote it down. The excuse of the Premier was that he intended to appoint a royal commission and make a thorough investigation of election frauds throughout the country. No such investigation was ever held, and the occupants of the stolen seats held them till the close of the term.

IN WEST ELGIN

In June 1899, it was established by the sworn confession of the government candidate in West Elgin that in the election of January 12 Conservative ballots "were in some nefarious and corrupt manner manipulated," by persons sent from outside on behalf of the Liberal party. Some of these committed perjury and forgery by acting under assumed names in the place of local returning officer Hon A. B. Aylesworth, now Minister of Justice, signed his name as a witness to this confession. W. T. R. Preston organizer of the government campaign was so proud of the performance, that on election night, after the fraudulent vote was counted he sent the following telegram to the candidate who had been counted in;

"Heartiest congratulations. Sorry from the bottom of my heart I cannot be with you tonight. To be supported by such a noble army of workers should make you the proudest man in Ontario.

"Shake hands with the boys for me and hug the members of the much abused threshing machine for Auld Lang Syne."

The very next day after the election had been stolen, and this telegram sent the Laurier Government made Mr. Preston Chief Commissioner of Immigration with headquarters in London, at $3000 salary to which was added afterwards a free house and generous living expenses.

AT MONTREAL

An organized conspiracy stole the by-election of St. James, Montreal by wholesale personation from Mr. J. G. Bergeron, the Conservative candidate. Though the poll books and ballot boxes furnished abundant evidence of fraud both the Federal and Provincial governments refused to prosecute. Mr. Bergeron and his friends were obliged to institute proceedings. They secured the conviction and imprisonment of one of the chief offenders and obtained a decree unseating and disqualifying the usurping member. By appealing against the disqualification alone this member continued to hold his seat. He voted with the Government in the house and was treated as a member of high standing with his party during the following session after which the judgment was confirmed. Meanwhile the Government with a considerate feeling of comradeship had ordered the release of the convicted conspirator almost at the beginning of his term of imprisonment.

Encouraged by this sympathy in high places Government supporters in 1904 organized a like conspiracy to steal the St. Antoine seat in Montreal from the Conservative candidate Mr H. B. Ames. Warned by Mr. Bergeron's experience, Mr. Ames was able to discover and defeat the conspiracy, and caused the arrest of the offenders in the midst of the machinery and equipment for their project. Here again the Federal and Provincial Departments of Justice stood aloof and left the candidate to bear the expense and trouble of the prosecution.

In the same year the trick ballot box scheme was devised. It is not known how many seats were won by this device but the design was frustrated and exposed in Hastings and Frontenac. The Government candidates in these ridings were parties to the conspiracy and one of them engaged a misguided youth who had false ballot boxes made at Watertown, N.Y. and who visited the Government organizer for the district on his travels to and from that town. The feature of this intervention was a secret compartment into which the returning officer could, by turning the handle, throw Conservative ballots. Bogus Government ballots were substituted for those switched. This trick was discovered just in time to prevent its execution. Again the Departments of Justice under the Ross Government of Ontario and the Laurier administration were slow to act, so that the leaders of the conspiracy were allowed to escape from the country. When they were safe the criminal law was brought to bear upon the youth who has been made the instrument of the plotters, and who rejected the advice of his associates to get out of the country.

REWARDS FOR ALL.

In this year the "thin red line" conspiracy in Manitoba disfranchised some 9,000 Conservative voters, capturing for the Government the seats for Provencher, Portage, Lisgar and Selkirk. Within two months Mr. R. E. A. Leach, the chief perpetrator had been appointed by the Federal Government to a $2,000 office.

The Prince Albert election frauds in the election of 1905 were perpetrated by actual, former and future Government employees. When these men were arrested their counsel was the agent of the Federal Department of Justice in their town. Their fine was paid by his clerk, and at least one of the criminals has since been in the employ of the Dominion Government.

The Minnie M. conspiracy, a wholesale scheme of personation by a boat load of foreigners, was brought to the knowledge beforehand of the Ontario Department of Justice. The head of that department refused to take steps to prevent it and did nothing to punish the criminals. Some of the persons connected with the nefarious plot have been rewarded by the Dominion Government with attractive offices.

THE LONDON PLOT.

Last and most striking of all is the London election conspiracy by which Hon. Mr. Hyman, then a Minister of the Crown, was elected in 1905. This impudent plot has been exposed and the offenders punished, because the Ross Government has disappeared from Ontario and is no longer able to protect this class of criminals. The persons convicted of wholesale bribery, combined with ballot manipulation, include election officers, some of the leading lights of the Liberal party in that district, and at least one favored contractor with the Federal Government. Among those who contributed effort and money to all the cause of the machine in that campaign, are at least two other Government contractors, and certain high office holders in Liberal organizations in other cities.

It was proved in this trial that the London plot was but one incident extending throughout the country; that for this purpose the Government machine had long maintained in regular employment certain instructors in the fine art of ballot switching; that it had a corps of trained ballot stuffers prepared in a general seat stealing conspiracy to hold polls in suitable places; that it had paymasters to arrange financial terms, printers of bogus ballots and manufacturers of trick ballot boxes; that it had a regular scale of fees for different kinds of ballot manipulations, monthly allowances for criminals in exile, and a system of reward by public appointment and public rake-off.

LEADER AT GRANBY.

Mr. Borden Addresses Enthusiastic Gathering In Park.

Granby, Que., Oct. 17.—R. L. Borden was given a welcome here yesterday which fully rivalled that given Laurier on Monday. Farmers from all over Shefford County drove in to hear the leader and the little town was ablaze with bunting. Mr. Borden was accompanied by Col. Hugh Clark of North Bruce. Two thousand people gathered in the park, where the meeting was held and enthusiasm was great.

Borden dealt with increased expenditures. "Where has this money gone?" he asked. "You cannot find the record in great public works such as the Conservatives made with their smaller revenue. To find where it has gone you must ask camp-followers and middlemen, men who a few years ago were paupers and to-day are wealthy with the results of their dealings with the Government."

Butcher Hangs Himself.

Whitby, Oct. 17.—A butcher of the town, S. W. Cawker, yielded to a fit of despondency and hanged himself to the bannister in his residence Thursday night in the absence of other members of his family.

He had been drinking heavily.

The family were vacating the house to go west. The daughter reached home yesterday morning. Before opening the front door the horrible sight of their father hanging from the bannister met their gaze.

Deceased was probably 50 years of age and leaves a wife and two daughters aged 17 and 19.

Dominion Controls Fishing.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 17.—Judge Howey at New Westminster yesterday quashed the conviction against John Kendall, fisherman, who was hauled before the court several weeks ago on charges of contravention of the new provincial fishery laws.

Judge Howey declared that it was clearly shown that provincial authorities had no right whatever to attempt control of the waters of the Fraser river, the Privy Council have established the Dominion's control to inland waters.

This decision is flatly against a great deal of the fishery regulations passed at the last session of the Legislature.

Cody's Aeroplane Collapses.

Aldershot, Eng., Oct. 17.—Capt. F. S. Cody, the American aeroplanist, who has spent several years in the British service in charge of the kite section of the army, made an attempt yesterday at a flight in his army aeroplane.

After reaching a height of thirty feet the machine fell to the ground and was wrecked. Capt. Cody escaped unhurt.

One Hundred and Ten Men Strike.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., Oct. 17.—One hundred and ten men struck yesterday at the plant of the Cliff Co., paper-makers, on receipt of orders from President Kelly of the International Papermakers' Union. The men at the plant of the Pettibone Cataract Paper Co. are expected to quit work during the day.

Powder Explosions.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 17.—Careless workmen yesterday dropped a match in a powder magazine at Cumberland, Vancouver Island, and another man stepping on it, caused an explosion. Four men were injured, but none will die. Half of the windows in the village were shattered, and the loss will total from $5,000 to $6,000.

Year For Selling Without a License.

Chatham, Oct. 17.—Charles Palmer of Berlin, a local option town, was brought before Judge Houston yesterday morning on five charges of selling liquor without a license. He was convicted on charges and sentenced to 12 months without the option of a fine.

Plans a New Railroad.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—Hull capitalists have formed a company with a capital of $100,000 to construct a railroad from Lake Temiskaming to Upper Satika Lake, 28 miles in length, mainly to connect with the C.P.R. and to carry metal from the silver mines.

Two Balloons Lost.

Berlin, Oct. 17.—The German balloons Plauen and Hergosell, which left here Monday last in an endurance contest with 27 other competitors, have not been reported, and the Aero Club committee is convinced that they have been lost at sea.

Typhoon Destroys Reception Halls.

Amoy, Oct. 17.—A typhoon demolished all the buildings erected for the reception to the officers and men of the American battleship fleet with the exception of the main reception hall.

Forty Cases of Smallpox.

St. John, N.B., Oct. 17.—Over forty cases of smallpox have been discovered in Madawaska County. The disease is of a mild type.

Catholics and Universities.

Rome, Oct. 17.—It is denied in Catholic circles here that the Pope has forbidden the Catholics of France to attend the state universities. His Holiness recommended that they do not attempt with a view to encouraging the faculties of Catholic institutions by the preference given them over state institutions.

Extend Coasting Area.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—A proclamation has been issued bringing into force the act to amend the Canada Shipping Act, passed at the last session of Parliament. The act extends the area of the coasting trade on both the Atlantic and Pacific coast, and modifies the regulations in respect to the sailing of vessels of small tonnage.

Order For Export Cement.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—The use of Canadian cement in Spokane under recommendation of the city engineer is the first case on record of an expert order coming to Canada, and the Dominion makers look forward to a growth of this trade. The cement in question is that manufactured at Exshaw, Alta., and is for use in Spokane City bridges.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

Wreck Victim Loses Arm.

Barrie, Oct. 17.—It was found necessary yesterday to amputate an arm of Miss M. Hotson, one of the victims of the Grand Trunk wreck, near here Thursday. Miss Hotson is a daughter of Dr. Hotson of Parkhill. Her condition late last night was favorable.

Mrs. John Wilson of Meaford, a woman 75 years of age, another victim, is doing as well as might be expected, considering her advanced years.

Haskell Sues Hearst.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 17.—After a dramatic scene on Union Pacific train No. 2 Thursday night at midnight, in which the door of his stateroom was burst open by a deputy sheriff, William Randolph Hearst was served with papers notifying him that suit for $600,000 had been brought against him for slander and libel by Governor Charles N. Haskell of Oklahama in the Douglass County, Nebraska, District Court.

Fourteen Years For Murder.

Sault Ste. Marie, Oct. 17.—Achillo Scigliano, accused of manslaughter in connection with the death of Bacga Parocoo, Little Italy, last July, was sentenced by Judge Latchford to 14 years at Kingston yesterday.

When the sentence was pronounced the three Scuglianos burst into tears, Benny being particularly affected.

Tonie Makie of Michipicoten was sentenced to five years at Kingston on the charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Isaac Saari at Grace Mine. The judge held that the prisoner was an old man and not wholly to blame for the trouble resulting in the fight, deceased having entered his house and commenced it.

Death Was Accidental.

Belleville, Oct. 17.—That deceased John Amos Brant came to his death accidentally while under the influence of liquor was the verdict of the coroner's jury Thursday night on the death of the young married Indian of the Mohawk Reserve, who died Monday last.

On Sept. 25 last, while leaving the house of a relative, Wm. Brant, in a state of intoxication, fell from a rig, dislocating his neck and part of the vertibre.

Wm. Grange, on behalf of the Indian Department, was present, watching the case with a view to ascertain who furnished liquor to the Indians.

U.S. Battleship Fleet In Gale.

Tokio, Oct. 17.—(9 a.m.)—The delay of the United States battleship fleet in arriving at Yokohama was due to a tremendous storm off the north coast of the Island of Luzon, of the Philippine group. The storm began on the morning of Oct. 12, and continued until the afternoon of Oct. 13. One man was drowned and some damage resulted to the fleet. The fleet will arrive at Yokohama at 9 o'clock on the morning of Oct. 18.

Face to Face With Death.

New York, Oct. 17—Unable to move, or even utter a cry, although death by asphyxiation was surely approaching her, Miss Catharine Whalen, 32 years old, a helpless paralytic, was rescued Thursday at her home, No. 310 West 180th street, just in time to save her life.

The tube of the gas stove had become disconnected and fell away as she watched.

Papermakers Strike.

Montreal, Oct. 17.—A large number of employes of the Laurentide Paper Mills went on strike yesterday morning, in response to a call from the president of the International Union. This move is in sympathy with the strike of papermakers in the United States against the International Paper Co., and is not because of any local grievances.

Trouble In Somaliland.

Aden, Oct. 17.—It is reported that the Mad Mullah has informed the authorities of Berbera that he intends renewing hostilities at the conclusion of Ramadan, which ends Oct. 26.

The recent unrest among the natives appears to be developing into serious trouble.

Costly Fire at Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The International Salt Docks, the Calumet Elevator, the offices of the Elgin, Joliet & Eastern Railway, and two steamships were destroyed by fire early yesterday. Loss $1,250,000.

Double Track C.P.R. to Coast.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 17.—Sir Thos. Shaughnessy, president of the C.P.R., would now double track through to the coast. This, he said, was the cause of voting $50,000,000 of new stock last week. The company, he said, is preparing to operate trains over the mountains by electricity generated by water power for 700 miles, probably the biggest railway undertaking in the history of the continent.

C.P.R. Backing New Railway.

Montreal, Oct. 17.—It transpired yesterday that the C.P.R. is behind the company asking for a charter to build a line through the Peace Valley to the Yukon. The charter was before the last session of Parliament. Edmonton and Yukon capitalists are associated with the enterprise. The huge finds of rock salt and asphalt are among the attractions to the freight carrying road.

Roughmond Goes For Trial.

Stratford, Oct. 17.—Frank Roughmond was yesterday committed to stand trial at the spring Assizes for the murder of Mrs. Wm. Peake. Roughmond pleaded not guilty in a steady tone and still maintains dogged silence concerning the affair. He was unrepresented by counsel yesterday, but it is understood he will be defended by J. C. Makins.

Sir John Colby Shoots Moose.

Port Arthur, Oct. 17.—Sir John Colby of Pembrokeshire, Wales, returned to the city yesterday after a week up the line of the Duluth extension railway, hunting moose. He hunted under a special permit from the Ontario Government, the season being not opened, but had poor success, killing only one animal without horns of any value.

Arrested on Serious Charge.

Windsor, Oct. 17.—Ross Summers of Cornell, who is wanted by the authorities in Woodstock, was arrested in Detroit and brought to Windsor. Summers is charged with having attacked two young girls near Woodstock in September.

Fell Through Trap-Door.

Hamilton, Oct. 17.—Archibald Hill, a farmer who lived at Clappison's Corners, fell through a trap-door in his barn yesterday. He was brought to the City Hospital, where he died without regaining consciousness.

Rideau River Low.

Kingston, Oct. 17.—Owing to low water in the Rideau river, the steamer Rideau King has been taken off the Ottawa route. If the river continues to go down, the company will have to go out of business.

Killed by Car.

Kingston, Oct. 17.—Thos. Legarry, aged 21, met death in James Richardson & Sons' feldspar mine at Godfrey. While standing on the track, he did not notice a loaded car coming towards him.

Aged Monk Dies In London.

London, Oct. 17.—Joseph Liechester Line, Father Ignatius, monk and superior of Llanthony Abbey, Abergavenny, England, died yesterday morning after a lingering illness. He was born in 1837.

Farm House Burns; Family Escapes.

Harrow, Oct. 17.—About midnight Oct. 15, the two large barns belonging to W. C. Cornwall were destroyed by fire.

About 4 o'clock yesterday morning the dwelling of Ralph Mickle, a farmer, living about six miles northwest of Harrow, was destroyed. Mickle, his wife and children barely escaped. Nothing was saved.

Killed by C.P.R. Engine.

Winnipeg, Oct. 17.—While wheeling coal across the C.P.R. just west of the depot, Thomas Scarrett dodged one train and ran under a light engine. He was killed instantly. Scarrett was from Crewe, England.

Race Fight Is Over.

Seoul, Oct. 17.—The trouble arising from the engagement of Chinese and Japanese troops at Kantao, Northern Korea, has been settled and no further difficulty is expected.

Will Use Buildings Again.

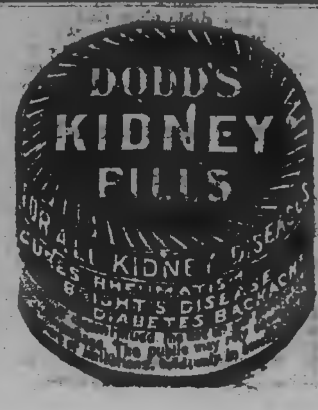
London, Oct. 17.—It is announced that the buildings of the France-British Exhibition will be utilized in 1909 for a great international and colonial exhibition.

Toronto Graduate's Success.

London, Oct. 17.—(C.A.P.)—J. J. Cameron, Toronto University, has been admitted a member of the Royal College of Surgeons.

Husband Aged 88, Wife 23.

Windsor, Oct. 17.—Ainsley Scott, 88 years of age, was brought from Grand Haven, Mich., to Detroit to serve a sentence of three months, in default of a fine of $60, for practicing medicine without a license. He was followed by his wife, who is only 23 years of age. She declares she will try to obtain money enough to pay the fine. The young wife states that her octogenarian husband is an actor, but has been in hard luck, and their trunks are now being held for an unpaid board bill in Stratford, Ont.



DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

HELPFUL ADVICE

You won't tell your family doctor the whole story about your private illness—you are too modest. You need not be afraid to tell Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., the things you could not explain to the doctor. Your letter will be held in the strictest confidence. From her vast correspondence with sick women during the past thirty years she may have gained the very knowledge that will help your case. Such letters as the following, from grateful women, establish beyond a doubt the power of to conquer all female diseases.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Frank Emsley, Lindsay, Ontario, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"When I wrote to you some time ago, I was a very sick woman suffering from female troubles. I had inflammation of the feminine organs and could not stand or walk any distance. At last I was confined to my bed and the doctor said I would have to go through an operation, but this I refused to do.

"A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After using three bottles of it, I feel like a new woman.

"I most heartily recommand Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all women who suffer with female troubles."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

The eye is such a delicate organ that it should never be trifled with.

This is why our optician has followed the teachings of only recognized authorities on the eye.

Many opticians take half a dozen or more correspondent courses, costing from $7.50 to $25 each. With this limited knowledge it is little wonder that so many are wearing glasses that do not suit them—others who do not repaire them.

If you have eye trouble you should only consult an optician who has a thorough knowledge of every branch of the optical business.

THE PHASES OF WOMEN'S WORK

Presented at Pan-Anglican Conference--Rev. Canon Davidson to Speak

An interesting event has been arranged in connection with the annual thankoffering meeting of St. Andrew's Women's Foreign Missionary Society, which takes place next Tuesday afternoon the 20th inst at three o'clock. The Rev. Canon Davidson, M. A. of St. John's church will give an address on the different phases of women's work presented at the Pan-Anglican Congress in London. This meeting will be open to everybody.

BE A CHARMING WOMAN

You never saw a beautiful woman who didn't have beautiful hair. The charms of a beautiful woman lie in her hair. Many women do not realize the attractions they possess because they do not give proper attention to the care of the hair.

The women of the "400" are famed for their beauty, not because their facial features are superior to those of other women, but because they know how to keep young by supplying vigor, lustre, and strength to the hair.

Up to a few years ago Parisian Sage could hardly be obtained in America. But now this delightful hair restorer can be had in every town in America. W. Madill, druggist, sells it in Peterborough, for 50 cents a bottle, and he guarantees it to grow beautiful, luxuriant hair; to turn dull, lifeless hair into lustrous hair; to stop falling hair; to stop itching of the scalp. Understand W. Madill will give you your money back if it fails.

SOMETHING ABOUT THE COMEDY ALL THE COMFORTS OF HOME

"'All the Comforts of Home,' as the title of the play suggests, is about ninety per cent of laughing gas, and, to use the words of Mr. W. Winter, the veteran critic of the New-York Tribune, "it is a perfect antidote to melancholy." With the possible exception of "Charley's Aunt," it has been the most popular comedy of Modern times and those who go to see it on the 3rd and 4th of November will not be disappointed. Mr. Wm. Gillette, the eminent actor and playwright, who is playing at the Princess in Toronto at present, is the author of this delightful four-act comedy, and Burns Mantle, the dramatic critic of the Chicago Tribune, has said "If Mr. Gillette had never written anything but "All Comforts of Home," it would have been enough to make him famous."

Although the situations and lines are intensely humorous, and the climaxes irresistibly funny, there is not a word in it that would bring a blush to the most modest cheek. The scene of the piece is laid in a private drawing room of a residence in one of the residential quarters of London, England, and one Pettibone, the owner of the house, has a young wife of whom he is very jealous, without cause, and in the midst of his heat and fury suddenly abruptly takes the entire family away on a three months' trip to Venice and other places, leaving his nephew, Alfred Hastings, a young doctor, who is always broke, to take charge of the house, during his absence. Pettibone gone, Alfred is man behind the gun and after rapturously surveying his new surroundings and looking at the keys to the wine cellar which his uncle has left him, calls in a partner Tom McDow, the funniest ever, and they both decide to turn the Pettibone mansion into a lodging house. A crude mode of rules and regulations is drawn up by Alfred in which a condition is exacted that children and dogs must keep off the grass and Tom McDow, a jack of all trades, puts a sign out in front of the house, announcing "Lodgings to Let," with a blazing footnote to the effect that lodgers will have "All the Comforts of home." A lodging or boarding house in that locality is surely a new thing, and in a very brief space, the house is full of all sorts and conditions of men and women; country town folk, mad musicians, opera singers, English dudes and dead beats, dope fiends, men with minds and and men without minds.

All sorts of complications arise and the fun at once becomes fast and furious. Old Bender falls in love with the opera singer; Alfred falls in love with Bender's daughter. Tom has his troubles with the mad musician and the dope fiend up-stairs. Mrs. Bender is on the war path, the officers of the law come in to arrest Langhorne and the queer entanglements that follow are just the funniest ever seen amid the glare of the footlights. Things are going from bad to worse when the Pettibones return home. What happens after that is too funny to tell. You'll have to come and see it in the Grand Opera House, Peterborough, on November 3rd and 4th.

Following are the principals forming the cast: Messrs. Chas. Barber, Geo. Lynch, Irving Beers, Mort Johnston, A. C. Yokome, F. D. Craig, D. B. McRae, W. G. Ferguson, Claude Brady, and C. G. Graham.

Ladies, Misses L. L. Hallihan, Nellie Hallihan, Pearl Morgan, Nell Graham, Mona O'Shea, Agnes Pentland and Mrs. J. N. Barber.

The play will be staged under the direction of Irving Beers, who put it on with marked success in all the western cities of Canada and the United States.

TWENTY DAYS' SHOE SALE

We Are After The Shoe Trade

—WE'RE GETTING IT—

Every inch of ground has been gone over thoroughly in the shoe trade. We have found out what the people demand. We have it. Not a stone has been left unturned to make this New Shoe Department the best in the city. To do this we want the trade and have been getting it. Every week shows an increase in sales, that is most encouraging to us and goes to prove that "Shoes sold at Dry Goods Prices" are bound to bring trade. We want to still further the popularity of our two departments [Men's and Women's Shoes] and to do so we announce here, the greatest sale of shoes in many years. Every pair of Men's, Women's and Children's Footwear in the store will be cut in price for the next twenty days. All our guaranteed price labelled shoes meet the cutting knife. An honest legitimate turn over of our large stock will take place and you are the one to reap the benefit. Watch our windows. Watch our Ads.

WILL RUN TO LAKES

Expected That Deer will do This When Pursued by Dogs

It is expected that there will be good deer hunting in the vicinity of Stony Lake this autumn. Those who are familiar with the habits of the deer figure it out this way: The unusually dry season has resulted in the swamps and marshes being dried up. It is therefore concluded that when the dogs are turned loose the deer cannot escape them by fleeing into the wet places, for wet places are mighty scarce. It is figured out that the hunted animals will make their way to the lakes and get away from the dogs in the water. For these reasons it is expected that the deer will be plentiful around the shores of the lakes.

SUFFERED TORTURES FOR 70 YEARS

Wife of a Prominent Physician Tells How She Was Cured.

Mrs. J. R. Flock is the widow of one of the best known physicians in London, Ontario. She was treated by her husband and many other medical men yet never received any lasting benefit. Just by accident, she tried a well-known remedy, and now, after 70 years of suffering, she is well. Read her letter to Fruit-a-tives Limited.

"Dear Sirs,—Since my early childhood (and I am now in my seventy-third year) I have suffered indescribable torment from stomach trouble and indigestion, complicated with liver disorders. Being the wife of a prominent physician (the late Dr. J. R. Flock), I, naturally enough, had a prejudice against proprietary remedies. I was, however, unable to benefit to any great extent through my lifetime, from taking the ordinary remedies of physicians, being constantly in delicate health from stomach disorder and vomiting. Accidentally I came into possession of a sample of "Fruit-a-tives"—tried them, and found myself wonderfully benefitted. I take them now as my only medicine and they are keeping me in the most satisfactory health.

After finding out the wonderful medicinal qualities of "Fruit-a-tives" I have recommended them to many of my friends and acquaintances, who have also had the best results from their use—and one lady friend that I have recently recommended them to, has used them for Sciatica, from which she suffered constantly and was unable to procure any remedy that would relieve her. She is now taking "Fruit-a-tives" and is cured.

I am glad to be able to recommend "Fruit-a-tives" and will be glad if you will use my name in any way that will be the means of bringing your remedy before the public."

IN INTERESTS OF TEMPERANCE

Two Big Mass Meetings Will be Held To-morrow in Opera House

The mass meetings arranged by the Temperance and Moral Reform League of this city, to be held in the Opera House to-morrow afternoon and evening will commend public attention as everything has been done to secure the ablest talent to make the gatherings inspiring and helpful as well as educative. In the afternoon at 4.15 the Salvation Army Band will discourse sacred music, a chorus choir under the direction of Mr. W. J. McCann, assisted by Mr. J. C. Miller as cornetist, will greatly increase the interest in the musical service, and Mr. Gordon Wright will sing.

The addresses will all be as forceful, interesting and attractive as all the speakers, Mrs. Owen Hitchcox and Rev. James Lynch and Rev. B. H. Spence are well known for their powers as platform speakers.

In the evening at 8.30 Mrs. Percy Mulhern will sing and Mr. Spence, of Toronto, will give the address, illustrated by stereoptican views of a most interesting nature, presented by Mr. Dyer, of Toronto. A collection will be taken at both meetings to defray expenses.

Don't forget the Dressmaking class at the Y.W.C.A. to-night —Bring your own sewing. Ten cents a lesson.

OPENING MEETING

Of the Ladies Literary Society—Rev. Dr. O'Brien Gave Address

The first regular meeting of the Ladies' Literary Society of St. Peter's T.A.S., was held last night in the Society's Assembly Hall, and a large and interested audience was present. Miss Fanny Holmes occupied the chair and presented the following programme:

Instrumental duet, Miss H. Pearce and Miss M. Gorman.

Vocal solo, Mr. Jos. Mercier.

Recitation, Miss Carrie White.

Address, Rev. Dr. O'Brien.

Recitation, Miss Maggie Derocher.

Instrumental duet, Misses K. O'Brien and B. Giroux.

God Save the King.

The feature of the evening was Rev. Dr. O'Brien's address. He reviewed briefly the different departments to St. Peter's T.A.S., and their growth since the Society's organization and expressed his satisfaction and approval of the intense interest taken in this particular department, of the Literary Society. It reflected great credit not only upon those who took part, but also upon those who manifested a responsive spirit towards the efforts of the Literary Society.

The aims of the Society were manifold, and the result which it tried to bring about were directly connected with the home. One aim was an educational one and the speaker took up two subjects bearing upon the broad question of education, one was reading and the other was the correct use of the English language. Under the first heading he urged the members to read good literature, to be choice in their selection of books, and when they read, to have some definite aim in view which they wished to acquire. He advised them not to read merely to pass away the time and pointed out the influence which light literature had upon the home. The reading of such literature was a loss of time and consequently an abuse of one of God's greatest gifts. One of the benefits to be derived from reading good literature was a knowledge of good English, and Rev. Dr. O'Brien pointed out the prevalency now-a-days among even educated classes to use slovenly English. The language used by anyone was a very fair index to his education and he urged the members to use every precaution to preserve a thoroughly choice standard of speech.

The speaker concluded by wishing the Literary Society every success, and said the thought the interest which has been manifested every year in this connection and the very fact that the Society was just beginning its ninth year, spoke volumes for their efforts in behalf of literature.

The next literary meeting will be held on Friday evening, October 30th, when a paper will be read by Miss Aileen Coughlin.

TELLS US HOW TO MAKE MIXTURE

Splendid Remedy for Stomach and Kidneys and Rheumatirm

"The people here do not drink enough water to keep healthy," exclaimed a well known authority. "The numerous cases of kidney and bladder diseases and rheumatism are mainly due to the fact that the drinking of water, nature's greatest medicine has been neglected.

Stop loading your system with medicines and cure-alls; but get on the water wagon. If you are really sick why, of course, take the proper medicines—plain common vegetable treatment, which will not shatter the nerves or ruin the stomach."

To cure rheumatism you must make the kidneys do their work; they are the filters of the blood. They must be made to strain out of the blood the waste matter and acids that cause rheumatism; the urine must be neutralized so it will no longer be a source of irritation to the bladder and, most of all, you must keep these acids from forming in the stomach. This is the cause of stomach trouble and poor digestion. For these conditions you can do no better than take the following prescription; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Mix by shaking well in bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime but don't forget the water. Drink plenty and often.

This valuable information and simple prescription should be posted up in each household and used at the first sign of an attack of rheumatism, backache, or urinary trouble, no matter how slight.

OUR NEW MINISTER

The average actor requires from fifteen minutes to half an hour to transform himself into a character of any great contrast from his own personality. Joseph Jefferson could make up for Rip in fifteen minutes, Joe Emmett used to take half an hour to give us the merry, beaming face of Fritz. Some of Irving's characterizations were paintings that often took him an hour. Joseph Conyers, whose town constable in "Our New Minister," has won international fame for its keen grip upon its audiences as a lifelike portrait of a certain type of countryman, is said to be a full hour on the job of transforming his own smart-looking face to that of the sly, crafty zealot whose vanity and bumptiousness have made the constable role one of the most talked of parts of recent characterization. "Our New Minister," is slated for presentation here on Thursday next, this being the first time in Peterborough of this famous comedy.

SATURDAY IS HALL'S BARGAIN DAY!

What constitutes a REAL BARGAIN? Not merely a reduced price. A real bargain—our kind of a bargain—is an article or piece of merchandise—seasonable, desirable and useful—PRICED MUCH BELOW THIS OR ANY OTHER STORE'S REGULAR PRICE—AND AT THE TIME YOU NEED IT MOST. We exercise great care and precision in selecting offerings for Saturday's under-price selling. We keep up to our idea of a bargain—we practice what we preach. If you want real bargains—bargains of usefulness, seasonableness and savings—our brand of bargains—COME TO OUR SATURDAY BARGAIN SALE. Not much profit in these values for us. But they will bring you here—benefit you—win your confidence. That, and the satisfaction of doing better than other stores, is enough for us. Read on—

EARL GREY MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC COMPETITION

1. The third annual competition for the trophies offered by his Excellency the Governor-General, will take place at his Majesty's Theatre, Montreal, during the week commencing April 19th, 1909.

2. The competition is open to all amateur companies in Canada and Newfoundland. The Executive Committee, however, reserve the right to reduce the number of entries from any one city or province in case the total number of entries exceeds the number which can be conveniently accommodated during the week of the competition.

3. All entries must be filed with the Honorary Secretary on or before April 1st, but it is especially desired (1) that all companies intending to compete should notify the honorary secretary at the earliest possible moment, and (2) that no entry should be made until the company is reasonably certain of being able to compete. Serious embarrassment heretofore has been caused by companies dropping out at the last moment.

4. Each company must state for which trophy it desires to compete, and comply with the rules applicable thereto.

5. Miss Margaret Anglin, the well-known Canadian actress, has generously offered a bracelet to the lady who, in the opinion of the judge, is the best actress taking part in the competition.

6. The length of each entertainment shall not be less than one hour and not more than one hour and a half, including all intervals for changes of scenery, encores, etc., etc.

7. The character of the entertainment, musical or theatrical, shall be subject to the approval of the executive committee.

8. The maximum number of performers in each musical or dramatic company shall be limited to 100. In the case of a dramatic production, the minimum number of speaking parts shall be 6.

9. Each company entering the Dramatic Competition shall comply with the following conditions:

No person who has within the past five years lived by the profession of the drama is eligible. It is not intended to exclude players who, while the drama is not their main calling, have accepted nominal pay from amateur dramatic associations. The stage manager only may be a professional.

10. Each company entering the musical competition shall comply with the following conditions;

Companies of from 25 to 50 members inclusive, may include 4 professional singers or 8 professional instrumentalists, or both in the same proportion and companies of from 60 to 100 members, 10 per cent professional singers or 20 per cent. instrumentalists, or both in the same proportion, provided these professionals are bona fide members of the organization entered for the competition, and are not paid for their services in the competition performances or the rehearsals therefor. Companies under 25 must not have any professionals.

(a) Any person who has within the last five years lived by the profession of music, or been paid for services as soloist at concerts is to be classed as professionals.

(b) Musicians who, while music is not their main calling, have accepted nominal pay from church choirs or amateur musical organizations, may be classed as amateurs.

Orchestras, bands and choirs which, as such, have been paid at any time for performances, either private or public, shall be excluded.

Conductors, so long as they are the regular conductors of the organization entered, may be either professional or amateur, and be paid for their services.

Choirs or opera companies may have either professional or amateur orchestras as accompaniment, but if the former, the orchestral work shall not count in the scores except for general effect.

The choral or instrumental programme, subject to rule 7, shall be left to the choice of the competing organizations, but it is suggested that choirs should choose some choral work, or part of one.

The Executive Committee will, however, select one short piece of music for choirs, for male, female, or mixed bodies, and another for instrumental organizations, string or brass, which shall be included in the programme. The selection will be made in ample time for the necessary rehearsals.

11. The following are the principal qualities by which the dramatic competition will be judged:—

1. Excellence of the company in acting together as a unit.
2. Grace or ease of carriage and manner.
3. Diction.
4. The promptness of entrances, exits, and the picking up of cues.
5. Dress.
6. Make-up.

THE CITY AND VICINITY

Interesting Sermons

At George street Methodist church to-morrow night, Rev. E. A. Pearson will preach on the subject of: "Is Death the end of Life?" This will be followed on the following Sunday night by a sermon on the subject of "Is Death the end of Life's Associations?" These will no doubt be very interesting and large congregations will hear them.

Skipped From Lindsay

A family who reside in the east ward made their exit from town the other night in a suspicious way. The household effects were removed in the dead of night, and next morning the house was as "bare as a bone," and sundry creditors are sorely put out over the family migration. The house and lot, it is said, were owned by the man who with his family, did the "skidoo act." but their value will not go very far to pay his indebtedness.—Lindsay Warder.

Fire broke out in the Richards soap works at Woodstock but was promptly extinguished.

William Brown of Beverly, had his horse and buggy stolen while he was at Rockton fair.

Horses Ran Away

The Snowden House 'bus horses made a fast run from the G.T.R. station to their stables last evening. The animals became frightened at something and started off at a fast rate. The way they travelled was by no means slow. However, they stopped when they reached the stables and no damage was done.

ST. JOHN'S

Special services tomorrow, St Luke's Day. Special intercessions will be offered at the 8.30 am, service on behalf of Sunday school work and scholars. Teachers are asked to be present. At 11 am, special intercession for Sunday schools sermon will be preached by Rev. F. J. Lynch, MA. of Toronto.

The two new Bible classes will meet at 3 pm, for men or boys in the upper vestry and for men and women in the church when the first of series of instructions will be given by Rev. Canon Davidson.

At 7 pm, in connection with the festival of St. Paul 'the beloved physician,' Rev. Canon Davidson will preach a special sermon on "Religion and Health," announcing the conclusions reached by the recent Lambeth Conference of Bishops in regard to this subject after thorough investigation.

The tournament will be continued Monday night. There will be great excitement before the winning team is decided.

SOUTH CITY ATHLETIC CLUB ALREADY HAS MANY MEMBERS

The South City Athletic Club, which was recently organized, has got away to a good start. A meeting was held last night in the old Park street Baptist church, and some thirty members joined and are anxious to get into the various branches of sport. The club has some excellent material and will be heard from in the very near future.

As soon as the new church is ready the old church will be handed over to the club and it will be fitted up with a gymnasium, dressing room, reading room, etc.

It has been decided to use the exhibition grounds for training for track and distance running, permission to do so having been secured from the Driving Club officials.

The new club will be represented by three or four good men in the Examiner road race, and will also have a hockey team this winter.

TAKING NOTICE IN HAMILTON; HURTUBISE AND UNKNOWN

The Hamilton Herald says; — The wrestling match at Armory Hall to-morrow night is causing all kinds excitement among lovers of the game, not only in this city, but in other places. Billy Carroll received a telegram from Ottawa last night asking to have 25 seats reserved, which means that the Ottawa team will likely witness the match and see the ex-rugby player in action. Hurtubise will be accompanied by a delegation of Peterborough friends, who will back their man freely, so that if Conkle can produce a winner in this unknown he will be able to get a snug sum of money. The Tiger football club will attend the match in a body, which means that it will be a regular rugby night at the big hall.

As a preliminary Billy Smith and Nat Twynham will box six rounds. The last time the pair met they put up a rattling good bout for four rounds when Smith began to show his lack of condition, and refused to continue. He has been training faithfully since then, however, and thinks that with the longer route to-morrow night he will be able to set himself right with the people who accused him of being a quitter the last time.

The preliminary, which promises to be almost as interesting as the main bout, will start at 8.30, and Hurtubise and Conklo's unknown will go on at 9 o'clock. The reserved seat plan opened at Billy Carroll's this morning, and there was a great demand for seats.

Hurtubise will arrive in the city in the morning with his manager, Chris. Graham, and will be a guest of the Hamilton football club at the big game to-morrow afternoon. Conkle will also have his man at the big game.

Gene and his manager, Chris. Graham, went to Hamilton this morning. Returns of the match will be announced to-night at the Oriental.

METHODISTS WON ANOTHER GAME

Defeated Their Presbyterian Opponents at Lawn Bowling Yesterday

The Methodists again had it pretty much their own way when they defeated the Presbyterians yesterday afternoon in a lawn bowling game on the Brock street green. This makes four out of five games that the Methodists have won from their denominational opponents this year.

The result was as given below;

PRESBYTERIANS	METHODISTS
J. A. McKone	D. Belleghem.
D. H. Moore	R. J. Soden
Wm. Laing	T. E. Pratt
Rev. R. Pogue—12	Rev. E.A. Pearson—21

AS THE PINS FELL LAST NIGHT

Some Incidents of the Bowling Tournament

In all just 12,817 pins were knocked down the first night of the tournament. The highest number of pins toppled over by any one team was 2,363, which fell to the credit of Hemstead's United.

Billy Wareham carried off the honors for high single with a score of 222. Billy was also about tied with Lillie for second high average, in three games. McIlroy carrying off this honor with a total of 574 pins, an average per game of 191, a splendid performance indeed.

They did not win their games, but nevertheless McCarroll's and Baker's teams deserve great credit for the showing they made on strange alleys.

Ernie Bruce furnished a surprise. He has been bowling only a few weeks yet was easily the best of the Colts. He had an average of 160 for three games, his high score being 171.

Lillie was called upon at the last moment to fill a vacancy in the Uniteds and he contributed materially to their victory.

Wally Parnell had nice scores in his first and last games, but unfortunately his whole team ran into a series of unlucky strikes in their second game and everybody fell off, including Wally, who easily shapes up as one of the best bowlers in the city.

Despite lack of practice the Richea brothers made a most creditable showing in their games with Geo. Cairns' five.

It was that fatal second game that beat Sam Baker and his game quartette. Charlie Nixon was to have filled out the team and had he put in an appearance the result might easily have been reversed.

The second series will probably start on Monday night and the bowlers interested are asked to attend the alleys to-day and make final arrangements.

"Keep still, Jack. I'll take your picture."

Ethel Deane pointed her camera at her brother, there was a click, and, with an "All right," she wound off the film.

"I'll send you a post card as soon as it's developed," she added. "I'm sorry that I didn't take one of you when you came. You'd make a great 'before and after' picture for the hotel advertisements. I declare Agnes won't know you when you get back, you've grown so stout and handsome."

Her big brother smiled at the compliment, and Ethel clicked the camera again.

"That will make a good advertisement for a dentist," she commented. "I wish I could smile like that."

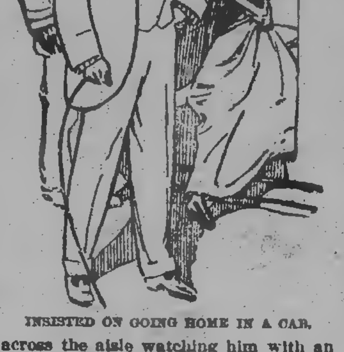
"You could," insinuated her brother, "if you were as happy as I am."

"Back to home and Agnes!" scoffed Ethel. "Here comes your train, Jack. I'm sorry you have to go. This little vacation has done you a world of good."

Deane kissed his sister goodby and swung on to the train, glad to get out of the press of the station platform and into the comfortable wicker chair in the Pullman smoker. He was sorry his vacation was over. He had worked hard for two years and needed the rest. He was going back to Agnes Weston, and a tender smile played about his lips as he drew a tiny leather case from his pocket and glanced at the picture within. It was one of Ethel's snapshots, but the girl was clever with the camera, and she had caught more of the personality of her subject than a professional could have done.

"It will only be a few days now, little woman," Jack whispered to the photograph. "I'll be in town tomorrow, and Sunday week you'll be there too. It's some comfort even to be nearer to you."

He slipped the case back in his pocket and reddened as he saw a man across the aisle watching him with an amused smile. The man's lips were puckered, and above the roar and rattle of the train Jack caught the shrill notes of "The Girl I Left Behind."



INSISTED ON GOING HOME IN A CAB.

He smiled at the man's mistake, for Ethel's kiss had been most fervent. The stranger, however, could not know that she was only his sister and that the train was bringing him nearer to the girl whose photograph was in the case.

There was no formal engagement between Jack and Agnes Weston, but an understanding existed that when his salary was increased there would be an announcement. The raise had come in the shape of promotion while he was on vacation. A letter had told him that on his return he would sit at the superintendent's desk. He wanted to start back at once and tell Agnes of his good fortune, but he had sacrificed his vacation last year in his struggle for advancement, and he needed the rest. Agnes had gone to visit relatives in a distant resort, and Ethel wisely persuaded him to stay.

Now he was on his way to town, and in another week Agnes would join him. He could then put the question, to which the answer seemed assured.

It was a trying week. Had it not been that Jack was busy getting the angles of his new position he would have jumped on a train and headed for the west, as no letter had come from Agnes during the latter part of the week. He telephoned her mother to learn the time of her expected arrival.

Jack was at the station when the train rolled in, but the greeting chilled him. In place of the sunny smile the girl was coldly formal. She addressed him as "Mr. Deane" and insisted upon going home alone in a cab.

Deane was in despair. He could not argue with her in the station, and not until after dinner did he go to the house for an interview.

The explanation was simple in the extreme. Agnes declared that she no longer loved him; that she was glad she had discovered his true character before it was too late. More than that she would not say. After a brief half hour Jack gave up and left the house to pace the streets and dumbly wonder what had happened to make so great a change in his life.

Perhaps when Ethel returned she might be able to find out. It was obvious that Jack could offer no explanation when he was not conscious of having given offense, and it was with leaden feet that he sought his home and tumbled into bed to toss until dawn.

Haggard and hollow eyed, he rose for breakfast and made a pretense of going through the meal. He was idly sipping his coffee when the maid handed him a thick letter from Ethel.

There was the promised post card, with the crowd as a background. There was also another card showing him looking down with a tender smile into the eyes of a girl whose ardent glance was even more fervid than his own.

The girl was an entire stranger to him, and Jack wondered by what trick of photography Ethel had brought about the result. He knew how she delighted in performing the seemingly impossible. He turned to the letter for explanation.

"Dear Jack," he read, "do you remember that I promised to get even with you for playing that joke on Ben Drummond and me? I guess I've done it. I am inclosing one of the postals I promised. That silly little Bedford girl was standing right behind you when you smiled that silly smile because I told you how handsome you were. From the angle at which I stood it looked as though you were smiling at her and she was making moon eyes at you instead of Dick Odell. Dick is just off the edge of the film. I sent one of these to Agnes on Monday, and, unless I am very much mistaken, you did not enjoy your Sunday. Let this be a lesson to you not to play tricks on your effectionate sister. P. S.—I am sending this same explanation to Agnes."

In an unlucky moment Jack had rendered Ethel and her latest adorer ridiculous. Ethel had sworn to be revenged, but Jack had paid little attention to the threats. Now he could understand what Agnes meant when she said she knew him for what he really was.

He hurried from the house to the telephone station and called up Agnes Weston.

"This is Jack," he explained over the wire. "Did you get a letter from Ethel?"

"I might have known that it was one of Ethel's jokes," came the response.

"And is it all right? May I come around tonight?"

"As long as that?" came in tender tones. "Why can't I meet you and have lunch with you at that little place where you take me. There's a jeweler right around the corner."

The telephone girl laughed at the fervent "darling," which was all the answer Agnes needed. Telephone girls are used to such things, but the telegrapher laughed loudly as he took Jack's message to Ethel from the wire.

"Agnes will marry me despite your camera. You can photograph the wedding, but try to get the proper angle or you'd have me married to some one else."

"I did have the proper angle," exclaimed Ethel to Ben Drummond.

"Same here," assented Drummond as he tilted the piquant face to the proper angle of forty-five degrees. "Let's wire him that we'll have a double wedding."

Ethel could not be expected to reply with Drummond's lips against hers, but her assent was not necessary. They had arranged all that beforehand.

Asbestus Mining.

Asbestus, popularly known as "mineral wool," is a compound of silica, lime, magnesia and oxide of iron and is probably the most curious natural product in existence. Being composed of fine fibers, it can be spun and woven into cloth, indestructible by fire, which renders it invaluable in many of the arts.

Mining is carried on by cutting down the hills of asbestus bearing serpentine, much as a farmer cuts down a stack of hay or straw, or by open quarrying on the level.

The rock is blasted out, and the asbestus, separated from the containing rock, is "cobbed"—that is, separated by hammering from inferior foreign matter. The cobbing is comparatively easy in the case of the finer quality, as it usually separates readily from the other minerals which the ore contains, but in the lower grades much difficulty is experienced in separating the fibrous matter from the nonfibrous.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

To the Grand Work Dodd's Kidney Pills are Doing

Fishermen Regard Them as a Boon to Mankind—Mr Frank Banfield Tells How They Cured His Backache.

Garnish, Fortune Bay, Nfld., Oct. 16. (Special) — Among the fishermen here, who through exposure to wet and cold, are subject to those pains and aches which come from diseased Kidneys, Dodd's Kidney Pills are looked upon as a positive boon to mankind. They are never tired of telling how their Backaches and their rheumatism vanish before the great Kidney Remedy.

Among many others Mr. Frank Banfield after years of suffering has found relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills, and here is what he tells his friends:

"I find Dodd's Kidney Pills the best medicine for Backache I have ever used. I only used two boxes and they cured me of Backache I had had five years. It started through a strain. My father's back also bothered him, and he got some relief from one pill I gave him. They were too precious to give him more. All persons suffering from Backache should use Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Why do Dodd's Kidney Pills cure Backache? Simply because Backache is Kidney ache and Dodd's Kidney Pills positively cure all Kidney aches and ills. This has been proved in thousands of cases in Canada. If you haven't used them yourself ask your neighbours.

WALKING

In the walking match from Bowmanville to Oshawa Saturday afternoon, E. G. W. Bell and H. Walbarger redeemed themselves from the previous sprint to Newcastle by covering the distance in the fast time of 1 hour and 59 minutes. It might be mentioned that the winners were paced more than half of the way by a pony and cart occupied by two of the fair sex and a basket of apples staring them in the face. With this explanation we are not surprised at the good time made. A. R. Cameron and H. W. Harpen "also ran" but at time of going to press they were undecided as to the time.—Bowmanville News.

HOW RAKE-OFFS SWELL THE EXPENSES OF THE DOMINION

A Few Sample Transactions Showing How the Government Favors the Middleman in all Branches of Public Service.

Total expenditure.—1896, $41,702,383; 1906, $83,277,641, 1907-8, $110,500,000.

This would be an enormous increase of expenditure if every dollar of it was paid for actual service performed. But it is not so expended. A large proportion goes to the middleman. The great spending departments have a strong aversion to dealing at first hand with the regular trade. Each has its group of intermediaries, who obtain their rake-off from the business done by the Government. Some of these transactions have been exposed during recent sessions. Inquiry into others has been headed off by obstructive tactics and extraordinary rulings of the Government majority. The following are among the examples that have been brought to light in the shape of these difficulties.

THE MONCTON LAND DEALS.

In 1904, Mr. Moncton Lodge of Moncton, N.B., an active campaigner for Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Minister of Railways, and closely associated with him in business, visited the Minister at Ottawa, and told him that certain properties at Moncton could be purchased for the Intercolonial Railway. Mr. Emmerson communicated with the Intercolonial General Manager on the subject, and Mr. Lodge engaged an agent to secure options on certain lots. These Mr. Lodge bought, and within 25 days after his purchase transferred them to the Railway Department at a profit of 167 per cent. above all expenses. The Government could have employed the same agent, and bought the properties at the same price that Lodge paid, thus saving the people $8,500 on a purchase of $13,800. Following is a statement of the price paid by Lodge and by the Government for each of these four lots:

(Public Accounts Committee, 1906.)

	Price paid by Lodge	Price paid by Government	Rake-off.
No. 1...	...$3,050	$6,300	$3,250
No. 2...	... 925	3,300	2,375
No. 3...	... 1,000	3,930	2,930
No. 4...	... 100	350	250
Total	...$5,075	$13,880	$8,805

In the next year this department required more land at Moncton, and again Lodge knew beforehand exactly what was needed, and through the same agent bought the property from the original holders and sold it to the Government. This deal worked out as follows:

Lodge paid for land and expenses, $8,300.

Government paid for land $10,490 plus expenses.

Rake-off for Lodge, $2,190.—Report Public Accounts Committee, 1907, page 89.

THE HALIFAX LAND DEAL.

Increased accommodation was required at Halifax for a round house and shops for the Intercolonial. The middleman in this case was Hon. B. F. Pearson, M.P.P., a member of the Nova Scotia Administration, and proprietor of the Halifax Chronicle and St. John Sun, government organs in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. Associated with Mr. Pearson was Mr. Henderson, owner of one lot of the land required and in a convenient position to purchase the rest. In January, 1905, the Deputy Minister of Railways, with the General Manager of the Intercolonial and other officers, visited the spot selected, and on the 9th of March the Deputy wrote to the Minister recommending the purchase of certain lots at the earliest possible moment. He also advised that "it should not be known that the railway is desirous of securing this property until the purchase is closed."

But, strange to say, at the time of the Deputy's recommendation, Mr. Pearson and his partner were obtaining options on the identical lots required, and by the 6th of April they completed the purchase.

The Government then went through the form of valuation, appointing a relative of the Minister for that purpose. Though this valuator went on the properties within a week after Mr. Pearson and his partner had purchased them, he made no inquiry as to transfers or prices paid, but fixed the value on an average 144 per cent. higher than the price for which the lots had been sold in the open market six days before his arrival. The Government purchased on this basis, with the result that Mr. Pearson and his friend made $26,812 clear profit on an investment of $18,588. In fact they did not invest quite $4,000, as they did not pay the other $14,000 until after they had sold the land to the the Government.

LOVE LAUGHS AT THE PRETENDER

Don Carlos of Spain Searches Europe in Vain for Daughter He Could Marry to Royal Prince

Rome, Oct. 15.—Divining that her father, Don Carlos, the Spanish pretender, had written asking her to return to Rome immediately, the Princess Claire, of Bourbon, lodged out of Bellinzona, Switzerland, and it is believed that she sailed or is about to sail for America with her Italian wooer, Count Folchi.

For more than a week the Pretender has had agents seeking his daughter, but without avail. He finally, through accident, traced her to Switzerland, where the daughter again successfully threw her father off her trail. As a last hope the much worried Pretender has sought the aid of publicity.

Determined to make the comparatively unimportant Count Folchi her husband, the Princess once before fled with him to Zurich, but was persuaded by her family, who seek a royal alliance, to return to Rome.

The Princess entered Bellizona incognita. The conclusion that she has arranged to meet the count and that the United States is to be their hymenal have is based on the remark she made before leaving Italy. It is generally known that they planned to marry in the United States.

INSPECTED THE OZONE PLANT

the Water Commissioners, Peterborough, along with Superintendent W. Henderson, of the Peterborough waterworks system, were in town today and inspected the new ozone filtration plant, which is almost completed

Mr. J. Howard Bridge, who is installing the plant, turned the water into the new filter and the sterilizer for the benefit of the visitors. The sterilizer worked like a charm, with the exception of a few leaks in the pipes. The filter was flushed out and it is probable that the water will be turned into the mains in a few days after some minor cement work has been done.

Mr. Matthews expressed himself as gratified to see the sterilizer work so perfectly from the outset, as generally there is trouble when first used. The visitor is an old Lindsay boy.—Lindsay Warder.

DREDGE EMMERSON HAS BROKEN DOWN

The Government tug Empire, in charge of Captain Welsh, arrived in port yesterday. The dredge R. H. Emmerson has broken down at Fenelon Falls, and the tug brought some repairs to the Madison Williams foundry. It is expected that the dredge will be in running order the beginning of the week.—Lindsay Post.

Read the following letters and be convinced of the efficiency of this truly wonderful remedy:

MERLIN, ONT., March 27th, 1902

MRS. S. F. CURRAH, WINDSOR, ONT.:

Dear Mrs. Currah,—Your letter of the 24th received to-day. Please find enclosed $5.00 for 6 boxes of Orange Lily. I would not think of discontinuing its use, as I know that 6 more boxes will produce a permanent cure. Even now I am an entirely new creature since using O. L. At present I know of two other cases the same as mine, (long standing leucorrhoea), and as you give sample trial boxes free, if you would send me a few I would gladly hand them to my friends, for I know it will produce the same good results in every case. I intend sending you my photo and testimonial letter later, for I feel we cannot say too much in favor of Orange Lily, and know if more of same was used among suffering womankind the surgeon's knife would be cheated of its many baptisms in the blood of suffering women. Hoping God may ever bless and prosper you and Dr. Coonley in your noble work, believe me, ever your sincere friend, MISS R. McK., Merlin P.O., Kent Co., Ont.

KINGSTON, ONT., July 15th, 1903

DEAR FRIEND,—Some time ago I wrote and told you the great good your wonderful medicine had done for me. Since then I have continued to use it, and after five years of terrible suffering and undergoing three operations, I am completely cured by Orange Lily, after using it for eight months. I cannot say too much in praise of it. Knowing as I do, that so many women in this city suffer as I did, and knowing what it did for me, I would like to take the Agency. Will you please send instructions and terms to Agents? Gratefully yours, MISS G. T., 359 Brock street.

Address, enclosing 3 cent stamps, for Free Sample, circulars and other testimonials.

THE MYSTERY

BY STEWART EDWARD WHITE and SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS

COPYRIGHTED 1907, BY McCLURE, PHILLIPS & CO.

To the worth of this story there are two substantial tributes—first, that it was run as a serial by the London Sphere, a publication noted for its discrimination in the selection of serials and which rarely uses an American story; second, that "The Mystery" was one of the "good sellers" of 1907. This is a story of mystery and adventure on new lines. The style is as graphic and forceful as the "copy" of a skillful reporter of an important news event. The part of the hero unfolds gradually until he stands revealed as the rarest combination of whimsical humor and cool courage ever presented, perhaps, in fiction. The narrative, which conveys the impression of reality, not fiction, is swift and alluring, holding the interest of the reader as with hooks of steel.

CHAPTER I.

THE late afternoon sky flaunted its splendor of blue and gold like a banner over the Pacific, across whose depths the trade wind droned in measured cadence. On the ocean's wide expanse a hulk wallowed sluggishly, the forgotten relict of a once brave and sightly ship, possibly the sphinx of some untold ocean tragedy, she lay black and forbidding in the ordered procession of waves. Half a mile to the east of the derelict hovered a ship's cutter, the turn of her crew's heads speaking expectancy. As far again beyond, the United States cruiser Wolverine outlined her severe and trim silhouette against the horizon. In all the spread of wave and sky no other thing was visible. For this was one of the desert parts of the Pacific, 300 miles north of the steamship route from Yokohama to Honolulu, 500 miles from the nearest land, Gardner island, and more than 700 northwest of the Hawaiian group.

On the cruiser's quarter deck the officers lined the starboard rail. Their interest was focused on the derelict.

"Looks like a heavy job," said Ives, one of the junior lieutenants. "These floaters that lie with deck almost awash will stand more hammering than a mud fort."

"Wish they'd let us put some six inch shells into her," said Billy Edwards, the ensign, a wistful expression on his big, round, cheerful face. "I'd like to see what they would do."

"Nothing but waste a few hundred dollars of your Uncle Sam's money," observed Carter, the officer of the deck. "It takes placed charges inside and out for that kind of work."

"Barnett is the man for her then," said Ives. "He's no economist when it comes to getting results. There she goes!"

Without any particular haste, as it seemed to the watchers, the hulk was shouldered out of the water as by some hidden leviathan. Its outlines melted into a black, outshowering mist, and from that mist leaped a giant. Up, up, he towered, tossed whirling arms a hundred feet abranch, shivered and dissolved into a widespread cataract. The water below was lashed into fury, in the midst of which a mighty death agony beat back the troubled waves of the trade wind. Only then did the muffled double boom of the explosion reach the ears of the spectators, presently to be followed by a whispering, swift skimming wavelet that swept irresistibly across the bigger surges and lapped the ship's side, as for a message that the work was done.

Here and there in the sea a glint of silver, a patch of purple or dull red or a glistening apparition of black showed where the unintended victims of the explosion, the gay hued open sea fish of the warm waters, had succumbed to the force of the shock. Of the intended victim there was no sign save a few fragments of wood bobbing in a swirl of water.

When Barnett, the ordnance officer in charge of the destruction, returned to the ship Carter complimented him.

"Good clean job, Barnett. She was a tough customer too."

"What was she?" asked Ives.

"The Caroline Lemp, three masted schooner. Any one know about her?"

Ives turned to the ship's surgeon, Trendon, a grizzled and brief spoken veteran, who had at his fingers' tips all the lore of all the waters under the reign of the moon.

"What does the information bureau of the seven seas know about it?"

"Lost three years ago—spring of 1901—got into ice field off the tip of the Aleutians. Some of the crew froze. Others got ashore. Part of survivors accounted for. Others not. Say they've turned native. Don't know myself."

"The Aleutians!" exclaimed Billy Edwards. "Great cats! What a drift! How many thousand miles would that be?"

"Not as far as many another derelict has wandered in her time, son," said Barnett.

The talk washed back and forth across the bulks of classic sea mysteries, new and old; of the City of Boston, which went down with all hands, leaving for record only a melancholy scrawl on a bit of board to meet the wondering eyes of a fisherman on the far Cornish coast; of the Great Queensland, which set out with 509 souls aboard, bound by a route unknown to a tragic end; of the Naronic, with her silent and empty lifeboats alone left, drifting about the open sea, to hint at the story of her fate; of the Huronian, which ten years later, on the same day and date and hailing from the same port as the Naronic, went out into the void, leaving no trace; of Newfoundland captains who sailed, roaring with drink, under the arches of cathedral bergs, only to be prisoned, buried and embalmed in the one icy embrace; of craft assailed by the terrible one stroke lightning clouds of the Indian ocean, found days after, stone blind, with their crews madly hauling at useless sheets, while the officers clawed the compass and shrieked; of burnings and piracies, of pest ships and slave ships and ships mad for want of water, of whelming earthquake waves and mysterious suctions, drawing irresistibly against wind and steam power upon unknown currents; of stout bulks deserted in panic, although sound and seaworthy, and of others so swiftly dragged down that there was no time for any to save himself, and of a hundred other strange, stirring and pitiful ventures such as make up the inevitable peril and incorrigible romance of the ocean. In a pause Billy Edwards said musingly:

"Well, there was the Laughing Lass."

"How did you happen to hit on her?" asked Barnett quickly.

"Why not, sir? It naturally came into my head. She was last seen somewhere about this part of the world, wasn't she?" After a moment's hesitation he added, "From something I heard ashore I judge we've a commission to keep a watch out for her as well as to destroy derelicts."

"What about the Laughing Lass?" asked McGuire, the paymaster, a New Englander, who had been in the service but a short time.

"Good Lord, don't you remember the Laughing Lass mystery and the disappearance of Dr. Schermerhorn?"

"Karl Augustus Schermerhorn, the man whose experiments to identify telepathy with the Marconi wireless waves made such a furore in the papers?"

"Oh, that was only a byproduct of his mind! He was an original investigator in every line of physics and chemistry, besides most of the natural sciences," said Barnett. "The government is particularly interested in him because of his contributions to aerial photography."

"And he was lost with the Laughing Lass?"

"Nobody knows," said Edwards. "He left San Francisco two years ago on a hundred foot schooner with an assistant, a big brass bound chest and a ragamuffin crew. A newspaper man named Slade, who dropped out of the world about the same time, is supposed to have gone along too. Their schooner was last sighted about 450 miles northeast of Oahu in good shape and bound westward. That's all the record of her that there is."

"Was that Ralph Slade?" asked Barnett.

"Yes. He was a free lance writer and artist."

"I knew him well," said Barnett. "He was in our mess in the Philippine campaign on the North Dakota. War correspondent then. It's strange that I never identified him before with the Slade of the Laughing Lass."

"What was the object of the voyage?" asked Ives.

"They were supposed to be after buried treasure," said Barnett.

"I've always thought it more likely that Dr. Schermerhorn was on a scientific expedition," said Edwards. "I knew the old boy, and he wasn't the sort to care for treasure, buried or unburied."

"Every time a ship sets out from San Francisco without publishing to all the world just what her business is all the world thinks it's one of those wild goose hunts," observed Ives.

"Yes," agreed Barnett. "Flora and fauna of some unknown island would be much more in the Schermerhorn line of traffic. Not unlikely that some of the festive natives collected the unfortunate professor."

Various theories were advanced, withdrawn, refuted, defended, and the discussion carried them through the swift twilight into the darkness which had been hastened by a high spreading canopy of storm clouds. Abruptly from the crow's nest came startling news for those desolate seas: "Light, ho! Two points on the port bow!"

The lookout had given extra voice to it. It was plainly heard throughout the ship.

The group of officers stared in the direction indicated, but could see nothing. Presently Ives and Edwards, who were the keenest sighted, made out a faint, suffused radiance. At the same time came a second hail from the crow's nest.

"On deck, sir."

"Hello," responded Carter, the officer of the deck.

"There's a light here I can't make anything out of, sir."

"What's it like?"

"Sort of a queer general glow."

"General glow, indeed!" muttered Forsythe, among the group aft. "That fellow's got an imagination."

"Can't you describe it better than that?" called Carter.

"Don't make it out at all, sir. 'Tain't any regular and proper light. Looks like a lamp in a fog."

Among themselves the officers discussed it interestedly as it began to grow plainer.

"Not unlike the electric glow above a city seen from a distance," said Barnett as it grew plainer.

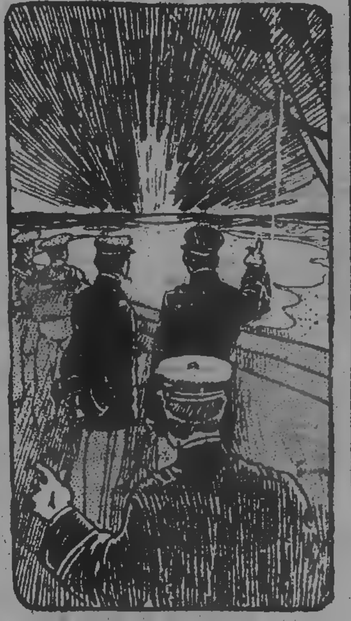
"Yes, but the nearest electric lighted city is some 800 miles away," objected Ives.

"Mirage, maybe," suggested Edwards.

"Pretty hard working mirage to cover that distance," said Ives. "Though I've seen 'em"—

"Great heavens! Look at that!" shouted Edwards.

A great shaft of pale brilliance shot up toward the zenith. Under it whirled a maelstrom of varied radiance, pale with distance, but marvelously beautiful. Forsythe passed them with a troubled face on his way below to report, as his relief went up.



A great shaft of pale brilliance shot up.

"The quartermaster reports the compass behaving queerly," he said.

Three minutes later the captain was on the bridge. The great ship had swung, and they were speeding direct for the phenomenon. But within a few minutes the light had died out.

"Another sea mystery to add to our list," said Billy Edwards. "Did any one ever see a show like that before? What do you think, Doc?"

"Humph!" grunted the veteran. "New to me. Volcanic, maybe."

CHAPTER II.

THE falling of dusk on June the 3d found tired eyes aboard the Wolverine. Every officer in her complement had kept a private and personal lookout all day for some explanation of the previous night's phenomenon. All that rewarded them were a sky filmed with lofty clouds and the holiday parade of the epauletted waves.

Nor did evening bring a repetition of that strange glow. Midnight found the late stayers still deep in the discussion.

"One thing is certain," said Ives; "it wasn't volcanic."

"Why so?" asked the paymaster.

"Because volcanoes are mostly stationary, and we headed due for that light."

"Yes, but did we keep headed?" said Barnett, who was navigating officer as well as ordnance officer, in a queer voice.

"What do you mean, sir?" asked Edwards eagerly.

"After the light disappeared the compass kept on varying. The stars were hidden. There is no telling just where we were headed for some time."

"Then we might be fifty miles from the spot we aimed at."

"Hardly that," said the navigator. "We could guide her to some extent by the direction of wind and waves. If it was volcanic we ought certainly to have sighted it by now."

"Always some electricity in volcanic eruptions," said Trendon. "Makes compass cut didoes. Seen it before."

"Where?" queried Carter.

"Off Martinique, Pelee eruption. Needle chased its tail like a kitten."

"Are there many volcanoes hereabouts?" somebody asked.

"We're in 162 west, 31 north, about," said Barnett. "No telling whether there are or not. There weren't at last accounts, but that's no evidence that there aren't some since. They come up in the night, these volcanic islands."

"Just cast an eye on the chart," said Billy Edwards. "Full of E. D.'s and P. D.'s all over the shop. Every one of 'em volcanic."

"E. D.'s and P. D.'s?" queried the paymaster.

"Existence doubtful and position doubtful," explained the ensign. "Every time the skipper of one of these wandering trade ships gets a speck in his eye he reports an island. If he really does bump into a rock he cuts in an arithmetic book for his latitude and longitude and lets it go at that. That's how the chart makers make a living, getting out new editions every few months."

"But it's a fact that these seas are constantly changing," said Barnett. "They're so little traveled that no one happens to be around to see an island born. I don't suppose there's a part on the earth's surface more liable to seismic disturbances than this region."

"Seismic!" cried Billy Edwards. "I should say it was seismic! Why, when a native of one of these island groups sets his heart on a particular loaf of bread up his breadfruit tree he doesn't bother to climb after it. Just waits for some earthquake to happen along and shake it down to him."

"Good boy, Billy!" said Dr. Trendon approvingly. "Do another."

Sir Douglas Straight has been editor of the Pall Mall Gazette for twelve years. It seems impossible to think of any editor remaining straight that long.

Evangelists are at work in Toronto. Perhaps the Globe editor may be converted.

Shot for a Moose, Mistaken for a Deer, are the head lines making their appearance again in the papers. An old man carrying a log on his shoulder was killed for a moose in New Brunswick. The Turkish custom of hari-kari should be adopted for men who mistake a moving log for a mouse—they should be compelled to shoot themselves. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondens

TO MR. McFARLANE.

To the Editor of The Review

Sir,—You are reported in the Examiner as saying that you think Mr. Stratton did no wrong with that $10,000. You are soliciting people to buy stock in a proposed Hamilton Co. business. We want to know if you are reported correctly in the Examiner and if that is your real idea of honest dealing.

Yours truly,
ELECTOR

THE CHARGE OF. MR. O'CONNELL.

Editor of the Review

Sir,—The following appears in the Examiner report of Mr. O'Connell's speech at the Opera House. Did Mr. Burnham defend Mr. Foster.

"He dwelt upon the position in which Hon. Geo. E. Foster who was presented by Mr. Burnham as the coming Finance Minister of the country, had placed himself by his method of handling trust funds of financial institutions and said that a common slanderer such as he had been proved to be had no right to challenge a man whose record for fidelity in every walk of life, business or public, was as well known to them as it was to the voters of West Peterborough.—Cheers."

CITIZEN

Mr Burnham has not mentioned Mr Foster's name on the platform since the campaign began, nor has he defended him. It is not likely Mr O'Connell ever said half what he is reported to have said.—Ed.

NORMAL PUPILS PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED

By Young People of St. Luke's Church Last Evening

The reception to the Normal school pupils and St. John's AYPA. given last evening by St. Luke's AYPA., passed off very successfully and a most enjoyable time was spent by all present. A very entertaining programme had been prepared by the social committee. After the guests of the evening had been received, an observation contest was held for which handsome prizes were given, Misses Ethel Packenham and Jackson, carrying off the honors.

The president of the Association, Mr Harry Potter, then took the chair and after a few introductory remarks the following interesting programme was rendered:

Selection, Mandolin Club.
Vocal duet, Mrs. Sward and Miss Lancaster
Instrumental solo, Mrs. K. Leary.
Recitation, Mr. J. Johns.
Vocal solo, Mr. J. Mercer.

Short addresses were made by Revs Dr Langfeldt and Canon Davidson, Dr Parks of the Normal school staff, and Mr G. R. Browning.

At the close refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was ended by the singing of the National Anthem

Don't forget the Dressmaking class at the Y.W.C.A. to-night—Bring your own sewing. Ten cents a lesson.

JOHN GRIFFITH IN "OTHELLO

Mr Griffith's reputation as one of the greatest of present day tragedians and his past splendid achievements in "Macbeth," "Richard III" and other Shakespearian plays in which he has acted, has engendered an eager desire on the part of the better class of play patrons to witness his performance of "Othello" His interpretation of the character of the Moor is said to display deep and intellectual thought and his development brings to the fore all the dramatic power that has always marked his past efforts.

Miss Edyth Totten is also reputed to give a remarkably pleasing portraiture of Desdemona, that most lovable of all of Shakespeare's feminine characters. Especial stress is given to the young actress' beautiful elocutionary reading of the lines; for it is this that gives to the character its sweetest charm. Miss Totten's natural beauty enables her also, to "look" the lovely young Venetian, whose naive simplicity and innocence so endears her to the hearts of sympathetic students of Shakespeare. It may be assumed that the entire supporting company associated with Mr Griffith and Miss Totten fully sustain the general excellence of the performance and that the scenic production of "Othello," will be fully adequate.

Mr. Griffith's comes to the Grand next Wednesday, October 21st, and no doubt will be greeted with a large audience.

FIRES IN NORTH

Two Bad Bush Fires at the Head of Stony Lake

Bush fires are still causing much damage at the head of Stony Lake. Two big fires are burning fiercely and some alarm is felt in the locality. Fortunately there are no houses in danger.

A gentleman who returned from the lakes yesterday informed the Review that there has not been enough rain to extinguish the fires completely. As a result of the long period of dryness they have flamed up again and are almost as bad as they were a month ago.

The residents of the district where the fires are burning are longing for rain.

LEADER BORDEN ISSUES MANIFESTO TO ELECTORS

Will Make it His Work to Give the People an Honest Government, Reform of Civil Service, Restitution of Spoils, and a Fiscal Policy.

Halifax, Oct. 19.—Mr. R. L. Borden has issued his manifesto which reads in part as follows:

"What is the aim of the Conservative policy?

"To give to the farmers and producers better facilities and more favorable rates for transportation.

"To keep our young men on the farm and to bring within their reach the comforts and conveniences of modern civilization, better postal facilities, free rural mail delivery, cheaper and wider use of the telegraph and telephone.

"For the laboring man such application of the principle of protection as will justify and insure the payment of a fair living wage and will safeguard his interests against unfair and unjust competition.

"For the fishermen better consideration of their interests and more favorable access to our own home markets.

"For all the people honest administration of our public revenues and honest expenditure of public moneys for public purposes alone; a thorough reform of our civil service; decent appointments to public offices; reformation of the election laws and thorough enforcement thereof; restitution to the people by all constitutional means of their pillaged public domain; thorough control of our public utilities; more careful selection of immigrants and exclusion of undesirables. Non-partisan management of our state-owned railway; a fiscal policy which will develop all our great resources, including those of the forest, the mine and the fisheries. The development and improvement of our national waterways; the equipment of our national ports; the promotion of preferential trade within the Empire; the unimpaired maintenance of provincial rights and liberties.

"When plunder of the public domain and of the public revenues has been charged and specific instances given Sir Wilfrid Laurier has replied in these words: "I disdain to discuss these issues; my soul is turned toward greater events and questions.'

"Is not honest administration the greatest issue of all? What are the greater events and questions toward which the Prime Minister's soul is turned? Was Alexander Mackenzie's soul less lofty because he esteemed it his first duty to protect Canada's treasury against plundering of camp followers?

"Surely the Prime Minister of Canada could not occupy himself with considerations of more transcendent importance than those which are concerned with the moral foundations upon which alone the permanency of democratic institutions can securely rest!

"I promise if returned to power a Cabinet worthy of the electors' highest ideals and truly representative of the great country which I shall serve."

THREE MEN SENTENCED TO PRISON AT NORTH BAY

North Bay, Ont., Oct. 19.—The high court, before Judge Britton, closed Saturday night, after a busy week with a long calendar of criminal and civil cases. Several criminal cases were adjourned to the November sessions, including the Cobalt "high grading" case.

Thomas S. Wright, found guilty of manslaughter, was sentenced to seven years in the Kingston Penitentiary. The jury in the case of Edward Eaton, charged with the murder of Frank Ellar at Temagami, brought in a verdict of manslaughter, after being out all night. Eaton was sentenced to nine months in the Central Prison.

Alex. Stevens, found guilty of a serious offence against a nine-year-old immigrant girl, will spend two years in the Kingston Penitentiary and receive 20 lashes.

William Martin, Jr., who pleaded guilty to retaining funds belonging to the Town of North Bay, to the extent of $24,000, while acting as tax collector, was again admitted to bail, Judge Britton announcing that he would take into consideration the request of his counsel for a suspended sentence, and reserve decision until the December Assizes.

OVER FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS RECEIVED AT CORNER STONE LAYING

Interesting Ceremony on Saturday Afternoon at New Park-st. Church---A Large Number in Attendance---The Addresses.

The laying of the corner stone of the new Park street Baptist church Saturday afternoon was an important event as the building of a new and much larger place of worship as an evidence of the rapid increase in the number of members and adherents of the denomination. The ceremony on Saturday was performed by Mr. J. R. Stratton and short addresses were made by several of the city clergy.

The new building is being erected on the corner of Park and Stewart streets. It will be a fine and commodious edifice and a credit to the congregation who will worship in it. Through the generosity and united efforts of the members of Park St. they have been enabled to commence their church and the fund is continually being increased by substantial donations from friends. Saturday when the offering was taken, those present generously responded by giving $405.68 to the building fund.

At the time appointed for the service the pastor, Rev. Mr. Riddiford, after a few introductory remarks, called upon Rev. J. G. Potter, pastor of St. Andrew's church to read a portion of scripture, afterwhich Rev. Mr. Bonner, of Gilmour Memorial church, led in prayer.

Rev. Mr. Riddiford then made a few remarks. He said that they had gathered together for the purpose of laying the corner stone of the church of Jesus Christ. He did not intend to make any address as he thought that the less formality, the better the people liked it. He referred to the history of Park St. church.

The pastor said that the question had been asked "Why do we need a new church." He thought that all anyone had to do was to look at the old building to find the answer. When the people were erecting such fine homes, surely they could do something to have equally as good a place of worship. In conclusion he thanked the people for the help that had been given them.

LAYING OF THE STONE

Master Tranter presented Mr. Stratton with a handsome silver trowel, with which he proceeded to lay the stone. Within the stone were placed copies of the three local newspapers, and of the different Baptist journals. The offering was also placed upon the stone.

Mr. J. R. Stratton, after the stone had been well and truly laid addressed the assembly. The laying of the corner stone, he said, was an evidence not only of the material life of the city but of the spiritual life as well. At the present time, there were three new churches under way and another one on the eve of erection. He referred to All Saints' church. He was pleased to see all the churches advancing. To his mind, the prosperity of the churches was due to the indefatigable labors of the ladies. Were it not for them much of the work would go unaccomplished.

In conclusion he thanked them for the honor of asking him to lay the stone and wished the congregation of Park street much prosperity, both materially and spiritually.

At this juncture Rev. Mr. Riddiford read a message of regret from Mayor Rush, who was unable to be present. The pastor thanked His Worship for a substantial contribution. An expression of regret was also read from Rev. H. R. Trumpour, of All Saints' church.

OTHER SPEAKERS.

Rev. H. J. Keith, of Knox church, extended his congratulations to the people of Park street on their being able to build a new church. If there was any congregation in the city that needed a new building it was Park street. Much of the hard work of getting the edifice underway was due to the Rev. A. H. Brace, the former pastor.

Revs. H. M. Manning, of St. James' church; E. A. Pearson, of George st. church; J. G. Potter, of St. Andrew's church, and J. R. Webb, of Murray st. church, and Mr. Hassard, secretary of the Y.M.C.A., all made a few remarks, extending to the congregation of Park street their best wishes and much spirited blessing in the good work they were carrying out.

The service was closed with prayer by Rev. Mr. Jones, of Lakefield.

BUILDING COMMITTEE.

The Building Committee are to be highly commended for the success that so far has attended their efforts in erecting a new church. The members are Rev. Riddiford and Messrs. F. G. Gillespie, W. C. Barrie, H. Jewitt, Robert Buntin, W. Tranter, W. Kempt, H. Cross, Geo. Sloan, Thomas Eakins, Jos. Johnston, T. Barrie, Geo. Hayward and Lorne Hicks.

The trustees are Messrs. W. Kempt, F. G. Gilles, R. J. Buntin, F. E. Hunt and T. Eakins.

REPORTS NOT TRUE

Turks Not Mobilizing as Rumored.

Convocation of Anatolian Reserves for Manœuvres Gave Rise to Report.

Constantinople, Oct. 19.—The report that the mobilization of the Turkish troops had been ordered is unfounded.

Presumably it arose through the fact that certain battalions of the Anatolian reserves, attached to the Salonika and Adrianople army corps, were convoked for the manoeuvres in the native districts, and that three battalions were ordered to Constantinople from Macedonia for police service in the capital, these being replaced by an equal number of redifs from Smyrna.

Paris, Oct. 19.—Advices received from Sofia yesterday were more reassuring, indicating that Czar Ferdinand has succeeded in persuading the Cabinet and war party to adopt a more conciliatory attitude and yield to Turkey's demand for direct negotions with regard to the Oriental Railroad.

On Saturday all sorts of wild reports of Turkish and Bulgarian mobilization were published.

Sofia, Oct. 19.—Sir George Buchanan, the British diplomatic agent, and Baron Von Romberg, the German consul-general, called upon M. Poprikoff, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, to give assurances that the military measures undertaken by Turkey were only precautionary in character, and that the porte had informed Great Britain and Germany that Turkey had no intention to disturb the peace.

M. Poprikoff, in reply, said that Bulgaria was willing to send the reservists to their homes if Great Britain and Germany would guarantee the preservation of peace.

This exchange of assurances had a tranquilizing effect, and the Minister of War countermanded the order calling out 15,000 additional reservists.

INJURED IN A RUNAWAY

Ops Man Had Shoulder Dislocated as Result of Fall From Buggy

Lindsay, October 17— Mr. Robert Agnew, who lives east of the town in Ops, was seriously injured in a runaway last evening. His shoulder was dislocated and he sustained a bad shaking up, as a result of being hurled out of the buggy.

Mr. Agnew with his wife and child was driving to town. Suddenly and without apparent cause his horse became frightened and dashed across the ditch bordering the road into a wire fence. Right through the fence the frightened animal tore, breaking some of the strands. Then it fell, upsetting the buggy and throwing the occupants out. Mr. Agnew was caught between the buggy and the fence and his wife had to hurry to a neighbor's, Mr. McGinley, for aid in extricating him from his dangerous position. A doctor was called and the injured shoulder attended to.

TO THE YOUNG MEN OF CANADA

—o—

"To them I promise a cabinet worthy of their highest ideals, and truly representative of this great country which I shall serve."—R. L. BORDEN.

A NEW INNOVATION

A reconstruction has been made in the arrangement of the complete time tables issued by the Grand Trunk Railway System which will be appreciated by the travelling public. Where tables are shown of the condensed time of trains between the several points where through equipment is run, this equipment is shown directly opposite the time table giving passengers the information they desire in the easiest possible way and without turning to other pages to find what equipment is on several trains shown. To make railway time tables plain to the travelling public is a problem with the railways, but this new innovation has become a considerable amount of trouble which has been experienced in the past in knowing what equipment could be found on through trains.

DROWNED IN RIVER

Fate of Arthur Hanning Yesterday

Boat Capsized Ten Yards From Shore---Had Only Been in City Since Friday

Another sad drowning fatality occurred yesterday evening about five o'clock, when Arthur Hanning a young Englishman, met his death by the capsizing of Mr. Wm. Bailley's eight-foot canoe, in the Otonabee river, about ten yards out from Mr. John Holmes' property.

Mr. Bailley and the late Mr Hanning were returning from a sail down the river when the accident occurred. Strenuous efforts were made to save the young man's life. Mr. Bailley, who is an excellent swimmer, did his best to get the unfortunate fellow in safety to shore. Having had a hold of Bailley's shoulder but he apparently lost his grip when a short distance from land, he lost his grip and sank. He never rose again. Mr. Jas. Skippen, McGill street, was immediately on the scene with a punt, but the body never came to the top. It is thought that the young man must have been seized with cramps, thus accounting for his body not rising.

Having came to this country two years ago last April, his home being in Manchester, England. Since coming out he has been engaged with farmers. He only came to Peterborough on Friday last and was without money or work. Mr. Skippen very kindly took him to his home and secured for him employment. Sunday afternoon he went over to Mr. Bailley's house and asked him to come out for a sail. It took much persuasion to get Mr Bailley's consent, as he never goes boating on Sunday. However, they went, with the above result. The canoe is an eight-foot one, canvas covered.

Diligent search was made for the body, which was found about seven o'clock by Ernest Sanders. It was removed to Comstock's undertaking establishment, and Dr. Gray was notified, but decided an inquest was unnecessary.

Very little is known of Hanning's relatives. He was a young man of eighteen years. He had in his possession recommends from the Rev. W. J. Cranton, of Manchester, and from the cashier of Wm. U. Sutcliffe & Sons, corn mills of the same place. He was highly recommended as being an honest, straightforward fellow of splendid ability.

The body is at Mr. Comstock's awaiting orders.

DISASTROUS FIRES RAGING IN MANY PARTS OF PROVINCE

Thousands of Dollars Worth of Property in Vicinity of Barrie, Orillia and Huntsville Destroyed by Flames Resulting From Recent Dry Spell.

Toronto, Oct. 19.—An army of men are fighting day and night the bush fires that have been raging for the past two or three days in the vicinity of Barrie, Orillia and Huntsville, and which have already destroyed thousands of dollars' worth of property and momentarily threaten to get beyond control.

Near Barrie, all the outbuildings on the farm of Mr. Waldie and those of Mr. Kearns are reported burned, while fences and buildings on other nearby farms are said to be in flames.

A swamp 20 miles in length, the southern border of which is but four miles out of Barrie, is in desultory fire, sending great clouds of smoke into the town, fairly choking the citizens at times.

At the Longford Chemical Works, five miles out of Huntsville, 500 cords of wood are reported burning.

Several buildings at Rainy Lake, near Huntsville, are said to have been destroyed by fires which spread from the bush and which last night threatened the destruction of more property.

Fires are raging north of Orillia and fragmentary reports tell of property damage running into the thousands in that vicinity.

All day long a heavy pall of smoke has hung over the entire northern district and drifting in clouds south to Lake Ontario, and fairly stifling people in northern communities. Rain was being prayed for in many churches yesterday to clarify the atmosphere, as well as extinguish the fires.

At the Toronto Observatory last evening smoke and fog were reported general through the province.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Oct. 18.—It was reported here Saturday night that Gore Bay had been destroyed by fire. Immediately on the report reaching the Soo, points down the line as far as Sudbury were communicated with and all state that the town is safe. The report was brought to the Soo by a passing tug.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 19.—Despatches from Alpena, Mich., indicate that the number of deaths in the forest fires of Presque Isle and Alpena Counties will exceed 50, and may run well up towards 100.

In the vicinity of Metz, Bolton and Posen, the fires have burned sufficiently to leave several hundred women and children camping with comparative safety in the open fields, but near the city of Alpena Saturday night the fires were so threatening that Mayor McKnight called out a volunteer force of several hundred men with shovels to form a patrol and construct trenches to stem the progress of the flames in the direction of the city.

It is now estimated that 23 people lost their lives in the destruction of the ill-fated Metz relief train Thursday evening.

SIR WILFRID WILL NOT REPRESENT THE CAPITAL

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—There is keen disappointment in Liberal circles in the capital. It had been expected that Sir Wilfrid Laurier would announce his intention of sitting for Ottawa if elected. He did not make this announcement, and it is learned that he will continue to sit for Quebec East.

Sir Wilfrid got a good reception in Ottawa Saturday evening, when he made his first appearance before the electors as their candidate, along with H. B. McGiverin. There were probably 10,000 persons present in the skating arena.

Sir Wilfrid, who was supported by Hon. W. A. Paterson and Hon. Chas. Murphy, dealt principally with the charges of maladministration regarding the sale of timber limits, of which much has been made in Ottawa owing to the fact that W. A. Fraser, one of the former Liberal candidates, had been forced out of the candidature as a result of the notoriety his dealings with the Interior Department had brought him.

Hon. William Paterson said that if the Conservatives were returned to power very much the same old men would be there to manage the affairs of the country as there were in the last days of the Tory rule.

Hon. Chas. Murphy poked fun at the disappearance to their homes of the provincial leaders who had early in the campaign toured the country with Mr. Borden.

MR. R. M. DENNISTOUN'S POSITION

Mr. J. H. Burnham, the Conservative candidate, on Saturday received the following telegram from Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, of Winnipeg:

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 17.

J. H. Burnham,
Peterborough, Ont.

Hear Stratton claims my support. Deny publicly. I urge all friends to support you.

R. M. DENNISTOUN.

CHEMONG INDIAN VILLAGE IN DANGER OF BEING BURNED

The bush fires on the Chemong reserve are causing a great deal of alarm to the people out there and it is feared that if they continue to rage as they did yesterday, the village will be swept away. To-day Mr. Dan Whetung, Jr., was in the city and stated that this morning a strong northwest wind was blowing towards the village. The fires were burning fiercely and spreading at a rapid rate. Mr. Whetung's fence for a quarter of a mile was burned down yesterday and the fire has swept through the lots of Mr. A. E. Kennedy and Mr. Trew.

The conflagration makes a grand illumination at night. The people are hoping that it will rain soon as the blaze is getting dangerously close to their dwellings.

FINED $78.80 OR NINETY DAYS IN GAOL FOR THEFT OF HORSE AND BUGGY

John Carroll, of Cavan township, was fined fifty dollars and costs, amounting to $78.80 to be paid forthwith or ninety days in jail. Mr. G. N. Gordon appeared for Carroll and pleaded guilty. He said that the prisoner was drunk when the theft was committed.

It appears that he drove out into the country. He fell asleep and when he awoke up he found himself on the side of the road. The horse and buggy, which belonged to Mr. John H. Fowler, of this city, was found in a field. The blanket and rug were lost. An expense of $11.50 was incurred to Mr. Fowler in tracing up the horse. The police, too were under great expense in recovering the stolen property and arresting the prisoner. Thus the costs were exceedingly high. The fine was not paid and Carroll had to go to jail.

GEORGE-ST. CHURCH.

There will be no meeting of the Epworth League of George street Methodist church to-night on account of the district convention at Charlotte st. church.

There will be a rally meeting of the W.M.S. on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock.

On Tuesday evening at eight o'clock an organization meeting of the City Temperance and Moral Reform League will be held at George street church. Mr. B. H. Spence, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, and Mrs. Owen Hitchcock will give addresses.

There will be no prayer service on Wednesday evening on account of the Y.W.C.A. meeting in St. Paul's church.

HUSTLING IN YORK LOAN

Corps of Girls Doubled--No Dividerd Likely Till Middle of Next Year

Toronto, October 19—The staff of girls engaged on the clerical work in connection with the liquidation of the York County Loan and Savings Co. has been doubled in an effort to hurry up the time when it will be possible to pay the first dividend. There are now thirty girls engaged in this work.

In spite of the fact that this staff is kept busily at work early and late it is not probable that any dividend will be paid within six months.

"When will you be able to say when the first dividend will be paid," Mr. E. Home Smith was asked.

"Perhaps we shall be able to say at the end of the year," he answered.

"Is it likely that a dividend will be paid before the middle of next year"

"I don't think so"

Mr. Smith said that a lot of delay was occasioned by duplicate claims by people who had got new books without turning in their old books, and now were turning in both the old and new books.

"Our policy will be," said Mr. Smith "to make the dividends as few and as large as possible. We are hurrying it up all we can."

Vice-president Fairbanks addressed an enthusiastic public meeting at Ithaca, N.Y.

ENTHUSIASTIC RALLY OF LOCAL CONSERVATIVES ON SATURDAY NIGHT

Mr. Burnham and His Supporters Confident of Victory---Rousing Speeches Are Made---Several Hundred in Attendance.

The Conservative rally on Saturday night was the largest yet held. The Young Conservative Club rooms were filled and many could not obtain admittance. Great enthusiasm prevailed and the points brought out by the speakers were vigorously applauded. The addresses were short and pithy, and were followed with the deepest interest.

Mr. Tom Wilson was the chairman, and, after a few introductory remarks, called on the Conservative candidate, Mr. Burnham, to speak.

MR. BURNHAM.

Mr. Burnham commenced by reading a telegram he had just received from Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, of Winnipeg, in which Mr. Dennistoun asked Mr. Burnham to publicly deny the report that he (Mr. Dennistoun) was supporting Mr. Stratton.

The reading of the telegram was received with cheers.

Mr. Burnham said that there were assurances on every hand that the Conservatives would be victorious on October 26th, not only in West Peterborough, but in the Dominion. He had been assured in all parts of the riding that everything was all right for October 26th and that there would be Conservative majorities in nearly every poll on election day. This was very encouraging.

MR. A. H. WEBB.

Mr. A. H. Webb gave an excellent speech, in which he criticized the Government's bungling of labor problems. He also referred to the increase in the cost of living under the Laurier Government. The Government had not improved the lot of the workingman. It would pay the country to elect Mr. Burnham and Mr. Borden next Monday. Mr. Webb said that the Grit workers in West Peterborough would have to be closely watched on election day, or they would be repeating the fraudulent methods practised at past elections. They had won elections by dishonest means before, and would be at their old tricks again if they were not closely watched.

MR. KENDREY.

Mr. James Kendrey made a vigorous speech, in which he asked for hard work in support of the Conservative candidate until five o'clock next Monday. He was confident of victory both in West Peterborough and in the Dominion. Mr. Kendrey condemned the fiscal policy of the Government and showed how the manufacturers of Canada were being ruined in many cases through the lack of protection.

In closing, Mr. Kendrey asked the electors to take the advice of Mr. Andrew McFarlane and vote for Mr. Stratton on April 26th, but to vote for Mr. Burnham on October 26th.

A MONTREALER SPEAKS.

Mr. Waldman, a prominent manufacturer, of Montreal, the head of a large cloak manufacturing concern in that city, was present and was called upon for a speech. He said the prospects were bright for the Conservatives carrying a large number of seats in the Province of Quebec. Four Conservatives would likely be returned in Montreal.

Mr Waldman also devoted a few minutes to Mr. Stratton.

"If I had a reputation like Mr. Stratton," he said, "I'd go away off where I wasn't known. I'm surprised at him having the nerve to run for Parliament."

Mr. Waldman also attacked the fiscal policy of the Government and brought out many strong points against the present administration.

MR. GARVIN.

Mr. J. W. Garvin said the Liberal speakers were constantly making comparisons between the progress in national development made during 18 years of Conservative rule and that made during the last twelve years. They had not pointed out, however, that while the foundation of national greatness was being laid by the N. P. and the constructive statesmanship of Sir John A. Macdonald and his colleagues the Liberal Opposition was determinedly advocating "A tariff for revenue only," "Commercial union," or "Unrestricted reciprocity."

Hon. Mr. Fielding pretended in a flippant manner not to understand what Mr. R. L. Borden meant by "adequate protection for home industries." Adequate protection would prevent the destruction of any establishment or other industries, suitable to Canada's abundant natural resources. The National Policy had built up a large and profitable wool

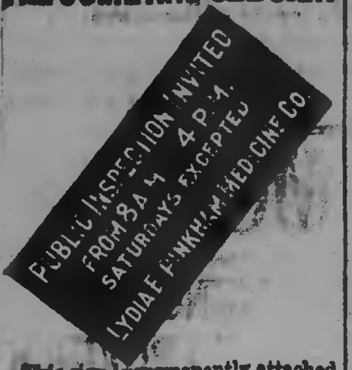
THE COME AND SEE SIGN



This sign is permanently attached to the front of the main building of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

What Does This Sign Mean?

It means that public inspection of the Laboratory and methods of doing business is honestly desired. It means that there is nothing about the business which is not "open and above-board."

It means that a permanent invitation is extended to anyone to come and verify any and all statements made in the advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Is it a purely vegetable compound made from roots and herbs — without drugs?

Come and See.

Do the women of America continually use as much of it as we are told?

Come and See.

Was there ever such a person as Lydia E. Pinkham, and is there any Mrs. Pinkham now to whom sick women are asked to write?

Come and See.

Is the vast private correspondence with sick women conducted by women only, and are the letters kept strictly confidential?

Come and See.

Have they really got letters from over one million, one hundred thousand women correspondents?

Come and See.

Have they proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands of these women?

Come and See.

This advertisement is only for doubters. The great army of women who know from their own personal experience that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female ills will still go on using and being benefited by it; but the poor doubting, suffering woman must, for her own sake, be taught confidence, for she also might just as well regain her health.

The Daily Review

MONDAY, OCT. 19. 1908.

THE LAST WEEK

Mr. Burnham in his remarks on Saturday night said that he was well aware that much crooked work was being practiced in West Peterborough, but that he was glad to find that Conservative sympathizers were keeping clear of it. He could not impress upon them too strongly, the necessity of taking the greatest care as the end of the campaign comes closer that nothing of an equivocal nature should mar the excellent prospects of a clean and wholesome victory for a cleaner political life in Canada.

PRIVATE CHARACTER AND PUBLIC LIFE

The Montreal Star.

There is no more dangerous and imprudent lie told to the people by dynast politicians than that the private character of a public man is none of their business. The moment a man proposes himself for public office, his personal qualities become matters of public concern. If he is content to remain in private life, the case is different. Then unless he interferes in some way with his neighbors, he may live his life much as he will; though he cannot escape the verdict of public opinion in so far as it is aware of him.

But when a man proposes himself for public life, he is an applicant for employment by the people. He asks to be taken on the distinguished—and otherwise—staff of public servants. Now no one will argue for a moment that an employer is debarred from considering the personal qualities of a proposed employe. Is he alert? Is he capable? Is he likely to succeed in the position he asks? Is he trustworthy? Has he habits which will interfere with his work or create doubts as to his integrity? These are all legitimate questions and an employer would be a fool not to ask them. They affect very seriously the probable usefulness of his future employe—the man to whom he is about to entrust his interests, perhaps the highest—and yet much of the matter is only private character.

Surely it is as important that a Cabinet Minister or even a member of Parliament be trustworthy and capable as that of a clerk or a bookkeeper should be. And surely if character is to be something of a test of the fitness of a clerk or bookkeeper, it cannot be altogether beside the question in picking out a member or a Minister. If "bad habits will honey-comb a clerk's sense of honor and if "bad company," is taken as evidence that a confidential book-keeper had better be watched, why should we ignore these danger signals when considering the cases of men who are constantly in a position to betray vast interests and to pilfer from overflowing strong boxes. It may be convenient for shady politicians to get general acceptance for the doctrine that a public man's private character shall be regarded as his private concern alone; but it is not common sense. It is not in keeping with the practice of the business world.

Now that the politicians are up for judgment, the people should discuss freely what manner of men they are. This is especially easy today when we are fighting an election almost without issues. Who can name one important item of public policy which will be changed by the victory of this or that party. Probably we have never had an election before in which the personality of the men who represent the parties was so paramount an issue. People are discussing very little else. It is the Pugsley scandal—the Foster record—the Sifton land deals—the Fowler relations with railway magnates—the reputation of Sir Frederick Borden— which are being debated. In spite of the protests of the politicians, character as revealed by public acts is the question on which the elections threaten to turn.

And the country was never more in need of having its attention commandingly directed to the personal element in public life. We have had scandals enough about our leading politicians to disgust every man with a notion above "graft" and license; and we may credit this humiliation to the fact that, in the past, we have paid too much heed to the specious sophistry that we should not enquire into the private character of men proposing themselves for public honors. More vigilance in the past would have given us less 'dirty linen" to be washed in the present.

Then we should forget that we have a wide range for our choice of public men. We are not compelled to put up with the least undesirable of the four or five fellows who are always pushing themselves to the front—we may be sure for a purpose. We have literally scores of men in most constituencies who would do us credit in high office, and whose characters indicate they might be trusted to keep their fingers out of the treasury and their names clear of nauseating scandal. We do not have to take up with a "lame duck." There are plenty of whole ones on the wing. We should not seek a choice between evils, but the best possible; and we should apply to this "best" the test of private character and capacity.

A candidate to get our votes should measure up to a high standard on several points. He should be qualified to represent us effectively in Parliament. This does not only mean that he should be a "talker"—though this is an asset—but that he should have business capacity and shrewdness, and be able to smell a "grafter" at a considerable distance. Then he ought to be a man who would be We ought to be able to say of him that he would not steal, even if a safe opportunity came. Moreover, he ought to be a man who would be above doing the dirty work of the corporations in Parliament. The corporations have their place in our economy; but their representatives should never be allowed to get nearer to Parliament than its lobbies, and even there they must be "suspect."

Our member, again, should be a man to whom we can point our boys as an example. He should not seem to constitute a proof that drunkenness or immoral conduct can exist side by side with great public virtues and high public honor. If there be any such men in the community, they are exceptions to the rule; and we ought to take every pains to keep them out of sight so that they will not mislead the young men. Then who does not know that the vices undermine character and strew the pathway of a man with temptations to be dishonest, dishonorable, and even criminal. The same man who might serve his country faithfully if he were free from vicious associations, will betray it through their manifold powers of degeneration. We would not run a horse which we knew to have a weak spot in a critical race; and why should we place on guard at Ottawa, where all the malign and greedy forces of the country press continually for opportunities to plunder, a man whose conscience already consents to vice, and who might sell us out any day under the hypnotism of drink or the lure of something worse.

IN THE ARENA OF POLITICS

Mr. J. W. Garvin will take an active part in Mr. Sexsmith's campaign in the East Riding.

$480,000 IN TIMBER ON $500 LIMIT

Letter From A. W. Fraser Regarding His Purchase—Produced by Mr. H. B. Ames

Ottawa, Oct. 16.—Fully four thousand disappointed people had to be turned away from the Russell Theatre to-night, while 3,000 jammed the interior of the building and cheered Mr. H. B. Ames time and again, as he unfolded the story of the despoiling of the western heritage of the people of Canada. Mr. John Thompson, K.C., presided, and brief speeches were delivered by Messrs. Birkett and Chabot, the two candidates.

There was one new feature in Mr. Ames' lecture. Referring to the magnificent Cedar Lake limit, which Mr. A. W. Fraser got for $500, he being the only bidder, Mr. Ames produced an original letter sent by Mr. Fraser on Sept. 21st, 1904, to A. E. Allison, Groggs House, corner Randolph street and Fifth avenue, Chicago. In this letter Mr. Fraser gives the estimate of timber, according to the report given him, as 320,000,000, and adds; "Later information given me by my representative in the west lead me to think that the estimate above mentioned will be considerably exceeded for this reason; The sale included 60 miles around the shores and all the islands in the lake, which were approximately estimated at thirty miles until a survey was made, and they now inform me that the islands will be nearly 80 miles, and that, therefore, the quantity of timber will be much in excess of the original estimate." Regarding the price of the lumber, he says; "I have a letter from my representative in Winnipeg, informing me that he has given an option on this limit on the basis of $1.50 a thousand, which, of course, will be much more than the price mentioned."

COULD UNDERSELL OTHER MILLS.

He also says; "My intention has always been to work this limit through Lake Winnipeg, placing the mills at Selkirk, and towing the logs through Selkirk, as you are aware, is only a few miles out of Winnipeg, and for retailing lumber in Winnipeg would be admirably situated. All the information I have been able to gather leads me to believe that we can in this way deliver out lumber in Winnipeg for several dollars on the thousand less cost than in other mills in the west, and therefore would have the advantage over these."

There were thunders of applause when Mr. Ames emphasized the point, that, according to Mr. Fraser's own admission, the limit had been increased by 80 miles, making 140 miles for $500, and that this price at $1.50 a thousand for 32 million feet meant $480,000, thereby confirming the valuation of Haffner and Son, of Winnipeg, the Manitoba selling agents.

DAYS OF DIZZINESS

Come to Many Peterborough People.

There are days of dizziness, spells of drowsiness, headache, sideache, backache.

Sometimes rheumatic pain after urinary trouble.

You are plainly told that the Kidneys are sick.

Booth's Kidney Pills cure all Kidney ills.

Mrs. A. Graham, of 547 Water st., Peterborough, Ont., says:

"My back was so weak and tender that I could not turn in bed. A heavy, dull pain had settled across the small of it, and caused me almost constant suffering. I became weak and languid. I was run down generally and had little ambition to move around. Headaches were frequent and often accompanied by spells of dizziness. Spots would dazzle before my eye and I would be unable to see. I had tried numerous remedies without getting results. Booth's Kidney Pills were advertised at McDiarmid & Jury's pharmacy. I tried them and soon found relief. The kidneys were quickly regulated and each and every symptom of kidney trouble was quickly cured. I am glad to recommend Booth's Kidney Pills as I believe them to be the best and most reliable of all kidney remedies."

Good Times Are Here.

New York, Oct. 19.—The National Association of Manufacturers announced Saturday that every branch of industry is showing marked increases of business and that during the past three months trade conditions have taken on new activity.

In an exhaustive canvass among 3,000 members of the association, the returns bear out the prediction that practically every manufacturing business will be upon a normal basis of production during 1909.

Should Come and See.

London, Oct. 19.—(C.A.P.)—Apropos an article summarized on Saturday. The Times editorially admits that much fault can be found by an Englishman traveling in the oversea states, but says there is something to be said about the attitude of the man who is prone to assure one that everything in his country is the finest of its kind in the world. The Times advocates strongly the visits of British statesmen to the oversea dominions.

Heirs Take Up Mother's Fight.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 19.—The heirs of the late Mrs. Joan Dunsmuir are continuing their suit against her son, Lieutenant-Governor James Dunsmuir, and have retained E. P. Davis as leading counsel. The case involves property valued at millions. Davis was counsel for Dunsmuir when Edna Wallace Hopper sued him two years ago.

Roosevelt to Tour Britain.

London, Oct. 19.—With reference to the proposed visit of President Roosevelt, The Sunday Observer says that the President will make an automobile tour of England and Ireland.

DOMINION ELECTIONS

To the Electors of the West Riding of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN:—The condition of industry in Canada is bad. The condition of workingmen is following suit. Their beautiful homes are becoming the prey of reduced circumstances. To the extent that we pay out money to other countries for work that should be done here we are traitors to our workingmen. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has brought this about to such a degree that Canada has paid out in the last twelve years (being the term during which the Liberals have been in power) hundreds of millions of dollars more than she took in. It was not so under a protectionist government. Those millions should have been spent at home. Then there would have been work for our workers to that extent at any rate, and what is more, the money would have been kept in the country. As it is we have to borrow to get it back. We have to borrow for gigantic enterprises which serve to make the big money-lender, the stock gambler and the contractor rich, but what good is it doing the workingman? To add insult to his injury Sir Wilfrid Laurier has opened the gates on the East and the West to immigrants. Those on the East, our own kith and kin, have been misled by misrepresentatation and entrapped by agents who are paid a bonus for their apture. Those on the West are the untold millions of the Orient who are displacing the whites in B.C. are working East and are dispossessing Canadians of their own country. They lower the rate of wages and the standard of living. If Canada is to be kept up as she was but a few years ago she must not be allowed to fall into the class of "cheap and nasty" nations. If her people are to be well housed, well fed, well educated and above the condition of sweaters, they must demand a tariff against sweatwork, against undue immigration, against undue importation and a high protection for employers and employed alike, against the trickery of men who make their money on the stock market and by graft. The workers are slowly but surely becoming poorer than they used to be in this naturally rich and resourceful country. Why? Because the cream of all work goes to the money-lender of New York and London.

Why are the men of Canada idle? Because others will do the work cheaper in Britain and Germany and we let them invade our markets while they keep us out of theirs. The German tariff, the United States tariff, the French tariff are all vastly higher than ours. Britain protects herself where she needs it, by a Cattle Embargo and by the Patents Act, which requires patented articles (and nearly all are patented) to be manufactured there. There is never depression in France. The French have a high tariff and economize. They have always plenty for a rainy day. The Germans likewise keep their own work in their own country, but are weighed down with militarism. Britain suffers because her work is being done elsewhere, although she is changing that rapidly, but she has an immense start over Canada in her already accumulated capital. The United States is the modern wonder of the world, due altogether to high protection. Protection or tariff has been well said to be the measure of the standard of life amongst the workers. Commodities in protected countries are not higher than in unprotected. Clothing under a low tariff in Canada is higher in price than it used to be under a high tariff. Certain ills due to over-expansion, the machinations of stockgamblers, etc., exist in all countries, but when an ill is plainly preventable, why not prevent it? Sending cash out of the country over and above what we take in will never make us rich. Yet we do it and must do it under our present system of trade. Opening up unnecessary lands as in the West, while Ontario is not half populated or developed is of a piece with rest, but it is the delight of the money-lender. Ontario farms are rapidly decreasing in value. A huge national deficit is accumulating for this year and unless times are checked and we are restored to our own, the coming winter will be a veritable horror. The money that we are borrowing in such immense sums if spent for supplies, made in Canada, would mean work for everyone at good wages. Why then does Sir Wilfrid permit rails for the G. T. P. to be bought out of Canada and clothing that would keep our farmers growing wool and our woollen mills weaving it, to be imported without hindrance?

To say that one government is as bad as another is to say that one man or one set of men is no better as managers than another. We know this to be the reverse of correct in government, in trade, in railways or in anything else. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, although the Conservative administration, as it proved, was falling to pieces, could never have got into power had he not agreed to "let the tariff alone." This pledge he contrived to evade on the ground that while the U. S., Germany, etc., were prosperous under a protective tariff, he could make Canada a brilliant and enduring exception under a low tariff and a preference. Now he is compelled to fall back on the statement that depression is worldwide and that therefore Canada must share it.

Then the boast of great enterprises! Vast sums of money have been borrowed and spent but who has got the benefit of it? Who has been made rich? Where has it gone? The charge we make against the administration of Sir Wilfred Laurier is that it is in the grasp of the great money-lenders. It has ceased to represent the people. Is it any wonder men lose faith in the forms of government? Without any government at all there would be a happier people. If the times are not rescued, whether it be by a party or by a people, civilization will be destroyed. The thunder of revolt is already heard. Religion, art, education—all will go with the frenzied efforts of men to get out of the grasp of Money which never loses, never shares its needs, into a state of freedom and the natural fruition of honest work and a resourceful soil.

I am not rich, nor am I able to live without working, as has been said, and I never was. The stock exchange where so many have won fabulous riches at the expense of the steady worker underneath is unknown to me. If I have no money to lose I have none to be ashamed of.

The day of the abject party man is gone. Let humanity have a chance.

I solicit your vote and influence and have the honour to remain,

Yours faithfully,

J. H. BURNHAM.

ROASTED ALIVE.

Fireman Robert Johnson of St. John, N.B., Meets Horrible Death.

Woodstock, N.B., Oct. 19.—During a dense fog Saturday two C.P.R. freight trains collided head-on near Stickney. Robert Johnson, St. John, fireman, was burned to death, and Chas. Humphrey, Woodstock, engineer, was fatally injured and died a short time after.

Fireman Johnson was caught between the tender and the firebox, and roasted alive, while he piteously begged the train men to kill him, and put him out of his agony. One leg was burned off before he was extricated. Humphrey had both legs and his back broken. Conductor Taylor was injured about the head and face. The engineer and fireman on the other train jumped and saved their lives.

MASSACRES IN ARMENIA.

Horrible Atrocities Reported In Despatch to Berlin.

Berlin, Oct. 19.—There have been frightful massacres in Armenia, according to the Constantinople correspondent of The Berliner Tageblatt. This paper Saturday publishes a despatch from the Turkish capital which says:

"Armenians in Wiranschehir have been massacred by Turkish troops. The women and children have been subjected to fearful treatment. The troops were sent to Wiranschehir to overawe the mutinous townspeople, two-thirds of whom are Amenians, and they at once began murder and plunder. They are said to have completely overrun the city."

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

The German Reichstag will assemble Wednesday in Berlin.

Because of a ministers' row, Evangelist Chapman refused to conduct a Springfield, Mass., revival.

Jarvis Street Baptist Church, Toronto, congregation have passed a resolution opposing the proposed Baptist Church union.

The classic automobile race of the year will take place on Saturday, when daring drivers will compete for the Vanderbilt Cup over the 95-mile course on Long Island.

Investigating White Slavery.

Buffalo, Oct. 19.—The statement that a report now in course of preparation to be submitted to the United States Government will reveal tremendous vested interests, which deal with the white slave traffic, was made at Saturday's session of the National American Women's Suffrage Convention by Rev. Anna Garlin Spencer of New York.

"There are people high in the Governments of several countries," declared Mrs. Spencer, "who have had shady transactions in the traffic of which I speak."

Collision Off Victoria.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 19.—While off Victoria on her way to Alaska Saturday night the steamer Cottage City, Capt. Jansen, crashed into an unknown schooner, completely demolishing her upper works, hurling the purser, William Jones, into the water, breaking the leg of an unknown Italian and slightly injuring many other passengers.

The passengers were rescued by a passing steamer.

Killed by Bicycle.

Toronto, Oct. 19.—Mrs. John A. Paterson died in the hospital on Saturday at 1.30 p. m. from injuries due to being knocked down by a cyclist. She was vice-president of the Woman's Art Association and one of its most active members. Chief Coroner Johnson said there was no necessity for an inquest.

Newfoundlers pay one-fifth of their earnings in taxes.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

Toronto Jews In Riot.

Toronto, Oct. 19.—Iron pokers, claw-hammers, clubs and chairs were brought into free and indiscriminate use in a perceptible Donnybrook melee which occurred between two warring Jewish factions in The House of Jacob Synagogue last night.

Many heads were broken and several warrants are likely to be issued to-day for the arrest of certain inhabitants of "the ward" who are alleged to have entered the sanctuary with weapons intent upon either electing their president or inflicting bodily harm, or both.

Toronto to Lose Firm.

Woodstock, Ont., Oct. 19.—The announcement was officially made by Superintendent McBeath of the Canadian Furniture Manufacturers, that preparations are being made at the works here for the reception of the general offices of the company, which are now located in Toronto. Superintendent McBeath said yesterday that he had guaranteed to have office premises ready by Nov. 15, at which time the removal will be made. The establishment of the head office here is but the first step towards the concentration of the company's various factories in Woodstock which will mean much to this city.

Clements Drops Suit.

Chatham, Ont., Oct. 19.—As in the opinion of the legates concerned, Magistrate M. Houston has no jurisdiction to try the case of alleged scandal brought by H. S. Clements, Conservative candidate for West Kent, against Dr. Oliver of Merlin, and as it is realized that enquiry into the matter complained of could result in no judgment by the magistrate, that in any case would be binding on any of the parties, the complaint has been dismissed.

Two Perish In Fire.

Knightstown, Ind., Oct. 19.—Two persons perished and 25 buildings were destroyed Saturday in a fire at Shirley, a little town north of here.

Mr. and Mrs. I. V. M. Prior, who conducted a restaurant, were burned to death. Nearly all the houses destroyed were dwellings and many of the people who lost their homes narrowly escaped with their lives. Loss, $150,000, partly insured.

Father Identifies Dead Son.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., Oct. 19.—The youth who shot himself in a clump of bushes on Goat Island on Sept. 28 was yesterday identified by his father as Robert Weston Kirkland, Jr., a clerk, 19 years of age, of 97 Weaver street, Philadelphia. He had been missing since Sept. 24. No reason is known for the suicide.

Fight on Streets.

Cobalt, Oct. 19.—A free-for-all fight took place on the street near the Catholic Church Saturday night, between some Pollacks. Knives were used and one man had his hand badly cut. Another is badly carved up, and is not expected to live.

Causes Satisfaction.

London, Oct. 19.—(C.A.P.)—Much satisfaction is felt in Anglo-Canadian circles at the prospect of the proposed transfer of Hindus to Honduras.

To Christen Hammonic.

Collingwood, Oct. 19.—The launching of the magnificent passenger steamer Hammonic, truly the queen of the Canadian inland lake marine, will take place between Nov. 4 and 12, at the yards of the Collingwood Shipbuilding Co. The date will depend upon the convenience of Miss Clara Hays, daughter of Mr. Chas. M. Hays of the Grand Trunk Railway, who will have the honor of breaking the bottle, which will christen the vessel as she slides down the ways to her element.

Gave His Life For Others.

Toronto, Oct. 19.—The captain of the steamer Scottish Hero has telegraphed that Malcolm McGregor, first mate of that steamer, was on Thursday evening drowned near Point Iroquois, Lake Superior, while endeavoring to render assistance to the keeper of the light station at that point from bush fires raging in that vicinity, and which were threatening the destruction of the lighthouse.

Mr. McGregor was about fifty years of age and unmarried. His home is in the vicinity of Owen Sound, Ont.

Binns Confesses Dynamiting.

St. Thomas, Ont., Oct. 19.—Allen Binns, formerly of this city, has written to the chief of police acknowledging responsibility for the attempt to wreck the home of W. McClellan, on the night of Aug. 8, with a dynamite cartridge. Binns is now in San Diego, Cal., held by the authorities there for investigation as to his sanity, being connected with similar work there. But for a botched job the explosion here would have wrecked the house and killed the inmates.

Judge Shoots Himself.

Newark, N.J., Oct. 19.—Judge Howell of the Criminal Court of this city shot himself on Saturday in the head in one of the city parks while his court was waiting for him to appear. He probably will not recover.

Judge Howell was criticized in the political campaign and Friday night challenged his accusers to reply to questions which he asked them.

Bad Wreck Reported.

Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—A bad wreck is reported to have occurred west of Banff yesterday morning, in which three passengers were killed and several injured. No particulars have been received here yet.

Sign of a Wreck.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 19.—The lighthouse keeper at Carmanah Point reported the portion of a small deckhouse, probably part of a fishing schooner, yesterday morning.

Elect Woman President.

Montreal, Oct. 19.—The Protestant Teachers' Association of Quebec closed its sessions on Saturday, after a somewhat stormy meeting.

For the first time in 44 years of its history a woman was elected to the presidency.

This movement was strongly opposed by the men, but as the women constitued 95 per cent. of the teachers of the province they outvoted the men. Miss Mary Ferguson of Montreal was elected president.

Lord Napier's Son Suicides.

New York, Oct. 19.—A cable despatch to The Herald from Shanghai, China, says: Cecil Scott Napier, commissioner of customs at Wenchow, and son of Lord Napier of Magdala, while temporarily insane from fever leaped from a window of the hospital in Wenchow and was killed.

Latest advices say the disturbance between the Chinese and Japanese at Kanto was exaggerated and that the trouble will be amicably settled.

Woman Killed at Muirkirk.

St. Thomas, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Althea Walker, aged 70 years, while on her way to the depot to take a train to St. Thomas, was struck and instantly killed by the M.C.R. freight train at Muirkirk Saturday morning. She tried to cross the tracks ahead of the train. She was a widow, and is survived by one son and two daughters. Mr. N. W. Ford of Toronto, formerly owner of The Chatham News, is a brother.

Largest Democratic Contribution.

New York, Oct. 19.—A check for $10,000, the contribution of the Tammany Society to the Democratic national campaign fund, was received by Herman Ridder, treasurer of the National Democratic Committee Saturday.

This is the largest contribution yet received by the national committee so far as made public.

Dull Mind Saves Forger.

Belleville, Oct. 19.—Joseph Godfrey, the 16-year-old Bancroft boy, who was charged with passing two forged checks, pleaded guilty and Judge Deroche suspended sentence because he thought the lad was not mentally bright.

Young Godfrey accidentally shot and killed his mother a couple of years ago.

Runaway Team Kills Farmer.

St. Thomas, Ont., Oct. 19.—Wm. A. Hill, townline, Yarmouth, a well-known farmer in western Ontario, was killed near his home Saturday afternoon. His team of horses ran away and Mr. Hill, who was in front of them, attempted to stop them. The neckyoke struck his breast and he died three hours later.

Reporter Wins.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—Art Burn, the well-known Calgary distance runner, was badly beaten Saturday afternoon in an eight-mile matched race at Varsity oval by Hubert Tebo, a young Ottawa newspaper reporter, who only started running this year. Burn was 150 yards behind Tebo at the finish.

Wreck Victim Worse.

Barrie, Oct. 19.—The condition of Mrs. John Wilson, of Meaford, who was injured in the Grand Trunk wreck near here on Thursday, is regarded as very serious.

Mrs. Wilson sustained fractures of the arm and leg, and by reason of her advanced years, she has only been able to rally partially from the shock. Her recovery is considered doubtful by the hospital physicians.

Miss Hatson of Parkhill, whose arm had to be amputated, is doing splendidly. The other injured persons have been removed to their homes.

Two Aeronauts Perish.

Yarmouth, Eng., Oct. 18.—The German balloon Hergesell has been picked up in the North Sea. There was, however, no sign of the occupants, and the two aeronauts are believed to have perished.

The Hergesell was found floating half deflated 100 miles northwest of Heliogland by the Norwegian steamer Naddod and brought in here.

Leamington After Heinz.

Leamington, Oct. 19.—It is expected that the Canadian branch of the Heinz Pickle Co., for which Chatham, Windsor and St. Thomas have been bidding, will locate here. The town proposes to give the company a $10,000 factory and free water, besides exemption from taxes for ten years.

Killed by Train.

Havelock, Oct. 19.—Thomas Smith was instantly killed in the C.P.R. yards by being run over by a car.

The unfortunate man's head was smashed to a pulp, one wheel passing over the centre of his face and one hand and one foot was cut off.

Wyoming Warehouse Is Burned.

Wyoming, Ont., Oct. 19.—Fire Saturday night destroyed the grain warehouse of A. Laing. The blaze is supposed to have started from a spark from a passing engine. The building and contents were partially covered by insurance. Loss unknown.

MANIAC IN WOODS.

Montreal Boys Wounded by Madman at Longueuil.

Montreal, Oct. 19.—Two young boys from Montreal were fired upon, and one of them seriously wounded, by an unknown man in the woods at Longueuil yesterday.

Harold Patterson, aged 17, and Gordon West, aged 18, were shooting a mile east of Longueuil when a man, having the appearance of a maniac, approached them, and when within a few yards pulled a revolver and shot young Patterson in the back. He then turned his weapon upon West, shooting him in the hip, and then ran into the bushes.

Both boys were brought to the General Hospital, where little hope is entertained for Patterson. West was not seriously wounded.

The dying boy is a son of Lieut.-Col. H. T. Patterson. It is thought the man must be insane.

REEFS NEAR RUPERT.

Reports Are That Direct Route Is Impossible For Shipping.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 19.—It is reported that last summer's surveys of H.M.S. Egeria have shown that Brown Passage, between Dundas and Stephen Islands, the most direct route from Prince Rupert, is studded with so many dangerous reefs as to render safe navigation impossible. If shipping bound to and from this port is forced to deviate to the northward of Upper Dundas Island and then make a southerly run down Chatham Sound, it will increase the distance between Prince Rupert and the open sea by fifty to seventy-five miles, and rob the northern port of much of its advantage of being nearer to the Orient than southern ports.

Wrongfully Deported.

London, Oct. 19.—(C.A.P.)—Considerable attention has been attracted by the case of a man with a wife and seven children, who applied to the Police Court for assistance, stating he was deported from Canada five weeks ago after working there for two years. The magistrate enquired the reason for the deportation. The man replied he was suddenly and inexplicably ordered to quit, but subsequently, it is stated, he told it was because he could not show he had permanent employment. Enquiries are being made by the agent in the case. The Nestham guardians paid £62 to emigrate the family through the Salvation Army, who apparently sent him to Ottawa.

TO ORGANIZE FOR CAMPAIGN

Meeting of Temperance League to be Held To-morrow Night

An open meeting of the City Temperance and Moral Reform League will be held at George street Methodist church to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. All are invited. It is proposed to organize for the local option campaign to be held in Peterborough probably in 1910. Mr. Spence, the secretary of the Dominion Alliance, will be present.

THE SMOKE WAS VERY DENSE

So Thick That it was Decidedly Unpleasant Last Night

The city and surrounding country was enveloped in a dense cloud of smoke last evening, the wind in the afternoon blew in such a direction as to bring down the smoke from the bush fires in the north country and by eight o'clock it was so thick in the city and district that one could not see more than thirty feet where there were no street lights. The smoke was the worst this season and was so dense that it made ones eyes sore.

This morning however, the smoke had all disappeared, the wind changing its direction during the night.

IN INTERESTS OF TEMPERANCE

Yesterday was Temperance Sunday in the city churches and there were large congregations to hear the speakers sent out by the Dominion Alliance.

Following were the speakers and where they preached:

Rev. B. H. Spence of Toronto at George street church in the morning and at Murray street Baptist in the evening.

Rev. Nathaniel Smith at Knox church in the morning and at St. Paul's in the evening.

Rev. F. J. Lynch at St. John's in the morning and at All Saints' in the evening.

Rev. W. G. Clarke, of Port Hope, at Mark street church in the morning and at Charlotte street in the evening.

Mrs Owen Hitchcox spoke at Park street church in the morning and at St Andrew's in the evening.

STUDIES OF THE NORMALITES

Have Commenced Observation Work---Watching the Teachers

The students at the Normal School have started their observation studies. Commencing today they will visit the class rooms in the North Ward and Central schools every other day and observe how the teaching is done. They will take notes on what they see and will continue their observation studies until Thanksgiving ... After that the students will take charge of classes in certain periods and receive practical experience in teaching.

IS POPULAR INSTITUTION

King's Daughters' Tea Room is Largely Patronized

Have you visited the King's Daughters' Tea Room yet? If not, you should do so very soon and see for yourself what an attractive place it is these afternoons. The tables with their clean linen and pretty white and gold china look most inviting, and the good things provided to be eaten are very tasty. The cakes and tea biscuits are all home made, while the tea is supplied without charge by Parkins, Ince & Co.

Three or four members of the Society are on duty each afternoon, and are responsible for the eatables for that day. Already quite a sum has been realized and the young ladies expect that the amount will be a substantial one by the time the winter is over. All the proceeds will be devoted to charitable work in the city, and as the object is such a worthy one, the tea room is sure of good patronage.

IS AGAINST LOCAL OPTION

Rev. Dr. Langfeldt Came Out Against it in Last Night's Sermon

At St. Luke's church last evening, Rev. Dr. Langfeldt came out against local option. He said that the proper way to control the liquor traffic was to educate men to be masters of themselves. The introduction of legal measures was not the proper way to put down the evil. Local option resulted in much secret drinking and the breaking of the law.

"INTHON" BIBLE CLASS LARGE ATTENDANCE

Over Fifty Present Yesterday Afternoon---Address by Mr. Dyer

The "Inthon" Bible class of the George street Methodist church had a full house yesterday afternoon. Fifty members, nine visitors, and Mr. Robertson's class who kindly paid the "Inthon's" a visit were present.

Mr. W. E. Dyer, Secretary Treasurer of the Adult department of the Toronto Sunday School Association, was also present and gave a splendid address on the methods of Bible class work in place of the regular lesson discussion. Mr. Dyer is an able speaker on Bible class work and is earnestly interested in the welfare of young men.

That crowd you saw going down George street yesterday afternoon, were not looking for the "Mysterious Mr E." but were members of the "Inthon" class going down to the temperance meeting. Fifty-one members marched down, headed by Colonel Bobs, chairman of the membership committee.

Mr. F. A. Sisson, the class artist, knows how to handle the crayons all right by the manner in which he decorated the class black boards.

The class is both sorry and glad for Mr. G. Deprose, chairman of the visiting committee and his assistants. Sorry that he and his workers have not anything to do. Glad that none of the class are sick to keep him busy. However, he will be right on the job when any sickness turns up.

Mr. E. G. Clark, chairman of the devotional committee, thinks that a few of the members ought to volunteer to take charge of a class in the Sunday school in the absence of any of the regular teachers.

All are, no doubt, anxious to hear more about the literary entertainment that is going to take place next Friday night under the supervision of Mr. R. J. Soden, chairman of the literary committee. Particulars will be found in another column.

A splendid feature of the "Inthon" Bible class is the friendly hand shake at the close of the session. It makes a fellow forget that feeling of strangeness and want to come back.

All the men residents and visitors of Peterborough who come to the class will be given the glad hand and made to feel as much at home as possible. Come on fellows.

THE MAN TO WATCH

When, to use a detestable phrase, you go out into the battle of life you will be confronted by an organized conspiracy which will try to make you believe that the world is governed by the idea of wealth for wealth's sake, and that all means which lead to the acquisition of that wealth, are, if not laudable, at least expedient...... You will live and move and have your being in a world dominated by that thought. Some of you will probably succumb to the poison of it.

Now, I do not ask you not to be carried away by the first rush of the great game of life. That is expecting you to be more than human. But I do ask you, after the first heat of the game, that you draw your breath and watch your fellows for a while.

Sooner or later you will see some man to whom the idea of wealth as mere wealth does not appeal; whom the methods of amassing that wealth do not interest, and who will not accept money if you offer it to him at a certain price. At first you will be inclined to laugh at the man, and to think that he is not smart in his ideas. I suggest that you watch him closely, for he will presently demonstrate to you that money dominates everybody except the man who does not want money. You may meet that man on your farm, in your village or in the Legislature. But be sure that whenever or wherever you meet him, as soon as it comes to a direct issue between you, his little finger will be thicker than your loins. You will go in fear of him. He will not go in fear of you. You will do what he wants; he will not do what you want. You will find that you have no weapon in your armoury with which you can attack him. No argument with which you can appeal to him. Whatever you gain, he will gain more.

I would like you to study that man. I would like you better to be that man, because from the lower point of view it doesn't pay to be obsessed by the desire of wealth for wealth's sake. If more wealth is necessary to you, for purposes not our own, use your left hand to acquire it, but keep your right for your proper work in life. If you employ both arms in that game you will be in danger of stooping; in danger also of losing your soul. But in spite of everything you may succeed, you may be successful, you may acquire enormous wealth. In which case I warn you that you stand in grave danger of being spoken and written of and pointed out as a smart man, and that is one of the most terrible calamities that can overtake a sane, civilized white man to-day.

BORDEN IN BRIEF

If we preach purity and practice corruption we shall be worthy of all the scorn that can be poured upon us.

The whole policy of the Government (in the past two years) was to shut off investigation and prevent publicity.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised purity of administration. He has abandoned the public exchequer to the plundering and pilfering of unscrupulous party friends and has permitted the public domain to become the prey of his strongest partizans.

Criminals have been appointed to positions in the public service —men engaged in the most nefarious electoral crimes have been appointed to positions of public trust.

During ten years of Liberal rule the expenditure has been $232,000,000 greater than in ten years of Conservative rule.

I have had the unique satisfaction of seeing the Government of the day forced by public opinion to carry into effect a very substantial portion of the policy which I advocated a year ago.

What great public undertaking has the Government not bungled!

LADIES TOO

To the Editor of Review.

Sir—Can ladies be prosecuted for bribery and corruption?

Yes. Where "ladies" are made instruments of bribery, etc., they will certainly fall into the clutches of the law.—Ed.

FROM A WORKINGMAN.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—I attended a rally of Mr. Burnham's at the Young Conservative Club rooms last Saturday evening, and while there I had placed in my hands a book entitled, "Facts for the people," and having a little time on my hands I thought I would look through it, and I think it does credit to the Conservative party for publishing such a book. It gives to us as working men the kind of graft that has been carried on by the Liberal government during the last 12 ing man, it must stop and we as years at Ottawa and I say as a work-workingmen must put a stop to it on October 26th by returning Mr. Burnham to support Mr. Borden, who I hope will be Premier of Canada and then I believe we shall have clean administration, justice for one and all, a white man's Canada, protection for our trade which I believe will give us as workingmen a better day's pay for our day's work so that we can live honestly and as the song says "Put a little bit away for a rainy day the sun won't always shine." I do not hold with Old Age Pensions. I say we should have a living wage as workingmen so that we can be independent of any government in regard to pensions. It must be gratifying to Mr. Burnham to have such enthusiastic meetings and to have the help of such gentlemen as Mr. Garvin, Mr. Soden, Mr. Kendrey, and other gentlemen whose names I have forgotten. In Mr. Garvin the Tory party has got a true and honest worker. I have had the pleasure of hearing this gentleman on three occasions and his speeches are to the point and he knows what he is talking about. Then we had Mr. Soden, who said on addressing the audience that he was no politician but he gave us a good speech and told us the way things are carried on in Germany and the workingmen that were present could follow this gentleman in what he said. These are the men we want to forward the cause of the Conservative party in Peterborough. Men, we as workingmen can understand not such men as Mr McFarlane that walk the platform like a lion prawling about his cage and do not know what he is talking about. I would like to say Mr Editor I am a believer in Mr. Chamberlain's policy of protection for Great Britain and preference for our colonies. When the Old Country gets this she will lift her head up to the proud position of the Queen of the World from which she has been gradually losing her title the last few years.

In regards to the book entitled, "Facts for the people," I do not know whether it has been circulated in West Peterborough. If it has not I think it would be a good thing if it was put in the workingman's home. It would open his eyes to the graft that has taken place under the Liberal government during the last twelve years, and then I believe Mr. Burnham will be elected by a great majority on October 26th.

I hope, Sir, you will allow me a few lines in your paper.

ARE LEAVING FOR THE WEST

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hawley Given Handsome Present at Charlotte Street Church

The following has been handed to the Review for publication:—

Yesterday was one of the days long to be remembered in the annals of Charlotte street Methodist church.

Mr. and Miss A. C. Hawley leave us for service in the great Northwest. We felt we could not allow them to go from our midst without some recognition of their devoted, successful service, so faithfully rendered, hence the following address and presentation.

Dear Brother Hawley,—It is with feelings of regret we learn that you are about to leave us for the great Northwest, where you intend to make your future home. We, as a class will miss you very much.

We have always found you to be of sterling worth as assistant leader. Your constant attendance, earnest ad faithful exortations, your watchful care and sympathy over every individual member. Your life inside and outside of the class, coupled with a rich Christian experience, unwavering fidelity to the truth, as it is in Jesus will long be remembered.

Also sister Hawley's clear testimony, of a hope, which is the earnest of that "hope blooming with immortality and eternal life," has frequently brought fresh inspiration to some discouraged souls, and stimulated the strong to greater endurance.

Please accept this umbrella as a small token of our appreciation for service so faithfully and efficiently rendered. May you long be spared to testify to the brethren and sisters of the Methodist class meeting, the efficacy of the blood of Christ to cleanse from all sin.

And may the God of all grace guide you through life's journey and lead you safely to the great meeting above.

Signed on behalf of the class.

EAST CITY HOUSE ROBBED EARLY SUNDAY MORNING

The house of Mr. David Denny, Concession street, Ashburnham, was burglarized some time between Saturday night and Sunday morning with the result that considerable clothing and a large quantity of meat and other provisions were stolen.

An entrance was made into the kitchen, where Mr. Denny had packed in a big chest, her husband's and two sons winter underwear. This was all taken. Two suits belonging to the boys were among the stolen goods. Several sealers of fruit were also missed. In fact everything in the kitchen of any use was gone when Mrs. Denny came down in the morning.

Who the burglars were is not known.

A thing that is ruining our land,
Not bring to our shore the poor Douhobor,
But make Canada a white man's land.

Our great country he will look after,
And rule with a just and firm hand,
And give us clean administration,
Then prosperity will reign in our land.

Now, Burnham we know that you will support,
And do what is right for the good of our land,
We shall not be disappointed in you.

We know you are honest, loyal and true,
And will work as a man should do,
West Peterborough will know that they have in you
A clean politician of the very best school.

SPORTING NEWS

T.A.A.C. SCORED 30 TO LOCALS NIL IN OPENING SENIOR O.R.F.U GAME ON SATURDAY

Peterborough wouldn't negotiate for a single point in their game with T.A.A.C. in the senior ORFU series at Toronto on Saturday while their opponents ran up 30.0

The locals did not have on the strongest team available as will be seen by the line-up, and with some of the regulars on should have a good chance to pull out ahead in the return game next Saturday at Riverside park. The locals showed lack of condition however and it is imperative that they should do all they can to round up into form from now till the date of the game.

The teams were:

Toronto	Peterborough
Backs
Morrison	Crough
Halves
Clark	Fitzpatrick
Jones	Quinlan
Grant	Craig
Quarter
Campbell	Lundy
Scrimmage
Robertson	Lundy
Naesmith	Denard
Mack	Grady
Left wings
Crooks	O'Brien
Mara	Canniff
G. Clarkson	O'Connor
Right wings
Holden	Dickson
Sheriff	Davidson
Sale	Hall

Umpire, W. J. Slee.

YOUNG HACKENSCHMIDT TO WRESTLE ROGERS HERE

On October 30th Yankee Rogers will wrestle Young Hackenschmidt here. Young (Charles) Hackenschmidt is one of the best known heavyweights in the game and has been looking for a match with Rogers for some time.

He is unusually strong and clever and shows remarkable speed both in attack and defence. Word has simply been received that the articles for the bout had been signed and Peterborough is acceptable to both men.

Fuller particulars will be announced to-morrow.

HURTUBISE WAS DEFEATED FOR THE FIRST TIME IN HIS CAREER

Conkle's Unknown Proved to be Charlie Kiser, the American Heavyweight—Got Two Straight Falls in 30 min. and 8 min—Gene Handicapped by Boil.

Gene Hurtubise met a top notcher of the top notch class when he bumped up against Charlie Kiser, of Buffalo and Auburn, in Hamilton on Saturday night. Kiser proved none other than Charlie Conkle's "Unknown," concerning whose identity there has been so much speculation lately in wrestling circles. Kiser strips at 173 lbs. is beautifully built and fast as a blue flash. A big crowd gathered at the Armory hall, where the bout was held, and the audience was all taken up with the splendid exhibition.

Gene and his manager, Chris. Graham, have nothing to say concerning the match, except that the Peterborough heavyweight was trimmed squarely and fairly. However, the local man was suffering from a bad boil under his left arm and this proved a serious drawback. He forced matters for the first fifteen minutes, and after that his arm was rendered practically useless.

The first fall went to Kiser in 30 minutes. He obtained it on a scissors and face hold. The next one was secured the same way also. Gene had his man in danger with a half nelson, when the latter, with a sudden twist broke away. Kiser got the hold spoken of. He gradually forced the local man to the mat. Time. 8 minutes.

After the match Hurtubise's manager challenged Kiser to another bout. He thinks Gene could have beaten the American if his arm had been right. The go, if arranged, will probably be held either in Rochester or Auburn, which is the home town of Kiser.

Billy Carroll, of Hamilton, acted as referee of the match in Hamilton on Saturday night. It was a hard and rough one and Carroll was kept good and busy. He gave every satisfaction, however.

ALL SAINTS' WON FROM KNOX CHURCH BY TEN POINTS

The annual field day of All Saints' boys vs. those of Knox church saw a good field of starters in the different events. In the senior division practically everything went All Saints way and the competition resulted in the Anglicans getting 69 points to their opponents' 19.

The Knox church juniors evened matters up however, by securing 40 points to All Saints 19.

On the total All Saints won by a majority of 10 points.

The events consisted of running, jumping, shot putting, and other field and track athletics.

An interested crowd witnessed the sports.

The officials were Messrs. Wilson, Reid, Cartner and Rannett. Revs. Keith and Trompour, pastors of Knox church and All Saints' were in attendance at the games.

The winners will be honored by being presented with the trophy at an early date. The date and place have not been decided upon but will be announced later.

THE SECOND ROUND OF TEN PIN TOURNEY TO-MORROW NIGHT

The second round in the ten pin tournament at the P.B.C. alleys will be continued to-morrow night instead of this evening, the postponement having been made at the request of several of the bowlers who will be unable to attend to-night. Three teams are left in the running for first money, viz. Munro's Colts, General Electrics and Hemstead's United. Two of these will play off to-morrow night and the team drawing the bye will meet the winner Friday evening in the finals. The losing team to-morrow night will meet Baker, McCarroll or Cairns on Wednesday night in the preliminary struggle for third money.

A number of the bowlers are agitating the formation of a three man team league to supersede the five man team that at present prevails in Toronto and other Canadian bowling centres. The movement is to reduce the number of bowlers originated in Chicago, and it is quickly catching on in other American cities, but Peterborough will be the first place where it has been tried in Canada. It has been found on the other side that the five man teams cause too much delay, congestion and confusion on the alleys and the reduction in the number of men to a team obviates this difficulty. Already the idea has been endorsed by many of the bowling fraternity here and immediate steps will be taken to organize the league.

RUGBY

Hamilton Tigers are still undefeated and look good to go through the interprovincial without serious opposition unless the Argonauts keep on improving. Then for the Canadian championships it will be Tigers against one of three in the College League, and certainly not Peterboroughs in the O.R.F.U. — Toronto World.

REPORTER BEAT MARATHON MAN

Tebo of Ottawa Finished 150 Yards Ahead of Art Burn of Calgary

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—Art Burn, the well known Calgary distance runner, and formerly of Peterborough, was badly beaten this afternoon in an eight-mile matched race at the Varsity oval by Hubert Tebo, a young Ottawa newspaper reporter, who only started running this year. Burn was 150 yards behind Tebo at the finish. Time 48.24.

Y.M.C.A. DIDN'T GET A POINT

P. C. I. Trimmed Them by 17—0 in City League Game at Riverside Park Saturday

At 2.15 on Saturday at Riverside Park the P.C.I. rugby team won from the Y.M.C.A. by the score of 17—0. From the time Referee Dr. A. W. MacPherson blew his whistle to start the game till the timekeepers blew it to stop, the ball was always in the "Y" territory. The game was clean throughout and the following players lined up for the game:—

P.C.I.—Fortye, Kirn, Gibson, Meldrum, Giroux, (Quinlan, Anderson, Layfield, Minorgan, Leahy, Sheehy, Hall, Geale and Dobbin.

Y.M.C.A.—Wade, Munro, Ray, Ecclestone, Patterson, Latimer, Hillier, Caniff, Storey.

ROUGH RIDERS WON FROM T.A.S.

Score at Riverside Park on Saturday Was 9-5

On Saturday afternoon at Riverside park the Rough Riders won from the TAS by the close score of 9-5. The game throughout was close and at many stages the spectators were sure the the Abstainers would defeat the Bankers. About one hundred people saw the game and were treated to the very best rugby that a junior aggregation could furnish. Dr. A. W. McPherson was referee and his decisions throughout the game were very impartial.

The following was the line-up of the teams:

Rough Riders	TAS
Backs
Laing	McGill
Halves
Cahill	Learkin
Quinlan	O'Donnell
Corkery	Fitzgerald
Quarters
Porter	O'Hern
Wings
Hayes	Clancy
Heffernan	Kennealey
Giroux	Henry
Eastwood	Galvin
Wareham	Holland
Hollingshead	O'Brien
Sheffield	Denoot
Forsan	Foley
Coughlin

The TAS will journey to Lindsay where they will play the junior ORFU aggregation of that town. All the members of the team are asked to be on hand at the Brock street rink this evening at 7.15 when final arrangements will be made for the trip.

ATHLETIC EVENTS AT LOCAL Y.M.C.A.

A double athletic event was run off at the Y.M.C.A. Saturday morning, the Collegiate boys running off the 440 yards dash Ray Scott doing it in the fast time of 1.16; Wallis in 1.19 2-5, and H. Lees in 1.19 4-5.

The standing of the Collegiate boys

Ray Scott—10 points.
M. Dobbin—5 points.
G. Minorgan—5 points.
W. Armstrong—3 points.
Wallis—3 points.
R. Howden—1 point.
H. Lees—1 point.

The junior school boys' 50 yards dash resulted as follows;—

B. Lees—7 4-5 sec.
H. Outram—8 sec.
W. Johnston—8 sec.
Miller—8 1-5 sec.
Armstrong—8 1-5 sec.

Their standing was as follows;—

Johnston—6 seconds.
B. Lees—8 seconds.
Outram—4 seconds.
Miller—4 seconds.
Armstrong—1 second.

BASKETBALL

GAME TO-NIGHT.

A basketball game will be played to-night at the Y.M.C.A. between the Rustlers and Chieftains. This will make the second game for the Cressman trophy.

Faking Butterflies.

As the collecting of butterflies grows more popular, says an expert, more and more butterfly fakirs turn up. These men, with various aniline dye powders, color up an insect valued at 10 cents into a good resemblance worth nearly $10. Their work is hard to detect for the reason that when the dye rubs off and discolors one's fingers one suspects nothing, since the genuine dust belonging to every butterfly's wings would do the same thing.—London Globe.

The Ride of Nelson's Jim.

By CLARISSA MACKIE.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

"Here you, Jim! Harness up and take Phoebe over to Sheldon's!" Seth Nelson smiled sardonically at the whitening face of his farm hand. "Git a move on you, now. Phoebe and Owen are going to town this afternoon to buy wedding trumpery. Owen's too busy to come after her, so do you harness up and take her over."

The farm hand slowly clinched his big, brown hands, while the muscles of his strong neck hardened into rigid cords.

"So you're going to let her marry that—that—" he panted between his teeth, when the older man interrupted him angrily.

"Shut up! It's none of your business. You ain't no kin to her! This sister and brother business ends right here! When I took you out of the 'sylum I took you to help with the work and not as a member of the family. Don't you dare to open your mouth to Phoebe till you git to Sheldon's. She's tickled to death to git him," he added cruelly as he walked away.

Without another word Jim—commonly known as "Nelson's Jim"—walked toward the barn. Presently he drove around to the side entrance of the house where Phoebe Nelson waited him, shy and fluttering, her delicate cheeks alternately flushing and paling as he helped her into the buggy.

"AND—WELCOME!" HE REPLIED, WITH A WRY SMILE.

"Goodby, ma," she called in a high treble voice, waving her hand at the dining room window.

Mrs. Nelson's motherly face appeared for an instant, clouded with anxiety.

"Take good care of her, Jim!" she called after them.

Jim turned and nodded grimly at her. And then, lips set in a hard, straight line, as if he would repress the speech that had been forbidden him, he flung out his whip with a stinging lash across the mare's flank.

Phoebe uttered a frightened cry.

"Be careful, Jim! You know Bess won't stand the whip, and I'm afraid!" She turned an appealing glance toward him, but his eyes were fixed straight ahead between the pointed ears of the little black mare.

"What's the matter, Jim? You act so queer! I suppose you're mad about Owen and me, but I couldn't help it—pa just settled everything without asking me, and—and—I hate Owen Sheldon! I don't want to marry a widower!" Her voice broke suddenly, but his stern young face did not relax. Still he made no reply.

"Jim! What's the matter?" she cried again.

No reply.

"Oh, dear!" she was crying softly now under the wide brim of her flower trimmed hat. "I don't want to go—you know why, and ma knows, Jim—she likes you best—you're awful mean to make me tell it!"

Nelson's Jim turned tender brown eyes upon the young girl, and the hard lines about his mouth softened. His lips parted for an instant and then shut with a little click of his teeth. They had not yet reached Sheldon's farm.

There was a long silence then. The little black mare plunged bravely through the sand of the shore road and emerged into the highway at a point opposite the long lane of locust trees which led to Sheldon's. At this point Jim again plied his whip, and they flashed past the entrance to the lane and whirled away down the hill toward town with a shimmering stream of golden sand pouring from the tires and settling in their wake.

"Oh, Jim," cried Phoebe, with a frightened gasp. "What are you doing? Pa will kill me, so he will! And Owen—he's got a terrible temper!" She clutched his arm frantically.

Then Jim spoke.

"I got a terrible temper myself," he said savagely. "I been holding it in for twelve years because I was waiting to grow up, so's I could meet your father on his own ground. He's twitted me with being a 'sylum boy and having no name. I've found out all about it. I ain't no lost heir, Phoebe, but I've got a name. It's Browning. All my folks are dead—long ago. I've saved money, and I can take care of you. I'm going to the Baptist preacher's now. Is it all right, Phoebe, or shall I take you back to Owen?"

Phoebe hid her blushing face on his shoulder. "I'll go with you, Jim," she whispered, "and I guess I ain't afraid of pa and Owen after all."

* * * * * * *

Three hours later Nelson's Jim drove through the farm gate with his pale little wife clinging to his arm. Seth Nelson was raging around the yard with a shotgun in one hand, while his wife thrust a frightened face from the kitchen door.

With a quick leap Jim reached the ground and grasped the barrel of the weapon as Nelson raised it to his shoulder.

"It ain't loaded, you old fool!" he shouted as he wrested the gun from the farmer and leaned it against the wood shed. "Now, you listen to me, Seth Nelson. If you open your mouth before I tell you to, I'll knock you down!"

The old man's face worked savagely. He glanced toward the carriage and raised his fist against the shrinking girl. He opened his mouth as if to speak.

"Shut up!" commanded his son-in-law authoritatively. "Now, see here, my name's Browning!"

The farmer stared incredulously.

"My name's Browning," repeated Jim emphatically. "This here lady is my wife! Mrs. Browning is her name—Mrs. James Browning. It's a nice name—eh?"

Seth Nelson scowled sullenly at his farm hand.

"If you want to be a father to her and a father-in-law to me, you can act decent about it! We love each other and we got married. I got $900 in the bank, and I can take care of her. We'll board here, and I'll work for you—hands is scarce—but you've got to remember we won't be bullied!"

"You — you — you" — stuttered the farmer wildly, but his son-in-law cut him short with a wave of the hand and climbed into the buggy and turned it around. As they drove toward the gate Nelson strode after them. He cast one look around the barnyard, the unfinished chores, then away across the swelling acres waiting for the mowing machine, and the anger settled into chagrin.

"Say, you, Jim—Browning—you and your wife can board here if you want to," he said reluctantly.

"And—what?" demanded Jim Browning curtly.

Seth Nelson saw the tearful face of his wife in the doorway, and his grim face softened.

"And—welcome!" he replied, with a wry smile.

Grateful Rejected One.

"I am truly sorry to give you pain, Mr. Hankinson," said the young lady, "but please do not allude to this subject again. I can never be your wife."

"That is your final answer, Miss Irene?"

"It is."

"Nothing can induce you to change your decision?"

"My mind is finally and unalterably made up."

"Miss Irene," said the young man, rising and looking about for his hat, "before coming here this evening I made a bet of £5 with Van Perkins that you would say 'No!' to my proposal. I have won. It was taking a risk, but I was dead broke. Miss Irene," he continued, his voice quivering with emotion, "you have saved a despairing man from the fate of a suicide and won the lifelong respect and esteem of a grateful heart. Good evening."—London Answers.

Brilliant Alpine Flora.

Comparisons made by Dr. Dufour show that the superior purity and splendor of floral colors in the Alps are not imaginary or a mere effect of contrast. The reds, blues and yellows of the mountain blossoms are much more intense than those of the same species of flowers grown at ordinary levels. The leaves also have a deeper and richer green, and microscopic examination shows that chlorophyl is more abundant in Alpine plants than in those of the plains. One fact which seems quite natural, yet is very interesting, is that on the mountain plants have relatively small aerial organs and larger subterranean ones. Thus a graceful flower which in the plains is seen nodding at the summit of an aspiring stem will be found high on the mountain slopes hugging the soil, anchored by comparatively heavy roots and beaming up with accentuated beauty from the ground.—Pearson's Weekly.

Sheep or Goat?

Nan's mother heard her crying after she had gone to bed and upon inquiry learned that the child, having heard for the first time the parable of the sheep and the goats, was in terror lest she should be a goat.

Her grandfather, a clergyman, tried to comfort Nan and finally succeeded in convincing her that if she led a "godly, righteous and sober life" she need not fear the objectionable classification. However, the next night Nan was again the victim of her emotions, and her mother insisted that the scene of the previous night must not be repeated.

"But, oh, mamma," sobbed the child, "this is different. Grandfather explained all about me, and I am not afraid for myself now. But, oh, mamma, what if you should be a goat?"—Delineator.

A Possibility.

"Suppose women should vote, what would be the result?"

"Oh, I don't know," answered Sirius Barker petulantly. "Perhaps we'd have hand painted ballots."—Washington Star.

Christian Science Daily.

Boston, Oct. 17.—The Christian Science Sentinel in this week's number announces the starting by the Christian Science Publishing Society of a daily paper, to be known as The Christian Science Monitor.

There will be no exploitation or illustration of vice and crime, but the aim of the editors will be to issue a paper which will be welcomed in every home where purity and refinement are cherished ideals.

Can't Fill Bishopric.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Giving as a controlling reason that his work in Boston, Mass., is still unfinished, Rev. Dr. Alexander Mann, rector of Trinity (Episcopal) Church of that city, has declined the position of Bishop of Washington to succeed the late Right Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee.

Bishop Brent of the Philippines has twice declined it.

Riel's Ex-Secretary Is a Candidate.

Prince Albert, Sask., Oct. 17.—Honore Jaxon or Jackson, ex-secretary of Louis Riel, and for many years a prominent labor union official in Chicago, purposes running in this riding as an independent.

There is some doubt as to his status as a British subject, as he is almost certainly a naturalized American.

Railway Bridge Destroyed.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 16.—A despatch to The Novoe Vremya yesterday, received from Belgrade says that the railway bridge over the Bosnia river, at Vranduk, Bosnia, has been blown up and destroyed, thus cutting off communication with Serayevo, the capital of Bosnia.

Car Shortage Curtails Trade.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 17.—Several saw mills are closing because the northwest trade has fallen off, and it is impossible to get cars to handle trade that is offering.

Western Elevator Destroyed.

Macdonald, Man., Oct. 19.—The Winnipeg elevator at this point was totally destroyed by fire Friday evening. The elevator contained 5,000 bushels of wheat, which will be a total loss.

Suicide at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—Ralph Graves, aged 23, employed by Chares and Bertram, butchers, committed suicide on Friday at his home on Bannadyne avenue by drinking carbolic acid.

Two Hairs.

"I begin to realize," said young Mr. Kallow, "that I am no longer a mere youth now that I've got a little hair on my lip."

"Yes," said Miss Knox, "and I suppose in a month or so you'll have another one."—Catholic Standard and Times.

GOOD MORALS

All working men of Peterborough,
Now give me an ear,
The reins of power are in your hands,
So guide them without fear.
The Government you have tested well
And things are looking queer.
Morality is at a low ebb,
The evidence is clear.

Your franchise is a precious gift,
Like pure spring water,
A change of Government would do good,
Morals would be better,
The reins of power are in your hands,
On this moral matter,
Let good morals be your greatest aim
Dishonesty scatter.

OPERA COMPANY ON THE ROCKS

"Three Little Maids" Disbanded at Brantford

The "Three Little Maids" Company, which was at the Grand Opera House here recently and pleased a Peterborough audience, disbanded after reaching Brantford. Poor business was responible. The company accumulated a hotel bill of $100 in Hamilton, and when the cashier was approached, he responded. "No funds," whereat the proprietor protested and continued to protest until the manager of the Brantford opera house came to the rescue and guaranteed the amount of the account. The Hamilton man got his money by going to Brantford, and after their experience in Canada, the leading lady proceeded to lead the way to Broadway.

THE MYSTERY

BY STEWART EDWARD WHITE and SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS

COPYRIGHTED 1907, BY McCLURE, PHILLIPS & CO.

"It's a fact," said the ensign heatedly. "Why, a couple of years back there was a trader here stocked up with a lot of belly mixture in bottles. Thought he was going to make his pile because there'd been a colic epidemic in the islands the season before. Bottles were labeled 'Do not shake.' That settled the business. Might as well have marked 'em 'Keep frozen' in this part of the world. Fellow went broke."

"In any case," said Barnett, "such a glow as that we sighted last night I've never seen from any volcano."

"Nor I," said Trendon. "Don't prove it mightn't have been."

"I'll just bet the best dinner in San Francisco that it isn't," said Edwards.

"You're on," said Carter.

"Let me in," suggested Ives.

"And I'll take one of it," said McGuire.

"Come one, come all," said Edwards cheerily. "I'll live high on the collective bad judgment of this outfit."

"Tonight isn't likely to settle it anyhow," said Ives. "I move we turn in."

Expectant minds do not lend themselves to sound slumber. All night the officers of the Wolverine slept on the verge of waking, but it was not until dawn that the cry of "Sail ho!" sent them all hurrying to their clothes. Ordinarily officers of the United States navy do not scuttle on deck like a crowd of curious schoolgirls, but all hands had been keyed to a high pitch over the elusive light, and the bet with Edwards now served as an excuse for the betrayal of unusual eagerness; hence the quarter deck was soon alive with men who were wont to be deep in dreams at that hour.

They found Carter, whose watch on deck it was, reprimanding the lookout.

"No, sir," the man was insisting, "she didn't show no light, sir. I'd 'a' sighted her an hour ago, sir, if she had."

"We shall see," said Carter grimly. "Who's your relief?"

"Sennett."

"Let him take your place. Go aloft, Sennett."

As the lookout, crestfallen and surly, went below Barnett said in subdued tones:

"Upon my word, I shouldn't be surprised if the man was right. Certainly there's something queer about that hooker. Look how she handles herself!"

The vessel was some three miles to windward. She was a schooner of the common two masted Pacific type, but she was comporting herself in a manner uncommon on the Pacific or any other ocean. Even as Barnett spoke she heeled well over and came rushing up into the wind, where she stood with all sails shaking. Slowly she paid off again, bearing away from them. Now she gathered full headway, yet edged little by little to windward again.

"Mighty queer tactics," muttered Edwards. "I think she's steering herself."

"Good thing she carries a weather helm," commented Ives, who was an expert on sailing rigs. "Most of that type do. Otherwise she'd have jibed her masts out, running loose that way."

Captain Parkinson appeared on deck and turned his glasses for a full minute on the strange schooner.

"Aloft there!" he hailed the crow's nest. "Do you make out any one aboard?"

"No, sir!" came the answer.

"Mr. Carter, have the chief quartermaster report on deck with the signal flags."

"Yes, sir."

"Aren't we going to run up to her?" asked McGuire, turning in surprise to Edwards.

"And take the risk of getting a hole punched in our pretty paint with her running amuck that way? Not much!"

Up came the signal quartermaster to get his orders, and there ensued a one sided conversation in the pregnant language of the sea.

"What ship is that?"

No answer.

"Are you in trouble?" asked the cruiser and waited. The schooner showed a bare and silent main peak.

"Heave to." Now Uncle Sam was giving orders.

But the other paid no heed.

"We'll make that a little more emphatic," said Captain Parkinson. A moment later there was the sharp crash of a gun, and a shot went across the bows of the sailing vessel. Hastened by a flaw of wind that veered from the normal direction of the breeze the stranger made sharply to windward, as if to obey.

"Ah, there she comes!" ran the comment along the cruiser's quarterdeck.

But the schooner, after standing for a moment, all flapping, answered another flaw and went wide about on the opposite tack.

"Derelict," remarked Captain Parkinson. "She seems to be in good shape, too, Dr. Trendon."

"Yes, sir." The surgeon went to the captain, and the others could hear his deep, abrupt utterance in reply to some question too low for their ears.

"Might be, sir. Beriberi, maybe. More likely smallpox or anything of that kind. But some of 'em would be on deck."

"Whew! A plague ship!" said Billy Edwards. "Just my luck to be ordered to board her." He shivered slightly.

"Scared, Billy?" said Ives. Edwards had a record for daring which made this joke obvious enough to be safe.

"I wouldn't want to have my peculiar style of beauty spoiled by smallpox marks," said the ensign, with a smile on his homely, winning face. "And I've a hunch that that ship is not a lucky find for this ship."

"Then I've a hunch that your hunch is a wrong one," said Ives. "How long would you guess that craft to be?"

They were now within a mile of the schooner. Edwards scrutinized her calculatingly.

"Eighty to ninety feet."

"Say 150 tons. And she's a two masted schooner, isn't she?" continued Ives insinuatingly.

"She certainly is."

"Well, I've a hunch that that ship is a lucky find for any ship, but particularly for this ship."

"Great Caesar!" cried the ensign excitedly. "Do you think it's her?"

A buzz of electric interest went around the group. Every glass was raised. Every eye strained toward her stern to read the name as she veered into the wind again. About she came. A sharp sigh of excited disappointment exhaled from the spectators. The name had been painted out.

"No go," breathed Edwards. "But I'll bet another dinner"—

"Mr. Edwards," called the captain. "You will take the second cutter, board that schooner and make a full investigation."

"Yes, sir."

"Take your time. Don't come alongside until she is in the wind. Leave enough men aboard to handle her."

"Yes, sir."

The schooner steamed to within half a mile of the aimless traveler, and the small boat put out. Not one of his fellows but envied the young ensign as he left the ship, steered by Timmins, a veteran bo's'n's mate, wise in all the ins and outs of sea ways. They saw him board, neatly running the small boat under the schooner's counter. They saw the foresheet eased off and the ship run up into the wind. Then the foresail dropped and the wheel lashed so that she would stand so. They awaited the reappearance of Edwards and the bo's'n's mate when they had vanished below decks, and with an intensity of eagerness they followed the return of the small boat.

Billy Edwards' face as he came on deck was a study. It was alight with excitement. Yet between the eyes two deep wrinkles of puzzlement quivered. Such a face the mathematician bends above his paper when some obstructive factor arises between him and his solution.

"Well, sir?" There was a hint of effort at restraint in the captain's voice.

"She's the Laughing Lass, sir. Everything shipshape, but not a soul aboard."

"Come below, Mr. Edwards," said the captain. And they went, leaving behind them a boiling caldron of theory and conjecture.

CHAPTER III.

Billy Edwards came on deck with a line of irritation right angling the furrows between his eyes.

"Go ahead," the quarter deck bade him, seeing him aflush with information.

"The captain won't believe me," blurted out Edwards.

"Is it as bad as that?" asked Barnett, smiling.

"It certainly is," replied the younger man seriously. "I don't know that I blame him. I'd hardly believe it myself if I hadn't"—

"Oh, go on! Out with it! Give us the facts. Never mind your credibility."

"The facts are that there lies the Laughing Lass a little weather worn, but sound as a dollar, and not a living being aboard of her. Her boats are all there. Everything's in good condition, though none too orderly. Pitcher half full of fresh water in the rack. Sails all O. K. Ashes of the galley fire still warm. I tell you, gentlemen, that ship hasn't been deserted more than a couple of days at the outside."

"Are you sure all the boats are there?" asked Ives.

"Dory, dingey and two surfboats. Isn't that enough?"

"Plenty."

"Been over her, inside and out. No sign of collision. No leak. No anything, except that the starboard side is blistered a bit. No evidence of fire anywhere else. I tell you," said Billy Edwards pathetically, "it's given me a headache."

"Perhaps it's one of those cases of panic that Forsythe spoke of the other night," said Ives. "The crew got frightened at something and ran away, with the devil after them."

"But crews don't just step out and run around the corner and hide when they're scared," objected Barnett.

"That's true, too," assented Ives. "Well, perhaps that volcanic eruption jarred them so that they jumped for it."

"Pretty wild theory, that," said Edwards.

Cook's Cotton Root Compound.

The great Uterine Tonic, and only safe effectual Monthly Regulator on which women can depend. Sold in three degrees of strength—No. 1, $1; No. 2, 10 degrees stronger, $3; No. 3, for special cases, $5 per box. Sold by all druggists, or sent prepaid on receipt of price. Free pamphlet. Address: The Cook Medicine Co., Toronto, Ont. (formerly Windsor)

"No wilder than the facts, as you give them," was the retort.

"That's so," admitted the ensign gloomily.

"But how about pestilence?" suggested Barnett.

"Maybe they died fast, and the last survivor, after the bodies of the rest were overboard, got delirious and jumped after them."

"Not if the galley fire was hot," said Dr. Trendon briefly. "No; pestilence doesn't work that way."

"Did you look at the wheel, Billy?" asked Ives.

"Did I? There's another thing. Wheel's all right, but compass is no good at all. It's regularly bewitched."

"What about the log, then?"

"Couldn't find it anywhere. Hunted high, low, jack and the game; everywhere except in the big, brass bound chest I found in the captain's cabin. Couldn't break into that."

"Dr. Schermerhorn's chest!" exclaimed Barnett. "Then he was aboard."

"Well, he isn't aboard now," said the ensign grimly. "Not in the flesh. And that's all," he added suddenly.

"No, it isn't all," said Barnett gently. "There's something else. Captain's orders?"

"Oh, no. Captain Parkinson doesn't take enough stock in my report to tell me to withhold anything," said Edwards, with a trace of bitterness in his voice. "It's nothing that I believe myself, anyhow."

"Give us a chance to believe it," said Ives.

"Well," said the ensign hesitantly, "there's a sort of atmosphere about that schooner that's almost uncanny."

"Oh, you had the shudders before you were ordered to board," bantered Ives.

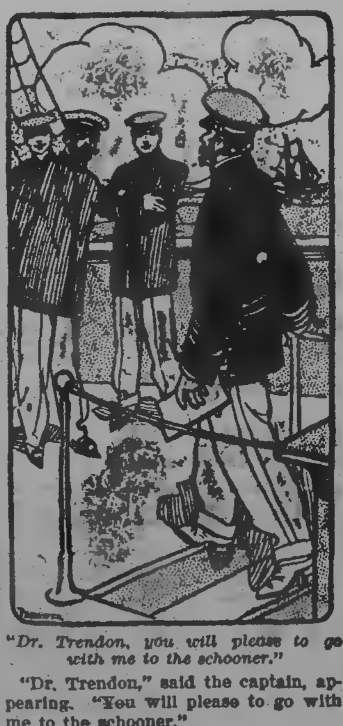
"I know it. I'd have thought it was one of those fool presentiments if I were the only one to feel it. But the men were affected too. They kept together, like frightened sheep. And I heard one say to another, 'Hey, Boney, d'you feel like some one was a-buzzin' your nerves like a fiddle string?' Now," demanded Edwards plaintively, "what right has a jackie to have nerves?"

"That's strange enough about the compass," said Barnett slowly. "Ours is all right again. The schooner must have been so near the electric disturbance that her instruments were permanently deranged."

"That would lend weight to the volcanic theory," said Carter.

"So the captain didn't take kindly to your go-look-see?" questioned Ives of Edwards.

"As good as told me I'd missed the point of the thing," said the ensign, flushing. "Perhaps he can make more of it himself. At any rate he's going to try. Here he is now."



"Dr. Trendon, you will please to go with me to the schooner."

"Dr. Trendon," said the captain, appearing. "You will please to go with me to the schooner."

"Yes, sir," said the surgeon, rising from his chair with such alacrity as to draw from Ives the sardonic comment:

"Why, I actually believe old Trendon is excited."

For two hours after the departure of the captain and Trendon there were dull times on the quarter deck of the Wolverine. Then the surgeon came back to them.

"Billy was right," he said.

"But he didn't tell us anything!" cried Ives. "He didn't clear up the mystery."

"That's what," said Trendon. "One thing Billy said," he added, waxing unusually prolix for him, "was truer than maybe he knew."

"Thanks," murmured the ensign. "What was that?"

"You said 'Not a living being aboard.' Exact words, hey?"

"Well, what of it?" exclaimed the ensign excitedly. "You don't mean you found dead"—

"Keep your temperature down, my boy. No. You were exactly right. Not a living being aboard."

"Thanks for nothing," retorted the ensign.

"Neither human nor other," pursued Trendon.

"What!"

"Food scattered around the galley. Crumbs on the mess table. Ever see a wooden ship without cockroaches?"

"Never particularly investigated the matter."

"Don't believe such a thing exists," said Ives.

"Not a cockroach on the Laughing Lass. Ever know of an old hooker that wasn't overrun with rats?"

"No, nor any one else. Not above water."

"Found a dozen dead rats. No sound or sign of a live one on the Laughing Lass. No rats, no mice, no bugs. Gentlemen, the Laughing Lass is a charnel ship."

"No wonder Billy's tender nerves went wrong," said Ives, with irrepressable flippancy. "She's probably haunted by cockroach wraiths."

MANY ATTENDED MASS MEETING

At Opera House Yesterday—Temperance Cause Strongly Presented

The mass meeting held at the Grand Opera House yesterday afternoon and evening, under the auspices of the City Temperance and Moral Reform League were both largely attended. The theatre was packed on both occasions and the addresses were followed with deep interest.

Rev. J. G. Potter was chairman at the afternoon meeting, and the Salvation Army band and a massed choir from the city churches were in attendance. The choir was under the direction of Mr. W. E. McCann. The choir and band rendered excellent service.

The first speaker was Rev. James Lynch, of Toronto who referred to the benefits of temperance and the good that would come as a result of the abolition of the bar.

Mrs. Owen Hitchcox, of Toronto, eloquently and dramatically described the difference that existed between the home and the bar-room. She showed how many homes had been ruined by drink.

Mr. B. H. Spence, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, dealt with the local option question, and showed that local option had been a success wherever introduced.

Mr. Gordon Wright sang, "Where is My Wandering Boy To-night," the choir joining in the chorus. Mr. J. C. Miller acted as solo cornetist very acceptably, and a ladies' quartette sang very effectively.

The stage setting was very artistic, the scenery being arranged by Mr. Turner to give the setting the appearance of a church.

Rev. W. G. Henderson led in prayer at the afternoon meeting.

At the evening meeting Master Percy Mulhern sang, "Tell Mother I'll be There," the audience joining in the chorus.

Mr. Spence again dealt with the local option question in a very able manner.

The stereopticon views shown by Mr. W. E. Dyer, of Toronto were very fine. They consisted of a series of cartoons depicting the different phases of the liquor traffic and its results. Mr. Spence explained the views.

ENTHUSIASTIC RALLY OF THE CONSERVATIVES

len industry which had been almost wiped out during the last 12 years, because of the lack of adequate protection; and the fact that the Auburn mills had been spared to Peterborough was due almost entirely to the exceptional foresight and ability as a woollen manufacturer, of Mr. James Kendrey.

It was well known that Canada was passing through a dangerous period of financial depression. This was mainly due to the startling fact that in the last five years the imports of this country had exceeded the exports by about $300,000,000. Money was the life blood of a nation and no young country could continue to stand such a drain upon its vital forces without being in serious danger of national breakdown or bankruptcy. Had it not been for numerous loans floated in England which brought many millions to Canada the financial depression would have been much more severe. But every loan was a mortgage on our future resources and economy in public expenditures during the years of surplus revenues, would have been a safer and wiser policy.

Instead of economy there had been unprecedented extravagance and waste. Middlemen grafters had looted the public treasury to the extent of millions. No attempt had been made to prepare for the lean years, and now with rapidly lessening revenues, and enormous G.T.P. debts, accumulating the financial condition of Canada was one to cause grave concern to thoughtful citizens.—Applause.

There was no possible excuse for the sale of thousands of square miles of timber lands in the Northwest for a few thousand dollars. Let them picture to themselves a strip of timber lands a mile wide, and extending from Montreal to Vancouver and they would have some conception of the vast domain sold to party friends, by Sir Wilfrid Laurier's government for trifling sums to be held for speculation. How dared any government trustees so waste the national resources.

Mr. R. L. Borden and his colleagues were today dictating the policy of the country. The Halifax platform had been scornfully criticized by the Liberal press, and by members of the government but Laurier had gone to the country after adopting four of Borden's planks. Should not the man whose constructive statesmanship was shaping the destiny of this country be Canada's premier?

MR. R. J. SODEN

Mr. R. J. Soden made one of the best speeches of the evening. He told of the conditions under which manufacturing is carried on in Germany, the speaker having visited many of the large manufacturing centres in that country, and showed how it was impossible for the manufacturers of Canada to produce goods as cheaply as the Germans. For this reason last of rally Canada should have a protection policy in order that manufacturing might flourish and every man have work at a fair wage. In Germany, the manufacturer in many cases gave out the raw material to the workman who took it home with him and worked on it at his home. Nearly every member in the family assisted in the work as there was no law making it compulsory to send the children to school.

Mr. Soden also cited other instances showing the need of a protection policy in Canada.

At the Grand Opera House, Mr. Stratton said that if he were sent to Ottawa he would do the same as he had at Toronto. Did the electors want that. If Mr. Stratton did at Ottawa what he did at Toronto the name of West Peterborough would be brought into disgrace.

The rally closed with the usual cheers.

Accuracy Quality and Price

Are three prime considerations in eye glasses. In price we please our patrons, and this is an important factor in our increase of business. We supply glasses from one dollar up, according to requirement of the eyes. And all our kinds of lenses, qualities of frames are of unsurpassed value. In quality of material, style, workmanship we speak with confidence of the eye glasses and spectacles, which we are daily supplying. Accuracy in focal powers best suited to the special requirements of each individual eye, is of course, of first importance, each case receives our undivided attention. In Accuracy, Quality and Price we are pleasing our patrons.

FINE PRODUCTION OF "OTHELLO"

Excellent Work of Principals—Large Demand for Seats

The Scranton Truth of last Monday has the following to say of the production of "Othello" by Mr. John Griffith:

After having given "Othello" at a matinee, Mr. John Griffith appeared in fine form as "Macbeth" at the Lyceum theatre last Saturday evening. Either of these tragedies would seem sufficient for a day's work, but Mr. Griffith is a man of remarkable physical resources, and his energetic presentation of Macbeth lacked nothing in fire or finish by reason of the physical tax imposed by the afternoon performance. It is twelve years ago since Mr. Griffiths, then a very young man, first appeared in Scranton as "Richard the Third." The fine impression he made then has been confirmed by his ripened powers, as witnessed in his rugged impersonation of Macbeth on Saturday night. Mr. Griffith recalls the heroic school of acting of which Forrest and John McCullough were the types. He is superbly endowed physically, and enters into his work with all the intense earnestness demanded by this great character. In this vaudeville age, it is a pleasure to find a man like Mr. Griffith upholding the best traditions of the stage. He deserves to be appreciated for this, as well as for his splendid acting. He is still in the prime of life, ambitious, energetic, industrious and gifted and I have not seen an actor in many a day so well qualified to bring back to the stage the glory it enjoyed in its best estate when genius trod the boards and intellect thronged the houses. It, as we are told, Shakespeare is obsolete, the fault is in ourselves. Human nature will have to be obsolete before Shakespeare is. I shall be glad to learn of the success of John Griffith. He deserves it. I understand it was Miss Edith Totten's first appearance as Lady Macbeth. She did her best work in the sleep-walking scene. Her enunciation is clear and she possesses a well modulated voice and a fine stage appearance. These are excellent equipments to which experience will undoubtedly give added grace and power.

THE HOOK

The "last awful week" started yesterday.

One week from to-day will tell the tale.

The smoke from the campaign cigars is becoming thicker.

The Liberal candidates who will be sent back to the woods on October 26th will have to look out for the bush fires.

Hon. J. R. Stratton is the man to vote for on April 20th. Don't forget that.

Mr. Stratton says he will do the same at Ottawa as he did at Toronto. We hope it will not be that bad.

Filibuster Captured Going to Montenegro.

Austrian Naval Guard Wages War for Hours With Montenegrin Mob.

Berlin, Oct. 20.—According to the Vienna correspondent of The Tageblatt there has been a skirmish between an Austrian naval guard and a mob of Montenegrins at Antivari. The correspondent says in his despatch: "It is reported here from Antivari that a crowd of Montenegrins threatened the Austrian consul. A guard for the protection of the consul was sent ashore from the Austrian squadron. The guard had a desultory skirmish with the mob, which lasted several hours."

The Tageblatt's Budapest correspondent says: "An Austrian torpedo boat has arrested a British steamer near Cattars, on the Bay of Antivari, laden with arms and ammunition, destined for Montenegro."

War Cloud Dispersed.

London, Oct. 20.—The cloud which lowered over the near eastern situation on Saturday has been dispersed. The belief in the best-informed quarters still is that peace will be unbroken.

A despatch from Sofia to The Times says that it is understood that Bulgaria is willing to negotiate for the purchase of the Oriental Railroad, either with Turkey or with the company for a sum to cover the company's rights and Turkish proprietary rights.

DRAMATIC CLUB.

A movement is on foot to organize a dramatic club in Peterborough and it is expected that it will be carried to a successful issue. There is plenty of material for an organization of this nature and if it is conducted along the right lines should meet with success. A meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. on Friday night at eight o'clock to take the initial steps towards organizing.

LAST MEETING OF CHEESE BOARD

The last meeting of the cheese board this year will be held tomorrow morning at ten o'clock at the Bank of Montreal chambers. In the afternoon a meeting will be held to elect a director from this district for the annual convention of the Eastern Ontario Dairyman's Association.

RICHARD IRVING THE EVANGELIST

Will Begin Series of Meetings To-night at Gospel Hall

Mr. Richard Irving, the evangelist arrived in the city last night and will hold his first meeting tonight in the Gospel hall. His subject will be the "Faithful quartette." He will conduct meetings every night this week and next. He is a decidedly interesting speaker and no doubt large crowds will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear him.

MR. BURNHAM HELD ROUSING MEETING AT LAKEHURST

Over One Hundred in Attendance—Much Enthusiasm Shown—Old Time Liberals Will Vote Conservative.

From all appearances there is going to be a big cut in the Liberal majority in the northern part of the county on Monday. The Conservatives of the district are working hard for Mr Burnham and many electors who voted Liberal at past elections will mark their ballot for a change of government this time.

Mr Burnham held a meeting in the town hall at Lakehurst last night and over a hundred were in attendance. About thirty of these were ladies, the fair sex manifesting great interest in the present campaign

Mr David Weir was chairman and filled the position very acceptably.

Mr. Burnham was given a hearty reception and filled the position very acceptably. He dealt with the issues of the day in a very able manner and presented many strong reasons why there should be a change of government next Monday.

Mr. R. J. Soden, who was the other speaker, was in fine form and made a vigorous attack on the government. He scored the present administration for their immigration policy and the way they had handled labor questions.

The meeting which was the largest and most enthusiastic ever held at Lakehurst, closed with the usual cheers.

WM. HAMILTON COMPANY'S MACHINERY IS FAR FAMED

Is Giving Greatest Satisfaction in the Many Places it is Used—New Company Thoroughly Organized and Will be Ready for Business in Few Weeks.

From one end of Canada to the other among the vast lumbering industries there is no machinery better known and more appreciated than that manufactured by the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company of Peterborough. All the large saw mills in the Dominion have been equipped with their machinery and the greatest satisfaction with it has always been expressed.

The new company, which has been recently formed to continue the business, is receiving letters from old customers from all parts of the country expressing the utmost pleasure and satisfaction that the plant is to be continued. The customers one and all say that it is a veritable hardship to keep their machinery in repair without the help of the William Hamilton Company.

For years back the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company has turned out new machinery to the extent of upwards of $200,000.00 each year. As the company has all the patterns and drawings of the parts of each machine, it is only natural that here is the only place the customers can secure repairs at a reasonable cost. To keep in repair the millions of dollars worth of machinery they have manufactured in the past, which is distributed far and wide, is one of the chief sources of profit to the company. This work alone keeps the plant busy for several months in the course of each year.

About four months ago Mr. Baker, a large lumber merchant of New Zealand, came to Canada to study the condition of the lumbering industry here. He naturally went to British Columbia and there found most of the new mills equipped with William Hamilton machinery, and heard nothing but praise and satisfaction expressed for it. He came to Ontario and spent six weeks between Toronto and Peterborough trying to get the works here to take an order for over $30,000 worth of machinery for his mills in New Zealand. As the new company was not then organized he had to place his order elsewhere. But this illustrates how easy it is for the plant here to secure all the work and business they can handle.

Requests every day are coming in for quotations on saw mill machinery, water wheels, boilers and engines now that it is known the plant is about to resume operations. There are also a large number of repair jobs waiting.

Every indication points to the passing away of the hard times the country has experienced during the last two years, and the new company is ready to start with the new era of prosperity. There is plenty of work ahead for it, and when it starts nothing can retard its progress but lack of capital. Capital, however, will be supplied by Peterborough people.

In a few days there will be given to everybody an opportunity to invest in this company. The entire plant will be purchased at an extremely low figure—it an immense bargain, in fact, and everyone can share in the bargain if they accept it in time.

QUICK RESPONSE OF FIRE BRIGADE

There was a chimney fire this morning at the residence of Mrs. Jas. Campbell, 340 1-2 Water street, that would undoubtedly have been attended by serious results had it not been looked after in time as the chimney was in very bad condition.

However, the fire brigade answered the call promptly and no damage was done.

THE MONTREAL STAR'S OPINION

The following is from the Montreal Star, which is taking an independent stand in the present election:

"The Toronto Globe has the following interesting item from Peterborough, describing the first meeting held in that city by Hon. J. R. Stratton: "Mr. Stratton's striking address was received by the audience in a way that proved he had lost none of his old-time popularity, and that his election on October 26th will be only a matter of the size of his majority. In addition to the local speakers, Hon. Senator Cox spoke very effectively, and referred to Mr. Stratton as the man Peterborough wanted to promote its material interests." Can it be that the Globe has "forgotten some things" after all? And what was Senator Cox about, making one of his exceedingly rare political speeches to bolster up a man like Stratton? The Globe had a man once whom Stratton could not seduce; but he does not seem to be either editor or stockholder,"

City Council Deals With Proposition of Miss Wallis

At a meeting of the committee of the whole Council last night the proposition of Miss Katharine E. Wallis to execute a life-size statute of the late Mrs. Nicholls was considered. It was pointed out that the cost would be about $2,000. Miss Wallis' intention being to execute the work in Paris.

Mayor Rush and the aldermen expressed sympathy with the project, and in doing so referred to the fact that they were proud of Miss Wallis. She was a Peterborough girl of remarkable ability and had made a name for herself in the world of art.

While the Council was in favor of giving Miss Wallis the order to execute a statute of a great benefactress of the city, it was decided to leave the matter in abeyance for a few days, until it was seen what was going to be done in connection with the Public Library. It is understood that Ald. Bradburn, chairman of the Property Committee, and Mr. Richard Hall, trustee of the Nicholls estate, will shortly visit several Canadian cities where there are Public Libraries, and endeavor to secure information that will enable them to come to a definite conclusion regarding the Peterborough Library.

Those present at the meeting were: Mayor Rush, Ald. Neill, McIntyre, Buller, Tovey, Johnston, Gillespie, Elliott, Bradburn and Morgan.

BURNED TO DEATH

Sad Fate of Old Man and Child at Uxbridge

Special to the Review.

Uxbridge, Oct. 20.—The house of Chas Jackson of Jackson Hill, about a mile and a half south of this town was destroyed by fire last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson who are old, were alone except for the presence of two little granddaughters about three and a half years old.

Mrs. Jackson got the children out but one of them went back into the house and with Mr. Jackson who was sick in bed, perished in the flames.

Work of Warne Bros.

The silver trowel presented to Mr. J. R. Stratton on Saturday afternoon at the laying of the corner stone of Park street Baptist church was purchased from Warne Bros., jewellers. It is of handsome design and nicely engraved.

ONLY TWO BY ACCLAMATION RESULTS OF THE NOMINATIONS

Every Seat Will be Contested Except Maclean's and Brodeur's—Ald. Fiset is Put up to Contest Quebec East Against Laurier.

Toronto, Oct. 20.—There was only one election by acclamation in Ontario, W. F. Maclean, the former Conservative member for South York.

In five other constituencies no Liberal appeared. Two Conservatives are opposed to each other in Frontenac, and two Liberals in a similar position in Prescott. Against Major Beattie, the former Conservative member for London, there is running J. W. McCandlass, a labor man.

Apparently the only election by acclamation in Quebec was in Rouville, where no opponent to Hon. L. P. Brodeur, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, appeared, and he, also, is sure of his seat in the next Parliament. It was expected that Sir Wilfrid Laurier would have no opponent in Quebec East, but an acclamation for the Prime Minister would have seriously interfered with the plan of campaign and the appearance of Ald. Fiset as competitor was a surprise to most people.

If Sir Wilfrid had been elected in Quebec East it would have invalidated his candidature in Ottawa City, as the law provides that no man who is already a member of Parliament can be a candidate for another seat.

In Ontario the Liberals have left South Toronto and London to labor candidates and West Toronto and East Toronto to independents.

SHOOTING PATRIDGE

Partridge are said to be plentiful in the northern part of the county this fall and, although a law has been passed that they must not be taken this year, it is reported that the statute is not being observed. Reports have reached the city of hunters shooting partridge whenever an opportunity presents.

HALLOWE'EN SOCIAL HELD LAST NIGHT

Enjoyable Time Spent by Young People at Knox Church

A Hallowe'en social was held at Knox church last night under the auspices of the Young People's Society. A large number were in attendance and a most enjoyable time was spent.

After the singing of a hymn, prayer was led by Mr. Davenport, and a portion of scripture was read. Miss Eva Bartley gave a recitation, "Biddy's Troubles." Miss Agnes Carr sang, "You're Welcome as the Flowers in May," and Miss Lottie Childs and Miss Sisson played a piano duet. Little Miss Catherine Cuffe sang "School Days" very acceptably, and a guessing game was announced by Miss Warne. The games, etc., were under the direction of Miss Menzies, who deserves credit for the excellent way in which they were carried out.

Altogether the evening was a most enjoyable one.

VILLAGE IN PERIL

Brownhill Threatened by Fire.

Has Reached Outskirts of Community and Men Are Battling the Flames.

Brownhill, Ont., Oct. 20.—Bush fires which have been smouldering for a month in this vicinity, Sunday burst into flames and rapidly spread to the village, destroying several houses on the outskirts before they could be checked. Late yesterday the community was threatened and every available man is working to extinguish the fires.

A gang of Toronto boys working on a steel bridge at this place started for their camp with a team of horses, but were soon compelled to send the horses back on account of the heat and smoke. They resumed their journey on foot and reached the house just in time to save its contents. They then started for two small cabins in a thickly foliaged swamp. On the way Teddy Tatener, one of the party, was overcome by smoke and had to be carried back to the headquarters. The cabins were subsequently saved from destruction by great effort.

Two women, occupants of one of the cabins, were rescued after heroic endeavors on the part of N. P. Bell, county engineer, and the band of fire fighters. After a long struggle the men succeeded in controlling the flames for the time being.

THE DEPRESSION IS VERY EVIDENT IN PITTSBURG

Mr. Lou Brooks Tells of Conditions in That City—Steel Plants Running on Short Hours—Taft Has Confidence of Manufacturers.

Mr. Lou Brooks, of the American Locomotive Works, Pittsburg, is in the city on a visit of a couple of weeks or so to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brooks, Dalhousie street. After his visit here Mr. Brooks will probably go to Providence, Rhode Island to join the staff of the Automobile plant of the American Locomotive Company at that place.

Mr. Brooks states that things are unusually dull on the other side, and are likely to remain so until after the presidential elections. In Pittsburg the steel industry, which is the most important one in the Smoky City is affected to the greatest extent. The majority of the steel plants shut down early and are nearly all running only three days a week. It is expected however that affairs will take a turn by spring when quite an industrial awakening is looked for. In fact it is thought conditions will begin to get better immediately after the elections.

Mr. Brooks says Taft is looked upon as the candidate with the better chances. A great many seem to favor Bryan however, but the manufacturers want Taft and his election is looked for.

DISTRICT EPWORTH LEAGUE IN CONVENTION YESTERDAY

Many in Atttendance at Charlotte St. Church—"An Appeal to Young Men" Subject of Address Last Evening by Rev. W. P. Rogers B. A., of Millbrook.

The Epworth League of the Peterborough district was in convention here yesterday, when a large number of delegates from the circuit were present. The meetings were largely attended, especially that of the evening, when the Charlotte street church was well filled with young people. The feature of the evening session was the address by Rev. W. P. Rogers, B. A., of Millbrook, "An Appeal to Young Men."

At the evening meeting Rev. G. W. Henderson presided, and after the opening devotional exercises, he expressed his pleasure at seeing such a large number present, and introduced the speaker, Rev. W. P. Rogers, B.A.

Rev. Mr. Rogers, at the outset, stated that his subject was especially to young men, but as he looked over his audience he saw that they were conspicuous by their absence. In the present age he stated that much attention was given to the young men. He compared the present with the old Grecian custom, when it was the old men that were chosen for the important work. There was a complete reversal of things now. The old men do not occupy the high positions. In the present British Cabinet, the speaker remarked, the members were all under forty.

"The best part of our lives is our youth," he continued. "It is the time when we are strong in mind and body." He stated that this was an age of peculiar educational advantages, and the doors of opportunity stood wide open to the young men.

He referred to the great Dominion of Canada as being the best land under the sun. He concluded by saying that if any young man wanted to serve God and his country he knew of no better way than spreading Christ's kingdom among the people.

BIG ISLAND IS IN FLAMES

Eight Hundred Acres in Balsam Lake Said to be on Fire

Lindsay, Oct. 19.—Last evening there there was a distinct appearance and odor of smoke in our streets, so much so that everybody was asking where was the fire.

An army of men have been fighting the bush fires in the north country during the past two or three days. The entire country north of and around Haliburton is on fire, and if rain does not soon come they will be unable to control them.

It is reported that Big Island in Balsam Lake, owned by Mr. Austin, of Fenelon Falls, and containing [illegible] acres, is all on fire. Bush fires [illegible] also raging around Barrie, [illegible] Huntsville and other northern [illegible]

GIVE THE CHILDREN PLENTY OF FRUIT

It Helps to Keep Them Well.

In a growing, active child the cells of which the body is composed are being worn out—and replaced — very rapidly. This dead tissue must be gotten rid of somehow, and the danger is that the eliminating organs—the Bowels, Kidneys and Skin—may not do their work well enough. Then the blood becomes poisoned and the child does not thrive.

Nothing has such an invigorating effect on these organs as ripe fruit juices. Apple juice increases the action of the kidneys; other fruit juices stimulate the liver to secrete more bile, and bile produces easy and regular movements of the bowels; others stir up the glands of the skin to throw off more waste matter.

The difficulty is that to get these effects a great deal of fruit must be eaten, and the excess of pulp and woody matter may upset the digestion. The better way is to give the children "Fruit-a-tives", which are tablets made of concentrated fruit juices with valuable tonics added.

"Fruit-a-tives" have the combined effect of the different fruit juices, helping all the eliminating organs to work properly, curing Constipation, toning up the system, and keeping the children plump and rosy. 25c. for a trial box. 50c. for regular size—6 boxes for $2.50. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

A RUINED INDUSTRY

Reducing Canada's tariff by one-third in favor of British-made goods, has almost ruined the Canadian woollen industry. In 1900 the Dominion had 157 woollen mills and six mills making woollen yarn, all employing a capital of $10,000,000. In 1905—only five years later—the census showed only 103 (loss 54) woollen mills and only three (loss 3) making yarn, with a capital of less than $7,000,000. There was a decrease of 2,196 workers in the woollen mills in the five years, while the imports of woollen manufacturers (almost entirely British) increased from $9,973,307 in 1900, to $21,213,234 in 1908 fiscal year. The tariff reduction of one-third in favor of Great Britain is entirely to blame for that unfortunate state of affairs. In 1906 the rate of importation of woollen goods into Canada was $2.68 per capita of the 6,500,000 population, against only 26 cents per capita in the United States on a population of 80,000,000.

The product of the Canadian woollen mills amounted to only 90 cents per capita while that of the United States figured out at $3.40 per capita, or nearly four times as much on a population of nearly fifteen times as large.

So far the Canadian manufacturers have been unable to obtain any relief. —American Protectionist.

BORDEN IN BRIEF

If we preach purity and practice corruption we shall be worthy of all the scorn that can be poured upon us.

The whole policy of the Government (in the past two years) was to shut off investigation and prevent publicity.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised purity of administration. He has abandoned the public exchequer to the plundering and pilfering of unscrupulous party friends and has permitted the public domain to become the prey of his strongest partisans.

Criminals have been appointed to positions in the public service —men engaged in the most nefarious electoral crimes have been appointed to positions of public trust.

During ten years of Liberal rule the expenditure has been $232,-000,000 greater than in ten years of Conservative rule.

I have had the unique satisfaction of seeing the Government at the day forced by public opinion to carry into effect a very substantial portion of the policy which I advocated a year ago.

Seventy-five members of Parliament have been appointed to positions of emolument or to the Senate.

The avowed policy of the Liberal party has been outraged and falsified in the most astonishing manner by the present administration.

What great public undertaking has the Government not bungled?

IN THE ARENA OF POLITICS

A vote for Burnham is a vote for Borden, and a vote for Borden is a vote for good government.

The electors of Canada will demand a change of government on Monday.

Laurier and the looters will be given their walking tickets from the Government benches on October 26th.

A week from yesterday Canada will select new men to administer the business of the Dominion.

J. S. Carstairs, Conservative organizer has arranged the following dates for Sir James P. Whitney, Prime Minister, to speak in Ontario: Toronto, Oct. 20; Berlin Oct. 22; Windsor, Oct. 23. Hon J. J. Foy, Attorney-General and A. C. Macdonell will also speak at Berlin.

SHALL WE STAND FOR THIS?

G. S. Mayes offered to dredge the harbour of St. John for 50 cents a yard. The Laurier Government gave him a contract at 55 cents after he had agreed to pay the extra 5 cents per yard to George McAvity. He has since paid to George McAvity, out of the money he has received the sum of $35,933.

George McAvity is the president of the Liberal Association of St. John.

A Minneapolis lumber firm was ready to pay $100,-000 for a timber berth in the West. The Laurier Government sold it to A. W. Fraser for $1,650, and the Minneapolis firm paid its $100,000 to A. W. Fraser, who made $98,650 out of the deal.

A. W. Fraser was at that time president of the Liberal Association at Ottawa.

Moncton property-holders had property to sell to the Government railway. They had to sell to Matthew Lodge who paid them $13,375 for the land, and the Government bought from Matthew Lodge for $24,370. Matthew Lodge made $10,995 by the deal.

Matthew Lodge is the secretary of the Moncton Liberal Club.

Halifax property owners had land the Government wished to buy. They had to sell to Hon. B. F. Pearson and a friend, who paid $18,583 for the property, and sold to the Government for $45,400. These men made $26,817 by the deal.

Hon. B. F. Pearson was president of the Liberal Association of Halifax.

W. L. Pattinson is a leading spirit in the Imperial Pulp Company. This company received for $7,000 a timber berth which it at once put up for sale at $500,000.

Mr. Pattinson is secretary of the Liberal Association at Winnipeg.

Some people imagine that the distribution is limited to members of Parliament, such as Burrows and Adamson. But this is a mistake. Our money goes to officials of the Liberal Associations as well.

Shall Laurier continue this work?

MR. FRASER AND MR. AMES

Ottawa, October 17.—Mr. H. B. Ames, of Montreal spoke in the Russell Theatre last night on the disposition of the timber resources of the west. The theatre, which will comfortably seat two thousand people, was crowded to the doors and probably five hundred people could not gain admission. Mr. Ames had a particularly appreciative audience, as the people who come in for criticism by him are familiar figures on the streets of the Capital. Mr. Ames' sallies at the expense of A. W. Fraser, the formerly nominated Liberal candidate, who has retired from the contest, evoked much laughter. Naturally, much interest was taken in Mr. Ames' calculations as to how much Mr. Fraser, Burrows and others would make out of their transactions and when three separate tenderers for the same limit, all in the well known handwriting of Mr. Fraser, were thrown on the screen, there were many adverse comments. Mr. Ames expressed his regret that Mr. Fraser was not on hand to hear what he had to say. Mr. John Thompson, Second Vice-President of the Conservative Association, presided. The audience included a large number of ladies.

The slight trouble of looking for the name "Salada" on a package of tea is well repaid by the satisfaction you have in drinking it.

A NEW INNOVATION

A reconstruction has been made in the arrangement of the complete time tables issued by the Grand Trunk Railway System which will be appreciated by the travelling public. Where tables are shown of the condensed time of trains between the several points where through equipment is run, this equipment is shown directly opposite the time table giving passengers the information they desire in the easiest possible way and without turning to other pages to find what equipment is on several trains shown. To make railway time tables plain to the travelling public is a problem with the railways, but this new innovation has become a considerable amount of trouble which has been experienced in the past in knowing what equipment could be found on through trains.

WATER LOW IN SCUGOG RIVER

Over Four and Half Feet Lower Than at Opening of Boating Season

Lindsay, Oct. 19.—The water in the Scugog river is said to be over four and a half feet lower at the wharf than it was during the opening of the boating season. The water is exceptionally low, and steamers as large as the Esturian would find it very difficult to navigate from the wharf down the river.

There are also several large booms of logs in the river and these take up considerable room. Owners of yachts report that in many instances they have struck logs projecting out from these booms and it is said that one unfortunate yachtsman narrowly escaped being upset by running over one of these dangerous logs.

Local Man the Architect

Mr. James M. Chalmers has been awarded the contract by the directors of the Riverside cemetery for the erection of the vault and chapel at the cemetery. Mr. Wm. Blackwell, architect of Peterborough who prepared the plans for the structure, is in town today and it is understood that Mr. Chalmers will commence operations in the course of a few days.—Lindsay Post.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box. 25c.

"SHOW ME" PROOF

That is What Hyomei Will do in All Forms of Catarrah and Troubles of the Breathing Organs

It's not a question of Hyomei having cured someone else, but will it reach your own particular case. If its Cold in the head, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Croup or any affection of the breathing organs, W. Madill, druggist, corner of Hunter and George street, Peterborough, says yes, and will refund the money if it fails. No other preparation for the same purpose can successfully do this, because the Hyomei system of treatment is different from anything else.

You simply breathe and inhale its medication in dry air from which destroys the germ life that causes oppressed breathing, Nasal Catarrh, Throat Irritation and Lung Troubles. It brings to these suffering organs the balsam laden air they would get in the Pine and Eucalyptus forests. The air that stamps out Bronchial troubles.

The prince of entertainers Marshal P. Wilder, says:—Hyomei is easy to use, and swift to cure. It insures you pure air and kills the germ of disease. It helps the voice.

Toronto Junction Live Stock.

TORONTO JUNCTION, Oct. 19.—Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards were 62 carloads, composed of 1298 cattle, 673 sheep and lambs, with 58 calves.

Exporters.

Dealers stated that choice well finished export steers would be worth $5, but there were none reported higher than $4.85 on to-day's market. Export bulls, $3.50 to $4, were the prices paid for the bulk of bulls offered, altho Dunn & Levack sold one of choice quality at $4.50 per cwt.

Butchers.

Choice butchers are worth as much as exporters these days. Choice picked lots of heifers and steers, were quoted at $4.75; the best load of 15 butchers' heifers were sold by Dunn & Levack at $4.70; load of fair to good, at $4 to $4.40; medium, $3.75 to $4; common, $3.25 to $3.50; canners, $1.12½ to $2.

Feeders and Stockers.

Several loads of short-keep feeders, 1200 to 1250 lbs., were bought at $4 to $4.15; other classes were not represented.

Milkers and Springers.

Over 50 milkers and springers of good to choice quality sold all the way from $45 to $75 each, but only one was reported at latter price, and two or three of commoner quality sold at $37.50 to $40 each.

Veal Calves.

There was not one choice new milk veal calf on the market, many of those offered were coarse heavy calves that weighed from 300 to 400 lbs. each, but they all sold readily at prices ranging from $3 to $6 per cwt., the bulk going from $4 to $5.00 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Prices easy at following quotations: Ewes $3.25 to $3.50; rams, $2.50 to $3.75; lambs $4.35 to $4.55 per cwt.

Hogs.

Gunns, Limited, quoted selects at $6.25, fed and watered, at market and $6, f.o.b., cars, at country points.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, Oct. 19.—At the Montreal Stock Yards, West End Market, the receipts of live stock for the week ending Oct. 17, were 2850 cattle, 4172 sheep and lambs, 2365 hogs and 374 calves. The offerings this morning for local consumption consisted of 1500 cattle, 1200 sheep and lambs, 600 hogs and 250 calves.

Owing to the continued limited supply of good to choice cattle coming forward and the good demand for the same from both local and export buyers, a stronger feeling has developed in the market and prices are fully a quarter cent per lb. higher than a week ago. Sales of several car loads of good northwest ranch and Manitoba domestic cattle were made for export account at 4¼c to 4¾c per lb. and local butchers paid as high as 5c per lb. for choice Ontario steers. The offerings of the lower grades of cattle were large, but as the demand for them was good from local and Quebec buyers, values ruled steady and show no change as compared with this day week. On the whole an active trade was done, which to some extent was due to the much cooler weather. Choice beeves sold at 4¾c to 5c; good ranch and Manitoba cattle for export, at 4¼c to 4¾c; good butchers' stock, at 4¼c to 4½c; fair, at 3½c to 3¾c; common, at 2¾c to 3c, and inferior, at 2c to 2½c per lb. Cable advices from Liverpool on Saturday reported the market for ranchers, cows, heifers and bulls stronger and noted an advance in prices for these of ¼c to ½c per lb., as compared with a week ago, but made no change in Americans or Canadians; a weaker feeling has developed in the market for sheep and lambs since this day week and prices have declined ¼c per lb., which is due to the more liberal supplies coming forward and the fact that the demand for export account is very limited, owing to the continued unfavorable advices from foreign sources. The local demand for lambs was good and sales of choice lots were made at 4¾c to 5c, and good at 4¼c to 4½c per lb. The trade in sheep was slow at 3½c for choice lots and at 3c to 3¼c for culls per lb. The demand for calves was fairly good, of which the offerings were small and prices ruled steady, at from $3 to $8 each, as to quality. Altho the supply of hogs was much smaller than they were last week and cable advices on Canadian bacon steady, yet the undertone to the market was weaker and prices scored a further decline of 25c per cwt. The demand was only fair and sales of selected lots were made at $6.50 and common at $6 to $6.25 per cwt., weighed off cars.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

EAST BUFFALO, Oct. 19.—Cattle—Receipts, 5800 head; fairly active and 10c to 15c lower; prime steers, $5.60 to $6; a few $6.50; shipping, $4.75 to $5.50; butchers', $4.25 to $5.25; heifers, $3.50 to $5; cows, $2.75 to $4.10; bulls, $2.75 to $4.40; stockers and feeders, $3.25 to $4.35; stock heifers, $2.75 to $3; fresh cows and springers, choice steady; others, $2 to $3 lower, $22 to $55.

Veals—Receipts, 1200 head; active and 25c higher, $5.75 to $8.75, a few $9.

Hogs—Receipts, 23,500 head; slow; pigs, steady; others, 20c to 35c lower; heavy, $6.00 to $6.60; mixed, $6.25 to $6.50; yorkers, $4.75 to $5.50; pigs, $4 to $4.50; roughs, $4.35 to $4.75; stags, $3.50 to $4; dairies and grassers, $4.75 to $5.50.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 24,000 head; active; yearlings, 25c; lambs, 35c lower; lambs, $4 to $5.90; yearlings and wethers, $4.25 to $4.50; ewes, $4 to $4.25; sheep, mixed, $1.50 to $4.25; Canada lambs, $5.75.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

YOUNG WIFE KIDNAPPED.

Is Wandering Crazed Through Woods as Result of Outrage.

Huntington, L.I., Oct. 20.—Twice kidnapped from her home and kept a prisoner in the woods by two men for several days, Mrs. Abbie Mcerionngola of this place, is believed to have been crazed and wandered to her death in a swamp, or is roaming through the woods, while posses, of which her husband is a member, are searching for her. Two men are under arrest.

Mrs. Meeriongola is 17 years old, the daughter of a well-to-do farmer, and the wife of a contractor, to whom she was married six years ago. She was first dragged from her home, Oct. 1 between two armed men. Three days later she staggered into her father's home and said she had been kept a prisoner in a swamp. A few days later another attempt to kidnap her was frustrated.

Again last Saturday afternoon the two kidnappers raided her father's home and frightening her mother with a revolver shot, again dragged the young wife away.

French Nationalism.

London, Oct. 20.—(C.A.P.)—Goldwin Smith, writing to The Guardian, says: "Strenuous efforts are being made by Imperialists to detach Canada more completely from her own hemisphere, and attach her more closely to Great Britain, with little success. We get on pretty well with the French, except when they become instruments of papal policy, but I could give you strong and unpleasant proof in connection with the half-breeds at Batoche of the strength of race attachment in French breasts. The most lively movement of the political kind in that quarter just now is the one in favor of French nationalism, headed by the rising politician, Henri Bourassa."

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

The Standard Chemical Co. have had 25,000 cords of wood burned at Huntsville.

Mrs. John A. Blackburn was burned to death near her home while fighting forest fires in Virginia.

The bathing beaches at Coney Island and Brighton Beach, N.Y., have reopened during the warm spell.

An overheated stove set fire to a dwelling house at Summit, Pa., and four children lost their lives, while two other persons were probably fatally injured.

Fires have broken out afresh in many parts of the Adirondacks. There are thousands of hunters in the woods, adding to the seriousness of the calamity.

A westbound Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe passenger train from Chicago collided with a freight train at Braddock, Kansas, and the engineer was killed and 22 passengers were injured.

R. L. Smith of Nevada, Mo., was killed and 15 passengers were hurt when three trolley cars collided in Kansas City. The air brake failed on one of the cars and it rushed back down a steep hill, crashing into two other cars.

France has accepted the offer made by Germany to refer to The Hague Tribunal for settlement of the question which has arisen between the two Governments over the arrest at Casablanca of deserters from the French foreign legion.

Millionaire Kills Girl and Self.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 20.—Sewell Sltnman, reputed to be worth half a million dollars, and well-known throughout the west as a broker, Sunday night shot and killed Eva Hart, whose company he has been keeping for some time, and then took his own life.

Will See Women Vote.

Buffalo, N.Y., Oct. 20.—It was announced yesterday that Ray Costello and Eleanor Randall, English suffragists, attending the convention, will at its close, accompany Rev. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, to Denver, where they will remain until after the election for the purpose of watching the women vote.

Attempt to Shoot Priest.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—An attempt to assassinate Rev. J. K. Fielding, pastor of the Corpus Christi Roman Catholic Church, was made Sunday. After twice shooting at the priest in the Sunday school hallway of the church the would-be assassin, knocking down several children that stood in his way, ran into the street and escaped.

Clothes Caught Fire.

Montreal, Oct. 20.—Mrs. Boucher residing at 13 Hagg street, Mile End was burned to death yesterday morning, her clothes catching fire while she was starting a fire in the stove. She was 21 years of age.

Killed by Horse's Kick.

Whitby, Oct. 20.—William, the 17-year-old son of Joseph Evans of Claremont, was kicked over the heart by a horse yesterday morning and instantly killed.

How McGregor Lost His Life.

Port Arthur, Oct. 20.—The steamer Scottish Hero, from Owen Sound, brings news of the drowning of Malcolm McGregor, the first mate. In charge of four men, McGregor put out from the Scottish Hero, just off, Iroquois Point, in a yawl to assist some persons in danger of fire on shore. The sea was too heavy and so with the yawl half-filled with water and the men almost perished with cold and exhaustion, they fought they way back to the ship's side. A rope ladder was lowered and four of the men clambered up to safety. McGregor waited until they were safe and then commenced the ascent. When half way up his strength gave out.

Refused Holy Communion.

London, Oct. 20.—(C. A. P.)—Alan Banister, who some time ago married his deceased wife's sister in Montreal, was again refused Holy Communion at the Eaton Parish Church Sunday. Banister recently brought the matter before the Ecclesiastical Arches Court with the result that Connor Thompson, the vicar of Eaton, was admonished not to repel Banister again from communion.

Guard Kills Italian Convict.

Plattsburg, Pa., Oct. 20.—Marcatullio Remiggio, an Italian convict at the Dannemora State Hospital, was killed yesterday by an attendant. It is stated that Remiggio, who had been in solitary confinement, attacked the attendant with an iron spike and was struck by the latter in self-defence.

Birds Roost at Sea.

New York, Oct. 20.—The Scottish bark Pass of Killie Crankie, which now occupies the most commanding berth in the harbor, was made a way station on her trip here by flocks of birds blown off shore. There were hundreds of them. All were much exhausted. They were 400 miles from shore.

Declined to Strike.

Berlin, N.H., Oct. 20.—The paper makers employed at the Berlin Mills Co., were at their work as usual yesterday. The men refused to obey an order to strike.

Sir Charles Tupper Sworn In.

London, Oct. 20.—(C.A.P.)—Sir Charles Tupper was sworn in to the Privy Council yesterday.

FOUR BOY BANDITS.

Stocked Up With Firearms For a Western Trip.

Montreal, Oct. 20.—Four boys, all under 15 years of age, appeared before Judge Bazin yesterday on a charge of theft. The boys had read dime novels until they determined to lead lives of crime. Between them they stole $220, and with the money purchased a new suit and winter overcoat each, a plentiful supply of cigarettes, hunting knives, seven revolvers and a Winchester rifle and a liberal supply of ammunition. When captured they were about to leave for the wild west. Yesterday they all pleaded guilty to charges of theft, and will be sentenced on the 22nd.

One Use For Chalk.

"I read in some paper the other day," the young man said, "of the arrival of a shipload of chalk, and I wondered what under the canopy anybody could want of a shipload of chalk and what they use chalk for anyway.

"Going home last night I got half a dozen little spatters of mud on my shirt bosom and collar, and I'd got to go out again right away, and I really didn't have time to change my apparel, but there were those spatters of mud.

"'Just wait a minute,' said my roommate, who knows several things, and he went to his chiffonier and got out a piece of chalk, with which he deftly chalked over those little mud spots so that they didn't show.

"'There,' he said, 'I guess they'll go all right now at night.'

"And they did. I am still wondering what anybody should want of a shipload of chalk, but I have now discovered at least one of chalk's uses."

Cobalt police raided more blind pigs on Saturday night.

Bearded Indians.

It has been written over and over again that the North American Indian was always beardless. New light comes from an unearthed letter from Captain Amos Stoddard, United States artillery and engineers, in 1806, to Dr. Mitchell of New London, Conn., in which Stoddard tells of a tribe of "yellow men, not in the least tawny, who lived near the lake on the west side of the Rocky or Shinning mountains and who wore their beards and a great number of whom had red hair on their heads." They were great experts with the bow and arrow. The lake referred to must have been Flathead lake, in northwestern Montana.—New York Press.

A Jealous Greyhound.

A tragedy recently happened in the study of M. Clemenceau, the French premier. He had two favorite dogs, one a splendid giffon and the other an equally fine Russian greyhound. M. Clemenceau lavished attentions on the griffon regardless of the significant growls of the greyhound. The griffon had been favored with several chocolates more than the greyhound. In a burst of jealousy the greyhound threw itself upon its too fortunate rival and strangled it.

Of Use After All.

It happened once upon a time that a man who felt that he was of no use in the world decided to commit suicide. "I will hie home," he said, "and there kill myself. I am of no use to anybody, and it will be best." So he hied home and found his wife gone. "I will cut my throat," he said, and hunted up the butcher knife. But he slashed and hacked and slashed his throat, and the knife was so dull he couldn't penetrate his skin. Then he tried the bread knife, and it was duller then the butcher knife. "I will hit myself on the head with the ax," he said, but he looked and looked and couldn't find the ax. Finally he found the handle, but the head was lost. "I will try the scissors," he said, but after he found the scissors couldn't cut thread he had to give it up. Then a bright thought struck him. He would become of some use to the family by sharpening the knives and scissors! He did so and is now loved more than most men. And his wife, with knives that will cut and scissors sharp enough to cut thread, is the happiest woman in her neighborhood.—Atchison Globe.

The eye is such a delicate organ that it should never be trifled with.

This is why our optician has followed the teachings of only recognized authorities on the eye.

Many opticians take half a dozen or more correspondent courses, costing from $7 50 to $25 each. With this limited knowledg it is little wonder that so many are wearing glasses that do not suit them—others who do not repuire them.

If you have eye trouble you should only consult an optician who has a thorough knowledge of every branch of the optical business.

POWER IS AFFECTED

Low Water Affecting Some Local Industries

The low water in the Otonabee river is causing inconvenience to some local industries owing to the supply of power being affected. The Quaker Oats Company had to shut down last night owing to a shortage of power. The factory was in darkness for some time.

It is not expected that the water will be low much longer. A good rain would have a very beneficial effect.

A CONTRAST

In the Toronto police court last week a young man stood charged with the offence of stealing a bottle of milk. The poor fellow, who probably had never been in custody before in his life, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to five days in jail. Just outside the court room stood his young wife and three little children, and when the husband had been led away to the cells the poor woman broke down, and with bitter tears, told her sad story to the small crowd of not unsympathetic listeners. It seems the young fellow has been out of work for some time and after looking in every direction for something to do and being repulsed at every corner, in a fit of desperation he made up his mind that he would get milk for the little baby at home in some way or other. So he came to steal the bottle of milk.

The listeners were pretty well hardened to ordinary suffering but this story proved too much for them. One of them, up himself on a charge of keeping a gambling house in the city called the women's little three year old daughter to him and pressed a $5 bill in her hand. A well known criminal lawyer did the same, and also took the trouble to inform the police magistrate of the real facts of the case. The magistrate then recalled the prisoner and after expressing his sympathy told him that he would have to pass the night in jail, but that in the morning he would be allowed to go free.

BEE HIVE WILL HAVE NEW AND UP-TO-DATE PREMISES

Will be Ready by December 1st—Present Facilities for Business Will be Greatly Increased.

Extensive improvements are now underway at the Bee Hive, the ladies big ready to wear store, George St., and when completed Peterborough will have one of the finest ladies' stores that can be found in the province. By acquiring the store recently occupied by McDermid and Jury the premises of the Bee Hive will be greatly enlarged. The wall separating the two stores is being taken down giving a floor space, 70 x50 feet. The new premises, it is expected, will be in readiness by December the first. They will be fitted up most modernly and up to date.

The knitting works department will be along the south side of the new part. The rest of the floor space in this store will be devoted to ladies' whitewear, underwear, lingerie and notions. On the second flat, on one side will be the fancy goods department where everything in the line of art needlework will be sold, and on the other will be the ladies ready to wear. Mr. T. C. Elliott, the enterprising proprietor of the Bee Hive is endeavoring to make this department the biggest and best in the city. It will comprise everything in the line of ladies ready to wear coats, skirts and blouses.

On the second floor, a ladies' waiting room, lavatory and toilet rooms will be fitted up.

It is the intention of Mr. Elliott later on, to place an elevator in his new premises.

The third floor has not yet been set apart for anything special, but as the business expands new departments will be opened up.

Mr. Elliott is leaving nothing undone to make his store, one of the best in the province and it will certainly be a credit to Peterborough.

CHIEF HOWARD PAID OFFICIAL VISIT TO PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF CITY THIS MORNING

Accompanied by Mayor Rusa, Mr. Vanwinkle, inspector of electrical wiring for the Ontario Fire Underwriters' Association, Alderman Johnston, of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, Public School Inspector Mowat, and Mr. W. H. Hill, chairman of the Board of Education, Chief Howard, of the local fire department, made a visit of inspection to all the Public schools of the city. The object of the visit was to see that the doors of the school buildings opened outward, according to law; to see that the furnace pipes were placed far enough away from the joists and to look after other matters in connection with guarding against the disaster of fire. The separate schools will be inspected to-morrow and the chief will furnish a detailed report of the whole inspection.

Chief Howard remarked on the efficiency of the local fire drill and said the time in the Peterborough schools was better than that of any schools in other places in which he had been chief.

The time occupied in making the inspection was from 9 o'clock till 12.

A detailed report of the visit will be presented by the chief at the next meeting of the Board of Education.

BOARD OF HEALTH WAS IN SESSION THIS MORNING

A meeting of the Board of Health was held this morning when several matters were disposed of.

The chairman, Dr. Burnham, and Messrs. Parker, Edgar and Murty were present.

Mr. B. Crowley wrote, asking for a sewer on Inverlea street. On motion of Messrs. Edgar and Parker, the secretary was instructed to ask Mr. Crowley to secure a petition.

Mr. J. Thompson was heard regarding sewer accommodation on Dublin street east of Water street. On motion of Messrs. Murty and Edgar it was decided to recommend to the Council to build a sewer on Dublin street from Water street to a point 120 feet east of Water street.

The Medical Health Officer reported that he had given the Collier-Cunningham Co. permission to put in a cess pool.

It was moved by Mr. Edgar and seconded by Mr. Murty, that the Council be requested to procure any light barrels for the use of scavengers and change the hour, before which the work cannot be done, to eleven o'clock.

WATER VERY LOW EVERYWHERE; DRIEST FALL IN 25 YEARS

Although the water on the Trent waterway is very low now as the water all over the country is, but still it will be all right for navigation until the close of the season.

"There is good water at Balsam Lake and Sturgeon Lake and south of Buckhorn," said the Superintendent of the Trent Canal to the Review today. "And there will be enough water for power purposes it is expected until March. This is the dryest fall for about 25 years and in the Ottawa river where the water was thirty-one feet at this time last year it has taken a drop of 27 feet making its depth now only 4 feet."

Degree Staff in City

The degree staff of Kawartha Rebekah Lodge, IOOF. No. 75, to the number of eighteen from Lindsay, will be here tonight to confer degrees on members of the local order. Tonight is the second anniversary of the Peterborough lodge. Mrs Barrow o Gilt, president of Rebekah lodge of that town is also in the city.

Addressed the W.C.T.U.

There was a large attendance of the W. C. T. U. members at the Y. M. C. A. parlors yesterday afternoon to greet Miss Owen Hitchcox, of Toronto. The chair was taken by Mrs. J. G. Potter in the absence of the president. After devotional exercises the afternoon was given up to the speaker of the meeting. Mrs. Hitchcox portrayed the home life where parents took liquor and where so often young men first learned the taste of liquor, and afterwards fell in with associations which led them to a drunkard's grave. She urged the ladies to do their utmost to overcome the liquor traffic.

THE HOOK

We often hear of young men full of promise. Here is a case of one who soon realized his destiny:

"Give me a little time," said the literary young man "and I will do something to arouse the country."

Three months later he had his chance. He was peddling alarm clocks in a farming community.

Laurier says he has given his life for this country. That is all right, but the trouble is he is giving the country to his friends. — Belleville Intelligencer.

GREAT ISSUES

(Hamilton Spectator.)

Truly the Laurier Government is making its appeal to the electorate of Canada to-day on a series of GREAT ISSUES. Here are some of them:

In Berlin—A new clock for the Town Hall.

In Essex—A new post office building.

In Wentworth—A rural mail delivery system to Ancaster village, and anything else the people in that constituency may care for.

In the Hamiltons—Branch post offices, a cement wharf, and a revetment wall.

In Norfolk—A promise that the candidate will consider the demands of that particular constituency over and above all other considerations.

From the premier to the country—I'm an old man; let me finish my work.

From the great chorus of grafters and hangers-on who for the past twelve years have been getting rich at the public trough—Hear, hear; let Laurier finish his work. He's a friend of ours.

ABOUT LOCAL OPTION

To the Editor of the Review.

Peterborough, Oct. 20, '08.

Dear Sir,—I approve of the splendid stand taken by Rev. Dr. Langford, when he spoke his disfavor of local option in a sermon preached by him Sunday night. I am strickly a temperance man myself and condemn strongly the drinking of intoxicating liquors, but heartily agree with the reverend gentleman in his opinion that local option is a failure and know from personal observation that drinking has increased instead of diminished in many places where the local option by-law is in force.

Common sense legislation in my opinion, does not suggest local option and I think it will prove as big a failure as the Scott Act. In fact all indications point to it and right in our immediate vicinity.

The cry of "abolish the bar," is prompted from the best of motives, but the motto is quite an impracticable one, as the abolition of the licensed bar only creates dives of an illicit and more harmful character. It is in the cause of temperance that the greatest harm may be wrought by its intemperance advocates.

Yours truly,
MODERATION.

The Baptist students and their friends and the faculty of the Peterborough Normal school will be entertained by the Young People of Murray street church from eight until 10.30 o'clock. A splendid programme has been arranged and a very enjoyable evening is anticipated.

Amusements at Roller Rink

To-night in the Roller Rink catching the greasy pig will be the amusing feature, the pig to go to the one who lands him. To-morrow night a game of hockeywith brooms for sticks and football for a puck will be played.

Temperance Meeting

The public is reminded of the meeting of the City Temperance and Moral Reform League at George street church to-night. The speakers will include Mr. B. H. Spence, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, and Mrs. Owen Hitchcox. All interested in the work of the league are invited.

Sheffield Choir

The committee in charge of the Sheffield Choir concert on November 19th have decided to have the concert take place in the Opera House instead of the Rink as previously announced. As the seating accommodation of the Opera House is limited and will likely be taxed to its utmost those intending to hear the choir will need to speak for seats at once.

Bicycle Was Stolen

The same parties that entered Mr David Denny's house on Concession street early Sunday morning and stole a quantity of clothing and provisions must have made good his escape on a bicycle. Mr. Bruce Beattie who lives on the opposite side of the road yesterday morning found that he had lost his wheel. It is the opinion that the same parties committed both thefts.

Trouble at Garden Hill

Garden Hill is again looming up in the police circles but this time the trouble is with the male portion of the community. Richard Wilson was in the Police Court this morning charged with assaulting and beating John Campbell. He was fined $1 and costs. Wilson has retaliated with four charges against Campbell for abusive and insulting language against him. This will be threshed out next Wednesday morning. — Port Hope Guide.

Temperance Mass Meeting

A mass meeting under the auspices of the City Temperance and Moral Reform League will be held in the George street Methodist church tonight at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Owen Hitchcox and Rev. B. H. Spence, of the Dominion Alliance will address the meeting.

A collection will be taken in aid of local temperance work. The public are cordially invited.

Interesting Address

Saturday afternoon a large crowd of ladies gathered in the Y.M.C.A. parlor to listen to an interesting address in the interests of the Temperance movement delivered by Mr. Owen Hitchcox. She too as her subject, "The power of woman's influence," and based her remarks upon the following text: Let your light so shine before men that others seeing your good works may glorify your Father in Heaven." She was listened to with a great deal of interest by those present.

Sidewalk in Flames

The sidewalk on Concession street caught fire from some burning leaves and a considerable portion of it was burned up. The fire brigade put it out.

Navigation Note

The steamer Monarch pulled into port last evening at 10 p. m. with a scow load of wood from Campbelltown for Mr. J. J. Howden. The Monarch left for Gore's Landing this morning, and returns again on Thursday with a mixed cargo of grain and potatoes.

At St. Andrew's

A large number were present at St. Andrew's school room last night to see the steropticon views of the Life of Christ, which were shown by Mr W. E. Dyer, of Toronto, who is the Canadian manager and lecturer for the world's famous Tissot society. The entertainment was under the auspices of the Young Peoples' Society and it was most successful. The views included many from the Old Testament as well as those beautiful pictures of Tissot, the inspired painter of the life of Christ. The chair was taken by Rev. J. G. Potter and Rev Mr. Riddiford, of Park St. Baptist church led in prayer.

Uncle Tom's Cabin

From the Winnipeg Free Press.—Downie's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was presented at the Walker theatre on a recent Saturday afternoon and evening and if the slightest doubt as to popularity of this sterling old production lingered in the minds of the theatre goers it would have been completely dispelled had they peeped in at either the matinee or evneing performance and seen the big theatre packed from pit to dome with happy men, women and children. As for the performance, well it was very much better than the usual interpretation of this piece. Vernon Skinner in the title role, was impressive and effective, and all the other roles were nicely played. It delighted the children present to see "Little Eva" make her first entry in a dear little carriage drawn by two tiny ponies. Also to see Marks come on later riding a donkey. The stage settings were very pretty especially the transformation scene showing "Little Eva" in heaven. Taken altogether the performance was most satisfactory.

This company will be here next Saturday afternoon and night, Oct. 24.

ROBBERS AT WORK

Made Cleanup at Store of Mr. Walter H. Kidd

The general store of Mr. Walter H. Kidd, of Otonabee, was entered on Friday night last, when a considerable quantity of goods were stolen. Who committed the burglary is not known but the matter has been placed in County Magistrate Edmison's hands and the county constables are working on it.

The parties who effected the robbery stole six pounds of tobacco, a box of cigars, eight packages of cut tobacco, three pairs of shoes, two fedora hats six undershirts, one and a half dozen towels and twenty-three cents.

John Hendrie bandaged his hand and solicited charity in Hamilton as a mendicant till the police learned he was a sham, and he was sent down for six months.

Daily Mishaps

MAKE ZAM-BUK A DAILY NEED.

Scarcely a day passes without some member of the family getting hurt. Maybe the breadwinner's work makes him peculiarly liable to cuts or lacerations; the boisterous youngsters are always running in to mother with bumps and bruises; and housework abounds with painful knocks, burns, scalds, and sprains for the fair sex.

Promptly dressing an injury with Zam-Buk means speedy relief from smarting pain. That's why the children like it. But it means much more—that your hurt will heal up quickly and perfectly, without festering, without gathering, and without harbouring disease germs. That's why the "grown ups" like it.

Mrs. Beers, of L'Original (Ont.) says:—"Five doctors and treatment in three hospitals failed to cure me of chronic ulcers and sores. They were so bad I could only walk by aid of a crutch and a stick. Zam-Buk has cured me! and I have put my crutch away. I am 75 years old and in all my life never met with anything to equal Zam-Buk." FIRST Y. M. C. A. WRESTLING CLASS HELD LAST NIGHT

Preliminary Mat Work Taken up—Boxing Classes To-night at 8 o'Clock—Classes Should Have Big Membership.

The wrestling classes at the Y.M.C.A. opened last night. There were six in attendance which is a good number for the beginning night and no doubt the membership of the classes will increase materially from now on. They are in charge of Mr. S. W. Collings, the physical director, and last night he instructed the class in position on the mat, bridging and other elementary features.

The first boxing class will be held to-night with Mr. C. G. Graham as instructor. It is imperative that those who wish to learn the arts to the best advantage attend the classes from the commencement. This insures greater progress.

The hours fixed for the holding of the classes is 8 p.m. and schedule for each week is given below:—

Wrestling—Monday, Friday.
Boxing—Tuesday, Thursday.

THE SEMI-FINALS TO-NIGHT IN THE P.B.C. TOURNAMENT

Some splendid bowling should be witnessed at the PBC alleys tonight when the semi-final game will be played between Hemstead's United and the General Electric team. Munro's Colts, the third team in the running for first prize, were fortunate enough to draw the bye and they will meet the winners of tonight's game on Thursday in the final team. The loser this evening will drop back into the Consolation and it is expected that this series will be completed by Friday night the first game being scheduled for tomorrow evening, the second for Thursday evening and the final for Friday night. The teams still left in the running for this competition are Cairn's five, Baker's team and McCarrol's Fearnots with the team that loses tonight.

Some of the best bowling talent in the city is in the line-up for tonight's game as the following list of players will show:

Hemstead's United—
- McIlroy.
- Hoolihan.
- Sharpe.
- Lillie.
- Hemstead.

General Electrics—
- Gatterson.
- Pollard.
- Lawless.
- Jeffrey.
- Wareham.

ALL SAINTS' AND KNOX BOYS CLUBS BATTED FOR SUPREMACY

The boys of All Saints' and Knox Churches held their second annual field day on Saturday last at the Oval. The day was a perfect one for the event, and the boys turned out in large numbers and keenly contested every event.

The junior events open to boys under 14 was all Knox, due principally to the grand work of Roy Smith, who with proper care will make the older boys go next year.

The senior events, boys 14 and under 18, were all All Saints', the events in this being more evenly divided between Perks of Knox, and Flowers, LeBarr and Gilbert of All Saints'.

The following are the results:

JUNIOR EVENTS.

One hundred yards—1st, Roy Smith, Knox; 2nd, R. Jarvis, All Saints; 3rd H. Cranfield, All Saints'. Time, 11 1-4 seconds.

One-third mile—1st H. McConnell, Knox; 2nd, E. Wise, All Saints'; 3rd, W. Fair, All Saints'.

Standing long jump—1st, Roy Smith, Knox; 2nd, H. McConnell, Knox; 3rd, W. Fair, All Saints'. Distance, 6 ft. 1 in.

Running long jump—1st, Roy Smith, Knox; 2nd, H. Canfield, All Saints'; 3rd, R. Jarvis, All Saints'. Distance, 13 ft. 1 in.

Two hundred and twenty yards—1st, Roy Smith, Knox; 2nd, R. Jarvis, All Saints'; 3rd, H. McConnell, Knox. Time, 27 1-4.

High jump—1st, Roy Smith, Knox; 2nd, H. Cranfield, All Saints'; 3rd, H. McConnell, Knox; Total points—Knox, 35; All Saints', 19.

SENIOR EVENTS.

THE HAMILTON PRESS ON THE HURTUBISE-KAISER MATCH

The American Too Scientific For Gene—A Wonderfully Fast Wrestler—A Splendid Exhibition.

The Hamilton papers have the following to say on the Hurtubise-Kaiser match in Hamilton on Saturday:—

Charlie Conkle turned a clever trick on Eugene Hurtubise on Saturday night when he brought Charlie Kaiser here from Auburn, N.Y., and had him pose as an unknown. Hurtubise got a little of Conkle's money when the local grappler failed to throw him three times in an hour a few weeks ago, and Conkle has been looking for a chance to get it back ever since. At the time he told Gene that he had a man who could defeat him in a straight match, but refused to tell his name. Hurtubise guaranteed to take him on providing that it was not Frank Gotch or any of the famous heavyweights.

When Hurtubise arrived in the city on Saturday and found out that Conkle's man was Kaiser, a smile of satisfaction came over his face, as he thought that he was going to have a comparatively easy match. But Kaiser has taken on weight and become a great deal more scientific since Hurtubise saw him a few years ago, and he had a little up his sleeve for the Peterborough man.

The match drew a large crowd of people to the Armory rink on Saturday night and when things began to get lively, it was easily seen that the crowd was with Conkle's man. Hurtubise got the better of the first clinch for holds and was soon on top of the Yankee. He was a great deal taller than the Auburn man and he weighed about twenty pounds more. In many ways this was an advantage to him, but the stubby Yankee proved to be too strong for him, and on several occasions broke away from what appeared to be sure falls.

Half-Nelsons were easy for Kaiser and two or three times he broke away from a full Nelson. After some nice head spinning he broke away from the ex-Rugby man, and assumed the aggressive. It did not take him long to get Gene in a dangerous position with a scissors hold. Being unable to down the Peterborough grappler with that hold Kaiser tried an arm hold, only to have Hurtubise squirm out and get on top.

Both worked hard for the first twenty minutes, although neither seemed to care to take any chances. Several times Hurtubise tried to down the German with a leg and arm hold but was unsuccessful although Referee Billy Carroll had to get on his knees on more than one occasion. After twenty-eight minutes of wrestling Kaiser broke away from a half-Nelson and leg hold and got a scissors hold, which he supplemented with a face hold and gained the first fall.

The first fall appeared to take a great deal of the energy out of Hurtubise, for although he gained the coveted top position soon after the men returned to the mat Kaiser got the second fall by about the same hold as he gained the first with.

After the match Hurtubise made a speech in which he admitted that he had no excuse to offer, as he had been beaten fairly, but he said that he would like to meet Kaiser again. Kaiser agreed and the pair will likely meet soon.—Hamilton Herald.

The large Saturday night crowd which turned out for the big wrestling match at the Armory rink, between Gene Hurtubise of Peterborough and Charlie Conkle's Unknown, of New York State, was treated to an exhibition of wrestling which easily stamped the unknown, who proved to be Charlie Kaiser, of Auburn, N.Y. as one of the fastest and trickiest men seen in these parts for some years. The Unknown was there twenty ways and he had no trouble securing two successive falls from the big gridiron giant, although forced to work some time for the first fall which was taken in 28 minutes. Hurtubise was badly jarred in this fall and the second one took but five minutes.

Gene was naturally surprised but confessed that he had met a better man, although before the bout he was more than confident that he would win. Kaiser is hardly as heavy as Hurtubise, going slightly over 170 pounds, but he is short and stocky and massive with a ponderous neck and body which was far too strong for the rangy French-Canadian.

Hurtubise complained that he was hardly in the best of shape and asked for another bout with the stranger to which Kaiser replied that he would gladly take him on at any time or place and it is very likely that the two will meet before many moons has passed. Conkle maintained his secret as to whom his unknown was until the last minute, Referee Carroll's announcement that he was Charley Kaiser being the first intimation the crowd had of whom Hurtubise was likely to stack up against. From the time the Referee called time and the two grapplers grabbed each other Kaiser began to show his superiority. He went slow at first, feeling his man out and as he gradually found his worth and became aware of the fact that while a very strong man, Hurtubise was slow and lacking on the strictly fine points of the game he steadily pushed the French Canadian from the offensive to a stubborn defensive, and before long had the big fellow gasping and struggling for a life. Kaiser was lightning fast and knew the game like a book with the result that after 28 minutes of play he picked Peterborough's favorite son up like a sack of flour and threw him heavily to the floor, pinning him as he rolled with a body scissors and face lock and it was all up with Gene the shock of the fall and the hold proving more than his great strength could overcome. So heavy was the fall that a board in the platform was broken and had to be patched up before the pair went at it for the second time. This trip Kaiser made short work of his man, catching him with the same holds and downing him in five minutes, to the great delight of the crowd, who seemingly was all with the stranger, his exhibition of the great art being so clear cut and fast.

HOAGLAND THINKS THAT HANDICAP IS TOO LARGE

Doesn't Care to Meet Harrison and Give Him Handicap of Two Miles in 10 Hour Walk—Will Concede Him One Mile in 9 Hour Walk However

Chris. Graham has received a letter from W. A. Hoagland, the champion walker, that he is willing to meet Jim Harrison, the local heel and toe performer, in a match either in Peterborough or Auburn, N.Y. Harrison is willing to meet Hoagland in a handicap match and says if the Yankee will allow him two miles in a ten hour race he will get backing to the extent of $250. Hoagland has been wired asking if he would give such a handicap to the local man, but he does not seem anxious to go up against the proposition, as the following letter will explain;—

Auburn, N.Y.,
Oct. 16th, 1908.

Mr. Chris. Graham,
Peterborough, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—I am in receipt of a Peterborough Review of recent date containing a challenge from Mr. Jas. Harrison, of your city, wherein he says he will take a two-mile start in a ten hour race against me.

In reply I would say that I have great respect as to the ability of Mr. Mr. Harrison as a walker, and think the handicap too large. However, if he is anxious for a long race I will allow him one mile in a 9-hour race for $250.00 a side, race to take place in Peterborough or Auburn, N. Y., any time before the 15th of November.

I will send my money to you if you will act as stakeholder. Please notify me if anything can be done.

Yours truly,
W. A. HOAGLAND,
Champion of the World.

THE MATCH HACKENSCHMIDT HAS BEEN LOOKING FOR

After considerable correspondence Yankee Rogers and Young Hackenschmidt have been matched to wrestle here on Friday, Oct. 30th. The bout will be for a guaranteed purse, the winner to get 75 per cent. and the loser 25 per cent. Hack has been after Rogers for some time, and when asked if he would meet the big Yank in Peterborough he jumped at the chance. He is a cousin of the great George Hackenschmidt and has a fine record and has won from all the top-notchers in the country. He is right at home in the catch as catch game, and is considered one of the greatest leg wrestlers in the world, and will certainly make Rogers go his fastest to win. Hack weighs 196 pounds, so there is only a few pounds difference in the weight of the two men.

Manager Naylor wired to say that Yank would be tickled to get on the mat with Hack, so a real warm time is expected in this bout.

The bout will take place under the management of the Crescent Athletic Club, which has been organized recently, and of which Chris. Graham is President. They intend putting on wrestling and boxing tournaments, and the public can rest assured that they will get a good run for their money, and see high class matches.

THE TELEGRAM SAYS THINGS

The Toronto Telegram is there with the following:—

The officers of the T. A. A. U. to qualify for the Dominion championship series are ridiculous. The bottom having dropped out of the O. R. F. U., Peterborough was brought in to help the T. A. A. C. Now the Canadian Rugby Union will not hang itself to death upon receiving a challenge from the T. A. A. C. Oh, no.

Peterborough was dead, buried and suddenly a giant cry for help was out of the O. R. F. U. of '08, when city—a game in which the players Toronto, and some philanthropic citizen of the Electric Town resuscitated the team and sent them here last Saturday. The winning of the T. A. C. naturally gives them a chance to play for the Dominion Dominion championship, but whether they will be given the chance is another matter.

Peterborough came, and those who saw the game at Rosedale are willing to take oath and say it was the worst exhibition ever seen in this tators. In the days of Lionel King, upon the field outnumbered the spectators. In the days of Lionel King, Bill Buchanan and Harry Kennar, Peterborough would not have lent itself as a stepping stone for the T. A. A. C's. Dominion championship aspirants.

RUSTLERS WON FROM CHIEFTAINS

The game of basketball last night at the Y.M.C.A. between the Rustlers and Chieftains for the Cressman trophy, resulted in a score of 15—12 at half time in favor of the Rustlers, the Chieftains leaving the floor and refusing to play the entire game. The game then went to the Rustlers.

Line-up of the teams;—

Rustlers—Dobbin, centre; Pringle and Maguire, forwards; Lees and Meldrum, defence.

Chieftains—Munro, centre; Hill and Kirns, forwards; Milburn and Turnner, defence.

SPORTING TALK

It would be safe to say that Gene found Kaiser surprisingly good.

The Unknown was more than a match for Hurtubise Saturday night. Charley Conkle knows where to find the good ones when desired. —Hamilton Spectator.

Art Burn was beaten by Tebo in Ottawa on Saturday in an eight mile race. Tebo won by 150 yards but without robbing the reporter of any of his laurels did Burn try to beat him or will he want another match.

T. A. S. AND LINDSAY

The T.A.S. rugby team will be here to-morrow afternoon to play the Lindsay rugby team.

The visiting team are a strong bunch, hard tacklers good kickers, and exceptionally strong in their back division, as well as on the line.

The fourteen who will represent this town are in better shape for the game than when the T.C.S., of Port Hope, scored a victory here.

The Lindsay line-up will probably be:

Full back—Watson.
Halves—Sylvester, Cotton and Byron Green.
Quarter—Killen.
Scrimmage— McQuerrie, Dougan, and Murdie.
Wings—Inside, Newton and McHugh.
Middle—Koyl and Coulter.
Outside—Koyl and Coulter.
Outside—Conway and Nesbitt.
Spares—Spratt, Hamilton and Kirkconnel.—Lindsay Post.

RUGBY

GOING TO LINDSAY

The TAS. of Peterborough has consented to send up a team to Lindsay tomorrow to give the locals a game. The contest will take place at the agricultural grounds and it is safe in saying that it will be well worth seeing. The total abstainers will send up a strong team but the locals are in good shape and are confident of pulling out on top. Turn out and encourage the boys.—Lindsay Post.

Peterborough juniors were defeated by T.A.A.C. at Toronto on Saturday, but the victory will give T.A.A.C. a championship of some kind, and that is worth playing for—Hamilton Spectator.

Hamilton Tigers are still undefeated and look good to go through the Interprovincial without serious opposition unless the Argonauts keep on improving. Then for the Canadian championships it will be Tigers against one of three in the College League, and certainly not Peterborough in the O.R.F.U.

Dont's for Bowlers

Don't try to learn in a day.

Don't step on or over the foul line.

Don't use any unnecessary motions.

Don't swing the ball but once before delivering it.

Don't be superstitious—13 is a better start than 12.

Don't expect a "strike" every time you hit the head pin.

Don't think it necessary to be a Sandow. Many lightweights bowl well.

Don't think the other fellow has all the luck. Plug away things will change.

Don't throw away a "spare" because you think you were entitled to a "strike."

Don't exert yourself. Take it easy. A slow accurate ball is better than a swift wild one.

Don't quit bowling on account of a sore finger. You have other fingers on the same hand.

Don't expect alley owners to change everything to suit you. There are others to satisfy.

Don't blame the pin boys if you get a split. They will spot any pin you call their attention to.

Don't tell anyone what you are going to do. Wait until after the game and tell them what you did do.

Don't think your wrist is gone if it hurts after bowling a few games. Change your grip and throw the strain somewhere else.

Don't bend your back when delivering the ball. With your feet apart and knees bent you can start the ball with little or no sound.

Shellfish Silk.

A shellfish of the Mediterranean has the power of spinning a viscid silk which in Sicily is made into a very handsome fabric. The silk is spun by the shellfish for the purpose of attaching itself to the rocks. This material is gathered at low tide, washed in soap and water, dried, straightened and carded.

Wedding Rings.

Some one wanted to know without asking directly how long a certain woman had been married.

"About fifteen years," said a man who is a jeweler."

"How do you know?" asked his wife. "You don't know anything about her. You never met her until tonight."

"I can tell by the size of her wedding ring," said the man. "The width of wedding rings changes about every five years. Their size repeats itself at certain periods, but, figuring that way, the woman must have been married fourteen years ago, if not fifteen. She isn't old enough for forty-five; consequently she must belong in the fifteen year class."

Subsequent inquiry proved that the jeweler was right.

With the Minstrels.

"Mistah Walkah, wot am de diff'unce 'tween a trav'ler startin' to Tangier an' a plate o' veal hash?"

"I give that one up, George. What is the difference between a traveler starting for Tangier and a plate of veal hash?"

"De one am Morocco bound, an' de uddah am half calf."

"Ladies and gentlemen, the celebrated vocalist, Professor Rox de Bote, will now sing that beautiful and touching sentimental ballad, 'Take Your Face Away, Clarence; You Have Been Using a Safety Razor.'"

Deeper Yet.

Towne—I suppose he's deep in love's young dream.

Browne—No; he's past that stage. He's troubled with insomnia now.

Ambiguous.

"Are you looking for trouble?"
"I'm looking for my wife."

A Backhand Stroke.

Mr. Boreby—Chaperons are regular nuisances, aren't they?

Miss Peachblow—Oh, not always. If it wasn't for my chaperon some men would hang around me all day.—Puck.

THE MYSTERY

By STEWART EDWARD WHITE
And SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS

COPYRIGHT, 1907, BY McCLURE, PHILLIPS & CO.

"He'll have a chance to see," said Trendon. "Captain's going to put him in charge."

"By way of apology, then," said Barnett. "That's pretty square."

"Captain Parkinson wishes to see you in his cabin, Mr. Edwards," said an orderly, coming in.

"A pleasant voyage, Captain Billy," said Ives. "Sing out if the goblins git yer."

Fifteen minutes later Ensign Edwards, with a quartermaster, Timmins, the bo's'n's mate and a crew, was heading a straight course toward his first command, with instructions to "keep company and watch for signals," and intention to break into the brass bound chest and ferret out what clew lay there if it took dynamite. As he boarded Barnett and Trendon, with both of whom the lad was a favorite, came to a sinister conclusion.

"It's poison, I suppose," said the first officer.

"And a mighty subtle sort," agreed Trendon. "Don't like the looks of it." He shook a solemn head.

CHAPTER IV.

In semitropic Pacific weather the unexpected so seldom happens as to be a negligible quantity. The Wolverine met with it on June 5. From some unaccountable source in that realm of the heaven scouring trades came a heavy mist. Possibly volcanic action, deranging by its electric and gaseous outpourings the normal course of the winds, had given birth to it. Be that as it may, it swept down upon the cruiser, thickening as it approached, until presently it had spread a curtain between the warship and its charge. The wind died. Until after fall of night the Wolverine moved slowly, bellowing for the schooner, but got no reply. Once they thought they heard a distant shout of response, but there was no repetition.

"Probably doesn't carry any foghorn," said Carter bitterly, voicing a general uneasiness.

"No log; compass crazy; without fog signal; I don't like that craft. Barnett ought to have been ordered to blow her up as a peril to the high seas."

"We'll pick her up in the morning surely," said Forsythe. "This can't last forever."

Nor did it last long. An hour before midnight a pounding shower fell, lashing the sea into phosphorescent whiteness. It ceased, and with the growl of a leaping animal a squall furiously beset the ship. Soon the great steel body was plunging and heaving in the billows. It was a gloomy company about the wardroom table. Upon each and all hung an oppression of spirit. Captain Parkinson came from his cabin and went on deck. Constitutionally he was a nervous and pessimistic man with a fixed belief in the conspiracy of events, banded for the undoing of him and his. Blind or dubious conditions racked his soul, but real danger found him not only prepared, but even eager. Now his face was a picture of foreboding.

"Parky looks as if Davy Jones was pulling on his string," observed the flippant Ives to his neighbor.

"Worrying about the schooner. Hope Billy Edwards saw or heard or felt that squall coming," replied Forsythe, giving expression to the anxiety that all felt.

"He's a good sailor man," said Ives, "and that's a stanch little schooner by the way she handled herself."

"Oh, it will be all right," said Carter confidently. "The wind's moderating now."

"But there's no telling how far out of the course this may have blown him."

Barnett came down, dripping.

"Anything new?" asked Dr. Trendon.

The navigating officer shook his head.

"Nothing. But the captain's in a state of mind," he said.

"What's wrong with him?"

"The schooner. Seems possessed with the notion that there's something wrong with her."

"Aren't you feeling a little that way yourself?" said Forsythe. "I am. I'll take a look around before I turn in."

He left behind him a silent crowd. His return was prompt and swift.

"Come on deck," he said.

Every man leaped as to an order. There was that in Forsythe's voice which stung. The weather had cleared somewhat, though scudding wrack still blew across them to the westward. The ship rolled heavily. Of the sea naught was visible except the arching waves, but in the sky they beheld again,—with a sickening sense of disaster, that pale and lovely glow which had so bewildered them two nights before.

"The aurora!" cried McGuire, the paymaster.

"Oh, certainly!" replied Ives, with sarcasm. "Dead in the west. Common spot for the aurora. Particularly on the edge of the south seas, where they are thick!"

"Then what is it?"

Nobody had an answer. Carter hastened forward and returned to report.

"It's electrical anyway," said Carter. "The compass is queer again."

"Edwards ought to be close to the solution of it," ventured Ives. "This gale should have blown him just about to the center of interest."

"If only he isn't involved in it," said Carter anxiously.

"What could there be to involve him?" asked McGuire.

"I don't know," said Carter slowly. "Somehow I feel as if the desertion of the schooner was in some formidable manner connected with that light."

For perhaps fifteen minutes the glow continued. It seemed to be nearer at hand than on the former sighting. But it took no comprehensible form. Then it died away and all was blackness again. But the officers of the Wolverine had long been in troubled slumber before the sensitive compass regained its exact balance, and, with the shifting wind to mislead her, the cruiser had wandered by morning no man might know how far from her course.

All day long of June 6 the Wolverine, baffled by patches of mist and moving rain squalls, patrolled the empty seas without sighting the lost schooner. The evening brought an envelope of fog again, and presently a light breeze came up from the north. An hour of it had failed to disperse the mist when there was borne down to the warship a flapping sound as of great wings. The flapping grew louder—waned—ceased—and from the lookout came a hail.

"Ship's lights three points on the starboard quarter."

"What do you make it out to be?" came the query from below.

"Green light's all I can see, sir." There was a pause.

"There's her port light now. Looks to be turning and bearing down on us, sir. Coming dead for us"—the man's voice rose—"close aboard; less'n two ship's lengths away!"

As for a prearranged scene, the fog curtain parted. There loomed silently and swiftly the Laughing Lass. Down she bore upon the greater vessel until it seemed as if she must ram, but all the time she was veering to windward, and now she ran into the wind with a castanet rattle of sails. So close aboard was she that the eager eyes of Uncle Sam's men peered down upon her empty decks, for she was void of life.

Behind the cruiser's blanketing she paid off very slowly, but presently caught the breeze full and again whitened the water at her prow. Forgetting regulations, Ives hailed loudly:

"Ahoy, Laughing Lass! Ahoy, Billy Edwards!"

No sound, no animate motion, came from aboard that apparition as she fell astern. A shudder of horror ran across the Wolverine's quarter deck. A wraith ship, peopled with skeletons, would have been less dreadful to their sight than the brisk and active desolation of the heeling schooner.

"Been deserted since early last night," said Trendon hoarsely.

"How can you tell that?" asked Barnett.

"Both sails reefed down, ready for that squall. Been no weather since to call for reefs. Must have quit her during the squall."

"Then they jumped," cried Carter, "for I saw her boats. It isn't believable."

"Neither was the other," said Trendon grimly.

A hurried succession of orders stopped further discussion for the time. Ives was sent aboard the schooner to lower sail and report. He came back with a staggering dearth of information. The boats were all there; the ship was intact—as intact as when Billy Edwards had taken charge—but the cheery, lovable ensign and his men had vanished without trace or clew. As to the how or the wherefore they might rack their brains without guessing. There was the beginning of a log in the ensign's handwriting, which Ives had found with high excitement and read with bitter disappointment.

"Had squall from northeast," it ran. "Double reefed her, and she took it nicely. Seems a seaworthy, quick ship. Further search for log. No result. Have ordered one of the crew who is a bit of a mechanic to work at the brass bound chest till he gets it open. He reports marks on the lock as if somebody had been trying to pick it before him."

There was no further entry.

"Dr. Trendon is right," said Barnett. "Whatever happened—and God only knows what it could have been—it happened just after the squall."

"Just about the time of the strange glow," cried Ives.

It was decided that two men and a petty officer should be sent aboard the Laughing Lass to make her fast with a cable and remain on board overnight. But when the order was given the men hung back. One of them protested brokenly that he was sick. Trendon after examination reported to the captain.

"Case of blue funk, sir. Might as well be sick. Good for nothing. Others aren't much better."

"Who was to be in charge?"

"Congdon," replied the doctor, naming one of the petty officers.

"He's my cockswain," said Captain Parkinson. "A first class man. I can hardly believe that he is afraid. We'll see."

Congdon was sent for.

"You're ordered aboard the schooner for the night, Congdon," said the captain.

"Yes, sir."

"Is there any reason why you do not wish to go?"

The man hesitated, looking miserable. Finally he blurted out, not without a certain dignity:

"I obey orders, sir."

"Speak out, my man," urged the captain kindly.

"Well, sir, it's Mr. Edwards, then. You couldn't scare him off a ship, sir, unless it was something—something"—

He stopped, failing of the word.

"You know what Mr. Edwards was sir, for pluck," he concluded.

"Was!" cried the captain sharply. "What do you mean?"

"The schooner got him, sir. You don't make no doubt of that, do you, sir?" The man spoke in a hushed voice, with a shrinking glance back of him.

"Will you go aboard under Mr. Ives?"

"Anywhere my officer goes I'll go and gladly, sir."

Ives was sent aboard in charge. For that night, in a light breeze, the two ships lay close together, the schooner riding jauntily astern. But not until morning illumined the world of waters did the Wolverine's people feel confident that the Laughing Lass would not vanish away from their ken like a shape of the mist.

CHAPTER V.

When Barnett came on deck very early on the morning of June 7 he found Dr. Trendon already up and staring moodily out at the Laughing Lass. As the night was calm the tow had made fair time toward their port in the Hawaiian group. The surgeon was muttering something which seemed to Barnett to be in a foreign tongue.

"Thought out any clew, doctor?" asked the first officer.

"Petit Chel—pshaw! Jolie Cellmenel No," muttered Trendon. "Marie—Marie—I've got it! The Marie Celeste."

"Got what? What about her?"

"Parallel case," said Trendon. "Sailed from New York back in the seventies. Seven weeks out was found derelict. Everything in perfect order. Captain's wife's hem on the machine. Boats all accounted for. No sign of struggle. Log written to within forty-eight hours."

"What became of the crew?"

"Wish I could tell you. Might help to unravel our tangle." He shook his head in sudden, unwonted passion.

"Evidently there's something criminal in her record," said Barnett, frowning at the fusty schooner astern. "Otherwise the name wouldn't be painted out."

"Painted out long ago. See how rusty it is. Schermerhorn's work, maybe," replied Trendon. "Secret expedition, remember."

"In the name of wonders, why should he do it?"

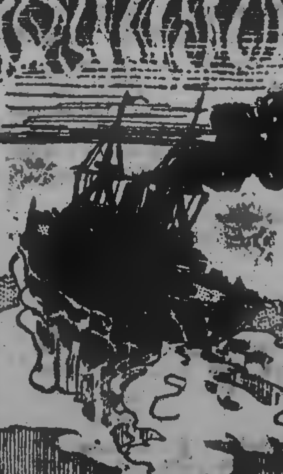
"Secret expedition, wasn't it?"

"Um-ah; that's true," said the other thoughtfully. "It's quite possible."

"Captain wishes to see both of you gentlemen in the wardroom, if you please," came a message.

Below they found all the officers gathered. Captain Parkinson was pacing up and down in ill controlled agitation.

"Gentlemen," he said, "we are facing a problem which so far as I know is without parallel. It is my intention to bring the schooner which we have in tow to port at Honolulu. In the present unsettled weather we cannot continue to tow her. I wish two officers to take charge. Under the circumstances I shall issue no orders. The duty must be voluntary."



Rich and splendid streamers of light spiraled up into the heavens.

Instantly every man, from the veteran Trendon to the paymaster, volunteered.

"That is what I expected," said Captain Parkinson quietly. "But I have still a word to say. I make no doubt in my own mind that the schooner has twice been beset by the gravest of perils. Nothing less would have driven Mr. Edwards from his post. All of us who know him will appreciate that. Nor can I free myself from the darkest forebodings as to his fate and that of his companions. But as to the nature of the peril I am unable to make any conjecture worthy of consideration. Has any one a theory to offer?"

There was a dead silence.

"Mr. Barnett? Mr. Trendon? Mr. Ives?"

"Is there not possibly some connection between the unexplained light which we have twice seen and the double desertion of the ship?" suggested the first officer after a pause.

"I have asked myself that over and over. Whatever the source of the light and however near to it the schooner may have been she is evidently unharmed."

"Yes, sir," said Barnett. "That seems to vitiate that explanation."

To Be Continued.

DOMINION ELECTIONS

To the Electors of the West Riding of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN:—The condition of industry in Canada is bad. The condition of workingmen is following suit. Their beautiful homes are becoming the prey of reduced circumstances. To the extent that we pay out money to other countries for work that should be done here we are traitors to our workingmen. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has brought this about to such a degree that Canada has paid out in the last twelve years (being the term during which the Liberals have been in power) hundreds of millions of dollars more than she took in. It was not so under a protectionist government. Those millions should have been spent at home. Then there would have been work for our workers to that extent at any rate, and what is more, the money would have been kept in the country. As it is we have to borrow to get it back. We have to borrow for gigantic enterprises which serve to make the big money-lender, the stock gambler and the contractor rich, but what good is it doing the workingman? To add insult to his injury Sir Wilfrid Laurier has opened the gates on the East and the West to immigrants. Those on the East, our own kith and kin, have been misled by misrepresentation and entrapped by agents who are paid a bonus for their capture. Those on the West are the untold millions of the Orient who are displacing the whites in B.C. are working East and are dispossessing Canadians of their own country. They lower the rate of wages and the standard of living. If Canada is to be kept up as she was but a few years ago she must not be allowed to fall into the class of "cheap and nasty" nations. If her people are to be well housed, well fed, well educated and above the condition of sweaters, they must demand a tariff against sweatwork, against undue immigration, against undue importation and a high protection for employers and employed alike, against the trickery of men who make their money on the stock market and by graft. The workers are slowly but surely becoming poorer than they used to be in this naturally rich and resourceful country. Why? Because the cream of all work goes to the money-lender of New York and London.

Why are the men of Canada idle? Because others will do the work cheaper in Britain and Germany and we let them invade our markets while they keep us out of theirs. The German tariff, the United States tariff, the French tariff are all vastly higher than ours. Britain protects herself where she needs it, by a Cattle Embargo and by the Patents Act, which requires patented articles (and nearly all are patented) to be manufactured there. There is never depression in France. The French have a high tariff and economise. They have always plenty for a rainy day. The Germans likewise keep their own work in their own country, but are weighed down with militarism. Britain suffers because her work is being done elsewhere, although she is changing that rapidly, but she has an immense start over Canada in her already accumulated capital. The United States is the modern wonder of the world, due altogether to high protection. Protection or tariff has been well said to be the measure of the standard of life amongst the workers. Commodities in protected countries are not higher than in unprotected. Clothing under a low tariff in Canada is higher in price than it used to be under a high tariff. Certain ills due to over-expansion, the machinations of stockgamblers, etc., exist in all countries, but when an ill is plainly preventable, why not prevent it? Sending cash out of the country over and above what we take in will never make us rich. Yet we do it and must do it under our present system of trade. Opening up unnecessary lands as in the West, while Ontario is not half populated or developed is of a piece with rest, but it is the delight of the money-lender. Ontario farms are rapidly decreasing in value. A huge national deficit is accumulating for this year and unless times are checked and we are restored to our own, the coming winter will be a veritable horror. The money that we are borrowing in such immense sums if spent for supplies, made in Canada, would mean work for everyone at good wages. Why then does Sir Wilfrid permit rails for the G. T. P. to be bought out of Canada and clothing that would keep our farmers growing wool and our woollen mills weaving it, to be imported without hindrance?

To say that one government is as bad as another is to say that one man or one set of men is no better as managers than another. We know this to be the reverse of correct in government, in trade, in railways or in anything else. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, although the Conservative administration, as it proved, was falling to pieces, could never have got into power had he not agreed to "let the tariff alone." This pledge he contrived to evade on the ground that while the U. S., Germany, etc., were prosperous under a protective tariff, he could make Canada a brilliant and enduring exception under a low tariff and a preference. Now he is compelled to fall back on the statement that depression is worldwide and that therefore Canada must share it.

Then the boast of great enterprises! Vast sums of money have been borrowed and spent but who has got the benefit of it? Who has been made rich? Where has it gone? The charge we make against the administration of Sir Wilfred Laurier is that it is in the grasp of the great money-lenders. It has ceased to represent the people. Is it any wonder men lose faith in the forms of government? Without any government at all there would be a happier people. If the times are not rescued, whether it be by a party or by a people, civilization will be destroyed. The thunder of revolt is already heard. Religion, art, education—all will go with the frenzied efforts of men to get out of the grasp of Money which never loses, never shares its needs, into a state of freedom and the natural fruition of honest work and a resourceful soil.

I am not rich, nor am I able to live without working, as has been said, and I never was. The stock exchange where so many have won fabulous riches at the expense of the steady worker underneath is unknown to me. If I have no money to lose I have none to be ashamed of.

The day of the abject party man is gone. Let humanity have a chance.

I solicit your vote and influence and have the honour to remain,

Yours faithfully,

J. H. BURNHAM

November Rod and Gun

Fine diversified reading is the leading feature of the November number of "Rod and Gun and Motor Sports in Canada," published by W. J. Taylor, at Woodstock, Ont. The delights of camping, canoeing, fishing, hunting and mountaineering are dwelt upon in stories which give the added touches of personal experiences to the pleasant pictures of enjoyment each one presents. Particularly notable are papers on "The Deer of New Brunswick," by that veteran guide, Adam Moore; "Deer Farming for Profit," a summary of inquiries on this subject made by the United States Government; and "Wild Rice Growing in Nova Scotia." Everyone will enjoy reading the stories, "Running the Rapids with an Amateur," by S. W. Bingay; "My Experiences as a Bear Hunter," by Dr. Henzel; "How I Missed a Moose and Deer and Shot a Wolf," by Jack Miner; and the friendly challenge by Mr. J. A. Shade, who believes, when all points are taken into consideration, that he has the finest moose head yet taken out of New Brunswick. This summary, by no means includes the whole of the wide field covered. Diversions being made into many paths, each one of which must appeal to many readers. With the various departments the wealth of material included in this number of the magazine is surprising and includes contributions that must appeal to all lovers of outdoor life.

THE LAST DITCH

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is fighting in the last ditch. All the bridges over which he once marched to victory have long since been burned behind him. Free trade, economy, honest administration, senate reform, abolition of surpluses, clean elections, these have all gone down during the retreat and while the last season when brought to bay, he flourished the battle axe of a servile majority, the blows he delivered shattered forever the last remnant of Liberal policy, respect for minority rights.

Now he is engaged in throwing up the feeble entrenchments of "rural mail delivery," "a Minister of Labor," "Campaign of slander," and "Give me another term," from which he will be driven with the loss of his reputation, amid the ruins of the Liberal party.

No one can survey the campaign without feelings of disgust. An army flushed with victory, guided by pledges of honesty and economy, has under his leadership degenerated into a rabble eager only to escape with spoils looted from the public treasury.

Electors!

Remember there is no numbered ballot this election. It is secret. Your vote cannot be traced, as it could when the numbered ballot was used. You can vote as you wish and not be called to account afterwards. Remember this! A Secret Ballot.

Accuracy Quality and Price

Are three prime considerations in eye glasses. In price we please our patrons, and this is an important factor in our increase of business. We supply glasses from one dollar up, according to requirement of the eyes. And all our kinds of lenses, qualities of frames are of unsurpassed value. In quality of material, style, workmanship we speak with confidence of the eye glasses and spectacles, which we are daily supplying. Accuracy in focal powers best suited to the special requirements of each individual eye, is of course, of first importance, each case receives our undivided attention. In Accuracy, Quality and Price we are pleasing our patrons.

The Contrast Between the Administration of R. L. Borden as Prime Minister and that of Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be Even More Marked than is the Difference Which Exists in Ontario Between the Whitney Government and the Corrupt Regime of the Late Ross Government.

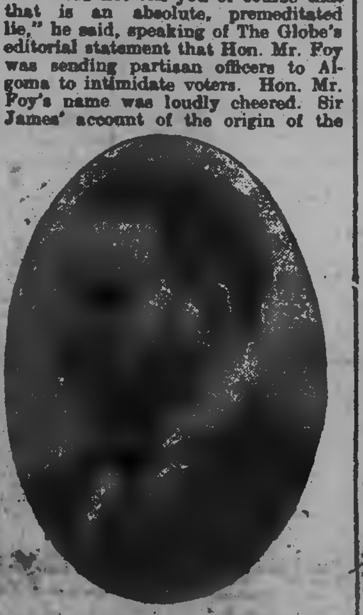
BIG CROWD HEARS WHITNEY AT MEETING AT TORONTO

Laurier Administration Arraigned.

Denounced by Sir James With Biting Satire---A Liberal Lie Nailed.

Toronto, Oct. 21.—Sir James Whitney had no rival in his oratory at Massey Hall last night, and the packed building enjoyed to the full his quips and cranks, his keen satire, his biting wit and the extraordinary power of phrase and locution in which he excels. His indictment of Laurier rule was clearly to the taste of the audience, and his pugnacious frankness went home to their hearts.

"I need not tell you of course that that is an absolute, premeditated lie," he said, speaking of The Globe's editorial statement that Hon. Mr. Foy was sending partisan officers to Algoma to intimidate voters. Hon. Mr. Foy's name was loudly cheered. Sir James' account of the origin of the Liberal party, "the residuum," after the broad-minded men had joined with the best Conservatives in 1854 to form the Liberal-Conservative party was accepted with delight, and his expression in uttering the word "residuum" excited much laughter. There could be no doubt that St. James' appeal for clean and honest Government, which he guaranteed under Hon. Mr. Borden, made a deep impression. The people of Canada desired good government; they had not got it; and they were determined to have it, he said.



SIR JAMES PLINY WHITNEY.

The preliminary speeches were remarkably bright and admirably brief. Hon. Mr. Foster was accorded a splendid reception.

The band of the 48th Highlanders played before the meeting commenced, and rendered some charming vocal numbers. The audience had a large proportion of ladies, who carried small flags. On the balconies were several mottoes:

"The people will rule."
"The awakening has come."
"Conserve our domain."
"Bristol for Centre Toronto."
"A. C. Macdonell for South Toronto."

The platform was crowded with prominent Conservatives, including, besides the speakers, W. R. McNaught, M.P.P.; Hon. Dr. Pyne, Hon. Thomas Crawford, Col. Tisdale, Hon. J. J. Foy, and Hon. A. J. Matheson.

PROSPECTS ARE THE BRIGHTEST

In 1904 Ontario gave the Conservatives 10 majority; Quebec gave Sir Wilfrid 43. Since that the Whitney government in Ontario has been elected twice, the last time with a majority of 68. The Liberal machine in Ontario is disorganized and shattered. The Liberal machine in Quebec is handicapped by internal dissensions, among the leaders and seriously threatened by a flank attack of the Bourassa independent young vote. In this situation alone, there is the possibility of disaster for the Laurier government. In 1904 New Brunswick, Manitoba and British Columbia gave the Liberals a total majority of 14 from these provinces in the house of commons. Those three provinces are now strongly Conservative and there is every probability that the result will be more than a reversion. In 1904 Nova Scotia voted solidly Liberal, giving the government 18 seats. The latest information from that province indicates a turn over next Monday similar to that which has taken place in New Brunswick and Ontario.

ONLY ONE TENDER WAS RECEIVED

For Overcoats for the Local Firemen

A meeting of the Fire, Water and Light Committee was held last night to open tenders for the contract of supplying overcoats for the firemen. Only one tender was received, that of E. Huff. No action was taken by the committee in the matter.

Several other minor questions were also considered.

Those present at the meeting were Ald. Johnston, Chairman; Mayor Rush and Ald. Buller and McIntyre.

MR. J. M. BROOKS MAKES PURCHASE

Of Lot on Corner of Sherbrooke and George Street--May Erect Store

Mr. W. R. Tetley has sold the lot on the corner of Sherbrooke and George streets to Mr. J. M. Brooks, Dalhousie street. The lot has a valuable location, and a good figure was realized by Mr. Tetley in the transaction. The deal was made through the real estate firm of Blewett & Middleton, George street.

Mr. Brooks is not in the city at present but the Review understands that he intends to move back the old frame building, which is at present on the property, and erect a substantial brick building with three stores in it.

FRUIT IN THE WEST

Success of Former Local Man

Mr. E. J. Abbott Has Extensive Fruit Farm in the Fraser River Valley

Mr. E. J. Abbott, who formerly resided in Peterborough county near Lakefield, and is well known to many in the city, now has one of the largest fruit farms in British Columbia. He has been in that province for the past thirteen years, and has met with great success.

Mr. Abbott is the proprietor of "Forest Home Fruit Farm," which is situated in the Fraser river valley, the most fertile territory in the province. The farm is located two miles from the Fraser river and one mile and a half from Mission Junction.

The following produce was marketed from Forest Home Farm this season:

Strawberries—1,900 cases of 24 boxes each.

Raspberries and blackberries—900 cases of 24 boxes each.

Rhubarb—Five tons, 250 boxes of 40 pounds each.

Plums—Five tons, 500 crates of 20 pounds each.

Apples—200 boxes of 40 pounds each.

Crabapples—54 boxes of 40 pounds each.

Pears were a failure this season.

Cherries, currants and peaches—30 cases.

The gross value of the above was a little over $5,000. Strawberries being very low in price this year cut down the value of the fruit fully $2,000. The scarcity of money in the Northwest caused all fruit to be lower in price this year.

Fully 500 crates of strawberries were not picked this year, the market value not warranting handling them.

The following fruit is in bearing on Mr. Abbott's farm at the present time:

Seven acres of strawberries, two of raspberries, one acre of blackberries, seven acres of plums, apples, etc., three-quarters of an acre of rhubarb. Plums were less than half a crop this season. About half the value of the fruit is paid out in wages.

CHEATED GALLOWS

Murderer Died in Owen Sound Gaol

J. Parish Creighton Who was to Have Been Hanged on Dec. 3rd.---An Inquest To-night

(Special to the Review)

Owen Sound, Ont., Oct. 21.—J. Parish Creighton, condemned to be hanged on Dec. 3 for the murder of his wife and two daughters, died this morning about 5 o'clock in the county jail.

Creighton had been ill the last three days. He was unable to leave his bed yesterday. He vomited considerable blood all day yesterday and his condition became acute last night. Physicians say the symptoms are those of phosphorus poisoning.

An inquest will be held to-night.

WERE COOKED TO DEATH

Horrible Fate of Four Men in the Engine Room of Barge "Maggie Marshall"

Chicago, October 21.—Four men were cooked to death in the engine room of the barge Maggie Marshall of Manisteenlon at a point in mid-lake about thirty miles east of Kenosha, Monday night.

CITY ON DRY LIST

Aim of the Temperance Workers

Local Option Campaign Decided on---Large Meeting Held Last Night

The ratepayers of Peterborough will probably be asked to vote on a local option bylaw at the municipal elections in January 1910.

At the meeting of the City Temperance and Moral Reform League at George street church last night it was decided to start an active campaign at once with this object in view.

In view of the strong temperance sentiment in the city and that local option appears to be the best means of abolishing the liquor traffic here, the following resolution was passed unanimously:

"Resolved that this meeting of the citizens convened this evening of October 20th, hereby gives its heartfelt approval to the proposed plan of the City Temperance League to inaugurate a local option campaign here to vote on a bylaw on the 1st day of January, 1910 and we hereby pledge our sympathy and support to the City Temperance League in carrying on the said campaign."

The meeting was largely attended and was enthusiastic in the cause of temperance. It was intended to hold the meeting in the basement but it was seen that it would have been congested and the main auditorium was used. Rev. E. A. Pearson was in the chair and addresses were given by Rev. B. H. Spence, secretary of the Dominion Alliance and Mrs. Owen Hitchcox, of Toronto. Both speakers dealt with the local option question showing how it was gaining ground in the province and the good results that had followed in the municipalities where it had been introduced. The speakers went into the matter very fully and presented the case so strongly that the resolution given above was carried by a standing vote.

Plans for the campaign will be formulated at once.

PRISON FOR THE CROZIERS FATHER AND SON SENTENCED

Counterfeiters Both Plead Guilty.

And Are Given Nine and Two Years by Milton Magistrate Court Room Crowded.

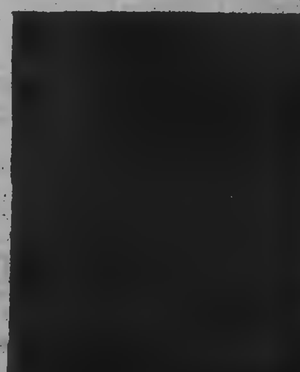
Milton, Oct. 21.—With everyone in the crowded court room deeply affected, many shedding tears, Magistrate Shields yesterday afternoon sentenced Thomas Crozier to nine years in Kingston Penitentiary and his 18-year-old son, Milton, to two years in the Central Prison, for the crime of counterfeiting.

"May God bless you and bring you out a better man," were the magistrate's concluding words to the young fellow.

Crozier, during the address of counsel, sobbed bitterly, and when sentence was passed he exclaimed in his agony, "Good God!"

Both had pleaded guilty, the father to making and disposing of the counterfeit bank notes, the son to the making of the illegal currency. In addition Crozier prepared a confession.

Crozier, Sr., was arrested at Oakville, having been detected in passing a bogus bill at the theatre on the night of the recent fall fair. Search of his home on Gerrard street, Toronto, revealed evidences of wholesale operations, and Inspector Parkinson of the Dominion police, continuing his investigations, was able to dig up on a farm owned by Crozier, near Buffalo, N.Y., plates and $3,500 bogus money, and later, on the Crozier farm, near Milton, more plates and $7,000 additional in counterfeit bills.



MILTON CROZIER.

Well-known throughout Halton County, the Croziers were generally respected until the elder man's arrest on Oct. 2. And yesterday, though penalized by the court, they seemingly were not disgraced in the sight of friends and acquaintances, for after sentence was passed, there was a veritable crush to bid the two good-bye. It was a farewell to friends leaving on a long journey.

The court room was crowded to the doors, and it seemed that the streets of the town were deserted during the trial, while many had driven in from the surrounding country.

Crozier broke down completely when sentence was delivered, but the son bore himself throughout with an air of bravado, though his eyes were wet and he chewed viciously at the gum which he has had with him at every appearance in court.

The court was opened at 2.30. The charges were read twice to each prisoner, and the elder man was first asked to plead. "I'm guilty, sir," he said brokenly, and then collapsed. He was given a chair and sat with bowed head while the charge was read to his boy, who carelessly replied "guilty."

THE ONLY WAY IT CAN BE DONE

His political exploits always kept Hon. G. W. Ross' personality to the fore, extolled his personal virtue and integrity, and endeavored to create in the public mind the conviction that none but Mr. Ross could properly administer the affairs of the province of Ontario. People stood for it for a time but finally called the political bluff. That is exactly what is happening in the case of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He is a gentleman of unblemished personal integrity and high character; but he is seeking to retain power as premier of Canada by taking advantage of the most unscrupulous methods of an administration without a conscience, without a principle, and without a sense of honesty. The Toronto Globe adjured Hon. G. W. Ross to "scrape off the barnacles". There is only one way in which an honest, high minded statesman can get rid of the political parasites and grafting supporters, and that is the only way in which the people of Canada can fumigate the Laurier government. The name and fame of Laurier has simply become a stalking horse behind which a gang of crooks, grafters, and looters of the nation's resources make their attacks upon the public treasury.

DESTROYED BY FLAMES

Home of George McHugh of Chemong Village Totally Destroyed

The home of George McHugh, at Chemong Indian village was totally destroyed by fire, shortly before daylight a few mornings ago. The fire was not the result of a bush fire, the origin of it not being known. The house was a frame one, and not very large.

McHugh suffers a considerable loss by the burning of his property. The contents were all burned and the total loss is estimated at about five hundred dollars. The flames were dener and hunter. The flames were fought as best as could be but owing to the prevalent dryness everything was soon wiped away.

GIRLS ARRIVE AT "HAZEL BRAE"

Sixty-three Got Here This Morning From England

A special train with sixty-three Barnardo Home girls arrived in the city this morning about one o'clock and were taken to "Hazel Brae," the local institution of Dr. Barnardo; They will be retained here until homes are found for them in different parts of the province. The came on the steamship Dominion. They are a bright looking lot of young girls and will no doubt make good respectable citizens.

"A MOST PITIFUL LEGACY OF DEBT AND DISASTER"

What Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Transcontinental Railway Will be to Canada—He Had Dreamed That it Would be His Monument---The Political Situation in Canada.

The electors of West Peterborough are asked to read the following article from the "Boston News Bureau" dealing with the present political contest in Canada:—

Canada is in the throes of a fierce political conflict. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberals have now held undisputed sway for 12 years, and fortune has smiled upon their reign.

The great gold discoveries of the Yukon, the wonderful mining, lumber and agricultural developments of British Columbia and the opening up of the most prolific wheat and pasture land in the world in the Saskatchewan valley have given Canada an era of wondrous prosperity.

The Canadian Pacific and the Canadian Northern railways have gridironed the prairies of the Canadian Northwest with railroads, and hordes of American farmers have swarmed into this new El Dorado. The Saskatchewan valley embraces a territory more extensive than the Rhine and the Danube, and a territory that possesses richer and more extensive resources than the empires of Germany and Austria combined. The opening up of this wonderful country has awakened Canada to a realization of her stupendous possibilities and put a new soul into her people.

The Liberals claim the credit and all the glory of these developments, and ask for a new lease of power. The Conservatives, on the other hand, assert that it was their fiscal and liberal railroad policy that induced this great development, and they point to the waste and extravagance of the Liberal regime. The great blot on Canadian public life is the spoils system. All supplies must be bought from Liberals and all contracts and concessions and offices must be bestowed on the faithful followers of the party in power. This has led to the Grand Trunk Pacific project, which now threatens to wreck the Laurier Government.

The Tories gave the Canadian Pacific $25,000,000 and 25,000,000 acres of land. This great subsidy was so wisely used that it enabled Canadian Pacific to become one of the greatest and most perfect transportation systems in the world. The Canadian Pacific circles the globe with its ships and railroads, and gives Canada the cheapest and best transportation in the world.

The Canadian Northern Railway is another system of which Canada is justly proud. This has been upbuilt by MacKenzie & Mann, two genuine empire builders. They have 5,000 miles of railway, and the bonded indebtedness of this railway is only $17,000 a mile. They have never issued a share of stock, and their fixed charges for railroad equipment, great terminals, elevators, express company and land amount to only $710 a mile. Canadian Pacific fixed charges are but $850 a mile, while Grand Trunk has $2,100 a mile. Wabash has fixed charges of $2,250, Erie $6,300 and New York Central $6,350.

The Grand Trunk is an English-managed railroad, and its obligations reach $100,000 a mile while Canadian Pacific's are only $34,000 and Canadian Northern's $28,000.

Montreal should become the great commercial emporium of the North American continent. It is 700 miles shorter to Liverpool or Hamburg from Omaha or St. Paul by rail and water through Montreal than through New York. All grain or merchandise originating at Omaha or St. Paul, or at any point in the great country to the West, can be shipped more speedily and more economically through the St. Lawrence route than through New York or Philadelphia, or Baltimore.

The building of the Georgian Bay canal and the construction of additional first-class railroads from Georgian Bay to Montreal will in time divert to the St. Lawrence the commerce, not only of the Canadian West, but also the commerce of the American Northwest.

Distance, grades, waterways and low-capitalized railroads all favor Canadian routes, and the exceedingly able men at the head of the Canadian Pacific and of Canadian Northern know this and are girding themselves for supremacy in the transportation business of the North American continent.

The Canadian Northern system mapped out for itself the best railroad route across the American continent, when it is completed from Montreal to Vancouver its maximum grades from ocean to ocean will not exceed 4-10 of 1 per cent., and it will cross the Rockies at an elevation of 3,500 feet, while Union Pacific has to climb 8,000 feet.

President Hays, of the Grand Trunk, has long been ambitious to run his railroad to the Pacific, and six years ago he sought the aid of the Dominion to enable him to reach the Saskatchewan valley, the Peace river country, and the Pacific.

The Canadian Northern had already bridged the distance from Lake Superior to the Rockies, and MacKenzie & Mann wanted Government aid to build from Lake Superior to Montreal and from the prairies to Vancouver. President Hays, of the Grand Trunk, had a route mapped out that would open up a prolific wheat and cattle country through 1,500 miles of prairie and by which he could obtain a short mountain route not exceeding 250 miles to the Pacific. This Grand Trunk route was north of the Canadian Northern and through an unoccupied country.

The Dominion has had in operation for forty years the Inter-Colonial R. R., running from Ottawa to Montreal and Halifax. This government railroad has never earned operating expenses and both the Grand Trunk and Canadian Northern were ready to make it, valuable traffic arrangements, were the Government to aid them in building to the Pacific and perfecting or building their lines from the Lakes to Montreal.

It was in line with the railroad policy of the Dominion to guarantee the bonds of both the Grand Trunk and Canadian Northern to enable to perfect two other Canadian railroad systems with very low capitalization. It would have enabled them to build where railroads were needed.

But Sir Wilfrid Laurier had been dreaming about building a great transcontinental railroad of his own which would perpetrate his fame and be his monument forever. He put aside the Canadian Northern scheme, and instead of the Grand Trunk alliance with the Inter-Colonial and a railroad to the Pacific through the Peace river country, Sir Wilfrid conceived a transcontinental railroad that would double-track the Inter-Colonial from Halifax to Quebec, and double-track the Canadian Pacific or the Canadian Northern from Lake Superior to the Rocky Mountains. The Laurier Pacific route being built will run side by side with the Inter-Colonial for 400 miles, and where there was one government railroad that did not earn expenses, there will now be two. Then, from Quebec to Winnipeg, this railroad runs away into a wilderness of rocks and swamps and scrub and muskeg, where there is neither coal, nor lumber, nor traffic, nor business, nor people.

These 1803 miles of new railroad from the Atlantic to Winnipeg will be the most expensive and useless

MESSENGER TO SERVIA HELD UP BY AUSTRIANS

Seizure of Despatches From Montenegro to King Peter Carried by Gen. Vukotsch, Arouses Feeling of Bitterness Among Servians.

Belgrade, Oct. 21.—Gen. Vukotsch, an official of the Montenegro Government, who left Cettinje three days ago for this city on a special mission to the Servian Government, arrived here yesterday at noon after an extraordinary experience at Agram, where he was arrested by Austro-Hungarian officials. The general said:

"On my arrival at Agram gendarmes entered my car, dragged me out, and took me to the prefecture of police. I was then searched, and my purse, papers, in fact everything I had, was taken from me. I gave the gendarmerie officer my name and explained my status as a special envoy to King Peter. I showed also the passport and safe conduct given me at the Austro-Hungarian legation at Cettinje, but all to no avail.

"Ultimately I was permitted to send a telegram to Baron Von Aehrenthal, the Austro-Hungarian Minister of Foreign Affairs, complaining of the treatment accorded me. After considerable delay an order arrived from Vienna instructing the police to release me, and this was done. My journey was delayed altogether fourteen hours."

This occurrence has aroused again a bitter feeling toward Austria-Hungary on the part of the Servians, and the people are greatly excited.

Berlin, Oct. 21.—The Prussian Parliament was opened by Emperor William yesterday. In his address His Majesty indicated the intention of the Government to introduce a modification of the existing antiquated three-class electoral system, which has been the object of much agitation of recent years.

Alluding to the Balkans the Emperor said that Germany was less interested there than the other powers, but that the country worked with the others for a peaceful and satisfactory solution of the present difficulty.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 21.—Russia has been given to understand from a Bulgarian source that Bulgaria, although doing everything possible for the preservation of peace, cannot look with indifference on the military preparations of Turkey. If mobilization is ordered in Turkey, Bulgaria will be forced to inaugurate military operations herself without loss of time.

CUTTING MACHINE IS AT LINDSAY

Mr. Richard Martin of the Peterborough Waterworks arrived in town this morning with the cutting machine which the Lindsay water commissioners have borrowed for the purpose of cutting the mains in order to make necessary connections therewith.

The cutting operations commenced this afternoon and the machine used is an ingenious device which does the cutting in a splendid manner. The machine it is said cost in the neighborhood of $700.—Lindsay Post.

LAURIER IS OPTIMISTIC IN SPEECH AT MONTREAL

Montreal, Oct. 21.—"Laurier, the uncrowned King," was the motto born through the streets of Montreal last night in what was the crowning demonstration of the Liberal campaign.

Weeks of arduous work had been put in by the Liberal party organizers, money was spent like water for tons of fireworks, thousands of flags and other devices, but although everything came off as scheduled, the thousands of people who lined the streets were drawn more by curiosity. What enthusiasm there was was provided by the demonstrators themselves.

Trains were run from all the surrounding country.

The Premier addressed two meetings, one at the Monument Nationale, and the other at Sohmer Park. Both buildings were packed, and here it was that the greatest enthusiasm was shown. The speeches of the Premier contained little new, but he severely criticized the entrance into the political arena of retired judges and men drawing pensions from the country.

At Sohmer Park the Prime Minister said the Government would come back with 60 of a majority. He said they would get a majority from Nova Scotia, if not all the seats, would hold their own in New Brunswick, and, perhaps, get a majority from Ontario. As for Quebec, Sir Wilfrid declared that the heart of the people was sound and they would do their duty on the 26th.

One of the mottoes bore the words "Laurier, the Uncrowned King," and another the illuminated sign bearing the words, "Dear doctor, please turn on the tap—Foster."

The most elaborate demonstration ever held here came to an end at midnight.

Three boys were seriously injured and five horses suffocated as a result of the demonstration.

The boys were injured by the explosion of a box of fireworks in Papineau square while the Liberal chief was passing on his way to Sohmer Park. The horses were suffocated in a blaze which gutted the stable of F. X. St. Charles in St. Dominique street, just as Sir Wilfrid was leaving the Monument Nationale. The fire is thought to have been started from a spark from fireworks.

NEW SWITCH HAS BEEN COMPLETED

The new switch at Kendry Station has been completed and greatly facilitates shipping. Mr. F. E. Wilson's storehouse has been removed farther east and a new grain elevator is being erected. This will add much to the convenience of Mr. F. E. Wilson, the grain shipper at Kendry.

More proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures female ills.

Mrs. John Scott, 489 Grand Trunk St., Montreal, writes Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was very much run down in health from a female trouble, was thin, nervous, and very weak, and suffered from bearing down pains. Indeed I did not care whether I lived or died, I felt so badly sometimes.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me of all my troubles. I gained in flesh, and am free from backache, female trouble, sick headaches, and nervousness.

"I heartily recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for all women's ailments, knowing what it has done for me."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

SIR WILFRID AND BRITISH CONNECTION

Of union, of solidarity, of progress within the mEpire, the function at Quebec has spoken. Everybody agrees that Canada has led the way to these great achievements. Everybody knows that but for the labors of far-seeing Canadians united Canada would not have been a fact, and the stronger Empire would not have arisen. Let us not forget that it was in the face of strenuous opposition that the work of Canadian union was brought about. Some of the Upper Canadians opposed the movement on the ground that it would give us an unwieldy country. These men were in error. Some of the Lower Canadians dissented for other reasons.

One of the more important of the campaigners against Canadian consolidation was the present Premier. He fought the project because he regarded it as English. He said the idea was propounded in the interests of the English Colonies. "What," he asked, "have we in common with the English colonies? What interests? What relations bind us to them? Is it a matter of origin, religion, national aspiration? No, not at all!" Sir Wilfrid added that the French race would be swallowed up by the English, and he therefore counselled opposition to the confederation of the provinces and the extension of the Dominion to the Pacific. The statesmen of 1866-7 had to fight this, and we must not forget that Sir Etienne Tache and Sir George Cartier met it, and thus contributed to the making of Canada and the building of the Empire. Confederation did not end the struggle for union. The great change had scarcely been completed when a campaign looking to the secession of the Maritime Provinces was inaugurated. In this struggle one of the leaders was Mr. Fielding, the Finance Minister of to-day. Mr. Fielding asked Nova Scotia to believe that separation from Canada was imperative, and he issued appeals to New Brunswick and Prince Edward to join in the secession movement. This had to be fought, and to Sir John Macdonald and to Sir Charles Tupper the credit for the strangling of the Fielding programme belongs. There yet remained the question of our future relations to the Motherland. On this vital issue Sir Richard Cartwright, the present Minister of Trade and Commerce, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier took strong ground. They wanted a commercial alliance next door. Hon Edward Blake, who examined their scheme, pronounced it a step towards annexation to the United States. Sir Wilfrid told the people of Boston, whose sympathies he sought, what, in his opinion, the movement meant. "Canada," he said, "is still a colony, and it is the destiny of colonies to become independent nations. But how, and when, is Canada to become an independent nation? The tie which binds a colony to the Motherland always has a deep hold upon that colony. But you remember the example of this great Republic itself. There was a time when the colonies had no conception of severing their relations from the Mother Country, and it was only the tyranny of England which forced them to throw off their allegiance. England to-day has granted to Canada and to all her colonies the rights and privileges she once refused. But, as in the case of every dependency, the dependence will not last. Canada and England have interests apart, and the day will come and must come, when Canada and England will have to separate from each other." This view was amplified in a Parliamentary speech wherein it is said that separation was the goal at which the speaker aimed. "I hold out to my fellow-countrymen the idea of independence." "If we are true to our record we will again exhibit to the world the unique, the unprecedented example of a nation achieving its independence by slow degrees and as naturally as the severing of the ripe fruit from the parent stem." This policy had to be combatted, and to Sir John Macdonald, Sir Charles Tupper, Sir Adolphe Chapleau and Sir A. P. Caron the victory belonged.

It is not to be forgotten that union was not accomplished without a struggle, and that it has not been maintained without effort. The battle for a consolidated Canada has been severe, and we owe to the triumphs achieved in the various phases of the conflict the present position of Canada. Let us not forget then the statesmen who fought for the blessings we now enjoy. While praising the men of to-day we must remember the labors of Macdonald and Cartier, of Tache and Tupper, of Brown and Langevin, of Macdougall and McGee, in behalf of the confederated Canada and of a solid British Empire.—Mail and Empire.

IN THE ARENA OF POLITICS

Turn on the light.

Turn the grafters out.

The landslide comes on Monday.

The country is tired of the grafters.

R. L. Borden will give Canada honest government.

R. L. Borden stands for protection of Canadian manufacturers.

A vote for Burnham on Monday is a vote for better rule at Ottawa.

The honest electors of West Peterborough want honest men to administer Canada's business.

Does Canada want four years more of Laurier and his legislation of loot?

The Conservatives of the East riding are confident of victory. Ditto in the west.

It is the duty of every elector to mark a ballot on Monday.

And he should mark it as his conscience dictates is right.

The polls open on Monday at 9 o'clock and close at 5. Remember this.

Liberal candidates will go back to the woods on Monday—probably to get some timber for a new platform.

The Ross Government was bad enough, but it had some virtues compared with the present administration at Ottawa.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

The Democratic campaign has so far cost about $250,000.

Two sharp earthquakes were felt at Manila, followed by a third, which was less severe.

Two prominent Tennesseeans were killed on Reel Foot Lake, it is alleged, by night raiders.

From nearly every mountainous section of Pennsylvania come reports of forest and bush fires.

Judge Young of Pittsburg has dismissed the writ of habeas corpus in the Thaw case. This means Thaw will not be taken there just now.

Children gathering nuts found the body of John Eedy on the farm of Wm. Stomley, near Granton, Ont. He had been missing for three weeks.

The Montreal Cotton and Wool Waste Co., Limited, suffered a loss of $50,000 through a fire which almost destroyed one of their warehouses.

A train leaving Glace Bay, N.S., station struck and killed Dan McIntosh, a native of Garden of Eden, Pictou County. He was about 35 years of age.

At a point near Mondgere, Morocco, a French detachment was attacked by a band of Moors. The enemy was driven back with a loss of 14 men killed. The French had four killed.

Miss Pearl Collins, 23 years old, was shot and instantly killed at Warren, Pa., and James Lynch of Lakewood, N.Y., a fireman on the Erie Railroad, her alleged slayer, committed suicide. She had refused to marry him.

Jail Breaker Gets Added Sentence.

Belleville, Oct. 21.—William Brightcliffe, the young Englishman who a few days ago escaped from the county jail here and was recaptured, was yesterday brought up before Judge Fralick and pleaded guilty to three charges, namely, housebreaking, theft and escaping from prison. For the former offences he was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary and three months for escaping. This with his former conviction makes his sentence three years and three months in the penitentiary.

Unemployed Assault.

Melbourne, Australia, Oct. 21.—(C.A.P.)—The unemployed attempted yesterday to rush into the Federal Parliament, but after a fierce struggle the police ejected them.

At Wellington, N.Z., at the opening of the electoral campaign, Premier Ward said it was not time to rest from legislation.

Druggist May Become Sheriff.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 21.—J. E. Davignon, a veteran druggist of this city, has disposed of his business to T. B. Welsh of Strathroy, and will retire. His name is prominently mentioned as a likely successor to J. O. Iler, who is forced to relinquish his office as sheriff on account of ill-health.

FAMILIES HAVE TO MOVE OUT TO ESCAPE FOREST FIRES

Special to the Review.

Norwood, October 20—Mr. J. Fred Pearce, who has spent the past year and a half in and around the capital of Alberta has returned, accompanied by Mrs. Pearce who has spent the summer with him in the West.

Dr. O. C. Houson, of Kalamazoo, Mich., formerly of Norwood, was married two weeks ago.

Miss Ada Scott has returned after spending a few weeks with friends in the West.

The Ladies Mission Circle of the Norwood Baptist church are planning for a measuring party and a social to be held on Friday evening. The parsonage will be utilized for the occasion.

Miss Ina Loble, who has been spending the past two years with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Thistlethwaite left for her home in Gladstone, Man last week accompanied by her mother and brothers who have been visiting here during the past few weeks.

Mr. Savigny Laing of Peterborough spent fair day in town the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Laing, Peterborough street.

Mr. Will Houson of Toronto, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Houson.

Mr. Henry Reavis of Lakefield was in town last week.

We are glad to say that Mr. Wm. McDougall who was seriously injured by a dynamite explosion while blasting a well several weeks ago, is improving and able to be out.

Mrs M. J. Christie returned to Peterborough last Saturday after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. E. Laing.

A large number from Havelock and other places attended the nomination in the Town Hall on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Laing and daughter, Eleen, visited at the home of Mr. J. B. Laing, Havelock, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hunter and daughter Alice of Lakefield visited Mr and Mrs E J Laing on fair day.

We are sorry to say that Miss Mary Birt is seriously ill but hope that she will soon recover.

Fierce forest fires are raging in the north country. Large tracts of timber lands have been overrun by the flames and as a consequence heavy losses have been sustained by the holders of the timber lots in Methuen. It has been reported that several families on the ninth line of Dummer have had to move out to insure the safety of their movable effects and their houses are in imminent danger of destruction by fire.

The apple crop in this vicinity is very poor this season. Many apple growers who generally have large quantities of fruit to dispose of have barely enough for their own use. As a consequence people here are looking for their winter supply. Anybody bringing in a few loads of good winter fruit would have a ready sale at good prices.

Potatoes which are also a poor crop are selling at from ninety cents to one dollar per bag.

Hay is bringing from eleven to thirteen dollars per ton and is offering freely.

Mr. John Fry of Peterborough who recently took a course of instruction in piano tuning and is now a full fledged tuner has been in Norwood for a few days and has done several jobs to the satisfaction of his patrons.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS

PAZA OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind or Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c

Dairy Meetings

Arrangements are being made by the Eastern Dairymen's Association for a series of meetings to be held in the sixteen sections of Eastern Ontario. There will be a meeting in each section at which addresses on cheese manufacturing will be heard and representatives on the board of the dairymen's association will be selected.

The houses of Phillip Myers and James Dunlop at Wallaceburg were gutted by fire.

FIRE INSURANCE

are often the sufferers from the negligence of others. You can prevent your children from being rendered homeless by accidental fire by insuring your home. Thus you will be fully compensated in case of fire and can soon provide your family with another home. Let us talk to you about Fire Insurance. The annual cost in premiums is hardly noticeable.

MANITOULIN IN FLAMES.

Forest Fires Are Spreading With Terrible Rapidity.

Detroit, Oct. 21.—A despatch from Sault Ste. Marie last night says that the forest fires after being dormant for two days have started up afresh under the influence of a 50-mile gale, and with greater fury than ever. Homesteaders are abandoning their log cabins and are fleeing for their lives. The whole southeastern part of the country is ablaze, and the farmers coming to the Soo to-day say that bears and other animals are running before the flames searching for places of safety. The country is again enveloped in a pall of smoke and navigation is once more hindered.

Thousands of acres in Ontario on the shore of Lake Huron, where American lumbermen have large holdings, are burning. Almost the whole of Manitoulin Island is in flames. Relief measures on a large scale for Michigan fire sufferers are now under way all through the state. The city of Detroit alone will contribute $100,000 to the fund.

Runaway Boy His Heir.

Boston, Oct. 21.—A quarter of a million dollars is waiting for a runaway who left home in 1886 and has never been heard from since.

Daniel Russell, Jr., was 14 years old when, after quarreling with his father, a Boston merchant, he left home saying he would never return. His father died some time ago and the will was probated yesterday. After expressing his regret for any action on his part that might have led the son to think he was not wanted at home, is father leaves him $250,000, "as partial atonement for sufferings he may have endured."

A Genuine Air Line.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 21.—The giving of a contract for a dirigible balloon to cost about $7,000 to Capt. Thos. S. Baldwin, inventor and builder of the dirigible balloon, recently sold the United States Government, marks the first step taken by the Aerial Navigation Co., of which Charles J. Glidden is the leading spirit, since the company was incorporated some months ago for the purpose of operating an aerial freight and passenger line to New York.

Man Killed When Roof Collapsed.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 21.—One man was killed and two others were seriously injured yesterday afternoon by the collapsing of the roundhouse roof of the Lehigh Valley Railroad in this city. Rescuers were promptly on the scene and after half an hour's hard work dug from the ruins Peter Mullin, aged 46, and two Italians. Mullin was dead and the Italians seriously injured. Twenty other employes on the turntables escaped injury.

Times Is Complimentary.

London, Oct. 21.—(C. A. P.)—The Times editorially quotes with evident approval B. E. Walker's suggestions on American banking at the annual convention of the American Bankers' Association, remarking that Dr. Walker is judiciously careful not to go too far in holding Canada as a model to be copied by her great neighbor, even when addressing so enlightened a body as the convention.

All Doors Shut to Indians.

London, Oct. 21.—(C. A. P.)—The Jam of Nawanger, Ranjitsinghi, speaking at a farewell dinner at Cambridge, said unfortunately the doors had been shut to Indians by Australia and Canada, and now by South Africa. He felt that those Governments should try to devise a scheme whereby Indians could employ their labor and skill in British colonies.

$600,000 Suit Said to Be Invalid.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 21.—The $600,000 suit for damages which Governor Haskell of Oklahoma filed here last week against W. R. Hearst is regarded as invalid by prominent attorneys who have examined the petition. They point out that the Nebraska laws allow no punitive damages in a libel suit and $300,000 of the amount asked in the present case is punitive. The petition is not accompanied by an affidavit as required by the laws of this state.

Forty Arrests Made.

Toronto, Oct. 21.—A Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., despatch, via Detroit, Mich., says:

The arrest of forty men in Blind River has caused a political sensation in Northern Ontario. It is alleged they registered fraudulently to vote in the coming elections.

It is claimed that hundreds of woodsmen not entitled to vote are being rushed in by both parties from both sides of the border.

Canada In London.

London Oct. 21.—(C.A.P.)—As a result of the visit to Toronto of Montagu Norman, director of the Bank of England, and a member of Brown, Shipley & Co., it is anticipated the latter firm will take a very active interest in Canadian investments in London.

Ready to Issue Scrip.

Ottawa, Oct. 21.—The Department of the Interior is ready to issue South African veterans' warrants for lands or cash scrip.

This applies to the one thousand veterans whose applications have been endorsed by the Militia Department.

Shoe Men Strike, Factory Close.

Boston, Oct. 21.—The factory of the G. A. Walton Shoe Co. of Chelsea was shut down and 1,800 hands became idle as the result of a strike of 200 workmen begun last week. The strikers demand the same wages as are paid in Lynn factories.

Forest Fires About Sherbrooke.

Montreal, Oct. 21.—Forest fires are again raging in the vicinity of Sherbrooke, and timber limits of the Canada Paper Co. and Bissell are threatened. The fire is spreading with great rapidity.

Eleven Hundred Drown.

Amoy, Oct. 21.—The damage done in Thursday's typhoon was much greater than at first reported.

In Chang-Chow 3,000 houses, including the prefects Yamen were destroyed, and 1,100 persons killed. In Lam-Cheng, 15 miles west of Chang-Chow, 600 houses were destroyed and 1,200 persons killed.

Five years ago Lam-Cheng was flooded, and 3,000 persons were drowned. Fifteen miles north of Chang-Chow three villages were entirely destroyed in Thursday's storm, 400 persons being killed.

Sophomores Paint the Freshmen.

Kingston, Oct. 21.—There was a rush at Queen's Medical School yesterday. The sophomores overcame the freshmen, who had their boots and headgear taken and thrown into a pile in the centre of the field.

Then the man with the paint came along and every freshman was branded with a big red "F" on his forehead and black streaks down his face.

The carters' wagons were waiting and the defeated first year men were piled into these, and headed by the happy "sophs," were driven around the city.

Four Montreal boys, inspired by dime novels stole $220 and bought a stock of firearms to go west but were arrested just before starting.

Toronto Live Stock.

TORONTO, Oct. 20.—Receipts of live stock at the City Market, as reported by the railways, were 89 carloads, composed of 1587 cattle, 1474 hogs, 1238 sheep and lambs, with 72 calves.

Exporters.

There were none on sale, but good to choice export steers are worth as high as $5, but the bulk being offered are not of that class; bulls, $3.50 to $4 per cwt.

Butchers.

Few good butchers' were on sale. Choice picked steers and heifers are worth as high as $4.75; good, $4.25 to $4.50; medium, $3.75 to $4; common, $3 to $3.50; canners, $1 to $2.

Feeders and Stockers.

H. & W. Murby report choice feeders and stockers as being scarce, and all of that quality as being readily picked up. Prices were quoted as follows: Good quality steers, 950 to 1050 lbs., $3.25 to $3.60; feeders, 800 to 900 lbs., $3 to $3.25; good stockers, $2.50 to $2.80; common stockers, $2.

Milkers and Springers.

There were about fifty milkers and springers that sold at firm prices, ranging from $30 to $65 each.

Veal Calves.

The veal calf market was not quite as strong. Prices ranged from $3 to $6 per cwt., with an odd lot of the best at a little more money.

Sheep and Lambs.

The market remains about steady for sheep and lambs; export ewes sold at $3.25 to $3.50 per cwt.; rams, $2.50 to $3.75; lambs, $4 to $4.50 per cwt.

Hogs.

Mr. Harris reported selects at $6.25 fed and watered at the market, and $6 f.o.b. cars to drovers at country points.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

EAST BUFFALO, Oct. 20.—Cattle—Receipts, 300 head; slow and barely steady; prime steers, $5.60 to $6.

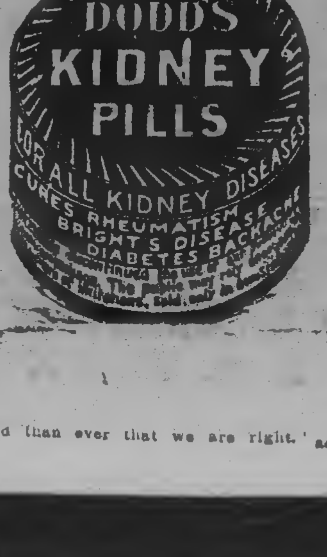
A Love Affair Adjusted.

Montreal, Oct. 21.—Dora Pelman, an English girl, came out to Canada in 1907, following her lover, Israel Lake, who had preceded her by three years. Lake found that he did not want to marry, said that he could not afford to do so, and in August last Miss Pelman had him arrested for breach of promise, asking $2,000 damages. Lake offered $50, which was refused, but finally $150 has settled it.

The motor boat Key West in which Mr and Mrs Frederick Still and child left Chatham, yesterday was found abandoned near Walkerville.



VACCINATION CHALLENGE.

Opposer of Inoculation Dares Doctor to Test His System.

Philadelphia, Oct. 21.—An unusual challenge to test the effectiveness of vaccination was issued yesterday at the opening meeting of the National Anti-Vaccination Conference, which will remain in session three days with representatives present from state and national organizations opposed to compulsory medical practices.

Dr. Rudolph Straube of Philadelphia in an address challenged Dr. Samuel Dixon, head of the Pennsylvania health department, to spend a night in bed with him with a smallpox patient between them in order to prove his assertion that vaccination is of no benefit in preventing the spread of that disease. Dr. Dixon, Dr. Straube says, has been vaccinated several times, while he has never been innoculated. In the event of Dr. Dixon's refusal to accept the offer, Dr. Straube said the challenge would be open to Dr. Joseph Neff, of the health department of Philadelphia.

WADED TO MAINLAND.

Chatham Family Have Hazardous Trip In Lake St. Clair.

Chatham, Oct. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Still, with their four-year-old son, Roscoe, whose motorboat was found beached and abandoned on the shore of a little island near Tecumseh, after they had left Chatham for Detroit, have returned home safely, but after a harrowing experience. While returning the heavy smoke from the northern forest fires settled about them like a pall. Then the gasoline gave out and the craft drifted helplessly on Lake St. Clair. A high sea was running. After a while the craft grounded. The land was welcome, but it was found that the waves threatened to wash over the island. A passing trolley car on the mainland in the distance gave the first inkling of their whereabouts. Mrs. Still, lashing her son to the back of his father with her wrap, then accompanied the husband on a hazardous wade toward the mainland, which they reached in safety.

Germany In Grip of Frost.

Berlin, Oct. 21.—Central Europe is at present in the grip of the coldest weather that has been experienced in any month of October since 1866.

The thermometer ranges from 7 to 15 degrees below the freezing point, and there has been a heavy fall of snow in Silesia.

Empty Craft Point to Tragedy.

Boston, Oct. 21.—The discovery of a 35-foot auxiliary gasoline boat almost submerged, off Brockport, Mass., yesterday, disclosed the probable loss of Charles W. Johnson and Henry Lee of Beachmont, who left Beachmont Monday night, bound for Portland, Me.

Shocked to Death.

Welland, Oct. 21.—A young Italian named Arneodo was instantly killed at the Electro Metals, Limited, yesterday afternoon, by receiving 12,000 volts of electricity.

Two Prospectors Disappear.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 21.—Harry Phipps and Mathew Tummon, Englishmen, left Edmonton March 28 for Igenica river, gold placer diggings, well outfitted. They arrived at Fort Graham, Findlay river, June 4 and were last heard of in camp 60 miles north of Fort Graham. There Indians noted their horses and empty camp, but thinking the men were prospecting and would return to the outfit, touched nothing, although they wondered that no provision was made to secure feed for the horses. Finally they reported to the Hudson Bay agent at Fort Graham. The men's fate is a mystery, but it is presumed they are drowned.

Big Steamer Osler Damaged.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Oct. 21.—After lightering about 1,000 tons of coal the steamer Osler was released from gravel island. Her bottom forward is badly damaged, and compartments are full of water.

There is no drydock in Canada large enough to accommodate the Osler, and she will have to be repaired at a United States port. There will be no duty on her repairs, however, as a saving clause covers just such a case as this.

Freak of Gale.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 21.—As the result of an unprecedented accident on the Union Pacific at Lone Creek, 30 miles west of Cheyenne, Monday night, six laborers are known to be dead and several others probably met death, while 25 or 30 others were injured, many seriously. A terrific gale picked up the caboose of a work train, tore it away from its coupling and carried it over the edge of a fill. It dropped thirty feet with its forty occupants.

Infant's Body by Express.

Ottawa, Oct. 21.—The body of an infant child, carefully wrapped in a paper parcel, has been received through the Canadian Express Co. from Pembroke, where it was shipped by a young woman unknown at present. The child had lived, but evidently bled to death. It was addressed to a local Catholic institution with a request for burial and 50 cents enclosed.

Soldier Takes His Own Life.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 21.—Clarence Boyce of the Canadian Artillery was found dead early yesterday morning in front of the house of the woman to whom he had been paying attention. There was a bullet hole in his left temple.

Coconut Shells.

Coconut shells make excellent fuel. The enormous amount of oil they contain causes them to take fire at once. Many hotel keepers in England recognize the fact and buy large quantities of them to mix with coal as fire lighters.

Coats of Arms.

The use of coats of arms as a badge for different families did not come into practice till the twelfth century. The Germans are said to have originated it, while the French developed the science.

DROWNED PERSONS.

Absence of Water in the Lungs Need Not Indicate Murder.

Several cases have been reported in the newspapers recently in which the absence of water in the lungs of persons found immersed in ponds and rivers has led to the conclusion that death had occurred before immersion and that the crime was therefore murder and not suicide. As the matter is of great criminal importance, permit me to call attention briefly to the report in 1862 of a committee appointed by the Royal Medical and Chirurgical society of London to investigate this question. It was a well known fact that in most drowned persons water was not found in the lungs, and it was supposed by many that in drowning a spasmodic contraction of the entrance of the windpipe took place, which prevented the entrance of water. The committee made a very careful and prolonged investigation and came to conclusions which I summarize as follows:

First.—Water does enter the lungs in drowning. In animals drowned by immersion in water the lungs, if examined immediately afterward, are full of water. If a dog be drowned in plaster of paris the plaster is found in the smallest tubes. In a guinea pig whose nose only has been immersed in mercury the globules of mercury penetrate the finer tubes.

Second.—If the examination be delayed for several hours or longer, as is generally the case, no water may be found in the lungs, absorption having taken place even after death. In experiments upon animals it was found that forty or fifty ounces of water could be introduced into the lungs without any of the liquid being detected there an hour or two afterward. In cases of undoubted drowning in human beings, when the examination was delayed for several hours after death, fragments of water plants and other foreign substances may be found in the windpipe and larger tubes without any water being detected in the tissue of the lungs. Absorption of water takes place in the lungs even after death, and therefore the absence of water in the lungs many hours after death has no bearing upon the question of murder or suicide. It is very important that this fact should be generally known.—A. Brayton Ball in New York Times.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

ACHE

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them.

The eye is such a delicate organ that it should never be trifled with.

This is why our optician has followed the teachings of only recognized authorities on the eye.

Many opticians take half a dozen or more correspondent courses, costing from $7 50 to $25 each. With this limited knowledg it is little wonder that so many are wearing glasses that do not suit them—others who do not repuire them.

If you have eye trouble you should only consult an optician who has a thorough knowledge of every branch of the optical business.

PRESBYTERY HELD MEETING

Sanctions Call of Rev. Mr. Reeves to Moosejaw

A special meeting of the Presbytery of Peterborough was held at Campbellford yesterday afternoon for the purpose of considering the call to Rev. A. C. Reeves, pastor of St. Andrew's church, Campbellford to St. Paul's church, Moosejaw.

Revs. H. J. Keith, J. G. Potter Peterborough; Dr. Marsh, Springville; J. A. G. Stirling, Havelock; E. Curry, Warsaw; S. S. Burns, Lakefield; J. A. McFarland, Warkworth, and Thornton, Colborne, were in attendance.

Rev. Mr. Keith presented the call and stated that a young congregation like St. Paul's, and which was rapidly growing, appealed to a stirring preacher like Rev. Mr. Reeves. Representatives of St. Andrew's church expressed their sincere regreat, but as Mr. Reeves was anxious to go, they acquiesced in his desire.

The call was placed in Rev. Mr. Reeves' hands and he accepted it, and it was sanctioned by the Presbytery to take effect on Nov. 9th.

A committee of Revs. Keith, Potter and Thompson was appointed to draft a resolution expressing the Presbytery's views.

HAIR SLAUGHTER

Killed by Negligence.

Hair must have nourishment or die. If it does not have proper nourishment it will loose its vitality, grow weak, and become an easy prey to the ravages of the vicious and destructive germs of dandruff.

Parisian Sage is a hair nourisher; it is the result of sincere study and experiment by one of the world's leading scientists.

It should be used regularly as a hair dressing by everyone with healthy hair, because it never fails to prevent dandruff, falling hair, or any scalp disease.

But Parisian Sage is not only a preventative; it is a certain cure for dandruff; it stops itching of the scalp instantly; it makes the hair grow thick and luxuriant. It is especially in demand by ladies, because it makes the hair beautiful, soft and fluffy. W. Madill, the Peterborough druggist sells it under a positive guarantee to do all that is claimed for it, or money back, 50 cents for a large bottle.

LATTERDAY FOOLISHNESS

The alleged Conservative who is given out by the Examiner as finding fault with Mr. Burnham for declining to participate in a citizen's banquet to Mr. Dennistoun knows that many of the local Conservatives declined to be made tools of on that occasion by J. R. Stratton for his own future benefit.

These Conservatives, however, wished at that time to give Mr. Dennistoun a send-off more worthy of him and not one presided over by J. R. Stratton. That Mr. Burnham got his nomination improperly or unfairly is a lie. The officers of the Liberal-Conservative Association can at any time testify to that. That no Grit reported that Mr. Dennistoun was supporting Mr. Stratton is another falsehood. Mr. Burnham's statement can be proved at any time. The proof would surprise the entire Liberal party, and if the Examiner wants it can have it. Say the word. But let the editor consult Mr. Stratton himself first. Mr. Dennistoun no doubt would smile if he saw the alleged correspondent's eulogium of his noble self. Some tributes a man can do just as well without, the following being one of them;

"I say emphatically that it would be a most unfortunate thing for the constituency if Mr. Stratton should be elected. I want to see him beaten to a finish. If I were in Peterborough Mr. Burnham would have my enthusiastic support."

This from Mr. Dennistoun. In conclusion we may say that no one has a higher appreciation of the great abilities and noble character of Mr. Dennistoun, than Mr. Burnham, who deeply values the kind and timely words of his old friend and associate. The entire Conservative party, and very many Liberals as well, will join with Mr. Burnham in acknowledging Mr. Dennistoun's services on this, as on many another occasion.

railroad ever built. Its maximum grades must not exceed 4of 1 per cent., its rails are to be 90 pounds steel, all its culverts are to be stone bridges and its bridges of the finest steel. To make this the finest railroad ever built, valleys will be filled and hills levelled. This railroad running through a bleak and barren wilderness for the greater part of the way will cost the people of the Dominion $180,300,000. It will take 12 years to complete, or seven years more.

From Winnipeg to the Pacific the politicians changed the route from the Peace river to the Yellow Head Pass. The government provides $13,000 more a mile for the prairie section and 75 per cent. of the cost of the mountain section. The mountain section will cost $100,000 a mile and the government will loan $75,000 a mile on this. The Grand Trunk had a route consisting of 1,500 miles of prairie and 250 miles of mountains mapped out, but when it was found that the Government treasury was at its disposal for three-quarters of the cost, this was changed to 800 miles of prairie and 1,000 miles of mountain, and the prairie section was built through territory already occupied and served by either Canadian Pacific or Canadian Northern.

The Laurier Pacific will cost $100,000 a mile for 2,800 miles and $37,500 for 800 miles of prairie section, a total of $310,000,000, equipment will cost $20,000,000 and the Port Arthur branch $10,000,000.

In other words a grand total of $340,000,000. This means interest charges of $3,600 a mile which the people who use the road or the taxpayers of Canada must provide forever. The Grand Trunk Pacific is obligating itself to pay $3,000,000 a year of this, but as Grand Trunk Pacific will earn only deficits and as the government must provide these deficits, the frightful muddle and blunder of the Laurier Pacific becomes apparent. The Laurier Pacific is building in the wrong place, where it never can pay, and it is being built at three and four times the cost for which it should be constructed. The old Grand Trunk Company will not be able to defray a dollar of the interest charges of $13,000,000 a year, nor will it provide a dollar of the annual deficits.

The Grand Trunk people say they are not responsible for building this $340,000,000 railroad in the wrong place and that the overwhelming cost is due to the politicians. They say it is impossible to earn operating revenue and they threaten to withdraw from operating the Laurier Pacific unless the government agrees to provide all the deficits and fixed charges.

If old Grand Trunk is to be held to its obligations for the Laurier Pacific, it means ruin. If, on the other hand, the Government is forced to pay all the fixed charges and deficits, the taxpayers will have to provide $13,000,000 or $14,000,000 or $15,000,000 a year for the interest and deficits of a railroad that should have never existed save in the brain of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is a picturesque and charming personality, but he is not a business man (and while he himself is the personification of integrity and honor, he has allowed the leaders of the Liberal party not possessing his integrity to wheedle him into the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

They wheedled him into putting on one side the wise constructive schemes of both Grand Trunk and Canadian Northern for ocean-to-ocean railroads and caused him to construct a railroad over an utterly preposterous and unnecessary route and at three or four times the cost that any sane railroad builder would expend upon it.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier dreamed that this transcontinental would be his monument, but instead it promises to become a most pitiful legacy of debt and disaster to the Dominion.

BUYERS WOULDN'T GO HIGH ENOUGH TO SUIT SALESMEN AT CHEESE BOARD MEETING

The salesmen at the meeting of the Cheese Board this morning didn't get the prices they wanted from the buyers, and as a result the cheese boarded by many factories was unsold. There was quite a drop from the amount boarded at the last meeting, which was 3,165 boxes, and this morning's total was only 2,674. The high figure was 12 3-16. The following were the buyers in attendance;—Messrs. Fitzgerald, Gillespie, Whitton, Cook, Weir, Morton, Watkin, Riddell and Grant.

The bidding opened Whitton 11 1-2, went up to 12 1-4 by Mr. Fitzgerald. There was no advance, and Mr. Fitzgerald took Warminster, Central Smith, Bensfort, Shearer, Warsaw. Mr. Weir went 12 1-4, and named Keene, Selwyn, Lakefield, Pine Grove, Lang, Cedardale. He bid 12 3-16 for further selections, and called Maple Leaf, Myrtle, King Edward, East Emily, Oakdale, Daisy D., Otonabee Union, Young's Point, Fraserville, North Dummer, Trewern, Cavanville, Brickley, Shamrock, Ormonde, Villiers, Killarney, Westwood. Several refused. Mr. Cook then bid 11 1-2. Mr. Whitton put it up to 12. He named Westwood, Oakdale, Villiers, King Edward, Otonabee Union, Maple Leaf, Myrtle, Young's Point, Fraserville. All refused. Laughter was caused by Mr. Cook, of Cook & Sons, offering 11 1-2. Mr. Watkin bid 12 1-16. He wanted King Edward, Maple Leaf, Myrtle, Fraserville, East Emily, Trewern. None accepted.

The meeting adjourned without further bidding.

The cheese boarded was as follows;—

About Tobacco

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—At Saturday's meeting in the Conservative Club rooms, Mr. Webb made use of a very practical argument appealing to every user of tobacco to show how, under the present illustration, the workingman's plug has been greatly reduced in size. Now sir, in the matter of the workingman's plug or packet there has recently been introduced legislation that removes the protection as to quality, he formerly enjoyed. Until this recent law was passed packages containing plug or cut tobacco, were stamped with revenue labels of various colors, the respective colored labels testifying as to the kind of tobacco enclosed. By this I mean whether Canadian grown, mixed Canadian and imported or straight imported. A black label showed the tobacco to be imported, a pink one meant mixed goods and a green stamp proved that the contents were solely of local growth. If this present system of marking all tobacco alike benefitted the Canadian grower one cent a pound the change would not be objected to, but it does not. The whole idea seems to me to be a put up job in the interests partly of the tobacco factory owners, but mainly in that of the consequent government election fund at the expense of the consumer who is now prevented from knowing what kind of goods he is paying his money for.

FAIR PLAY.

Local Option

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—The meeting held last night in the interest of temperance agitation was not by any means a representative gathering, and therefore some comment on it might be profitable.

I am strongly in favor of the reform that all good citizens desire along the line of lessening or suppressing the evils of intemperance. I have watched with interest the steps taken by the City Temperance League in the hope that when a pronouncement would be made that it would be in the strongest possible way.

The meeting last night was attended by 51 males and about 200 females. It can scarcely be considered a representative meeting of a population of about 16,000. Five Protestant ministers were present and seven were absent, which fact does not show any unanimity on the part of the clergy with regard to the means about to be adopted by the Temperance League. The resolution urging a local option campaign in 1910 was moved by a minister and seconded by a minister on the suggestion of Mr. Spence, of the Dominion Alliance. It is therefore not the people of Peterborough that bring on this campaign, but the meddlesome and interfering agents—paid agents—of the Dominion Alliance.

Had the meeting been attended by a large number of men, who themselves could have introduced the resolution, the movement might have some claim to it being the pronouncement of public opinion. But as it was it appeared to be a weak and agitating measure brought on by a few cranks and hotheads, who want to force their opinion upon the city as a whole. I am, yours,

PRO BONO PUBLICO.

KETCHECUM LAKE FISHING PARTY HOME

The Ketchecum Lake Hunt Club returned home from the north country last night after two weeks of most delightful outing. Those who got home were Messrs. R. G. Munro, A. F. Peck, J. H. Larmonth and T. J. Lundy. The weather was ideal although a little too warm for successful fishing. However, they had a most enjoyable stay and were reluctant in returning to the city.

There were no bush fires in the immediate vicinity of the camp, although they were raging some distance to the north and east of them. The woods were clouded in smoke.

She will be very pleased to receive pupils at the above address for instruction in any of the above branches. 3d

BOYS WORK IS FLOURISHING

Many Gather at the Y. M. C. A.—Bible Study Classes Formed

A "Business Boys' Tea" has been inaugurated at the local YMCA and it gives promise of being a very successful feature. The first tea was held last night and about twenty-five boys were in attendance. A tea will be held every Tuesday evening at six o'clock. Three Bible study clubs were formed last night among the business boys.

There were twenty-eight boys on the gymnasium floor last night. Four basketball games were played and relay and obstacle races made a splendid night's programme for the boys.

On Saturday four Bible study clubs were formed among the school boys and Collegiate Institute boys.

The junior boys clubs will meet on Saturday morning from 9 to 9.30 o'clock and the Collegiate boys clubs from 11.30 to 12.

THEATRICAL

The Toronto Telegram runs a corner of theatrical comment in which the writer wields the hammer of sarcasm with a sickening regularity. To use a somewhat rural phrase he may "think he's smart," but his line of talk makes quite a difference to the public. About every show is a poor one in the Telegram's opinion, and many productions which the other Toronto dailies laud most highly the Telegram seems to take a huge delight in getting after with the big stick of criticism.

A spicy knock once in a while sounds all right, but when readers in places like this want to know what's what in the theatrical world so that they may drop in to see a good show, should they take a run up to that city, the Telegram is never accepted as a guide. The same biting stuff is worked overtime on the sporting page. Perhaps these methods account for the small circulation of the paper in towns about the size of Peterborough throughout the Province.

One of the members of the "Babes in Toyland" company was discharged here. She looked a little too long on the wine when it was red, and ended up by throwing a cup of hot tea in her husband's face in the dining room of a local hotel. The manager of the show sent her back to New York.—Kingston Whig.

EAT WHAT YOU WANT

But Find the Way to Digest What You Do Eat.

The first thing to do in the case of indigestion or stomach weakness is to strengthen the muscular walls of the stomach and intestines, so that they will care for the food that is eaten. In no other way can this be done as well as by taking a Mi-o-na tablet before each meal. This restores strength to the stomach muscles and stimulates the pouring out of gastric juices, then the food digests readily and you begin to get the full benefit from what you eat.

Use Mi-o-na whenever you have sick headache, heartburn, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, specks before the eyes, sleeplessness and the many other symptoms that are the direct result of indigestion.

W. Maddill, druggist, corner of Hunter and George streets, Peterborough gives with every 50 cent box of Mi-o-na a guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy cures.

All Collegiate and Normal students should see "Othello" at the Opera House to-night.

FORMER LOCAL MAN TO BE SUPT. OF LUBRICATOR CO.

Mr. W. C. Pennington, of Goderich, Has Returned to Take up Residence in This City—Mr. Cyril Currier to Have Charge of Office of New Factory.

The Peterborough Lubricator Co., are making rapid progress and will soon be ready to commence operations in the building on Hunter street east, which a few weeks ago was purchased from Mr. T. Oke, proprietor of the furniture factory.

The Superintendent of this new manufactory is a former resident of Peterborough and his many friends here will be pleased to learn that he is returning to the city. Mr. W. C. Pennington of Goderich is to be the superintendent and assumes that position with the highest recommendations. He left this city for Goderich, in which town he occupied the position of superintendent of the Henderson Bicycle Co. He afterwards went to Guelph and was connected with the Raymond Mfg. Co. for six years. He then returned to Goderich where he, until he accepted the superintendency of the Peterborough Lubricator Co. was head of the erecting department of the Daly Engine Works.

When Mr. Pennington was in Peterborough he was prominently identified with musical organizations, having been bandmaster of the Sons of England band which was then in existence.

Mr. Cyril Currier is to be the office manager. He in company with Mr. Pennington left yesterday for Philadelphia where they will purchase machinery and get ideas as to the management and equipment of the new factory.

MORE ABOUT THE $10,000

The following is Mr. Stratton's own answer under oath to his now pretended claim that the $10,000 was his own money. It will be seen from this extract that McCutcheon, the new manager of the Home Life, was the party responsible to the Bank for the $90,000 and that his means of paying it off were included in the "agreement" below referred to which was also his agreement for payment as manager, with the Home Life. This agreement contained the extras which the Home Life paid to him for the purpose of returning the $90,000 debt year by year and which would not have been paid to him otherwise:

"James. R. Stratton recalled.
Examined by Mr. Tilley:

Q. I asked you for the cheque for $80,000 with which you said you paid the amount to Mr. Pattison? A. Yes.

Q. Did you get it? A. I think I said last week when under examination that I gave my cheque to the Bank and the Bank gave me the money. I subsequently retired the cheque with Mr. McCutcheon's note and the assignment of the agreement and tore up the cheque. It was a mere temporary matter."

But there is more. Mr. Stratton, under oath, (page. 2072) actually admits that the directors of the Home Life knew nothing about the payment to Pattison at all. Then to cap the climax Mr. McCutcheon, the Home Life Manager has to admit that he was fooled too, for he said under oath:

"Q.—If at the time you were asked to sign the $90,000 contract it was known that it was $80,000 you would have struck out the $90,000 and made it $80,000? A.—Certainly, I would."

What more evidence can anybody want that the $10,000 was a graft and nothing else, made at the last moment and quietly stowed away in Peterboro'?

The Young Ladies' Mission Circle of Charlotte street church are bringing Mrs. Jean Blewett, our well-known authoress and poetess, for an evening of readings, on Oct. 30th. Also good musical programme. Candy table and tea rooms. Admission 25 cents.

Caught Greasy Pig

There was a large attendance at the auditorium roller rink last evening when the chief attraction was the race to catch the greased pig. The event created much amusement, the porker giving the boys quite a chase. Mr. George Godfrey after much manoeuvring finally caught the animal.

The band was present and rendered several selections.

HARRISON AND HOAGLAND TO WALK ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Hoagland has wr'ten to say that e will meet Harrison here on the th of November, Thanksgiving Day the local man will post a forfeit hat he will walk for $250 a side. arrison says he is ready and feels nfident that the champion cannot at him a mile in nine hours. Harson has made rapid improvement in walking and he thinks he has the Hoagland shuffle down as fine as the originator himself.

It is expected that the match will be pulled off at the Brock street rink on the holiday and is sure to be a great drawing card for the writer cannot remember an athlete who made more friends by his good clean work than Hoagland did at the big meet last spring.

ONTARIO CURLING CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual fall meeting of the On- rio Curling Association was held at e Granite Club this morning.

SCOTTISH VISIT.

The invitation of the Royal Cale- Club to seven Canadian rinks to t Scotland in January or Febru- was read. Ontario is asked to two rinks. The games will be yed in the open air if possible, if the games would all be played on Glasgow rink. It is proposed to ve a month's curling at the various es if the ice can be secured, as ll as three days in Switzerland.

SUB-COMMITTEE REPORTS.

The sub-committee appointed by the cutive—D. Carlyle, J. Corcoran J. A. Macfadden—reported that y had accepted the invitation on lf of Ontario to send two rinks. y will send ten men—two rinks two extra men. They would be two months. The first week in uary would be the most suitable leaving Canada.

Ontario, Manitoba and Quebec have accepted the invitation, with the Maritime Provinces yet to hear from.

COST OF TRIP.

The cost is estimated at $500 to $600 a man—a matter of $5,000 to $6,000 for the two rinks. Lord Strathcona has donated $1,000 towards the Canadian trip, but whether for entertainment or to help meet expenses is not reported.

To date twelve clubs have replied, with one or more representatives named for the trip. The Executive Committee was empowered to settle the details and pick the two rinks.

The local club is in the following groups:

Ontario Tankard—Group No. 5—Scarboro, Maple Leaf, Oshawa, Brampton, Colborne, Peterborough, Bobcaygeon, East Toronto, Aberdeens, Toronto Caledonians, Toronto Parkdale, Toronto Queen City. Play at Toronto. Umpire—Mr. H. T. Wilson.

ENGLISH PAPER HANDS A HARD KNOCK TO SULLIVAN

Through the courtesy of Mr. Jim rrison the Review is able to pub- the following roast for "Czar" llivan, from the London, England, News of the World":

. James Sullivan, the American missioner to the Olympic games, among our thousands of visit- left us not merely without a nks, but with accusations of dis- rtesy, inhospitality, and deliberate sty; alone, amongst them, he used the invitation both of the teur Athletic Association and of English Government to the din- given to the more important of foreign officials; alone among representatives of twenty na- he and his friends continually tested against everything while games were in progress, and con- ued to misrepresent the facts they were over. He made him- ridiculous in the Stadium by di- ting on "the prepared shoes by the Liverpool policemen in tug-of-war," and on the "work dishonest officials did in the mittee rooms." Since his return America he has continued his ny and slander. We are, how- glad to learn that a detailed wer to his fabrications is to be shortly in a more official form the benefit of those of his coun- men who may still be anxious to the facts that have hitherto been carefully concealed from them by to whom they have naturally ked for information. To listen to Sullivan one might imagine that American team instead of being finest lot of athletes that ever visited the country, instead of having carried off the majority of prizes in the events on which they specialized, instead of having been awarded the Marathon race by the same rules which deprived them of the 400 meters, were, as a matter of fact, a second-rate lot, who could only win by "tactics," and could only secure justice by continuous uproar. A member of the British Olympic Council, who comments on these matters, does not for a moment believe that, left to themselves, these boys would have ever taken the line urged on them at the moment, and afterwards by their representatives. They never wished, for instance, to protest about the tug-of-war. They knew that they had been fairly pulled over in a game of which they were completely ignorant, and for which their manager should never have entered them. They did not know how to hold a rope, or how to pull, or how to anchor their last man. They were beaten by a team which specialized on this particular performance, and which could have pulled the Americans over in their socks, as the policemen desired to be allowed to do directly they heard the whisper of a protest. As to the 400 metres, it was as deliberate a foul as was ever seen upon a public course. Twenty thousand spectators shouted their disgust even before the officials had had time to take action. But it is much easier to forgive Carpenter in the excitement of a race than to pardon the cold-blooded attack which followed it. The Americans were treated in every respect exactly as every other nation, and as our own athletes were treated. Had there been the least substratum of fact in his accusations, every other nation would have joined him in his protests. But the courteous and convincing letter from the official representatives of Sweden is an absolutely fair sample of the attitude of other countries, and is in itself a condemnation of that spirit of discord introduced and fostered by Mr. Sullivan and his friends.

PAT McDONOUGH PLAYED IN THIS MATCH

Fred Wagborne, of Toronto, was referee of the deciding lacrosse game in Chicago when the Shamrocks defeated Illinois Athletic Club by 6 goals to 4. Pat McDonough, of Peterborough, and more recently of Toronto, played on the home for the winners. Barrett, formerly of Brampton, played goal for the losers, and scored the first goal of the match for his team, something that seldom happens in lacrosse. Barrett got the ball practically in front of his own net and ran the entire distance of the field, then passed the ball to O'Brien, caught it again on the return, and shot it into the net. One spectator became excited and leaned too far out of one of the boxes. He lost his hat, and in reaching for it, rolled out himself. The fall stunned him and there was some little confusion. Young and Masterson were both ordered off the field for a five-minute interval, and enlivened the way to the bench by continuing their scrap, which was promptly stopped by Mr. Wagborne.

"BOBBY" KERR AT PORT HOPE

Will Take Part in Athletic Meet There on November 6th

The YMCA Harrier Club will hold a big indoor meet in the covered rink on the evening of November 6th. All the great runners from Toronto, Hamilton, Kingston, Belleville, Peterborough and all the large towns of the province have been invited and a big field is expected.

Bobby Kerr, Canada's greatest sprinter and now holding the championship of the world for 220 yards will take part in the events.

The club is sparing no pains to make this a success and a great treat is in store for Port Hopers. Keep the date open and watch for particulars. —Port Hope Guide.

LINDSAY WON FROM T.A.S.A.C. THE LOCALS DID NOT SCORE

By the substantial score of 27—0 Lindsay defeated T.A.S.A.C. in an exhibition game played in Agricultural Park, Lindsay, yesterday afternoon. The Lindsay fourteen put up a good article of rugby and are looked upon as winners of this district, junior O.R.F.U.

They played a hard, aggressive game yesterday, and did their best work in the second half. At half time the score stood 6—0.

Rev. Father Collins, of Lindsay, refereed satisfactorily. The attendance at the game was not large.

YOUNG HACKENSCHMIDT HAS BEATEN THE BEST OF THEM

Young Hackenschmidt writes from New York to Mr. Chris Graham, who has engaged him to wrestle in Peterborough, "that he is not afraid of Yankee Rogers or any other white man." From that remark, the younger Hack must draw the color line, and who ever heard of a nigger wrestler!

This young man, who is the choice of Peterborogh's wrestling promoter as the most likely man to contest, and make a real contest at that, with the big, rough Yankee Rogers, has a real reputation that does not have depend upon his cousin George for engagements. When first he landed in New York he was taken to Doc Brown's gymnasium by Leo. Pardello, and there and then was asked to strip and take a crack at the flower of the Bowery. Leo was the candy kid up to that little evening, but when the bout was over, and it was only a friendly affair, Pardello had been thrown more times in thirty minutes, that the habitues of the well known wrestler's resort could ever remember to have ever seen the Dago before. Young Hack just waded in and that was all there was to it. He was put up against Jim Parr, the clever English wrestler, and Parr was beaten in short time. Then he went south and beat Cy Olsen in a big money match. He beat Walter White in Kansas and then went to England with Lundin, the famous Swede, of Worcester, Mass., and won three matches for good stakes. He arrived back in America three weeks ago, and has had one match since which he won, Turner, at Washington, D.C.

He has had a life-long training in the mat game, and is not the worst man by any means in the Hackenschmidt family. Yankee Rogers will be given a taste of his own medicine on this occasion, sure.

NEW CURLING RINK NEARLY COMPLETED

The new curling rink on Charlotte street is rapidly progressing towards completion, and ought to be ready when it is cold enough to play the roarin' game. It is a large and handsome looking structure, and will be one of the finest of its kind in the province. The outside work has been finished and the men are now engaged on the interior. The new building presents an imposing appearance and is a vast improvement on the old one. It makes that part of Charlotte street look much better and it is one of those buildings that Peterborough ought to be proud of.

C.G.E. TEAM HAD IT RATHER EASY

Won From Hemstead's United Last Night---Finals Tomorrow Night

In the semi-finals of the bowling tournament at the Peterborough Bowling Club alleys last night the General Electric team defeated Hemstead's United by 379 pins. The winners put on the creditable total of 2488, every man bowling in fine form. On the other hand the pins broke badly for the losers and their scores were anything but consistent.

The teams and scores were:

HEMSTEAD'S
McIlroy	199	107	178
Hollihan	160	130	144
Lillie	136	204	176
Sharp	113	115	88
Hemstead	134	102	120
GENERAL ELECTRIC
Gutterson	181	185	171
Jeffrey	174	169	177
Pollard	157	184	146
Lawless	171	182	135
Cairns	166	136	154
	847	856	783

Tomorrow night the General Electric team will meet Munro's Colts in the final game. A close struggle is looked for.

RUGBY

Rev. Dr. Gruchy, the T. A. A. C. stellar half who has been out of the game for some time with water on the knee, has rounded into shape and will likely be used in the second game with Peterborough.

THE PRICE OF PEPPER.

It Helped to Change the History of the Old World.

In the sixteenth century all the pepper consumed in England was bought by the English merchants from the Dutch, who brought it from India. Owing to racial jealousy, the Dutch traders in 1599 raised the cost from 3 shillings to 6 shillings per pound. This petty display of ill feeling caused considerable annoyance to the English merchants and aroused in them that feeling of independence which has always been so characteristic of our race.

They determined to import their pepper direct from India in their own ships and for this purpose formed a company, called the Governor and Company of Merchants of London Trading to the East Indies, which in latter days became eventually known as the East India company.

Their first voyages embroiled them in almost innumerable quarrels with the Dutch and Portuguese, and for a time the venture proved a financial failure. It was not until 1615 that the company became successful and obtained lucrative treaties, owing to their decisively defeating the Portuguese.

From this time on their possessions gradually increased, slowly at first and then very rapidly, until, by the wise and beneficial management of such men as Clive, Warren Hastings and Cornwallis, they exercised sovereignty over the greater portion of India.

In this manner it happened that an increase in the price of pepper momentously affected the history of mankind.—London Standard.

DIVISIONS OF TIME.

The Planet Venus Has Neither Days, Months Nor Years.

Though the fundamental division of time, the day, appears intuitive to most persons, it is well to remember that in the arctic regions the marking of this division is by no means easy. During several successive months the sun is either always below or always above the horizon, and the only method—a very uncertain one—of distinguishing between day and night is to observe the times of high and low tide. Division of time into months comes from the motions of the moon. Malays, Polynesians and Australian aborigines reckon time exclusively by months and days.

That greater unit of time, the year, characterized by the regular succession of the seasons, has presented the greatest difficulties to exact determination, partly because the seasons are not sharply distinguished in some regions, partly because of the universal desire to establish among the year, month and day simple relations which find no support in the facts of astronomy.

Inhabitants of Venus, if there are any, must find it extremely difficult to establish units of time. Venus always turns the same face toward the sun, so the planet has no day, and the lack of a moon deprives it of a month. Finally, it has no year, for its axis of rotation is perpendicular to the plane of its orbit and the latter is almost circular.

Fireworks.

Fireworks were originated in the thirteenth century by the Florentines and later were popularized in Rome.

The Tomato.

The tomato is a native of South America, chiefly on the Peruvian side of the Andes. From Peru the plant was taken to the United States, Europe and the other countries where it is now cultivated.

Old Time Capital Crimes.

In 1770 there were 160 capital offenses in England, and before the end of the century the number had greatly increased. To steal a sheep or 3 shillings' worth of goods from a shop was punishable by death. A girl of twenty-two was hanged for receiving a piece of woolen stuff from the person who had stolen it.

The Labor Strike.

The first use of the word "strike" in its present accepted issue was in the London Chronicle in 1765. During the labor troubles in the northern coal fields the miners were said to have "struck out" for more pay.

Gambling Debts.

Gambling debts are recoverable by law in France, Spain, Venezuela and in some cases in Germany.

To Prevent Rust.

To prevent rust dissolve india rubber in naphtha to the consistency of cream and brush this over the metal to be protected from rust. When necessary this coating can easily be rubbed off.

Franklin Pierce.

Franklin Pierce is buried in Minot cemetery, on Main street, Concord, N. H.

The Peacock Kingdom.

The little native state of Mourbhanj, known as the "peacock kingdom," is the most northerly of the tributary states of Orissa, and native chronicles relate that the principality was founded more than 2,000 years ago.

Fine Ruling.

The finest rulings thus far produced by any of the machines are at the rate of something like 250,000 lines to the inch. Some idea of the closeness of these ruled lines can be obtained from considering that 2,000 such lines would occupy only the space included in the thickness of a sheet of ordinary writing paper.

The English Language.

The English language contains forty-one distinct sounds.

THE MYSTERY

By STEWART EDWARD WHITE
And SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS

COPYRIGHT, 1907, BY McCLURE, PHILLIPS & CO.

"I thank you, gentlemen, for the promptitude of your offers," continued the captain. "In this respect you make my duty the more difficult. I shall accept Mr. Ives because of his familiarity with sailing craft and with these seas." His eyes ranged the group.

"I beg your pardon, Captain Parkinson," eagerly put in the paymaster, "but I've handled a schooner yacht for several years and I'd appreciate the chance of"—

"Very well, Mr. McGuire, you shall be the second in command."

"Thank you, sir."

"You gentlemen will pick a volunteer crew and go aboard at once. Spare no effort to find records of the schooner's cruise. Keep in company and watch for signals. Report at once any discovery or unusual incident, however slight."

Not so easily was a crew obtained. Having in mind the excusable superstition of the men, Captain Parkinson was unwilling to compel any of them to the duty. Awed by the mystery of their mates' disappearance, the sailors hung back. Finally by temptation of extra prize money a complement was made up.

At 10 o'clock of a puffy, mist laden morning a new and strong crew of nine men boarded the Laughing Lass. There were no farewells among the officers. Forebodings weighed too heavy for such open expression.

All the fates of weather seemed to combine to part the schooner from her convoy. As before, the fog fell, only to be succeeded by squally rain showers that cut out the vista into a checkerboard pattern of visible sea and impenetrable grayness. Before evening the Laughing Lass, making slow way through the mists, had become separated by a league of waves from the cruiser. One glimpse of her between mist areas the Wolverine caught at sunset. Then wind and rain descended in furious volume from the southeast. The cruiser immediately headed about, following the probable course of her charge, which would be beaten far down to leeward. It was a gloomy mess on the warship. In his cabin Captain Parkinson was frankly seasick —a condition which nothing but the extreme of nervous depression ever induced in him.

For several hours the rain fell and the gale howled. Then the sky swiftly cleared, and with the clearing there rose a great cry of amaze from stem to stern of the Wolverine, for far toward the western horizon appeared such a prodigy as the eye of no man aboard that ship had ever beheld. From a belt of marvelous, glowing gold, rich and splendid streamers of light spiraled up into the blackness of the heavens.

In all the colors of the spectrum they rose and fell—blazing orange, silken, wonderful, translucent blues and shimmering reds. Below a broad band of paler hue, like sheet lightning fixed to rigidity, wavered and rippled. All the auroras of the northland blended in one could but have paled away before the splendor of that terrific celestial apparition.

On board the cruiser all hands stood petrified, bound in a stricture of speechless wonder. After the first cry silence lay leaden over the ship. It was broken by a scream of terror from forward. The quartermaster who had been at the wheel came clambering down the ladder and ran along the deck, his fingers splayed and stiffened before him in the intensity of his panic.

"The needle! The compass!" he shrieked.

Barnett ran to the wheelhouse with Trendon at his heels. The others followed. The needle was swaying like a cobra's head. And as a cobra's head spits venom, it spat forth a thin steel blue stream of lucent fire. Then so swiftly it whirled that the sparks scattered from it in a tiny shower. It stopped, quivered and curved itself upward until it rattled like a fairy drum upon the glass shield. Barnett looked at Trendon.

"Volcanic?" he said.

"'Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord,'" muttered the surgeon in his deep bass, as he looked forth upon the streaming, radiant heavens. "It's like nothing else."

In the west the splendor and the terror shot to the zenith. Barnett whirled the wheel. The ship responded perfectly.

"I thought she might be bewitched, too," he murmured.

"You may head her for the light, Mr. Barnett," said Captain Parkinson calmly. He had come from his cabin, all his nervous depression gone in the face of an imminent and visible danger.

Slowly the great mass of steel swung to the unknown. For an hour the unknown guided her. Then fell blackness, sudden, complete. After that radiance the dazzled eye could make out no stars, but the lookout's keen vision discerned something else.

"Ship afire!" he shouted hoarsely.

"Where away?"

"Two points to leeward, near where the light was, sir."

They turned their eyes in the direction indicated and beheld a majestic rolling volume of purple light. Suddenly a fiercer red shot it through.

"That's no ship afire," said Trendon. "Volcano in eruption."

"And the other?" asked the captain.

"No volcano, sir."

"Poor Billy Edwards wins his bet," said Forsythe in a low voice.

"God grant he's on earth to collect it," replied Barnett solemnly.

No one turned in that night. When the sun of June 8 rose it showed an ocean bare of prospect except that on the far horizon where the chart showed no land there rose a smudge of dirty rolling smoke. Of the schooner there was neither sign nor trace.

CHAPTER VI.

"THIS ship," growled Carter, the second officer, to Dr. Trendon, as they stood watching the growing smoke column, "is a worse hotbed of rumors than a down east village. That's the third sea gull we've had officially reported since breakfast."

As he said, three distinct times the Wolverine had thrilled to an imminent discovery, which upon nearer investigation had dwindled to nothing more than a floating fowl. Upon the heels of Carter's complaint came another hail.

"Boat ahoy! Three points on the starboard bow."

"If that's another gull," muttered Carter, "I'll have something to say to you, my festive lookout."

The news ran electrically through the cruiser, and all eyes were strained for a glimpse of the boat. The ship swung away to starboard.

"Let me know as soon as you can make her out," ordered Carter.

"Aye, aye, sir."

"There's certainly something there," said Forsythe presently. "I can make out a speck rising on the waves."

"Bit o' wreckage from Barnett's derelict," muttered Trendon, scowling through his glasses.

"Rides too high for a spar or anything of that sort," said the junior lieutenant.

"She's a small boat," came in the clear tones of the lookout, "driftin' down."

"Any one in her?" asked Carter.

"Can't make out yet, sir. No one's in charge though, sir."

Captain Parkinson appeared, and Carter pointed out the speck to him.

"Yes. Give her full speed," said the captain, replying to a question from the officer of the deck.

Forward leaped the swift cruiser, all too slow for the anxious hearts of those aboard. For there was not one of the Wolverines who did not expect from this aimless traveler of desert seas at the least a leading clew to the riddle that oppressed them.

"Aloft there!"

"Aye, aye, sir."

"Can you make out her build?"

"Rides high, like a dory, sir."

"Wasn't there a dory on the Laughing Lass?" cried Forsythe.

"On her stern davits," answered Trendon.

"It is hardly probable that unattached small boats should be drifting about these seas," said Captain Parkinson thoughtfully. "If she's a dory, she's the Laughing Lass' boat."

"That's what she is," said Barnett. "You can see her build plain enough now."

"Mr. Barnett, will you go aloft and keep me posted?" said the captain.

The executive officer climbed to join the lookout. As he ascended those below saw the little craft rise high and slow on a broad swell.

"Same dory," said Trendon. "I'd swear to her in Constantinople."

"What else could she be?" muttered Forsythe.

"Somethin' that looks like a man in the bottom of her," sang out the crow's nest. "Two of 'em, I think."

For five minutes there was stillness aboard, broken only by an occasional low voiced conjecture. Then from aloft:

"Two men rollin' in the bottom."

"Are they alive?"

"No, sir. Not that I can see."

The wind, which had been extremely variable since dawn, now whipped around a couple of points, swinging the boat's stern to them. Barnett, putting aside his glass for a moment, called down:

"That's the one, sir. I can make out the name."

"Good," said the captain quietly. "We should have news at least."

"Ives or McGuire," suggested Forsythe in low tones.

"Or Billy Edwards," amended Carter.

"Not Edwards," said Trendon.

"How do you know?" demanded Forsythe.

"Dory was aboard when we found her the second time, after Edwards had left."

"Can you make out which of the men are in her?" hailed the captain.

"Don't think it's any of our people," came the astonishing reply from Barnett.

"Are you sure?"

"I can see only one man's face, sir. It isn't Ives or McGuire. He's a stranger to me."

"It must be one of the crew, then."

"No, sir, beg your parding," called the lookout. "Nothin' like that in our crew, sir."

The boat came down upon them swiftly. Soon the quarter deck was looking into her. She was of a type common enough on the high seas, except that a step for a mast showed that she had presumably been used for skimming about open shores. Of her passengers one lay forward, prone and quiet. A length of sailcloth spread over him made it impossible to see his garb. At his breast an ugly protuberance, outlined vaguely, hinted a deformity.

The other sprawled aft, and at a nearer sight of him some of the men broke out into nervous titters. There was some excuse, for surely such a scarecrow had never before been the sport of wind and wave. A thing of shreds he was, elaborately ragged, a face overrun with a scrub of beard and preternaturally drawn, surmounted with a stiff dried, dirty cloth semi-turban, with a wide, forbidding stain along the side, worked out the likeness to a makeup.

"My God!" cackled Forsythe with a hysterical explosion, and again "My God!"

A long drawn, irrepressible aspiration of expectancy rose from the warship's decks as the stranger raised his haggard face, turned eyes unseeingly upon them and fell back. The forward occupant stirred not, save as the boat rolled.

From between decks some one called out sharply an order. In the grim silence it seemed strangely incongruous that the measured business of a ship's life should be going forward as usual. Something within the newcomer's consciousness stirred to that voice of authority. Mechanically, like some huge, hideous toy, he raised first one arm, then the other and hitched himself halfway up on the stern seat. His mouth opened. His face wrinkled. He seemed groping for the meaning of a joke at which he knew he ought to laugh. Suddenly from his lips in surprising volume, raucous, rasping, yet with a certain rollicking deviltry fit to set the head a-tilt, burst a chanty:

"Oh, their coffin was their ship, and their grave it was the sea—
Blow high, blow low, what care we!
And the quarter that we gave them was to sink them in the sea—
Down on the coast of the high Barbaree-ee."

Long drawn, like the mockery of a wail, the minor cadence wavered through the stillness and died away.

"The High Barbaree!" cried Trendon.

"You know it?" asked the captain, expectant of a clew.

"One of those cursed tunes you can't forget," said the surgeon. "Heard a scoundrel of a beachcomber sing it years ago. Down in New Zealand, that was. When the fever rose on him he'd pipe up. Used to beat time with a steel hook he wore in place of a hand. The thing haunted me till I was sorry I hadn't let the rascal die. This creature might have learned it from him. Howls it out exactly alike."

"I don't see that that helps us any," said Forsythe, looking down on the preparations that were making to receive the unexpected guests.

With a deftness which had made the Wolverine famous in the navy for the niceties of seamanship, the great cruiser let down her tackle as she drew skillfully alongside and made fast, preparatory to lifting the dory gently to her broad deck. But before the order came to hoist away one of the jackies who had gone down drew the covering back from the still figure forward and turned it over. With a half stifled cry he shrank back. And at that the tension of soul and mind on the Wolverine snapped, breaking into outcries and sudden, sharp imprecations. The face revealed was that of Timmins, the bo's'n's mate, who had sailed with the first vanished crew. A life preserver was fastened under his arms. He was dead.

"I'm out," said the surgeon briefly and stood with mouth agape. Never had the disciplined Wolverines performed a sea duty with so ragged a routine as the getting in of the boat containing the live man and the dead body. The dead seaman was reverently disposed and covered. As to the survivor there was some hesitancy on the part of the captain, who was inclined to send him forward until Dr. Trendon, after a swift scrutiny, suggested that for the present at least he be berthed aft. They took the stranger to Edwards' vacant room, where Trendon was closeted with him for half an hour. When he emerged he was beset with questions.

To Be Continued.

HOW TO MAKE THE BEST REMEDY

Fine Recipe for Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble Gives Prompt Relief

The following prescription for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles has no doubt been filled millions of times; viz., Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle.

The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime, drinking a full tumblerful of water after each dose. It is stated that this prescription is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and lame back, weak bladder and urinary difficulties, especially of the elderly people and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic afflictions relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings.

A well-known authority states that this mixture acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys; cleanses these spongelike organs and gives them power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood which is the cause of rheumatism.

If your back or sides ache and you suspect kidney trouble it would be wise to try this for a few days.

DOMINION ELECTIONS

To the Electors of the West Riding of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN:—The condition of industry in Canada is bad. The condition of workingmen is following suit. Their beautiful homes are becoming the prey of reduced circumstances. To the extent that we pay out money to other countries for work that should be done here we are traitors to our workingmen. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has brought this about to such a degree that Canada has paid out in the last twelve years (being the term during which the Liberals have been in power) hundreds of millions of dollars more than she took in. It was not so under a protectionist government. Those millions should have been spent at home. Then there would have been work for our workers to that extent at any rate, and what is more, the money would have been kept in the country. As it is we have to borrow to get it back. We have to borrow for gigantic enterprises which serve to make the big money-lender, the stock gambler and the contractor rich, but what good is it doing the workingman? To add insult to his injury Sir Wilfrid Laurier has opened the gates on the East and the West to immigrants. Those on the East, our own kith and kin, have been misled by misrepresentatation and entrapped by agents who are paid a bonus for their apture. Those on the West are the untold millions of the Orient who are displacing the whites in B.C. are working East and are dispossessing Canadians of their own country. They lower the rate of wages and the standard of living. If Canada is to be kept up as she was but a few years ago she must not be allowed to fall into the class of "cheap and nasty" nations. If her people are to be well housed, well fed, well educated and above the condition of sweaters, they must demand a tariff against sweatwork, against undue immigration, against undue importation and a high protection for employers and employed alike, against the trickery of men who make their money on the stock market and by graft. The workers are slowly but surely becoming poorer than they used to be in this naturally rich and resourceful country. Why? Because the cream of all work goes to the money-lender of New York and London.

Why are the men of Canada idle? Because others will do the work cheaper in Britain and Germany and we let them invade our markets while they keep us out of theirs. The German tariff, the United States tariff, the French tariff are all vastly higher than ours. Britain protects herself where she needs it, by a Cattle Embargo and by the Patents Act, which requires patented articles (and nearly all are patented) to be manufactured there. There is never depression in France. The French have a high tariff and economize. They have always plenty for a rainy day. The Germans likewise keep their own work in their own country, but are weighed down with militarism. Britain suffers because her work is being done elsewhere, although she is changing that rapidly, but she has an immense start over Canada in her already accumulated capital. The United States is the modern wonder of the world, due altogether to high protection. Protection or tariff has been well said to be the measure of the standard of life amongst the workers. Commodities in protected countries are not higher than in unprotected. Clothing under a low tariff in Canada is higher in price than it used to be under a high tariff. Certain ills due to over-expansion, the machinations of stockgamblers, etc., exist in all countries, but when an ill is plainly preventable, why not prevent it? Sending cash out of the country over and above what we take in will never make us rich. Yet we do it and must do it under our present system of trade. Opening up unnecessary lands as in the West, while Ontario is not half populated or developed is of a piece with rest, but it is the delight of the money-lender. Ontario farms are rapidly decreasing in value. A huge national deficit is accumulating for this year and unless times are checked and we are restored to our own, the coming winter will be a veritable horror. The money that we are borrowing in such immense sums if spent for supplies, made in Canada, would mean work for everyone at good wages. Why then does Sir Wilfrid permit rails for the G. T. P. to be bought out of Canada and clothing that would keep our farmers growing wool and our woollen mills weaving it, to be imported without hindrance?

To say that one government is as bad as another is to say that one man or one set of men is no better as managers than another. We know this to be the reverse of correct in government, in trade, in railways or in anything else. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, although the Conservative administration, as it proved, was falling to pieces, could never have got into power had he not agreed to "let the tariff alone." This pledge he contrived to evade on the ground that while the U. S.. Germany, etc., were prosperous under a protective tariff, he could make Canada a brilliant and enduring exception under a low tariff and a preference. Now he is compelled to fall back on the statement that depression is worldwide and that therefore Canada must share it.

Then the boast of great enterprises! Vast sums of money have been borrowed and spent but who has got the benefit of it? Who has been made rich? Where has it gone? The charge we make against the administration of Sir Wilfred Laurier is that it is in the grasp of the great money-lenders. It has ceased to represent the people. Is it any wonder men lose faith in the forms of government? Without any government at all there would be a happier people. If the times are not rescued, whether it be by a party or by a people, civilization will be destroyed. The thunder of revolt is already heard. Religion, art, education—all will go with the frenzied efforts of men to get out of the grasp of Money which never loses, never shares its needs, into a state of freedom and a natural fruition of honest work and a resourceful soil.

I am not rich, nor am I able to live without working, as has been said, and I never was. The stock exchange where so many have won fabulous riches at the expense of the steady worker underneath is unknown to me. If I have no money to lose I have none to be ashamed of.

The day of the abject party man is gone. Let humanity have a chance.

I solicit your vote and influence and have the honour to remain,

Yours faithfully,

J. H. BURNHAM

THE HOOK

A Conservative paper says the Liberals have three weak candidates in Montreal. Our friend Elenor Glyn would no doubt refer to this as another "Three Weaks."

Hon. Joe Martin is now speaking twice a day, and so convincingly that the Pacific Ocean finds it hard to refrain from rushing in to vote for him.

What principally disturbs the sleep of the managers, however, is the distressing noise made by the silent vote.

London children, instead of going to the menagerie, ask their kind parents to take them around to see Parliament dodge the suffragettes.

At this stage of the development in aeronautics, any man who goes up in a balloon will have a good excuse to give his wife for not getting home on time.

"Thou shalt not steal," is still one of the Ten Commandments, but the present Liberal leaders say it is a slander to mention the fact.

FROM PULPIT TO PRIZE RING

(Rev. "Kid." Wedge, formerly a well-known pugilist of the Middle West, who left the ring three years ago and became a minister, has reverted to his old occupation, and has signed articles to box Walter Stanton, of San Francisco, at Omaha, Oct. 31st.

At the height of his career Wedge professed Christianity, and leaving the ring, entered the Nebraska University, where he studied for the ministry. He was given charge of a church in Lincoln, but says he is unable to make a living in church work and has returned to the boxing game.

J. CARR WAS TAKEN ILL IN TORONTO

A despatch from Toronto to-day says:

J. Carr, a middle-aged man employed in the Toronto railway car shops, was removed from his room, 223 1-2 East King street, late Monday night, to the St. Michael's hospital, suffering from what seemed to be apoplexy. Last night he was still unconscious and his recovery was problematical. He came here from Peterborough.

Mr. Carr is a former resident of Peterborough, but has not made this city his home for some time.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN CRIED AND PRAYED IN CHEMONG INDIAN VILLAGE

Monday was a day of great anxiety and fear among the people of Chemong Indian village. The forest fires on the reserve threatened to sweep the homes of the villagers and it was only after hours of hard, strenuous labor that the people were able to rest in their houses without fear of being burned. A strong northeast wind blew towards the village and the roar of the flames could be heard for some distance.

On Monday afternoon the firebell was rung for over an hour and men, women and children came out, forming a bucket brigade. There is a road that separates the reserve from the farm lots, but it was feared that the conflagration would spread. The people lined along the road and fought the flames with pails of water. They kept this up for some time until the danger was overcome.

The women and children were frantic when the fire threatened to destroy their homes. They were crying and some were praying, a number gathered at the church for that purpose. To-day Mr. Dan Whetung was in the city. He stated that there was not so much danger from the fire to-day. However, if the wind arose they would be as bad as ever. The heat in the village is intense and the smoke overhangs the place in dense clouds.

FIRE DESTROYS THE HOME AND BARNS OF MR. W. J. YOUNG

Disastrous Fire in Smith Yesterday—Two Horses, Several Pigs and Year's Grain Were Burned—A Heavy Loss.

A disastrous fire visited the home of Mr. W. J. Young, of Smith, about three concessions southwest of Chemong Park, yesterday. The loss incurred is a heavy one, partly covered by insurance. The barns were also razed to the ground, a team of horses and several pigs being burned to death.

What caused the terrible conflagration is a mystery. The wind blew fiercely and spread the flames. Any efforts put forth by Mr. Young and his neighbors proved of little avail, the only things being saved were three small pieces of furniture. Mr. Young had only threshed his grain on Monday. It was all destroyed.

The friends of Mr. Young worked heroically, but their labors were in vain. Mr. Young has the sympathy of a large number of friends in his heavy loss.

THE CITY AND VICINITY

St. Andrew's W. F. M. S.

The W.F.M.S. held a meeting in St. Andrew's church yesterday afternoon. An interesting address was given by Rev. aCnon J. C. Davidson.

To Give Address To-night

At St. Paul's Church to-night Rev. Elmore Harris, D. D., of Toronto, will give the first of a series of addresses in the interests of the Young Women's Christian Association. All the city churches have united in the matter, and instead of holding the mid-week prayer service will join in the meeting at St. Paul's.

A Political Inducement

A laboring man called into the Review Office to-day and told of being given a job of cleaning out a house on condition that he would vote for the Liberal candidate. He accepted the work and was offered the handsome sum of 23 cents for his labor. He walekd away without taking the money, stating that he could live without it just about as well as he could live with it.

They Will Entertain

The Young People of Murray st. church on Friday evening from 8 till 10.30 o'clock, will entertain the Baptist students and their friends and the faculty of the Normal school.

Friends Show Sympathy

A large number of English friends and fellow churchmen assembled at the residence of Mr. James Skibbons, McGill street, where the funeral of the late Arthur Hanning, who met his death by drowning in the Otonabee, was held yesterday afternoon to the Little Lake cemetery. The first part of the burial service was conducted there, Rev. Canon Davidson being the officiating clergyman. He spoke of the sadness of the occasion and of the family not knowing of the young man's death. Mr. Davidson stated that those present would do what was in their power to take the family's place.

MR. DENNISTOUN'S TRIBUTE To Mr. Stratton

Mr. Stratton and his friends having circulated a report that Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, now of Winnipeg, and formerly of this city, was favorable to his (Mr. Stratton's) candidature, Mr. Dennistoun was communicated with and replied briefly by wire, and which was printed in the Daily Review of Monday.

In the issue of the Examiner of Monday, Mr. Stratton derides the statement as being "a colourless telegram." If that was colourless, what will Mr. Stratton and his friends think of this:—

> "I say emphatically that it would be a most unfortunate thing for the constituency if Mr. Stratton should be elected. I want to see him beaten to a finish.
>
> If I were in Peterborough Mr. Burnham would have my enthusiastic support."
>
> R. M. DENNISTOUN

Further, there is not an honest Liberal in the Province but hopes that Mr. Stratton will be defeated. There is not a Conservative but will lend a hand to do it.

Mr. Stratton's claim that at one time Mr. Burnham approved of his (Mr. Stratton's) public course, and placarding the streets to that effect, has fallen short of the object aimed at, to stultify Mr. Burnham.

Mr. Stratton, as well as the electorate, is reminded that at the time Mr. Burnham made his remarks the Gamey enquiry was not completed, neither had the Insurance investigation taken place, both of which have left their marks on Mr. Stratton. These marks will never rub out. They are there to stay.

SHAKESPERIAN ACTOR GAVE AN ADDRESS TO STUDENTS

Mr. John Griffiths, the actor, gave a talk on Shakespeare this afternoon to the pupils of the Collegiate Institute. Mr. Griffiths spoke in the assembly hall of the school and the occasion marked the first time the hall was used. Its acoustics are splendid and the speaker was heard to great advantage.

From Mr. Griffith's thorough knowledge of the works of England's greatest bard, his address was of absorbing interest and most instructive as well. He possesses an unusually powerful and musical voice and has much magnetism as a speaker.

Accuracy Quality and Price

Are three prime considerations in eye glasses. In price we please our patrons, and this is an important factor in our increase of business. We supply glasses from one dollar up, according to requirement of the eyes. And all our kinds of lenses, qualities of frames are of unsurpassed value. In quality of material, style, workmanship we speak with confidence of the eye glasses and spectacles, which we are daily supplying. Accuracy in focal powers best suited to the special requirements of each individual eye, is of course, of first importance, each case receives our undivided attention. In Accuracy, Quality and Price we are pleasing our patrons.

It Looks Like a Majority of Fifty for Borden in Ontario

BORDEN'S ONTARIO MAJORITY SHOULD DEFEAT GOVERNMENT

A Careful Canvass of the Situation Shows Forty-Six Seats to the Good

FORTY WOULD BE ENOUGH TO MAKE A TURN-OVER SURE

Review of the Whole Field From Independent Sources Indicates Another Sweep of Province

Sure Conservative	52
Probable Conservative	9
Total	61
Sure Liberal	9
Probable Liberal	3
Total	12
Doubtful	13

Dividing up the doubtful and allowing the Liberals the advantage on the ground that they held most of these seats before, the thirteen may be divided into five Conservative and eight Liberal.

The net result now stands:

Conservative	66
Liberal	20
Conservative majority	46

Standing in Last Parliament.

Conservative	47
Liberal	39
Conservative majority	8
Conservative gain in 1908	38

A review of the whole field in Ontario from independent sources convinces The News that Mr. R. L. Borden will sweep the Province to an extent almost equal to that of Sir James Whitney in June last, and that his majority will approach the half-hundred mark.

The temper of the people of the Province in the face of the appeal of the Laurier Administration for a further tenure of power is made clear from the fact that, of forty-seven seats held by the Conservatives in the last Parliament, only two are now considered as "doubtful." In both cases there is no suggestion that the issues upon which Mr. Borden has forced the campaign have failed to carry an appeal, but local questions have to a certain extent overbalanced the national.

Only Nine Safe.

The Liberals face a condition that is vastly different. Out of thirty-nine seats held by them a few months ago, only nine are reasonably safe; three others will probably re-elect Liberals, while eleven are in serious doubt. Seven more are likely to return Conservatives, while nine are certain to choose supporters of Mr. Borden.

Among those where the Liberals themselves appear to have abandoned all hope are Nipissing, Parry Sound and Centre York. All these were Liberal in 1904.

Among others where a turn-over to the Conservatives is assured so far as a careful canvass of the situation shows are North Ontario, East Peterborough, West Hamilton, North Lanark, South Perth, South Oxford, North Grey, North Essex, one at least in Ottawa, South Renfrew, North Simcoe, East Algoma and several others.

Among others in serious doubt for the Liberals are West Lambton, Glengarry, North and West Middlesex, West Northumberland, North Oxford, Kingston, Welland, West Lambton, South Wellington, North York, South Bruce, West Peterborough and several more.

Nunan is Strong.

One, at least, of the Ontario Ministers seems certain of defeat—the Minister of Customs, Hon. William Paterson, in Brant. Mr. Patrick Nunan has developed exceptional strength, and, living in Dumfries, one of Mr. Paterson's former strongholds, will cut it down to a small figure. Paris will give him a large majority.

Hon. A. B. Aylesworth's fate will not be known until late on October 26, for in ReeveArmstrong of King he has an opponent who is pushing him at nearly every point in the riding.

In Russell, even with its 1,000 Liberal majority, Hon. Charles Murphy's defeat is looked for in many quarters, as he was forced upon an unwilling French-Canadian constituency. Even Hon. G. P. Graham, who is admitted to have acquired the art of popularity, is having a hard fight with Mr. John Webster, a well-known cheese buyer of the district.

The Sutherlands.

In the erstwhile Liberal stronghold of South Oxford hardly anything can save Mr. S. Schell, ex-M.P., from defeat at the hands of Donald Sutherland.

The Speaker in the last House, Hon. R. F. Sutherland, faces defeat in North Essex at the hands of Mr. O. E. Fleming, K.C., of Windsor. Mr. Sutherland finds himself terribly weakened by his connections with American firms. The visit of Sir James Whitney to Windsor on Friday next should remove all doubt of the result.

In East Algoma, if he is allowed an honest list, Mr. W. R. Smyth, who resigned the Local seat, will defeat Mr. A. E. Dyment by several hundred. In North Grey Mr. W. P. Telford, ex-M.P., was onl 23 ahead in 1904, and will be defeated next Monday by a fair majority.

In Glengarry, with all its 459 majority in 1908, even the emergency visit of Sir Wilfrid Laurier on Oct. 21 can hardly overturn the 200 odd votes which a canvass shows the Conservative Highlander, J. F. McGregor, to be leading by at the present time.

North Lanark is a sure Conservative gain, with woollen mills standing idle in its towns.

In the North.

Mr. Borden did not mistake the signs of the times when he gave three evenings to expounding the Conservative policy to the electors of Nipissing. The late member's defeat by several hundred is certain.

Parry Sound is another Northern seat that will elect a Conservative and defeat the late Liberal member by hundreds.

In Ottawa nothing that the Liberals can devise can prevent Dr. Chabot winning one of the Liberal seats, and it is well within the possibilities that Sir Wilfrid Laurier's choice of Quebec East will mean his rejection at Ottawa and the election of Mr. Thomas Birkett.

South Perth was close for G. H. McIntyre in 1904. Dr. Steele, the canvass shows, will win this time.

Of the Peterboroughs, only the West is in doubt. In the East it was seen long ago that the late member was beaten and E. Tanner was substituted. But this will not avail. In the West even Liberals admit that with J. R. Stratton as a candidate the result is doubtful either way.

Powder Has Burned Out.

In North Waterloo, where the late Conservative member, Joseph Seagram, dropped out, W. L. M. King resigned as Deputy Minister of Labor and was nominated. The best Liberal prophecy is "doubtful," while the Conservatives claim his defeat by hundreds at the hands of Richard Reid.

So the list might be continued, revealing a slump from the old majorities and the certain Liberal seats in 1900 and 1904. The 500 majority in Kingston, for example, in 1904 has disappeared, and Dr. Ross is now side by side with Hon. Wm. Harty.

There is one reply, made in desperation by the disorganized Liberal election machinery—a reply that only echoes their own fears—that the supreme strength of Sir James Whitney will not communicate itself to the campaign for Mr. Borden. Ontario voted Liberal under Mowat, and Tory for Ottawa under Macdonald.

A Similar Struggle.

But the battle won by Sir James Whitney for blunt honesty against an Administration of suave dishonesty is duplicated in the struggle of Mr. Borden against the Administration of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. In the main, the elements that Sir Oliver Mowat appealed to in Ontario — outside of the party fanatics—were those that characterized the Government of Sir John A. Macdonald. The Dominion Government of 1908 has descended to a point where it bears company with the discredited and desperately beaten forces that held together the Ross Government.

Borden and Whitney: Laurier and Ross are the groupings as they appeal to the independent mind of Ontario today, and this is why the results of 1905 and 1908 in this Province promise to be repeated on Monday next with almost all their decisive character.

If Mr. R. L. Borden's majority in Ontario reaches forty, the Laurier Administration will be overturned.

ALGOMA WEST BAD AS EAST

Jacob Stevenson Duplicates the Illegal Work of Wm. Thompson

AFFIDAVITS MARKED "X" ACCEPTED AS EVIDENCE

Lists of One Camp Alone Padded With 150 Names of Persons Not Qualified to Vote

RESIDENCE IN CANADA ACCEPTED

Enumerator Accepts Lists Prepared by Solicitor of Lake Superior Corporation—Board Will Meet at Lumber Camp

Jacob Stevenson, enumerator, takes the place of William Thompson, of East Algoma, to-day as a man who was sworn to carry out his duties in West Algoma and who failed egregiously. Like his confrere in the East, he handed over his work as a nonpartisan official to Liberal lawyers. Like Thompson, he accepted the names they chose to give him, of the men of the "bush polls." Like Thompson, he made no effort to meet these men and assure himself that they were entitled to a vote. Like Thompson, he accepted improper affidavits, drawn up by partisans, as proof of their eligibility. Like Thompson, he had no idea whether the men existed or not, and the only evidence, a cross upon an affidavit. Like Thompson, he allowed himself, in violation of his oath, to become the easy tool of a deliberate attempt on behalf of Liberal officials to pad the lists of voters, violate the sanctity of the ballot and become a party to an attempt to filch away the honest expression of opinion of the voters of the northern constituencies.

What Stevenson Did.

The situation in West Algoma is only on a higher plane than in the East on one point. The padding was not so extensive. The methods are similar.

Jacob Stevenson received instructions in writing from the board of registration to allow no person on the list who was not in the territory on August 1, and "continually resident and domiciled there since that date."

He appears to have adhered to this ruling in making up seven lists in districts where Conservative voters predominate.

On Sept. 17 he went to Searchmont, to a lumber camp, and took on 150 men who came into the district after the first of August. The following day he repeated the performance at Trout Creek, where there is another "bush poll."

When challenged before the Board he admitted that he disregarded their instructions, but excused himself by declaring that "some lawyer"—whose name he refused to divulge—told him to pursue this course.

The Board thereupon requested the Liberal counsel to furnish to the Conservatives all information and dates as to the men's arrival at the various camps. As in East Algoma, instructions were given to camp clerks to refuse access to their books.

Disregarded Summons.

The Conservatives thereupon issued subpoenas calling upon the men themselves to appear. As in East Algoma, they disregarded the summons. Mr. A. C. Boyce, the Conservative candidate, and Mr. Kessock protested to the Board, revealed the method in which the names had passed the enumerator, and declared that it was "one of the worst political frauds that was ever committed in the name of law."

Judge McCallum declared that for the Board to visit the camps would postpone the election. Mr. Boyce did not weaken. Mr. J. E. Irving, solicitor for the Lake Superior Corporation, who was also acting for the Liberals, urged that the "cross" affidavits be accepted as evidence. Judge Johnston refused, and declared that an honest list must be prepared, if it took until Christmas.

Then the court adjourned to catch a train, and the argument will continue later.

The Conservatives were represented by Mr. A. C. Boyce, Mr. R. R. McKessock and Mr. F. Martin, secretary of the Algoma Bar Association, the Liberals by Mr. Irving and Mr. John McKay.

The whole character of the work being done under the Aylesworth law is indicated by a statement of Judge McCallum himself. He said:

"We are revising these lists to the best of our knowledge, and complying with the Ontario lists as best we can. If we cannot comply with the Ontario statutes, we will fall back upon the Dominion statutes. We have reduced the time to fifteen days; the Ontario statute says thirty days. We have not published the lists in local papers all over this district. There are many things we left off."

Fyling False Affidavits.

When the court opened there was a long argument between counsel as to whether the subpoenas had been properly served on the men. This was left unsettled, and the next question was as to the right of the Liberals to fyle false affidavits and the court to accept them.

Mr. Boyce, addressing the court, said: "There is not a statute which authorizes these affidavits to be fyled. Now I say, with all due respect, and I say it from a consciousness of what I am saying, that if these affidavits are used, it will be one of the worst political frauds that ever existed, and which has been committed in the name of law, and every affidavit that is on fyle here in the reference to the Searchment list I propose to inquire into, and to show before this Board, and before the country, the methods that were used to get these affidavits.

"I therefore contend that those affidavits cannot and must not be received. Strain the statute as you will, there is no authority to permit them.

"I have only that to say at the present time in my protest, and I do protest most strongly against this form of admitting affidavits.

How Lists Were Made.

"Let me just recite the conditions that existed when these names were made up. An officer of the Lake Superior Corporation, W. R. McKibbon, while, I believe, in the pay of that company, attended at the making up of the lists, and furnished certain names, or rather a counsel furnished the names, and those gentlemen were supposed to vouch for them. The names upon that were put upon the list by the gentleman who took the oath as enumerator, without any evidence whatever, except in some instances, the expression of opinion of Mr. W. R. McKibbon or another.

"They came there on that list without a shadow of evidence. Now then we appealed against them. We fyled a complaint that the enumerator violated, and went strictly contrary to his duty, and to the written instructions of this Board, in putting them there at all, and we make out a prima facie case to that effect, and establish that the enumerator disregarded his instructions, upon his own admission before the Board.

His Own Opinion.

"That he set up his own opinion as to what the law was which should govern the qualification of a voter, to be put on that list—that without consulting the Board and without giving any notice to anybody else, having made up seven lists in conformity with the written in structions of the Board, when he gets in a place where he can do work of that kind, he puts a judicial interpretation upon the Act of the Legislature, entirely contravening and violating the written instructions of this Board, and the regulations and minutes of this Board, and he comes down to the Board, when we complain, and simply says that he did it, and when asked for a reason, the Board gets a shrug of the shoulders. That's all."

The Time Limit.

Judge McCallum declared that they had to be governed by the time limit, and "we could not do within two and a half months that were at our disposal what ought to require nearly five months to do." Moreover, to do as the Conservatives asked, go to Searchmont, would delay the elections.

Mr. Boyce replied: "We have gone to the trouble and to the expense of appealing names that we know are not entitled to be on that list. Put those men on that list and compel us to assume the whole burden of proof, contrary to the statute, by producing an affidavit signed by a cross, that the enumerator has not seen, that the enumerator does not know, that the man possibly who gave the information to the enumerator does not know, and who does not appear before you, although he is subpoenaed to do so.

"To do that would be to deal with fiction all along the line. I only rise for the purpose of protesting, and protesting most vehemently, against concluding this fictional list, this list where there are no names of anybody on the list, with the exception of perhaps one or two, who were then where they were made up, to acknowledge these affidavits marked with a cross for the only signature, and putting names on the list upon such affidavits as that, or upon any affidavit which is not in accordance with the Act. I contend, and I am within my rights in contending that there is no provision of the law, no matter what the rule of the Board may be, admitting these affidavits."

Its Own Decision.

Mr. Boyce then quoted to the Board its own decision given a few weeks before, and referred to in The News yesterday:

"'That all names on list residing there personally on Aug. 1st remain on the list, with the usual right of appeal, but in the case of all names on list who came into the electoral riding after Aug. 1st, these voters must establish their right to remain on the list by showing residence and domicile on the first day of August in the riding, otherwise their names will go off the list.'

"Now do your honors see the position that I am taking? You, by your judgment, have stated a certain position which these men must take—that they 'must establish their right,' and then you allow them to establish their right by a proceeding and by a class of evidence not contemplated by the statute or by any other enabling power which would authorize the Board to accept it."

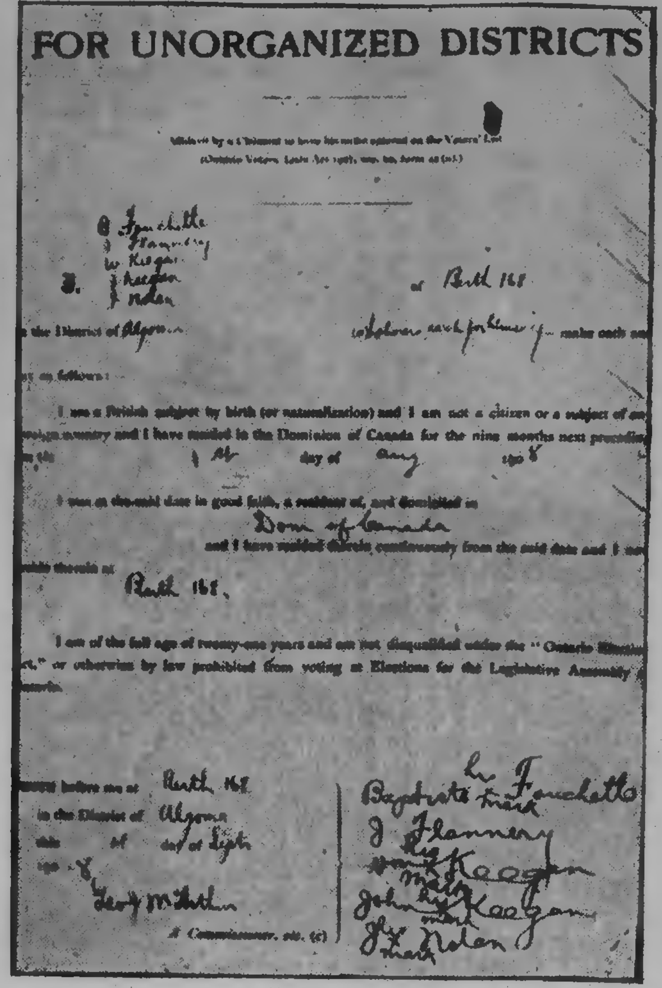
Mr. Irving argued that the Board could accept the affidavits, and he was prepared to go on under that understanding.

Would Accept Them.

Judge McCallum—"I am more convinced than ever that we are right. We have a perfect right to accept affidavits under the law and under the statute in my opinion."

Mr. McKessock then reminded the Board of their agreement either to take up the lists from the beginning or to postpone the court and go out to Searchmont, "and give us an opportunity of serving witnesses as we should serve them, and have them come to court."

HOW THE PADDING IS DONE IN ALGOMA VOTERS' LISTS



FOR UNORGANIZED DISTRICTS

The accompanying reproduction of the style of affidavit being used successfully by Liberal lawyers in West Algoma for padding the lists shows how the game is worked.

In the form of affidavit supplied to enumerators for use in these "unorganised districts" occur the following clauses:—

"(3) That you have resided within the Dominion of Canada for nine months next preceding the first day of August, 1908.

"(4) That you were on the said day in good faith a resident of and domiciled in the territory in which the said list o fvoters was prepared, and (2) that you have resided in this electoral district continuously from the said day, and, (3) that you are now actually residing and domiciled therein."

A glance at the affidavit shows that clause 4, requiring a residence in the electoral district on August 1, is entirely disregarded, and changed to apply to residence in the "Dominion of Canada."

In this way thousands of voters could be rushed in after August 1, made to sign this affidavit, and thus swamp the votes of those whose names are legally on the lists. The singular part of the whole affair is that Jacob Stevenson, the enumerator, who took an oath to administer the law properly, accepted hundreds of these affidavits and placed every name offered him upon the list. In many cases the affidavits were not signed but marked with a cross, and Stevenson, without knowing even that the man was in existence, cheerfully opened his book and entered the name. At this one "bush poll" of Searchmont, Stevenson added 224 names, when over 150 of them were of men who had come in after August 1, and some had actually accompanied him to the camp on September 17. At Trout Lake he added 162 names, and the majority possessed no qualification. At another camp the enumerator postponed the meeting until twenty-five additional men had arrived and entered them on his lists nearly two months after the legal date—August the first.

THE NORTHERN LISTS

The sinister attack on the Ontario voters' lists seems to be having the designed result. Private advices from the North for some time have indicated that the compilation of the lists has been committed wholly to Liberal partisans, however they have been appointed. Now the dissatisfaction has risen to open and loud complaint, and the gravest suspicions are entertained that the lists have been shamefully stuffed. This is the result of the latest attack on the Provincial rights of Ontario. Only of Ontario, be it understood; Quebec retains full control over her northern district; there is no interference with Nova Scotia; Manitoba controls her franchise in peace; so does British Columbia. But the Laurier Government selected the precise moment when Ontario is controlled by an Administration with an unusual sense of decency and fairness to deprive the Province of the management of six of her constituencies. Does that argue a burning desire for scrupulous fairness? Does it not rather show a determination to try to clutch those six constituencies by unfair means out of the general ruin of the Ontario Liberal party? At all events we know this: that the Whitney Government conducted an election last June, that over eighty Liberal candidates were beaten, and that not one of them alleged unfairness by entering a protest; whereas the Federal Government has seized control of the lists in six Ontario constituencies, and already complaint of unfairness is rife.

ONTARIO WILL DECIDE

The Winnipeg Saturday Post says:—The future government of Canada will rest in the hands of the people of Ontario on the 26th. As the people of Ontario decide, such shall be the Government that we shall have. No fair-minded man can reach any conclusion other than there is not a Province in Canada where the Government can reasonably expect to make any gains. On the other hand, no fair-minded person, looking over the whole field carefully, can reach any conclusion other than that the Opposition has every reason to expect to gain something in each Province in the Dominion—while the indications point rather to a Conservative sweep in Ontario than to a division such as gave Ontario representation in the last Federal Parliament. No one knows—no one can know—to what extent Ontario will turn. It is therefore almost solely the uncertainty that exists in regard to the extent to which Ontario will turn that makes the election of this year the most doubtful of all the elections in the history of Canada.

The Conservative Leader

Mr. Borden's tour of Ontario unquestionably has created an exceedingly favorable impression. The mere statistics show that he must possess energy and vitality which of themselves command respect and liking. In addition his meetings have had a good effect upon his campaign. A visit to the vicinity where one has been held finds those who attended greatly pleased with the Conservative leader. Meetings have their limitations in political affairs, but they must not be undervalued, and Mr. Borden's series seems to show, first, that the people are interested in him to the point of turning out to hear him in great numbers and in the face of considerable inconvenience; secondly, that when they have heard him, their liking for him increases. Both facts are encouraging to a political leader.

What renders this success of Mr. Borden's the more interesting is the fact that hitherto platform ability has been far from his strongest side. He has been a Parliamentary rather than a popular leader, and in Parliament his qualities have been solid rather than attractive. The base of them has been his ability as a lawyer; his Parliamentary style is lawyer-like, argumentative and vigorous, rather than of the light and dexterous type affected by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Associated with Mr. Borden's wide and thorough acquaintance with the law is a remarkable fund of general information. For example, when Mr. Lemieux introduced the Act which bears his name he did so without having taken the trouble to prepare himself at all thoroughly, the House bearing no general reputation for information on or interest in sociological questions. But Mr. Borden proved to know a great deal more about the subject than did the Minister of Labor; in particular he was well informed as to the New Zealand experiments in arbitration. Poor Mr. Lemieux had hurriedly to adjourn the discussion and to hasten to Mr. Mackenzie King to get crammed on the subject. Mr. Borden's performance had no air of his having specially prepared himself to discomfit the Minister; it was rather part of his characteristic of having unusual quantities of information which he by no means acquires for immediate use or show.

One subject upon which Mr. Borden is a careful student is that of the higher aspects of politics and in particular of our Imperial relations. He frequently introduces into his platform speeches, as a warning to the good citizen to follow political events, Ostrogorski's gloomy anticipation that the carelessness of democracy will lead to a new autocracy of the machine. He is the only man in Canadian public life who gives one the impression of being a careful and systematic student and thinker on the subject of our relations to the Empire. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who has had greater experience, impresses one as a supremely clever opportunist, who handles every Imperial problem as it comes up cleverly enough, so as to get from it the greatest possible immediate political benefit; but he does not seem to be a careful and thorough-going student of the whole problem. If Mr. Borden represents Canada in the next Imperial Conference, the British statesmen will encounter a type of Canadian public man very different from the baffling and incalculable diplomat Sir Wilfrid Laurier has shown himself to be on the other side of the ocean.

These are the solid attributes of the higher politics. As a party leader Mr. Borden has shown an increasing skill and wariness. Last session he led his forces with uncommon aggressiveness and ability, reducing the Ministerialists more than once to outcries of sheer baffled rage. Made leader with only four years of Parliamentary experience, he had to teach himself the art of managing a party. Four years ago the Liberals were disposed to patronize him. They do not now.

All the time of this growth Mr. Borden remained so far as the platform was concerned an academic speaker, generally voted heavy by the electorate. In certain localities, such as the American settlements in the West, his speeches were greatly liked; but for the most part it was complained of him that he lacked the orator's gift of impressing audiences, loosely described as "magnetism." However, he possesses a quality which has just come to light—an immense reserve power. It has shown itself all along in his peculiarity of amassing knowledge with no special idea of making public use of it. In addition, he has a reserve fund of emotion, of fire and energy, which it takes exceptional circumstances to bring out. In other words, the fiercer the fight the better he does. This election of 1908 is at once a fierce and an encouraging conflict; the hope of victory is high; the Conservative party is backing him with a unity and energy unknown since the death of Sir John Macdonald. Mr. Borden has risen to these circumstances by drawing very largely, not only on his physical strength, but also on that reserve of energy hitherto untapped. The effect has been, not merely a range of subject and a power of discussion which he had shown already, but also a fire and a power of affecting audiences hitherto not parts of his equipment.

The impression made upon the public during Mr. Borden's tour has been that he is a man of Premiership rank. His power and ability on the platform are the slightest of his qualifications for the post of virtual ruler of the country. The absurd pretence that there would be a drop in the change from Sir Wilfrid Laurier to Mr. Borden is worn as thin as the old and amusing [illegible]y that Sir James Whitney would be inferior to Mr. G. W. Ross.

LIBERALS AND PROSPERITY

With supreme self-assurance the Liberal leaders assume to themselves the full credit for that wave of prosperity which has visited Canada during the past ten or twelve years. In so doing they ignore the outstanding features of that period of development and its main causes. They overlook the fact that prosperity was general and world wide. In Europe and America the volume of trade and commerce swelled to unprecedented proportions.

The exchange of international products reached a new high water mark. Free trade England, the protectionist countries of the Old World and the United States shared alike in the great and universal expansion of business. Acting under the stimulus and impetus of the new financial confidence thus established, enterprising capitalists reached out from the leading world centres to new and only partially developed countries. They launched new enterprises in Mexico, Central America, and Brazil.

Every portion of the western hemisphere braced up under the spell of material advancement, and Canada came in for a full share of the good times. It was about this period that the restless Western American had devoured most of the areas available in the United States and began to look for satisfaction across the border to that new last West which lay between Manitoba and the foothills of the Rockies.

It was just prior to the advent of the Laurier Government that another event occurred which contributed greatly to the development of the West and the growth of Canadian prosperity in general. For eight years after 1887 the Western wheat crop had varied from twelve to eighteen million bushels per annum. In 1891 the yield was twenty-three million bushels, but in 1895 the size of the harvest suddenly mounted to nearly thirty-two million bushels. The price of wheat was low that year, and some of the crop was of poor quality, so that it was fed to the cattle.

The result was a remarkable stimulus to the live stock industry in the prairie country, which made itself felt in the course of the next year or two. A series of good crops followed. The grain sold at good prices, and the fame of the West as a producer of No. 1 hard reached the four corners of the earth. For the first time the term "breadbasket of the Empire" came into use. The influx of population from the United States developed remarkable proportions, and the stream of immigrants from Great Britain and the Continent of Europe rapidly expanded.

Canada's day had dawned. The country's resources had been noised abroad. The Government's immigration methods contributed something to the influx of new population, but it is absurd for the Liberal politicians to claim so much credit as they do for their policy. The truth is that the party was extremely fortunate in attaining power on the eve of an outbreak of national and international prosperity, which they would have found difficult to stem or abate, do what they might.

The past year's reverse in the financial and commercial condition of Canada has occurred under Liberal rule—after twelve years of Liberal administration. But no one of average common sense desires to place the blame on the shoulders of the Government. Wide-reaching economic factors, altogether independent of politics, precipitated the crisis, out of which Canada, the United States and portions of Europe are believed gradually to be emerging. The Laurier Government is no more responsible for the set-back in trade which began upwards of a year ago, than it was for the national boom which commenced a decade or more ago. Nor is it to be feared that a change of Government will interfere with the recovery of prosperity. The country's natural resources assure it a splendid material future, and Mr. Borden's policy is well calculated to encourage their development.

SLEEPING SHEPHERDS

The leader was guilty who connived at corruption. He was like the shepherd who went to sleep and allowed another to murder the sheep. The leaders were to blame, who with their tongues and their pens in the newspapers lowered the ideals of the people with sneers, defamations and pharisaical flattery of their own side. There were great men in Canada whose fame was dropping from them decade by decade. They would be less honored in future even than they were now. They would be pointed at as great and powerful, but not for their purity. There were statutes in Canada which were already the subject of scorn. They were not handicapped with corrupt politics in Britain; their brother British nation, Australia, was miles ahead of them in this respect, and the United States, to which they had often said, "Thank God I am not as thou," had no such evil in their Federal politics; he was not referring to municipal politics.—Rev. J. W. Macmillan, of St. Andrew's Church, Winnipeg

THE INFLUENCE OF ONTARIO

That strange specimen of the amateur politician, Mr. Aylesworth, is fond of delivering one of the oddest attacks imaginable upon the Conservative party. He makes it a grievance against that party that it finds its inspiration in Ontario and that its Ontario delegation has the preponderating voice in its councils. Mr. Aylesworth is an Ontario man, and he utters this complaint in almost every Ontario constituency that he visits. That is what makes his anger so odd. An Ontario man bewailing the fact that his own Province controls one of the two great parties of the country! An Ontario man expecting audiences of Ontario men to rise in indignation against the Conservative party because it draws its inspiration from Ontario, from the common set of ideas and aspirations, from the common prejudices in favor of strict and economical administration which move Ontario Liberals and Ontario Conservatives alike! What an amusing politician Mr. Aylesworth is!

The Minister of Justice has this consolation, that the state of affairs he so deplores assuredly does not exist in his own party. The Ontario delegation to the Commons exercised no visible influence in the Liberal party during the Tenth Parliament. The Ontario representation in the Cabinet has exercised no influence on policy since Sir William Mulock lost his battle and withdrew. Whatever standing Mr. Aylesworth possesses in that portion of party management which goes on behind the scenes has been quite as much due to his assiduous cultivation of the rank and file of the French Canadian members as to the fact that he is an Ontario Cabinet Minister. In short, for his own Province to exercise any influence on any policy, if only the policy of an Opposition, seems to Mr. Aylesworth, after his three or four years at Ottawa, an absolute grievance.

Mr. Aylesworth has blurted out the standing Ottawa attitude towards Ontario. This Province is the scene at present of a good deal that is new and of a good deal that is unfashionable in Canadian politics. Apart from the new frame of mind towards electoral corruption and unfairness, Ontario has a quick and keen sense of Provincial rights in so far as they apply to business conditions. Quebec, traditionally sensitive on questions of race and creed, cares very little for this class of question, and these issues hardly affect the other Provinces. Then, Ontario has developed a radical cast of thought on the subject of enterprises into which natural monopolies or great public franchises enter. Now, the new strictness as to administration, the keenness to protect Provincial and public rights, the disposition to curb corporations, are abhorred on Parliament Hill. Discuss the subject with a typical Administration Liberal and in five minutes he will be cursing Ontario as a Province of fanatics. Observe the Railway Committee, say, when Toronto is trying to protect herself against the attempt of a corporation to override her rights, and see the attitude of preconceived hostility in which the majority settle down to consider the case. Just because Ontario is a Province where the sense of public rights is keen, where public opinion is really progressive, it has the positive hatred of the small fry of the Administration and the cold dislike of its larger men.

Doubtless it would hurt Mr. Aylesworth's feelings to have the ideas and principles of his own Province predominant in the policy of the Dominion. It also would hurt Mr. A. W. Fraser's feelings; and Mr. Burrows'; and Mr. Turriff's; and Mr. Adamson's; and Mr. Stratton's; and the feelings of many others who now are supreme on Parliament Hill. But perhaps, even at the price of hurting Mr. Aylesworth's feelings, Ontario might like the experience. If she would, Mr. Aylesworth has pointed out the way. It is to vote for the party which is already inspired by this Province.

VOL. LVII., No. 65. PETERBOROUGH, ONT., CANADA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1908 [illegible] CENTS PER WEEK

The Commissioners and Mr. Stratton---"Having regard to all the circumstances your Commissioners are compelled to conclude that what really took place between Stratton and Pattison was that the former demanded and the latter conceded a share, to the extent of $10,000, in the moneys which were being paid to the latter and charged to the Home Life." ASQUITH OFFERS ASSISTANCE FOR ENGLAND'S UNEMPLOYED

Increase of Shipbuilding Work.

An Increase of Fund is all He Can Offer---To Rush Work on Navy.

London, Oct. 22.—The very serious matter of the unemployed in England came up for discussion in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon, but a larger dole of money than last year and the expediting of the naval shipbuilding program were the only expedients proposed by Premier Asquith in his unfolding of the Government's plan to meet the situation.

The gravity of the case arising from the fact that hundreds of thousands are on the verge of starvation through lack of work, was fully recognized by the Premier, but he said he could not undertake, in the legislative field, to grapple with the permanent causes thereof until the next session.

The Government, he said, was prepared to provide a fund of $1,500,000 to help the unemployed and the admiralty was giving out orders for the construction of nine torpedo boat destroyers and five unarmored cruisers, to cost a total of $12,500,000, two months earlier than originally had been intended.

The Premier made also a bid for recruits, saying that the War Office was ready to take on 24,000 men for winter training in the special reserves.

These proposals quite fail to meet the demands of the Labor members of the House.

DOUBLE WEDDING

Interesting Event at the George St. Parsonage

A double wedding took place at the George street Parsonage yesterday afternoon at three o'clock. Four young people were started on the matrimonial sea by Rev. E. A. Pearson. The first couple united were Miss Mary Luella McClure, of Dummer, and Mr John James Trennum, of Lakefield. They were attended by Miss Violet May Trennum, and Mr. John Wesley Johnston. Miss Trennum and Mr. Johnston were then united in marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Trennum acting as groomsman and bridesmaid.

LAURIER GOVERNMENT TOTTERING TO ITS FALL

This is the Opinion of Men Who Are in Close Touch With the Conditions Throughout the Country.

Many commercial travellers are passing through the city, and calling on customers. These men are in touch with the political situation all over the country. They cover very considerable distances in a few days and get a view of affairs that is not accessable to the man who stays at home. The commercial men all tell the same tale. Whether from the west or the east they carry the impression, gained by interchange of opinions on the trains and in the hotel lobby, that the Laurier Government is doomed. "In spots his followers are confident, in others only hopeful while in the larger number of constituencies Liberals take the view that the issue is doubtful. The confident assurance of the previous election has evaporated. A big slump is looked for all over the country. It's in the air, like this October smoke, and Laurier's chances are burning up every day.

The Toronto News in a review of the situation, mentions one Peterborough (East) as lost to Laurier and the other (West) doubtful. Why doubtful? Because the slump has struck Peterborough West as well as the rest of the country.

WARFARE GOING ON

Special to the Review,

London, Oct. 22.—A Montenegrian agent who is here, announces that actual warfare between 125,000 Austrian troops and thousands of insurrectionists in Bosnia and Herzegovina has been in progress for ten days,

MR. MENDEL WILL VISIT NEW YORK

Mr. Louis Mendel leaves to-morrow on a visit to New York and will be absent about eight days. While in New York he will visit the leading photographic studios and will thus be able to secure the newest ideas in the art. The largest studios in America are located in New York City.

FATHER AND DAUGHTER REMAINED UP ALL NIGHT FIGHTING THE FLAMES

To remain up through the night until after six o'clock in the morning and fight bush fires, was the rather tedious and unpleasant experience of Mr. Wm. McFarlane and his daughter the night before last. Mr. McFarlane, as all summer tourists to the Kawartha Lakes know, resides in Burleigh township, and is very popular and well known to the visitors at the Burleigh Falls Hotel. The forest fires are raging fiercely in the woods just over the bridge from the "Park" Hotel, and reaching such an alarming aspect that some of the summer homes are in danger of being destroyed. The flames are spreading rapidly and if the wind was to rise it is feared that the bridge would be burned.

Mr. Alfred Parker's beautiful cottage on Lovesick Lake on the main land, is in great danger, and it was to save it that Mr. McFarlane and his daughter bravely stayed out the night to save it from the relentless flames. The dry leaves and twigs of the trees offers ready material for fire, and it was only by carrying water and beating the blaze that these persons prevented Mr. Parker's house from taking fire. Mr. Parker received a telephone message yesterday from Burleigh informing him of the danger to his property. He left at once for Burleigh.

Mr. Warren Darcy, proprietor of the "Park" Hotel, was in the city last evening. He said that the fires presented a grand illumination, lighting up the sky beautifully. The people are praying for rain, that they might rest relieved from the fear of their homes being destroyed.

TWO LARGE MEETINGS FOR THE CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE

Two meetings in the interests of Mr. Burnham, the Conservative candidate, were held last night, one in the Temperance Hall in the fourth line of Smith and the other in May's schoolhouse, North Monaghan. Both were largely attended and great enthusiasm was shown. Mr. Burnham and Col. Miller were the speakers in the Temperance Hall and Mr. Kendrey and Mr. Bradburn, M. P. P., at the North Monaghan meeting.

Mr. C. J. Moore occupied the chair at the meeting in Smith.

Mr. Burnham dealt with the immigration question, the Stratton insurance case, and other of the issues of the campaign here. The reading of Mr. Dennistoun's earnest request for the defeat of Mr. Stratton was one of the features of the evening.

Lieut.-Col. Miller delivered a forcible and eloquent address upon the lowered tone of public life in Canada, and the wholly unnecessary purchase of a large stock of Ross rifles.

At May's schoolhouse Mr. Kendrey made a vigorous attack on the Liberal candidate, Mr. Stratton, and presented a long list of reasons why he would be a discredit to the riding if sent to Ottawa. Mr. Kendrey also made a severe arraignment of the Laurier Government.

Mr. Bradburn made a strong speech in favor of Mr. Burnham, and made a telling plea for a change of government at Ottawa. The Conservatives had given Ontario good government and would do the same in the Dominion House.

Mr. Burnham and Col. Miller arrived at May's schoolhouse before the close of the meeting and were given a cordial reception.

1896 - 1908

In 1896 the Conservatives turned a Dominion Conservative Government under Sir Charles Tupper out of power because it failed to represent their views. In 1905 the Liberals turned an Ontario Government, under Hon. Geo. W. Ross, out of power because it had run to seed. In 1908 it is generally understood that self-respecting Liberals will vote the so-called Liberal government, under Sir Wilfrid Laurier, out of power because it has deserted Liberal principles and has become simply a group of office-holders, who have permitted great tracts of land and timber to be stolen from the people of Canada.

Mr. R. L. Borden will give Canada an honest, economical administration in which ALL the people will share.

THUMB CAUGHT IN PRESS AND WAS SEVERED

Robert Northcotte, an employee of the punch press department of the C. G. E. works, had the misfortune to have his right thumb completely severed by having it caught in the press. It was an exceedingly painful injury. Dr. Young was called and had the injured man removed to the Nicholls Hospital in the Dan Spence ambulance. Mr. Northcotte has been out from the Old Country only a few weeks. His residence is on Dalhousie street.

WELCOME NEWS TO CITIZENS OF PETERBOROUGH

Mr. H. P. Kennedy Explains Reasons for Cheap Meats

In another column Mr. H. P. Kennedy is advertising special bargains in beef and in an interview with him he stated the live stock markets at the present time were overcrowded with cattle, as the farmers all over the country were anxious to dispose of as much of their stock as possible before winter, and as Mr. Kennedy is a very extensive dealer, handling each week on an average a train load of live stock or from 25 to 30 cars, he is in a position to supply the citizens of Peterborough with the choicest meats at the lowest prices.

For the past three weeks he has sold spring lamb at Kennedy's Meat Market at a lower price than any other city in Ontario, and now that the cattle markets are down he is offering beef at very low figures and feels sure, as in the past, the citizens of Peterborough will take advantage of it, as the more beef he sells the cheaper it can be sold.

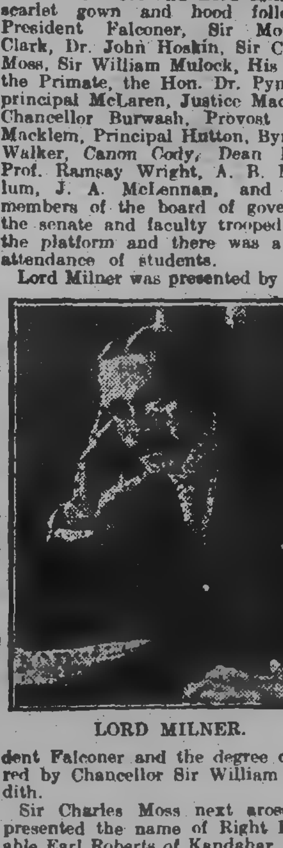
MILNER'S DEGREE

Is an L.L.D. of Toronto University.

African War Lord Honored by Canadian Institution---Interesting Ceremony.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—The University of Toronto yesterday conferred the degree of LL.D. upon Viscount Milner.

The usual brilliant procession entered the Convocation Hall, headed by the bedel with the mace, the chancellor in his robes and Lord Milner in scarlet gown and hood following. President Falconer, Sir Mortimer Clark, Dr. John Hoskin, Sir Charles Moss, Sir William Mulock, His Grace the Primate, the Hon. Dr. Pyne, ex-principal McLaren, Justice Maclaren, Chancellor Burwash, Provost Street Macklem, Principal Hutton, Byron E. Walker, Canon Cody, Dean Reeve, Prof. Ramsay Wright, A. B. Macallum, J. A. McLennan, and other members of the board of governors, the senate and faculty trooped upon the platform and there was a large attendance of students.



LORD MILNER.

Lord Milner was presented by President Falconer and the degree conferred by Chancellor Sir William Meredith.

Sir Charles Moss next arose and presented the name of Right Honorable Earl Roberts of Kandahar, whose great public service and private worth made his name a household word throughout the length and breadth of the Empire, of which Canada formed a part.

The degree was conferred in absentia on Lord Roberts.

Lord Milner was called upon to address the students which he did at some length, first expressing very sincere and heartfelt thanks for the honor the great university had been pleased to bestow upon him.

"A great future is assured to Canada," he said, "but the next fifty years will be the most decisive in its history. They are likely to be formative years and determine your developments for centuries. The stream will flow in the direction and in the channel you give it.

"This is a thing to be proud of and to rejoice at, but it is a growing responsibility for all Canadian men and women who are young to-day. The heaviest burden rests on them who have ten talents. Members of this and other universities who are brought in closest contact and have the opportunity to profit by the best learning of the age and country must be leaders of its intellectual and material development. They must be careful to lay deep and strong foundations of genuine learning and civic virtue on which the vast superstructure of the national prosperity could safely rest."

A banner presented by the Princess of Wales was then brought forward, veiled by the red ensign, and unveiled during the reading of Earl Grey's letter by Sir Mortimer Clark.

CREIGHTON'S DEATH CAUSES SENSATION IN OWEN SOUND

Owen Sound, Oct. 22.—A few minutes before 5 o'clo yesterday morning James Farish Creighton, who was condemned to death for the murder of his wife and two step-daughters in May last, died in his cell. The news created a sensation in the town. The inquest was opened yesterday afternoon, the first witness being Mr. J. Miller, the jailer. He stated that since his conviction Creighton had never been left alone for a single moment. His meals were prepared by himself or the turnkey and the cell searched in order to ascertain that it contained nothing with which he could injure himself. The only outsiders who had seen the prisoner were his spiritual and legal advisers.

Dr. Middlebro, the jail physician, declared that when he saw the prisoner last Saturday all that seemed to be the matter with him was a plain attack of indigestion. He had given him powders, but these had done no good and on Tuesday morning his condition was so serious that he thought it advisable to consult with Dr. Lang. That same night the prisoner was in a serious condition and in great agony. He complained of severe pains in his stomach and vomited a great deal of brownish matter. He could not tell what was the cause of death until he had examined the body. It might be due to some inflammation of the stomach and the symptoms before his death were such as might have been produced by a number of different poisons.

Dr. Lang also declared that he could not tell the cause of death, although it might be due to gastritis. It was then decided to hold a post-mortem examination and the inquest was adjourned till Friday afternoon.

The jurymen viewed the body, which was laid out in the condemned man's cell. It was swollen and discolored. Creighton's unexpected death is the sole subject of conversation here.

TURN ABOUT

It is proposed to placard the streets with Mr. Dennistoun's "appreciation" of Mr. Stratton. This procedure is assumed to be necessary owing to the placarding of the city's walls by Mr. Stratton with the tribute of Mr. Burnham. Politics are getting strenuous hereabouts but it is necessary to fight hard on such occasions or lie down and be trampled upon. As a substitute for the newspaper the poster may have a future, who knows.

WORLD'S PRISON EVANGELIST TO SPEAK HERE

At George Street Methodist Sunday School on October 29th, Under W.C.T.U. Auspices

Mrs. Barney, World's Prison Evangelist, for the WCTU lectures at the George street Methodist Sunday school on Thursday, October 29th, on prison evangelism. She is a gifted speaker and her address will undoubtedly prove one of great strength and interest. She has made a great impression wherever she has spoken as the following press notices will show;

"Mrs Barney is very popular on the lecture platform, speaks extempore, and is overwhelming in her denunciation of the liquor traffic. Her rare fund of incidents, her deep pathos, interspersed with flashes of wit never fail to captivate her audiences. —Boston Daily Traveller.

Mrs Barney is perhaps best known to us as a round the world missionary and national and world's superintendent of prisons, police and almshouse visitation, a work which she early began in her own state being one of the founders of the Prisoners' Aid Association of Rhode Island. In the capacity of prison evangelist she has visited the majority of penal institutions of this country, and has personally extended the work into foreign lands. To her wise and persistent agitation are due many reforms in prison government, among which are the appointment of police matrons in prisons and jails where women are committed, the complete separation of the sexes, the classification of prisoners, separating juvenile from older prisoners, and the abolishment of other evils which long made our prisons a reproach to us an enlightened people.— United Temperance Gazette.

INTERMENT WILL TAKE PLACE HERE

Death of Mr. James Carr in Toronto on Wednesday

Mr. James Carr, who, it was reported in last night's paper, had taken seriously ill while at his work in the Toronto railway shops on Monday, passed away at his home, 223 1-2 King street (east, Toronto yesterday.

The late Mr. Carr was a former resident of Peterborough and was well known here, having lived in this city for a number of years.

The remains will arrive here to-morrow at noon and interment will take place in Little Lake cemetery.

STRUCK BY BUTCHER'S WAGON AND PAINFULLY INJURED

This morning Mr. John Morden, of Monaghan, met with a most painful accident on Charlotte street. He was crossing the street when he was knocked down by a butcher's wagon and had his lower lip split and the side of his head cut and bruised. His wounds bled freely, and while he was not knocked unconscious he was pretty badly dazed by the fall. He was picked up by a gentleman who saw the accident from the sidewalk and his injuries were looked after by Dr. Scott. The boy driving the rig did not stop when the accident occurred, but continued driving along at high speed.

HOUSE BURNED TO GROUND IN OPS

Farmer Sustains a Heavy Loss From Fire

Starting from a small blaze in the chimney, the home of Mr. Frank Finnigan of West Ops, was burned to the ground yesterday about noon. Everything possible was done to save the dwelling, but in spite of the efforts of Mr. Finnigan and his neighbors the house fell a prey to the flames. Some of the contents of the house were saved, but the greater part of the furniture was utterly destroyed.

The house had some insurance on it, but it is not known as yet just what the amount was.—Lindsay Free Press.

"LULLABY" WILL BE RENDERED

At Recital at St. Peter's Hall To-night---Composed by Mr. John Ball of Buffalo

A recital under the auspices of the Sisters of St. Joseph will be held to-night in St. Peter's hall. A programme of great interest will be presented.

Notable among the numbers is a "Lullaby" composed by Mr. John Ball, of Buffalo, and a nephew of Mr. Geo. Ball, of this city. He is a former resident of Peterborough. The song will be sung by Miss B. Brady. It has been recently published and is meeting with much favor wherever heard.

SUFFRAGETTES HAVE MEMBERS OF CABINET SUBPOENAED

Are Placed on Witness Stand.

Women Agitators are Being Tried for Inciting to Disorder in Recent Riots.

London, Oct. 22.—The suffragettes succeeded in bringing two members of the British Cabinet, David Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Herbert John Gladstone, Secretary of State for Home Affairs, as witnesses to the Bow street Police Court yesterday.

The occasion was the hearing of the cases against Mrs. and Miss Pankhurst and Mrs. Drummond, who were tried for inciting to disorder, when they appealed early in the month to the public to help them "rush the House of Commons," and 17 other women who were arrested Oct. 13, charged with disorderly conduct.

A large crowd, including many suffragettes, had gathered. Miss Pankhurst examined the two Cabinet Ministers. The purpose of her questions, many of which were disallowed by the judge, was to show that if the Government gave women "their rights" the disorders would come to an end.

After an examination of the two Ministers that lasted all day long, Miss Pankhurst announced that she still had 50 other witnesses to call. Mrs. and Miss Pankhurst and Mrs. Drummond were remanded until Saturday and the other prisoners until to-day.

LADDER SLIPPED

Mr. John Lang Fell Twenty Feet---Had Rib Broken

John Lang, who resides at 544 Aylmer street was seriously injured yesterday while painting at the residence of Mr. Benjamin Shortley, Aylmer St. He was standing on a ladder painting the balcony and was about twenty feet from the ground. It appears that the ladder was not on a sound foundation and tumbled down.

Mr Lang struck the ground heavily and was seriously injured. He had one rib broken and received some internal injuries. He was taken to his home at once and a doctor called.

It was reported today that he was getting along nicely although suffering considerably.

RECORD-BREAKING SHIPMENTS OF GRAIN FROM THE WEST

Over Seventeen Million Bushels Inspected at Winnipeg Already—Latest News of the West.

Special Correspondence to Review.

Winnipeg, Oct. 27.—From Sept. 1st to Oct. 15th there has passed inspection at Winnipeg 17,353,350 bushels of the 1908 wheat crop. For the two weeks in October 7,014,000 bushels were received, making an average of 500,000 bushels or about 500 cars per day. This movement is unprecedented in the history of the west, and if lake navigation continues as long open as in 1907 it is estimated that 50,000,000 bushels will reach lake ports this fall. These record-breaking shipments in the west have already restored confidence in trade, and a big change has taken place in the general feeling throughout the country.

There is another healthy feature in the business situation, and that is many merchants are curtailing their credit business, a number of the best country merchants having announced that they will inaugurate a strictly cash system which enables them to compete with the advantages set forth by the large mail order and catalogue houses that have heretofore made inroads upon the country merchant's business. While this general revival in business comes rather late in the season for the immediate starting of big industries that have their eyes on the west, it is looked upon as certain that preparations will begin, if not this fall, very early in the spring for the establishing of many new concerns.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

In the past week Winnipeg has had the honor of entertaining many distinguished men. Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific railway, and W. D. Matthews, of Toronto, a director of the company, spent the week end in the city upon business connected with their annual tour of the western systems. C. M. Hays, president of the G.T. Pacific, and F. W. Thompson, of Montreal, director of the Ogilvie Flour Mills Company, were also guests at the Royal Alexandra. Lord Milner, accompanied by his secretary, A. D. Steel Maitland, who have been touring the west for the past two weeks, arrived in Winnipeg on their return east on Thursday, and his lordship addressed the Canadian Club that evening upon the advantages of closer union with the mother country.

Long before the time arranged for the luncheon crowds filled the entrance to the banquet hall, and when the distinguished British statesman arrived in company with Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, W. D. Matthews, William Whyte and other officers of the club, every seat in the hall was taken. William Whyte, president of the Canadian Club, introduced the guest as one whose abilities had placed him in the fore rank of diplomatists, statesmen and administrators, and when Lord Milner arose it was amidst one of the most enthusiastic greetings ever accorded by the Canadian Club to one of its guests. His lordship, in his address of over ninety minutes, set forth a most magnificent appeal to those present for a closer union of the imperial spirit, and pleaded for co-operation throughout Canada in the work. Following the address, Lord Milner, Lord Strathcona and Lord Roberts were extended honorary memberships of the Winnipeg Canadain Club amid loud applause, the secretary having read communications from the two latter, stating their regrets in their inability to visit Winnipeg during their last visit to Canada.

The great questions of the day during election times are of all interest to the people of the west, and to a great extent the excitement and enthusiasm have diverted the attention of the realty market.

MR. GRIFFITH'S FINE ADDRESS ON SHAKESPEARE

An audience of about three hundred pupils and the staff of the Collegiate Institute and the teach-Collegiate Institute and the teachers of the city heard Mr. Griffith's "Shakespeare" yesterday afternoon at the assembly hall of the Collegiate Institute.

The speaker dwelt particularly on "Macbeth" and "The Merchant of Venice," and quoted several passages from these plays. He is a man of humorous parts and made some witty sallies at opportune moments.

His address was very much appreciated by his auditors.

Mr. H.R.H. Kenner, principal of the Collegiate Institute, was in the chair.

FRUIT JUICES CLEAR THE SKIN

The skin mirrors faithfully the state of the blood, and the blood shows how well—or how badly—the liver, bowels, kidneys and the millions of tiny glands in the skin are doing their work. If these organs are not properly clearing out the waste matter, the blood will be poisoned and the skin sallow, "muddy" and sprinkled with pimples.

Plenty of ripe fruit helps more than any other food to cure this condition, but even more effective, as well as less expensive, are "Fruit-a-tives." These are little tablets of concentrated fruit juices, combined in such a way as to many times increase their action on those organs that eliminate impurities. One or two "Fruit-a-tives" a day will keep the blood pure and give the skin the clear glow of health. 25c for trial size box—50c for regular size—6 for $2.50. Dealers everywhere should have both sizes. If you are unable to obtain "Fruit-a-tives" in your neighborhood, they will be sent on receipt of price. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

WHAT DO LIBERALS THINK OF IT?

It is impossible to believe that Liberals can sanction the methods adopted by the Government in this contest. No such bold and shameless appeal to the cupidity of the electors has been made hitherto in the history of Canadian politics. It is a campaign of flagrant bribery. It has all the aspects of a deliberate conspiracy to demoralize the people. Twelve years ago Sir Wilfrid Laurier appealed to the country against extravagance, against electoral abuses, against the offer of public works to influence the constituencies against Federal invasion of Provincial rights, against graft and jobbery in the public departments. But all these offences lie at the door of his Administration and Liberals are asked to surrender all their convictions and to deny all their professions in order that a group of politicians at Ottawa may enjoy another term of office.

In a hundred constituencies the candidates of the Government are pledging public appropriations in return for electoral support. Mr. Harty, at Kingston, announced an order for twenty-five engines for the Locomotive Works as a reason for his election. If a $2 bill was paid to a needy voter the election would be voided and the voter punished. Mr. Harty offers his huge bribe and exults in the miserable and discreditable business. In Hamilton the platform of the Liberal candidates is "to do something for the city" at the expense of the treasury. Mr. Robinette, once a leader amongst the virile young Liberals of other and better days, offers himself and harbor improvements to Centre Toronto. Mr. Shaw in his feeble fashion appeals to local cupidity. Mr. Stratton in West Peterborough deals in the commercial type of politics, of which he is a master. Mr. James Conmee in Thunder Bay and Rainy River offers public works with the prodigality for which he is distinguished. Mr. W. M. Graham of Welland offers a score of bribes to the constituency. He has a halting imitator in Lincoln. In Parry Sound the chief dependance of the Government candidate is on the public treasury.—The News.

HELPING THE UNEMPLOYED

A special civic committee on the unemployed met in Toronto last week, and after a conference with representatives of some charitable organizations, they decided upon the following recommendations, to be made to the next meeting of the City Council: "No special grants to be given to charitable organizations other than that to the House of Industry; the establishment of an employment bureau; relief work to be begun while the weather is fine; the establishment of fuel depots, where fuel may be bought by the poor at reasonable prices, and possibly the establishment of cheap food depots; deportation of undesirables to be looked after." The general impression seemed to be that the coming winter would be a testing one, and all seemed agreed that work, and not charity, was what was required. The food and fuel depots will undoubtedly be a great boon if properly handled, and it is a question with many whether such should not be permanent institutions in a city like Toronto, but the crux of the whole matter lies in the question of work. If it is possible to secure work for all, even at comparatively low wages, the difficulty will be largely met; if not, even cheap food and fuel will afford but scanty relief. The tightness of the money market operates against the launching of any large undertaking, but we trust that united effort will secure at least partial employment for those who need it.—The Christian Guardian.

COL. CLARKE'S TRIBUTE TO MR. R. L. BORDEN

Col. Clarke, M.P.P., editor of the Kincardine Review, pays the following tribute to Mr. R. L. Borden;—

If the people of Canada could all know R. L. Borden intimately, there there would be mighty few votes cast against him on the 26th. He has not the picturesque appearance of Sir Wilfrid Laurier or the late Sir John A. Macdonald, but he has a charm of manner that makes him a likable, yes lovable man. I met him first ten years ago, in his first term of Parliament, and he impressed me as a commanding personality, and when Sir Charles Tupper resigned the leadership of the Conservative party, I was among the first to suggest him as the next in succession. During the past ten days I have had occasion to be with him continually, to learn something of his scholarship, his self-control, his mastery of public questions, his ease and grace of manner, and behind all that, a remendous reserve force that indicates the strong intellect, the masterful will, the power of command without appearing to command. He will assume the premiership without a heritage or public or private pledges to embarrass him. One cannot but admire the caution and ingenuity with which he avoids entangling alliances or embarrassing pledges. He has the future always in view and will not mortgage it for present gain.

But his most endearing qualities are his private virtues and his social charms. He takes a kindly interest in all whom he meets and is ever ready to assist others with an encouraging word or a helpful suggestion. The reporters who travel with him—without regard to their political views or the political stripe of the papers they represent—fall easily under his genial sway and I venture that not one of them will place a vote in his way to the chief magistracy of this Dominion. Canada will gain enormously by a change of government at this juncture, and not the least of her gains will be the elevation of this clean, cultured, dignified, honorable and high-minded man to the highest office in the gift of the people.

I speak now as one who did his best to turn out the Conservative party in 1896. I believed then that it was better for the country and better for the Conservative party to defeat the government. Liberal newspapers in 1895 and 1896 gave wide publicity to articles published in the Review, advocating the advisability of a change. Under similar conditions now, I think it is time for another change, but the Liberal newspapers are not so ready to quote these views as they were then. The issue rests with the independent elector, who isn't interested in office or graft, to whom the mere party name signifies but little, and whose only desire is that his country may have wholesome and efficient government. If that come not now, so much the worse for the country—so much the worse for the Liberal party. It would have been better if the Conservative party of Canada had been defeated in 1891, and the Liberal party of Ontario in 1898. No one cares to deny this now, but too many will fail to apply the lesson.

Vernon Inquest Opens.

Brantford, Ont., Oct. 22.—Before Coroner Ashton last night an inquest was opened into the death of three Grand Trunk employes, Conductor Fralick and Engineer Burchell of London, and Yardsman Ribble of Brantford, all of whom met death in the recent collision between a Brantford yard engine and a special Hamilton freight near Mount Vernon.

Superintendent Gillen of the G.T.R., read a declaration from Yardman McGuire, stating that he was partially responsible for the wreck in that he failed, as required by the rules, to prevent a freight leaving the yards while a yard engine was returning. In the fog he did not notice the freight, which was a special going out.

McGuire, for whom a warrant is out, has left the city and cannot be located. The hearing was adjourned until Tuesday.

Gales Worse; Fire Spread.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Oct. 22.—There is no let up to the gale from the southeast, which was stronger than ever at day-break yesterday, rousing forest fires to renewed fury. Detour reports 12 vessels in the harbor there unable to leave on account of the winds. No boats have come down the river since Tuesday to bring reports from White Fish Point, which was surrounded when last heard from. Fires have broken out on Drummond Island.

Raber, Gatesville and Cedarville are reported filled with refugees from the woods. There is no sign of relief, the promised rain not having come.

The first returns from the provincial constituency of Athbaska have reached Prince Albert and give Nolan of Battleford 42 majority but complete returns will not be made till November 4th.

IN THE ARENA OF POLITICS

A pamphlet issued in the interests of Mr. Stratton's candidature is labelled;

"Striking Tributes to Hon. Mr. Stratton's Character and Ability from Leading Conservative and Liberal Papers of Ontario."

The pamphlet contains quotations from the Toronto World, London Advertiser, Lindsay Free Press, Lindsay Post, Havelock Standard, Millbrook Reporter, the Lakefield News.

So the above journals are leading newspapers of the province. Not much. The Liberal organization is a little bit out in referring to the Millbrook Reporter, Lakefield News, etc., etc., as leading newspapers of the province.

The Beaverton Express, hitherto a Liberal paper, has come out strongly against a return of the Laurier Government to power. It says in its last issue that "it is not a pleasure for one to break away from ideals and opinions formed by convictions of their value and truth, nor is it pleasant to have to acknowledge the confidence of years in persons or parties as misplaced. Such, however, is the position The Express is forced to assume towards the Government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier."

Did ye see that Mr. Stratton laid the foundation of the Baptist church? I did, and it is on the rock all right. Surely the apostles were in good company.

MR. DENNISTOUN'S TRIBUTE
To Mr. Stratton

Mr. Stratton and his friends having circulated a report that Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, now of Winnipeg, and formerly of this city, was favorable to his (Mr. Stratton's) candidature, Mr. Dennistoun was communicated with and replied briefly by wire, and which was printed in the Daily Review of Monday.

In the issue of the Examiner of Monday, Mr. Stratton derides the statement as being "a colourless telegram." If that was colourless, what will Mr. Stratton and his friends think of this:—

> "I say emphatically that it would be a most unfortunate thing for the constituency if Mr. Stratton should be elected. I want to see him beaten to a finish.
>
> If I were in Peterborough Mr. Burnham would have my enthusiastic support."
>
> R. M. DENNISTOUN

Further, there is not an honest Liberal in the Province but hopes that Mr. Stratton will be defeated. There is not a Conservative but will lend a hand to do it.

Mr. Stratton's claim that at one time Mr. Burnham approved of his (Mr. Stratton's) public course, and placarding the streets to that effect, has fallen short of the object aimed at, to stultify Mr. Burnham.

Mr. Stratton, as well as the electorate, is reminded that at the time Mr. Burnham made his remarks the Gamey enquiry was not completed, neither had the Insurance investigation taken place, both of which have left their marks on Mr. Stratton. These marks will never rub out. They are there to stay.

Roosevelt to Be Editor.

New York, Oct. 22.—President Roosevelt has made a contract with The Outlook Co. by which he will become associate editor with Dr. Lyman Abbot of The Outlook after his retirement from the Presidency.

The Outlook has taken a deep interest in the Congo Free State and the many and well-substantiated stories from there of extraordinary cruelties practiced upon natives engaged in the rubber trade. It was suggested last night that Mr. Roosevelt might be intending to make a personal investigation of Congo conditions and report the results for The Outlook.

To Prison for Three Years.

Brockville, Oct. 22.—Ambrose Godkin, a young man with a police record, was sent to spend three years in the Kingston Penitentiary yesterday by Judge McDonald, after being found guilty of stealing $10 from a farmer by whom he was employed. He has served three terms in the Central Prison and time in the county jail for petty thefts.

Chief Is Thrown Down.

Edmonton, Oct. 22.—The City Council having investigated the charge of Chief of Police Major Beale against Detective Griffiths, declares them not proved and Griffiths will be retained. The resignation of the chief and four sergeants is expected. The charge was warning inmates of a house of ill-fame of an intended raid.

Thomas Greenway Ill.

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—Thomas Greenway, ex-Premier of Manitoba, and recently appointed to the Railway Commission, is lying seriously ill at the Windsor Hotel, Ottawa, and may not recover. His condition alarms his friends, and word has been sent to his family in Crystal City to come east as soon as possible.

Blizzard In the West.

Maple Creek, Alba., Oct. 22.—The derailing of an eastbound freight 14 miles east held up the main line all day yesterday. A heavy snowfall commenced Tuesday night and continued all day, more than a foot falling. A furious blizzard is raging.

Government Official Drops Dead.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

Togo's Garden Party.

Tokio, Oct. 22.—Two official luncheons, Admiral Togo's magnificent garden party, a dinner given by Premier Katsura, and a ball at his residence were the principal features among the innumerable lavish entertainments offered the officers and men of the U.S. battleship fleet yesterday.

The garden fete at which Admiral Togo was host was one of the most elaborate functions of its kind ever seen in Tokio. It was held in the grounds of the Shinjuki Imperial gardens, which are the property of the Empress. The invitations numbered 1,500, and the guests included all the American officers of higher rank and Japanese from every walk of life.

Swindled the Boys.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—A swindler by the name of H. Melbourne has operated here and departed after fleecing about 35 boys out of $5 each.

Melbourne said that he was manager of a new Canadian Messenger Co. His plan was to advertise for messenger boys, and after engaging them to take them to a clothing house and have them measured for a suit, costing $15. In order to show their good faith the boys, or their parents, had to deposit $5. With this money he left the city.

To Talk All-Red Route.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Mr. G. B. Hunter, a member of a big Newcastle shipbuilding firm, who was here interviewing the Government some time ago in connection with the all-red route scheme, arrived in Montreal from England yesterday. It is understood that Mr. Hunter is here to further promote the interests of the all-red project, and that he will discuss the matter with the Canadian authorities. It is said that an important announcement is probable after the elections.

Politics In This.

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—Robert Fleming, a contractor of Arnprior, has sworn an affidavit that he has been prevented from getting work at the wharf there because he is a Conservative.

He states in the affidavit that A. Kerr, the superintendent of the work, told him after the work had been arranged for that he would lose his job if he gave him the contract.

Pipes Start a Disastrous Fire.

Lindsay, Ont., Oct. 22.—Frank Finnigan's fine house, just west of the town, was burned to the ground on Tuesday. The contents were destroyed, also 50 bushels of potatoes. Hot pipes are said to have caused the fire. There was very little insurance.

Three Thousand Hear Sifton.

Winnipeg, Oct. 22.—The Walker Theatre was crowded by 3,000 people last night, the principal speakers being Hon. Clifford Sifton and D. C. Cameron. There were many interruptions and a strong police force ejected scores of the more noisy.

Her Life to Save Her Child.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 22. Mrs. Martha E. Stoott of 38 Union avenue, Elmwood, a suburb of this city, was burned to death in her home while trying to save her child in a fire caused by the explosion of a coal oil stove. The child escaped unhurt.

Four Perish In Steamer Fire.

Newburgh, N. Y., Oct. 22.—The beautiful steamer New York, of the Hudson River day line was burned to the water line early yesterday at Marvels shipyard in this city. Four negro waiters perished in the flames.

Lived In Lindsay.

Lindsay, Ont., Oct. 22.—William Sanderson, who committed suicide in Detroit, and who was recently married in Toronto, once lived in Lindsay.

Was He a Toronto Man?

Toronto, Oct. 22.—"A body, probably that of Albert Martin of your city, was found drowned here. Notify relatives."

The foregoing telegram was received by Chief of Police Grasett yesterday from Coroner L. R. Robbins of St. Clair, Mich. The police made a number of inquiries last night, but did not succeed in finding any relatives of the man mentioned in the telegram.

Three Hundred Filipinos Dead.

Manila, Oct. 22.—Belated reports indicate that the storm of Oct. 12 in the Cayagian Valley was the worst and most destructive within the memory of living inhabitants of the valley. The official figures are not yet available, as many places have not been heard from, but it seems certain that the number of dead will reach 300.

There was a heavy typhoon and torrential rains throughout the valley and in the mountains.

The rivers were flooded and in many places rose to a height of 30 feet, sweeping everything before them in their path to the sea. Hundreds of animals and houses were swept away by the waters.

Making a New City.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 22.—The Government yesterday announced the arrangement with the Grand Trunk Pacific for the improvement in Prince Rupert. The Government will spend $200,000 on sidewalks, roads and sewers, three-fourths of which will be refunded by the railroad.

The engineers will get out plans forthwith, when tenders will be called for. As soon as the surveys are completed the Government will select its holdings, after which another conference will fix prices of lots. No definite arrangement as to sale of lots has been arranged, but will probably be by auction, and after May 1.

Colts Caused Death.

St. Catharines, Oct. 22.—A young man named Wentworth, a resident of Grimsby, was engaged Tuesday on a 55-foot ladder painting the gable end of a large bank barn owned by Mr. William Honsberger, a mile south of Jordan. The ladder was fastened to the fence with ropes. Some colts playing around the barn got tangled in the rope and pulled the ladder over. Wentworth was thrown from the latter to the ground and killed instantly.

Follow the Old Land.

London, Oct. 22.—(C. A. P.)—The Standard, in an editorial article on a political ideal for Canada, says that while there may be things in the United States worthy of imitation, for ideals in public life and the code of administrative honor the people of the Dominion cannot do better than follow the old country.

Alderman Departs, Writs Issued.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 22.—Business circles are agog over the issuance against Alderman W. J. Cavanagh of several writs in civil actions in the Supreme Court. He left on Friday last for the United States. Other writs are said to be pending.

Smoke Drives Schooner Aground.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 22.—Smoke is again causing trouble to navigation. The schooner Katie, loaded with barley, on her way to Pickering, ran aground near Amherst Island, and was released by the steamer Donnelly, with but slight damage.

Three Lives Lost.

New York, Oct. 22.—Three persons were killed, four others badly injured and the lives of a hundred more were imperilled by fire in the six-storey tenement house at 83 East Third street early yesterday.

FIRES STILL RAGING.

Brockville In Midst of Blaze and Flames Are Spreading.

Brockville, Oct. 22.—Brockville is still surrounded on three sides by bush fires, which have sent dense clouds of smoke into the town and navigation is at a standstill. The latest broke out Tuesday in what was formerly known as the "back pond" district, two miles north of the town.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Fire has ravaged Beloeil Mountain and caused several thousands of dollars damage. Mt Beloeil is about 30 miles south of here.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Forest fires are again raging in the vicinity of Sherbrooke, and timber limits of the Canada Paper Co. and Bissell are threatened. The fire is spreading with great rapidity owing to the lack of rain and the dry condition of the herbage. Unless the fires are checked shortly indications are that the losses will be exceedingly heavy.

MIX-UP OVER LISTS.

Constables Start For North to Prevent Election Trouble.

New Liskeard, Oct. 22.—Political lightning commenced to flash here yesterday when the charge was made by the local Conservatives that the Liberal enumerators have padded the voters' lists for the unorganized districts in the neighborhood of the Transcontinental Railway. The accusation was replied to with the counter-charge that the Conservative enumerators have falsified the lists in the neighborhood of the T. & N. O. Railway.

The stories have caused quite an excitement in both political camps. Yesterday morning Provincial Detective Calbeck of the License Department, stationed in Cobalt, went north with several policemen to man the Transcontinental polling booth, and it is the intention of the organization to assist the policemen with two scrutineers each.

Made Dash For Life.

Union City, Tenn., Oct. 22.—Col. R. Z. Taylor, the aged Trenton lawyer, who was taken from a hotel at Walnut Log at the same time Capt. Quinten Rankin was lynched, Monday night, has turned up near Tipton, Tenn., having escaped from the night riders an hour after Capt. Rankin was hanged. The masked men got into a dispute among themselves as to what to do with Taylor, some favoring killing him, while others wanted to hold him so as to force a confession to the demands for free fishing on Reel Foot Lake and while the riders disputed, Taylor jumped between his guards and despite his years, dashed to the edge of a bayou leading from the lake and plunged in, swimming across. He was fired upon many times by the night riders, but escaped in the darkness. He was lost in the woods, and when daylight came was afraid to go back to Walnut Log, but was found near Tiptonville yesterday morning.

Captain Crazed, Calls For Sailor.

Huntington, N.Y., Oct. 22.—Wandering about the shore shouting the name of John Murphy, a missing sailor, Capt. John Darm, of the steamer Eclipse of Bridgeport, Conn., was found yesterday apparently half crazed with excitement. His little vessel was found high on the beach three miles away. Whether the crew drowned or landed from the schooner Capt. Darm seemed not to know. Capt. Darm was taken into custody and examined by a physician, who said the officer was suffering from some mental trouble brought on by excitement.

Quarrelled; Both Dead.

Cranesville, W.Va., Oct. 22.—Two brothers who engaged in a dispute over the distribution of the large estate left by their father, are dead, each having inflicted a fatal wound on the other. The brothers were Joseph and Thomas Mattingly, aged 38 and 35 years respectively, and among the most prosperous farmers of Prescott County.

Joseph stabbed Thomas. The latter staggered to the house, where he secured a shotgun and returned to the scene and fired a shot at Joseph.

Dangers of Campaigning.

Nelson, B.C., Oct. 22.—J. A. MacDonald, K.C., had a narrow escape from death at Trail. He went to address a political meeting there and got off the train in the dark at the wrong crossing. He was thrown back almost under the wheels, but was saved by falling against the lower step of the car.

A party of Rosslanders were driving to Trail to attend the same political meeting and their carriage went over a 30-foot embankment.

Cloud Bursts, 100 Indians Missing.

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 22.—About 100 Shawnee and Pottawatomie Indians are missing and may be the victims of a cloudburst which occurred yesterday between McLoud and Benson Park, Okla.

Founds Tuberculosis Hospital.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Col. Jeffrey Burland, who gave $75,000 to found a tuberculosis hospital, has purchased a large house in Belmont Park for $30,000, and the home will be started at once.

Death In Wake of Tornado.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 22.—One person was killed and 18 injured and much property was destroyed by a tornado at Tucumcari, N.M., Tuesday night.

The Shadow of the East.

London, Oct. 22.—(C.A.P.)—A Wellington New Zealand, cable says Premier Ward, addressing a meeting, condemned the attempts to create a spirit of militarism in New Zealand. It was necessary that the volunteer system should be able to do what the Imperial authorities suggested—repel a raid if one should occur.

"The shadow of the east is over Australia," said Ward, "and we are not far away from her. Australians are preaching the doctrine that Australia has no need to do this. In New Zealand we are determined it shall be so."

'Varsity's Share.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—A sum of $389,838.15 is the university's share of the provincial funds for 1908. Hon. A. J. Matheson, Provincial Treasurer, sent a check for $211,116.22 yesterday to the board of governors, which, with $178,721.93 sent for the first half of the year, makes a total of $87,871.05 in excess of last year's contribution. Another $211,116 will be sent for the first half of 1909.

Harvesters Attack Conductor.

Winnipeg, Oct. 22.—A number of eastern harvesters boarded a C.P.R. branch train for Winnipeg Tuesday, and, refusing to give fares, knocked the conductor down and kicked him. On arrival here two of the ringleaders, Samuel Knox and Herbert Henderson, were arrested, and later remanded until the conductor had recovered sufficiently to testify against them.

Scattered Over a Mile.

St. John, N.B., Oct. 22.—An unknown tramp was crushed to death under the Boston express at Grand Bay Tuesday night by falling from the blind baggage on which he and a companion had been stealing a ride. Portions of the man's body were scattered for a mile along the track.

Farmer's Buildings All Destroyed.

Peterboro, Oct. 22.—By fire starting at the top of a large straw stack near one of his barns, Mr. W. J. Young, a farmer living near this city, lost this year's harvest, three barns and his residence, and was slightly burned himself in trying to lead a horse out of the burning stable.

H. S. Clements, Conservative candidate in Kent claims $2000 damages from Dr. Oliver Merlin.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

Three earthquake shocks were felt at Manila.

The Hungarian Mills elevator at Denver was burned. Loss $450,000.

Chairman Hitchcock of the Republican national committee declares New York State absolutely safe on the state and national tickets.

English Girl Deported.

New York, Oct. 22.—Abundantly supplied with money and jewelry, Miss Ray Bucey, an attractive English girl who said she was presented to the court of King Edward last season, was sent back to England yesterday on the Mauretania. Miss Bucey arrived here last Friday on the same steamer and among her fellow passengers was J. H. Alport. Upon receipt of a cablegram from Alport's father, the immigration authorities detained the young man to await the Government's decision in the case and sent the young woman back home. Miss Bucey was indignant at her treatment, which she characterized as outrageous.

Two Drop Out.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Two candidates who were nominated on Monday have already retired. Lachapelle, Independent in L'Assomption, is out, and in the County of Richelieu, H. Beauchemin, nominated as an Independent Liberal, has retired. In L'Assomption Dr. R. Laurier, ex-M.P., is still in the field, making the result doubtful.

Shot In Street.

Dadeville, Ala., Oct. 22.—Jack Henderson, a farmer of Tallapoosa County, was shot and killed on the public square here Tuesday night by J. Fletcher Turner, representative in the lower house of the Legislature from this county. The shooting is believed to have been the result of an old feud between the two men.

MADE BIG HIT AT THE CAPITAL

"Our New Minister" Referred to Highly by Press of Ottawa

Tuesday's Ottawa Citizen has the following to say of "Our New Minister," which is the attraction at the Grand Opera House to-night:—

Laughs followed each other in rapid succession at the Ruissel Theatre last evening, when Joseph Conyer's production of "Our New Minister, a story of "Hardscrabble" folks, by Donman Thompson was given. It is a character play of the best kind. Not only does it keep the merriment bubbling at a lively rate but it leaves a good taste in the mouth after it is all over, and many morals are pointed without being dragged in.

The story is along the same lines as that of The Old Homestead, but there is more fun in it. The characters are just as real as the life in appearance, words and actions. The different types of the small village are shown and a dainty love story is interwoven. There is fun all through the piece and every character has a number of laughs chalked to its credit. But the principal laugh maker is Joseph Conyer in his inimitable personation of the village constable. J. P. Brawn, as the lad from New York, was another strong card with his line of rich slang. But all the characters might be mentioned and praised individually. There was not a weak one in the cast, and the audience, which was a large one, was very generous in its applause, though the best evidence of appreciation was the rounds of laughter, which were spontaneous and numerous.

IMMENSE PROFITS THAT ARE MADE FROM POPULAR PLAYS

"Everything he touches seems to turn to gold." A little coterie of actors and press men were talking together in a certain club not a hundred miles from Trafalgar Square, when one of the Thespians made this remark concerning Mr. J. M. Barrie. It was said that during the first week of his new play, "What Every Woman Knows," at the Duke of York's Theatre, seats were booked to the value of nearly $50,000, which meant, as the money capacity of the house is nearly $1,500, that even if no more booked seats were sold the play would be performed to a full house for five weeks.

WHAT "THE LITTLE MINISTER" BROUGHT IN.

And probably this is not exaggerated in any way, for the success of Mr. Barrie's books and plays has become almost monotonous. His "Little Minister" has long since passed the $500,000 mark in net profit—a play, by the way, out of which Mr. Cyril Maude and his partner were at one time taking $10,000 per week. "Peter Pan," "Quality Street," and "The Admirable Crichton" were other successful plays, which are estimated to have yielded the author between $2,000 and $2,500 per week for quite a considerable time.

Referring to a few more recent plays, it might be mentioned that "The Merry Widow" has been a gold mine to its author. Since its first American production at Syracuse, Mr. Henry W. Savage has paid in royalties close upon $150,000, which works out at something like $2,500 per week for the author. During the first two years of "Ben Hur" in the States—a play which was produced at Drury Lane five years ago—it secured for its lucky owners no less a sum than $1,000,000, of which $100,000 was paid to the late General Lew Wallace, the author of the book from which the play was adapted.

THE GILBERT-SULLIVAN OPERAS

Another piece which first saw the light in America—"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch"—is said to have yielded more than half a million pounds sterling, while the recent revival of "H.M.S. Pinafore" and "The Mikado" at the Savoy recalls the fact that Sir W. S. Gilbert's operas alone provide him with something like $60,000 a year. "Pygmalion and Galatea" is said to have contributed $250,000 to the dramatist's ample fortune.

In the height of the Gilbert and Sullivan boom, it might be mentioned that these prosperous partners had as many as twelve companies running at one time, all playing Savoy opera, requiring an outlay and expenses in salaries of $175,000 per week, or upwards of $900,000 a year. And yet Mr. Gilbert's profits from half a dozen of his operas is estimated at $150,000.

REMARKABLE AMERICAN PLAYS.

Mr. George Dance, who wrote "A Chinese Honeymoon," the most successful musical comedy of recent years, which ran for two years and eight months, made between $300,000 and $350,000 of the production. No London play, however, has ever been so financially successful as "Rip Van Winkle," in which Joseph Jefferson played the title role no fewer than 5,000 times. This play earned the amazing sum of $5,000,000, and for three successive seasons at Boston Theatre it averaged $23,000 a week in gross returns. "The Old Homestead," another American favorite, is credited with earning $4,700,000 in twelve years.

WHAT SOME MANAGERS MISSED.

Against these successes might be placed "Charley's Aunt," which earned $1,000,000 for Mr. Penley alone, although he had to share the profit with two others, who were with him in the enterprise. And it is a remarkable fact that Mr. Brandon Thomas, the author, offered his play to several managers and they declined it. At last in despair he sought the assistance of a city financier, and this gentleman put about $5,000 into the venture, an investment which yielded him no less than $10,000; while royalties amounting to $15,000 have sometimes accrued to him in one week.

"Our Boys," which was presented at Peterborough last winter, by the Royal Alexander players, ran four years in London and returned weekly profits of $2,000 during that period; while Mr. Edward Terry, after paying nearly $200,000 in fees to Mr. Pinero, the author, cleared $390,000 out of "Sweet Lavender," which reminds one that Mr. Pinero is perhaps the highest paid dramatist in England. He receives $100 for each performance of a play, irrespective of a fixed sum paid in advance. "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray" earned him no less than $300,000.

PLAYS SOLD FOR A SONG.

As a contrast to these fortunes earned by dramatists on one play, it might be mentioned that the late H. J. Byron, the author of "Our Boys," sold the entire rights for $1,500. Perhaps the worst stroke of business the late "Owen Hall" ever did was when he parted with the rights of "The Gaiety Girl" and "An Artist's Model" for $2,750 and $4,250 respectively, although he was compensated to an extent by receiving $20,000 for "The Geisha."

A $100 bill was all that Lytton got for his "Lady of Lyons," a play which must have yielded scores of thousands of pounds profit. Tom Taylor received less for his hundred plays than one of our successful living dramatists would get for a single comedy, while Charles Reade's thirteen dramas probably did not pay him at the rate of a shilling an hour for the time he spent on writing them.

"THE CHURCH THE BODY OF CHRIST," WAS THE SUBJECT

Of Rev. Dr. Elmore Harris, of Toronto, at St. Paul's Church Last Evening—First of Series of Studies on the Bible.

The first of a series of meetings for Bible study, under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association was held last evening at St. Paul's Presbyterian church. The prayer services in the city churches were dispensed with and an united one was held at St. Paul's church.

Rev. Canon Davidson presided and conducted the opening devotional exercises. Other clergymen present were Revs. Pogue, Keith, Pearson, Webb Potter and Dr. Langfeldt. The The speaker of the evening was Rev. Dr. Elmore Harris, of Toronto.

Rev. Dr. Elmore Harris, of the Toronto Bible Training School, who will conduct the series of studies, took as his subject the Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians, speaking particularly on what he concluded was the theme of the epistle, "The Church the Body of Christ." He derived great comfort from the conviction that the entire word of God was a unity—each book unfolded some central theme—so that the Bible ought to be studied book by book. To him the Old Scripture revealed the Christ. Christ said, "Ye search the Scriptures for in them ye hal eternal life and these are they which testify of me."

Books that reveal a plot throughout were the most eagerly read, and so in Scripture the Bible would be better understood if each book were read at one sitting.

In Ephesians the theme was the church the body of Christ. Three points of difference between this church and the local church.

1. It was not an organization, but an organism.
2. It was a church, without officers. It was a variety of gifts.
3. It was a church without ordinances. One faith, one hope, one baptism and that not water baptism but the Baptism of the Holy Spirit.

To the mind of the speaker that church was not rent asunder with belief he would rather sing.

Like a mighty army moves the Church of God,
Brothers we are treading where the
Saints have trod.
We are not divided, all one body we,
One in hope and doctrine, one in charity.

The local church looked for obedience and loyalty to its leaders, and that was right, but the spirit of the church spoken of in Ephesians, was the great, broad and deep sympathy, and interest in the Church of Christ everywhere.

There was a great work for this body of Christ to accomplish. It was necessary to cultivate fellowship, not merely locally, but also the larger fellowship with the people of God. There must also be the recognition of the new humanity, of which Christ is the head, and the abandonment of the old humanity of which Adam was the head.

And all the gifts had been bestowed upon that church for the greatest purpose of edifying or building up that more sublime body of Christ, the Redeemer King. "Till we all come in the unity of faith . . . unto a full grown man."

In closing Dr. Harris spoke of the great value to every community of the Young Women's Christian Association. While it had many phases of work, its supreme motive was to lead all to Christ. It was also comprehensive seeking to assist and develope the physical, mental and spiritual of womanhood phases.

Dr. Harris will give a course of studies in the Y.W.C.A. at three o'clock and at eight o'clock each day These studies are open to all.

AUTUMN

Soft o'er the old Laurentian hills the autumn breezes blow,
And through the valleys in between the sluggish rivers flow,
Along the ridge the early frost has changed the maples' green
And the flowers have lost their dewy gloss the grass its emerald sheen.

Climbing the rugged slope one eve to see the sunset glow,
I sat me down at length to rest—the walk was long and slow
And as I sat there dreaming lone, out of the western sky,
Mid silvery clouds and silvery haze I saw a city rise.

No earthly vision I beheld those walls of jasper clear,
Enclosed no earthly city, no royal palace here.
The gates of pearl stood open wide, and past the streets of gold,
By the tree of life a river ran, its waters clear and cold.

I looked, and as I looked a mist came o'er my longing eyes,
As the fog creeps down o'er the ocean's breast, when the seething billows rise.
And from out the heart of the city rose the notes of a wondrous song,
And in my heart rose a newborn light as I listened there so long.

And that wondrous song shall never die, though on earth 'tis heard no more.
'Tis the song of the angels in Heaven to the Lord whom they adore
And that night as the sunset faded and the western sky grew dim
All around me rang the echoes of that holy, heavenly hymn.

And when the long arrows of sunset on the day of my life shall shine,
I shall think of that night on the hill top with the music so divine;
And its echoes round me stealing will cheer me through Death's cold wave,
Till I reach the home of celestial song in the world beyond the grave.

ADVICE FOR MARKETERS

Agricultural Paper Refers to Short Weights

Those who attend market with potatoes for sale should in every case weigh the bags and not depend upon the measure of a bushel and a half making the required weight of 91 lbs. A bushel and a half of potatoes measured will vary greatly in weight according to the season and to the size of the potatoes. On Saturday last the authorities swooped down upon the farmers who were offering potatoes for sale on the Peterborough market, and weighed their potatoes. In several instances bags were found to be short weight. As the confiscation of all short-weight lots would have meant a heavy loss to the farmers concerned, and as the magistrate believed that the shortage was due merely to carelessness, he imposed a fine of two dollars on each offender. No chances should be taken with having short-weight goods. A little extra time spent with the weigh scales, would obviate any danger of confiscation.—Canadian Dairyman and Farming World.

"Cheer up" See "Our New Minister" at the Grand to-night. You'll forget all your troubles.

LITERARY DEBATE.

Inthem's! and your friends don't forget our literary debate to-morrow night, Friday, Oct. 23rd. Mr. Robertson's class are invited. Great programme. Come on fellows!

A reputation for reliability, for quality, cleanliness, delicious flavor and healthfulness accounts for the phenomenal sale of "Salada" Tea.

THEATRICAL

The artistic treat of the season was given at the Grand Opera House last night, when Mr. John Griffith and an able supporting cast, presented "Othello." The piece was produced under I.O.O.F. auspices, and the Order is to be commended on the success of the production, both from a dramatic and financial standpoint. The crowd was large and thoroughly appreciative, and several curtain calls were accorded Mr. Griffith and his company. The well known tragedian has favored Peterborough before but last night he was seen to better advantage than on any other occasion of his appearance here. He gave a vivid study of the passionately emotional Moor, and was effective in all the phases of his portrayal. His interpretation was a robust and yet scholarly one.

As the treacherous Iago, Mr. Pedro DeCordoba shared the honors with Mr. Griffith. The part he essayed was a most difficult one and he was strikingly successful in the reading of it. He possesses a graceful and easy presence and was superb in his ennunciation and physical appeal

Miss Edith Totton was excellent as Desdemonda, wife of Othello. and Miss Gertrude Graham did commendable work in the character of Emilia, Iago's wife.

Allen Lebler was splendid as Cassio, lieutenant to the Moor. The scenic effects were attractive and in harmony with the general tone of the presentation.

OBITUARY

JOSEPH AGNEW

The death occurred early this morning at the residence of his mother, Mrs John Agnew, 248 Munro avenue, The deceased had been ill for some time. He was thirty-four years of age. His wife predeceased him only last June.

Besides his mother, one brother and two sisters are left to mourn his loss. The brother is Mr. George Agnew and the sisters are Mrs. Jordan of Brampton and Mrs. Calvert of this city.

The funeral will take place on Saturday at 3.30 o'clock from 248 Munro Ave. to the Little Lake cemetery.

"MAIDA VAILA" GOT LOST IN THE SMOKE

Down the Otonabee River a Few Nights Ago---Local Party on Board

The "Maida Vaila," the handsome pleasure yacht of Mr. Fred. Hickey, Ashburnham, was somewhat delayed in one of her trips a few nights ago. The "Maida Vaila" took a party of local gentlemen down the river to Rice Lake. On returning home the smoke from the forest fires in the vicinity was so dense that they became lost and the first thing they knew they had turned right around and were sailing in the opposite direction.

After considerable manoeuvring they got again into the right channel and reached the city about two o'clock next morning.

If you enjoy a good laugh, you can't afford to miss "Our New Minister" at the Grand to-night. First time ever in Canada.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondents

A WORKING MAN'S VIEWS

Editor of the Review

Sir,—Previous to each election the press devotes considerable space to communications purporting to have been written by workingmen, dealing on the different political issues before the people. As at no other time the same amount of interest is taken in the welfare of the workingman as when the politician wants his votes, I doubt the sincerity of the authors.

If the authors of those communications signed their names instead of parading before the public under the different non de plumes, the workingmen would be in a position to judge whether the articles were written in their interests or merely a snare for the purpose of catching votes. Having read several of those communications and not agreeing with them from my standpoint I wish to call the attention of the workingmen to some of the mistakes of the present government as they appear to me.

We have at the present time a bounty fed from industry, which affords our railroads—who own our government —to buy rails as cheaply at home as in a foreign market, which the people of Canada have to foot the bounty. Why not place a tariff so as to protect the manufacturer and make the railroads pay like other citizens.

While we have had up to a year ago, about eight years of unprecedented activity, we find one of our foremost important industries, the woollen industry, crippled.

The present government lays claim to being a nation builder. In my judgment a poor specimen of a nation who has to send abroad for their clothes which would afford so much work and keep the money at home. We all rejoice when there is a bountiful harvest, as we know there will be plenty for all no matter how we fight over its distribution.

I hear complaints almost daily about the excessive prices which the public has to pay for their tobacco. Previous to the Laurier government tobacco for manufacture came in free, the tax being paid when you sold the manufactured article, cigars or prepared tobaccos. The present government placed a duty of 14 cents on stemmed tobacco, which amounted to more money than the manufacturers paid for the tobacco. The only alternative left for the manufacturer was to cut down the size of the plug. This present year the government made another change. The manufacturer under the present ruling pays 42 cents per pound when he brings the tobacco into the manufacturing room and five cents per pound for revenue stamp, or 47 cents per pound to the government. The cigar manufacturers pay 42 cents on stemmed tobacco and $2.00 per thousand extra for revenue stamps. With the new order of things they also made a change for the deception of the public. Previous to the change, cigars made from foreign tobacco bore a black revenue stamp, foreign and Canadian mixed, a pink stamp, and all Canadian a green stamp. Now they all bear the black stamp of the foreign goods. Under the Conservative government the manufacturer could employ his help more steadily, and in the dull season manufacture stock ahead for the busy season, as he did not pay any revenue until he took the goods out of bond and placed them on the market. Under the present government he has to pay more revenue when he brings his tobacco into the manufacturing room than his pay roll comes to. The government could receive the same revenue by collecting it when goods are placed on the market as they do now, and the workingman have steadier employment.

As I see things at Ottawa there seems to be a tendency to raise duties just high enough to create an enormous revenue from imports. They have placed the duties just where the Canadian manufacturer cannot manufacture at a profit. Revenue is what they want. The national policy of Sir John A. Macdonald, and a protection that protects is what the masses of the people in Canada want.

McKENZIE KING WILL BE DECISIVELY DEFEATED

A Peterborough gentleman has received a letter from a friend in North Waterloo who is in close touch with the political situation in that riding. The letter states that Wm. McKenzie King will be given a decisive beating by Mr. Reid, the Conservative candidate. Part of the letter is as follows:

"Now respecting our Willie (McKenzie King) who was to be the Minister of Labor, we all know Mr. McKenzie King. But as I told his father here a short time ago, it seems to many of us unfortunate that he should set sail on his political career under false colors. Serious charges have been made against the government and have not been denied and with all the clouds of witnesses now comes the Pugsley exposures. We shall soon all be ashamed to own we are Canadians. You have in Stratton one of the worst corrupters. Bury him. Our Willie will get left by a substantial margin, 700 to 500, and it may be more. His opponent is one of the most clever men in Ontario and is gaining daily.

PREPARATIONS BEING MADE

For Formal Opening of Collegiate Institute and Normal School

Extensive preparations are being made for the formal opening of the new Collegiate Institute and Normal School. The event will take place about the middle of November and will be an epoch in the educational history of the city. Peterborough will be honored on the occasion by a visit from the Hon. Dr. Pyne, Minister of Education; Mr. Colquhoun, Superintendent of Education, and other gentlemen prominent in the educational affairs of the province.

MEETING OF DAIRYMEN

Will be held in Peterborough on Afternoon of Nov. 4th.

A meeting of all interested in the dairying industry will be held in the County Council Chamber, Peterborough, on November 4th, at 1.30 o'clock. It is called for the purpose of electing a director to the board of directors of the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association, and to transact other important business. Addresses will be given by prominent dairymen on interesting topics.

All interested in dairying, both ladies and gentlemen, are invited to be present.

POLITICAL NOTES

A despatch from Brockville says: "Positive information has been received here that the Laurier Government intends to use the worst methods of the 'machine' in order to steal a victory from the people, and defraud them of their rights in this riding, the battleground of the Minister of Railways and Canals. The machine end of the party here are in desperate straits, and to save Mr. Graham from defeat desperate measures are to bee mployed. Several political crooks are already on the ground, but are being closely watched. Sufficient is known already to warrant the statement that money will flow like water."

BORDEN IN BRIEF

If we preach purity and practice corruption we shall be worthy of all the scorn that can be poured upon us.

The whole policy of the Government (in the past two years) was to shut off investigation and prevent publicity.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised purity of administration. He has abandoned the public exchequer to the plundering and pilfering of unscrupulous party friends and has permitted the public domain to become the prey of his strongest partizans.

Criminals have been appointed to positions in the public service —men engaged in the most nefarious electoral crimes have been appointed to positions of public trust.

During ten years of Liberal rule the expenditure has been $232,000,000 greater than in ten years of Conservative rule.

I have had the unique satisfaction of seeing the Government of the day forced by public opinion to carry into effect a very substantial portion of the policy which I advocated a year ago.

Seventy-five members of Parliament have been appointed to positions of emolument or to the Senate.

The avowed policy of the Liberal party has been outraged and falsified in the most astonishing manner by the present administration.

What great public undertaking has the Government not bungled!

SPORTING NEWS

LINDSAY AND THE Y.M.C.A. MEET HERE ON SATURDAY IN JUNIOR O.R.F.U. MATCH

The opening O.R.F.U. game of the season will be played at Riverside Park on Saturday afternoon when the Y.M.C.A. seniors and Lindsay come together in a junior O.R.F.U. championship game. The match was to have been played in Lindsay, but the Scugog aggregation consented to have the game here. The Y.M.C.A. men are practicing hard for the match as the Lindsay team proved to be surprisingly strong in the game against the T.A.S.A.C. in Lindsay on Tuesday. The score was 27-0 and the Lindsay outfit played with the system and aggressiveness of veterans. Despite the fact that rugby is new to the hamlet west of us it is represented by a splendid team. The game on Saturday is called for three o'clock. The "Y" will have on a formidable lineup.

After the match P.C.I. and Rough Riders will meet in a city league game. The other city league fixture Y.M.C.A. vs. Rough Riders, will be played at Nicholls Oval.

THE BOXING AND WRESTLING CLASSES AT THE Y.M.C.A.

The boxing classes at the YMCA, are being well patronized and Mr. Chris. Graham has a goodly sized number of young sparrers who are receiving lessons from him in the classes. The first one was held on Tuesday night and the attendance was very encouraging.

The wrestling classes also promise to be most successful and the instructor, Mr. Collings, has a wide knowledge of the mat game and is a splendid instructor.

Amateur wrestling and boxing are among the highest forms of indoor sport and as means of giving physical development are unexcelled. They will form an important part of the YMCA's physical work this winter.

It has been announced in the press that the classes will be held at 8 o'clock in the evening whereas they are conducted from 7 to 8 in the evenings on which they will be conducted. Two classes in both boxing and wrestling will be held each week as follows:

Boxing—
Tuesday and Thursday.
Wrestling—
Monday and Friday.

HOW PETERBOROUGH CAME TO BE THE PLACE CHOSEN

Charles Hackenschmidt, more popularly known as Young Hackenschmidt in the wrestling world, is decidedly a wrestler of the modern school. He is one of the brainiest heavyweights in the business and depends on his headwork as much as his physical strength with which by the way he is abnormally endowed to win him his matches. Hack is no Graeco Roman man and cares little for that game. He has a natural speed about him that makes the Oriental game altogether too unattractive for him. He prefers the catch as catch can style and although he could make most of the Graeco Roman champions look cheap either at their own style or catch as catch can its the latter game for his on every occasion.

Like Rogers he wrestles from his toes to his chin and his leg work is considered fully as good as that of the celebrated Yankee's.

The circumstances in connection with the arranging of the match for Peterborough are rather interesting. Rogers, who has a high opinion of the Peterborough fans suggested this city as soon as the match was made.

"Peterborough," said Hackenschmidt, "where's that."

"That's what I said once," replied Rogers, "but I have since found it to be the best sporting town in Canada."

Hackenschmidt thought that Rogers was only jesting but both the big grappler and his manager assured him that what they said was right and Hack finally consented.

WALKING

Tom Harrison has commenced active training for his handicap match with Hoagland on Thanksgiving Day. The champion is to give him a mile's start in a nine-hour walk, and from the improvement that Harrison has made since the last grind he walked in, he should give Hoagland a hard argument.

THE RING

Billy Neail, the man who brought Tommy Burns to London, and who had to leave the champion and return to the hot climate of Southern California, is dying. Neail sold out his business in Oakland, Cal., and went into the lowlands with the one idea of regaining his health. A report from Monrovia, where he is quartered, states that he can't possibly last more than a month. Burns thought a great deal of his manager, and expected him to take the trip to Australia to handle the business of the Johnson fight. Johnson is due at Sydney November 1st. The "battle" will take place at Rushcutter's Bay, near Sydney.

Nicholas Robson, one of the oldest residents of Clinton, is dead, aged 74.

BOTH TEAMS WILL BE STRONGER

Locals Will Make Great Effort to Defeat T.A.A.C. Here a Week From Saturday

There was a good turnout at the rugby practice last night. The locals intend to get into the best of condition for their senior O.R.F.U. game with T.A.A.C. a week from Saturday. The line-up will be considerably strengthened for the match and both teams will in fact, be much stronger than they were when they met last Saturday.

Peterborough had a heavy score registered against them in the last match and will try to get even with the husky Queen City bunch by defeating them here.

KAISER WANTS TO MEET BEALL

The Latter Wrestling Again—Kaiser's Challenge in Hamilton

Frank Beell, the light heavyweight champion wrestler of the world, has appeared in Minneapolis, and they do say is going stronger than ever. It is very likely that Kaiser, who threw Hurtubise so easily Saturday night, will have plenty of opportunity of meeting Beell before long. Kaiser threw down a pretty flat challenge after his go with the Peterborough man, and said that he was willing to meet any 612 pounder in the world, Beell or Bartl preferred. A go with the former would draw an immense crowd here, as Kaiser, on his showing last week should put up a good battle. Speaking of Bartl, Kaiser said that the old opponent of Conkle's would never go on the mat again, as he was a physical wreck, being laid up with a badly injured spine and head. And, in addition, Bartl is down and out financially, having lost all his money through the delightful work of his old manager, who has succeeded in getting most of the coin floating around.—Hamilton Spectator.

RUGBY

There will be a practise of the senior Y. M. C. A. Rugby Team to-night at the Y. M. C. A. at 7.15p.m. Every man is asked to be on hand. The juniors will practice to-morrow night at the same hour.

HOCKEY

A new hockey club was organized in Toronto last night and will enter teams in the OHA senior and junior series this winter. The name Victorias was adopted. A strong senior seven will be placed on the ice and a good junior team is assured. The object of organizing this club was to hold together the "graduates" from the champion Varsity teams of 1907-8 which include Herb Clarke, "Chad" Toms, "Beulah" Davidson and other fast puck chasers. A number of well known players from various city clubs have expressed their intention of turning out with the new club.

The officers:
Hon. Pres., Dr O K. Clarke.
Hon Vice Pres., Dr W B Hendry.
Pres., Bob Moody.
Vice-Pres., Ross McKinnon.
Sec.-Treas., Herb Clarke.
Manager, Tommy Hay.
Captain, "Beulah" Davidson.
Executive committee, Chad Toms, "Beulah" Davidson, Fred Toms, Herb Clarke.

RUNNING

Buffalo, Oct. 21.—Alfred Shrubb, the English world's running champion, wants a distance in his Buffalo match against three men on Oct. 25th at Kenilworth in order to show himself at his best to the public, which has never seen him in action. Shrubb wrote to Buffalo yesterday from Cambridge, where he is busy with the Harvard athletes, that he would prefer six miles against the three men to race against him in Buffalo, and it is rather expected that five miles will be the compromise. In any event, the champion is apt to find himself pretty busy covering the distance against the men selected, for he will be confronted by three good runners. Bill Davis, the Canadian Indian, who will be one of the trio, is a former manager of Tom Longboat, and is said to be one of the best red men who ever appeared on the track. The other men for the team will be well known, and when their names are announced it will be appreciated that Shrubb will have to run close to record if he wins the relay.

Shrubb has always been anxious to show in Buffalo or somewhere near the place in which Longboat is well known, for he has always been eager to race the Indian at any distance.

Manager Jordan had his team of all-Buffalo football players out at The Front last evening practising for the game with all-Lockport, which will be run in conjunction with the match race, and the track management is busy arranging the quoit match in which it is expected the famous John L. Sullivan Club of the south side will find a worthy focal foe.

Pitcher Elopes

Detroit, Oct. 21— Eddie Willett, one of the colt pitchers for the Detroit Tigers, eloped to Windsor last Saturday with Miss Emma Jenereaux, of Hull, and was married to her at the home of Rev. Thomas Manning. Willett's wedding just leaked out as he went to Chicago with the Detroit team Saturday night and yesterday took part in the exhibition game between the Tigers and the Cubs. Mrs. Willett's parents objected to her marrying a baseball player and they came to Detroit to prevent her marriage, causing Willett and the girl to elope.

LINDSAY WARDER ON THE LINDSAY T.A.S.A.C. GAME

The Peterborough TAS. sent a rugby team down here yesterday to play the Lindsay junior ORFU outfit. The visitors gained little glory and went home with a 27-0 defeat rankling beneath their jackets.

The visitors were a heavier outfit than the locals but they had not the speed and their line failed to give the back division a chance, the locals plunging through time and again.

The score at the end of the first quarter was 0-0, the second, 6-0, the third 14-0 and the fourth 27-0. The locals scored as follows:

33 trys, converted 18
1 try unconverted 5
4 rouges 4
27

To the credit of the Lindsay sporting public it may be said that there were not enough spectators present to keep themselves warm. Peterborough brought up a few supporters and the yelled with all the strength of healthy lungs for their team, that is during the first quarter. After that they built a bonfire of their lost hopes and thus kept themselves from freezing.

The visitors went into the game buoyed up with the knowledge that the locals are new at the game and for the most part novices. Manager McHugh's bunch have proved themselves adapt at picking up the rudiments of the sport and although lacking polish in their style, and are a trifle crude in the efforts to tackle are willing and eager to get in where the fray is the thickest.

Repeated offside playing was a particularly bad habit the visitors had, and time and time again were called for this. Even when their captain formed the wings into a V shape, the men would creep up and stick their to s of their nasal organs ahead of the ball.

The all-round playing of Killen and Cotton and Cotton's kicking were features. "Duckey" never failed to convert a try and Killen was the real thing at quarter. He intercepted passes and got the ball away from the enemy time and again and figured in several clever plays.

Peterborough had a big husky half back Fitzpatrick, who was always dangerous and a hard man to stop Quinlan was also good and Dennard is a clever centre. The visitors wing were a little too much on the light side for their scrimmage.

The first quarter ended with little advantage being had by either team. Lindsay's speed on the line prevented the heavy Peterborough backs from gaining much ground. Peterborough gained the toss and kicked downhill with the wind. The second quarter commenced with the Lindsay boys working over time and their efforts were rewarded. Joe Killen intercepted a pass within ten yards of the Peterborough citadel and the locals bucked Byron Green over for a try which Green failed to convert. Shortly after Cotton narrowly missed the goal from a drop kick from the field a rouge being scored. The half ended 6-0 with the locals in possession of the ball within fifteen yards of the enemy's sanctuary.

The visitors came on the field determined to redeem themselves the second half. They were kicking downhill and with the wind but the homesters worked the ball up the field by a series of bucks and end runs and Nesbitt picked the pigskin out of a scrimmage and went over for a try which Cotton converted beautifully. The third quarter ended after another rouge had been scored. Conway by a magnificent winding sprint, got through the Peterborough defence and added another five points to the score, Cotton capping the try nicely by kicking the ball between the goal posts. McQuorre who had been working like a fiend neatly wormed through the Peterborough line and stole the ball going over the Peterborough goal line again, Cotton once more to the delight of the spectators putting the finishing touches on, and converting the try. A couple of rouges completed the sad story.—Lindsay Warder.

DISCARDED.

From home I sent you just a week ago,
Not that my love for you was growing less,
But that it grieved and saddened me to know
How quickly time could mar your loveliness.
And, though to let you leave me I was loath,
A change, thought I, might benefit us both.

When first your dazzling beauty caught my eye
You were indifferent to the staring crowd
And quite unconscious of the fact that I
To make you mine impulsively had vowed,
For all things have their price and may be bought,
And you had yours, though somewhat high, methought.

And now, all torn and tattered, you've come back,
Your color faded, and your looks forlorn,
And all in one short week—alas, alack!
A costlier shirt than you I've never worn.
But what avails this fretting and this fuss?
The laundries always treat one's linen thus.

Sensible as I am of my own unworthiness, realizing to the full the presumption of which I am guilty in daring to aspire to your hand, I have no excuse, no palliation, save that with the deathless, inextinguishable devotion of a heart never before touched by the sacred fire, I love"—

"Oh, Arthur," yawned the beautiful maiden, "why will you persist in making those utterly useless noises!"—Chicago Tribune.

Huntsville residents had to stay indoors yesterday because of the heavy smoke.

Rastus on Trial.

Rastus was on trial for the theft of a turkey and took the stand on his own behalf.

"I didn't steal no turkey, squar. I stoled a rail."

"Well, Rastus, how did those bones get in your back yard?"

"They done come dar without my permishun, an' I ain't 'sponsible. You see, squar, I wuz needin' firewood, so I took de rail an' toted it home, an' der wuz a turkey on it, a great big fellah. Well, sah, what's on my lan's mine, an' I didn't give 'im no time to run off neither, squar."

The squire deliberated a few seconds. Then he said, "Case dismissed."—Harper's Weekly.

An Important Item.

Mr. Splurge—If it hadn't been for your extravagant vacation this summer we wouldn't be so deep in debt now.

Mrs. Splurge—Never mind, dear. I'll go to the mountains instead of the seashore next summer.

Mr. Splurge—Huh! You think that will be more economical?

Mrs. Splurge—Of course. I won't need a new bathing suit then.—Catholic Standard and Times.

An Inevitable Waste.

"I gave you twopence, and you went immediately into a public house," remarked the benevolent old gentleman. "Don't you know it is very wasteful to spend your money on drink?"

"I've often thought of that, sir," replied the weary wayfarer, "but I've never yet found a place where I could get it for nothing."—Pearson's Weekly.

Rash Compliments.

"I'm in a difficulty over my girl."

"What's wrong?"

"I've been saying such nice things to her that she's getting conceited. If I quit she'll think I don't care for her any longer, and if I go on she'll think she's too good for me."—Puck.

The Ways of Girls.

Pearl—I shall never speak to him again.

Ruby—You mean it?

Pearl—I certainly do. Just wait until I see him, and I shall tell him so too.—Chicago News.

A Loud Food.

Mrs. Howard—The walls of your apartment are very thin, aren't they?

Mrs. Coward—Oh, very! We could actually hear our neighbors having celery for dinner last night.—Judge.

THE MYSTERY

By STEWART EDWARD WHITE
And SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS

COPYRIGHT, 1907, BY McCLURE, PHILLIPS & CO.

"Can't give any account of himself yet," said the surgeon. "Weak and not rightly conscious."

"What ails him?"

"Enough. Gash in his scalp. Fever. Thirst and exhaustion. Nervous shock, too, I think."

"How came he aboard the Laughing Lass? Does he know anything of Billy? Was he a stowaway? Did you ask him about Ives and McGuire? How came he in the small boat? Where are the rest?"

"Now, now," said the veteran chidingly. "How can I tell? Would you have me kill the man with questions?"

He left them to look at the body of the bo's'n's mate. Not a word had he to say when he returned. Only the captain got anything out of him but growling and unintelligible expressions, which seemed to be objurgatory and to express bewildered cogitation.

"How long had poor Timmins been drowned?" the captain had asked him, and Trendon replied:

"Captain Parkinson, the man wasn't drowned. No water in his lungs."

"Not drowned! Then how came he by his death?"

"If I were to diagnose it under any other conditions I should say that he had inhaled flames."

Then the two men stared at each other in blank impotency. Meantime the scarecrow was showing signs of returning consciousness, and a message was dispatched for the physician. On his way he met Barnett, who asked and received permission to accompany him. The stranger was tossing restlessly in his bunk, opening and shutting his parched mouth in silent, piteous appeal for the water that must still be doled to him parsimoniously.

"Take it yourself, if you like," said Trendon.

"I think I'll try him with a little brandy," said Trendon and sent for the liquor.

Barnett raised the patient while the surgeon held the glass to his lips. The man's hand rose, wavered and clasped the glass.

"All right, my friend. Take it yourself, if you like," said Trendon.

The fingers closed. Tremulously held, the little glass tilted and rattled against the teeth. There was one deep, eager spasm of swallowing. Then the fevered eyes opened upon the face of the Wolverine's first officer.

"Prosit, Barnett," said the man in a voice like the rasp of rusty metal.

The navy man straightened up as from a blow under the jaw.

"Be careful what you are about," warned Trendon, addressing his superior officer sharply, for Barnett had all but let his charge drop. His face was a puckered mask of amaze and incredulity.

"Did you hear him speak my name—or am I dreaming?" he half whispered.

"Heard him plain enough. Who is he?"

The man's mouth closed, but he smiled a little—a singular, wry mouthed, winning smile. With that there sprung from behind the brush of beard, filling out the deep lines of emaciation, a memory to the recognition of Barnett—a keen and gay countenance that whisked him back across seven years time to the days of Dewey and the Philippines.

"Ralph Slade, by the Lord!" he exclaimed.

"Of the Laughing Lass?" cried Trendon.

"Of the Laughing Lass."

Such a fury of eagerness burned in the face of Barnett that Trendon cautioned him. "See here, Mr. Barnett, you're not going to fire a broadside of disturbing questions at my patient yet awhile. He's in no condition."

But it was from the other that the questions came. Opening his eyes he whispered: "The sailor? Where?"

"Dead," said Trendon bluntly. Then, breaking his own rule of repression, he asked:

"Did he come off the schooner with you?"

"Picked him up," was the straining answer. "Drifting."

The survivor looked around him, then into Barnett's face, and his mind, too, traversed the years.

"North Dakota?" he queried.

"No. I've changed my ship," said Barnett. "This is the Wolverine."

"Where's the Laughing Lass?"

Barnett shook his head.

"Tell me," begged Slade.

"Wait till you're stronger," admonished Trendon.

"Can't wait," said the weak voice. The eyes grew wild.

"Mr. Barnett, tell him the bare outline and make it short," said the surgeon.

"We sighted the Laughing Lass two days ago. She was in good shape, but deserted—that is, we thought she was deserted."

The man nodded eagerly.

"I suppose you were aboard," said Barnett, and Trendon made a quick gesture of impatience and rebuke.

"No," said Slade. "Left three—four—don't know how many nights ago."

The officers looked at each other. "Go on," said Trendon to his companion.

"We put a crew aboard in command of an ensign," continued Barnett, "and picked up the schooner the next night, deserted. You must know about it. Where is Billy Edwards?"

"Never heard of him," whispered the other.

"Ives and McGuire, then. They were there after— Great God, man!" he cried, his agitation breaking out. "Pull yourself together! Give us something to go on."

"Mr. Barnett," said the surgeon peremptorily.

But the suggestion was working in the sick man's brain. He turned to the officers a face of horror.

"Your man, Edwards—the crew—they left her? In the night?"

"What does he mean?" cried Barnett.

"The light! You saw it?"

"Yes. We saw a strange light," answered Trendon soothingly. Slade half rose. "Lost! All lost!" he cried and fell back unconscious. Trendon exploded into curses. "See what you've done to my patient," he fumed. Barnett looked at him with contrite eyes.

"Better get out before he comes to," growled the surgeon. "Nice way to treat a man half dead of exhaustion."

It was nearly an hour before Slade came back to the world again. The doctor forbade him to attempt speech. But of one thing he would not be denied. There was a struggle for utterance, then:

"The volcano?" he rasped out.

"Dead ahead," was the reply.

"Stand by!" gasped Slade. He strove to rise, to say something further, but endurance had reached its limit. The man was utterly done.

Dr. Trendon went on deck, his head sunk between his shoulders. For a minute he was in earnest talk with the captain. Presently the Wolverine's engines slowed down and she lay head to the waves, with just enough turn of the screw to hold her against the seaway.

CHAPTER VII.

By the following afternoon Dr. Trendon reported his patient as quite recovered.

"Starved for water," proffered the surgeon. "Tissues fairly dried out. Soaked him up. Fed him broth. Put him to sleep. He's all right. Just wakes up to eat. Then off again like a two-year-old. Wonderful constitution."

"The gentleman wants to know if he can come on deck, sir," saluted an orderly.

"Waked up, eh? Come on, Barnett. Help me boost him on deck."

The two officers disappeared to return in a moment arm in arm with Ralph Slade.

Nearly twenty-four hours' rest and skillful treatment had done wonders. He was still a trifle weak and uncertain, was still a little glad to lean on the arms of his companions, but his eye was bright and alert and his hollow cheeks mounted a slight color. This, with the clothes lent him by Barnett, transformed his appearance and led Captain Parkinson to congratulate himself that he had not obeyed his first impulse to send the castaway forward with the men.

The officers pressed forward.

"Mighty glad to see you out." "Hope you've got your pins under you again." "Old man, I'm mighty glad we came along."

The chorus of greeting was hearty enough, but the journalist barely paid the courtesy of acknowledgment. His eye swept the horizon eagerly until it rested on the cloud of volcanic smoke billowing up across the setting sun. A sigh of relief escaped him.

"Where are we?" he asked Barnett. "I mean since you picked me up. How long ago was that anyway?"

"Yesterday," replied the navigating officer. "We've stood off and on looking for some of our men."

"Then that's the same volcano"—

Barnett laughed softly. "Well, they aren't quite holding a caucus of volcanoes down in this country. One like that is enough."

But Slade brushed the remark aside. "Head for it!" he cried excitedly. "We may be in time! There's a man on that island!"

"A man!" "Another!" "Not Billy Edwards?" "Not some of our boys?"

Slade stared at them bewildered.

"Hold on," interposed Dr. Trendon authoritatively. "What's his name?" he inquired of the journalist.

"Darrow," replied the latter. "Percy Darrow. Do you know him?"

"Who in Kamchatka is Percy Darrow?" demanded Forsythe.

"Why, he's the assistant. It's a long story"—

"Of course it's a long story. There's a lot we want to know," interrupted Captain Parkinson. "Quartermaster, head for the volcano yonder. Mr. Slade, we want to know where you came from, and why you left the schooner and who Percy Darrow is. And there's dinner, so we'll adjourn to the messroom and hear what you can tell us. But there's one thing we're all anxious to know—how came you in the dory which we found and left on the Laughing Lass later than two days ago?"

"I haven't set eyes on the Laughing Lass for—well, I don't know how long, but it's five days anyway, perhaps more," replied Slade.

They stared at him incredulously.

"Oh, I see!" he burst out suddenly. "There were twin dories on the schooner. The other one's still there, I suppose. Did you find her on the stern davits?"

"Yes."

"That's it, then. You see, when I left"—

Captain Parkinson's raised hand checked him. "If you will be so good, Mr. Slade, let us have it all at once, after mess."

At table the young officers at a sharp hint from Dr. Trendon conversed on indifferent subjects until the journalist had partaken heartily of what the physician allowed him. Slade ate with keen appreciation.

"I tell you, that's good," he sighed, when he had finished. "Real, live, after dinner coffee too. Why, gentlemen, I haven't eaten a civilized meal, with all the trimmings, for over two years. Doctor, do you think a little of the real stuff would hurt me? It's a pretty dry yarning."

"One glass," growled the surgeon, "no more."

"Scotch highball, then," voted Slade, "the higher the better."

The steward braught a tall glass with ice, in which the newcomer mixed his drink. Then for quite a minute he sat silent, staring at the table, his fingers aimlessly rubbing into spots of wetness the water beads as they gathered on the outside of his glass. Suddenly he looked up.

"I don't know how to begin," he confessed. "It's too confounded improbable. I hardly believe it myself, now that I'm sitting here in human clothes, surrounded by human beings. Old Scrubbs and the nigger and Handy Solomon and the professor and the chest and the—well, they were real enough when I was caught in the mess. But I warn you you are not going to believe me, and hanged if I blame you a bit."

"We've seen marvels ourselves in the last few days," encouraged Captain Parkinson.

"Fire ahead, man," advised Barnett impatiently. "Just begin at the beginning and let it go at that."

Slade sipped at his glass reflectively.

"Well," said he at length, "the best way to begin is to show you how I happened to be mixed up in it at all."

The officers unconsciously relaxed into attitudes of greater ease. Overhead the lamps swayed gently to the swell. The dull throb of the screw pulsated. Stewards clad in white moved noiselessly, filling the glasses, deferentially striking lights for the smokers, clearing away the last dishes of the repast.

"I'm a reporter by choice and a detective by instinct," began Slade, with startling abruptness. "Furthermore, I'm pretty well off. I'm what they call a free lance, for I have no regular desk on any of the journals. I generally turn my stuff in to the Star because they treat me well. In return it is pretty well understood between us that I'm to use my judgment in regard to 'stories' and that they'll stand back of me for expenses. You see, I've been with them quite awhile."

He looked around the circle as though in appeal to the comprehension of his audience. Some of the men nodded. Others sipped from their glasses or drew at their cigars.

To Be Continued.

THROW AWAY ALL YOUR FEARS

Backache, Gravel and Rheumatism Vanish Before Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Proved Once Again in the Case of Mrs. Fred Krieger, Who Suffered From the Worst Forms of Kidney Disease.

Palmer Rapids, Ont, October 12—Special—The thousands of Canadians who live in daily terror of those terrible forms of Kidney Disease known as backache, gravel and rheumatism, will be deeply interested in the story of Mrs. Fred Kreiger of this place.

"I was for years a sufferer from Kidney Disease, gravel, rheumatism and backache," Mrs. Krieger states. "It all started through a cold but I got so my head ached, I was nervous, my limbs were heavy, I had a dragging sensation across my loins, and I was totally unfit to do anything.

"Reading about wonderful cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills led me to buy some. After using a few I found they were doing me good and this encouraged me to continue their use. Eight boxes made me well.

"I have been able to do my own work ever since and today I am completely cured. Dodd's Kidney Pills gave me health and I feel like a new woman."

If you keep your Kidneys strong and healthy you can never have backache, rheumatism, or gravel. Dodd's Kidney Pills never fail to make the Kidneys strong and well.

DOMINION ELECTIONS

To the Electors of the West Riding of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN:—The condition of industry in Canada is bad. The condition of workingmen is following suit. Their beautiful homes are becoming the prey of reduced circumstances. To the extent that we pay out money to other countries for work that should be done here we are traitors to our workingmen. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has brought this about to such a degree that Canada has paid out in the last twelve years (being the term during which the Liberals have been in power) hundreds of millions of dollars more than she took in. It was not so under a protectionist government. Those millions should have been spent at home. Then there would have been work for our workers to that extent at any rate, and what is more, the money would have been kept in the country. As it is we have to borrow to get it back. We have to borrow for gigantic enterprises which serve to make the big money-lender, the stock gambler and the contractor rich, but what good is it doing the workingman? To add insult to his injury Sir Wilfrid Laurier has opened the gates on the East and the West to immigrants. Those on the East, our own kith and kin, have been misled by misrepresentatation and entrapped by agents who are paid a bonus for their capture. Those on the West are the untold millions of the Orient who are displacing the whites in B.C. are working East and are dispossessing Canadians of their own country. They lower the rate of wages and the standard of living. If Canada is to be kept up as she was but a few years ago she must not be allowed to fall into the class of "cheap and nasty" nations. If her people are to be well housed, well fed, well educated and above the condition of sweaters, they must demand a tariff against sweatwork, against undue immigration, against undue importation and a high protection for employers and employed alike, against the trickery of men who make their money on the stock market and by graft. The workers are slowly but surely becoming poorer than they used to be in this naturally rich and resourceful country. Why? Because the cream of all work goes to the money-lender of New York and London.

Why are the men of Canada idle? Because others will do the work cheaper in Britain and Germany and we let them invade our markets while they keep us out of theirs. The German tariff, the United States tariff, the French tariff are all vastly higher than ours. Britain protects herself where she needs it, by a Cattle Embargo and by the Patents Act, which requires patented articles (and nearly all are patented) to be manufactured there. There is never depression in France. The French have a high tariff and economize. They have always plenty for a rainy day. The Germans likewise keep their own work in their own country, but are weighed down with militarism Britain suffers because her work is being done elsewhere, although she is changing that rapidly, but she has an immense start over Canada in her already accumulated capital. The United States is the modern wonder of the world, due altogether to high protection. Protection or tariff has been well said to be the measure of the standard of life amongst the workers. Commodities in protected countries are not higher than in unprotected. Clothing under a low tariff in Canada is higher in price than it used to be under a high tariff. Certain ills due to over-expansion, the machinations of stockgamblers, etc., exist in all countries, but when an ill is plainly preventable, why not prevent it? Sending cash out of the country over and above what we take in will never make us rich. Yet we do it and must do it under our present system of trade Opening up unnecessary lands as in the West, while Ontario is not half populated or developed is of a piece with rest, but it is the delight of the money-lender. Ontario farms are rapidly decreasing in value. A huge national deficit is accumulating for this year and unless times are checked and we are restored to our own, the coming winter will be a veritable horror. The money that we are borrowing in such immense sums if spent for supplies, made in Canada, would mean work for everyone at good wages. Why then does Sir Wilfrid permit rails for the G. T. P. to be bought out of Canada and clothing that would keep our farmers growing wool and our woollen mills weaving it, to be imported without hindrance?

To say that one government is as bad as another is to say that one man or one set of men is no better as managers than another. We know this to be the reverse of correct in government, in trade, in railways or in anything else. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, although the Conservative administration, as it proved, was falling to pieces, could never have got into power had he not agreed to "let the tariff alone." This pledge he contrived to evade on the ground that while the U. S., Germany, etc., were prosperous under a protective tariff, he could make Canada a brilliant and enduring exception under a low tariff and a preference. Now he is compelled to fall back on the statement that depression is worldwide and that therefore Canada must share it.

Then the boast of great enterprises! Vast sums of money have been borrowed and spent but who has got the benefit of it? Who has been made rich? Where has it gone The charge we make against the administration of Sir Wilfred Laurier is that it is in the grasp of the great money-lenders. It has ceased to represent the people. Is it any wonder men lose faith in the forms of government? Without any government at all there would be a happier people. If the times are not rescued, whether it be by a party or by a people, civilization will be destroyed. The thunder of revolt is already heard. Religion, art, education—all will go with the frenzied efforts of men to get out of the grasp of Money which never loses, never shares its needs, into a state of freedom and a natural fruition of honest work and a resourceful soil.

I am not rich, nor am I able to live without working, as has been said, and I never was. The stock exchange where so many have won fabulous riches at the expense of the steady worker underneath is unknown to me. If I have no money to lose I have none to be ashamed of.

The day of the abject party man is gone. Let humanity have a chance.

I solicit your vote and influence and have the honour to remain,

Yours faithfully,

J. H. BURNHAM

THE HOOK

Among the Australian natives it is compulsory that every girl should marry. The men there have more than their share of trouble.

Sympathy in the abstract makes no impression on a man with an empty stomach.

People don't talk much of your opinion unless you happen to think as they do.

One of the worst things about being single is that you are always in danger of being married.

A doctor practices on his own patients, but an amateur musician practices on the patience of others.

You'll never catch on if you don't try; and after catching on, don't be afraid to let go if necessary.

Thomas Smith, a mining engineer, of Havelock, was killed at Cobalt.

POLITICAL NOTES.

There are more heelers and fly-by-nights in the West Riding of Peterborough at the present time twice over than ever before.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has told the people that he is no business man. It was apparent before he admitted it. While the grafter and hangers-on have been busy his soul has been soaring. And the kindest thing the electors of Canada can do for him and for themselves on Monday next is to perforate his Reform balloon and let the Premier's soul accompanied by his government drop from the heights into the night shades of opposition.—Hamilton Spectator.

The Cobourg Sentinel-Star says: East Northumberland electors are taking a lively interest in the federal campaign in this district. The Conservative candidate, is C. L. Owens, of Campbellford who was elected by a substantial majority about two years ago in a bye election caused by the death of the late Edward Cochrane, M.P. who represented the constituency for many years. It is probable that Mr. Owens will be re-elected as many of the electors feel that he deserved another term at their hands.

Electors!

Remember there is no numbered ballot this election. It is secret. Your vote cannot be traced, as it could when the numbered ballot was used. You can vote as you wish and not be called to account afterwards. Remember this! A Secret Ballot.

Fair to-day, with higher temperature; showers to-night and Friday.

WILL SPEAK FOR CHEESE FACTORIES

Towards End of November or First of December--Messrs. Barr and Whitley

Towards the end of November or first of December Messrs. Barr and Whitley of the dairy department, Ottawa will speak at meetings in this district for the benefit of the cheese factories.

Ald. George A. Gillespie has been in communication with Mr J. A. Ruddick, head of the dairy division and brought the matter up at this morning's meeting of the cheese board.

Don't forget the Sewing Class at the Y.W.C.A. to-night. Bring your own work. Only 10c a lesson.

THE ONLY WAY IT CAN BE DONE

His political exploits always kept Hon. G. W. Ross' personality to the fore, extolled his personal virtue and integrity and endeavored to create in the public mind the conviction that none but Mr. Ross could properly administer the affairs of the province of Ontario. People stood for it for a time but finally called the political bluff. That is exactly what is happening in the case of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He is a gentleman of unblemished personal integrity and high character; but he is seeking to retain power as premier of Canada by taking advantage of the most unscrupulous methods of an administration without a conscience, without a principle, and without a sense of honesty. The Toronto Globe adjured Hon. G. W. Ross to "scrape off the barnacles". There is only one way in which an honest, high minded statesman can get rid of the political parasites and grafting supporters, and this is the only way in which the people of Canada can fumigate the Laurier government. The name and fame of Laurier has simply become a stalking horse behind which a gang of crooks, grafters, and looters of the nation's resources make their attacks upon the public treasury.

There are some good seats left yet for the big production at the "Grand" to-night. "Our New Minister"

"Native Born"

This is one of Mrs. Jean Blewett's most interesting poems, and one that has been chosen by the Board of Education, Guild Hall, London, England, to represent Canada in the new literature for use in the High Schools and Universities in Great Britain. Hear it at Charlotte Street Church on October 30th. Admission 25 cents.

COTTAGE MEETING

Rev. Dr. Langfeldt will hold the weekly cottage meeting on Thursday, Oct. 29th at the residence of Mr. E. Kemp, Douro.

Accuracy Quality and Price

Are three prime considerations in eye glasses. In price we please our patrons, and this is an important factor in our increase of business. We supply glasses from one dollar up, according to requirement of the eyes And all our kinds of lenses, qualities of frames are of unsurpassed value. In quality of material, style, workmanship we speak with confidence of the eye glasses and spectacles, which we are daily supplying. Accuracy in focal powers best suited to the special requirements of each individual eye, is of course, of first importance, each case receives our undivided attention. In Accuracy, Quality and Price we are pleasing our patrons.

PROSPECTS ARE THE BRIGHTEST

In 1904 Ontario gave the Conservatives 10 majority; Quebec gave Sir Wilfrid 43. Since that the Whitney government in Ontario has been elected twice, the last time with a majority of 68. The Liberal machine in Ontario is disorganized and shattered. The Liberal machine in Quebec is handicapped by internal dissensions, among the leaders and seriously threatened by a flank attack of the Bourassa, independent young vote. In this situation alone, there is the possibility of disaster for the Laurier government. In 1904 New Brunswick, Manitoba and British Columbia gave the Liberals a total majority of 14 from these provinces in the house of commons. Those three provinces are now strongly Conservative and there is every probability that the result will be more than a reversion. In 1904 Nova Scotia voted solidly Liberal, giving the government 18 seats. The latest information from that province indicates a turn over next Monday similar to that which has taken place in New Brunswick and Ontario.

TO THE YOUNG MEN OF CANADA

—o—

"To them I promise a cabinet worthy of their highest ideals, and truly representative of this great country which I shall serve."—R. L. BORDEN.

THE MAN TO WATCH;

When, to use a detestable phrase, you go out into the battle of life you will be confronted by an organized conspiracy which will try to make you believe that the world is governed by the idea of wealth for wealth's sake, and that all means which lead to the acquisition of that wealth, are, if not laudable, at least expedient...... You will live and move and have your being in a world dominated by that thought. Some of you will probably succumb to the poison of it.

Now, I do not ask you not to be carried away by the first rush of the great game of life. That is expecting you to be more than human. But I do ask you, after the first heat of the game, that you draw your breath and watch your fellows for a while.

Sooner or later you will see some man to whom the idea of wealth as mere wealth does not appeal, whom the methods of amassing that wealth do not interest, and who will not accept money if you offer it to him at a certain price. At first you will be inclined to laugh at the man, and to think that he is not smart in his ideas. I suggest that you watch him closely, for he will presently demonstrate to you that money dominates everybody except the man who does not want money. You may meet that man on your farm, in your village or in the Legislature. But be sure that whenever or wherever you meet him, as soon as it comes to a direct issue between you, his little finger will be thicker than your loins. You will go in fear of him. He will not go in fear of you. You will do what he wants: he will not do what you want. You will find that you have no weapon in your armoury with which you can attack him. No argument with which you can appeal to him. Whatever you gain, he will gain more.

I would like you to study that man. I would like you better to be that man, because from the lower point of view it doesn't pay to be obsessed by the desire of wealth for wealth's sake. If more wealth is necessary to you, for purposes not our own, use your left hand to acquire it, but keep your right for your proper work in life. If you employ both arms in that game you will be in danger of stooping; in danger also of losing your soul But in spite of everything you may succeed, you may be successful, you may acquire enormous wealth. In which case I warn you that you stand in grave danger of being spoken and written of and pointed out as a smart man, and that is one of the most terrible calamities that can overtake a sane, civilized white man to-day.

The Commissioners and Mr. Stratton---"Having regard to all the circumstances your Commissioners are compelled to conclude that what really took place between Stratton and Pattison was that the former demanded and the latter conceded a share, to the extent of $10,000, in the moneys which were being paid to the latter and charged to the Home Life." BETTER NEWS SERVICE FROM OLD COUNTRY TO CANADA

Alfred Harmsworth in Toronto.

Famous British Publisher Gives an Interview---Talks Interestingly.

Toronto, Oct. 23.—Lord Northcliffe, principal proprietor of The London Times and Daily Mail, and head of the leading magazine proprietary of England, arrived in Toronto yesterday afternoon. He is staying at the King Edward and will remain until after the elections on Monday, the result of which interests him, in common, he declares, with the whole British nation.

He is also concerned about a very bright and patriotic idea in the newspaper field.

Lord Northcliffe thinks that a daily summary of The London Times, which is quite non-partisan in its news, would furnish an ideal supply to Canada. The cost could be distributed among the subscribing papers, and there would be no profits accruing to anyone. The five hours' difference in time would give ample opportunity to prepare a thoroughly good precis, and this being done by a capable Canadian should appeal to Canadian readers.

LORD NORTHCLIFFE,
The Young English Napoleon of Journalism.

The cost, North Northcliffe thought, would prevent more than 300 words a day being sent, but he fancied that something might be done with the Marconi service. A column a day, or 1,000 words, was suggested to him as desirable.

Lord Northcliffe talked about the destruction of pulp wood limits by fire and the growing scarcity of paper, and expressed the conviction that smaller newspapers were inevitable. He instanced the eight-page Paris edition of The Daily Mail as showing what could be done in giving all the news in brief a problem to this proprietor of fifty limits. The paper supply was clearly publications.

OFFICIAL REPORT

Made by Hydro-Electric Commission.

Regarding Equipment for Sub-Stations of Power Lines---C. G.E. Co.'s Tender Favorably Considered.

Toronto, Oct. 22—Work will be commenced on the Government power transmission line in the very near future and the contracts for the electrical apparatus for the transformer stations in the province will be let shortly. It is probable that the order for this equipment which will amount to about a million and a half dollars will be divided between the Canadian General Electric Company of Peterborough and the Canadian Westinghouse Company of Hamilton. The following official statement was handed out by the commission yesterday after its meeting;

In response to a general demand by the press and public in the various municipalities interested, the Hydro-Electric Power Commission desires to say that the engineers of the commission have adjusted the details of construction of the transmission line with the contractors, the F. H. McGuigan Construction Company, and the work will be commenced at once.

The tenders for the electrical equipment and apparatus required by the commission have been received, and are being checked as to their technical details by the engineers of the commission. This is something that requires the utmost care, and cannot in fairness to the people, be rushed through in haphazard fashion. Although the actual figures cannot be given at present it may, however, be said they are considerably below the estimates made by the engineers of the commission for this part of the work. The tender of the Canadian General Electric Company, of Peterborough and the tender of the Canadian Westinghouse Company of Hamilton, are, all things considered the most favorable tenders received. As may be readily understood the equipment of these companies are not exactly alike, and in some respects that of one company excels that of the other and vice versa. In view of this fact, and in order by selection to get the very best results it looks at present as though the contract, amounting to over one-half million dollars should be apportioned between these two companies.

FARMERS AT ROUND LAKE FIGHTING HARD TO KEEP FIRE FROM THEIR HOMES

Use Fire to Fight Fire---Fences Torn Down to Stop Spread of Flames---Water Famine at Havelock.

Special to the Review.

Havelock, Oct. 22.—Fire rages and continues to spread in the north country. Farmers are kept continually on the qui vive, and valuable timber and wood is being destroyed. It is reported that a clear space is burnt from the north of the country through to Round Lake. Besides burning a lot of valuable timber, it works its way under the ground undermining the trees and causing them to fall or die. The farmers back of Round Lake are kept busy keeping the fire away from their homes and saving the hay, which is stacked out. They fight the fire with fire. If the fire endangers their homes they go ahead and burn a spot out, and when the main mass of fire reaches the burnt spot, it can go no further. But a person has to be very careful in setting even a small fire, for when it gets into certain places it will spread as fast as a man can walk. At first the hay was in the greatest danger and the farmers had to resort to all kinds of schemes in order to save it, but now the fire is attacking wood piles and licking up 25 and 50 cords of dry wood in a small space of time. A large number of people have wood out on land on which they do not live, and fire can burn it up and no one will know anything of it. At the first part of the dry spell fire was making direct for Havelock from the north-east, and the citizens were alarmed, but it changed its course and went north. There is a fire at present in a swamp to the east end of the town, and it starts up every little while and fills the town with smoke.

The good law says that a man shall not work on Sunday, but that was not the case in the north country on Sunday last, for many a farmer worked from early morn to late into the night to keep the fire away from his home. It was necessary to tear down all fences connected with the buildings and plough furrows around his entire home. He would think he had it nicely under control when it would break out in another place, and he would have to start to work again.

The dry spell has also made water very scarce both in the village and the country. Nearly half the wells in town are dry, but where one man can go to his neighbor for water when he wants it but in the country it is different. While the farmers are not busy fighting fires, they are digging wells, and although a large number have dug wells, a lot of cattle do not have near enough water. A large number in town have to carry water from the creek which runs to the south of the village and from which the C.P.R. get their supply of water, but it is gradually becoming dried up.

And last, but not least, the dry spell is affecting the milkmen, and they have raised the price of that precious fluid to seven cents per quart. Whether it is a scarcity of water or food, the milkmen have not as yet stated. There is no grass at all, and the amount of milk is greatly decreased, and thus the price of milk, butter and cheese is affected.

BIG CONTRACT SECURED BY CANADIAN GENERAL ELECTRIC CO.

Will Mean Enlargement of the Plant and Buildings and Increase in Staff and Force of Workmen

THE COMPANY HANDLES FULLY ONE-HALF OF THE BIG HYDRO-ELECTRIC POWER LINES CONTRACT

As intimated by the REVIEW Extra, issued on Thursday night, the Canadian General Electric Company, of Peterborough, has been awarded the contract for equipping a large part of the Hydro-Electric Power lines throughout Western Ontario.

It is understood that the C. G. E. Co's share of the contract amounts to about $250,000. It means big increases in the working staff and enlargement of the plant in Peterborough. It will occupy nearly three years to finish the lines complete.

Mr. E. G. Patterson, Superintendent of the local works, when seen by THE REVIEW, stated that the securing of the contract will mean the erection of an addition to the transformer department, and an increase of about 150 in the number of workmen employed.

The contract is for the equipping of the sub-stations in connection with the power lines at Toronto, Niagara Falls, Stratford, Dundas, St. Mary's, Windsor, Brantford, London and Sarnia.

Mr. Patterson adds that the Company is indebted to Mr. J. H. Burnham, Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M. P. P., and Mr. Jas. Kendrey, for their efforts in assisting to secure the contract for the local concern, and consequent employment which will be afforded, and will largely benefit the workingmen of Peterborough

WAS CARRIED ON COWCATCHER

Farmer Near Belleville Has Miraculous Escape From Death

Belleville, Ont., Oct. 22.—George Badgley, a farmer, of Tyendinaga, a few miles from here, was nearly killed about one o'clock to-day. He was driving a horse and buggy over the Cannington Crossing, when No. 4 passenger from the west came along, and before he could get over the rig was struck. The horse was instantly killed and the buggy smashed. Badgley was carried a couple of hundred yards on the cowcatcher before the train was stopped. He was taken to the hospital, where he lies in a critical condition.

Vote on Local Option

At the regular meeting of Percy Township Council held on the 4th inst., a petition signed by 351 names was presented to the Council for the submitting of a local option by-law in January next. A number of names were struck off the petition on account of their not being on the 1907 list, but as there were more than the required 255, the by-law was prepared and given its first and second readings.

FARMERS ARE BUSY

Fighting Bush Fires---Buildings in Danger at Indian River

Farmers around Indian River are having a hard time saving their houses and barns from the bush fires.

Many of them are up all night watching the fires, and have torn down the fences and ploughed up strips of land around the buildings to stop the onward march of the flames.

The fires are burning in the woods of Mr. William Leahy and Mr. Patrick Haley. The buildings of these two gentlemen are in danger and also those of Michael Boland.

The farmers of the district are praying for rain, as constant worry in connection with the bush fires is telling on them.

The price of milk in Kingston has been raised from five cents a quart to six cents.

CHORAL CLASS IS ORGANIZED

At Norwood Under Direction of Conservatory of Music

The organization of a choral class in this village, under the direction of the Peterborough Conservatory of Music, was recently completed by the musical director, Mr. R. Gliddon. The class, which numbers over fifty members, meets every Monday evening, when they have a visit from a representative from the conservatory. They intend about the middle of December to put on the cantata "Esther the Beautiful Queen."—Norwood Register.

JUMPED FROM BUGGY AND BROKE ANKLE

Miss Howell met with a serious accident one night last week driving home from Mr. John Gardiner's, of Ida. The bolt came out of the shaft causing it to drop and frighten the horse, which ran away. Miss Howell jumped out and in doing so broke her ankle. It is quite a painful break and will lay her up for some time, we are sorry to state, yet we trust that her recovery may be rapid and complete.—Millbrook Mirror.

SUES EDITOR OF THE GLOBE FOSTER CLAIMS BIG DAMAGES

FINE WAS IMPOSED

Woman Practiced Mid-Wifery

And Was Fined $25 and Costs—Case will be Appealed

Mrs. Hains, who last week was arraigned before Magistrate Dumble at the police court on charges of practising medicine and mid-wifery, not being a regular physician, was today found guilty for the latter offence and was discharged on the former, His Worship fined her $25 and costs to be paid forthwith or ten days in jail.

The information was laid by Mr. Charles Ross, acting on behalf of the Ontario Medical Council. Crown Attorney R. E. Wood conducted the prosecution, and Mr. G. N. Gordon defended Mrs. Hains. The fine was paid under protest, Mr. Gordon giving notice of appeal.

There were two charges heard last Thursday, instances of where she had practised mid-wifery. No doctor was called in either case. His Worship said that she had stated herself that there were only four cases which she had attended where they did not have a registered physician.

Mr. Gordon argued that Mrs. Hains always desired that her patients have a doctor. It had not, he said, been proven that she was not registered.

The Milkmade

Local milk dealers have raised the price of that necessity to seven cents a quart. Whether the scarcity of water or feed is responsible for the increase we are unable to state.—Havelock Standard.

$150,000 is Wanted for Slander.

One Writ for $50,000 Issued Against Rev. J. A. MacDonald and One Against Globe Co.

Toronto, Oct. 23.—A writ claiming $50,000 damages for slander against Rev. J. A. Macdonald, editor of The Globe, has been issued on behalf of Hon. G. E. Foster.

Formal notice that writ for libel will issue was served on The Globe yesterday. The writ will name $100,000 as the amount claimed.

This is Hon. G. E. Foster's reply to Mr. Macdonald for having at Orillia on Tuesday night used pretty strong language in referring to Mr. Foster's business relationship with the Union Trust Co., in the matter of commissions, and to The Globe for publishing the same.

Mr. Macdonald was not in the city yesterday, but the writ was placed in the sheriff's hands for service today. The writ was issued by Kingsmill, Hellmuth, Saunders & Torrance.

"The action is quite a personal matter and is entirely aside from politics," said Hon. Mr. Foster yesterday.

The same firm of solicitors is also enquiring into the printed matter which has been put into circulation by various printing companies, and if examination warrants and if the law allows it, these will be prosecuted to the extreme limit of the law for circulating libelous statements.

It is also contemplated to issue a writ against W. H. Shaw for damages for defamation of character in connection with the anonymous letter which Mr. Shaw then read, containing allegations against Mr. Foster which Mr. Piggott of Chatham and others interested have promptly denied.

Brockville, Oct. 23.—At last night's reception to Hon. G. R. Graham, Rev. J. A. Macdonald, editor of The Globe, said he had just been informed that Hon. G. E. Foster had entered an action against himself and The Globe for libel.

He then went on and repeated the charges again, and said he was prepared to prove them on the platform and in the courts.

WEST IS BLIZZARD SWEPT TERRIFIC SNOWSTORM RAGES

Trains Are Stalled by Downfall Against Which Plows Can do Almost Nothing—Ten Inches Have Already Fallen—Cuts Solid With Packed Snow.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 23.—One of the worst snowstorms that has ever occurred in the west has been at the height of its fury for many hours, and has completely demoralized the services of the C.P.R. and C.N.R. trains.

The storm started Tuesday night, and has continued with unabated vigor.

Ten inches of snow has already fallen, and, accompanied by a terrific gale, snow has blown into the railway cuts, completely filling them up, and in many stretches the snow is over ten feet deep.

The C.P.R. have rushed snowplows to the scene, and are hard at work to clear the tracks, but very little progress can be made until the snow ceases to fall. As soon as a clearance is made the blizzard fills it up again.

The Atlantic Express from Vancouver and western points is completely stalled, and also the Imperial Limited from Vancouver. The west bound train of Wednesday is held up also, and none of them can proceed one inch.

No trains from the west reached the city yesterday, and it is doubtful when they will get through.

In the meantime the railway company is taking care of passengers, and are seeing that they were well looked after until able to proceed. The Winnipeg Express from Toronto was about two hours late in arriving yesterday morning. No. 1 westbound went out at 1.15 yesterday afternoon. The Pacific Express last night is scheduled on time. On other branches trains are running according to schedule.

"Cancelled, big snowstorm in the west," was the bulletin received at the Canadian Northern Railway office yesterday morning regarding No. 2 from Edmonton.

The storm, which broke over Alberta Tuesday night, was wholly unexpected by the railways, and no preparation was made to receive it. The storm was a blinding one, and the snow quite soft. It has not done so much damage on the open track, but has rested in the cuts of the railroads in a solid mass.

TORONTO STAR GETS AFTER PORT HOPE LIBERAL PAPER

For Appealing to Citizens of That Town to Vote for Government Candidate to Get Public Works.

The Toronto Star says:

The Port Hope Guide is appealing to the citizens of that town to vote for the Government candidate, in order that it may have a new armory, harbor improvements, and other advantages, to be paid for out of the Dominion treasury. Liberals, when in Opposition unsparingly condemned corrupt appeals of this kind, and they are just as contrary to the principles of Liberalism today as they were twelve years ago.

The money which is used to build armories and make harbor improvements comes out of taxes which are paid by Liberals and Conservatives alike. It is the duty of the Government to make the improvements and grant these services where they are required, without regard to the manner in which the electors choose to cast their votes. They have a right to vote as they please, and a right to share in the expenditure of the public money, that is, of their own money.

The electors of Port Hope, in common with the electors of the rest of Canada, are asked to support the Government because it is progressive, energetic, and alive to the needs of a growing country. To say that Port Hope will be neglected, excluded from the benefits of this progressive policy unless it elects a Government candidate is to make as serious a charge against the Government as anything that appears in the Conservative campaign literature.

THE EXAMINER

We have had little fault to find with the Examiner during this campaign. Its staff has conducted its columns with shrewdness and energy. But latterly it seems inclined to fall from grace. Early in the week it accused Mr. Burnham of stating what was false, when he observed that on the same day that a Dominion loan was half subscribed in London, an Irish loan of larger proportions was subscribed 79 times over. Mr. Burnham produced Hansard, the proceedings of Parliament, as his authority, but no apology from the Examiner was forthcoming. Now it accuses him of another misstatement regarding the date of the closing of the Gamey inquiry in order to show that his mild eulogium of Mr. Stratton at the Hutton banquet was deliberate and conclusive. In any event the close of that inquiry had not been reached, evidently, in Mr. Burnham's estimation at the time, but when it did come we admit it "went the other way." We assure the Examiner that Mr. Burnham did not mean to make a false statement—in fact, he did not make it at all—but let us quote the words of a man in Galway who, when he saw the Stratton poster, remarked in his quiet way, that "it was a mane man who would try to turn a favour agin a man." and we think most people will think so, too. However, Mr. Burnham regrets that his praise was undeserved. Senator Cox spoke well of Mr. McGill. Is he also to be held back from ever speaking of the latter again? There are many examples—alas! too many. The agony of Mr. Stratton's paper over the Dennistoun affair is another matter. We expected a few death kicks over that document and make allowance accordingly. The Examiner gives a whoop in its last edition charging Mr. Burnham, or the Review, or both, with failing to quote the Montreal Star against the corruption and corrupt candidates in both parties. The article quoted and referred to by the Examiner was in the Review within a fortnight. Hic jacet the Examiner—as usual.

THE ST. JOHN AFFAIR

That business of Pugsley, Mayes, McAvity and Company, with the $36,000 tribute to the middleman, McAvity, is causing the St. John Globe to experience sore searchings of heart. The St. John Globe, it need scarcely be observed, means Senator Ellis. Senator Ellis is an excellent specimen of the old-time Liberal. He has had and still preserves ideals. He has had and still preserves prejudices in favor of honesty in the administration of the public business. But he is a party man through and through, he finds it hard, desperately hard, to break loose from the associations of a lifetime, and so he makes of himself a very conspicuous specimen of that pathetic and all too-frequent type in Canadian politics, the old-time Liberal who, with many misgivings, with a consciousness that things are going badly, nevertheless cannot bear to break away from the party which he has followed so long, but which now is controlled and disgraced by Administration Liberals.—The News.

THE ST. JOHN GLOBE

But the St. John Globe, in other words Senator Ellis, cannot approve the McAvity rake-off. The deliberate development of its disapproval is interesting. On October 14th we find The Globe reviewing the story, for the most part making little or no comment, but finding itself none the less constrained to fasten on the payment of the unnecessary $36,000. "The larger matter," it says, "is the payment to Mr. McAvity, respecting which there is yet room for explanation. The thinking man will readily concur in the feeling that if the methods were as loose in the time of Mr. Hyman as the facts of this transaction disclose, declarations and revelations in that famous report of the sturdy Liberal Commissioners, Messrs. Courtney and Fyshe, were none too strong."

Two days later, on October 16th, The Globe advanced a stage further. There is danger, it said, of having one important matter overlooked. "That important matter is that the Dominion of Canada is out over thirty-five thousand dollars upon the Mayes dredging contract, and that, apparently, somebody ought to pay that sum of money back to the Dominion treasury. It really belongs to the people of Canada; and, indeed, the sum may be more than the amount named." It blames Mr. Hyman for his part in the transaction, it comments with severity upon the position in which Mr. Mayes and Mr. McAvity find themselves, and it notices Mr. Mayes' announcement that he will sue Mr. McAvity for the $36,000. "If he gets it back," The Globe says, "it ought surely to be returned to the Canadian people, to whome it would seem in equity to really belong. But, perhaps, if Mr. McAvity were to send the money back to the treasury and Mr. Mayes were to stop his suits to recover it, that would seem to be the best settlement." This is talk of Restitution, almost in the Borden vein. The Globe is very tender on Mr. Pugsley, and ready enough to accept his explanations, while equally ready to blame Mr. Hyman, who is no longer a Minister. But it cannot stand that $36,000 rake-off.

A RETROSPECT

So it goes on all over the country. What do Liberals think of it. Look back to the early nineties and compare all this ill-smelling indecency with the professions of Opposition, and the expectations of what would be accomplished by a change of Government. Remember that the leaders who made a dramatic fight against the Federal Franchise Act have seized control of the voters' lists in Northern Ontario and that Conservatives today are waging a desperate battle to prevent the consummation of a plot to load the lists with unqualified voters. Look at St. John where a partisan go-between is charged with grabbing $35,900 as the price of his influence with one of the public departments. Let Liberals ask themselves if they believe this it to be an isolated instance and if they had not heard many an ugly whisper of similar transactions. Let Liberals remember that a Deputy Minister has confessed that in three years in one department alone adherence to the patronage list cost the country $200,000. The system extends to all the Departments. How many millions are wasted annually to feed the favorites of Ministers—to the injury often of other Liberal merchants and traders—by the maintenance of this vicious system of government for a party instead of for the country.

Let Liberals ask themselves if they believe that there was honest advertising and honest tendering in the Government's dealings with the public domain in the West. Was it accident that one group of tenderers was always successful and that only Government partisans became millionaires. Let them look to the United States whose political methods we affect to despise, where the whole power of the Government was used to expose land thieves and timber thieves. Let Liberals recall the police court revelations of the methods employed to secure a verdict from London in favor of the Western autonomy legislation. Let Liberals consider what is to be the future of the Liberal party if these practices continue for another four years and if the country has to pay the debts which Government candidates are contracting in this election and ask themselves if it would not be a crowning mercy to end the system.—News.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, it is announced, will make a special trip to Charlevoix, to speak against the candidature of Mr. Forget. Mr. Forget is evidently looked on as a man dangerous to the interests Sir Wilfrid Laurier has in his care in the Quebec district.—The Gazette.

The West Riding of Peterborough is full of heelers. The interest taken in this election by "outsiders" is phenomenal. There is evidence enough already to unseat a score of members. Meanwhile the outlook for the Conservative candidate is excellent. There will be a surprise for somebody on Monday.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier says it is with shame and disgust that he finds the issue the elections are to be fought upon is the petty scandal cry. The shame and disgust that he feels have not, however, led him to say a word in condemnation of the petty scandals and the petty scandal makers who have infested the departments of his Government. It is the bother the scandals are giving him, not the shame of their existence that worries him. He does not comprehend his duty.

The election campaign is beginning in the Yukon. A geyser has broken out in one of the creeks. Before a previous parliamentary election a geyser broke out in the same locality and $60,000 was given to prospective Laurier voters, who were engaged to block it up, while all the miners wondered why it should be sought to turn off so much needed water.

The old Liberal St. John Globe says that the $35,933 paid by Mr. Gershon Mayes, dredging contractor, to Mr. George McAvity, political worker, should, under the circumstances as they have been described, be paid back to the treasury of Canada. The circumstances as they have been described indicate that the money was paid out of the treasury of Canada to reward Mr. McAvity for using his influence with the Government of Canada to get a dredging contract for Mr. Mayes. There was no return to the Government for the money. The St. John Globe, in the attitude it has taken, is doing a service to the public and to Liberalism by forcing attention on the real issue. If in the process it is hurting Laurierism, the fault is that of Laurierism.

COTTAGE MEETING

Rev. Dr. Langfeldt will hold his weekly cottage meeting on Thursday, Oct. 29th, at the residence of Mr. E. Kemp, Douro.

Fire did $50,000 damage to a warehouse of the Montreal Cotton and Wool Waste Co. yesterday.

ST. JOHN LIBERAL JOURNAL SAYS $35,000 RAKE-OFF SHOULD BE RESTORED

St. John, N.B., October 17—The St. John Globe, Liberal, publishes a long editorial on the Mayes-McAvity dredging controversy in which it says:

"While the air is blue with affidavits, declarations and letters in regard to the dredging transactions between Mr. Mayes and Mr. McAvity, and while there are several statements and counter statements there is danger of having one important matter overlooked. That important matter is that the Dominion of Canada is out over $35,000 upon the Mayes dredging contract, and that apparently somebody ought to pay that sum of money back to the Dominion treasury. It really belongs to the people of Canada and indeed, the sum may be more than the amount named. A former Minister of Public Works—Mr. Hyman—Mr. McAvity and Mr. Mayes would seem to be the principal parties concerned. Mr. Mayes was willing to undertake to do the work of dredging for fifty cents per yard and tendered to do it for that price in June 1905. Apparently this price was for a smaller quantity of dredging than was eventually done. And the natural inference is that if Mr. Mayes could dredge a smaller quantity at fifty cents per yard the much larger quantity which he eventually had assigned to him could have been done at a lower price. However that is not material. Nothing came to the June tender but early in September that year Mr. McAvity and Mr. Mayes were in Ottawa together, and Mr Mayes got the enlarged quantity of dredging at a higher price per yard—five cents more—than he originally offered to do the work for. There is no clear indication at all why Mr. Hyman allowed the higher rate but possibly he may not have given the matter a second thought, or have regarded the increase per yad as not very serious. It is quite clear now that if he took this simple view of the matter he was in error for it enabled Mr Mayes to pay Mr. McAvity a very large sum out of the profits of his work, over, as we have stated, thirty-five thousand dollars. As it would be unreasonable as regards Mr. Hyman to assume that he knew of the arrangements between Mr. McAvity and Mr. Mayes, it would be unfair to assume that he ought to make good out of his own means the higher price paid out of the treasury to Mr. Mayes.

This leaves the matter as between Mr. Mayes and Mr. McAvity on the one part, and the Canadian people whose money they got on the other part. Mr McAvity is not very clear in his statement as to why Mr. Mayes should pay him the amount which he did pay him, although he does seem to have done some service in going to Ottawa several times in connection with Mr. Mayes' business. Mr. Mayes, capable business man as he is assumed to be, seems not to know clearly why he paid the thirty-five thousand dollars over to Mr. McAvity, and asserts that he has taken proceedings at law to get it back. If he gets it back it ought surely to be returned to the Canadian people, to whom it would seem in equity to really belong. But, perhaps, if Mr. McAvity were to send the money back to the treasury and Mr. Mayes were to stop his suits to recover it that would seem to be the best settlement.

ANOTHER MAYES LETTER

The Globe also publishes a letter from Mr. Mayes, replying to the statement of Hon. Dr. Pugsley, at Fairville, with reference to a lettter from ex-Speaker Osman. Mr. Mayes writes:

"I accidentally met Mr. Osman (whom I had not seen for possibly a year) near the head of King street, the 6th inst. After exchanging civilities, he said: "Mr. Mayes, why can not you come up and do some dredging for us?" (I presume at, or near Hillsboro.) I replied, if my dredge was suitable I would be pleased to go any time, as the dredge had been idle for about four months. 'What,' he said, 'your dredge idle? Why, Dr. Pugsley has told me that he cannot get a dredge.' "Well," I replied, "Dr. Pugsley knows differently, and the worst feature of it is that I cannot get work for my dredge, and yet I know that his department requires it the worst way." "Why," he said, "that is news to me. I shall go and see Dr. Pugsley." He said: "What is the trouble?" I said: "The facts are that I am indignant at the usage from Dr. Pugsley just because I will not pay more money to George McAvity."

"Why," he replied, "have you paid any money to McAvity?" I said; "Yes, I have paid him about $6,000 and $2,000 to Dr. Pugsley." He said; "Have you anything to show for this?" "Yes," I said, "right here in my pocket, and I showed him a copy of the last cheque, $8,683, which I paid McAvity in November last."

"Why," he said, "what for? Did he help finance it or do anything for it?" I said no emphatically, he did not. Then Mr. Osman said; "Why did you pay it?" "Because," I replied, "he agreed to put money in the business to assist me in buying her, and as he was a personal friend of Mr. Hyman, he told me that if I accompanied him to Ottawa or met him there a day before the tenders were received, about the 5th September, 1905, he would help me to get the contract. I did meet him at Ottawa and instead of assisting me by going into the business, he had a contract ready for me to sign, which was to the effect that I should give him five cents per yard for the work to be done, which amounted to about 400,000 yards. I protested strongly against it, but McAvity said I had better sign it and we could arrange it when we got back to St. John. I again protested, but as the hour fixed for putting in the tenders had arrived I had to sign it or not tender. When we came home, having secured the contract, McAvity declined going in and helping, but demanded the five cents per yard, and I have, as already stated, paid him about $36,000." After hearing this Mr. Osman said it was too bad and asked me what he could do; he was going to see Dr. Pugsley that day. I told him that there was only one thing to be done, and that was for the Government to purchase the dredge, as I could not get employment from them and they wanted her, and that I had written to Dr. Pugsley and talked to him about her purchase, and after a delay of months he had sent Mr. Howden from Ottawa, and Mr. McCandock, of St. John the superintendent of dredging, to examine her, and I had given them a typewritten statement of all the duplicate and spare parts, amounting to some $154,000, as near as I could figure at that time, as a great deal of the machinery was at Fleming's foundry and at Carleton and in other places. Since that time I had heard nothing, and I feared that Dr. Pugsley would do nothing and leave me in the lurch with a big plant on my hands. I distinctly say that I never stated $160,000, for it would have been absurd to have done so in the face of my having given the figures to the Government inspector, and furthermore I never stated to Mr. Osman or hinted to him that I would make a handsome donation or give one cent to any political graft or anything else. It is simply absurd and most untruthful. As a matter of fact, the writ was served on Mr. McAvity that very day, and in the morning. Was it likely I would commence the proceedings if I was sending Mr. Osman as a messenger to get terms for me? I cannot understand why Mr. Osman should make the statements which he has. As regards the use of the word "Gamey," I said by the truth being told the Ontario local government was upset. Mr. Osman said; "Would you do the same as Gamey?" I said there was no necessity for me to go in the dark, that I would not keep from the world any longer the facts that I had paid these large amounts to Mr. McAvity. The facts are that if I had kept on paying him I would have been O.K. and had employment, that I was tired of it and wanted to get clear of it. He replied that it was too bad and that he would see Dr. Pugsley. We then parted and I have not seen him since. That is all I know of the affair.

I remain, yours truly,
G. S. MAYES.

IN THE ARENA OF POLITICS

The Examiner describes Mr. Stratton's meeting at Buckhorn as "a whirlwind meeting." We admit the wind but the whirl we doubt.

The C.G.E. contract news of which was received yesterday is the greatest rebuke to the Laurier administration imaginable. No foreign tenders for Whitney. Hurray for Whit!

The campaign meeting in the interest of Mr. J. A. Sexsmith in the opera house on Saturday night last was very largely attended and gave a fresh impulse to the swing of victory that is predicted for J. A. in East Peterborough next Monday. The presence of a large number of ladies in the gallery added color and interest to the occasion. The speakers were Mr. Geo. McCartney; Mr. Jas. Thompson, MPP; Mr George J. Sherry and the candidate and the remarks were confined to the discussion of public questions and the denunciation of the Government on many issues before the people. It was firmly predicted that a change would take place at Ottawa on Monday next—a victory of Canada over the maladministration of the Government in the past 12 years, and especially in the past four years.—Havelock Standard.

The report that the government is informed that the Tories are corrupting Ontario is by way of preparing a nice large fat mattress for the government to fall on Tuesday next.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

Penny Telegrams.

London, Oct. 23.—(C. A. P.)—The proposal to establish telegrams at a penny a word throughout the Empire will be advanced a step at the meeting to be held at the Royal Colonial Institute on Nov. 10. The chairman, the Earl of Jersey, Henniker Heaton and others consider the plan quite feasible, and believe it can be carried out much more easily than the system of imperial penny postage was. In Australia a telegram can be sent 3,600 miles at a penny a word, and it is maintained that but for political frontiers, telegrams could be sent from London to India, 3,200 miles, at a similar rate.

Ottawa Is Growing.

Ottawa, Oct. 23.—The assessment returns of Ottawa show that the capital city's population has now passed the assessors as 80,284. This means a gain in two years of 12,000 and a gain in the last 12 months of 4,026.

The total assessment, exclusive of Government property, amounts to $50,868,200, which is an advance of $6,066,785 over last year. Of the increased assessment about $1,100,000 arises from the taxation of civil servants' salaries, the salaries of the Cabinet Ministers and of the members of Parliament who make their homes here.

Tokio's Tribute to Fleet.

Tokio, Oct. 23.—The reception to the officers and men of the American battleship fleet reached a climax last night in a spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm, in which 50,000 of the populace participated.

A torchlight procession, arranged as a surprise, was the concluding feature of the day. In the line were dozens of bands of music and a corps of buglers from the Japanese army and naval stations. The bands united in playing the American National Hymn again and again.

Defeat Three-Cent Fares.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 23.—The franchise under which the Municipal Traction Co. is operating the local street railway lines upon a three-cent fare basis was defeated by a majority of 661 in the referendum vote here yesterday. The total vote cast was upwards of 75,000.

The defeat of the franchise may mean that the railway property will revert to its original owners, and that the old rate of fare strife, which lasted seven years, will be renewed.

Voice to Be Heard.

New York, Oct. 23.—Although Ira D. Sankey, evangelist, song writer and singer, has been dead for several months, members of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal Church, Clermont and Willoughby avenues, Brooklyn, will hear his voice again next Sunday evening, when from a large phonograph on the pulpit platform they will listen to "The Ninety and Nine," and others of his widely-known hymns.

Mr. Sankey spent many of his last hours singing into a receiver the hymns which had moved audiences at Moody and Sankey meetings all over the world.

A Detective Arrested.

Hamilton, Oct. 23.—William Huckle, who styles himself as chief of the International Private Detective Agency, was arrested yesterday on a charge of blackmail and extortion. The complainant is George Ireland, North Wentworth street, who says that the detective claimed that he had obtained evidence against him on a charge of criminal assault, but would not take any action if Ireland paid $10. Ireland paid over the money, he says. Huckle has made insinuations that he could reveal some interesting things about the local police.

Alien Had to Go.

Ottawa, Oct. 23.—Because he was an alien, viewed from the standpoint of the United States Government, A. W. Graham, well-known in Ottawa as a former master in the Ottawa Collegiate Institute, was obliged to resign a lucrative position on the Panama Canal, and is again in the capital, having been re-appointed to the collegiate staff. In an interview Mr. Graham expressed the opinion that the Panama Canal would be completed with the next ten years.

Bush Fires Cause Explosion.

Pittsburg Pa., Oct. 23.—A magazine containing about fifty cans of nitroglycerine exploded yesterday at Gringo, below this city. There were no fatalities. The explosion was caused by a bush fire.

A second terrific explosion occurred shortly after noon. One woman was seriously hurt by flying glass. The property loss will be large. Almost half the windows in three towns have been broken by the explosion.

Saved 100 Natives.

Manila, Oct. 23.—At Appari, where a thrilling rescue of a 100 natives was effected through the heroism of Lieut. Robert Clark, Lieut. Tredway and Postmaster Foss, the survivors say that 300 residents of the submerged fishing village, which is located some distance below Aparri, were swept away and drowned.

Do Honor to Burke's Memory.

Bath, Eng., Oct. 23.—Whitelaw Reid, the American ambassador, unveiled a tablet in this city yesterday in memory of Edmund Burke, the celebrated Irish statesman and orator.

Drunken Man Dies.

Belleville, Oct. 23.—John Freeman, a hotelkeeper of Deseronto, is charged with a serious offence.

It is alleged that he violated the new Liquor Act by selling John Keegan liquor while the latter was intoxicated. Keegan lay out all night, and died of exposure and excessive use of spirits. The crown then proceeded aganst Freeman. There is intense interest in the case, which, in the absence of material witnesses, was enlarged till Nov. 4.

Fish a Sacrifice to Fires.

Malone, N.Y., Oct. 23.—Sportsmen have just discovered that the forest fires in the Adirondacks have worked havoc among the trout with which many streams throughout the burned section are well stocked. Thousands of dead trout have been found in the bottoms and along the edges of the streams, and it is believed they have been killed by impurities in the water caused by ashes or smoke.

Dies From Thresher Injuries.

London, Ont., Oct. 23.—Henry Steeper, the McGillivray Township thresher who was so badly injured by being drawn into a threshing machine, died of his injuries Wednesday night. His arm was torn from the socket and his body terribly bruised. He never regained consciousness.

Yerkes' Mansion to Be Sold.

New York, Oct. 23.—The handsome Yerkes' mansion at Fifth avenue and 68th street, which, with its paintings and art treasures would, it was generally believed, eventually pass into the control of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, may be sold at foreclosure.

Preferred Death to Trial.

New York, Oct. 23.—Rather than face trial for manslaughter, growing out of a case of alleged criminal practice, Dr. Irving J. Cook, a young doctor of this city, drank a dose of poison and shot himself at the Waldrof-Astoria Hotel yesterday.

Cheese—Easy, unchanged; receipts, 3246.

Eggs—Irregular; receipts, 8641; state, Pennsylvania and nearby fancy selected white, 38c to 40c.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Cables Steady—Hogs Are Much Firmer at Buffalo.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—London cables for cattle are steady at 11½c to 12½c per lb., dressed weight; refrigerator beef is quoted at 9½c to 9¾c per lb.

Toronto Live Stock.

TORONTO, Oct. 22.—Receipts of live stock at the City Market, as reported by the railways for Wednesday and Thursday, were 155 carloads, composed of 2265 cattle, 3233 hogs, 2835 sheep and lambs and 119 calves.

Exporters.

One load of cattle brought in as exporters was reported sold for butchers' purposes at $4.95 per cwt. Export bulls sold at $3.50 to $4, and one of choice quality, weighing 1990 lbs., was sold by H. P. Kennedy at $4.50 per cwt.

Butchers.

Choice picked lots of steers and heifers are reported as selling at $4.60 to $4.80 per cwt., loads of good at $4.25 to $4.50; medium, $3.75 to $4; common, $3.25 to $3.50; cows, $2.50 to $3.60 per cwt.; canners, $1 to $1.50.

Feeders and Stockers.

H. & W. Murby report a fair demand for feeders and stockers this week. The receipts were fairly heavy, but as usual the bulk of the offerings were medium to inferior grades. The nice ten to eleven hundred pound steers were none too plentiful, and more of this class would have sold. Messrs. Murby bought 350 head this week at following quotations: Best feeders, 950 to 1100 lbs. each, at $3.50 to $4; best steers, 800 to 950 lbs. each, at $3.25 to $3.60; best steers, 600 to 800 lbs. each, at $2.90 to $3.25; medium steers, 600 to 800 lbs. each, at $2.40 to $2.65; common stockers, 500 to 700 lbs. each, at $1.75 to $2.10. A few medium stockers were left unsold.

Milkers and Springers.

About forty milkers and springers were on sale, but the market was not nearly as strong as it has been lately, on account of trade not being as good in Montreal. Prices during the week ranged all the way from $20 to $65 each, with one or two extra quality cows at $75. The average price for the best cows was about $50.

Veal Calves.

Altho receipts were light during the week, the market was not any stronger, but, on the other hand, weaker, if anything. Poultry being more plentiful, is taking the place of veal. Prices ranged from $3 to $8 per cwt., with an occasional choice calf bringing $6.50 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Receipts were large and prices easy at following quotations: Export ewes, $3.25 to $3.50; rams, $2.50 to $2.75; lambs, $4 to $4.50 per cwt.

Hogs.

Mr. Harris reports the market unchanged, with prospects of lower prices for the coming week. Selects fed and watered, $6.25 per cwt.; to drovers at country points f.o.b. cars, $6, which means $5.85 to the farmer.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

EAST BUFFALO, Oct. 22.—Cattle—Slow and unchanged.

Veals—Receipts, 200 head; active and steady, $6 to $8.75.

Hogs—Receipts, 4000 head; active and 20c to 25c higher: heavy, $5.85 to $6; mixed, $5.75 to $5.90; yorkers, $5 to $5.90; pigs, $4.25 to $4.75; roughs, $4.75 to $5; stags, $4 to $4.50; dairies and grassers, $5 to $5.75.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 8000 head; sheep, active; mixed, steady; others, 25c lower; lambs, slow and 25c lower; lambs, $4 to $6.50, yearlings and wethers, $4 to $4.25; ewes, $3.75 to $4.

Chicago Live Stock.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Cattle—Receipts, 11,000; steady to 10c lower; steers, $4.40 to $7.60; cows, $3.25 to $5.25; heifers, $3 to $4.25; bulls, $2.50 to $4.50; calves, $3.50 to $8.50; stockers and feeders, $2.60 to $4.60.

Hogs—Receipts, 22,000; steady to 10c higher; choice heavy shippers, $6 to $6.10; butchers', $5.90 to $6.05; light mixed, $5.35 to $5.60; choice light, $5.60 to $5.70; heavy packing, $5.60 to $5.80; pigs, $3.50 to $5; bulk of sales, $5.50 to $5.90.

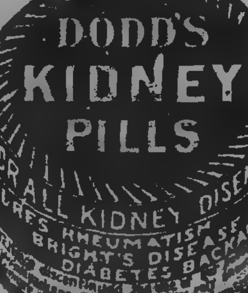
Sheep—Receipts, 18,000; strong and 10c to 15c higher; sheep, $2.50 to $4.75; yearlings, $3.85 to $5; lambs, $4 to $5.50.

Cheese Markets.

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 22.—There were 2000 white and 170 colored offered to-day; 80 colored sold at 12c, 930 white at 11 13-16c, and 250 white at 11⅝c.

BROCKVILLE, Oct. 22.—At the weekly cheese board meeting to-day 1330 colored and 805 white were offered, making a total of 2135. Sold 950 colored and 525 white; best offer 12⅛c.

The charges of Edmonton's chief of police, Major Beale against Detective Griffiths are held to be not proven.



KITCHENER MAY VISIT.

Report Current That He Will Return Home via United States.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 23.—The World publishes the following as a Calcutta, India, cable:

Upon the completion of his term of service as military commander in India, Gen. Lord Kitchener has announced that he will return home to England by way of the United States.

"It is my desire," said the general, "to see Canada and the United States, the countries and their people, that prompts me to include them in my itinerary."

Lord Kitchener will also visit China and Japan on the way, possibly traveling through Australia and New Zealand.

An immense volume of correspondence is pouring in upon the general from England urging him to take up a reorganization of the British War Office. There is no doubt but that he would be appointed to the post if he wished to accept the position.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

Navigation on the St. Lawrence is impeded by smoke.

The town hall and several other buildings were destroyed at O'Leary, P.E.I.

John Jocko, an Indian boy, aged 14, was thrown from a horse near Cornwall and killed.

The 162nd anniversary of the founding of Princeton University was observed yesterday with appropriate exercises.

While painting William Honsberger's barn near St. Catharines a painter named Hamilton fell and was instantly killed.

Serious floods prevail through portions of Central and Northern Oklahoma, the result of three days' steady downpour of rain.

Harry Summerhays, a Bell telephone lineman, fell from a pole at Brantford. He lit on a shed and was not seriously injured.

The Empress of Britain clipped 26 minutes off her record, arriving at Quebec after a passage of 5 days, 30 minutes and 28 seconds.

The Aero Club of France has decided to organize a big aeroplane meeting in the autumn of 1909, when the "Grand Prix D'Aviation" will be competed for.

A two months' old boy baby was abandoned near the Frontenac Club, Kingston. The child was sent to the Infants' Home, and the police will seek to locate the mother.

The trustees of Thousand Island Park Association have adopted a resolution that from next spring every owner of a launch at Thousand Island Park will be compelled to have his boat equipped with mufflers, to smother the noise, as they declared the "pop-pop" of the launches to be one of the greatest nuisances.

Life-Saver Drowned.

Sarnia, Oct. 23.—The body picked up in the river near St. Clair, Mich., Wednesday afternoon by Frank Currier, captain of a ferry boat, has been identified as that of Albert Martin, aged 21 years, of Corunna, Ont., eight miles from here. Martin had a medal pinned to his vest, which had been given to him for saving a Toronto man from drowning in Lake Ontario. The body had apparently been in the water several days. Relatives say that he left home on the night of Oct. 3, starting in a rowboat for St. Clair, and since that time nothing was seen of him. He was an expert swimmer. He came to his death, friends believe, as the result of being run down by some lake freighter.

Train Strikes Farmer.

Belleville, Ont., Oct. 23.—George Badgley, a farmer of Tyendinaga, 4 miles from here, was nearly killed about 1 o'clock yesterday. He was driving a horse and buggy over Canifton crossing, when a passenger train from the west came along. Before he could get over he was struck. The horse was instantly killed, the buggy carried 200 yards on the cowcatcher, before the train stopped. He was taken to the hospital. His recovery is reported hopeful.

Not Making Rash Promises.

London, Oct. 23.—(C. A. P.)—The Standard has received a number of letters from towns in Canada complaining that the Dominion is overcrowded and attacking the transportation companies. "On enquiry," says The Standard, "we have no hesitation in saying that the Canadian Government and the various transportation companies are acting squarely by the British emigrant and holding out no rash inducements."

To Coax Rain by Bombs.

Utica, N.Y., Oct. 23.—Prof. Carl E. Meyers of Frankfort, a suburb of this city, is going to pluck a rainstorm from the skies that the forest fires may be extinguished. Mr. Meyer is a veteran balloonist and aeronautical engineer, and down in Texas some years ago produced rain that spread over several states. His plan is to send up into the sky a big balloon filled with gases, which he explodes with an electric spark.

Found Dead In a Car.

Buffalo, Oct. 23.—The body of a negro was found in a freight car, opened here yesterday. Death was due to starvation and thirst.

The car was shipped from Pine Bluffs, Ark., on Oct. 2, and had been rebilled from St. Louis, Mo., but was not opened at the latter place. In the car was a consignment of goods for Providence, R.I.

Removal of Salmon Embargo.

London, Oct. 23.—(C.A.P.)—A Paris deputation of tradesmen, consumers and marketmen interviewed the Minister of Commerce, with the object of securing the removal of the embargo on the importation of frozen salmon. The Minister said he had no objection provided the river fishery commission was unopposed to the abrogation.

A HEROIC TEACHER.

Michigan Girl Saves Pupils From Death In Forest Fire.

Bay City, Mich., Oct. 23.—Among the most thrilling experiences of survivors of the Presque Isle county forest fires was that of Miss Grace Barber, a school teacher, 19 years old, whose school in Krakaw township was in session when the flames swept down upon the building. A terrified farmer gave the alarm just as the rear of the school house caught fire.

The young teacher marshaled her pupils in a double row, the largest at the head, and ordered them to remain in close order and not to break the line. She then directed the leaders to head for a ploughed field nearby, and the column started on a run, Miss Barber bringing up the rear to prevent straggling. Burning embers fell thick, but the teacher kept the children crowded close together, and every ember was extinguished the instant it fell upon any child's clothing.

The fire burned steadily for some time as the blaze in the tops of the trees ate its way down. During the night two bears made their appearance. A fox come slinking in, as did also a wild cat, rabbits, partridges and other game; but the animals kept well away from the children.

Miss Barber kept her charges in the field all Thursday night, and in the morning sent them home in groups, piloting the smaller ones herself.

This is why our optician has followed the teachings of only recognized authorities on the eye.

Many opticians take half a dozen or more correspondent courses, costing from $7.50 to $25 each. With this limited knowledg it is little wonder that so many are wearing glasses that do not suit them—others who do not require them.

THE C. G. E. CONTRACT

The contract which the C.G.E., of Peterborough, received from the Ontario Government the day before yesterday ought, if anything can, to teach Laurier Liberals a lesson. Hitherto contracts such as this have gone to Germany because German labor, is cheaper than Canadian and Canadians for that reason only, cannot compete with it on equal terms. The lowered Laurier tariff is and was the direct cause of this loss to Canada and Canadian workingmen. To overcome this unpatriotic and unprotective tariff it was necessary for the Government of Sir James Whitney to take the bull by the horns and exclude foreign competition altogether. The result of this bold and unprecedented action is that the C.G.E. Co., of Peterborough, will have to extend their works in order to cope with the necessities of the contract. It means full and flowing times again in and about these great works, which Mr. E. G. Patterson has so ably managed. It means that the decimated dwindling list of employees will fill up again and that the throb of renewed industry will be felt throughout the whole city. It means all that our fancy can paint regarding it in the revived prosperity of that part of Peterborough. Laurier would let us languish. The Germans would have had the contract if he had had his way. Surely this lesson is enough in itself to teach us the inestimable value of protection, which thus is seen to mean first, last and always protection for the wages of the workingman. There will yet be many contracts with the Ontario Government in connection with the Hydro-Electric work of even a more extensive character, hence preservation and protection of Canadian labor against the Laurier tariff, will mean more even than it seems to mean.

GERMAN ENGINEER

Visitor in Peterborough To-day

Inspected Lift Lock --- Learning About Air Compressor Plants in Canada

Mr. Peter Bernstein, a civil engineer of Cologne, Germany, is a visitor to Peterborough to-day. He is registered at the Oriental. Mr. Bernstein is connected with hydro-electric plants in Germany and is on a short visit to Canada with a view of learning something in conection with air compressor plants as employed in this country.

He called at the office of the superintending engineer of the Trent Canal and wanted to have a look over the working of the mechanical equipment of the lift lock. He was, of course, given permission to do so. An air compressor plant is in use at the lift lock.

Mr. Bernstein has only been in Canada a week or so and intends returning to Germany in a short time.

GRAND SCOTCH CONCERT

Under auspices of St. Andrew's Choir, in Conservatory Music Hall, Friday, Oct. 30. The programme will include Mr. Bartley McDonald Robertson, reader and entertainer and best local talent. This will be a distinct novelty in entertainments. 3d

THE C. G. E. CONTRACT

This contract could not have come to Peterborough if the Ontario Government had not defied the Laurier tariff and kept the tenders wholly for Canadians. Under the present unprotective Laurier tariff it would, as so many other contracts have done, gone to the Germans with their cheaper labor. If wages are to be kept up, the tariff must be raised.

WOODEN SHEDS IN FIRE LIMITS

Two Citizens Charged With Breach of Building By-law

Benjamin Yelland, and N. T. La Plante were charged with a breach of the building by-law at the Police Court this morning, by erecting wooden buildings within the fire limits. They pleaded not guilty. His Worship enlarged the cases until Monday in order to allow the defendants to see what they could do in the matter.

Mr. T. A. S. Hay, city engineer, stated that a party complained that Mr. Yelland was erecting a wooden building within the fire limits. It was a shed put up at the rear of Mr. Yelland's shop on Murray st. It is a new shed made out of old material.

Mr. Yelland stated that there was a shed always stood where the one in question now stands. He simply remodelled the old one, putting on a galvanized roof and making it more fire-proof. He raised the building about six feet.

Mr. Hay also testified to Mr. LaPlante erecting a shed adjoining a house on McDonell street.

FINE RECITAL BY MUSIC CLASS

Of the Convent Given at St. Peter's Hall Last Night---Presentations Made

The recital by the music class of the Convent given in St. Peter's Hall last night was a splendid success.

The programme given was an excellent one and the audience showed great appreciation of the different numbers. Several awards of prizes and diplomas were made.

Particulars of the recital will be given in tomorrow's issue of the Review.

MASTER PAINTERS HAVE ORGANIZED

Vice Pres. J. P. Shevlen.
Sec. Treas., Geo. H. Duncan.

A standing vote of thanks was given to Mr. E. J. Hobs, FCS London, England, the well known color maker and expert of the Canadian Oil Company for the able assistance he has rendered in bringing the trade together.

Mrs. Thomas Meggs, of Gananoque, is dead.

THEATRICAL

One of the most entertaining plays ever seen at the Grand Opera House was presented last night, when "Our New Minister" was given by Joseph Conyers and an excellent company. The play exceeded all expectations and was cleverly put on. Some of the situations are most amusing. The comedy lines are bright and produced many laughs. To use an expression oft heard, "There was not a dull moment in the play." The piece is well written and all the members of the cast are thoroughly capable. The stage effects were excellent.

Owing to the fact that the audience was so enthusiastic in its reception of the play, the management may secure a return booking of it. The theatregoers of Peterborough are assured of a pleasing production should the company come back again.

OBITUARY

JOSEPH AGNEW

The death occurred early Thursday morning at the residence of his mother, Mrs. John Agnew, 248 Munro avenue. The deceased had been ill for some time. He was 34 years of age. His wife predeceased him only last June.

Besides his mother two brothers and two sisters are left to mourn his loss. The brothers are Messrs. George and James Agnew, and the sisters are Mrs. Jordan, of Brampton, and Mrs. Calvert, of Toronto.

The funeral will take place on Saturday at 3.30 o'clock from 248 Munro avenue to the Little Lake Cemetery.

AN INTERESTING CUTTING DEVICE

Machine From Peterboro' Seen in Operation at Lindsay

Yesterday at the waterworks pump house the cutting machine borrowed from the city of Peterborough for the purpose of cutting several of the main for the purpose of making necessary connections was seen in operation.

The machine has previously been described in these columns. It was purchased a year ago by the Peterborough water commissioners at a cost of $750, and has already made five cuts in the mains in that city.

It is a somewhat expensive device but as Mr. Martin of Peterborough, says, "It is worth its weight in gold." Formerly in cutting the mains the water would have to be turned off leaving the town at the mercy of a conflagration should one occur during the cutting operations. With this machine the work can be done with full pressure on the mains. —Lindsay Post.

HIS SUBJECT WAS THE "TABERNACLE"

Rev. Dr. Harris Delivered Two Addresses at the Y.W.C.A. Yesterday

The series of Bible lectures by Rev Dr. Elmore Harris, D.D., of Toronto was continued yesterday afternoon and evening at the YMCA. hall. The attendance on both occasions was large and an attentive hearing was given the speaker. Dr. Harris has made a thorough study of Bible subjects and presents his addresses in a manner that is both interesting and instructive.

Last night Dr. Harris' topic was the Tabernacle. Rev. Robt. Pogue of St. Paul's church presided and a meeting that is bound to be productive of much good was the result. The lectures will be continued this afternoon and evening in the Y.W.C.A. hall.

On Sunday morning he will preach in St. Paul's church and in the evening he will speak at the Murray St Baptist church.

Remember! The next big event in Peterboro after the election will be the local production of "All The Comforts Of Home" in the Grand Opera House, Tuesday and Wednesday, the 3rd and 4th of November. di

OBITUARY

Particularly sad is the death of Arthur Jones, 181 Auburn street who passed away last evening at 8 o'clock at Nicholls hospital. The young fellow had only been ill since Monday last. He underwent an operation for appendicitis which proved unsuccessful. He was a bright little fellow and was popular among his playmates who are deeply grieved at his untimely demise.

Besides his parents, three brothers, are left to mourn his loss.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the family residence to the Little Lake Cemetery

TWO CROPS IN ONE SEASON

Douro Farmer Has Great Success With Peas

Two crops of peas in one season is a pretty good record for this part of the country. That is what Mr. Hugh Mathews, who resides in Douro a short distance from Lakefield, gathered this season. The first crop was cut the latter part of July. The ground was then ploughed and cultivated, and a second crop grew from the peas that fell from the first crop. The second crop, while not as heavy as the first, was its equal in every other respect, and a week or so ago Mr. Mathews was able to have green peas freshly picked for dinner.

ALLOWED HIS HORSE TO STRAY

James Moore was charged at the police court this morning with allowing his horses to run at large. The man walked right into the trap. P.C. Meharry had seen the animals roaming the streets and had them taken to the market, where they were put in a hog pen. Moore shortly after called at the police station enquiring after his lost steeds. P.C. Meharry immediately laid an information against Moore and had him brought before the Magistrate. His Worship dismissed the charge and told him to take his horses home.

Funeral Service

Staff-Captain Goodwin, of the Salvation Army, will conduct the funeral service of the late Arthur Jones at 181 Antrim street, to-morrow, at one o'clock.

Birthday Party

Mrs. James Wedlock gave a very delightful birthday party on Friday evening last in honor of the sixteenth birthday of her daughter, Delia.

About sixty guests were present from the surrounding country and from Bailiboro, Millbrook, Pontypool, Peterborough and Fenelon Falls. Dancing and cards constituted the programme of pleasure, and it is needless to say that everybody enjoyed themselves. Violin and piano music of the best quality provided the dancers with abundance of opportunity to tip the light fantastic. A splendid supper was provided by Mrs. Wedlock about midnight, and the merriment went on until near morning, when the guests left with happy memories of the enjoyable time spent.—Millbrook Reporter.

Band Practice

The 57th regiment band will meet for practise tonight at 8.15 o'clock.

Anuual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. will be held Monday evening at 7.30.

To Study Macbeth

Mr. A. Mowat, B.A., did not hold his Shakespeare class last evening. He will commence the study of Macbeth next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, when a large class will be formed. All young women are invited.

Boats are Busy

The boats and tugs on Stoney Lake are busily engaged in towing and carrying freight. There appears to be considerable of this to do, and the various companies expect to be engaged in it till the ice comes. Work on the new wharf at Juniper Island is progressing rapidly and when completed will be a great benefit to cottagers and tourists.

Men are Invited

The secretary of the YWCA wishes it understood that both men and women are invited to attend the addresses given in the YWCA hall by Rev Dr. Elmore Harris of Toronto Tonight at eight o'clock Dr. Harris will lecture on Exodus. He will also speak on Saturday night.

BAND WILL NOT TAKE THE TRIP

The Salvation Army band had intended taking a trip to Toronto on Thanksgiving, but satisfactory arrangements could not be made and the trip had to be called off.

THE HOOK

A woman writer says a man should keep nothing from his wife. As a matter of fact he can't.

You cannot convince a farmer that city people get up early enough to do an honest day's work.

When a girl jilts a young man and he refuses to let it spoil his career it is an awful jolt to her pride.

It's a gay old world when you are gay and a sad old world when you are sad. It all depends upon the point of view.

Many a dog gets his exercise by going for a tramp every day.

A girl would have to be stone blind not to see a flaw in the diamond in an engagement ring.

"I said not what they said, I said,"
He said, and saying, shook his head;
"But what I say I say, I say,
And say I said my say this way."

Indianapolis News.

Cheer up, sports. There will only be a constructive recess between baseball and football.—Indianapolis News.

It is reported that J. R. Stratton has promises to clear the atmosphere of smoke if elected on Monday. At the same time no one believes that he will make good his word.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Grit newspapers admit a reduced majority for Laurier. Why? Because—if the words mean anything at all—the people have lost confidence in the Laurier Government. And if they have lost confidence in the Laurier Government why should the Laurier Government be returned to power at all? Should it not be defeated?

A careful estimate of the probabilities of the coming general election indicate that the Laurier Government will be turned out by the turn over in Ontario alone.

SPORTING NEWS.

LINDSAY WILL LIKELY RUN EXCURSION FOR THE GAME

The victory of the locals over Peterborough on Monday has been of immense value to the boys and they are determined to practice assiduously and faithfully in the future. The team work has improved wonderfully since the beginning of the season, and their splendid work on Monday was a surprise to their supporters.

Mr. O'Connor, one of the officials of the game and an old senior player, as well as several seniors of the Peterborough line-up, expressed themselves as surprised at the work of the Lindsay team, and further stated that the locals with very little practise would easily win the junior championship of the Ontario Rugby Football Union.

Such an achievement would be a great honor not only for the team, but also for the town it represents, and if this is to be accomplished, the boys must receive more support from the citizens. It is a regrettable fact that the attendance at both the Port Hope and Peterborough games was so small as not to meet the expenses incurred in connection therewith. The citizens should respond more generously, and back up the boys by turning out and patronising their games. The members are all residents of Lindsay and are doing their share in upholding its reputation from an athletic standpoint, and they look to the citizens to loyally support them.

A game has been arranged with the Y.M.C.A. rugby team, of Peterborough, to be played on Saturday afternoon on the Peterborough grounds. The Y.M.C.A. team is strong and will give the local boys a run for their life. The locals are, however, very fast, as was demonstrated in their game with Peterborough on Tuesday afternoon, and will do their best to defeat the Y.M.C.A. team on their own grounds. It is likely that an excursion will be run from Lindsay, leaving at about two o'clock. It will be a great struggle in the electric city and would be worth going to see. All those who wish to accompany the boys should leave their names with Manager McHugh at once.

GENERAL ELECTRICS WON AT FINALS IN P. B. C. TOURNEY

The final game in the ten pin tournament at the P.B.C. alleys was played last night and as expected the strong General Electric team proved the victors over Munro's Colts, who lost the three games by 286 pins. The game was productive of several surprises, one of the greatest of which was furnished in the opening part of the first game when the Colts started off like scared rabbits and opened a big lead on their bewildered opponents. The latter, however, improved as they went along and soon striking their gait, they gradually overhauled their fleeing rivals and finished up with a margin of over 100 pins to the good.

In the second game the bowling was better all round, the General Electric five winning out by 141 pins. The Colts put forth their best effort of the evening in the final game and at the finish were only 42 pins down.

One of the features of the evening was the splendid work of Herb Martin, who had second high single and second high average for the three games, finishing up with a score of 211. His performance was excelled only by Frank Lawless, who showed exceptional form, rolling a total of 570 his high single being 224.

Tonight the first game in the Consolation series will be played, Hemstead United and McCarroll's Fearnots being the opposing teams.

The scores last night were as follows:

MUNRO'S COLTS

Bruce	143	167	177	487
Lane	92	83	111	276
Huston	111	153	147	441
MacRae	148	108	143	399
Martin	131	169	211	511
	625	680	789	2094

GENERAL ELECTRIC

Gutterson	135	141	144	420
Cairns	143	172	100	415
Jeffrey	135	174	173	482

SIMPSON TO RUN

For the Irish-Canadians at Montreal To-morrow

Fred Simpson, of Hiawatha, has been taken into the fold of the Irish-Canadian Athletic Club, of Toronto.

Fred was in town to-day and took the noon C.P.R. train for Montreal where he will run to-morrow under the Irish-Canadian colors in the big Montreal Star road race. The distance is fifteen miles. Fred will be one of Tom Flannagan's team of four. The others will be Tom Longboat, Hilton Green and another Indian whose name could not be ascertained. The Indian quartette should be able to make a good showing.

Simpson is in fine shape and prepared for the race of his career.

MR. SAM RAY IS THE CHAMPION OF GOLF CLUB

At the links of the Peterborough Golf and Country Club Mr. Sam Ray won the championship of the club yesterday afternoon, when he defeated Mr. Cyril Hill in the final game in the championship competition, defeating Mr. Cyril Hill by 5 up and 4 to go, doing the two rounds in 36. He also beat Mr. R. Neill in the semi-finals 5 up and 4 to go in 36 holes.

This makes Mr. Ray champion of the club for 1908-09. He was in the finals last year with Mr. Burnett.

THE BROWNIES AND TIGERS

The Brownies and Tigers Basket Ball Teams will play to-night at the Y. M. C. A. This makes their first appearance this season.

Both teams are in fine shape and a very exciting game is expected, as both are out to win.

The game will be called at 9.15.

The line-up of teams:

BROWNIES

Defence—E. Payne, E. Dobson.
Centre—Ned Fitzpatrick.
Forwards—G. Miller, F. Cressman.

TIGERS

Defence—D. Loomis, P. Weatherstone.
Centre—H. Staunton.
Forwards—F. Hall, P. Wallace.

HOCKEY GAME ON ROLLER SKATES

The mill hands of the Quaker Oats Co. challenge the office staff to a game of hockey to be played on roller skates, the date to be arranged later. A game of roller hockey would no doubt be an exciting event and would attract a large crowd.

RUNNING

After crowing around Ottawa about what he would do to Longboat at Montreal, Art Burn, the Calgary runner, is not a starter, when Tebb, the newspaper reporter, made him look like a pollywog. Burn forgot that Montreal was on the map.—Toronto Star.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Alfred Shrubb created a sensation here today by announcing that he is going to run at the same time as the Montreal Star's fifteen mile Canadian championship race is run to show how much better he is than Longboat.

The people interested have warned him off because the race is an amateur race but he says the king's highway is free and he will provide his own timekeepers. He says he will be here anyhow on Saturday on his way to Buffalo and if he feels good will run but not interfere with the race proper.

Tom Flanagan says he will stop Shrubb because he's coming here is part of a plot of American athletes to try and professionalise Longboat.

General Otter inspected the 91st regiment, Highlanders at Hamilton, last night.

ENDED IN A FIGHT

An Exciting Time at Lindsay

Spectators at Baseball Match Came to Blows---Game Had to be Called

Special Correspondence.

Lindsay, Oct. 23.—The final game for the championship of the Lindsay Town Baseball League was played last night between the Wideawakes and the Bankers. The game ended in a free fight in the sixth innings, which started among the spectators.

The Wideawakes were ahead 5—4 at that juncture and will probably get the cup.

This is the second time a fight has resulted when these two teams have come together.

Dobson, of Peterborough, played shortstop for the Bankers. Dicky Kings in the six innings.

King sin the six innings.

Batteries—Bankers, Logan and Langdon; Wideawakes, Cinnamon and Gray.

TEN PIN POINTERS

After Pete Lang returns from the Millbrook league to which organization he will shortly be farmed for seasoning purposes, arrangements will be made to hang a red lantern on the head pin for his especial benefit.

A good looking bowler named Cole
Always leaves up a split the first roll,
And he says with a frown,
I could knock 'em all down,
If they would only let me use a long pole.

The police are looking for the man who handed a certain member of the Colts team a cross eyed ball.

MacRae is out with a challenge to roll any man in Peterborough over 100 years of age or under 7.

McCarroll's Fearnots are contemplating a challenge to Munro's Colts and the Colts say "let 'er come."

The Colts claim now that they were overtrained.

"Feed me the balls," cried Jeff excitedly "and I'll eat 'em up."

Wonder where that cross eyed ball came from with Pete Lang's initials be in it.

The total score of Frank Lawless would look very big in the very fastest company.

Herb. Martin and Billy Wareham had a fight for it in the second and games, and strange to say, the honors were all with Martin.

Y. M. C. A. Players

The following members of the Y. M. C. A. Rugby Team are asked to be on hand at Riverside Park at 2.30 o'clock sharp on Saturday afternoon for the junior O. R. F. U. game with Lindsay:

Keily, Moore, Staunton, Canniff, Dobson, Downie, Henderson, Shirley, L. Patterson, Armstrong, Archibald, Walker and Graham.

ARE HOPEFUL OF A VICTORY

Special Correspondence.

Lindsay, Oct. 23.—The local rugby team are in fair shape for their game with the Peterborough Y.M.C.A. in the latter city on Saturday. Since their game with the junior T.A.S. of Peterborough the men have not been indulging in any heavy practice. They are hopeful of victory, but not over-confident. A special train will be run from here, leaving Lindsay at two o'clock, and it is expected that a good sized crowd will accompany the team.

Watching the Anarchists.

Madrid, Oct. 23.—King Alfonso and Queen Victoria, accompanied by Premier Maura, have started for Barcelona, where he will remain until Oct. 27.

All the anarchist centres are being closely watched.

The Daily Tenement Bomb.

New York, Oct. 23.—Another bomb was exploded Wednesday night in an east side tenement, which has been guarded by police for weeks to prevent just such outrages.

Mr. Greenway Improves.

Ottawa, Oct. 23.—Hon. Thomas Greenway was much better last evening.

Fined For Cruelty.

Toronto, Oct. 23.—For cruelty to animals by overcrowding in shipment, James O'Reilly of Bancroft was yesterday afternoon in the Police Court fined $20 and costs by Magistrate Kingsford.

The car had contained 28 cattle, 114 sheep, 4 calves and 6 hogs, 152 animals in all, the smaller animals on an upper deck. The cattle were greatly cramped in a space only four feet high and were kept confined for 17 hours, one of the cattle dying.

King's Messenger Dies.

London, Oct. 23.—Lieut. Arthur Jermy Mounteney Jephson, who has been the King's messenger since 1901, and prior to that the Queen's messenger since 1895, died yesterday.

Lieut. Jephson commanded a detachment in the Emin Pasha relief expedition under Henry M. Stanley in 1887-90.

In 1904 he married Miss Anna Head, the daughter of the late Addison E. Head of San Francisco.

Navy For South Africa.

London, Oct. 23.—(C. A. P.)—At a Johannesburg a banquet was given to Sir Percy Scott and the men of the cruiser squadron now at Durban. The Chief Justice of Pretoria expressed the hope that a Parliament of South Africa would take the earliest opportunity of recognizing their obligation to the navy by making a substantial contribution, unhampered by conditions of local control.

Campaign Party "Stalled."

Windsor, Oct. 23.—Hon. Speaker Sutherland and a party of Liberal speakers were stalled in Maidstone Wednesday night by reason of a special car failing to make connections. They had to catch a freight train, which did not reach Windsor until daylight.

Carpets.

Carpets should be beaten on the wrong side first and then more gently on the right. Never put a carpet down on a damp floor, for this often results in the carpet becoming mildewed.

Gold Coin.

Seventy per cent of the gold in the possession of man is in the form of coin.

Oatmeal and Apples.

Well cooked oatmeal with a raw apple is claimed to be an ideal diet for humanity, and children can keep strong and healthy on this at the smallest possible outlay.

Constables are investigating the wholesale cattle poisoning going on in Oneida.

Season's Crop Burned.

Woodstock, Oct. 23.—Fire, starting presumably from a spark from a threshing engine, broke out in the large barn of Robert Stewart, two miles south of Bennington on the second concession of West Zora. The building was razed to the ground and its contents completely destroyed. The threshing outfit belonged to Robert Gunn of Embro. Stewart's crop had been threshed and the separator and engine were being removed. A large number of hens were also consumed. One thousand bushels of oats and about 150 bushels of peas were burned up. A number of implements were also destroyed.

Gas Overcomes Woman.

St. Catharines, Oct. 23.—A serious case asphyxiation occurred Wednesday on Henrietta street, when Miss Henrietta Hainer, who resides alone was overcome by coal gas. Her brother-in-law, Mr. Henry Shickluna, was buried the same afternoon and she was expected at the funeral. When she did not arrive a messenger was sent to her home across the canal and found her lying on the floor in an unconscious condition and the house permeated with gas. She was removed to a neighbor's house, and later recovered.

Women to Go to Prison.

London, Oct. 23.—Seventeen of the women suffragists who were arrested Oct. 13 during the storming of the House of Commons on charges of disorderly conduct were yesterday sentenced in the Bow street Police Court to terms of imprisonment varying from three weeks to three months.

The women were offered the alternative of giving bonds for their good behavior, but they elected to go to jail.

Girl Shoots Her Seducer.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Jenny Dempsey, 18 years of age, yesterday shot and probably fatally wounded Jos. Georgeopolis. The young woman hysterically declared, when arrested, that her life had been wrecked by the perfidy of Georgeopolis.

Miss Dempsey entered the fruit store where the young Greek was employed.

His Politics a Boomerang.

Windsor, Oct. 23.—Jno. Ross started to make a political canvass among railway employes in the Grand Trunk yards here and became so enthusiastic that he tired himself out. He lay down on the track and was saved from death by the alertness of the engineer of a yard engine. Ross was later arrested and fined $7.50.

Wife Dislikes Notoriety.

Hamilton, Oct. 23.—Fred Kimball, the insurance agent accused of bigamy, was remanded at the Police Court yesterday morning and bail fixed at $1,000. Mrs. Kimball the first cannot be found, and it is said that she is anxious to avoid the notoriety of the trial.

Berlin Holds Rally.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—An immense demonstration in the interests of the Conservative candidate was held here last evening, between 3,000 and 4,000 people turning out to hear Premier Whitney, Hon. J. J. Foy, A. C. Macdonell, and Candidate Reid at the auditorium.

$10,000 Damage Suit.

Montreal, Oct. 23.—Hon. J. A. Ouimet has taken an action against Le Canada for libel, claiming $10,000 damage done the plaintiff during the campaign.

HOW CHORUS GIRLS SECURE ARISTOCRATIC HUSBANDS

Are girls attracted towards musical comedy in the hope of making a good matrimonial catch? That undoubtedly is the motive which actuates quite a number of the girls who apply for positions in the chorus at many of the great west-end theatres.

PREMIUMS PAID

"I can think of no other reason why they should besiege managers in the way they do," said a prominent musical comedy actress. "They cannot sing, they cannot dance, and have not had the slightest experience of stage or concert work. In some cases they are not even pretty, as regards face or figure, and yet they are willing to pay a premium of twenty and even fifty pounds to appear in the chorus at a salary of twenty-five or thirty shillings per week.

"And a very regrettable feature of the business is that they often do secure engagements through such influence, and crowd out those girls who posses real talent and have their living to make. What is more, the recent epidemic of marriages between the stage and young men of title seems to have added considerably to the number of young ladies who regard musical comedy as an easy stepping-stone to a good marriage. G. P. Huntley, I noticed the other day, was complaining that he had been 'snowed under'—those were his exact words—by close upon one thousand girls as a result of his advertising for a few chorus girls and show ladies for his new play, 'The Honorable Phil.'

MR. G. P. HUNTLEY'S JOKE

"'Some of them,' he said, 'were accompanied by their fathers and mothers, who were quite willing to pay me a handsome fee if I would give their daughters a good place in the chorus, in the hope of catching the roving eye of a budding peer with histrionic tendencies in the marriage mart. At last things got so bad that he asked a certain newspaper to say that, unless a girl was willing to pay £5,000 cash down for a position, with the promise of another £5,000 in the event of a successful alliance, he could not possibly consider her application. Of course, Mr. Huntley was partly joking, but managers are constantly complaining of the dearth of chorus girls possessing ability and ambition to rise in the profesion.

CLEVER AS WELL AS PRETTY.

"And even although a girl may get a position in the chorus through money and influence, she often spoils all chance of marriage by her ignorance of singing and acting. Miss Storey, who recently married Earl Poulett; Miss Denis Orme, who wedded Captain Yarde-Buller; Miss Camille Clifford, who was led to the altar by the Hon. H. Bruce; Miss Frances Donnelly, the present Lady Ashburton, and Miss Eva Carrington, who became the wife of Baron de Clifford, were all clever artistes, who, had they remained on the stage, would have made much bigger names for themselves in the profession than they did.

"Their attraction lay as much in their cleverness as in their good looks. When a chorus girl, however, goes out of her way, as I have often seen them do, to attract the attention of aristocratic patrons of the theatre by driving up to the stage door in a cab or electric brougham, ogling dudes across the footlights, readily accepting their invitations to supper, and always seeking introductions, she may as well forego all thoughts of a good matrimonial catch, for her object is apparent to everyone.

NOT A GENERAL INDICTMENT.

"Mark you, this is not a general indictment of the chorus girl, but simply of that type—which, I am sorry to say, seems steadily growing—which has no intention or need to remain on the stage. And to the credit of such girls it may be said that they make no secret of their desire, and openly speak of their chances of catching a 'pie,' to use a common slang expression.

"But it is the quiet girl who attracts—the girl whose thoughts are concentrated on her work instead of on marriage. She it is who gets the majority of little notes sent through the stage doorkeeper asking if Miss —— will join Mr. —— at a little supper and bring a friend as chaperon. And if she is a wise girl she will refuse such invitations. To say the least it is rank impertinence on the part of any man who is a stranger to a chorus girl to send such notes.

ARISTOCRATS IN THE CHORUS

"But I have known men who have had such advances rejected, and who have been genuinely attracted by a girl, endeavor to obtain an introduction by paying for a position in the chorus themselves. I know several well-to-do young men who have thus wooed and won wives from the chorus. What is more, they have developed into very good singers and actors, and managers have been really sorry to lose their services.

"Take the case of Mr. Harold Borrett, for instance, who recently married Miss Studholme. He was a splendid vocalist and actor, and had no difficulty in securing engagements, in fact, he had been on the stage some time before he met Miss Studholme, although some people have made the mistake of thinking he went behind the footlights solely for the purpose of being near the present Mrs. Borrett.

"It is an open secret, however, that he afterwards managed to become a member of nearly all the companies with which Miss Studholme was associated.

"Then, again, there have been cases in which young aristocrats have put thousands of pounds into a piece in order that the girl they admired might have a chance of making a name."

THE MYSTERY

By STEWART EDWARD WHITE
And SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS

COPYRIGHT, 1907, BY McCLURE, PHILLIPS & CO.

"I loaf around here and there in the world, having a good time traveling, visiting, fooling around. Every once in awhile something interests me. The thing is a sort of instinct. I run it down. If it's a good story, I send it in. That's all there is to it." He laughed slightly. "You see, I'm a sort of magazine writer in method, but my stuff is newspaper stuff; also the game suits me. That's why I play it. That's why I'm here. I have to tell you about myself this way so you will understand how I came to be mixed up in this Laughing Lass matter."

"I remember," commented Barnett, "that when you came aboard the North Dakota you had a little trouble making Captain Arnold see it." He turned to the others with a laugh. "He had all kinds of papers of ancient date, but nothing modern—letter from the Star dated five years back, recommendations to everybody on earth except Captain Arnold, certificate of bravery in Apache campaign, bank identifications and all the rest. 'Maybe you're the Star's correspondent and maybe you're not,' said the captain, 'I don't see anything here to prove it.' Slade argued an hour. No go. Remember how you caught him?" he inquired of Slade.

The reporter grinned assent.

"After the old man had turned him down good Slade fished down in his war bag and hauled out an old tattered document from an oilskin case. 'Hold on a minute,' said he, 'you old shellback. I've proved to you that I can write and I've proved to you that I have fought, and now here I'll prove to you that I can sail. If writing, fighting and sailing don't fit me adequately to report any little disturbances your antiquated washboiler may blunder into I'll go to raising cabbages.' With that he presented a master's certificate! Where did you get it anyway? I never found out?"

"Passed as 'fresh-water' on the great lakes," replied Slade briefly.

"Well, the spunk and the certificate finished the captain. He was an old square rigger himself in the civil war."

"So much for myself," Slade continued. "As for the Laughing Lass"—

CHAPTER VIII.

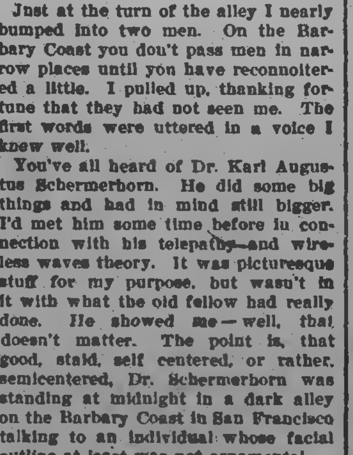
A COINCIDENCE got me aboard the Laughing Lass. I'll tell you how it was. One evening late I was just coming out of a dark alley on the Barbary Coast, San Francisco. You know—the water front, where you can hear more tongues than at Port Said, see stranger sights and meet adventure with the joyous certainty of mediaeval times. I'd been down there hunting up a man reported by a wharf rat of my acquaintance to have just returned from a two years' whaling voyage. He'd been "shanghaied" aboard, and as a matter of fact was worth nearly a million dollars. Landed in the city without a cent, could get nobody to believe him nor trust him to the extent of a telegram east. Wharf rat laughed at his yarn, but I believe it was true. Good copy anyway—

Just at the turn of the alley I nearly bumped into two men. On the Barbary Coast you don't pass men in narrow places until you have reconnoitered a little. I pulled up, thanking fortune that they had not seen me. The first words were uttered in a voice I knew well.

You've all heard of Dr. Karl Augustus Schermerhorn. He did some big things and had in mind still bigger. I'd met him some time before in connection with his telepathy and wireless waves theory. It was picturesque stuff for my purpose, but wasn't in it with what the old fellow had really done. He showed me—well, that doesn't matter. The point is, that good, staid, self centered, or rather, semicentered, Dr. Schermerhorn was standing at midnight in a dark alley on the Barbary Coast in San Francisco talking to an individual whose facial outline at least was not ornamental.

My curiosity or professional instinct, whichever you please, was all aroused. I flattened myself against the wall.

The first remark I lost. The reply came to me in a shrill falsetto. So grotesque was the effect of this treble from a bulk so squat and broad and hairy as the silhouette before me that I almost laughed aloud.



"I haf been told you might rent her," said the doctor.

"I guess you've made no mistake on that. I'm her master and her owner too."

"Well, I haf been told you might rent her," said the doctor.

"Rent her!" mimicked the falsetto. "Well, that—yes, I'll rent her!" he laughed again.

"Doch recht." The doctor was plainly at the end of his practical resources.

After waiting a moment for something more definite, the falsetto inquired rather dryly:

"How long? What to? What for? Who are you anyway?"

"I am Dr. Schermerhorn," the latter answered.

"Seen pieces about you in the papers."

"How many men haf you in the crew?"

"Me and the mate and the cook and four hands."

"And you could go—soon?"

"Soon as you want—if I go."

"I wish to leaf tomorrow."

"If I can get the crew together I might make it. But say, let's not hang out here in this run of darkness. Come over to the grog shop yonder, where we can sit down."

To my relief, for my curiosity was fully aroused — Dr. Schermerhorn's movements are usually productive—this proposal was vetoed.

"No, no!" cried the doctor, with some haste, "this iss well! Somebody might oferhear."

The huge figure stirred into an attitude of close attention. After a pause the falsetto asked deliberately:

"Where we goin'?"

"I brefer not to say."

"H'm! How long a cruise?"

"I want to rent your schooner and your crew as long as I please to remain."

"H'm! How long's that likely to be?"

"Maybe a few months; maybe seferal years."

"H'm! Unknown port; unknown cruise. See here, anything crooked in this?"

"No, no! Not at all! It iss simply business of my own."

"Not that I care," commented the other easily, "only risks is worth paying for."

"There shall not be risk."

"Pearls likely?" hazarded the other, without much heed to the assurance. "Them Jap gunboats is getting pretty hard to dodge of late years. However, I've dodged 'em before."

"Now as to pay—how mooch iss your boat worth?"

I could almost follow the man's thoughts as he pondered how much he dared ask.

"Well, you see, for a proposition like that—don't know where we're going, when we're going to get back, and them gunboats—how would a hundred and twenty-five a month strike you?"

"Double it up. I want you to do ass I say, and I will also give your crew double wages. Bud I want goot men who will stay and who will keep the mouth shut."

"Gosh all fishhooks! They'd go to hell with you for that!"

"Now you can get all you want of Adams & Marsh. Tell them it iss for me. Brovisions for three years anyhow. Be ready to sail tomorrow."

"Tide turns at 8 in the evening."

"I will send some effects in the morning."

The master hesitated.

"That's all right, doctor, but how do I know it's all right? Maybe by morning you'll change your mind."

"That cannot be. My plans are all"—

"It's the usual thing to pay something"—

"Ach, but yes. I haf forgot. Darrow told me. I will make you a check. Let us go to the table of which you spoke."

They moved away, still talking. I did not dare follow them into the light, for I feared that the doctor would recognize me. I'd have given my eye teeth, though, to have gathered the name of the schooner or that of her master. As it was, I hung around until the two had emerged from the corner saloon. They paused outside, still talking earnestly. I ventured a hasty interview with the barkeeper.

"Did you notice the two men who were sitting at the middle table?" I asked him.

"Sure!" said he, shoving me my glass of beer.

"Know them?" I inquired.

"Never laid eyes on 'em before. Old chap looked like a sort of corn doctor or corner spellbinder. Other was probably one of these longshore abalone men."

"Thanks," I muttered and dodged out again, leaving the beer untouched.

I cursed myself for a blunderer. When I got to the street the two men had disappeared. I should have shadowed the captain to his vessel.

The affair interested me greatly. Apparently Dr. Schermerhorn was about to go on a long voyage. I prided myself on being fairly up to date in regard to the plans of those who interested the public, and the public at that time was vastly interested in Dr. Schermerhorn. I, in common with the rest of the world, had imagined him anchored safely in Philadelphia, immersed in chemical research. Here he bobbed up at the other end of the continent, making shady bargains with obscure shipping captains and paying a big premium for absolute secrecy. It looked good.

Accordingly I was out early the next morning. I had not much to go by. Schooners are as plentiful as tadpoles in San Francisco harbor. However, I was sure I could easily recognize that falsetto voice, and I knew where the supplies were to be purchased. Adams & Marsh are a large firm and cautious. I knew better than to make direct inquiries or to appear in the salesroom. But by hanging around the door of the shipping room I soon had track of the large orders to be sent that day. In this manner I had no great difficulty in following a truck to pier 10 nor to identify a consignment to Captain Ezra Selover as probably that of which I was in search.

The mate was in charge of the stowage, so I could not be quite sure. Here, however, was a schooner—of about 150 tons burden. I looked her over.

You're all acquainted with the Laughing Lass and the perfection of her lines. You have not known her under Captain Ezra Selover. She was the cleanest ship I ever saw. Don't know how he accomplished it, with a crew of four and the cook, but he did. The deck looked as though it had been holystoned every morning by a crew of jackies. The stays were whipped and tarred, the mast new slushed and every foot of running gear coiled down shipshape and Bristol fashion. There was a good deal of brass about her. It shone like gold, and I don't believe she owned an inch of paint that wasn't either fresh or new scrubbed.

I gazed for some time at this marvel. It's unusual enough anywhere, but aboard a California hooker it is little short of miraculous. The crew had all turned up apparently, and a swarm of stevedores were hustling every sort of provisions, supplies, stock, spars, lines and canvas down into the hold. It was a rush job, and that mate was having his hands full. I didn't wonder at his language nor at his looks, both of which were somewhat mussed up. Then almost at my elbow I heard that shrill falsetto squeal and turned just in time to see the captain ascend the after gangplank.

He was probably the most disheveled and untidy man I ever laid my eyes on. His hair and beard were not only long, but tangled and unkempt and grew so far toward each other as barely to expose a strip of dirty brown skin. His shoulders were bowed and enormous. His arms hung like a gorilla's, palms turned slightly outward. On his head was jammed a linen boating hat that had once been white. Gaping away from his hairy chest was a faded dingy checked cotton shirt that had once been brown and white. His blue trousers were spotted and splashed with dusty stains. He was chewing tobacco. A figure more in contrast to the exquisitely neat vessel it would be hard to imagine.

The captain mounted the gangplank with a steadiness that disproved my first suspicion of his having been on a drunk. He glanced aloft, cast a speculative eye on the stevedores trooping across the waist of the ship and ascended to the quarter deck, where the mate stood leaning over the rail and uttering directed curses from between sweat beaded lips. There the big man roamed aimlessly on what seemed to be a tour of casual inspection. Once he stopped to breathe on the brass binnacle and to rub it bright with the dirtiest red bandanna handkerchief I ever want to see.

His actions amused me. The discrepancy between his personal habits and his particularity in the matter of his surroundings was exceedingly interesting. I have often noticed that such discrepancies seem to indicate exceptional characters. As I watched him his whole frame stiffened. The long gorilla arms contracted, the hairy head sunk forward in the tenseness of a serpent ready to strike. He uttered a shrill falsetto shriek that brought to a standstill every stevedore on the job and sprang forward to seize his mate by the shoulder.

Evidently the grasp hurt. I can believe it might from those huge hands. The man wrenched himself about with an oath of inquiry and pain. I could hear one side of what followed. The captain's high pitched tones carried clearly, but the grumble and growl of the mate were indistinguishable at that distance.

DOMINION ELECTIONS

To the Electors of the West Riding of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN:—The condition of industry in Canada is bad. The condition of workingmen is following suit. Their beautiful homes are becoming the prey of reduced circumstances. To the extent that we pay out money to other countries for work that should be done here we are traitors to our workingmen. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has brought this about to such a degree that Canada has paid out in the last twelve years (being the term during which the Liberals have been in power) hundreds of millions of dollars more than she took in. It was not so under a protectionist government. Those millions should have been spent at home. Then there would have been work for our workers to that extent at any rate, and what is more, the money would have been kept in the country. As it is we have to borrow to get it back. We have to borrow for gigantic enterprises which serve to make the big money-lender, the stock gambler and the contractor rich, but what good is it doing the workingman? To add insult to his injury Sir Wilfrid Laurier has opened the gates on the East and the West to immigrants. Those on the East, our own kith and kin, have been misled by misrepresentatation and entrapped by agents who are paid a bonus for their capture. Those on the West are the untold millions of the Orient who are displacing the whites in B.C. are working East and are dispossessing Canadians of their own country. They lower the rate of wages and the standard of living. If Canada is to be kept up as she was but a few years ago she must not be allowed to fall into the class of "cheap and nasty" nations. If her people are to be well housed, well fed, well educated and above the condition of sweaters, they must demand a tariff against sweatwork, against undue immigration, against undue importation and a high protection for employers and employed alike, against the trickery of men who make their money on the stock market and by graft. The workers are slowly but surely becoming poorer than they used to be in this naturally rich and resourceful country. Why? Because the cream of all work goes to the money-lender of New York and London.

Why are the men of Canada idle? Because others will do the work cheaper in Britain and Germany and we let them invade our markets while they keep us out of theirs. The German tariff, the United States tariff, the French tariff are all vastly higher than ours. Britain protects herself where she needs it, by a Cattle Embargo and by the Patents Act, which requires patented articles (and nearly all are patented) to be manufactured there. There is never depression in France. The French have a high tariff and economize. They have always plenty for a rainy day. The Germans likewise keep their own work in their own country, but are weighed down with militarism Britain suffers because her work is being done elsewhere, although she is changing that rapidly, but she has an immense start over Canada in her already accumulated capital. The United States is the modern wonder of the world, due altogether to high protection. Protection or tariff has been well said to be the measure of the standard of life amongst the workers. Commodities in protected countrie are not higher than in unprotected. Clothing under a low tariff in Canada is higher in price than it used to be under a high tariff. Certain ills due to over-expansion, the machinations of stockgamblers, etc., exist in all countries, but when an ill is plainly preventable, why not prevent it? Sending cash out of the country over and above what we take in will never make us rich. Yet we do it and must do it under our present system of trade Opening up unnecessary lands as in the West, while Ontario is not half populated or developed is of a piece with rest, but it is the delight of the money-lender. Ontario farms are rapidly decreasing in value. A huge national deficit is accumulating for this year and unless times are checked and we are restored to our own, the coming winter will be a veritable horror. The money that we are borrowing in such immense sums if spent for supplies, made in Canada, would mean work for everyone at good wages. Why then does Sir Wilfrid permit rails for the G. T. P. to be bought out of Canada and clothing that would keep our farmers growing wool and our woollen mills weaving it, to be imported without hindrance?

To say that one government is as bad as another is to say that one man or one set of men is no better as managers than another. We know this to be the reverse of correct in government, in trade, in railways or in anything else. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, although the Conservative administration, as it proved, was falling to pieces, could never have got into power had he not agreed to "let the tariff alone." This pledge he contrived to evade on the ground that while the U. S., Germany, etc., were prosperous under a protective tariff, he could make Canada a brilliant and enduring exception under a low tariff and a preference. Now he is compelled to fall back on the statement that depression is worldwide and that therefore Canada must share it.

Then the boast of great enterprises! Vast sums of money have been borrowed and spent but who has got the benefit of it? Who has been made rich? Where has it gone The charge we make against the administration of Sir Wilfred Laurier is that it is in the grasp of the great money-lenders. It has ceased to represent the people. Is it any wonder men lose faith in the forms of government? Without any government at all there would be a happier people. If the times are not rescued, whether it be by a party or by a people, civilization will be destroyed. The thunder of revolt is already heard. Religion, art, education—all will go with the frenzied efforts of men to get out of the grasp of Money which never loses, never shares its needs, into a state of freedom and a natural fruition of honest work and a resourceful soil.

I am not rich, nor am I able to live without working, as has been said, and I never was. The stock exchange where so many have won fabulous riches at the expense of the steady worker underneath is unknown to me. If I have no money to lose I have none to be ashamed of.

The day of the abject party man is gone. Let humanity have a chance.

I solicit your vote and influence and have the honour to remain,

Yours faithfully,

J. H. BURNHAM

WORMS OFTEN DAMAGE CORK

And Wine in Bottles Becomes Bad as Result

"To the average person a cork is a cork," said a well-known restaurant man the other day. "But smell this cordial. Would you believe it?" and he held up a bottle supposed to have the bouquets of cherries all the way from the blossom to the pit. The odor was musty and altogether unpleasant; in fact, it was decidedly bad. He continued:—

"Now, the man paying 20 cents for his tiny glass of cordial after dinner is entitled to have it free from imperfections. If he bought a bottle of wine with that flavor he would say the wine was bad, for ninety men out of a hundred know nothing about bad corks. He would want another bottle of wine or his money refunded, and he would be right.

"The deceit is in a tiny worm in the cork that is often invisible to the man cutting corks, and sometimes cannot be seen after the cork is drawn. A customer will taste the wine and say 'Bad wine.' You explain about the cork and and he will say, 'Impossible; that was a beautiful cork, beautiful.' And yet we know that the contents of the bottle never could have that flavor under other conditions.

"I tell you there are millions of dollars waiting for the man who can invent a perfect cork that will stand the test of years for flavor and preserving qualities. If it could be proved that his invention was perfect he would make millions in a month."—New York Herald.

FRESH RASPBERRIES PICKED IN BURLEIGH YESTERDAY

Mr. Alfred Parker returned to the city last evening from his cottage at Lovesick Lake, where he was called on account of the danger his summer home was in of being burned down.

Mr. Parker was somewhat greatly surprised to find the raspberry bushes around his cottage bearing the second yield of berries. Mr. Parker brought a cluster of the fruit into the office this morning. There were several large, luscious berries in it. This is a most remarkable thing to see ripe, red raspberries grown at this season of the year.

Speaking of the bush fires in Burleigh township, Mr. Parker stated that there were fully seven hundred acres of woods on fire. It is burning within twenty five yards of his cottage. He spoke most commendably of the brave work of Mr. McFarlane and his daughter in fighting the flames.

The rear of Mr. Johnston's cottage near Mr. Parker's is all black and charred from the fire.

SHOW HEARTY APPROVAL OF MR. BURNHAM'S CANDIDATURE

Magnificent Meetings at Bridgenorth and Selwyn—Speakers Urge the Wisdom of Electing the Conservative Candidate and Placing the Conservative Party in Power at Ottawa.

DISASTROUS REIGN OF LAURIER ADMINISTRATION

In the matters of attendance the meeting held in Mr. Burnham's interests at Bridgenorth last night was most satisfactory and encouraging and in the matters of attention and enthusiasm it was equally so. The meeting was held in the dining room of the Chemong Park Hotel and an audience that filled the room was in attendance. The place of meeting was handsomely adorned for the occasion with flags and mottoes. Reeve Scott of Smith, occupied the chair and stirring addresses were given by Mr. Burnham, Mr. Kendrey, Mr. Peck and Mr. Bradburn.

Mr. Burnham who made a ten-minute speech before taking his departure for Selwyn where he had been previously advertised began by a discussion of the tariff. The Laurier tariff is an unprotected measure. It is high enough to enable the government to get in an extravagantly large revenue but not high enough to protect Canadian wages. An example of this had this very day come to hand. The CGE. of Peterborough and the Westinghouse of Hamilton had obtained two large contracts from the Ontario government which they never could have got against German competition in the face of the low Canadian tariff if Whitney had not ignored foreign tenders and resolved to keep the work and the money in Canada at all hazards. Whitney relied upon the support of Canadian public opinion in adopting such a striking and heroic measure of defence for Canadian labor against the low Laurier tariff which serves no good purpose whatever. A low tariff allows lower prices to the great contractors. A cruel immigration law allowed cheap labor and plenty of it to the same gentlemen. An extravagant national expenditure provided ways and means. The workingmen of Canada slave to pay for all. Is it fair to allow outsiders to do our work with our own money. Elect Borden and keep both in the country.

MR JAS. KENDREY.

Mr. Kendry followed Mr. Burnham. He had much pleasure in being present in the interests of the Conservative candidate. He compared the qualities of the two candidates. Mr Stratton had been practically turned out of the Ross government. The Royal Commission had proved his improper handling of $10,000 in connection with the Home Life.

"What did Mr. Stratton ever do for you in this riding," asked Mr. Kendrey.

Mr Bradburn in his four years in the provincial house had got more for West Peterborough than Stratton ever did. In his opinion Stratton has obtained nothing except for Stratton. Mr. Stratton thought himself a great captain of industry and imagined that he had done much to build up Peterborough. Mr. Kendrey ridiculed these statements and proved that his connection with industrial concerns was not anything like what he would like the people to believe. He accused Mr. Stratton of falsity on the public platform. Mr. Stratton had little to do with the upbuilding of Peterborough. He did not think Mr Stratton a fit man to represent this riding. He was mixed up in all kinds of shady deals in the Ontario House and in insurance companies. A public man should be above reproach. Mr Burnham was characterized as such a man.

The country sadly needed a higher tariff protection so it would not be flooded with a cheap class of goods. In Mr Kendrey's own particular line of business within the last seven or eight years the woollen tariff had been reduced twice.

179 factories had gone out of business in that time and a loss of $7,000,000 had been sustained. A higher tariff was required to protect Canadian manufacturers. Inferior goods had been dumped into the country from the Old Country.

The Examiner, he said, was trying to stab one of the oldest manufacturers in the city of Peterborough today. The woollen mills which Mr. Kendrey had been at the head of in Peterborough for years, had paid out over $1,500,000 in wages. What capital had Stratton in anything? The speaker had lost more money in one day than Stratton had ever put into anything in his life. The Examiner violently assailed the woollen industry in its issue of last night and Mr. Kendrey condemned the outrageous and unjust character of the attacks.

By the extravagance of the Laurier government the pinch of hard times was being felt. In twelve years the expenditure had been astounding. Last year alone it amounted to 96 million and the estimate for next year amounted to 124 million. If the present government went on the country would be ruined, and trade is getting worse every day instead of better. If the Conservative government came in the first steps taken would be to reduce this reckless expenditure. The Transcontinental was the project of the Conservative government but the Liberal administration had needlessly duplicated the road by building it in the same territory as the Intercolonial. The speaker prophesied the defeat of Mr. Stratton and the triumph of Mr. Borden.—Applause.

Mr Stratton had to advertise his honesty and he had a very poor case.—Laughter. There was no more dishonest politician in this country than J. R. Stratton. He expected to win by dishonesty. With the exception of the first election he ran Stratton never contested a fair election in his life. This riding wants the man not the money.

"If you have to take the money, why take it and vote for Mr. Burnham," said Mr. Kendrey in a jocular mood amid much laughter and applause. After the 26th there would be a good government and a good representative of the West Riding of Peterborough.—Prolonged Applause.

MR. E. A. PECK.

Mr Peck expressed his appreciation of the excellent place which had been secured for the meeting and thanks were due Mr. and Mrs. Brown for their kindness. He was very pleased to see so many ladies in attendance. It was most encouraging to see such a large number at a meeting for they had quite a controlling interest in the matter of vote.

Sir Wilfrid promised that if his party were put in power the expenditures of the country would be reduced two and three million dollars annually. It was on that issue that his party was returned. The speaker in 1896 did think that probably the Laurier Government, if returned, would reduce it. But what do we find? Each year the expenditure has rapidly increased. They seemed entirely unable to control the expenses of the country. There has been no assurance from the government that this expenditure will be reduced. Mr. Peck remarked that the country had progressed, but the expenditure was far out of proportion in comparison with the increase in population. The speaker next dealt with how the money had been expended. The Conservatives on the Public Accounts Committee have been exceedingly active and the Government has been shown to be exceedingly extravagant. They pose as a business government and Mr. Stratton says that he is a business man and wants to support a business government.

He asked his hearers if they thought the Government had a business way of doing things.

Mr. Peck spoke of one, Mervin, who purchased things at a low figure and and had sold them to the Government at an exorbitant price. He told of other instances of graft along these lines proving the ridiculously high prices paid by the Government for articles that were worth far less than the price paid for them. This was in order to give favorite friends a chance to make a big profit. His remarks of ridicule caused considerable merriment among the audience.

The speaker wanted to say some things of the way this money that had been so recklessly expended by the Government had been obtained. He took the audience back to the Government of Sir John A. Macdonald, who was a great protectionist and who said, we can't be a country unless we manufacture the goods we need. Under Sir John A. Macdonald a protective policy was adopted and continued until 1896. The Government in order to make greater profits reduced the tariff a little. Of course they couldn't abolish the protective tariff altogether. Foreign goods began to come in faster and faster. But what happened to the country. In the past year of the present administration the people had paid out $90,000,000 more in goods and money than had been taken in from foreign countries. The time is bound to come, when more is now being spent than is made, that the country will become impoverished. Mr. Fielding, the Finance Minister, assured us we would have a substantial deficit this year. The speaker referred in strong language to the erratic and terribly expensive mismanagement by the Laurier Government of the lands and timbers of the country. He told of the criminal grafting done in the celebrated Saskatchewan valley land deal and the Robins grant. He simply used these as illustrations of the actions of the Government. The Government could not possibly claim to be a business Government and could not possibly lay any claim to return to power. By returning the Conservatives the conditions would be immeasurably bettered and the Dominion Government would then give the same satisfaction in looking after the affairs of the Dominion as the Whitney administration had in attending to those of the province. Stratton had issued many circulars to the people. It was pathetic to realize that Mr. Stratton could only give the poor little expressions for support he did in his circulars. Where was the endorsation of the Liberal leaders of the province. Not one would come to give him a helping hand. What had the men who had sat in the Cabinet with him done to support him. Would he then, have any pull with Sir Wilfrid Laurier? Mr. Burnham would be the man for the people to elect and the electors would be doing their duty if they returned him. (Great applause.)

Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P., was privileged to be present to support Mr. Burnham. He, like the other speakers, was very glad to see so many ladies in attendance. He made some jolly remarks in which the ladies were mentioned as controlling many votes. Mr. Stratton had claimed doing many things for the riding which he had never done. He took credit for the Bensfort bridge. The speaker's knowledge of the matter was altogether different. Mr. Stevenson, the Conservative representative, brought up the matter in the House and Mr. Stratton had simply endorsed a delegation which wanted $1,000 for expenditure on the bridge. He also claimed many things which he seemed to consider a benefit to the country. But their value was certainly doubtful. In the speaker's opinion Stratton had done nothing for the country. He had often asked what he had done but nobody could point out anything he had accomplished for West Peterborough. The Whitney Government had had a $52,000 Normal school built here and this was a great benefit to the country. Mr. Stratton could have had established an asylum in the township of Smith, the asylum which was now in the city of Woodstock. Stratton laid claim to bringing the Canadian General Electric Company to Peterborough. He had done no more in this respect than the speaker, who was on deputations the same as Mr. Stratton. The above claims were outlined in Mr. Stratton's address to the electors and Mr. Bradburn proved his claims were unfounded. The grafters of the Liberal Government were spoken of.

"The Liberals have referred to us as continually talking of graft and scandal," said Mr. Bradburn, "but we can't help it. They have given us nothing else to talk about."

The Government was expending in an illegal way the money of the people. It was the duty of the people to turn out the present Government. He asked for the hearty support of Mr. Burnham and Mr. Borden. (Loud applause.)

This concluded the speaking and three hearty cheers were given for the King, Mr. Burnham and Mr. Borden.

SELWYN MEETING

At Selwyn there was a very large attendance of electors, who gave the Conservative candidate a demonstrative welcome on his arrival from the Bridgenorth meeting at 9 o'clock. Mr. R. J. Soden and Lieut.-Col. Miller had gone to Selwyn, while Messrs. Kendry and Bradburn had taken charge of the meeting in the interests of the candidate at Bridgenorth. The trenchant discussion of public affairs in Canada was frequently applauded. Grit and Tory malefactors were given equal treatment in this respect. As a matter of fact the grafter knows no party, country, race or religion. He is a grafter, a despoiler, a debauchee and a moral anarchist. Whoever's fault it is Canada is at present the grafter's paradise. Mr. Burnham, here as at Bridgenorth related the giving of the immense contract, present and future, to Canadian firms by the Ontario Government in defiance of the low Laurier tariff. To withstand foreign, notably German competition, which has been walking off with a great deal of Canadian work, owing to its cheaper labour, the Ontario Government had given the work to our own people, from whom alone tenders were asked. This is the greatest object lesson of the necessity of a higher tariff yet recorded in Canada. Protection is protection for the workingman.

HAVELOCK'S FIRST REEVE PASSES AWAY

Death of Mr. Alex McAuley Who Was First Reeve of the Railroad Village

Special to the Review

Havelock, Oct. 22—Word was received here today of the death of Mr. Alex McAuley of West Toronto from pneumonia at the age of 58 years. The deceased is well known in this town having resided in Havelock for some time. He was Havelock's first reeve. While residing here he was roadmaster on the C.P.R. After staying here a year and taking an ardent interest in the building of sidewalks and street improvements generally, the village then being a part of the municipality of the township of Belmont, he saw the necessity of having the village represented in the council and interested himself in municipal matters becoming a candidate for councillor in January 1889. Success crowned his efforts and he was elected. The following year, although only serving as councillor for one year and still a comparative stranger in the municipality he boldly opposed the invincible John Brown and was elected by five votes and next year was elected by acclamation. He took an active part in the corporation of Havelock and was elected the first reeve and served also as treasurer for some time. He was later removed to West Toronto.

His many friends in town will regret very much to learn of his death.

Col. Jeffrey Burland, who gave $75,000 to found a Tuberculosis hospital in Montreal, has purchased a large house in Belmont Park, for $30,0000 and the home will be started at once.

WILL VOTE ON LOCAL OPTION

Petition Has Been Signed at Havelock and will be Submitted to Council

Special to the Review.

Havelock, October 22—The petition for local option which has been circulated by two of our resident clergymen has been signed by the required number, 25 per cent. of the electors. It will be handed to the council at their next meeting, and it is very likely a by-law for local option will be submitted to the people at the municipal elections in January next.

NEGOTIATIONS MAY END RUMORS OF MORE TROUBLE

Bulgarian Envoy is Recalled.

Turkish and Bulgarian Representatives Have Been Hard at Work.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 24.—The Government has ordered M. Dimitroff, its special envoy to Constantinople, to return here for new instructions.

This has given rise to fears that the Turco-Bulgarian negotiations looking to a settlement of the trouble that has arisen from Bulgaria's sudden declaration of independence have become futile. But the Government insists that the negotiations have not been broken; they have only been interrupted to permit the envoys to report adequately in person.

Since the beginning of the crisis neither state has transmitted any messages in cipher. M. Dimitroff has been able to send only fragmentary open despatches.

Count Thurn, the diplomatic agent here of Austria-Hungary, had a long conference yesterday with M. Poprikoff. At the conclusion of his talk, he said the prospects for peace were good in spite of this hitch in the negotiations. It is the opinion of the count that Bulgaria eventually will consent to pay a moderate sum, about $12,000,000 to Turkey in lieu of tribute.

The negotiations between M. Dimitroff and Kaimil Pasha, the grand vizier of Turkey, were a perfect example of oriental bargaining. M. Stoyamovish, and Towfik Pasha, the Turkish Minister of Foreign Affairs, also were present at the meetings.

At the outset the Turks would only concede the veriest minimum; the recognition of Northern Bulgaria as an independent kingdom, Rumelia to remain a vassal principality and continue to pay tribute and the Rumelian railways to remain Turkish property. The Bulgarians rejected these proposals without discussion.

At a subsequent sitting the Turks consented to recognize both Bulgarias as an independent kingdom on the condition that this kingdom pay the Rumelian tribute and the cost of the railway property, plus arrears. The tribute due from Northern Bulgaria is estimated at 100,000 Turkish pounds a year.

At the final meeting the Turkish demands were reduced to the mere payment of the Rumelian tribute and for the railway. The Bulgarians declared their willingness to pay for the railway, but said they would give no tribute. At this point the negotiations were interrupted and the envoys recalled.

BOY HAD HIS RIGHT ARM FRACTURED

While Playing Football Yesterday Afternoon on Rogers St.

While playing yesterday afternoon with a number of boys in a field on Rogers street north Ashburnham, Egbert Williams, had the misfortune to fracture his right arm just above the wrist. The boys were enjoying a game of football. Young Williams was running along, not noticing where he was going, he fell down an enbankment, his whole weight bearing on his right hand. The young lad was taken to his home on Euclid avenue, where a doctor was called and the injured limb set.

2,602,640 POUNDS, THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF CHEESE BOARDED DURING THE CURRENT YEAR

This is Approximate Total With Average of 12c Pound Makes Aggregate of $312,316.80 Paid to Factories

12 9-16 cents per pound was the highest price paid on the Peterborough Cheese Board this year. This is a good figure and is higher than any paid last year. The largest total of cheese boarded was at the meeting of July 8th when 4874 was the total and the lowest at the first meeting of the board on May 20th, when 979 was the aggregate. The lowest price was at the second meeting on June 3rd when 10 7-8 cents was the best realized.

Ten meetings have been held altogether this year and the eleventh and concluding one will take place on November 4th. The grand total of cheese boarded this year is 32,533 boxes and with 80 pounds to the box, this makes a total of 2,602,640 pounds. The average price would probably be about 12 cents. This may be a little high but is approximately a fair figure to strike. Taking that the 2,602,640 pounds is sold at 12 cents per pound the total sum paid by the buyers to the factory would be $312,316.80

So it will be seen that the Peterborough cheese board is of immense value to the county both from the standpoint of the farmer who sells his milk to the factories and from that of the factories which in turn sell to the buyer. This year has been a good one although the dry weather has proved a drawback.

The summary for the year is given below

Date	cheese boarded	price
May 20	979	10 13-16
June 3	2643	10 7-8
June 17	4561	11 5-16
July 8	4874	11 9-16
August 5	4222	12
August 19	3818	12 7-16
September 2	3985	12 1-4
September 23	3495	12 9-16
October 7	3165	12 1-8

BIG CONTRACT SECURED BY CANADIAN GENERAL ELECTRIC CO.

Will Mean Enlargement of the Plant and Buildings and Increase in Staff and Force of Workmen

BUT MR. STRATTON WOULD HAVE IT THERE IS NO CONTRACT, AND NO WORK AND NO CREDIT

The Examiner is chagrined because it printed the news of the C. G. E. Co. contract twenty-four hours late.

Mr. Stratton is chagrined because something has been done and accomplished without his aid, and without his alleged influence.

Mr. Stratton hastens to convince the workingmen of Peterborough that there is no contract, no acceptance, no work, and everything a base rumor, circulated for political purposes. He would willingly see the work sent to foreign countries, and men without work.

He telegraphs to Toronto, anxious to obtain assurance that there is no contract, no acceptance of the tender, and that the news was without foundation.

And the answer he got was the following, a discreet, gentlemanly, vague and diplomatic reply:

> "I have your message in regard to statements published by an official of the Company. I have not seen the statement referred to, and cannot, therefore, express an opinion as to its propriety, and can only say that the management have not authorized any statements for publication.
>
> "FREDERIC NICHOLS."

This reply, made by the General Manager of the C. G. E. Co., is of the description which the Examiner defined, a day or two ago, as a "colorless telegram"—and the Examiner knows it.

THE REVIEW, knowing the fact that the contract promised busy times at the C. G. E. Co. shops, did not wait for the news to be "authorized." THE REVIEW printed it—hot from the wires, so to speak—in an extra.

There is no "repudiation" in Mr. Nichols' reply—and Mr. Stratton knows it. The telegram isn't at all what he expected, but it is what he got—and deserved. Reading between the lines, it tells him not to bother, and not to be impertinent.

The contract has been awarded to the C. G. E. Co., and the work will be done here. We have here the plant, energy, skill and ability, and the men in the shops to handle the work and execute it within the time specified. And in spite of the froth of the Examiner, remember, that we have the local manager's assurance "that the Company is indebted to Mr. J. H. Burnham, Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M. P. P., and Mr. Jas. Kendrey, for their efforts in assisting to secure the contract for the local concern, and consequent employment which will be afforded, and will largely benefit the workingmen of Peterborough."

GUILD IS NOT A COMBINE SAYS ONE OF THE WITNESSES

PRESBYTERIAN NORMALITES ENTERTAINED

By the Young People of St Andrew's Church Last Evening

The Young People of St. Andrew's church very successfully entertained the Presbyterian students of the Normal School and the Business College last night. The social was held in the school house, and that large hall was well filled. Both educational institutions were well represented, in addition to many of the young people of the church. The programme included solos, recitations and readings, after which the young ladies served light refreshments and a very enjoyable evening was brought to a close.

The programme was as follows:—

Chairman's Address—Rev. J. G. Potter.
Piano Duet—Misses L. Tully and Taylor.
Address—Rev. H. J. Keith.
Violin Solo—Dr. Parks.
Reading—J. Johns.
Banjo Solo—F. R. Clark.
Recitation—Miss M. Titterson.
Solo—Gordon Wright.
Reading—Miss Pentland.
Solo—Rev. J. G. Potter.
Recitation—Murray Milelr.
Reading—J. Johns.
Bagpipe Solo—Mr. McKay.
Recitative solo with piano accompaniment—Miss M. Titterson.

Among the members of the staff present were Dr. Parks, Messrs. W. Keys, and G. A. Cornish, County Public School Inspector Lees, and Jas. S. Potter. Sailors' missionary, were also present.

Error in an "Ad."

In Mr. H. P. Kennedy's advertisement in yesterday's Review, the price of porter house roasts was given as ten cents per pound. It should have been eleven cents a typographical error being responsible for the wrong price quoted.

Mr. Hugh Blain Defends Grocers.

He Declares That Organization Was Entered Into to Improve Trade.

Toronto, Oct. 24.—That the Dominion Wholesale Grocers' Guild is not a combine was the emphatic declaration of Mr. Hugh Blain, of Eby, Blain & Co., Toronto, who was the first witness called for the defence in the proceedings before Chief Justice Falconbridge yesterday. Mr. Blain has been an active member of the Guild since its organization, and in his evidence he explained the steps which had been taken by the wholesale grocers during the past twenty years, and the policy which the Guild had pursued with the view of improving the conditions of the trade. Their object, he said, in entering into arrangements with the manufacturers and refiners was to insure a reasonable profit for the wholesale grocers, who, he claimed, were the best and cheapest medium for the distribution of goods to the retailers. In no case had these arrangements resulted detrimentally to the consumer or to the retailer. There was nothing in the operations of the Guild calculated to bring about the results charged in the indictment.

Demands of other cases do not allow Chief Justice Falconbridge to hear the finish of the conspiracy charges and when time came to adjourn last evening his lordship announced that the balance of the defence evidence would not be heard till Nov. 10.

When the case opened in the morning Mr. Zealand was recalled to the witness box, and his evidence closed the case for the crown. He told Mr. Blackstock that his principal objection to the equalized rates system for sugar lay in the fact that the system charged excessive rates in order that the sugar should be properly distributed to the wholesalers, which meant that the price was increased to the consumers. To illustrate this fact he stated that the guild rate to Fort William was 36 cents, whereas he had secured a boat rate from Hamilton of 14 cents; then from Montreal to Guelph and Galt there is little difference in distance. The rate to Guelph is 14 and to Galt 24 cents.

MISSING ENGLISH BARONET DISCOVERED IN B.C. WILDS

Sir Arthur Curtis Has Been Living Practically a Hermits Life for Past Ten Years

Winnipeg, Oct. 23.—After an absence of over ten years, Sir Arthur Curtis has been discovered in the wilds of British Columbia, according to a story brought by T. W. Cole, one of the party with the British baronet when he so mysteriously went off with an Indian guide while making his way to the Klondyke with a bunch of horses.

Despite most diligent search, no tidings of the missing baronet could be found at the time and eventually a skeleton was brought out by Indians which was identified by several persons as being the remains of the missing baronet, Cole asserts that he knew before he left Vancouver that Curtis would disappear before reaching the Klondyke, on account of family complications in England, which Curtis told him had been the means of driving him to Canada, and making him trek northwards with the party engaged in the horse trade.

In support of the story told by Cole is the fact that within six months of the day Curtis left the party his wife, Lady Curtis, had applied for and received an order from the British courts declaring the missing man dead, and shortly afterwards she married Col. Robert M. Brady, an Irishman, with whom she had been intimate for several years before the disappearance of Curtis, and who is alleged by many to be the real cause of the disappearance of Curtis.

Incidentally, the story brought down by Cole from Ashcroft district was received but a few days before the provincial police had received fresh instructions from the Department of Justice at Ottawa to spare no pains to find the missing scion of the British nobility.

Cole says Curtis is now living the life of a trapper and is virtually a hermit, living on what he can catch or trap and trading skins for such necessities of life as tobacco, tea, flour, etc.

The party with which Curtis went north was organized by Roger Pocock, founder of the Legion of Frontiersmen, and in "The Frontiersmen," book, written by Pocock, he takes full responsibility for having driven Curtis away by abusing him for laziness and not doing his share of the work of the party. For years Pocock has been looked upon by many as having been responsible for the death of Curtis, but the story and the proofs brought down by Cole will clear him of the stigma, which has made his life miserable for the past ten years.

ELSIE JANIS WAS ROBBED OF $5,000 WORTH OF JEWELRY

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 23— Miss Elsie Janis the feminine star in the "Fair Co-ed Company," which appeared at the Valentine theatre here on Wednesday night today filed a complaint with the police that during her stay at the Secord hotel, she was robbed of her diamonds and jewelery to the value of $5000. According to Miss Janis' story the jewels were principally gifts to her by friends in New York, including a string of jade beads with diamonds and a ruby clasp given to her by Mrs. O. P. Belmont of New York. She declares that the last time she saw them was when she put them in her trunk at Springville. This trunk she had with her at the Secord hotel. The proprietor states that she could not have been robbed in his hotel.

BUSH FIRES ON INDIAN RESERVE DYING DOWN

Mr. Dan Whetung, jr., is in the city to-day. In speaking of the bush fires on the Indian reserve at Chemong Indian village, he said that they were not causing nearly so much alarm and fear among the people now as during the early part of the week. The fires have somewhat died out, but if a wind should arise, Mr. Whetung said, that they would be as bad as ever. They are burning within two hundred yards of the village.

On Wednesday last, Mr. Albert Whetung lost some valuable timber on his property and had a difficult task saving his home from destruction. He had to move everything out of the house and for a time it looked like as if everything would be wiped away. However, the people put up a strenuous fight and the flames were subdued.

THE HOOK

Try and forget all about it tomorrow.

Strange if someone does not accuse one of the candidates of being responsible for the dry weather and the bush fires.

THE MONTREAL HERALD

Coming further west, we find the Montreal Herald unable to accept the situation with complacency. It resolutely finds Mr. Pugsley not guilty—for is not Mr. Pugsley still in the Ministry and is he not therefore sacrosanct?—but it rebels against the spectacle of the contractors combine. And so it says that "it would be wholly wrong to assume that Liberals anywhere accept as satisfactory the present position of the controversy between Mr. Mayes and Mr. McAvity." After the necessary absolution had been extended to Mr. Pugsley, the Herald notes that "Mr. McAvity stands accused of nothing less serious than making a profit for himself out of influence with a Minister, and he has not seen fit to make a satisfactory explanation. He must see that if he is rightly accused he has not merely committed an offence against the State, for which he should rightly be held to an accounting, but also that on Mr. Mayes' showing, he has abused whatever position his relation with New Brunswick Liberals gave him to bring discredit upon the Liberal party, the sort of injury those who compose the Liberal party are and ought to be quick to resent."

THE MIDDLEMAN

Mr. H. B. Dodge, M.P.P., for King's County, Nova Scotia, (Sir Frederick Borden's constituency) found out that Sir Frederick as Minister of Militia was about to buy a quantity of land near Kentville for a rifle range. Fortunately for Mr. Dodge, and his name is no misnomer, he "knew enough" to purchase the exact amount of land the Government required at the precise moment at which it was wanted. The Supreme Court reports that Dodge paid $6,978.14 and sold to the Government for $12,460.00, being a profit rake-off or graft, to the tune of $5,841.60, being over 75 per cent., which at so much per annum would be a percentage of profit at the rate of 1,200 per cent. per annum. It is true that this is a mere flea-bite compared to some, in fact to many of the cases of graft, but then it is not so slow, all things considered.

Down in Halifax Government printing contracts were given to a Mr. Pearson, who had no office, but farmed them out at a regular profit of 25 per cent. It was not that the actual printers got less than they would have charged others. It was merely a case of friend Pearson's getting a commission of 25 per cent. for work doing or done for the party in that neighborhood.

Mr. Walberg was sent out to buy equipment for the Intercolonial. His graft on a $31,000 purchase was $4,550. The Royal Commission raked this not off, but over when they came to it and thereby incurred the wrath of the delinquents. But it is all graft. The Laurier Government is Government by graft and nothing else. Some say, "Oh! Sir Wilfrid didn't know about it." Well, he knew about it when the commission brought in a report, didn't he! Nothing. He is only too glad to hold power under any circumstances. Sir Wilfrid cannot escape the plain imputation.

IT'S ALL A BLUFF

The insincerity of the Dominion Government in respect of the rural mail delivery policy which it adopted in the middle of the campaign in a spasm of fear is very plainly shown up by the records. On November 6th of last year, shortly after Mr. Borden's Halifax policy calling for rural mail delivery had been announced, Mr. Auguste Lemieux, brother of the postmaster-general, delivered a speech at a Reform convention at Campbell's Bay. In it he discussed rural mail delivery, speaking with authority, and this is what he said, as reported in the local Reform organ:

"I will discuss one of the planks of Mr. Borden," said Mr. Lemieux, "a plank which refers to the farmers of the country and rural districts generally. He advocates a free mail delivery system, and wants letter carriers appointed in each constituency to take letters to the people. Now, I say that this is utterly impossible, and not workable where the places are so sparsely settled as we find in Canada. You could not deliver letters, for instance, in British Columbia, the northwest territories, the Nipissing district, or even all over this county of Pontiac, because the expense would not be warranted by the returns received. True, it is that they have a free rural mail delivery in the United States, but the districts there are not so sparsely settled as ours. Moreover, when the United States, tried the system, there was a deficit of $12,000,000 a year."

And it is upon this most expensive programme the Laurier Government has now pledged the country, starting the service in such indecent haste that letter boxes had to be bought in the United States, and doing all this at a time when it was not possible for Parliament to consider the scheme proposed, or get some idea of the cost to the country. Before election day, if the postmaster-general has luck, he will have made his bluff of starting rural mail delivery in seventeen of the closest constituencies of the country. And as far as the Laurier Government is concerned, this is about all that will likely ever be heard of Hon. Mr. Lemieux's rural mail delivery scheme.—The Spectator.

TRULY APPALLING

The Montreal Witness heads its account of recent proceedings in the Dominion parliament with "Appalling financial obligation assumed by the country in the building of the new Transcontinental Railway." Fortunately for Canada there are Liberal journals like the Witness of sufficient candour to admit the tragic extravagance into which Canadians have been plunged in order that certain men may keep in power and continue to dispense patronage to friends at will. The system of Government in Canada, has not, however, broken down, although it may appear to have done so. It is merely the case of the administration being carried away by the spirit of vanity and excess. No project seems too huge for their fancy and no number of projects too large. So far this year the accumulated deficit on national current accounts bids fair to more than realize Mr. Fielding's gruesome prophecy that there will be a deficit of thirty millions for next year. It will end of course. The foreign and domestic capitalists financiers and money lenders will see to that. Not before, however we have so mortgaged our future as to make us hewers of wood, and drawers of water for a long time to come. Our resources are changing hands. We no longer own them. We are parting with our protection against want. The Witness' words are the words of an anxious friend.

WHAT WE MAY EXPECT

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 21.—Frank S. Monnet, former Attorney-General of Ohio, addressed a large meeting of Utah Democrats at the Salt Lake Theatre last night. Mr. Monnet, after discussing the principal issues of the campaign, said: "The reason I left the Republican party to advocate the election of Mr. Bryan is due to the fact that while I was prosecuting the Standard Oil trust in Ohio, and with every reason to expect a successful issue, the Republican campaign fund of Ohio was swelled by contributions from the Standard Oil Company, and in return that company was allowed to name the personnel of the Supreme Court of Ohio, whereupon all of the Standard Oil cases were promptly dismissed. Then I became a Democrat."

EDITORIAL NOTES

The story of forty illegal registration voters being arrested in New Ontario reads like a modern edition of Ali Baba and his bunch of forty thieves.—Hamilton Spectator.

At Montreal yesterday Premier Laurier was hailed as "The uncrowned King." Elsewhere in Quebec he was acclaimed as "The envoy of God." When is this nauseating flattery, bordering so closely to blasphemy to cease?

Why did the Laurier Government discriminate against Ontario. Is anybody complaining about the lists in the late Ontario election. No one. All was fair and square. What does Sir Wilfrid want then.

That last awful day. Six lines guaranteed, 89 railways and 33 bridge subsidies. Twenty millions of dollars more in cash. Eleven millions more in guarantees. When do we stop.

Forty arrests have been made in Northern Ontario of the men who illegally registered in the unorganized districts to vote for reform candidates. The Laurier government is following in the tracks of the late Ross government and is making its last desperate stand against outraged public opinion.

The Boston News Bureau, a financial paper that has been paying close attention to the Laurier Government's handling of the National Transcontinental line, does not like the appearance of the thing from the viewpoint of the financier. There is evidently a lot of trouble ahead for someone in connection with this badly bungled railway scheme into which Sir Wilfrid forced the Grand Trunk Pacific authorities.

Though there were no special trains to carry voters free to Granby on Friday, as many people were reported present to hear Mr. Borden speak as turned out to hear Sir Wilfrid Laurier speak earlier in the week. It looks as if Sir Wilfrid without his special car of mottoes, his claqueurs, his free ticket dispensers, and his paid brass bands, might have proved anything but a popular attraction during his tour.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier intimated that before Parliament is prorogued he will introduce more estimates of expenditure, a lot more railway subsidies and a measure in regard to the Quebec bridge—all providing for heavy expenditure. This is with the national treasury empty and the country's credit so reduced by the Government's wild extravagance that 3 3-4 per cent. bonds cannot be sold at par in a cheap money market. The Government surely intends to go to the country, and to depend for success on the votes of financial fools.—Montreal Gazette.

An hundred million dollars is what the Georgian Bay canal will cost, at the least. Unless somebody has the money handy and wants to lend it, we might put off this little spending party until we see where the transcontinental railway proposition comes out.

One of the cleverest of the ultra partizan Liberal journals is the Hamilton Times, from which the above is taken. The observation was first quoted into the British Whig from the Times. It is quite evident that the thin red line of rebellion against extravagance is creeping into the Liberal party.—Hamilton Times.

The failure to apply the new Civil Service Reform Bill to what is known as the outside—of Ottawa,—service leaves the door wide open for all sorts of patronage and humbug as before. When we consider that it is possible under its provisions at any time, by a stroke of the pen to transfer a civil servant from the outside to the civil service or vice versa we see how easy it is to devise and promote abuse to even a greater degree than formerly. This is a case in which half a loaf is much worse than no bread. At first it looked as if the government intended to give the long-suffering country one real measure of reform. But as one paper expressed it. "This parliament has plastered the map of Canada with schemes for spending money." It will be known for the future as "The Spending Parliament."

From some statements attributed to Conservative speakers in recent issues by the Examiner it is apparent that that journal intends to wind up the campaign by putting into the mouths of Conservative campaigners much that they did not say. We warn the public to be on their guard against possible artifices of an injurious character.

NO MORE HEADACHES

Suffered From Constant Headaches—Cured by "Fruit-a-tives" When Doctors Failed.

"I was a sufferer from fearful headaches for over two years, sometimes they were so bad that I was unable to work for days at a time. I took all kinds of medicines, was treated by physicians, and yet the headaches persisted. I was rarely free from headache. A short time ago I was advised to try "Fruit-a-tives" and I did so with, I must confess, very little faith, but after I had taken them for three days my headaches were easier and in a week they left me. After I had taken a box of the tablets my headaches were quite cured. My appetite was always poor and my stomach bad, and now my appetite is splendid and my digestion is excellent. I had become thin and weak from the constant headaches, but now not only have I been cured of all these awful headaches, but my strength is growing up once more, and I feel like a new man. I have taken in all three boxes of "Fruit-a-tives." I am exceedingly grateful to "Fruit-a-tives" for curing me, and I give this unsolicited testimonial with great pleasure, as I hope thereby some other sufferer of headaches will be induced to try "Fruit-a-tives" and will be cured."

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

Seek Cause of Creighton's Death.

Owen Sound, Oct. 24.—The inquest over the body of James Farish Creighton, whose death on Wednesday in his cell cheated the gallows of a victim, was continued yesterday. No new developments transpired. The stomach will be forwarded to the provincial analyst to ascertain whether death was due to poisoning or not. The remains were handed over to the relatives yesterday afternoon, and were buried from the residence of the aged mother of the condemned man.

Faith, Hope and Sinew.

London, Oct. 24.—(C. A. P.)—W. Bruce, one of the Scotch farmers who toured Canada, told the Dalkeith Agricultural Society that while the Dominion was worthy of consideration by young farmers, he would not advise farm servants to take up homesteads. J. M. Dobbie agreed and said that Canada was the place for faith, hope and sinew—especially sinew.

Have an Hour to Vote.

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—The vote of the civil servants will be polled on Monday between 9.30 and 10.30. An order to this effect has been issued, instructing the army of Government employes on the hill that they would be expected to cast their votes at that hour.

$80,000 Fire.

Dunnville, Oct. 24.—The evaporators of the Erie Evaporated Co. at Winger, a few miles from here, owned by W. J. Aikens of Dunnville, were totally destroyed by fire Thursday night. The loss is $80,000, covered by insurance.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Oct. 24.—Clyde Seaman, 17, was drowned off Nine Mile Point in Hay Lake Thursday night, when the launch in which he and three others were riding was run down by the steamer John A. Donaldson.

In the launch with the boy were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Seaman, and James Burns. The boy was placed on watch in the stern of the boat, but went to sleep and did not see the freighter as it approached. In the launch was a large bedtick and when they were so suddenly precipitated into the water, the two men placed Mrs. Seaman upon it. Had it not been for this they declare that the whole party would have gone down.

Broken Leg Fatal.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 24.—Mrs. Von Ettinger, a visitor here from Germany, died yesterday morning in the general hospital. She was stopping at the Hotel Vancouver and accidentally broke her leg the other day. She did not recover from the shock.

Farmer Missing.

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—Simon O'Grady, a wealthy Carleton County farmer, has been missing from his home since Sunday night. It is supposed that he has drowned himself. He was in a despondent mood on Sunday. He is 44 years of age and unmarried.

Ore Cars Wrecked.

Belleville, Oct. 24.—By the breaking of a flange a freight train was wrecked near Lamable Station, and six cars loaded with ore were derailed and badly smashed. The track was badly torn up. The damage to rolling stock will be considerable.

MATHESON DESTROYED.

New Town In Northern Ontario Almost Wiped Out by Fire.

North Bay, Oct. 24.—The loss by fire at Matheson Thursday night will be $75,000. The new town, named after the Provincial Treasurer, has been practically wiped out.

The flames were discovered about 10 o'clock at night in the Abitibi Hotel, and, spreading rapidly, quickly leaped to adjoining buildings, and without fire appliances of any kind quickly burned.

Buildings with living rooms overhead were soon licked up by the flames. A bucket brigade was formed and worked manfully between the river close by and the burning buildings, but little could be done to check the flames, the buildings being mainly of frame construction, covered with tar paper. W. James was injured, but not seriously. The T. & N. O. Railway station escaped the flames.

The loss will approximate $75,000, with no insurance. Among the fire sufferers are Revillon Bros., fur traders and general merchants; Rothschild Bros., dry goods; Taylor, hardware store; John Clark, general store; R. A. Douglass, drug store and post-office; Syrian colony and Chinese laundry. The origin is unknown.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

Five negroes were hanged yesterday in Louisiana for murder.

Heavy falls of snow are reported in Kansas and Oklahoma.

Bush fires are causing trouble in Otonabee and Smith townships.

Charles Mitchell, negro murderer, was shot by a mob at Lithonia, Ga.

A car loaded with laborers at Rivers, west of Winnipeg, was upset by spreading rails, but no one was injured.

Forest fires are raging north of Fenelon Falls and near Haliburton. John Carew, a Lindsay millionaire lumberman, has lost over $1,000.

Fire in the Central Telegraph Office at Brussels has stopped all telegraphic communication between Brussels and the provinces and foreign cities. It will require ten days to restore the system.

The elder Crozier will not be taken from Milton to Kingston until after the elections, as Sheriff Clements is a D.R.O. Milton people hope that the younger Crozier will not be taken to the Central Prison.

Germany and Canada.

London, Oct. 24.—(C. A. P.)—The Frankfurter Zeitung, advocating the renewal of the Anglo-German commercial treaty, declares Germany must consent to make such a treaty with Britain alone and independent of any treatment meted out to her by Canada or any other British dominion.

The Morning Post's Berlin correspondent says the Germans now realize that they must treat with Britain and her over-sea dominions separately, and attention is now being devoted especially to commercial relations with Canada. German agrarians increasingly desire an agreement with Canada, which mainly interests sugar exporters. It is pointed out that home prices would be little affected whether Canadian wheat enjoys the most-favored-nation treatment or not.

Fires Sweep On.

Uxbridge, Oct. 24.—Bush fires are raging in the surrounding country. Valuable timber sections are in danger, as well as farming properties.

At Udora, a village to the north of here, a fierce fire is raging, which up to the present has destroyed fences and is creeping close to several large barns. People in the neighborhood are fighting it day and night.

At Zephyr a village to the northwest, a number of men are watching the station to prevent the fires spreading to the elevators. Large clouds of smoke continually pass over this town.

Rural Delivery In Halton.

Milton, Oct. 24.—The Postoffice Department has established a rural mail delivery route between Milton and Mount Nemo. The first mail was delivered this morning.

Englishman Shoots Himself.

Vancouver, Oct. 24.—G. E. Davies, a young Englishman, committed suicide yesterday morning by shooting himeslf. He was 30 years old.

Windsor Man Gets Office.

Ottawa, Oct. 24. James W. Kerr of Windsor, Ont., has been appointed preventive officer in the customs service.

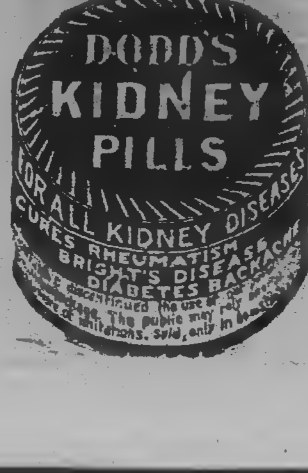
Father Follows Elopers.

Detroit, Oct. 24.—After following his daughter Mary, aged 13, and her sweetheart, Frank Temple, aged 21, for over a week, Charles Calvert of Ridgetown, Ont., came to police headquarters Thursday night, and requested the officers to assist in locating the youthful pair. The young people eloped from Ridgetown a week ago.

Big Pulp Shipment.

Clarke City, Que., Oct. 24.—The largest cargo of wood pulp ever sent out of Canada is now being loaded on the steamship Kristiania at Seven Islands, from which port she will sail in a few days for London. The cargo will be over 5,000 tons, and is the product of the new mill at this place.

The charges of Edmonton's chief of police, Major Belae against Detective Griffiths are held to be not proven.



PASSENGER LINE BY AERIAL LINE

Contract for Company's First Balloon—Boston to New York

Boston, Mass., Oct. 22.—The giving of a contract yesterday for a dirigible balloon, to cost about $7,000, to Capt. Thomas S. Baldwin, inventor and builder of the dirigible balloon, recently sold to the United States Government, marks the first step taken by the Aerial Navigation Company, of which Charles J. Glidden is the leading spirit, since the company was incorporated some months ago, for the purpose of operating an aerial freight and passenger line to New York.

While the line, as now projected, will eventually be extended from Boston through South Framingham, Worcester, Brookfield, Springfield and other points to New York and to Albany, at present it is planned to build one dirigible to operate between but with a different frame- Framingham, additional dirigibles and stations to be erected later on the route to New York.

The first dirigible is expected to be ready for the opening of the line in May next. The cost of the first stretch, including the dirigible and shelters, will be about $25,000. The dirigible will be patterned after that furnished the army department, but with a different framework, seating two or more passengers, and being capable of carrying 550 pounds of freight.

LIKE THORNS IN THE FLESH

Are the Sharp Twinges and Tortures of Rheumatism Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a Certain Cure

The twinges and the tortures of rheumatism are not due to cold, damp weather as so many people imagine. Rheumatism comes from poisonous acid in the blood. The pains may be started by cold weather, damp weather or by keen winds. There is only one way to cure rheumatism. It must be treated through the blood. All the liniments and rubbing and so-called electrical treatment in the world will not cure rheumatism. The acid that causes the disease must be driven out of the blood and the blood enriched and purified. It is because Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make new, red blood that they have cured thousands of cases of rheumatism after all other treatment had failed. As a proof of what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will do even in the most severe cases of rheumatism the case of Mr. David Carrol, a well known furniture dealer of Picton, N.S., may be cited. Mr. Carrol says: "I have been a most severe sufferer from rheumatism and in the hope that some other poor sufferer may find relief from my experience I gladly write you of the benefit I received from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The trouble settled in my shoulders and down my sides and at times I was quite unable to raise my arm. I was attended by a doctor but as I did not appear to be getting any better I sent for a so-called electric belt for which I paid $40. It did not do me any good and then I tried another remedy but without any better results. A friend asked me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I got three boxes. By the time I had used them all I found the stiffness and pain less severe and I got another half dozen boxes. When I had taken these every symptom of the trouble had disappeared and in the two years that have since passed I have had no return of the trouble. I believe there is no other medicine equal to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for curing this most painful trouble and I have recommended the pills to others who have been benefitted by their use."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills not only cure rheumatism but all the other diseases due to poor watery blood, such as anaemia, indigestion, nervous disorders, neuralgia, St. Vitus' dance, paralysis, and the ailments of girlhood and womanhood with their headaches, backaches, sideaches and attendent miseries. Only the genuine pills can do this and you should see that the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" is on the wrapper around each box. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

No other medicine for Woman's ills in the world has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

No other medicine has such a record of success for woman's diseases, or such hosts of grateful friends as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for feminine ills, Inflammation, Ulceration, and consequent Spinal Weakness.

It has relieved more cases of Backache and Local Weaknesses than any other one remedy. It dissolves and expels tumors in an early stage of development.

Irregularities and periodic pains, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility, quickly yield to it; also deranged organs, causing pain, dragging sensations and backache. Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the female system.

It removes that wearing feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, dizziness, faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues." These are indications of Feminine disorders, which this medicine overcomes as well as slight derangement of the Kidneys of either sex.

Women who are sick and want to get well should refuse to accept any substitute for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Jail For Card Dealers.

Toronto, Oct. 24.—Athol G. Robertson, charged with selling obscene pictures and postcards and with sending them through the mails, pleaded guilty in the Police Court yesterday morning, and was sent to jail for 60 days. Robertson was one of the wholesale dealers. P. V. Brown, who also pleaded guilty to selling, was sent down for a like term. A. R. Wickett was acquitted on the ground that while the cards which he had were not exactly the thing for general sale, they were not vicious. A. L. Merrill, who has a number of stores, was let go, pleading that the cards had crept into his stock without his knowledge. Albert Prouse went down for 30 days for selling, and Henry Goldenthal went free on the ground that his cards were not really bad.

Groom Shot.

Palogue Mine, La., Oct. 24.—F. A. Vaningan, shot by his bride's former suitor while on a railroad train just starting the bridal tour, died in his wife's arms on a Texas & Pacific train near here late Thursday night. F. S. Beauvre is under arrest here charged with the shooting. He sat directly across the aisle from the bridal couple when the shot was fired. It is reported that he had but a few minutes before offered his congratulations.

HARRY ADAMS

COMMON SENSE

Throughout this campaign Mr. Burnham has argued against the absurdity of a small nation's spending huge sums on great public "enterprises" that can be done without for a least a time. The money should be used for local improvements, which would not only improve the condition of life of the local workers, but would give them back their own money as well. Drain the large areas of swamp. Build the people's schoolhouses. Make the people's roads. Build the people's bridges. All this should be done by our own people, with their own money, the product of their own resources, whereas the Laurier plan is always to proceed in other directions with fantastic and far-fetched schemes such as the Allred, the Georgian Bay Canal and the Canals of Mars.

TO THE WORKINGMEN

Vote for Borden and Protection for your wages. A high tariff means high wages. A low tariff means low wages and no protection against German competition. The recent contract given to the C. G. E. without allowing foreign tender at all, by the Whitney Government, shows the absolute necessity of protecting the Canadian workingman in defiance of the tariff, when occasion arises. Laurier and Stratton are for the present tariff, which is all in favor of the Germans. Canadian work and Canadian capital for the Canadian people! Vote for Burnham.

AN ESTIMATE

After a careful looking over of the situation and consulting various sources of information the Review's estimate for Monday is as follows: Mr. Borden will have a majority over the whole Dominion of at least sixty. Mr. Burnham will have a majority over Mr. Stratton of 500 and possibly 1,000. Last June we came within 20 of Mr. Bradburn's majority, and have, as a consequence, a reputation to maintain.

THE C. G. E. CONTRACT

The statement of the Examiner that no credit is due to Messrs. Kendrey, Bradburn and Burnham for getting the C. G. E. contract for Peterborough because if the local tender is the lowest the contract ought to come here, and if not it should go elsewhere, is founded on ignorance of the whole question and a consequent misconception of it. We pressed Sir James Whitney not to disregard the lowest tender, but to disregard all foreign tenders. Owing to the present low tariff and German cheap labor German tenders can beat our workers and our manufacturers out. Our contention had to be based, however, on the certainty that public opinion would endorse such action by Sir James Whitney. Messrs. Kendrey, Bradburn and Burnham helped to supply that public opinion. The Canadian companies now get the work and the local company gets a large share of it. It will seem that the Examiner's statement and insinuations are incorrect. Hurrah for Whitney!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Corr espondens

A letter appeared in this column yesterday signed "One of Them," which should not have been allowed to go in. We regret that it escaped the notice of those in charge.—Ed.

THE LABOR QUESTION

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—The bringing into Canada of foreign and cheap labor has caused the depression that has swept over the country since the inauguration of the building of that road which every laboring man is certainly feeling the effect of to-day.

Did not Sir Wilfrid Laurier in his speech in the Brock street rink some four years ago make the statement when appealing for the support of the laboring man, that a clause would be inserted to protect the scale of wages for the working man? But where is that clause to-day? It has been eliminated, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier stood looking on and assented to the acts of the oppressors of the laboring man. Yet these men come boldly forward and endeavor to pull the wool over the eyes of the working man and honest labor by again appealing for their support.

Let every working man and friend of orginized labor go to the polls on Monday and throw this insult back in the faces of these oppressors of labor.

WORKING MAN.

JUST A FINAL WORD

To the Editor of the Review,

Dear Sir,—

Monday is the day upon which the electors of West Peterborough will select a man to represent them in the Dominion parliament for the next four years. The electors have two choices. There are two candidates. One is Mr. J. H. Burnham; the other Mr. J. R. Stratton. Which one is to represent West Peterborough?

Mr Burnham is an able man, of unblemished reputation, of unimpeached integrity. He is a supporter of Mr. R. L. Borden, who will give Canada honest government, protect Canadian industry, administer the business of the country economically and do away with grafting and stealing.

Mr Stratton is a man with a pas and not the best kind of a pas either. He stands for a government that is discredited by the honest electors of Canada, that is ruled by a gang of grafters, by men who are on the lookout for their own pockets and not for the interests of the country.

Shall it be Mr. Burnham or Mr. Stratton.

The verdict of the electors will be given on Monday. The honest electors who have the interests of his country at heart will vote for Mr. Burnham.

Yours truly,

ELECTORS.

HURRAH FOR WHITNEY

To the Editor of The Review

Sir,—The Examiner's agony over the awarding by the Ontario government of the great electrical contract to the CGE, a Canadian and a Peterborough firm is amusing. If the CGE had relied on Sir Wilfrid's tariff the Germans would have got the plum. There is no doubt about what has happened. The Toronto papers confirm the Review's account of it. I have seen a telegram from the proper authorities confirming it. There is no doubt about it. The people of Peterborough rejoice at Sir James Whitney's patriotism. Protection for the work and wages of the workingmen of Canada for ever. Hurah for Borden and Burnham.

Yours truly,

ONE WHO KNOWS

THE TARIFF

To the Editor of The Review.

Sir,—I inclose the following letter which may be of interest:

June 26, 1907.

Mr. Chas. Lavis, Belleville, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—We are in receipt of your valued favor of the 18th inst., addressed to our President, on the subject of a Canadian plant for this company. One of the chief factors which have worked to bring about an adverse decision of this matter is the relatively low Canadian tariff upon builders' hardware. While a duty of 30 per cent. may suffice to give Canadian hardware of the very cheapest sort protection against American competition, it is, in our opinion, quite inadequate to encourage the manufacture of what is our specialty and what we would especially wish to make in Canada, namely, cast brass and bronze hardware of the highest type.

The insufficiency of your tariff to shut out American competition on these goods, however, causes us to decide that the time is not yet ripe to venture capital in a Canadian plant. We believe that in order to make the project attractive to American makers and to assure them a reasonable return upon the venture made and the capital invested, your tariff, at least upon hardware of the higher grade, should be materially increased. Yours very truly, Russell & Erwin Manufacturing Co., Treasurer.

FULL DINNER PAIL

Editor of the Review

Sir,—The people of Peterborough, especially the working men, and all classes feel it through them, can now see what it means to have the affairs of the country administered by a government that takes a practical interest in their welfare, an object lesson that brings conviction to every one that no Laurierite gas can do has just been given us, by Whitney in his refusal to invite foreign competition on the big Hydro-Electric appliances, required by the government, for the equipping of the Niagara Electric power lines, in the province. Now that is the way to do things, that is the way to give us protection, that does protect, that is a tangeable evidence that the Conservative party take a real interest, in the workingmen of our own country. While the Laurierites are flooding the country with galvanisms and hot air, and the odor of their name, the Conservatives go to work, and do things and it is done. With our hand the Laurierites keep showing us on paper, what they have done for us. With the other hand they would have sent this money to the Germans and Yankees. The Conservatives tell the Germans and the Yankees that we want these things made in Canada, and that if they want to trade with us they are welcome, but only on the conditions that they bring their factories here and make the stuff in this country.

Probably the strongest factor in the making of Governments is the independent vote of the workingman. See to it on Monday that you cast your bread upon the waters, by casting your vote for the Conservative candidate. Independent Liberals too, notwithstanding the mandate of the dictator's dare to come out, and vote for an honest government, Burnham and a full dinner pail.

Yours truly,

CORRESPONDENT IS SET RIGHT

On Two or Three Points in Connection With Local Option Proposition

Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—In your Wednesday's issue a letter was written with reference to local option by one signing himself "Pro Bono Publico."

It is possible that the writer is a good friend of temperance, as he claims to be, and some things in his letter would encourage the hope that when time for action comes, he will stand among the more ardent supporters of a by-law for the abolition of the bar. If, however, your correspondent is to speak for the good of the public in this regard, he ought to stand corrected on one or two points. He affirms that it is not the people of Peterborough that bring on the campaign, but meddlesome agents—paid agents—of the Dominion Alliance.

This, Mr. Editor, is decidedly not the case. As a matter of fact the so-called agents have had nothing whatever to do with the inception of this movement.

The City Temperance and Moral Reform League, at least, in its executive capacity had decided upon a clearly defined line of action, looking to the submission of a local option by-law in January 1910, without any direction from the Dominion Alliance and so far as was known without the knowledge of the Alliance officers. The coming of the Alliance with a proposition to hold a Temperance Educational Sunday here was part of the general campaign which that organization is carrying on throughout the province, at many points where there is no immediate prospect of local option becoming an issue, as well as at other points where there is.

It is understood that the Ministerial Association unanimously welcomed the Alliance to the city, the result being those magnificent meetings on Sunday last in all the churches and in the opera house, which called forth from the citizens a most convincing expression of sympathy with the reform.

Tuesday night's meeting is referred to in a rather unsympathetic way. Let it be said that arrangements were being made for said meeting previous to, and without reference to the visit of the Alliance representations and the presence of Mr. Spence, was taken advantage of, he being a person emmanently qualified to offer advice and instruction to the City League on the line of its proposed action.

The resolution, which, by the way, was not inspired by Mr. Spence, was the perfectly natural feature of the meeting, not intended to voice the sentiment of the people of Peterborough but simply an expression of that meeting's approval to the action taken, announcement of which had been made at the opening by Mr. Cunningham, the secretary.

Will "Pro Bono Publico" stand corrected in the matters referred to, as well as any of your readers who may have been led by his communication to misjudge the sentiment of the citizens of Peterborough with regard to the traffic in intoxicating liquor.

Hereafter, if the writer feels called upon to publish anything in the interests of the local option movement, it will be over his own signature. For the present let me sign.

Yours truly,

WORKINGMEN READ THIS

Some Expressions of Convictions Gained by Experience

PRESIDENT McKINLEY

"Free trade or a revenue tariff has no respect for labor. It holds it as the mere machinery for capitals. It would have cheap men that it might have cheap merchandise."—August 21, 1888, at Atlanta.

"That country is least prosperous where low prices are secured through low wages. Cheap foreign goods, free or practically free, in competition with domestic goods involve cheap labor at home or dependence upon foreign manufactures. Those who advocate duties solely for revenue see only as a result cheaper prices, which are temporary at best, and do not see the other side—that of lower wages, cheaper labor, agricultural depression and general distress."—At Toledo, Feb. 12, 1891.

"Nothing is cheap which enforces idleness upon our people."—Cincinatti, Sept. 1, 1891.

"I am opposed to Free Trade because it degrades American labor."—Homestead, Pa., 1896.

"We want no free trade in the United States. The capitalist can wait on his dividends, but the working man cannot wait on his dinner."—At New York, Sept. 2. 1896.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

"The prosperity of any of us can best be attained by measures that will promote the prosperity of all. The true motto for any people is 'All men up.' The true welfare of the nation is indissolubly bound up with the welfare of the farmer and the wage-worker—of the man who tills the soil, and of the mechanic, the handicraftsman, the laborer. If we can insure the prosperity of these two classes we need not trouble ourselves about the prosperity of the rest, for that will follow as a matter of course."

There were 641 cholera patients in St. Petersburg yesterday.

THE INDEPENDENTS ARE WITH BORDEN

While party papers on both sides of politics have been telling their readers from time to time just how the vote of the country will stand on the night of October 26th the Weekly Sun of Toronto, has issued the circular method of getting at public feeling and it leaves a summary of results with its readers to make of it what they can.

Within the past couple of weeks the Sun has asked men of intelligence amongst the rural population in all parts of the province of Ontario what the general feeling seemed to be in their special neighborhood with reference to the Dominion election. In speaking of the answers received, the Sun says that two or three points were brought out with singular clearness. First is the entire absence of anything like a general feeling of intense partizanship and in its place an indication of earnest searching of the evidence of the respective merits of the government and opposition. The second is a notable absence of warm approval of either party —not more than one in ten writers indicate anything approaching complete satisfaction with either government or opposition. The third point made clear is that in the great majority of cases our correspondents look upon the choice presented as one between evils with a majority inclined to give the opposition the benefit of the doubt.

Summing up the Toronto paper says,

"On the whole the evidence points clearly to three things. First, that there is a great body of independent voters in the country. Second, that the opposition might have obtained much the greater part of the vote by the substitution of tariff reduction for adequate protection in the party platform, and a straight declaration against further bounties or subsidies. Third, that as a very considerable vote will not be cast for either party and that the majority of the independent voters who do go to the polls, will be inclined to vote for the opposition."

Such a summing up of the situation by this independent journal of wide circulation among the farmers of the province is not without lessons. It points to a very large Conservative majority in Ontario. And if the independent voters, who, after all are the determining factor in a Dominion contest are with Mr. Borden in Ontario, it would surely not be unreasonable to suppose that they will be with him in the other provinces. And if this is correct, as we believe it is it is surely not foolish opinion to predict the defeat of the Laurier government at the polls. The time to change has come.

MR. J. H. BURNHAM.
The Man to Vote for on Monday.

"CHOOSE YE THIS DAY A MAN FROM AMONG YOU"

The Examiner has printed for Mr. J. R. Stratton certain certificates of character and enconiums of ability culled from the Millbrook Reporter, Lakefield News, Havelock Standard Port Hope Guide, and some others. These are newspapers of village publication and village influence.

But where are Mr. Stratton's testimonials from such Reform papers as the Montreal Herald, Ottawa Free Press, or the great Globe itself?

Mr. Stratton knows that a ten line letter certificate endorsing Mr. Stratton's candidature from Sir Wilfrid Laurier would count for more than the reprints from the whole batch.

But Sir Wilfrid has not written the ten lines. And Sir Wilfrid won't!

Where are the certificates from the Cabinet Ministers at Ottawa? Where is the help and influence to assist and endorse Mr. Stratton's candidature? All are conspicuously absent.

Why silent? And why absent?

The newspapers quoted above, know of Mr. Stratton—who does not—and in contrast to what they say, we invite attention to the words of one who has known Mr. Stratton all his life, his public aims and actions; and who knows him a great deal better than the publishers of the newspapers mentioned. And here is what the man who knows Mr Stratton says:—

> "I say emphatically that it would be a most unfortunate thing for the constituency if Mr. Stratton should be elected. I want to see him beaten to a finish. If I were in Peterborough Mr. Burnham would have my enthusiastic support.
>
> R. M. DENNISTOUN."

What do opinions of outside papers count against the convictions of one who knows?

INDISPENSIBLE TO MOTHERS

"I am satisfied that Baby's Own Tablets are indispensible to mothers," says Mrs. Abraham Boucher, Pierreville Mills, Que., and she adds; "Before using the Tablets my baby was cross, peevish and not thriving well; but the Tablets have worked a great change and my little one is well and happy." This is the verdict of all mothers who have used these Tablets. And better still, mothers have the guarantee of a government analyst that Baby's Own Tablets are absolutely safe—that they contain not one particle of opiate or poisonous soothing stuff. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A VOICE FROM THE EAST

The Montreal Star in a review of the political situation, and dealing impartially with Conservatives and Liberals, says among other things:

* * * "And no Liberal whose memory carries him as far back as the overthrow of the Ross Government, should doubt the wisdom of curbing the impudent pretensions of Stratton, of Peterborough."

There's newspaper opinion, for Mr. Stratton. Safe to say it will not appear with others, in the Examiner.

The wheat crop of Saskatchewan is estimated at 35,940,000 bushels, an average of 15 bushels to the acre.

PRESENTATION TO THE PRESIDENT

Mrs. Poussette Remembered by Members of Chancel Guild

Yesterday afternoon the Chancel Guild of St. John's church, including present and past members, met for a social hour in the upper vestry of the church. The rector spoke of Mrs. Poussette's resignation as president and said that the members being desirous of showing in some way their appreciation of her long and faithful services to the church in the work of the Guild, had placed in the vestry a beautiful oak cabinet, with brass plate. At the conclusion of Canon Davidson's address Mrs. Poussette was presented with a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and made an appropriate reply. All present then partook of refreshments.

SPORTING NEWS

FRED SIMPSON AND THE OTHER RED MEN FOR HERALD RACE

If there is an Indian runner living that has a chance to beat Tom Longboat he should be discovered in this year's Herald race, for there promises to be over a dozen Indians start in the event Thanksgiving day. The Irish-Canadian club, of Toronto, will enter Tom Longboat and Hilton Green while Caledonia will be represented by Peter John. Bill Davis, the man who discovered Tom Longboat, is training another Onondaga whom he claims is a wonder. From Beaverton comes word to the effect that six of the Chippewa Indians from the reserve near that village are training for the race and according to Harry Cameron there are some likely looking runners among them. With Peterborough represented by Fred Simpson, the red man will be well represented in the race.

Harry Barnfield of the Strand hotel has a dark horse that he tells about in a whisper. He gave him a trial run out to Rymal and back the other day and says that the time made was exceptionally good. Harry's man is Ernie Devine, the big porter at the Strand who stands over six feet in his stocking feet and who has a stride that is twice as long as an iceman's bill. Devine has anything but the appearance of being a fast runner, but he claims that appearances do not win races and that he will be in great shape on Thanksgiving Day.

Jack Caffery is training faithfully for this year's race which will probably be his last appearance in running togs. Jack made a good trail the other day and claims that he never felt better than he does at the present time. In the big race in England last July he was in sixth place at the eighteen mile post and was running well when he was taken sick and had to stop. The result was that he became stiffened up but despite that he gamely hung on and finished eleventh.

The trouble between the American AAU and the CAAAU does not seem to be bothering the American runners much as several of them have already signified their intention of running here. The latest application for an entry form comes from Syracuse, NY. John L. Sullivan of that city, claims that he will be here to run in the race and says that he is just as speedy on his feet as old John L. was in the ring. Bob Fowler, of Boston Marathon fame has written for entry blanks, and claims that he will bring two other runners with him who will make the Canadian hustle. With the other men who will be here from Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Uncle Sam will be well represented.

All runner who start in the race must be registered before their entries will be accepted. A. J. Taylor, 29 Charles street is the local representative of the CAAU. and cards may be obtained from him. The entries will close with Billy Carroll on Tuesday, November 3rd, and no post entries will be accepted.—Hamilton Herald.

WRESTLING

New York, Oct. 23.—Probably the happiest man in New York today is Yussiff Mahmout, the Bulgarian champion wrestler. Yussiff is happy because he at last is to have the opportunity of meeting an American wrestler on the mat. He came 3500 miles to get a match challenging Frank Gotch and Tom Jenkins: but for weeks could get no satisfaction from either. Gotch sidestepped him altogether and Jenkins apparently was not too anxious to risk his laurels in the proposed match. Finally Jenkins consented to meet him and the match was arranged yesterday.

The men agreed to wrestle catch-as-catch can style three out of five falls. They made a side bet of $1000 and deposited this with George Considine as stakeholder.

RUGBY

A rugby team to Lindsay is somewhat of a novelty. It's just like a child with a new toy. Besides a lot of ecstatic talk in the Lindsay papers the outside press is being advised of the wonderful chances of the team.

The following dispatch appeared in last night's Toronto Star:

Lindsay, Oct. 23.—The team that represents Lindsay in the Junior O.R.F.U. are a strong bunch and expect to win the district. They play the Peterborough Y.M.C.A. tomorow and are confident of victory, having beaten a much stronger team, the Peterborough Y.A.S. who played several senior men. on Wednesday last. Such men as "Chummy" O'Connor, of Peterborough, says that it will take a mighty good team to stop Lindsay this year.

ANOTHER WIN FOR YANKEE LAST NIGHT

Defeated Cyclone Burns, English Champion, at Manchester, N. H.—Two Straight Falls

Yankee Rogers still keeps winning, as the following telegram will show:

Manchester, N.H.,

Yankee beat Cyclone Burns, English heavyweight champion, here last night, in nineteen and eleven minutes straight falls.

BASKETBALL

The Brownies won by default from the Tigers last night, the latter failing to show up. They defeated a picked team in an exhibition game.

THE HOOK

Pay your election debts early on Tuesday.

Hard lines on some folk. When the bars close at 7 o'clock to-night they will stay closed until Tuesday morning.

The western blizzard will strike the Grits around these parts on Monday.

Weather probabilities for Monday—Decidedly warm for the Grits: fine and dandy for the Conservatives.

Mr. Strattons' meetings in the city have not been the striking success he foreshadowed in his speeches. The way of the transgressor is hard.

BORDEN IN BRIEF

If we preach purity and practice corruption we shall be worthy of all the scorn that can be poured upon us.

The whole policy of the Government (in the past two years) was to shut off investigation and prevent publicity.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised purity of administration. He has abandoned the public exchequer to the plundering and pilfering of unscrupulous party friends and has permitted the public domain to become the prey of his strongest partizans.

Criminals have been appointed to positions in the public service—men engaged in the most nefarious electoral crimes have been appointed to positions of public trust.

During ten years of Liberal rule the expenditure has been $232,000,000 greater than in ten years of Conservative rule.

I have had the unique satisfaction of seeing the Government of the day forced by public opinion to carry into effect a very substantial portion of the policy which I advocated a year ago.

Seventy-five members of Parliament have been appointed to positions of emolument or to the Senate.

The avowed policy of the Liberal party has been outraged and falsified in the most astonishing manner by the present administration.

What great public undertaking has the Government not bungled!

GREAT ISSUES

(Hamilton Spectator.)

Truly the Laurier Government is making its appeal to the electorate of Canada to-day on a series of GREAT ISSUES. Here are some of them:

In Berlin—A new clock for the Town Hall.

In Essex—A new post office building.

In Wentworth—A rural mail delivery system to Ancaster village, and anything else the people in that constituency may care for.

In the Hamiltons—Branch post offices, a cement wharf, and a revetment wall.

In Norfolk—A promise that the candidate will consider the demands of that particular constituency over and above all other considerations.

From the premier to the country—I'm an old man; let me finish my work.

From the great chorus of grafters and hangers-on who for the past twelve years have been getting rich at the public trough—Hear, hear; let Laurier finish his work. He's a friend of ours.

PROSPECTS ARE THE BRIGHTEST

In 1904 Ontario gave the Conservatives 10 majority; Quebec gave Sir Wilfrid 43. Since that the Whitney government in Ontario has been elected twice, the last time with a majority of 68. The Liberal machine in Ontario is disorganized and shattered. The Liberal machine in Quebec is handicapped by internal dissensions among the leaders and seriously threatened by a flank attack of the Bourassa independent young voters. In this situation alone, there is the possibility of disaster for the Laurier government. In 1904 New Brunswick, Manitoba and British Columbia gave the Liberals a total majority of 14 from these provinces in the house of commons. These three provinces are now strongly Conservative and there is every probability that the result will be more than a reversion. In 1904 Nova Scotia voted solidly Liberal, giving the government 18 seats. The latest information from that province indicates a turn over next Monday similar to that which has taken place in New Brunswick and Ontario.

THE ONLY WAY IT CAN BE DONE

His political exploits always kept Hon. G. W. Ross' personality to the fore, extolled his personal virtue and integrity and endeavored to create in the public mind the conviction that none but Mr. Ross could properly administer the affairs of the province of Ontario. People stood for it for a time but finally called the political bluff. That is exactly what is happening in the case of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He is a gentleman of unblemished personal integrity and high character; but he is seeking to retain power as premier of Canada by taking advantage of the most unscrupulous methods of an administration without a conscience, without a principle, and without a sense of honesty. The Toronto Globe adjured Hon. G. W. Ross to "scrape off the barnacles". There is only one way in which an honest, high minded statesman can get rid of the political parasites and grafting supporters, and that is the only way in which the people of Canada can fumigate the Laurier government. The name and fame of Laurier has simply become a stalking horse behind which a gang of crooks, grafters, and looters of the nation's resources make their attacks upon the public treasury.

VISIT TO THE WEST

Made Conservative of Liberal

Dr. Sherman of Athens, Life-long Liberal, Comes Out Against Party

Brockville, Oct. 23.—The feature of the Conservative rally at Athens was the presence of Dr. A. N. Sherman, a life-long Liberal of the village. In a short address he expressed the pleasure it afforded him to appear before the people of his native place as a Canadian fighting for honest principles and the preservation of the public heritage of Canada. It was true that all his life heretofore he had been bound by party ties to the Liberal party, but since he had been to the Canadian West and spent years there, during which he saw vast areas of the public lands parcelled out and given to party camp followers, he could stand no longer for such barefaced robberies.

He had travelled extensively over the lands snatched by the Saskatchewan Valley Land Company from the public domain and from the settler and knew the magnitude of this particular hindrance to colonization and settlement. He had been to the G. T. P. crossing of the Smoky and Peace Rivers and had penetrated as far north into the Arctic circle as 450 miles and everywhere found a shameful disposal of lands to followers of the Laurier Government.

For public settlement on free grant lands Dr. Sherman affirmed that the soil left was no better than the bogs of this district. He expressed his intention of supporting the Conservative candidate in this riding, and strongly urged his friends to do likewise. He was repeatedly applauded with cordial enthusiasm.

Weak in Morality

Thomas Crozier and his son Milton, who pleaded guilty at Milton to counterfeiting, were sentenced, the father to nine years and the son to two years. The reports of the case say that many in the court room were moved to tears, and after the sentence was pronounced those present crowded around the prisoner to shake hands. And it is the same with every criminal. What does this public sympathy with criminals mean? Does it mean that the sympathizers would be as the criminals if they had the skill or the nerve? The moral fibre of the community must be flabby and diseased when snivelling and slobbering crowds gather in court rooms to shake hands with criminals.—Bobcaygeon Independent.

WEDDING BELLS

MORRISEY—CONNORS

One of the prettiest weddings ever witnessed in Ennismore took place on Tuesday last, when Miss Emma Connors, of Ennismore, became the bride of Mr. James Morrisey of Ennismore. Rev. Father Fitzpatrick officiated, the marriage taking place at St. Mary's church in the presence of a large party of friends.

After the ceremony the happy pair drove to the residence of the bride's parents where a sumptuous dinner was served to over three hundred guests who remained until the early hours of the day following, enjoying themselves to the utmost.

Amongst the guests present from Downeyville were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lucas, Mr and Mrs. Thos. Harrington jr., Mr. and Mrs. Barney Murray, Mr. John Connors and Mr Wm. Mitchell.

The presents received by the bride were many and handsome, testifying to the high esteem in which she is held by her host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrisey will reside in Ennismore township. That their married life may be long and happy is the wish voiced by all who know them.

GIVES THIS VERY SIMPLE TEST

To Find Out if the Kidneys are Affected and How to Cure Them

There are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of Kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering, frequently resulting in deformity, often reaching the heart, when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

A simple test of the urine is to void a small quantity in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment or white fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and the sufferer can mix it at home: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bed time.

Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

TRIBUTES

A correspondent of the Review sends in the following verses entitled "Tributes"—

Can't you forget Cap Sullivan,
Can't you forget the Minnie M.,
Can't you forget those tributes.
Can't you forget I'm still the same.

Can't you forget my bout with Gamey,
Can't you forget my Ross career,
Can't you forget these tributes,
Can't you forget Home Life so dear.

Lives of grafters will remind us
They have gobbled up our coin.
The ballot's secret, mark it plainly,
Burnham for a change this time.

Free Rural mail delivery began yesterday between Woodstock and Beckles via Seaburg and Folden's Corners.

Immigration to Canada for September totalled 10,097 as compared with 19,057 for the corresponding month last year.

Frank Lawson is nominated for the presidency of the London Canadian Club, and A. M. Overholt for the secretaryship.

SOME SUGGESTIONS

WHY MR. STRATTON

WILL NOT BE RETURNED!

1. This is the first contest that he has gone into under a secret ballot.

2. This is the first contest he has shared in without the ballots being numbered.

3. This is the first fight he has gone into, where he can't know from the ballots, how the electors have voted.

4. This is the first election in which the entire force of Provincial officials in the Riding were not at his beck and call

5. This is the first voting in which the holders of licenses in public houses are indifferent to his success.

6. This is the first time electors can throw him down and he can't know it.

7. This is the first election in which Provincial detectives are on the watch to detect the illegal use of money. This deterrent is against, not negative as before.

8. This is the first time he has had to act wholly on the defensive. Before he was the aggressor—now the defendant.

9. This is the first time in which he has failed to have the backing and assistance of his political confrers from both the Provincial and Dominion Houses.

10. This is the first time, since certain things happened, that the electors have the opportunity so show what they think of his course and public acts.

CONSERVATIVE SPEAKERS AT YOUNG'S POINT LAST NIGHT

Greeted by a Large Audience and Made Splendid Impression – Public Questions Discussed in an Able Manner

A very large attendance greeted the Conservative speakers at Young's Point last evening. Mr. Davis was chairman and performed his duties very acceptably.

The speakers were Mr. Chas. Murray, Mr W. J. Kearns, and the candidate Mr. Burnham.

Mr. Murry spoke in part as follows: I am not much of a politician, but I am a labor man. It is to the improvement of the condition of the working class that I devote myself largely. I am speaking on the political platform tonight because of my friendship for Mr. Burnham. —Applause. It's study of the history of the workingman was of great advantage to us in letting us into the real history of labor from the earliest times. When Mr. Burnham was chosen I was glad for he was admired by me for the interest he has always taken in the cause of the common people. He is a true democrat at heart. Times are bad but I hope they will improve. The woollen industry is badly crippled by the present tariff which is high enough to raise a big revenue but no good for protection. As the father of a large family I can say that clothes cost no more under a Conservative tariff than they do today. I am a tobacco manufacturer in my brother's employ. The Laurier government raised the tariff on tobacco and this raised the price to the smoker. The Laurier government is very weak in its immigration policy. They have encouraged the Japs, the Chinese and the Hindoo. The British Columbians put up a very strenuous kick. The low price of their cheap labor it was a shame to bring in competition with the white man as the Laurier government has done. The Mennonites, the Mormons, the Galicians and the Doukhobors are the Laurier government's favorites, not the people of Canada. What do we want them for. Most of them are no use on top of the earth or perhaps under it. Are we to fill our country up with riff-raff of the earth.

This is the way the labor troubles arise. The good Canadian mechanic is being driven out to the United States which protects them against cheap labor. Our asylums and prisons are being filled with foreigners which we have to maintain. The labor unions of Canada had to send a delegate to Great Britain to head off the Laurier government's agents there who were trying to flood Canada with immigrants. The common people of Canada today are not being fairly treated in this and other ways. I want to see our conditions improved and not made worse as is happening.

We must have a change and it is time for a change. I hope when the ballots are counted next Monday that Borden and Burnham will be elected."

MR. KEARNS.

Mr. Kearns spoke as follows: "It is 25 years since I was here where I got my wife. I vote for good government whether Grit or Tory. I know Mr. Burnham well. We were boys together and I am glad to work for him.—Applause. I also know Mr. Stratton, his opponent. We have a great country here in Canada. The United States has an alien labor law that works against us. Sir Wilfrid said he would retaliate and protect us but he has not done so. I spent 15 years of my life in lumbering. The lumbering industry is down. Lumber can come in here from the negro labor States and beats our lumber out. The United States taxes us while their lumber comes in free. Hence our lumbering industry is going down. There is plenty of lumber in our yards and but few men are being sent to the shanties. The balance of trade is very much against us and with our money going away from us, we are of course getting poor. If all the money of Young's Point went to Toronto where would you be. There is too much politics in this country. We want better men with more principle. There are too many smart men. Canada must be big and deep if used to advantage of any country. A small canal is no good. I once voted for Stratton but I had to turn him in the end as everybody else had had to do."

Mr. Burnham, who was very heartily received, thanked the electors for turning out in such large numbers and especially the ladies, whose interest in the welfare of the Dominion meant so much to the future possibilities of Canada. The previous speakers paid him compliments which he knew he did not deserve, but he would have to proceed just as if he did deserve them. The condition of Canada morally and financially would be his text for the evening. They were aware that the newspapers from one end of the Dominion to the other were full of scandals. These scandals were not mere rumors. Facts, figures and details culled from the original documents of Parliament were given in almost every case. Journals like the Montreal Witness, a steadfast Liberal organ, had spoken very sharply of the "barefaced raids" upon the national treasury. Scandals were not confined to one party. They were the usual apparel of some men of both parties. The present struggle is against graft, not Conservative graft, or Liberal graft, but graft, and graft means stealing. This disease has suddenly developed like a bubonic plague. The politics and business of Canada is rife with it. It was idle for Liberal stumpers to dispute it. The report of the Royal Commission, appointed by Parliament at the demand of public opinion to investigate it had been able to investigate but a few departments, yet that report stood upon record in the annals of Canada as a record of unprincipled plundering by employees within the departments in league with those on the patronage list on the outside. The speaker gave one or two instances out of the countless number of cases cited in the report, and showed that in those few instances the loss to the people of Canada had exceeded one million of dollars. The development of the west, which seems to be the special pride of the Laurier administration, is going on at the expense of the people of the east for the benefit of land monopolists and western timber limit stealers, whose market is thereby enlarged, and the number of future buyers apparently increased. Land in the West has risen in price steadily, largely through the cornering of it by speculators, who have obtained immense grants and privileges for paltry sums that the government should have been ashamed to allow to go on record. Graft cannot thrive where money is not plentiful. There must be huge "enterprises" to enable grafters to work in supplies to the Government at high prices, and to permit of the great financiers getting the country and its people in their grasp. The false trade policy of the Laurier Government has gradually developed, as it was certain that it in the end would. A tariff that did not protect has been sufficient to permit of collecting from the people a huge revenue. Such a measure must in the end bring ruin, and it is at hand. Surpluses have this year been succeeded by an accumulating deficit. So far it amounts for 1908 to ten millions of dollars. To meet government obligations it has been necessary for Sir Wilfrid to borrow, and this year has already witnessed an addition to the capital debt of Canada of no less than sixty-five millions of dollars. A few more years and we in Canada will be, as the great journals of Britain have warned us, in the slough of heavy indebtedness. For six millions and a half of people, many of whom are aliens in race and political ideals, to embark upon a G.T.P. scheme involving hundreds of millions, a Georgian Bay canal scheme involving a hundred millions more, an All-Red route, a Hudson Bay railway, enlargement of waterways, etc., etc., when the money so used should be used at home here in the East to develop what we have already got, is a monstrous absurdity. Within Ontario and Quebec are poorly equipped for highways, means of education, means of cheap municipal transportation, drainage of large swamps, the reclaiming of waste and unhealthy places, and yet we build railways to the moon at enormous expense. Truly, we are a peculiar people and zealous of big works. "Do you feel that this course of expenditure is best for you? Do you think that you are wise in undertaking such huge schemes that will not be for half a century, if ever, of practical benefit to you here in Ontario. It is true that these schemes will breed rivals and depress the value of your farms. Do you want that"? Then the decay of trade has become manifest suddenly and alarmingly. The woollen trade and the raising of wool is going rapidly into the limbo of forgotten things. Had Sir James Whitney not resolved to ignore the Laurier tariff, which has been giving the Germans our electrical as our other manufactures, the C. G. E. of Peterborough would not have got the recent new contract and the vast sums that will follow. Mr. Kendrey, Mr. Bradburn and the speaker had gone to Sir James Whitney and asked him to consider the workingmen of Peterborough and Canada. They urged him to keep out the Germans who could beat us by their cheaper labor and to give our own people our own work and our own money in defiance of Laurier and his tariff. The premier had responded and responded quickly and gladly being bound to protect Canadian workingmen relying on public opinion to support him. The present tariff is a cruel wrong upon Canadian labor. To Peterborough this contract means more than we can well estimate and if the same policy had been pursued by Sir Wilfrid in making the tariff protective, the Wm. Hamilton Company works would be going today. Capitalists would take hold of them but what hope is there if Canadian labor is standing in the way. Either reduce wages or raise the tariff. Who would wish to reduce wages and lower the standard of our working life? None but those in the grasp of the great foreign money lenders and blind to our own interests. Why is our own national life neglected or condemned to poverty? It is wrong. It cannot last. This is a mighty contest between a fair wage and the Laurier government. The ballot is secret beyond all possibility of discovery, and the way of the voter is easy and plain. In 1896 trade was dull but the balance of trade was yet in our favor. We put by three million dollars in that year. It was not much but it was not going behind. In this year of 1908, we are ninety millions of dollars behind. We have paid out that enormous sum in excess of what we have taken in. In ten years we have gone behind six hundred millions of dollars in that way. How could we prosper with such a huge proportion of our cash sent abroad and the basis of our commerce in the hands of foreigners? We must stiffen up our tariff at once. Keep our contracts at home. Purify the public service. Cut out the harpies, grafters and stealers. Put more of these people in the penitentiary and fewer in parliament. Improve our own conditions round about us and let the West wait until we are really able to undertake its development. Prosperity begins at our own doors. We are poor, yet our government presumes to do what would give pause to Great Britain herself. Our last loan was rejected and the writing is appearing on the wall. In any event no matter who wins, God bless Canada and save her from enemies within or without.

Read the following letters and be convinced of the efficiency of this truly wonderful remedy:

MERLIN, ONT., March 27th, 1902

MRS. S. F. CURRAH, WINDSOR, ONT.:

Dear Mrs. Currah,—Your letter of the 24th received to-day. Please find enclosed $5.00 for 6 boxes of Orange Lily. I would not think of discontinuing its use, as I know that 6 more boxes will produce a permanent cure. Even now I am an entirely new creature since using O. L. At present I know of two other cases the same as mine, (long standing leucorrhoea), and as you give sample trial boxes free, if you would send me a few I would gladly hand them to my friends, for I know it will produce the same good results in every case. I intend sending you my photo and testimonial letter later, for I feel we cannot say too much in favor of Orange Lily, and know if more of same was used among suffering womankind the surgeon's knife would be cheated of its many baptisms in the blood of suffering women. Hoping God may ever bless and prosper you and Dr. Coonley in your noble work, believe me, ever your sincere friend, MISS R. McK., Merlin P.O., Kent Co., Ont.

KINGSTON, ONT., July 15th, 1903

DEAR FRIEND,—Some time ago I wrote and told you the great good your wonderful medicine had done for me. Since then I have continued to use it, and after five years of terrible suffering and undergoing three operations, I am completely cured by Orange Lily after using it for eight months. I cannot say too much in praise of it. Knowing as I do, that so many women in this city suffer as I did, and knowing what it did for me, I would like to take the Agency. Will you please send instructions and terms to Agents? Gratefully yours, MISS G. T., 359 Brock street.

Address, enclosing 3 cent stamps, for Free Sample, circulars and other testimonials.

GOSSIPING IS MORE HARMFUL

Than Stealing---Debate at Inthon Bible Class Meeting

The literary debate given by the Inthon Bible class of the George St. church last night was a big success. Mr. R. J. Soden presided and caused much merriment by his abundant store of witticisms.

Before the debate started a quartette from the class, the first that has appeared before the public sang "Stand up, stand up for Jesus." The quartette was picked at random from the class and with a little practice they could beat any quartette in Peterborough.

The subject to be debated upon was then taken up and the discussion that followed was both very interesting and amusing.

"Resolved that gossiping is more harmful than stealing" is a subject which will stand a vast amount of discussion and the debate ended last night that it was more harmful to gossip than to steal.

Messrs A. R. Kidd, S. A. Oke and W. B. Warne were for the affirmative and Messrs. F. C. Moore, Wood and Moore were for the defence.

Both sides contained good speakers but Mr Kidd's experience held him in good stead and went far to prove that gossiping was the more harmful of the two.

Rev. E. A. Pearson was called upon for a solo and he sang "Does Jesus Care," in a very creditable manner.

A quartette from the choir also rendered a couple of pieces and were accompanied on the platform by Miss Gumpricht, a talented young player.

Mr Cunningham, a member of the choir, also came forward with 'Asleep in the Deep," and it sounds pretty good in his rich bass voice.

About fifty were present and those who did not get around missed something pretty good.

The next entertainment on the season's programme will be a social one gotten up by Mr. G. T. Proctor, chairman of the social committee.

It is going to be a good one and will take place on Friday, November 6th.

The Inthons will meet as usual tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 for the lesson discussion so don't be backward in coming forward, fellows.

If you are a visitor to Peterborough do not be shy in coming around to see us. You won't feel strange very long. We meet in the parlor of the George street Methodist church corner George and McDonnell Sts.—Contributed.

DELIGHTFUL RECITAL GIVEN BY CONVENT MUSIC CLASS

At St. Peter's Hall Under Auspices of Sisters of St. Joseph—An Excellent Programme, One Number of Which Was Composed by John T. Ball Formerly of Peterborough.

The recital by the music class of the Convent given in St. Peter's Hall Thursday night was a splendid success.

The programme given was an excellent one and the audience showed great appreciation of the different numbers. Several awards of prizes and diplomas were made.

The recital was given under the auspices of the Sisters of St. Joseph's. Those of the sisters, who are in charge of the music classes of the convent are to be congratulated on the splendid way in which the programme was carried out. It was given the enthusiastic approval of the large audience all the numbers being well received and encores were the order of the evening. His Lordship Bishop O'Connor and the clergy of the cathedral staff were in attendance and thoroughly appreciated the recital.

THE PROGAMME.

The programme was given as follows:

PART I.

Instrumental duets, Engelmann, Miss S. Cleary, Miss F. Leary.

Semi chorus, "Music of the Birds," Junior Class.

Instrumental duet, "March Militaire," Haberbier, Miss E. Morrow, Miss M. Grady.

Vocal solo, (a) selected, (b) "Lullaby," John Ball, Miss E. Brady.

"The Brave Tin Soldiers," Twelve Little Boys.

Instrumental solo, "Impromptu," Rhienbold, Miss A. Sullivan.

Instrumental, "Whispers From Erin," Piano, Misses E. Connor and L. Fife; 1st Violin, Miss M. Cairns, Miss E. Doris; 2nd Violin, Miss M. Theobald; Mandolin, Miss M. Anderson.

PART II.

Vocal, "The Marvelous Work," Creation, obligato solo, Mrs. E. M. Tuck; 1st soprano, Miss M. Young; 2nd soprano, Miss E. Brady; alto, Miss A. Sullivan.

Violin solo, "Annie Laurie," Ritter, Miss M. Cairns.

Instrumental duet, "Invitation to the Dance," Weber, Miss B. Giroux, Miss K. O'Brien.

Vocal, "Barcarolle," Primary Class.

Vocal solo, "Gaily Chant the Summer Birds," Mrs. E. M. Tuck.

Instrumental, "Overture to Tancredi," Rossini, Piano, Miss L. Hatrick, Miss H. Pierce; organ, Miss M. Gorman.

Accompanists, Misses L. Fife, E. Connor, A. Sullivan.

Distribution of prizes and testimonials.

PRIZES PRESENTED.

At the conclusion of the programme those pupils who were successful in winning prizes for Christian Doctrine, writing and music, were presented with them as follows:

Medal for Christian Doctrine, presented by the Rev. W. J. McColl, and awarded to Miss Agnes Torpey.

Prize for Christian Doctrine, presented by the Rev. W. J. McColl, and awarded to Miss Mary Kennedy.

Silver medal for penmanship, presented by Mr. J. Crane, obtained by Miss Lillian Goselin.

Gold pins for penmanship, presented by Mr. J. Crane, obtained by Miss Loretto Trombley.

Five dollars in gold, presented by Mr. James Lynch for highest standing at the Entrance Examination in Boys' Separate Schools, obtained by Master Gerald Desautel.

Five dollars in gold, presented by Mr. James Lynch for highest standing at the Entrance Examinations in Girls' Separate Schools, obtained by Miss Veronica Carveth.

Prize for third year piano, Toronto College of Music, awarded to Miss Lillian M. Fife.

Prize for highest standing with first-class honors in intermediate piano, obtained by Miss Aileen Sullivan.

Prize for first-class honors in vocal, highest standing in all the College of Music centres, obtained by Mrs. E. M. Tuck.

Prize for first-class honors in Junior Piano, awarded to Miss Stella Cleary.

Seventeen pupils obtained diplomas of the Toronto College of Music, taking high standing in their respective grades.

While the programme was of uniform excellence, special reference should be made to the vocal selections of Mrs. E. M. Tuck. She possesses a soprano voice of beautiful quality and wide range. She displayed great technique and control. "Lullaby," composed by Mr. John T. Ball, of Buffalo, was sung in excellent voice, as the second part of a double number by Miss Ella Brady. The melody of the number is a captivating one, and the local friends of Mr. Ball will congratulate him on the composition. It would seem a warranted prophecy that he will meet with much distinction as a composer.

Miss Aileen Sullivan gave a brilliant rendition of Rhienbold's Impromptu for the piano.

The presentation of the prizes won in the Toronto College of Music examinations was made by His Lordship, Bishop O'Connor. In presenting them he spoke highly of the painstaking and competent instruction of the Sisters, also referring to the excellent work done by their pupils.

Rev. Father McColl, rector of St. Peter's, presented the prizes for Christian Doctrine, and in doing so made reference to the excellent results of the schools in the various branches of education.

Mr. John Crane, who gave the prizes for penmanship at the Entrance Examinations, was unable to be present and sent his regrets.

Dr. M. A. Morrison represented Mr. Crane. He paid a pretty compliment to the winners, both of whom were pupils of the Convent School.

Thanks are due Messrs. Lehane, Pope, Young and Cahill, who acted as ushers.

YOU MUST BE TAGGED WITH THE REST OF THE CITIZENS

On the Tag Day of St James Church—To Raise Money for the Building of the New Church—A Popular Occasion

The Ladies' Aid of St. James' Church have decided to hold a tag day. To those who are not familiar with the meaning of tag day the announcement may not be received with more than a passing interest, but before the tag day campaign is over there is no doubt that the movement will be generally talked about in all parts of the city.

The purpose of the day is to raise funds for the new St. James' Church. The ladies of the church wish everyone in the city to become "tagged." Small badges or tags will be disposed of at 5 cents each, and a widespread sale with substantial financial returns is sure to result. The day has not been decided upon yet, but will be announced in the Review.

This original way of collecting funds has met with much success wherever tried. In Hamilton tag day had all the citizens talking a short time ago, and anyone who didn't have a tag was more or less "out of it." The tag day in Peterborough should meet with a corresponding measure of success.

If you are not wearing a tag on the day when you should have one it will be considered quite legitimate to hold you up for the 5 cents expected from you.

SERVICES AT S. A. BARRACKS

Memorial Service for the Late Arthur E. Jones To-morrow Night

A memorial service will be held at the Salvation Army barracks to-morrow night out of respect to the memory of the late Arthur Edward Jones, the young son of Mr. Arthur Jones, who passed away at Nicholls hospital on Thursday night. The little fellow was a member of the Salvation Army Sunday school and his death has cast a gloom over his class. The boy's father is also a bandsman and much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents.

To-morrow morning an open air service will be held on Stewart st., between Charlotte and Simcoe sts., at a quarter past ten.

DEDICATION FESTIVAL AT ST. JOHN'S

The dedication festival of St. John's church will be celebrated by special services to-morrow, and on Sunday week, Nov. 1st. St. John's is Peterborough's oldest church. It was built in 1833-35, and was re-opened after restoration on All Saints' Day, 1884.

Special sermons in commemoration of the event will be preached to-morrow at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. by Ven. Archdeacon Clark, M.A., of Hamilton, who was recently honored by election as clerical secretary of the General Synod of Canada. The services will be appropriate to the festival. The important parochial letter just issued will be given to members of the congregation to-morrow. Important meetings in connection with the festival will be held on Wednesday and Friday of next week.

WHAT NEGLECT DID FOR HIM

Jas. E. Brant Suffered Torments From Kidney Diseases.

Then He Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and Became a Well Man—His Experience a Lesson for You

Athabasca Landing, Alta., Oct. 23.—(Special).—That Kidney Disease, neglected in its earlier stages, leads to the most terrible suffering, if not death itself, and that the one sure cure for it in all stages is Dodd's Kidney Pills, is the experience of Mr. James E. Brant, a farmer residing near here.

Mr. Brant contracted Kidney Disease when a young man from a strain, and like hosts of others, neglected it, expecting it to go away itself.

But it kept gradually growing worse, till, after thirty years of increasing suffering the climax came, and he found himself so crippled that at times he could not turn in bed, and for two weeks at a time it was impossible to rise from a chair without putting his hands on his knees. He could not button his clothes. He was troubled with Lumbago, Gravel and Backache, and tried medicines for each and all of them without getting relief, till good luck turned him to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Dodd's Kidney Pills started at the cause of his troubles and cured his Kidneys. With cured his other troubles speedily disappeared, and to-day he is a well man.

If you cure your kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills you will never have Lumbago, Rheumatism, Heart Disease, Dropsy or Bright's Disease.

FIRES IN DUMMER

Hundreds of Acres in Flames

Several Buildings Have Been Destroyed---Farmers Fighting the Flames

Several hundred acres of bush lands are on fire in Dummer township. The flames have swept across into that township from Belmont and great destruction is being caused. Farmers are battling the fire night and day and despite their strenuous efforts the flames are sweeping on and thousands of dollars of damage will be done if rain does not come soon.

A shanty and stables belonging to Mr. James Little in the seventh concession of Dummer have been burned, causing a loss of several hundred dollars. The woods of Mr. Thos. Cooper, Mrs. Jos. Cooper and Mr. Jos. Purdy are also on fire. They are located about five miles northeast of Warsaw.

Another big bush fire is raging near White lake. The Davis camp and the stables in connection with it have been burned. Mr. Thomas Miller has a large force of men fighting the fires in this vicinity.

The fires are still burning at Indian river and the farmers are out fighting them.

NEW FODDER PROMISES TO BE OF BENEFIT TO FARMERS

Mr. T. M. Hunter, of North Monaghan, to-day showed the Review a new fodder that has been grown in this locality for the first time this season. It is known as "cabbage kale," and in appearance the leaf resembles that of a cabbage. It grows several feet high and is a heavy yielder, even more so than corn. It can be sown either broadcast or in rows. Mr. Hunter has an acre of the new fodder and Mr. J. K. Moore, of Smith township also has an acre of it. The seed was brought out to Canada this spring by Mr. Sculthorpe, of Port Hope.

Cabbage kale will prove a great benefit to the farmers if it turns out that it does not flavor the milk like turnips do. Mr. Hunter will experiment along this line in the near future.

THE MYSTERY

By STEWART EDWARD WHITE
And SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS

COPYRIGHT, 1907, BY McCLURE, PHILLIPS & CO.

"How far is it to the side of the ship, you hound?" shrieked the captain.

Mumble—surprised—for an answer.

"Well, I'll tell you, you swab! It's just two fathom from where you stand. Just two fathom! How long would it take you to walk there? How long? Just about six seconds! There and back! You"— I won't bother with all the epithets, although by now I know Captain Selover's vocabulary fairly well. "And you couldn't take six seconds off to spit over the side! Couldn't walk two fathom! Had to spit on my quarter deck, did you?"

Rumble from the mate.

"No, by God, you won't call up any of the crew. You'll get a swab and do it yourself! You'll get a hand swab and get down on your knees! I'll teach you to be lazy!"

The mate said something again.

"It don't matter if we ain't under way. That has nothing to do with it. The quarter deck is clean, if the waist ain't, and nobody but a son of a sea lawyer would spit on deck anyhow!" From this Captain Selover went on into a good old fashioned deep sea "cussing out," to the great joy of the stevedores.

The mate stood it pretty well, but there comes a time when further talk is useless even in regard to a most heinous offense. And of course, as you know, the mate could hardly consider himself very seriously at fault. Why, the ship was not yet at sea and in all the clutter of charging. He began to answer back. In a moment it was a quarrel. Abruptly it was a fight. The mate marked Selover beneath the left eye. The captain with beautiful simplicity crushed his antagonist in his gorilla-like squeeze, carried him to the side of the vessel and dropped him limp and beaten to the pier. And the mate was a good stout specimen of a seafarer too.

Then the captain rushed below, emerging after an instant with a chest which he flung after his subordinate. It was followed a moment later by a stream of small stuff—mingled with language—projected through an open porthole. This in turn ceased. The captain reappeared with a pail and brush, scrubbed feverishly at the offending spot, mopped it dry with that same old red bandanna handkerchief, glared about him and abruptly became as serene and placid as a noon calm. He took up the direction of the stevedores. It was all most astounding.

Nobody paid any attention to the mate. He looked toward the ship once or twice, thought better of it and began to pick up his effects, muttering savagely. In a moment or so he threw his chest aboard an outgoing truck and departed.

It was now nearly noon and I was just in the way of going for something to eat when I caught sight of another dray laden with boxes and crated affairs which I recognized as scientific apparatus. It was followed in quick succession by three others. Ignorant as I was of the requirements of a scientist, my common sense told me this could be no exploring outfit. I revised my first intention of going to the club and bought a sandwich or two at the corner coffee house. I don't know why, but even then the affair seemed big with mystery, with the portent of tragedy. Perhaps the smell of tar was in my nostrils and the sea called. It has always possessed for me an extraordinary allurement.

A little after 2 o'clock a cab drove to the after gangplank and stopped. From it alighted a young man of whom I shall later have occasion to tell you more, followed by Dr. Schermerhorn. The young man carried only a light leather "serviette," such as students use abroad, while the doctor fairly staggered under the weight of a square brass bound chest without handles. The singularity of this unequal division of labor struck me at once.

It struck also one of the dock men, who ran forward, eager for a tip.

"Kin I carry th' box for you, boss?" he asked, at the same time reaching for it.

The doctor's thin figure seemed fairly to shrink at the idea.

"No, no!" he cried. "It is not for you to carry!"

He hastened up the gangplank, clutching the chest close. At the top Captain Selover met him.

"Hello, doctor," he squealed. "Here in good time. We're busy, you see. Let me carry your chest for you."

"No, no!" Dr. Schermerhorn fairly glared.

"It's almighty heavy," insisted the captain. "Let me give you a hand."

"You must not touch!" emphatically ordered the scientist. "Where iss the cabin?"

He disappeared down the companionway clasping his precious load. The young man remained on deck to superintend the stowing of the scientific goods and the personal baggage.

All this time I had been thinking busily. I remembered distinctly one other instance when Dr. Schermerhorn had disappeared. He came back inscrutably, but within a week his results on aerial photography were public property. I told myself that in the present instance his lavish use of money, the elaborate nature of his preparations, the evident secrecy of the expedition as evidenced by the fact that he had negotiated for the vessel only the day before setting sail, the importance of personal supervision as proved by the fact that he—notoriously impractical in practical matters and notoriously disliking anything to do with business—had conducted the affair himself instead of delegating it—why gentlemen, don't you see that all this was more than enough to wake me up body and soul? Suddenly I came to a definite resolution. Captain Selover had descended to the pier. I approached him.

"You need a mate," said I.

He looked me over.

"Perhaps," he admitted. "Where's your man?"

"Right here," said I.

His eyes widened a little. Otherwise he showed no sign of surprise. I cursed my clothes.

Fortunately I had my master's cer[illegible] with me—I'd passed fresh wa[illegible] the great lakes—I always carry that sort of document on the chance that it may come handy. It chanced to have a couple of naval indorsements, results of the late war.

"Look here," I said before I gave it to him. "You don't believe in me. My clothes are too good. That's all right. They're all I have that are good. I'm broke. I came down here wondering whether I'd better throw myself in the drink."

"You look like a dude," he squeaked. "Where did you ever ship?"

I handed him my certificate. The indorsements from Admiral Keays and Captain Arnold impressed him. He stared at me again, and a gleam of cunning crept into his eyes.

"Nothing crooked about this?" he breathed softly.

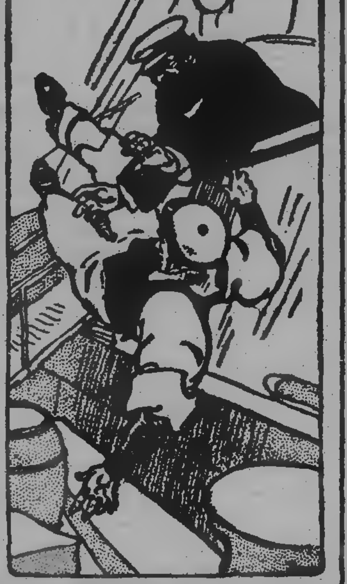
I had the key to this side of his character. You remember I had overheard the night before his statement of his moral scruples. I said nothing but looked knowing.

"What was it?" he murmured. "Plain desertion or something worse?"

I remained inscrutable.

"Well," he conceded, "I do need a mate, and a naval man—even if he is wantin' to get out of sight"—

"He won't spit on your decks anyway," I broke in hold[illegible]



Dropped him limp and beaten to the pier.

Captain Selover's hairy face bristled about the mouth. This I subsequently discovered was symptom of a grin.

"You saw that, eh?" he trebled.

"Aren't you afraid he'll bring down the police and delay your sailing?" I asked.

He grinned again, with a cunning twinkle in his eye.

"You needn't worry. There ain't goin' to be any police. He had his advance money, and he won't risk it by tryin' to come back."

We came to an agreement. I professed surprise at the wages. The captain guardedly explained that the expedition was secret.

"What's our port?" I asked, to test him.

"Our papers are made out for Honolulu," he replied.

We adjourned to sign articles.

"By the way," said I, "I wish you wouldn't make them out in my own name. 'Eagen' will do."

"All right," he laughed, "I sabe. Eagen it is."

"I'll be aboard at 6," said I. "I've got to make some arrangements."

"Wish you could help with the lading," said he. "Still I can get along. Want any advance money?"

"No," I replied. Then I remembered that I was supposed to be broke. "Yes," I amended.

He gave me $10.

"I guess you'll show up," he said. "Wouldn't do this to everybody. But a naval man—even if he is dodgin' Uncle Sam"—

"I'll be here," I assured him.

At that time I wore a pointed beard. This I shaved; also I was accustomed to use eyeglasses. The trouble was merely a slight astigmatism which bothered me only in reading or close inspection. I could get along perfectly well without glasses, so I discarded them. I had my hair cut rather close. When I had put on sea boots, blue trousers and shirt, a pea jacket and a cap I felt quite safe from the recognition of a man like Dr. Schermerhorn. In fact, as you shall see, I hardly spoke to him during all the voyage out.

Promptly at 6, then, I returned with a sea chest, bound I knew not whither, to be gone I knew not for how long and pledged to act as second officer on a little 150 ton schooner.

CHAPTER IX.

I HAD every reason to be satisfied with my disguise—if such it could be called. Captain Selover at first failed to recognize me. Then he burst into his shrill cackle.

"Didn't know you," he trebled. "But you look shipshape. Come, I'll show you your quarters."

Immediately I discovered what I had suspected before—that on so small a schooner the mate took rank with the men rather than the afterguard. Cabin accommodations were of course very limited. My own lurked in the waist of the ship—a tiny little airless hole.

"Here's where Johnson stayed," proffered Selover. "You can bunk here or you can go in the foc'sle with the men. They's more room there. We'll get under way with the turn of the tide."

He left me. I examined the cabin. It was just a trifle larger than its single berth, and the berth was just a trifle larger than myself. My chest would have to be left outside. I strongly suspected that my lungs would have to be left outside also. For the life of me I could not see where the air was to come from. With a mental reservation in favor of investigating the forecastle I went on deck.

The Laughing Lass was one of the prettiest little schooners I ever saw. Were it not for the lines of her bilges and the internal arrangement of her hold it might be imagined she had been built originally as a pleasure yacht. Even the rake of her masts, a little forward of plumb, bore out this impression, which a comparatively new suit of canvas, well stopped down, brass stanchions forward and two little guns under tarpaulins almost confirmed. Her complement of boats was ample enough. She had two surfboats, a dingey and a dory slung to the davits. In addition another dory—the one you picked me up in—was lashed to the top of the deckhouse.

"They'd mighty near have a boat apiece," I thought and went forward.

Just outside the forecastle hatch I paused. Some one below was singing in a voice singularly rich in quality. The words and the quaintness of the minor air struck me immensely and have clung to my memory like a bur ever since:

"'Are you a man-o'-war or a privateer,' said he.
Blow high, blow low, what care we!
'Oh, I am a jolly pirate, and I'm sailing for my fee,'
Down on the coast of the high Barbare-e-e."

I stepped to the companion. The voice at once ceased. I descended.

A glimmer of late afternoon struggled through the deadlights. I found myself in a really commodious space, extending far back of where the forward bulkheads are usually placed, accommodating rows and rows of bunks—eighteen of them, in fact. The unlighted lamp cast its shadow on wood stained black by much use, but polished like ebony from the continued friction of men's garments. I wish I could convey to you the uncanny effect this—of dropping from the decks of a miniature craft to the internal arrangements of a square rigged ship. It was as though entering a cottage door you were to discover yourself on the floor of Madison Square Garden. A fresh sweet breeze of evening sucked down the hatch. I immediately decided on the forecastle. Already it was being borne in on me that I was little more than a glorified bo's'n's mate. The situation suited me, however. It enabled me to watch the course of events more safely, less exposed to the danger of recognition.

I stood for a moment at the foot of the companion accustoming my eyes to the gloom. After a moment, with a shock of surprise, I made out a shining pair of bead points gazing at me unblinkingly from the shadow under the bitts. Slowly the man defined himself, as a shape takes form in a fog. He was leaning forward in an attitude of attention, his elbows resting on his knees, his forearms depending between them, his head thrust out. I could detect no faintest movement of eyelash, no faintest sound of breathing. The stillness was portentous. The creature was exactly like a wax figure, one of the sort you meet in corridors of cheap museums, and for a moment mistake for living beings. Almost I thought to make out the customary gray dust lying on the wax of his features.

I am going to tell you more of this man because, as you shall see, he was destined to have much to do with my life, the fate of Dr. Karl Augustus Schermerhorn and the doom of the Laughing Lass.

He wore on his head a red bandanna handkerchief. I never saw him with other covering. From beneath it straggled oily and tangled locks of glossy black. His face was long, narrow, hook nosed and sinister. His eyes, as I have described them, a steady and beady black. I could at first glance ascribe great activity, but only moderate strength to his slender, wiry figure. In this I was mistaken. His sheer physical power was second only to that of Captain Selover. One of his forearms ended in a steel hook. At the moment I could not understand this; could not see how a man so maimed could be useful aboard a ship. Later I wished we had more as handy. He knew a jam hitch which he caught over and under his hook quicker than most men can grasp a line with the naked hand. It would render one way, but hold fast the other. He told me it was a cinch hook hitch employed by mule packers in the mountains and that he had used it on swamp hooks in the lumber woods of Michigan. I shouldn't wonder. He was a Wandering Jew. His name was Anderson, but I never heard him called that. It was always "Handy Solomon" with men and masters.

We stared at each other, I fascinated by something, some spell of the ship, which I have never been able to explain to myself nor even describe. It was a mystery, a portent, a premonition such as overtakes a man sometimes in the dark passageways of life. I cannot tell you of it nor make you believe—let it pass.

Then by a slow process of successive perceptions I became aware that I was watched by other eyes, other wax figures, other human beings with unwavering gaze. They seemed to the sense of mystic apprehension that for the moment held possession of me to be everywhere—in the bunks, on the floor, back in the shadows, watching, watching, watching from the advantage of another world.

I don't know why I tell you this; why I lay so much stress on the first weird impression I got of the forecastle. It means something to me now—in view of all that happened subsequently. Almost can I look back and see in that moment of occultism a warning, an enlightenment— But the point is it meant something to me then. I stood there fascinated, unable to move, unable to speak.

Then the grotesque figure in the corner stirred.

"Well, mates," said the man, "believe or not believe, it's in the book, and it stands to reason too. We have gold mines here in Californy and Nevada and all them states, and we hear of gold mines in Mexico and Australia, too, but did you ever hear tell of gold mines in Europe? Tell me that! And where did the gold come from, then, before they discovered America? Tell me that! Why, they made it, just as the man that wrote this here says, and you can kiss the book on that."

"How about that place, Ophir, I read about?" asked a voice from the bunks.

The man shot a keen glance thither from beneath his brows.

"Know last year's output from the mines of Ophir, Thrackles?" he inquired in silky tones.

"Why, no," stammered the man addressed as Thrackles.

"Well, I do," pursued the man with the steel hook, "and it's just the whole of nothing, and you can kiss the book on that too. There ain't any gold output because there ain't any mines, and there never have been. They made their gold."

He tossed aside a book he had been holding in his left hand. I recognised the fat little paper duodecimo with amusement and some wonder. The only other copy I had ever laid my eyes on is in the Astor library. It is somewhat of a rarity, called "The Secret of Alchemy; or, The Grand Doctrine of Transmutation Fully Explained," and was written by a Dr. Edward Duvall, a most extraordinary volume to have fallen into the hands of seamen.

I stepped forward, greeting and being greeted. Besides the man I have mentioned there were four. The cook was a bullet headed squat negro with a broken nose. I believe he had a name, Robinson or something of that sort. He was to all of us simply the nigger. Unlike most of his race, he was gloomy and taciturn.

Of the other two, a little white faced, thin chested youth named Puls and a villainous looking Mexican called Perdosa, I shall have more to say later.

My arrival broke the talk on alchemy. It resumed its course in the direction of our voyage. Each discovered that the others knew nothing, and each blundered against the astounding fact of double wages.

"All I know is the pay's good, and that's enough," concluded Thrackles from a bunk.

"The pay's too good," growled Handy Solomon. "This ain't no job to go look at the 'clipse of the moon or the devil's a preacher!"

"W'at you maik heem, den?" queried Perdosa.

"It's treasure, of course," said Handy Solomon shortly.

"He, he, he!" laughed the negro without mirth.

"What's the matter with you, doctor?" demanded Thrackles.

"Treasure!" repeated the nigger. "You see dat box he done carry so cairful? You see dat?"

A pause ensued. Somebody scratched a match and lit a pipe.

"No, I don't see that!" broke out Thrackles finally, with some impatience. "I sabe how a man goes after treasure with a box, but why should he take treasure away in a box? What do you think, Bucko?" he suddenly appealed to me.

I looked up from my investigation of the empty berths.

"I don't think much about it," I replied, "except that by the look of the stores we're due for more than Honolulu, and from the look of the light we'd better turn to on deck."

An embarrassed pause fell.

"Who are you, anyway?" bluntly demanded the man with the steel hook.

"My name is Eagen," I replied; "I've the berth of mate. Which of these bunks are empty?"

They indicated what I desired with just a trace of sullenness. I understood well enough their resentment at having a ship's officer quartered on them—the foc'sle they considered as their only liberty when at sea and my presence as a curtailment to the freedom of speech. I subsequently did my best to overcome this feeling, but never quite succeeded.

At my command the nigger went to his galley. I ascended to the deck. Dusk was falling in the swift Californian fashion. Already the outlines of the wharf houses were growing indistinct, and the lights of the city were beginning to twinkle. Captain Selover came to my side and leaned over the rail, peering critically at the black water against the piles.

"She's at the flood," he squeaked. "And here comes the Lucy Belle."

DOMINION ELECTIONS

To the Electors of the West Riding of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN:—The condition of industry in Canada is bad. The condition of workingmen is following suit. Their beautiful homes are becoming the prey of reduced circumstances. To the extent that we pay out money to other countries for work that should be done here we are traitors to our workingmen. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has brought this about to such a degree that Canada has paid out in the last twelve years (being the term during which the Liberals have been in power) hundreds of millions of dollars more than she took in. It was not so under a protectionist government. Those millions should have been spent at home. Then there would have been work for our workers to that extent at any rate, and what is more, the money would have been kept in the country. As it is we have to borrow to get it back. We have to borrow for gigantic enterprises which serve to make the big money-lender, the stock gambler and the contractor rich, but what good is it doing the workingman? To add insult to his injury Sir Wilfrid Laurier has opened the gates on the East and the West to immigrants. Those on the East, our own kith and kin, have been misled by misrepresentatation and entrapped by agents who are paid a bonus for their capture. Those on the West are the untold millions of the Orient who are displacing the whites in B.C. are working East and are dispossessing Canadians of their own country. They lower the rate of wages and the standard of living. If Canada is to be kept up as she was but a few years ago she must not be allowed to fall into the class of "cheap and nasty" nations. If her people are to be well housed, well fed, well educated and above the condition of sweaters, they must demand a tariff against sweatwork, against undue immigration, against undue importation and a high protection for employers and employed alike, against the trickery of men who make their money on the stock market and by graft. The workers are slowly but surely becoming poorer than they used to be in this naturally rich and resourceful country. Why? Because the cream of all work goes to the money-lender of New York and London.

Why are the men of Canada idle? Because others will do the work cheaper in Britain and Germany and we let them invade our markets while they keep us out of theirs. The German tariff, the United States tariff, the French tariff are all vastly higher than ours. Britain protects herself where she needs it, by a Cattle Embargo and by the Patents Act, which requires patented articles (and nearly all are patented) to be manufactured there. There is never depression in France. The French have a high tariff and economize. They have always plenty for a rainy day. The Germans likewise keep their own work in their own country, but are weighed down with militarism. Britain suffers because her work is being done elsewhere, although she is changing that rapidly, but she has an immense start over Canada in her already accumulated capital. The United States is the modern wonder of the world, due altogether to high protection. Protection or tariff has been well said to be the measure of the standard of life amongst the workers. Commodities in protected countrie are not higher than in unprotected. Clothing under a low tariff in Canada is higher in price than it used to be under a high tariff. Certain ills due to over-expansion, the machinations of stockgamblers, etc., exist in all countries, but when an ill is plainly preventable, why not prevent it? Sending cash out of the country over and above what we take in will never make us rich. Yet we do it and must do it under our present system of trade. Opening of unnecessary lands as in the West, while Ontario is not half populated or developed is of a piece with rest, but it is the delight of the money-lender. Ontario farms are rapidly decreasing in value. A huge national deficit is accumulating for this year and unless times are checked and we are restored to our own, the coming winter will be a veritable horror. The money that we are borrowing in such immense sums if spent for supplies, made in Canada, would mean work for everyone at good wages. Why then does Sir Wilfrid permit rails for the G. T. P. to be bought out of Canada and clothing that would keep our farmers growing wool and our woollen mills weaving it, to be imported without hindrance?

To say that one government is as bad as another is to say that one man or one set of men is no better as managers than another. We know this to be the reverse of correct in government, in trade, in railways or in anything else. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, although the Conservative administration, as it proved, was falling to pieces, could never have got into power had he not agreed to "let the tariff alone." This pledge he contrived to evade on the ground that while the U. S., Germany, etc., were prosperous under a protective tariff, he could make Canada a brilliant and enduring exception under a low tariff and a preference. Now he is compelled to fall back on the statement that depression is worldwide and that therefore Canada must share it.

Then the boast of great enterprises! Vast sums of money have been borrowed and spent but who has got the benefit of it? Who has been made rich? Where has it gone. The charge we make against the administration of Sir Wilfred Laurier is that it is in the grasp of the great money-lenders. It has ceased to represent the people. Is it any wonder men lose faith in the forms of government? Without any government at all there would be a happier people. If the times are not rescued, whether it be by a party or by a people, civilization will be destroyed. The thunder of revolt is already heard. Religion, art, education—all will go with the frenzied efforts of men to get out of the grasp of Money which never loses, never shares its needs, into a state of freedom and the natural fruition of honest work and a resourceful soil.

I am not rich, nor am I able to live without working, as has been said, and I never was. The stock exchange where so many have won fabulous riches at the expense of the steady worker underneath is unknown to me. If I have no money to lose I have none to be ashamed of.

The day of the abject party man is gone. Let humanity have a chance.

I solicit your vote and influence and have the honour to remain,

Yours faithfully,

J. H. BURNHAM

COL. CLARKE'S TRIBUTE TO MR. R. L. BORDEN

Col. Clarke, M.P.P., editor of the Kincardine Review, pays the following tribute to Mr. R. L. Borden;—

If the people of Canada could all know R. L. Borden intimately, there there would be mighty few votes cast against him on the 26th. He has not the picturesque appearance of Sir Wilfrid Laurier or the late Sir John A. Macdonald, but he has a charm of manner that makes him a likable, yea lovable man. I met him first ten years ago, in his first term of Parliament, and he impressed me as a commanding personality, and when Sir Charles Tupper resigned the leadership of the Conservative party, I was among the first to suggest him as the next in succession. During the past ten days I have had occasion to be with him continually, to learn something of his scholarship, his self-control, his mastery of public questions, his ease and grace of manner, and behind all that, a tremendous reserve force that indicates the strong intellect, the masterful will, the power of command without appearing to command. He will assume the premiership without a heritage or public or private pledges to embarrass him. One cannot but admire the caution and ingenuity with which he avoids entangling alliances, or embarrassing pledges. He has the future always in view and will not mortgage it for present gain.

But his most endearing qualities are his private virtues and his social charms. He takes a kindly interest in all whom he meets and is ever ready to assist others with an encouraging word or a helpful suggestion. The reporters who travel with him—without regard to their political views or the political stripe of the papers they represent—fall easily under his genial sway and I venture that not one of them will place a vote in his way to the chief magistracy of this Dominion. Canada will gain enormously by a change of government at this juncture, and not the least of her gains will be the elevation of this clean, cultured, dignified honorable and high-minded man to the highest office in the gift of the people.

I speak now as one who did his best to turn out the Conservative party in 1896. I believed then that it was better for the country and better for the Conservative party to defeat the government. Liberal newspapers in 1895 and 1896 gave wide publicity to articles published in the Review, advocating the advisability of a change. Under similar conditions now, I think it is time for another change, but the Liberal newspapers are not so ready to quote these views as they were then. The issue rests with the independent elector, who isn't interested in office or graft, to whom the mere party name signifies but little, and whose only desire is that his country may have wholesome and efficient government. If that come not now, so much the worse for the country—so much the worse for the Liberal party. It would have been better if the Conservative party of Canada had been defeated in 1891, and the Liberal party of Ontario in 1898. No one cares to deny this now, but too many will fail to apply the lesson.

—H. C. in Kincardine Review.

THE C. G. E. CONTRACT

This contract could not have come to Peterborough if the Ontario Government had not defied the Laurier tariff and kept the tenders wholly for Canadians. Under the present unprotective Laurier tariff it would, as so many other contracts have done, gone to the Germans with their cheaper labor. If wages are to be kept up, the tariff must be raised.

THE HOOK

Could anything exceed the politeness of the Irish cabby. An old lady called a cab and said to the driver;

"Help me to get in, my good man, for I'm very old, you see."

"Begorrah, ma'am," was his reply, "no matter what age ye are, ye don't look it."

Irish Teacher of Elocution—"Now, Mr. Brown, do be more spirited! Just open your mouth and throw yourself into it."

Guest—My room pleases me very much. What a lot of pleasant recollections this view of the mountain brings to mind!

Proprietor, aside to clerk—Make a note of that. Room 27; lot of pleasant recollectons brought to mind, $2 extra.

"My heart is in my mouth. I am afraid to hear your answer."

"You may well be, Mr. Dollboy," retorted Ethel. "I never could marry a man whose heart was not in the right place."

"Gracious, Nora," called the housewife impatiently. "Isn't dinner nearly ready?"

"No mum," responded Nora, through the speaking tube, "it won't be ready for two hours yet."

"Two hours! Why, what in the world is the cause of the delay?"

"Why, mum, you said you wanted split-pea soup, an' faith it has taken me two hours and twenty minutes to split 300 peas, an' there are 479 to be split yet. Oi counted them myself."

EXCHANGE OF LANDS.

Southern Alberta Land Co. Gets Holdings Transferred.

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—An order-in-council has been adopted authorizing the exchange of certain lands in Alberta now held by the Southern Alberta Land Co., for other lands which, up to the present time, have been in possession of the country.

It appears that as the surveys have progressed the company has found that as a considerable portion of the lands covered by the original agreement are situated at such an altitude as to make irrigation impossible, the higher lands will be exchanged for lands situated at a lower level, and which can be irrigated at an expenditure of $1,000,000.

The lands to be surrendered comprise 196,666 acres, and the lands, which, it is proposed, to be surrendered to the company, comprise 380,573 acres.

The Minister of the Interior states that, having in view the benefit from a public point of view, the carrying to completion by the company of this larger irrigation scheme, he sees no reason why the company's proposition should not be agreed to.

GIVES LIFE FOR BROTHER.

Young Farmer Near Essex Sacrifices Himself to Save Child.

Essex, Ont., Oct. 24.—Giving up his own life to save that of his young brother, Daniel Taylor, aged 23 years, who lived on a farm with his parents near here, is dead, as the result of a collision with an inter-urban car.

Taylor and his four-year-old brother, who he held in his lap, were riding on a wheat binder and about to cross the car tracks. The noise of the machine drowned the whistle of the approaching car, and it was upon them before the young man saw it. He had only a moment to act. He stood up and threw the child as far away from the crossing as possible. In an instant the car struck the machine, crushing it.

The elder Taylor was thrown under the car, both legs cut off above his knees, and he was otherwise injured. He died yesterday morning. His brother was picked up unharmed.

Girl Plays Burglar.

Weston, Oct. 24.—The mystery connected with the theft of $55 from Mrs. Rogerson's house on North Station street about a week ago has been solved.

The guilty person is the 15-year-old maid at Mrs. Rogerson's, who after taking the money, endeavored to get permanent possession of it without arousing suspicion by procuring a money order for that amount at the Weston postoffice. The order being addressed to herself, the officials surmised something unusual, and questioned the girl. She then confessed that she had upset the drawers in the bedrooms to make it look as if a burglary had occurred.

Telegrapher Arrested.

New York, Oct. 24.—Frederick R. Rose, a telegraph operator employed by the New York, Ontario & Western Railroal at Fallsburg, N.Y., was arrested yesterday at the request of the Canadian authorities, who want the prisoner extradited. Rose is accused of having embezzled $980 belonging to the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. in May last year while he was employed by the company as acting station agent and telegraph operator at or near Bordeaux and Montreal. He was held without bail for examination on Oct. 30.

Lack of Rain May Close Mines.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Unless there is a rainfall soon in the southern part of Illinois, the coal mines will have to shut down for want of water for making steam and for operating their coal washing machinery, according to coal traffic officials of the Burlington, Chicago & Eastern Illinois and Illinois Central roads.

Scarcely any rain has fallen in Franklin and Williamson counties, where most of the coal mines are located, since last May.

Highwaymen Sentenced.

Montreal, Oct. 24.—Judge Choquette sentenced two highwaymen to the penitentiary yesterday. They were Fred Cawthorne and George Duffy. On Oct. 1 they beat and robbed Mr. C. A. E. Reid, jeweler, who was on his way home. They gave him a severe beating, and stole a watch valued at $600 and a ring valued at $700. Cawthorne got 14 years and Duffy 10 years.

Woodstock, Oct. 24.—Ross Summers, aged 20, who pleaded guilty to having attempted to assault two little girls, was sentenced by Magistrate Ball yesterday morning to two years in Kingston Penitentiary and to receive 20 lashes during his term.

Sheffield Choir Leaves.

Sheffield, Eng., Oct. 24.—(C.A.P.)—Amid great excitement, cheering and singing of "God Save the King," and "O Canada," the Sheffield Choir left here by special train yesterday morning to board the Grampian, which is due at Montreal Nov. 2.

Murderers Break Jail.

Indiana, Pa., Oct. 24.—Two Italians, Joseph Veltra and Bruno Carbone, recently convicted of murder in the first degree, escaped from the county jail here early yesterday by cutting a hole in the ceiling of their cell.

Goes West.

Kingston, Oct. 24.—Prof. J. W. Mitchell, superintendent of Kingston Dairy School, has been appointed to the staff of Manitoba Agricultural College. He will leave for the west about Nov. 15.

C. C. Fisher, provincial agent at New Westminster, fell dead at Chilliwack.

LITTLE GIRL BURGLARS

Twelve and Six Year Olds at Beverly, Mass., Make Big Hauls.

Systematic Robberies Conducted by Sisters Net Jewelry Valued at Thousands of Dollars—Sold Soap From Door to Door and Thus Got In Touch With Homes of Wealthy Citizens—Hidden In Doll's Clothes.

Beverly, Mass., Oct. 24.—After three months' search, the Beverly police, aided by the state troops, yesterday ran down the perpetrators of a score of recent burglaries in this vicinity which have mystified the authorities. Two little girls, sisters, one of them twelve years old and the other six, are accused by the police of having committed the robberies.

They came from a well-to-do family. Their father is an engineer, and owns his own house in Beverly. Both of the girls go to Sunday school, and the older, the police say, is a favorite in the public schools.

The police suspicions have rested on the two children for some time, but that they could be guilty seemed unbelievable. Yesterday the police went to their parents' house with a search warrant. The first find was made in a doll's trunk in the girls' bedroom. Carefully tucked away under the doll's dresses were found a diamond brooch, valued at $400; a sapphire an pearl breastpin, valued at $350; a gold watch, nine rings set with diamonds and other precious stones, seven valuable stickpins, three necklaces and a number of sterling spoons and fruit knives.

The biggest find was in the children's playhouse. The full value of the property is estimated at thousands of dollars.

The police say the two children showed the skill of old-time criminals. Permission from their mother to earn spending money by selling soap on commission gave them an excuse to call at residences in the town. If any one was at home when they rang the bell their tried to sell their soap, if they were not at home, so the police say, the children sought the nearest window or door, walked in and helped themselves. They limited their thefts to jewelry.

Three Daring Burglars.

Newark, N.J., Oct. 24.—Three masked men cut the telephone wires outside of the fine Perkins' home at Morristown, yesterday entered the house, knocked down one of the three maid servants, attacked and choked Mrs. P. W. Miller, a sister of the three Misses Perkins, who were in the house, and then ransacked the place.

The robbers, who are believed to be the ones who cut the wires and looted the home of Banker H. B. March in Orange a few nights ago, obtained at least $2,000 worth of jewelry in the Perkins' house and some money.

Murderer's Sanity.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 24.—A plea of insanity will be the defence of James Jenkins, the negro accused of the murder of Mrs. Mary Morrison near Hazelmore. The trial opened at New Westminster yesterday.

Thursday evening a board of physicians was appointed to make an examination of the prisoner. The physicians decided that Jenkins was sane, but his mentality is weak.

W. G. McQuarrie is the defence counsel, having been appointed by the court. Chief Justice Hunter is hearing the case.

Youth Hanged For Murder.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 24.—Having confessed his guilt, and with a prayer upon his lips, Joe James, 18-year-old negro murderer of C. A. Ballard, was hanged in the county jail yesterday. Ballard was killed July 30 last, the murder precipitating riots which state troops were necessary to quell.

In a drunken stupor James had wandered into the home of Mr. Ballard and had entered the bedroom of Miss Blanche Ballard and seized her hand. The girl screamed. Her father came to her assistance and was stabbed.

Woman Shoots Man.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Mrs. Rosie Alberta, aged 41, whose husband, Joel Alberta, conducts a saloon, on Thursday shot and killed Zito Frappanpino, a baker, whose place of business is under the saloon. As the man fell the woman knelt over his unconscious form and begged him to live.

Mrs. Alberta is held on a charge of murder. She says Frappanpino tried to mistreat her. John Partippo, the business manager of Frappanpino, declared the shooting was the result of a long standing grudge.

Because He Ate Green Apples.

New York, Oct. 24.—Because he ate green apples after repeated instructions from his superior officer not to do so, Private Bernard Leiser of the 3rd Field Artillery, U.S.A., has been dishonorably discharged from the service and sentenced to forfeit all pay and allowances due him, and to be confined at hard labor for six months.

Shot Officer by Mistake.

Pittsburg, Oct. 24.—City Detective Clyde Edeburn early yesterday shot and almost instantly killed Policeman Thomas Farrell, who, it is said, he mistook for a highwayman, although the police department refuses to give out any details of the tragedy.

Capt. Robinson Killed.

Windsor, Oct. 24.—Capt. John Robinson of the barge Cutter was killed at Kelley Island in trying to save a pet dog, which fell overboard. Capt. Robinson jumped into the water and was caught between the vessel and the dock.

Condemned Yellow Newspapers.

Saratoga, N.Y., Oct. 24.—"Yellow" newspapers and the Sunday newspapers' "funny" sections were condemned in resolutions adopted at the final session of the New York Assembly of Mothers' Clubs.

Ambrose Godkin, for stealing $10 was sentenced at Brockville to 10 years.

$800 a Year Essential.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 24.—Prof. Thos. Nixon Carver of the department of economics at Harvard, in a special article issued yesterday, says that any man who marries on a salary of less than $800 a year is guilty of a sin against his country, and suggests that if it is possible such unions should be prevented. The professor says:

"With a father getting only $15 a week, the children necessarily will be along $15 a week lines. They will simply add to the already over-crowded ranks of this class. With this addition from births and with the addition from immigration only fools believe that this nation's standard for workingmen can be maintained."

Agents Essential.

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—W. T. R. Preston, Canadian Trade Commissioner in Japan, in a report to the Trade and Commerce Department, deals with the opposition which is developing in Japanese commercial circles against the foreign trade agencies in that country, and especially against the Canadian Government agency. The objection to direct trade with Canada arises from the fact that it cuts out the commission which Japanese commercial agencies have formerly enjoyed. Mr. Preston maintains, however, that the Government agent is essential to the development of Canadian business.

Sell Lower to India.

London, Oct. 24.—(C.A.P.)—Regarding the steel rails ordered by the Southern Punjaub Railway from the Dominion Iron & Steel Co., The Yorkshire Herald says that the exact price quoted has been communicated in confidence to some of the English firms who tendered. The secret is being carefully preserved, but the price is said to be considerably lower than that at which the same firm is now supplying the same type of rail in the Dominion of Canada.

World's Fastest Typewriter.

New York, Oct. 24.—Miss Rose Fritz of Brooklyn again proved that she is the fastest typewriter operator in the world by winning the contests for the championship at the Business Show at Madison Square Garden. Miss Fitz retained the championship by writing eighty-seven words a minute. Emil Trefzger was a close second with eighty-six words, and Otis Elaisdell was third with eighty words.

National W. C. T. U.

Denver, Col., Oct. 24.—The thirty-fifth annual convention of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union met in the Auditorium of this city yesterday, and will continue its sessions until next Wednesday night. An extensive program has been prepared for three sessions each day except Sunday, when afternoon and evening religious meetings will be held.

Empresses Will Go to Pacific.

Victoria, Oct. 24.—In his speech last night at a banquet given by the Board of Trade, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy announced that the steamers Empress of Ireland and Empress of Britain, now part of the C.P.R. Atlantic fleet, might shortly be expected at Victoria to take part in the transpacific trade.

Ald. W. J. Cavanagh, a Vancouver real estate man, is reported to be missing.

POLLING IS IN PROGRESS IN 216 RIDINGS IN CANADA

First Returns From the East.

If Events of Four Years Ago Are Any Criterion---Clock Ahead Down by the Sea.

Toronto, Oct. 26.—To-day 216 constituencies in Canada are hard at work choosing representatives to sit in the eleventh Parliament. Five will vote later. They are: Yale-Cariboo, Comox-Atlin and Kootenay, in British Columbia; the Yukon, and Prince Albert, in Saskatchewan.

The polls opened throughout the country at 9 a.m. and close at 5 p.m., and in an hour the returns from the city constituencies will be complete enough to indicate pretty well who are at the head of the poll.

The first word will probably come from St. John, N.B. Four years ago at a few minutes past 5 o'clock the telegraph flashed the information that Stockton and Daniels, Conservatives, were elected in that city. When the news was known the Toronto polls were hardly closed, but the Maritime Provinces being an hour ahead of us the counting up down by the sea was finished before the ballot boxes in Ontario were opened.

Following close upon the information that the Conservatives had scored first and most decisively the ticker announced the defeat of R. L. Borden and his running mate, Mr. O'Mullin, in Halifax. This offset the St. John news.

Although the returns from some of the Toronto polls began to come in by 5.30 the results in Hamilton, where each party captured a seat, and in Ottawa, which elected two Liberals, were known before the public knew definitely that the five Toronto Conservatives were safe.

And it will be about the same to-day in regard to time. From 5.15 on there will be news for those who watch the bulletin boards.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier will vote in his home constituency of Quebec East, and it is pretty generally understood that he will mark his ballot for the Government candidate, who happens to be himself. He has also a vote in Ottawa, where he is also a candidate, but if he wanted to vote in the capital he would have to be there first, as the Ontario system of one man one vote would prevent him using his suffrage there if he had already voted elsewhere. The Quebec law, however, permits an elector to vote in as many places as he has property.

R. L. Borden will also vote for himself in Halifax. He will hear the result in his own city, returning to Ottawa in a few days—to form a Government or to resume his duties as Opposition leader.

AT SIDE OF BRIDE

Groom Shot Dead by Rival

Murdered Man was Prominent Teacher --- Had Only Been Married Few Hours

New Orleans, La., Oct. 24.—On her bridal trip, which had begun scarcely an hour before, and seated in a railroad car almost between her husband and a former suitor for her hand, Mrs. Fred Vaningen last night saw the flash of the suitor's revolver, felt the grip of her husband's hand as the bullet killed him, and then fought for her life. When the girl appeared about to become the victim of the second bullet from the revolver, her uncle, a man with grey hair, but strong and cool under the excitement, rushed up and thrust his thumb beneath the hammer of the revolver, rendering the weapon harmless.

The former suitor is F. S. Beauvre, of Plaquemin, La., at which place he was taken from the train and placed under arrest last night. The murdered man was Prof. Fred VanIngen, dered man was Prof. Fred. VanIngen, a relative of former Governor Blanchard. The bride is the daughter of James M. Rhorer, one of the leading officials of Elberville parish, residing at Baton Rouge. Beauvre is 24 years old, and VanIngen was 23.

The wedding took place yesetrday at Alexandria. Beauvre arrived there it is reported on the same day as Miss Rhorer. When the couple left Beauvre boarded the train and for a time sat in a seat facing Mr. and Mrs. VanIngen, with the bride between him and her husband. One of the passengers said Beauvre talked with the bridal couple just before the shooting, and that his manner appeared cordial. The young woman's hands were in her husband's when Beauvre suddenly drew his revolver and fired. After being disarmed Beauvre submitted to arrest.

BOY HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM BEING DROWNED

Fishery Inspector Watt was successful in saving a little lad from drowning in the river on Saturday. Mr. Watt was paddling around the C.P.R. bridge when he heard a splash. At first he paid no attention, but almost immediately he heard calls for help. He hastened up the river towards the slip back of Rogers boathouse where the C. P. R. spur line crosses, and there found a youngster struggling in the water. Mr. Watt succeeded in getting him into the canoe and then on to the land.

It seems two youngsters had been playing on the spur line and were running across the trestle work to get away from an approaching train when one little fellow went through. He would have been drowned had not Mr. Watt arrived when he did.

LITTLE GIRL SET FIRE TO CLOTHING WITH MATCHES

Little Helen Collins, the young daughter of Mr. William Collins, of Ashburnham, had a narrow escape from being seriously burned a few days ago. The little girl was playing with matches in a bedroom when the blaze ignited some clothing, doing damage to garments and bedding, it is said, of over one hundred dollars. Fortunately Mrs. Collins noticed the conflagration when she did, or it is not unlikely that the entire premises would have been swept away. Great difficulty was experienced in extinguishing the blaze.

Lindsay's Dams

It is rumored that several well-known contractors have been in town for the past few days looking over the site for the proposed new dam and locks to be erected here by the Dominion Government. It is understood that when the contract is let for these undertakings the work will be pushed with all possible speed.

A Fine Rendition

The George Street Ladies' Quartette, composed of Misses Reesor, Chasty and Leane, and Mrs. Rehill rendered "Twilight" most effectively at the George street church last night.

The members of the quartette sang in fine voice their expression and shading being excellent.

Miss Lean's pleasing contralto voice was heard to advantage in the solo of the anthem "How Long Wilt Thou Forget Me."

Murray St. Young People

The B.Y.P.U. of Murray street church will hold a regular meeting to-night. The subject will be: "The Society Commending Itself by Furnishing Church Workers." The meeting will be in charge of Mr. Showalter.

THE REVIEW'S BULLETIN SERVICE

Commencing at 5:30 o'clock, or earlier, perhaps, this evening, THE REVIEW will bulletin the returns of the Dominion Elections at THE REVIEW Office on Hunter St.

Special arrangements have been made for securing the returns from the polls in West and East Peterborough, and a special wire placed in THE REVIEW Office by the C.P.R. Telegraph Company, will enable us to give the returns from all over the Dominion with all promptness.

An excellent lantern has been secured, and the returns will be thrown on a large canvas across the street.

There will be no dull waits, as pictures, cartoons, etc., will be thrown on the sheet when occasion permits.

Everybody is welcome. Come early and secure the returns sooner than anywhere else in the City.

FROZEN IN THE BLIZZARD WESTERN STORM DISASTROUS

Men and Sheep Frozen---Terrible March of Two Shepherds in Alberta—One Man Sticks by Companion Till the Last—Hundreds of Sheep Perish.

Medicine Hat, Alta., Oct. 26.—Terrible stories of suffering are coming in from the ranches following the recent storm, which was unprecedented in fury or in the period of the fall at which it swept the country. One death is known to have occurred in the country away to the south of here, and many are feared, as the herders were caught absolutely without warning away on the prairies. One man whose death is reported was Donald Cameron, herder, on Alex. Shaw's sheep ranch near Cypress Hills. He had with him as companion an assistant named D. Fraser. They were in charge of a large band of sheep on Monday afternoon when the storm broke on them. They were unable to locate the camp, and had to abandon the sheep. Cameron became exhausted on the way, and Fraser assisted him for fifteen hours, practically carrying him a great deal of the time. Finally Cameron could go no farther, and urged his companion to abandon him, as therein lay the only hope for his safety. Fraser heroically refused to leave him, and stayed until Cameron died. He then pushed on in search of shelter, and finally reached the D.D.B. ranch, more dead than alive, having been 60 hours exposed to the bitter storm, without food or sleep. A relief party started out and found the body of Cameron where he had dropped and died. Three thousand sheep were drifted into many inland lakes, and only three hundred were saved. The report of the death of Cameron was made by Witchell, whose ranch is located sixty miles south of here. He had a desperate ride, and was in the saddle from Wednesday until Saturday night.

Maple Creek, Sask., Oct. 26.—The blizzard which tied up traffic for two days resulted in the death of Harry Martin of Martin Bros., sheep ranchers. While seeking sheep Martin was frozen to death.

Driven by the storm 2,500 sheep belonging to Iver Wilson went into the lake and perished. Some 500 sheep belonging to Thomas Kerr also perished.

Trains which stalled 14 miles from here for two days pulled in after midnight Saturday morning.

Edmonton, Alba., Oct. 26.—The first snow storm of the season, which swept over the country on Tuesday and Wednesday may have resulted in the death of Howard McConnell, aged 19, of Boyne Lake. McConnell left his home on Tuesday morning to look for stock and has not been seen since. He was only slightly clad and was without matches.

As soon as it was reported that McConnell had disappeared about 25 settlers in the district started out on Wednesday to search for him.

BRITISH SHIP IS SEIZED BY VENEZULAN AUTHORITIES

St. Vincent, B.W.I., Oct. 26.—Word has been received here of the seizure several weeks ago by the Venezuelan authorities of a British trading vessel at Margarita, an island in the Carribbean Sea, belonging to Venezuela, and the imprisonment of the crew.

The St. Vincent schooner Lady Kensington, carrying live stock and vegetables for Trinidad, after sighting the Dragon's Mouth, was becalmed. The schooner was carried far out of her course and while drifting off Margarita was seized by Venezuelan officers. This occurred on Aug. 23, and the crew and passengers have been detained as prisoners ever since.

The owner of the vessel has just received, through the Trinidad agent, a letter from the captain of the Lady Kensington, dated Sept. 25, in which he says:

"We are still imprisoned. Our own provisions have been exhausted and the Government says that it has no food to give us."

The governor of Trinidad has communicated with Sir Vincent Corbett, the British Minister at Caracas.

DEDICATION FESTIVAL WAS HELD AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Services Have Been Held for 81 Years—Were First Held in a Log School House—History of St. John's Church.

Yesterday was the first of the two Dedication Festival Sundays in connection with St. John's church and for the first time the handsome ecclesiastical flag, presented by Rev. G. O. Frewer, of England, father of Captain Frewer, now of this city, was to be seen flying to the breeze from the lofty tower of the sacred edifice. Both services were of a bright and cheerful nature, Rev. Canon Davidson, the rector, officiating, assisted by Ven. Archdeacon, Clerk, M.A., of Hamilton, who preached sermons very appropriate to the festival occasion at both morning and evening services. The choir, under Mr. Devey's direction, rendered specially prepared music in a manner that added considerably to the beauty of the services.

These annual dedication festivals are in commemoration of the complete renovation of St. John's in 1882, when on All Saints' Day, 26 years ago next Sunday, the present chancel was added; modern seats substituted for square pews; gallery removed; gothic windows installed; grounds laid out, and new organ procured.

But St. John's has been a church and Anglican parish from the incipiency of Peterborough.

For seventy-three years its doors have been open for public service and prior to 1835 when the present building was first dedicated to the worship of God, services were for nine years conducted in a log school house. In fact the history of Peterborough and St John's church are inseparable and no wonder that its rector and congregation are proud of the sacred building and its associations with the past.

BRIEF HISTORY OF ST JOHN'S

The following summary of the history of St. John's church and parish will perhaps be found interesting:

1818-19— First settlers arrived in this district.
1821—A house and mill erected by Adam Scott. This was the first building in Peterborough, then known as Scott's Plains.
1825—Hon. Peter Robinson conducted hither a large party from Ireland, and erects the first public buildings at the corner of Simcoe and Water streets. Town plot surveyed.
1827—Name of Peterborough chosen as a compliment to Hon. Peter Robinson.
1827— Religious services begun and conducted nine years in a log school house.
1831—St. John's church projected and tenders invited.
1835—Lands constituting the rectory of Peterborough granted by the Crown.
1835—St. John's church opened for worship.
1837-8—Canvas for funds in England by Captain Rubidge, who conducted two emigration parties hither.
1846—Communion plate presented to the church which is still in use.
1850— June 1st —Peterborough incorporated as a town. First Mayor, Thomas Benson, Esq., a member of St. John's population 1800.
1853—Church restored; buttresses and pillars added; old wooden block removed from tower; Kivas Tully, architect. Pipe organ procured.
1859—School house erected in rear of the church.
1873—New bell placed in tower.
1876— Ashburnham set aside as a new parish and St Luke's school house built
1878—New school house built for St John's.
1882—St. John's completely renovated; chancel added; modern seats substituted for square pews; gallery removed; gothic windows put in; grounds laid out; new organ procured; church reopened All Saints' Day. A. P. Poussette, chairman building committee; R. A. Morrow, secretary; J. C. Belcher, C.E., architect.
1889—Mrs. Charlotte Nicholls bequeathed $500 to each of the two Sunday schools in the parish. Pulpit procured.
1891—All Saint's church (nave and basement) built and opened free of debt.
1897—Chancel vestries etc. added to All Saints'.
1900—Class rooms, basement, etc., added to St. John's school house, and opened free of debt. R. M. Dennistoun, chairman of building committee; J. C. Belcher, architect.
1901—Interior of church decorated; collection of historical photos unveiled in guild room.
1902—Parish of All Saints' separate from St. John's.
1907—New and enlarged modern vestry erected: D. Hughes-Charles, chairman building committee; J. E. Belcher, CE. architect.
1908—Rectory now being built; Peter Campbell, chairman building committee; J. E. Belcher, C.E., architect.

The dedication festival will be continued next Sunday the anniversary of the opening of the church on All Saints Day, 1882, after complete renovations.

AJAX WILL MAKE HER LAST TRIP

To-morrow---Came Down To-day With 140 Cords of Wood

The Ajax came down from the lakes this morning with 140 cords of wood for J. E. A. Fitzgerald. The tug will return to Deer Bay tomorrow and will bring down another 140 cords. This will be the last trip that the boat will make this fall. Any parties having freight to go up or to come down from the lakes will please telephone 111.

The men on the Ajax state that the bush fires are practically out. It was reported that Mr. Fitzgerald had suffered considerable loss from fires but he stated that the damage was slight.

TURNER & SONS GET DIPLOMA

For Their Fine Exhibit at Canadian National Exhibition

Messrs. J. J. Turner and Sons have received notification from Mr. J. O. Orr, secretary of the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, that they have been awarded a diploma for their exhibit at the exhibition.

The Jury of Awards decided to give the Peterborough firm the diploma in view of its splendid exhibit at the exhibition. It is now being engrossed and will be forwarded as soon as finished. The fact that Messrs. Turner and Sons are so highly honored is a tribute to Peterborough as a leading manufacturing town.

A DOUBLE DROWNING AT PICTON

Mrs. Daniel Insley and Son Drowned in East Lake--Horse Ran Away and Jumped into Lake

(Special to the Review.)

Picton, Ont. Oct. 26.—Mrs. Daniel Insley and her son John of Picton, were drowned last night in East Lake. It is supposed that their horse ran away and jumped over the bank into the lake. The body of Mrs. Insley has been found and also the horse and rig, but the young man's body is still missing.

HAND CAUGHT IN THE COGS OF A WHEEL

Accident to Stanley Killingbeck on Saturday Evening

While playing at his home on Saturday evening, Stanley Killingbeck, youngest son of Mr. Joseph A. Killingbeck, 195 Romaine street had the misfortune to have his left hand crushed and badly injured. Dr. Neal was called and had the boy removed to Nicholls hospital in Comstock's ambulance where the hand was dressed. The youngster was able to return home yesterday afternoon.

The accident was the result of the young lad getting his hand caught in the cogs of a wheel

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondens

AN EXPLANATION

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—The notice which appeared in your paper a few days ago, of my sister's demise is so misleading, that I feel I should say a word in behalf of the honorable physicians of our city. Instead of all refusing, as intimated in the notice, we had only asked Dr. Boucher and Coroner Gray for a certificate. We inferred from the Coroner that it would be all right, until the hour of the funeral, when he refused to do anything, so we had no opportunity to see others, hence the postponement. I am pleased to say that we have humane doctors in our midst, who, when asked, gave the necessary permit, according to the law of righteousness, as also the law of the land.

I think it but just to the relatives who did all they could for their loved one, for me to add the following: For a considerable time she was under the care of the best medical skill in Toronto, but became weaker. When brought to her mother's home she had to be carried, could not turn in bed, only as she was turned. She continued taking teh doctor's medicines for two weeks here, but being no better, consented to try Christian Science treatment. With two weeks' treatment she gained a more normal condition, could turn in bed and could sit up for an hour or more and write letters. All in attendance were pleased with the progress she was making. The last evening she was cheerful and bright and rested nicely. Early in the morning she seemed to be in distress and said she felt funny. My sister went for Mr. Todd and Dr. Boucher, our old family physician, but before help could be received from either source the heart had stopped acting. The only one to blame is the evil one (devil), the only author of death, who came as a thief in the night, but he could not, and did not destroy that sweet peace and calm trust, and confidence in God, and her Christ, which she had gained, first through the teaching of Presbyterian doctrine, and lastly by Christian Science. Jesus said, "The last enemy to be overcome is death."

It is evident from the inhumanity shown in this case, that there is much of sin to be overcome.

I thank you in advance, and hope I do not trespass too much on your valuable space.

Yours truly,
JAS. C. BORLAND.

In the Shooting Affray at Parry Sound.

Italians Held Say Storekeeper Instigated Eno Robbery and Offered Them Money.

Parry Sound, Oct. 26.—Arising out of what has come to be known as the Eno robbery, some time ago, there are some very startling matters just come to light by a confession which has been made by the Italian prisoners, Seperanzo and Pezzano, confined in the goal here, as a result of which Constables McRae and Madigan went to Byng Inlet and there arrested Joseph W. Moore, an Italian, on a warrant charging him with inciting to murder.

The story told by the Italian prisoners is a remarkable one, and it is understood that other charges may be preferred against the accused man, Moore.

In their confession the prisoners in question state that Seperanzo who was convicted at the recent assizes of shooting at Constables Knight and Madigan and sentenced to twelve years' imprisonment therefor, had nothing to do with the Eno robbery; but they allege that the persons who actually committed the robbery were boarding at the establishment of the accused man, Moore, before the robbery and after, and they go so far as to say that Moore was the instigator of the whole thing. They allege that after the robbery the stolen money was taken to Moore's store at Byng Inlet, and it is understood that Moore has admitted that there was found behind his store a tin containing $400, which some person or other got hold of and away with. As a fact, one of the men originally arrested in connection with the robbery at Eno's was taken at Moore's store.

The confession of Seperanzo went on to state that the Italian, Moore, declared he would get revenge against Murdock Watts for his action in connection with an affray which took place at Byng Inlet, as Watts had prosecuted certain of his countrymen. Seperanso stated that Moore had offered him $150 if he would go and shoot Watts, and offered him a gun to do it with; and also that Moore repeatedly told him that he wanted to get revenged upon Watts, and that if he (Seperanso) would kill Watts he (Moore) would take Seperanso to French River on his gasoline boat and he could go to Port Arthur and escape.

In the course of his confession Seperanzo alleged that Moore had also defrauded his creditors by removing goods prior to the making of an assignment. He also stated where some of the goods could be found.

The most remarkable feature of the case is that Joseph W. Moore, shortly after the Eno robbery, came to Parry Sound and offered his services as a constable for the purpose of tracking down his countrymen, the perpetrators of the robbery, and, being duly appointed, at once seemed to busy himself in the matter and expressed himself as able to effect the arrests very shortly.

The accused man Moore was brought before the police magistrate charged with counselling a person to murder Murdock Watts and was committed to stand his trial.

ART EXHIBIT AT CONSERVATORY

By Miss Lulu Thexton To-morrow Afternoon and Evening

Miss Lulu Thexton, teacher of art at the Peterborough Conservatory of Music, will give an art exhibit in the drawing room of the Conservatory to-morrow afternoon and evening.

Miss Thexton is a graduate and gold medalist of Albert College, Belleville. Her exhibition will include oil paintings from life only, water colors, object painting, miniatures on ivory from life, China painting, conventional and realistic, designing, ornamental and industrial, sketching from nature and charcoal drawings. Miss Thexton's work is of an exceedingly high order and has received many complimentary criticisms from the best critics in the Dominion.

Her masterpiece is an oil painting of an old violin resting on a roll of music surrounded by old books and draperies. Her best in watercolors are paintings of muskmelons, grapes and pears. She has also several beautiful portraits.

THE RECENT DROUGHT

The prospect of rain on Saturday gladdened the hearts of the fevered multitude. Elections and bush fires had worked the general public up to a state bordering on dementia Americana. The question asked on all sides when the few drops of Saturday afternoon fell was "Will it continue?" It is an extraordinary thing that in the valley of the Otonabee there has not been a thunderstorm in months. We have been so accustomed to the flash and subsequent peal of thunder, and the usual downpour, that to be without it has got on our nerves. The hoarse shouting of campaign orators has not sufficed to bring one drop of the desired liquid. Perhaps it is as Milton has said that they do "Affront the skies." If this be true we offer on behalf of the affronters an ample apology. How is the T. V. C. to be kept on if we don't get water? A number of situations will be vacant per naturam, as they say in the classics. That rain falls on the just and the unjust alike is nothing to us if it will only fall and keep on falling.

SELF CONTROL

A notable instance of mental control and application is told of the late Mrs. Cashel Hoey, the Irish novelist and journalist, who died the other day at the age of 81 years.

One of her early novels appeared serially in Household Words, and the editor, Charles Dickens, had agreed to accept the story in monthly instalments.

When the novel was about completed, and with the most exciting chapters still unwritten, the author was unexpectedly called to France by the critical illness of a beloved daughter. The death of this daughter followed within the week and found the novelist on the continent, and within two days of the date when her copy must be furnished.

Although Mr. Dickens, on hearing the circumstances, wrote to say he did not expect copy that month, Mrs. Hoey, immediately after the harrowing scene of her daughter's death, retired to an adjoining room and wrote at one sitting the entire four chapters required, and posted them to England just in season for their publication.

Mr. Dickens, in writing soon after to a friend, said that the author had never written more clearly or carried characters or plot along more cleverly than those chapters, and that it was one of the most remarkable examples of an author's power of concentration of thought which he had ever known.

The authoress in the subsequent forty-five years of her life was never heard to mention even the title of this novel.

SURPRISED THE CANDIDATE.

When Zachary Taylor Was Notified of His Nomination.

When Captain Wilson H. Daniel of Jasper, Ind., inventor and author, now nearly eighty-five years old, read of the committees that had been appointed to notify Taft and Bryan of their respective nominations as presidential candidates he remarked:

"Well, well, time certainly does change everything, and yet with what tenacity do people, parties and nations hold on to their old time customs.

"In the summer of 1848 I was a passenger on board the Alhambra. Before landing I had been told by the captain that we would land at Taylor's plantation, just below the town of Rodney, in the state of Mississippi, to take on wood. We were there for several hours, and as soon as I landed I saw General Taylor, with whom I had got acquainted at Camp Salubrity some years before, just across the road in an oats field, where he and several negroes were at work cradling and binding oats.

"The general wore a broad brimmed, low crowned white felt hat, blue blouse, no shirt and blue pants. His feet were incased in homemade boots. His hands and face were covered with dirt and black from oats. When I called and said, 'Hello, general!' he at once recognized me and, as was his custom, hailed me by saying, 'Hello, wheelsman!'

"He came over to the fence, and for quite a time we talked of the days we spent together when Taylor was stationed at Camp Salubrity and of the second day of July, 1846, in particular, when we broke camp and I, as pilot, or wheelsman, on board the Yazoo, began steering General Taylor's entire garrison, heavy artillery and ammunition from Grandecore (meaning high bluff) Landing to the famous battlefield of New Orleans, six miles below the city, from which point seagoing vessels conveyed the soldiers, artillery and ammunition to Powder Horn, then a landing near the Rio Grande in Texas.

"It was while we were sitting there on the fence recounting our many experiences that a large boat all decked in holiday attire and flying flags and bunting rounded into sight. As it came nearer we heard the band playing, and General Taylor remarked that it must be a circus boat. As it approached a salute was fired, the band struck up 'The Star Spangled Banner,' the bell began to ring, and the steamboat, which was the Major Ringold, began rounding to land. When the general and I saw the boat was going to land we got down off the fence and walked across the road to witness the landing, neither of us knowing or even surmising the mission of the boat and its crew.

"When the landing had been made and the plank run ashore, the people by the score began crowding out. The vast crowd was led by James Guthrie and George D. Prentice of Louisville, Ky., who were followed by a Mr. Bluford. No sooner had Guthrie and Prentice introduced themselves to General Taylor than Bluford, who had been a former schoolmate of Taylor's, shouted, 'Hello, Zach!' and, with an oath or two, ran up and embraced 'Old Rough and Ready,' who recognized Bluford with delight.

"When invited on board the ship, Taylor begged to be excused on account of his dress and appearance, but Bluford, Guthrie, Prentice and others, with loving arms around the sweaty old general, hurried him aboard, where he was officially notified in his everyday working attire that the Whig party in convention assembled had nominated him as its candidate for the presidency. He made a few remarks, thanking the committee for the honor and assuring every one that if he was elected he would do right as God gave him the power to see the right.

"A reception was then held, and the dirty toiler of the oats field was introduced to the hundreds on board of the boat. One of the features which impressed me most forcibly was the fact that every woman, regardless of her silk, satin and jewelry, wanted to kiss the dirty faced old warrior."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

White House Creeds.

In the past generation, or since the time of Grant, the Methodists and the Presbyterians have been far more represented than all other denominations put together in the White House and among presidential candidates. Grant, Hayes and McKinley were credited to the Methodists, and Tilden, Blaine, Cleveland, Harrison and Bryan to the Presbyterians. Greeley was a Universalist, although various kinds of eccentric, ethical and religious ideas were attributed to him. Garfield was of the Campbellites and once had been a preacher among them. Arthur had Episcopalian affiliations, and Roosevelt is of the Dutch Reformed stock.—Chicago Journal.

A French Opinion.

A Paris newspaper has been asking its readers to name the twelve greatest inventions. Over 400,000 coupons were sent in, and the votes were cast in the following order:

The locomotive, the potato, vaccine, the cure of rabies, sugar, electric telegraph, matches, the boiler (of a steam engine), the telephone, petrol, the sewing machine and soap.

The printing machine only captured seventeenth place, the automobile was thirty-first, the typewriter was fifty-fourth and the aeroplane fifty-ninth.

VALUE OF A SMILE.

What It Did For a Scot In Calcutta During the Plague.

On the door leading into the private office of the treasurer of one of the Hartford banking institutions may be seen by all comers a plain white card, on which are these two words: "Keep Smiling."

Ask the treasurer the significance of the placard and he will say simply: "Just keep smiling. That makes everything easy. That's what smiles are for. A good, unfeigned, sincere smile is a veritable battering ram to knock hard things out of the way. Sometimes I smile out loud, all to myself, when I run against anything hard, and the invitation is out to whoever enters my door. I take it that people will smile as they read the card, and I want them to continue the act while in here."

He tells of a visitor who came to see him last winter, a Scotchman, who had served in India in the army. "My dear sir," said the visitor, "I am greeting that legend heartily. Many years ago, when the plague was raging, I was in Calcutta and sick. The hospitals were full, and with other patients I was lying in a shed, a very sick man. On each side of me a poor chap had died, when a man came around with one of the doctors to measure the bodies. As they finished the second fellow's measurement they looked at me, and the man said, 'Three of 'em, heigh?' and whipped out his tape measure at my side. In spite of all effort I could only stare. To save my life I couldn't speak or move. All I could do was to smile, and I just smiled. Instead of the measuring line I was given better attention and recovered. The smile did it! That's right! Keep smiling." — Hartford Times.

The Sultan's Name.

American and English newspapers have a way of mangling the name of the sultan of Turkey. Often he is called simply "Abdul"—nothing more. Sometimes it is "Abdul the Artful," "Abdul the Wary." The proper way to write the name, according to the London Chronicle, is "Abd-ul-Hamid" or, as some would transliterate it, "Abd-'l-Hamid." This means "servant (or slave) of the praised one"—i. e., God or Allah. The "ul" or "'l" merely represents the Arabic definite article, which in writing is always joined to the following word.

"Abd" is a very common first name with Mohammedans, as in Abd-ul-Kadir, Abd-ul-Latif, Abu-ul-Aziz. "Abdul," with or without the Hamid, makes nonsense, but no one seems to notice it.

On this principle George du Maurier might be called "Georgedu" for short, and T. P. O'Connor would lose his nationality under the Italian looking disguise of "Thomaso."

Fee Bowls.

"Fee bowls" are no longer to be seen in the chambers of barristers. They have been replaced by checks. One used by Baron Martin of the court of exchequer during his career at the bar from 1830 to 1850 has just been presented to the library of the Inner Temple by his grandson. Only a few surviving lawyers of venerable age can now recall the use of fee bowls. One of them, George F. Pollock, who was born in 1821 and called to the bar in 1843, gives some interesting information on the subject in London Notes and Queries. He says these bowls were in general use during his early years at the bar. Fees were paid in cash when the briefs were delivered. When his father, Lord Chief Baron Pollock, was raised to the bench he inherited and used the paternal fee bowl.

J. P. Morgan's Library.

Every three months J. P. Morgan has everything in his house and famous library reindexed, and the work requires the services of several connoisseurs for three or four days. Mr. Morgan's sole object is to protect himself in case of fire. I understand that not a week goes by that many, very many, pieces of valuable bric-a-brac and works of art are added to his wonderful collection. Incidentally the new library has already been the scene of some big deals and will be the scene of many more, as Mr. Morgan's friends know that he is gradually retiring from public life and, instead of going to Wall street, Wall street comes to him and meets him in the library.—New York Telegraph.

The Black Hand.

There is a historical foundation for the name Black Hand. Back in inquisition days in Spain there was La Mano Nera, a secret society which fought the government and the church. It passed, and the secret societies of southern Italy were its heirs. Twenty years or more ago a false report was raised in Spain that La Mano Nera had been revived. The story lingered in the brain of a Herald reporter, and one fine day he attempted to rejuvenate waning interest in a puzzling Italian murder case by speculating as to the coming to life of the Black Hand among Latin immigrants in America. The other newspapers seized on the idea eagerly and kept it going.—Everybody's Magazine.

Jupiter's Eighth Satellite.

The new satellite of Jupiter, discovered at the Greenwich observatory last winter, proves to be a very interesting object both on account of its great distance from the planet, more than 20,000,000 miles, and its retrograde motion. Professor George Forbes suggests that this satellite may turn out to be the long lost comet of Lexell, which was last seen in 1779, when it made a very close approach to Jupiter.

The charges of Edmonton's chief of police, Major Belas against Detective Griffiths are held to be not proven.

ROMANCE TESTED.

"I'd fly with you
Some isle unto,"
The maid romantic cried,
"And, though 'twere bleak,
No more I'd seek
If you were by my side!
All—all I'd leave,
Nor would I grieve
Whatever came to pass."
"Ah, love," cried he,
"Would you for me
Leave e'en your looking glass?"
A shade of doubt
Her eyes about
Seemed sudden to awake.
She murmured: "Yes,
Just that, I guess,
I'd really have to take,
But not a trink-
Et else—just think!
My zeal would never flag"—
She paused—"Oh, no;
I couldn't go
Without my powder rag!"

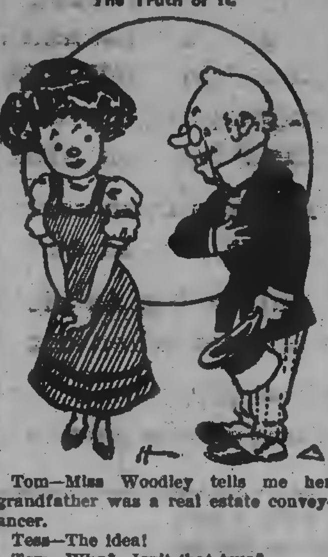
The Truth of It.



Tom—Miss Woodley tells me her grandfather was a real estate conveyancer.

Tess—The idea!

Tom—Why? Isn't that true?

Tess—Oh, yes; I see what she means! The cart her grandfather drove was a conveyance for transporting real estate.—Philadelphia Press.

The Outcast.

You ask me why I weep and moan, like some lost spirit in despair, and why I wander off alone and paw the ground and tear my hair. You ask me why I pack this gun, all loaded up, prepared to shoot. Alas, my troubles have begun—the women folk are canning fruit. There is no place for me to eat unless I eat upon the floor, and peelings get beneath my feet and make me fall a block or more. The odors from the boiling jam all day assail my weary snoot. You find me, then, the wreck I am—the women folk are canning fruit! Oh, they have peaches on the chairs and moldy apples on the floor and wormy plums upon the stairs and piles of pears outside the door, and they are boiling pulp and juice, and you may hear them yell and hoot. A man's existence is the deuce—the women folk are canning fruit!—Emporia (Kan.) Gazette.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health Saving Explained by a Peterborough Citizen Who Knows From Experience.

Many Peterborough people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help.

Sick kidneys are responsible for a great amount of suffering and ill health.

The reason so many use Booth's Kidney Pills is their quick relief for all kidney weakness. Here is what a Peterborough citizen says:

Mrs. George Hawes, of 857 Water St. Peterborough, says:

"I had suffered for some time with many painful and annoying symptoms of kidney trouble and although I had tried many remedies and doctors I found little or no relief. My back was weak and a dull, bearing down pain settled across the small of it and extended into my shoulders and around my sides. I was weak and languid and the least exertion would tire me out. Dizzy spells were frequent and often I would awake with a severe headache. I tried Booth's Kidney Pills through an advertisement at McDermid and Jury's pharmacy. I soon found them to benefit me and continued their use. In a comparatively short time I was as well and strong as ever and without a symptom of the painful and long-standing disease."

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

Killed by Thresher.

Guelph, Oct. 26.—As a result of injuries sustained Friday night while moving a threshing outfit, George Henlock Young died at the General Hospital between 1 and 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Young was standing in such a position that the steering rod on the engine which was being moved into the barn, was literally driven through his body. It was said that the accident was due to his losing control of the engine. He was 36 years of age and married, leaving his wife and one son of nine years.

Orville Wright Recovering.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Orville Wright, the aeroplanist who narrowly escaped death in the accident to his aeroplane during a flight at Port Meyer, Va., five weeks ago, will soon be able to leave for him home at Dayton, Ohio. His most serious injury was a broken thigh, and the splint was removed from this yesterday. It was found on measuring the left leg, the one injured, that it is but a quarter of an inch shorter than the other. An X-ray examination of the fracture showed that the knitting of the broken bones has been perfect.

Eastern Bank Looted.

Montreal, Oct. 26.—Advices from St. Raphael, some fifty miles below Quebec, say the branch of the Provincial Bank there was broken into, and the sum of $4,500 carried off.

The bank is insured against all loss and the provincial detectves are after the robbers, who are thought to be the same gang operating in the eastern townships and Quebec for some time past.

Australia to Control Labor.

London, Oct. 26.—(C.A.P.)—At Melbourne the drafting of the amendment of the constitution for the purpose of legalizing the new protection, has been completed. Deakin's proposals involve control of the conditions of employment of all protected industries in the fullest sense of the word, embracing a minimum of wages, regulation of hours and limitations of boy labor.

Steamer on Rocks.

Houghton, Mich., Oct. 26.—The steamer Merchant ran on the rocks yesterday on the west side of Keewenaw Peninsula, near Eagle River. The Merchant is owned by W. N. Mills of North Tonawanda, N.Y. She is said to have four holes stove in her bottom and is badly listed. Life-savers from Portage Entry brought the Merchant's crew to this city.

Northcliffe Visits Earl Grey.

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—Lord and Lady Northcliffe arrived in Ottawa on Saturday afternoon from Toronto and were guests of His Excellency Earl Grey at Rideau Hall. Yesterday they returned to Toronto on the night train.

Railway Detective Shot.

Buffalo, N.Y., Oct. 26.—Benjamin Sandel, 32 years old, N. Y. Central Railway detective, was shot by a car thief on Saturday. He is in a critical condition, having received three bullets wounds in the head and body.

Election and Libels.

Port Arthur, Ont., Oct. 25.—As the results of statements made by J. J. Carrick on the public platform at Kenora and reiterated in Port Arthur, a writ for slander and libel has been issued by Jas. Conmee against him.

The News has also been served with a writ for libel by Mr. Conmee for publishing alleged false statements against him.

Dr. Smellie has also been served with a writ for slander and libel at the instance of Mr. Conmee for statements made against him.

Writs have also been issued against The Times-Journal by Mr. Conmee for publishing alleged libelous matter and against Swan Enborg for alleged slander and libel.

Fight Against Opium.

New York, Oct. 26.—A cable despatch to The Herald from Shanghai says: The Government has ordered the total abolition of the cultivation of the poppy from the end of the year in the provinces of Kingston, Anhui, Honan, Kaischow, Fohkein and Yunnan.

All the powers at Shanghai are in earnest in their pledges that the western nations intend to help China rid herself of the curse which the Occident introduced, and they extol the genuine character of the attitude of China on the subject.

Blackmail Charged.

Woodstock, Oct. 26.—Robert Calwell and J. B. Rounds, a county constable of Drumbo, are under arrest here on a charge of blackmail. It is alleged that two years ago they took $800 from Charles Damm of Woodstock in a room in a hotel here by threatening him with arrest for murder in connection with a case about that time. Calwell was arrested at Sarnia, and is said to have confessed, and his evidence may be used against Rounds.

Unwritten Law Frees Her.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 27.—Setting up the plea of the unwritten law, Mrs. Nancy Murrill was acquitted of a charge of murdering Miss Mary Terry in the Circuit Court at Jackson on Saturday.

Men, women and children attended the session of court each day and applauded testimony favorable to the defence.

Cyrus Brady Resigns.

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 26.—Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady, has resigned the rectorship of Trinity Episcopal Church here because the Toledo church is not under canon laws.

"It is a matter of principle," declares Mr. Brady, who will accept a Kansas City call. His statement has caused a sensation.

STEAMER WRECKED.

Mail Boat Iroquois of Little Current Goes on Rock Near Spanish Mills.

Little Current, Oct. 26.—The mail steamer Iroquois Saturday morning, from Little Current to Cutler, went on to a rock near Spanish Mills, running at nearly full speed in fog and smoke. She listed over until the promenade deck was under water, the cook stove and lanterns were upset and set fire to the boat. J. & S. Charlton's tug Fraser, working on a boom near by, heard the signals of distress and came and picked up the passengers and crew, who had taken to the lifeboats, three bags of mail were all that were saved. The passengers lost their baggage, and the crew lost everything they had on board. The steamer was a strong, worthy boat, and belonged to T. C. Simms, Little Current.

Eats Apple and Dies.

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—Alfred H. Calder, a young man locally known as "Slim," met a peculiar death yesterday morning, according to the story told by his room-mate.

After a customary evening's jollification, the two retired to rest at their boarding-house on Williams street. In the middle of the night Calder is said to have asked for an apple which his room-mate gave him. Later on he was awakened by the peculiar breathing of Calder, who expired soon after.

While there is a possibility that Calder choked to death with the apple, Coroner Dr. Baptie is not satisfied with this version of the incident and will hold a post-mortem examination.

Promises Purity.

Kingston, Oct. 26.—Liberals closed the campaign with a big rally in the opera house Saturday night addressed by Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. Wm. Harty, ex-Mayor Mowat and Dr. A. W. Richardson.

Sir Richard spoke for over an hour, reviewing the work of the Government since 1896 and covering the same ground as in his recent speech at Toronto.

As regards the "scandal talk" of the Opposition, he recalled the times under Conservative rule when their conduct would offset even the worst of any Liberal regime. The aim of the present Government was to promote purity in public and private affairs.

Lehigh Shop Strike Off.

Binghamton, N.Y., Oct. 26.—At a meeting of the Boilermakers' Union in Sayre Friday night, presided over by First President Galvin of the International Union of Iron Shipbuilders and Boilermakers, it was unanimously voted to declare off the strike at the Lehigh Valley Railroad shops.

The strike began March 27, and while it hampered the company for a time, it was evident long ago that the strike was lost. The men made application for work as individuals Saturday and will be taken back as fast as they are needed.

Sending Them Back.

Montreal, Oct. 26.—On Saturday 60 undesirable citizens were deported, being sent back on the Lake Erie, Hesperian and Virginian. Thirteen of these were C.P.R. mechanics who failed to make good. The others came from different parts of the Dominion. The majority of those deported were English or Scotch, but there was a sprinkling of foreigners, including a family of six from Russia.

Financier's Sudden Death.

London, Eng., Oct. 26.—John Ennis Searles of New York, well-known in financial circles in America, was seized with a fainting fit while standing on the platform at the Waterloo Station and died in a few minutes.

Mr. Searles, who was about 80 years old, was formerly secretary of the American Sugar Refining Co., and also famed for his benefactions to the Methodist Church.

Thank the Lord For Rain.

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—Welcome rain has fallen almost continuously since Saturday night. For weeks the fields in the districts have been parched, wells and brooks run dry, and rivers dwindled to more streams. Prayers of thankfulness were offered in all the churches yesterday.

He Beat a Woman.

London, Oct. 26.—(C.A.P.)—A. T. Taylor, late of McGill, has been elected London County Councillor, beating the first lady candidate put forward.

Osler Was Third.

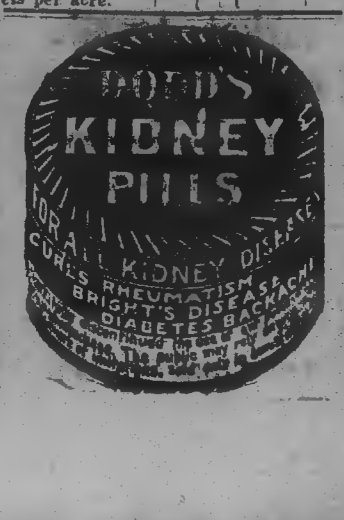
London, Oct. 26.—(C.A.P.)—The result of Edinburgh University rectorial election was: Wyndham, 828; Winston Churchill, 727; Prof. Osler, 614.

Mob Suspects Arrested.

Samburg, Tenn., Oct. 26.—The number of mob suspects in custody charged with implication in the murder of Captain Rankin and the assault of Colonel Taylor now number ten. The men taken into custody Saturday include Ed. Powell, who declares that he was forced under threats of death to accompany the mob on Monday night, when the two attorneys were taken from a hotel by night riders.

When court convenes to-day it is promised that evidence will be forthcoming which will assure the indictment of practically the entire band of night riders.

Ontario's wheat yield this year totalled 17,264,000 bushels or 21 bushels per acre.



TORNADO IN NICARAGUA.

Great Damage Is Reported as Result of Central American Storm.

Managua, Nicaragua, Oct. 26.—A great storm has prevailed throughout Nicaragua since Saturday morning. Heavy losses are reported, but as all telegraph and telephone communications have been interrupted and the railroads badly damaged, it is impossible to state how far-reaching the storm has been.

Advices received here, however, say that the Town of Rio Grande, on the Atlantic coast, has been destroyed.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 26.—A cablegram indicating that few white persons lived in the hurricane-swept district of the Nicaraguan-Caribbean coast was received here yesterday. This message said the damage had been confined to the Grant River and Prinz a Pulca district.

How the natives of this section fared was not known when the cable was sent.

CALLING OUT RESERVES.

Servian Government Is Busily Preparing For Hostilities.

London, Oct. 26.—A despatch to The Daily Mail from Belgrade says that the Servian Government has called out all the first reserves and ordered khaki for the troops, three hundred Maxim guns and 400 military automobiles. According to this despatch, King Peter has informed the Turkish Minister that an alliance probably has been concluded between Servia and Montenegro, but that this in no way interfered with the friendship of these countries for Turkey.

Vienna, Oct. 26.—A large consignment of fuses for shells was seized by the Austrian authorities Saturday on the Danube at Linz. The war material was on board a steam tug and was on its way from Bavaria to Servia.

MOTHER AND SON PERISH.

Coal Oil on Fire Causes Accident at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Oct. 26.—A terrible accident, which resulted in two deaths, occurred Saturday morning, when Mrs. I. Holmes attempted to light a fire with coal oil. The can exploded, igniting her clothing. Her only son, a lad about twelve years of age, rushed to her assistance, and in an heroic attempt to save his mother was fatally burned himself. Both died later in the hospital.

Russia Is Determined.

New York, Oct. 26.—The intention of the Russian Government to exhaust every resource in the effort to bring Jan. J. Pouren, the alleged revolutionist back to Russia for trial on charges of murder, arson and robbery was shown when counsel for the Russian Government obtained a new warrant for Pouren's arrest.

Pouren was first arrested in this city in January. He was about to be deported when an appeal was made to President Roosevelt on the ground that Pouren was a political offender, not a criminal, and a rehearsing was ordered by Secretary of State Root. Saturday Mr. Root refused to grant the extradition of Pouren. To-day counsel for Russia secured the new warrant.

Threatened Wife.

Brantford, Oct. 26.—William Taylor, member of last year's Brantford professional hockey team, was fined $50 or three months in jail here by Magistrate Livingston Saturday on a charge of threatening to shoot his wife on Tuesday night last and having a loaded revolver in his possession for that purpose.

The couple have been separated, but Taylor did not cease molesting his wife and was twice warned by the magistrate to leave the city. Taylor did not leave, but, going to his wife's house, flourished a revolver, saying, "Let's have a tragedy and die together." Taylor was also bound over in $1,000 surety to keep the peace in Brantford for two years.

Train Kills Pioneer.

Guelph, Ont., Oct. 26.—Word was received here yesterday of an accident in which Thomas Dunbar, an old man of Mildmay, was killed by a freight train.

The old man was deaf and apparently did not hear the train approaching. He was struck full on the crossing. His horse was killed and the wagon smashed and the unfortunate driver was so mangled that only small portions of his remains could be discovered.

The crossing at which the accident occurred is a particularly dangerous one, and the approaches cannot be seen on one side on account of a high board fence shutting off the view.

Accidentally Shot by Brother.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 26.—Albert Bell, a 12-year-old school boy, was shot and killed by his 16-year-old brother Raymond yesterday, while they were hunting.

Another boy of the party had slipped a cartridge in the rifle, and Raymond, not knowing it was loaded, playfully pointed the rifle at his brother and pulled the trigger.

Distress Foreshadowed.

London, Oct. 26.—(C.A.P.)—Keir Hardie, speaking at Merthyr, said there was distress in every town in Canada.

Rev. Mr. MacLeod had told him there would be 10,000 heads of families receiving relief in Toronto this winter.

New Hospital.

Seoul, Oct. 26.—A magnificent hospital, built by the Japanese Government, was formally opened here yesterday. It is one of the finest institutions in the far east and includes a school of medicine.

Insurrection Ended.

Tokio, Oct. 26.—The so-called insurrection in Korea is practically ended. The troops are still on active duty, but the insurgents have dwindled to merely a disorderly element.

John Jocko, an Indian boy of Cornwall Island, was thrown from his horse and killed.

BLUE WOMEN

Women should understand that melancholia, commonly called "the blues," is in nine times out of ten a sure symptom of some serious female organic derangement and should have immediate attention.

Women whose spirits are depressed, and who are ailing and miserable, should rely upon

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

as is evidenced by following letters.

Mrs. R. Gentleman, 1093 St. James Street, Montreal, Quebec, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I suffered from a severe female weakness, and extreme nervousness, and was blue and utterly discouraged.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking several bottles, I am not only cured, but am an entirely different woman, and on the whole a healthier woman than before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Mary J. Williams, of Bridgeport, Ill., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I have been suffering from a female trouble, backache and headaches, and was so blue that I was simply in despair. I feel it my duty to tell you that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me. The change in my appearance is wonderful, and I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache. Why don't you try it?

In Dead of Night.

New York, Oct. 26.—William J. Bryan has accepted the invitation of the Night Workers' League, a nonpartisan organization of this city, to address a meeting of newspaper men, printers, postoffice employes and others employed at night, to be held in City Hall Park, on Oct. 27 at 3 a.m.

This will be the first time that a Presidential candidate has addressed a meeting under such circumstances.

Fires Around Haliburton.

Haliburton, Ont., Oct. 26.—Forest fires have been raging five miles east and ten miles south of Haliburton and settlers have been fighting day and night to save their property.

No buildings have been burnt yet, but plenty of wood and timber and settlers' hay in stacks is destroyed.

Haliburton village is in no danger yet.

Tramp's Suicide.

Quebec, Oct. 26.—A tramp cripple, Edward Larocque, evidently tired of life, sent a bullet through the carotid artery in the left side of his neck and died shortly afterwards. He was 34 years old.

Negro Sentenced to Hang.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 26.—James Jenkins, colored, has been sentenced to hang Dec. 18 for the murder of Mrs. Mary Morrison of Hazelmere on June 9.

New Formosan Railway.

London, Oct. 26.—The Formosan Trunk Railway, which recently was completed, was formally opened yesterday in the presence of Gen. Prince Kanin of the Japanese army and a large number of officials and specially invited guests. Formosa is threaded throughout by this railway, which extends over a length of 334 miles. Many improvements have been made since the building of the road began, and the island industries have been greatly developed.

Petition For Receiver.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 26.—In behalf of the Ingersoll-Rand Co. of New York, manufacturers of electrical appliances, a petition was filed in the Federal Court Saturday night, asking that a receiver be appointed for the Municipal Traction Co.

Mayor Johnson when asked concerning the matter, said that all bills will be paid and that no receiver would be appointed.

Fire In Morgue Costs $15,000.

Montreal, Oct. 26.—Fire yesterday morning visited the morgue and caused damage to the extent of $15,000. There was but one body in the morgue at the time, that of F. A. Lippert, a C.P.R. telegrapher, who was suffocated by gas in his room Saturday morning. The flames did not reach the body.

Fire In G.T.R. Offices.

Montreal, Oct. 26.—Fire broke out early last evening in an upper flat of the new Grand Trunk ticket offices, which they have recently occupied. The fire was soon gotten under control and little damage was sustained.

T. E. Kenny Dead.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 26.—T. E. Kenny, ex-M.P., and president of the Royal Bank of Halifax, died yesterday morning.

The eye is such a delicate organ that it should never be trifled with.

This is why our optician has followed the teachings of only recognized authorities on the eye.

Many opticians take half a dozen or more correspondent courses, costing from $7.50 to $25 each. With this limited knowledg it is little wonder that so many are wearing glasses that do not suit them—others who do not require them.

If you have eye trouble you should only consult an optician who has a thorough knowledge of every branch of the optical business.

Such a man is our Mr. Taylor.

DR. HAMMOND TO PRACTICE HERE

Office at George and Smith Sts.—Has Returned From Studies in Old Country Hospitals

After spending two and a half years in the leading hospitals of London and Dublin, Dr. E. A. Hammond, son of the late J. E. Hammond, of Peterborough has returned to this city. Dr. Hammond graduated with high standing from Trinity University, Toronto, before taking up his studies in the British hospitals. He has the highest qualifications as a general practitioner, and has done special work in diseases of the heart, skin and stomach.

Dr. Hammond will open an office at George and Smith streets, and should be favored with a large practice.

EDWARDS AMUSEMENT CO. SECURES TWO MORE OPTIONS

For Moving Picture Houses in Stratford and London—Crystal to be Enlarged and Remodelled Along Lines of Elaborately Appointed Cosmopolitan Theatres—Mr. Edwards Home From Extensive Business Trip.

Mr. W. A. Edwards, manager of the Crystal, has returned to the city after a business visit to Toronto, Guelph, Berlin, Galt, Stratford, London, Detroit and New York. He secured options on two locations for moving picture houses, one in Stratford and the other in London, and the work of fitting them up will be commenced in the near future. They will be operated by the Edwards Amusement Company, of which Mr. Edwards is at the head, and Peterborough will be headquarters of the company. The new theatoriums will be known by the name of "Crystal," with the local one Crystal No. 1.

Improvements to the popular George street place of amusement will soon be made on a very extensive scale. The rear wall will be removed and the building deepened 20 feet. The floor will be lowered 7 feet and an enlarged stage will be constructed. There will be a pit for the orchestra and boxes will be placed on both sides of the interior. The decorative color scheme will be red and gold and artistic pictures will be inlaid in the inside walls. Brass railings will set off the entrances.

Mr. Edwards obtained his ideas of remodelling the Crystal from the handsome and elaborately decorated moving picture theatres he saw during his visit to New York, where he obtained suggestions from the leading architects and decorators of the metropolis. The Crystal, when the present plans of making alterations to it are carried out, will be one of the most complete and beautifully finished places of its kind on the continent. Mr. Edwards intends to have his other Crystals fixed up on as similarly a palatial scale as the local one.

T.A.S.A.C. WILL GIVE T.A.A.C. A GREAT BATTLE SATURDAY

When the TAAC and Peterborough meet next Saturday at Riverside park in a senior ORFU match the struggle should be a great one. Doubtless the TAAC are gauging Peterborough's strength on the team that represented the local club in Toronto in the game a week ago Saturday. If this is the case the Queen City outfit has another think coming to it.

The home team will have a much stronger lineup than they had for the first match with TAAC, and think they will give their opponents a great argument and are of the opinion that they will have a good chance of defeating the visitors.

The TAAC lineup will be strengthened materially and on general dope their chances should be good. They are not prepared to give up the victory on their own gridiron without putting up a big fight.

P. C. I. AND ROUGH RIDERS SHUT OUT OPPONENTS IN CITY LEAGUE MATCHES

The P.C.I.'s are the making of a cracking good team. Although they are pretty light in some departments they play the game to the ground and and lose no opportunity to do the telling thing at the right time. They play a concerted, consistent game. And considering the fact that they have had such a young career, certainly deport themselves in good style.

On Saturday in a city rugby league game played at Riverside Park, they won from T.A.S.A.C. II's by the big score of 23—0. They commenced scoring pretty early in the game, but were given a hard run by their opponents in the first half. At the end of this period the school boys were in the lead by 6—0, but the second half however, they ran up the tally and in the last few minutes of play Meldrum made the score a good big one by getting eight on two goals from the field. The drops were cleverly executed by the P.C.I. half. The T.A.S.A.C. failed to make a point, although they had the ball right on the P.C.I. line on several occasions. The losers gave the winners more of a run than the score would indicate. In the first half there were no sensational plays, but in the second half started the scoring by making a touchdown on a great run and the tally read 11—0 in P.C.I.'s favor. Two safety touches put it to 13 and two goals from the field 23.

Dr. Macpherson refereed and Mr. Chris Graham was umpire. Both officials gave satisfaction.

The teams:

T.A.S.A.C. II.—Hayes, back; Larkin, Galvin, Denoon, halves; Fitzgerald, quarter; Kenneally, Cancy, Milloy, scrimmage; O'Brien, Henry, inside; O'Donnell, Macpherson, middle; Cranfield, O'Hearn, outside.

P.C.I.—Fortye, back; Parkin, Meldrum, Gibson, halves; Geale, quarter; Leahy, Kirn, Layfield, scrimmage; Quinlan, Anderson, inside; middle, Hall, Giroux; outside, Dobbin, Conroy.

The game between the Rough Riders and Y. M. C. A. II's in the city league was played on Saturday afternoon at Nicholl's Oval on account of the P. C. I's and T. A. S. A. C. and Lindsay and Y. M. C. A. seniors playing their matches at Riverside It was the runaway match of the season, the Rough Riders piling up the mammoth score of 45—0. The Y. boys were decidedly outclassed and their opponents played a very strong game.

At the end of half-time the score was 18-0, and in the second half the Rough Riders piled them up almost as fast as they could be counted.

Messrs. C. Sisson and Walley Armstrong acted as referee and umpire, respectively, to the satisfaction of the players. The teams:

HOAGLAND WILL START HERE IN THREE HANDICAP EVENTS

Jim Harrison, the local pedestrian, received a letter from Hoagland this morning and the American champion says he will be here in the best of trim for his race against the Peterborough man on Thanksgiving Day, when he will allow Harrison a mile handicap in a 9 hour walk.

On the 5th and 6th of November, Hoagland walks here against a roller skater the latter to give him a mile handicap for every two miles covered. The events will take place in the auditorium roller rink.

Hoagland's next match will be with Eddie Ware, of Trenton, New Jersey. He meets him in the Trenton armories on the 29th. The race will be ten miles and Ware will be given a handicap of a quarter of a mile.

Last of Series of Addresses in Connection With Y. W. C. A. Work

Rev. Elmore Harris, D. D., preached at Murray Street Church last evening, it being the last of his series of addresses in connection with the Y. W. C. A. The church was crowded and the splendid sermon of Dr. Harris and the bright music of the choir were greatly appreciated. Dr. Harris took for his subject "The Great High Priest," from the Book of Exodus, and dealt with his topic in a very able manner.

Mr. Ferguson sang a tenor solo and the musical part of the service was bright and attractive.

THE ITINERARY OF SHEFFIELD CHOIR

Some Account of What Will Happen to This Famous English Organization

The itinerary of the famous Sheffield choir's visit to this country has now been completed, and nearly all arrangements are in hand. The plans for the reception and entertainment of the singers in the various towns and cities they are to visit augurs well for the unique success of the tour, and show how widespread and exceptional is the interest being taken in their coming.

They are due to arrive in Montreal on Nov. 2nd, and give their first concert in Canada at the Arena on the same night. During their stay in the metropolis they will be entertained to dinner at the Canada Club. In Ottawa, to which city they go after their second concert in Montreal, they are to be given an official reception by the Mayor and City Council and escorted to the Parliament buildings, whence they will proceed to the Russell House, where lunch will be served. In the afternoon Earl Grey will hold a special reception in their honor at the Government House, and they will then go on to Earnscliffe, the historic residence of Sir John A. Macdonald, and now the home of Dr. Charles A. E. Harriss.

At night a concert will be given by the choir in the arena, and Dr. Harriss will entertain them to dinner afterwards. The following day, Thursday, they will go on to Toronto, where they are down for four concerts, on the evenings of the 5th, 6th and 7th, and a matinee on the afternoon of the 7th. Earl Grey will be present at the first concert in Massey Hall, and has extended his patronage to the whole tour. The Mendelssohn Choir will entertain the choir to dinner. The Canadian Manufacturers' Association will give them lunch, and the University of Toronto hold a reception and present Dr. Coward, the conductor, with the honorary degree of Doctor of Music.

The chorus will spend Sunday quietly at Niagara Falls, and the next day go to Buffalo, where they give their only concert in the United States, where they will be entertained by eight or nine of the leading musical organizations.

Nov. 10th will see the Sheffield singers at both St. Catharines and Hamilton, the former in the afternoon and the latter at night. The Ladies of the Empire at St. Catharines will entertain the whole chorus to lunch, and at Hamilton the men will be dined by the Board of Trade and the business men of the city, while the ladies will attend a reception given in their honor by the Hamilton Conservatory of Music.

On Nov. 11th concerts will be given in Brantford and London, and the following day in Lindsay and Peterborough. Following the last concert the choir will leave by special train for Montreal, arriving there on the morning of the 13th in time to take passage by the steamship Corsican for the homeland.

It is asked to be remembered that the appearance of the choir in Peterborough is at the Opera House (not in the Brock street rink as advertised) on Monday evening, Nov. 12th. Full particulars later.

NEW MODELS in KABO CORSETS NOW ON DISPLAY AT THIS STORE

KABO STYLE 888

During the next ten days we shall have displayed upon forms in our Corset Department the very latest Models in the Celebrated Kabo Corsets.

The Styles this Fall require a more or less re-moulding of the figure. The slender figure is the thing. If your figure is not naturally slender, you should choose a CORSET which will make it appear so. This you can easily do without detriment to your health or comfort if you select a KABO MODEL.

The wrong Corset was always disastrous, but with the styles this season an improper selection would be fatal. The Corset is really the foundation of the gown, for on its correctness depends your stylish appearance.

KABO CORSETS Are Absolutely CORRECTLY STYLED

The models now on display are the very latest and most fashionable that have been produced. But the greatest reputation of the KABO isn't founded merely upon style—they are also famous for comfort. Comfortable, stylish and MODERATELY PRICED.

YOU WILL DO WELL TO FILL YOUR CORSET NEEDS HERE

OBITUARY

BENJAMIN ALLCORN.

A very sad death occurred at Nicholls Hospital on Saturday evening, when Benjamin Allcorn, aged 27 years, passed away. The deceased was brought here from Fraserville two weeks ago, suffering from typhoid fever. He carried on a general store in that village. He was very widely and favorably known, and his death will be generally mourned. He leaves a wife and one child, to whom the sincere sympathy of the community is extended.

The remains were shipped to-day to Cobourg and from there they will be taken to the home of Mrs. Allcorn's father Mr. John Ball, Baltimore, Ont. The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

Count Wittee has been summoned from Switzerland by the Czar to undertake a political and financial mission.

Charles E. Davis was arraigned at Omaha on a charge of murdering Dr. Frederick Rustin.

ICELAND AN OLD REPUBLIC.

Plucky Fight of a Wonderful People to Maintain Independence.

Iceland, which soon is to become an independent state in the united Danish empire, furnishes a remarkable example of the effect that climate and conditions have upon mankind. During a thousand years Iceland, a cold, uninviting and all but sterile island in the north Atlantic ocean, has been an outpost of civilization, and during much of that time its inhabitants have led the rest of mankind in the march of progress toward an ideal form of government. It was the haven to which the oppressed in Norway fled ten centuries ago. Its barren shores offered a livelihood only to those with energy and thrift who could wrest it from the sea or the fringe of unproductive acres between the coast and the snow capped mountains of the interior. The mere struggle for existence and the necessity for thrift developed in the people traits that made them models the rest of mankind would have done well to copy during the middle ages.

The people of Iceland organized a republic nearly 1,000 years ago. They adopted a constitution and were governed by chosen representatives when most of the world was being overrun by the armies of tyrants. They had trial by jury nearly 300 years before the Magna Charta was granted to the people of England. They embraced Christianity more than 900 years ago and long before the European forefathers of the most of us had ceased to pay homage to pagan gods. With the dawn of Christianity they took up the art of writing and developed a wonderfully rich literature of eddas and sagas, the undying glory of a remarkable people. They cherished personal liberty and their freedom as a people. Their laws relating to the duties and privileges of citizens, the care of the poor and other problems of self government were centuries in advance of the times, and some of them have not been improved upon since.

The little republic was engulfed in the wars that involved the Northmen and after 300 years of success became a dependency of Norway and later of Denmark. The people, however, never lost those sterling qualities that had prompted their ancestors to establish a republic on the desolate island. During all the succeeding centuries, when life was an unceasing struggle, the Icelanders never were quite subdued in spirit. Denmark granted to the people of the island home rule, and now it is practically agreed to have Iceland become an independent state of the kingdom of Denmark and Iceland, the two countries to have one king and one set of diplomatic representatives.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

New Slaughter Process.

In the slaughter house at Dunfermline, Scotland, a new instrument for killing has been introduced. The weapon is about a foot in length. The barrel is rifled and the muzzle shaped like the mouth of a bell and angled in order to adapt itself to the slope of a bullock's head. By unscrewing the opposite end from the muzzle the cartridge may be inserted. When the bullock has been firmly drawn up the operator places the bell end well up on the forehead and with a sharp tap of a mallet all is over, the beast generally falling down without a struggle. If the bullet has been properly placed its path should be along the spinal cord, completely severing it. If the instrument has not been well placed death is a little longer in ensuing, but in any case there is no pain to the animal.

Recording Millionths of a Second.

According to one of the government scientists, in experiments with high power explosives used in guns a chronoscope has been employed which registered the velocity of the projectile at sixteen successive points before it left the bore. It was possible with this apparatus to register time to the millionth of a second.

In former experiments, where the velocity did not exceed 1,500 or 1,600 feet a second, the projectile recorded its time by knocking down a series of steel triggers projecting into the bore. But with velocities of 2,500 feet and more to the second the trigger instead of dropping frequently plowed a groove in the projectile, and another device was necessary.

Fireworks That Talk.

Fireworks which not only please the eye, but are capable of producing patriotic cries, were the subject of a special communication read before the French Academy of Sciences. The inventors of the system have been working on it for three years, and they now claim that by the arrangement of different explosives they are able to produce both vowels and consonants. They claim to have a railroad cartridge which cries "Stop!" and a 14th of July set piece which cries "Vive la Republique!"—Popular Mechanics.

British Athletics.

It has always been our boast that we are essentially a nation of athletes, and as yet we have no overwhelming reason for revising this boast. But—and the "but" is of no ordinary dimensions—our pride has been dashed. We must walk very humbly awhile and set ourselves earnestly to discover why we have been outstripped by America and so find a remedy.—London Journal.

To Maroon.

The word "maroon," to "set a person on an inhospitable shore and leave him there," a practice that was common among the pirates of the Spanish main, is a corruption of "cimarron," meaning anything unruly, whether man or beast.

Persian Beauties.

Some of the beauties of Persia decorate their faces by painting figures of animals and insects upon them.

Dynamite.

Dynamite explodes so rapidly that its force is exerted in the direction from which the greatest pressure comes. That is, if the dynamite be placed on the ground the explosive force is down; if it be hung against a wall its force attacks the wall; if it be hung under an object its force is upward.

Only One Reason.

"Papa, George wants to break our engagement."

"What reason does he advance?"

"He says he has a lot of reasons, but he mentions only one."

"And what's that?"

"He says he has seen somebody he loves much better than he loves me."

"And that's the only reason he gives?"

"Yes."

"Don't bother him about the others."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

No?

"Learning to play the violin," muttered the persistent amateur, bending over his sheet music and making another stab at the instrument, "is no snap."

This being the exact psychological moment, the E string snapped.—Chicago Tribune.

To the Point.

"Well," said Nuritch, showing Kandor through his new house, "what do you think of the furnishin's?"

"They show a great deal of taste," replied Kandor.

"Ah! Think so?"

"Yes, but it's all bad."—Philadelphia Press.

Can't Lose It.

"Of course," said the optimist, "if a man gets into the habit of hunting trouble he's sure to find it."

"Yes," replied the pessimist, "and if he's so lazy that he always tries to avoid it it will find him. So what's the difference?"—Catholic Standard and Times.

Personal Knowledge.

"What do you think, Maud? Cholly Softy has been reading up lately, and he says he agrees with the scientific man who says that plants can think."

"Well, Cholly ought to know. Isn't he a cabbage head?"—Baltimore American.

Where Meals Reside.

Forlorn Freddie (the hobo)—Just think, little girl. I don't know where my next meal is comin' from.

The Little Girl (sympathetically)—Dear me! Ain't there a pantry in your house, poor man?—Puck.

Too Steady.

The [illegible] old farmer entered the employment office.

"You sent me out a batch of farm hands, didn't you?" he blustered.

"Yes, sir," replied the clerk meekly.

"And when I asked you if they were swift workers you said they were regular engines?"

"I think so."

"Waal, by heck, they must be stationary engines then."

"Why so?"

"Because when they once get out on the barn fence they don't move until they hear the dinner horn."—Pittsburg Post.

Cupid Incog.

Came one in gown of silk and lace,
With such a winsome little face,
Craving my hospitality.
I could not less than turn the key
And throw my guarded portal wide
That she might rest awhile inside.
Alack, once in my castle grim,
The dainty damsel, shy and prim,
Drew hidden bow and sent a shaft
That hit me fairly—aye, and laughed,
"O silly dreamer, dull and stupid,
So to forget that Master Cupid
One year in four has leave to go
A-hunting hearts incognito!"

And halts amid the cheers,
And on the platform at the back
The candidate appears.

He gestures as he hoarsely speaks,
His words are far from plain.
And then the engine hoarsely shrieks
And drags away the train.

A Matrimonial Importation.

By JENNIE LUDLUM LEE.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

Earle Scott arrived at the pier just as the giant steamship docked. He appeared to be looking for no particular person, but, rather, to search the faces of the crowds about him. Some one tapped him on the arm.

"Are you one of those horrid men?" a rather tired voice inquired.

Scott turned and smiled at the girl beside him.

"Well, I certainly am a man," he acknowledged, "and I guess I'm about as horrid as most of my sex."

"Oh, I didn't mean—I beg your pardon," stammered the girl. "I meant were you a customs officer? You see, I'm"—

He scanned the girl's face closely. Could she be up to the old game of smuggling? More than one official had been tricked by a pair of honest eyes, and Scott had just acknowledged that he was but a mere man. The girl certainly had a fascinating personality. Scott informed her that he was not a customs official, but offered to be of any assistance to her.

"Oh, thank you so much," she exclaimed as she hurriedly glanced about her. "I want a cab to take me to that address," and she handed him a visiting card. "No one has met me, and, oh, I must get away before he comes off the boat."

"I understand," assured Scott, though in reality he did not. "Want to shake some undesirable shipboard acquaintance?"

"It's not exactly that—he's a dear, but—oh, if you will just get me a cab that will solve the whole problem."

A cabman was found who agreed to take the girl to her destination for a nominal fee, and as Scott closed the door upon his mysterious companion she leaned forward through the window.

"Won't you tell me your name and I'll have my uncle write and thank you?" she inquired.

He drew a card from his wallet and presented it to her. Aloud she read the address in trembling voice, "Mr. Earle Cowdrey Scott, Harlequin Club."

"Won't you write instead?" Earle suggested, but the disinterested cabman whipped up his horse and her answer was lost.

Scott now hurriedly returned to the ship and boarded her. He had no difficulty in finding his father, who was always among the last to leave a ship. His son, knowing this, had not hastened to find him. After the first greetings the old gentleman slapped his son affectionately upon the shoulder.

"Well, my boy, I've brought you a fine present this year—a rare prize." Then, glancing about the ship and the crowd below them, he added, "But I think the little minx has slipped off."

That evening as father and son sat chatting over their coffee and cigars the old gentleman announced:

"Well, Earle, I brought a wife home for you—came over in the ship with me."

Earle seemed somewhat startled.

"May I ask, dad, if you have married again, or is this matrimonial importation for me to take unto myself?"

"Oh, for you—for you," said the old man gleefully. "And we're going around there tonight. Here's where she is. Her uncle, old John Banks, is a great friend of mine."

He passed the card over to Earle. The latter had held the mate to it in the morning. Smiling to himself, Earle agreed, thinking that the mysterious girl was well worth knowing better. All day long innumerable pictures of her had flitted through his mind. He would be glad to know the truth.

When father and son were announced, John Banks and his niece entered the room full of hearty greetings, but the young couple gave no outward sign of recognition. Before long the two elder men found that comfort awaited them in the library in the form of duplicate whist and good cigars.

Earle noted that Edith Hamilton was somewhat ill at ease, but made little headway in solving the problem that evening. When he left the house, however, he had to acknowledge to himself that the girl was charming in the extreme. He asked permission to call again.

"And, by the way, Miss Hamilton, I don't have to drag father along every time, do I?" he asked in mock deference.

On the way home that evening the father went into something of an explanation.

"There's an old fashioned girl for you, Earle. Like your mother was as a girl. Nothing deceitful about her—right in the open—everything straight from the shoulder. I talked a lot about you on the trip over and told her she was just the type of girl you were looking for—that we needed her sort to round out our home. She's been in school for years over in France and now has come to keep house for Banks. How did she strike you?"

"As a most deceitful, deep young person," announced Earle, with great emphasis. Yet in his heart he really felt that the apparent deceit only added to her charms.

Earle became a frequent visitor at the Banks household. He had the name of a heartless bachelor among his club mates. Women in general had made little impression on him, but he had to acknowledge to himself that he loved this girl with all his power, and his power was a great one. He wanted her and would leave no stone unturned to win her. And the evening came when he told her of his love and asked her to be his wife.

"Oh, I wish you had not asked me, Mr. Scott. I couldn't, really I couldn't," was her insistent plea. "Just let's go on being friends."

The big man seemed to shiver. He was very much in earnest, but he took her refusal like the man he was.

As he sat at his desk the next morning idly dreaming of dreams gone wrong his telephone bell rang. It was Edith Hamilton at the other end of the wire. She asked him in most unsteady voice to come over that evening—that she had some sort of an explanation to make. Sharply at 8 o'clock Scott was in the drawing room. As she entered the room her face bore a sad expression, yet withal she was radiantly beautiful to Earle.

"Little girl!" Scott almost whispered as she came toward him. She seemed a saintly being, far beyond his reach. "I love you—you know that, don't you?"

"Yes, Earle, I believe you do," she uttered as she sank into a chair near him. "That is why I sent for you. Something seemed to tell it to me after you left. I want to tell you something. The day I met you on the pier I wanted to escape your father before he came on shore. We had joked about my marrying his son, and when the time came when I must actually face you I hurried away to escape the meeting."

"And I thought you were running away from the customs officials," laughed Scott.

"Well, in part I was. You see, I brought over a lot of real lace and smuggled it in. I had sewed yards and yards of it on a cheap petticoat which I had on at the time."

For a moment they both laughed heartily, then again the serious expression came back into Edith's face.

"It was all started in a joke," she continued. "But when I had actually met you and"—here her voice dropped almost to a whisper—"and loved you, I was so afraid that you were asking me just to please your father."

"Do I look like such a mollycoddle?" asked Earle as he drew closer to her.

"Well, that was why I said 'No!' last night. Then I couldn't sleep for the very joy of thinking that perhaps—perhaps you really did love me for myself alone. Do you, Earle?"

For answer Earle took her in his arms.

"You're a deceitful little wretch," he teased, "but I love you and for yourself alone—better than life itself—and you must know it."

"Oh, dear, I'm so happy," she murmured as she nestled closer to him. "And, Earle, it's early, and Uncle John has gone over to play whist with your father. Let's run over and surprise them. I'm sure Uncle John will be so glad to be rid of me—and your father—well"—

"Will be so happy to find that his matrimonial importation has proved acceptable," finished Earle.

What Matter Really Is.

Throughout the greater part of space we find simple unmodified ether, elastic and massive, squirming and quivering with energy, but stationary as a whole. Here and there, however, we find specks of electrified ether, isolated, yet connected together by fields of force and a state of violent locomotion. These "specks" are what in the form of prodigious aggregates we know as "matter," and the greater number of sensible phenomena, such as viscosity, heat, sound, electric conduction, absorption and emission of light, belong to these differentiated or individualized and dissociated or electrified specks, which are either flying alone or are restoring with orbital motion in groups. The "matter" so constituted—built up of these well separated particles, with interstices enormous in proportion to the size of the specks—must be an excessively porous or gossamer-like structure, like a cobweb, a milky way or a comet's tail, and the inertia of matter—that is, the combined inertia of a group of electrified ether particles—must be a mere residual fraction of the mass of the main bulk of undifferentiated continuous fluid occupying the same space, of which fluid the particles are hypothetically composed and in which they freely move.—Sir Oliver Lodge in "Modern Views of Electricity."

By Inheritance.

When a strange woman came for the soiled clothes, says a writer in the Baltimore News, the mistress of the house came to the conclusion that her own laundress had simply employed a new messenger and made no comment on the circumstance. But when two weeks had gone by and still the old laundress—known as Susan—did not appear the mistress of the house felt that she would be lacking in her duty if she did not make some inquiry about her.

"Where is Susan?" she asked the tall, bony woman who came for the clothes.

"She has gone to Pennsylvania to live, yessum," returned the woman with composure. "She went to Pennsylvania some time ago, an' she lef' goodby for yuh, but s' long yuh didn't seem tuh notice I didn't say nuffin'."

"But why didn't she come and tell me and allow me to make some arrangements about my laundry?"

"Well, she lef' yo' clothes tuh meh. She made a will an' lef' dem clothes tuh meh. We's allus been good frien's, an' so w'en she lef' she say I may wash yo' clothes long es I wush tuh, an' dere was no use worryin' yuh 'bout hit, now was dere?"

To this moderate and sensible question the mistress of the house found no ready response.

Van Dycks That Were Forgeries.

The trial of art dealers at Genoa for smuggling seven famous Van Dycks from the Cattaneo palace has resulted in an acquittal. It was proved that six of the pictures had never left the palace, the smuggled works of art being forgeries. This recalls the outburst of indignation in Italy some years ago concerning a Raphael which was secretly conveyed to America for a well known millionaire. That it was a genuine Raphael the most skillful experts in the United States had no doubt, and it bore the great artist's unmistakable signature. But, much to Italy's relief, a closer examination of the canvas proved it to be a clever forgery, which was afterward traced to a studio in Rome whose "old masters" were turned out by the dozen.—London Chronicle.

Unique Straw Hat.

The proprietor of a fashionable cafe at Marienbad is the possessor of a straw hat which he values at $1,000. The hat is not a costly variety of panama, but is rather a rough looking straw hat. Yet it is the pride of the proprietor's life because it is woven of straws through which the crowned heads of Europe have at various times sucked cooling drinks dispensed in the owner's establishment. For many years this king worshiper had been collecting straws from the royal lips, scorning mere nobles or statesmen. When the collection was large enough the hat was manufactured.

A Roundabout Bite.

In San Francisco the campaign against rats as spreaders of the plague is a subject of universal discussion. The topic has reached even the children.

"Wot they hunting up all rats fer?"

"Aw, don't yer know nothing? Rats has the plague, an' if you see one you'd better look out, 'cause you'll get it, too, maybe."

"If you just see a rat, do you get it?"

"Aw, don't you know nothing? You've got the plague when you've been bit by a flea what's been bit by a rat what's been bit by a sailor."—San Francisco Call.

Bridge Built In Forty Minutes.

An unusual feat in pontoon bridge building has been accomplished by a company, a hundred strong, drawn from four cavalry regiments of the Berlin garrison. Arrived at a point where the Spree is very wide, the guardsmen, assisted by a dozen pioneers, constructed in forty minutes a bridge of steel boats and plates 108 feet long and ten feet broad. A squadron of cuirassier guards was the first to try it, riding twice across. Then a loaded baggage wagon weighing fifty hundredweight, drawn by six horses, traversed the bridge repeatedly.

A United South Africa.

England's dream of a united South Africa is coming true. The premiers of Cape Colony, the Transvaal and the Orange River Colony recently moved in their respective legislative assemblies the adoption of the resolution of the intercolonial customs and railway conference calling for an early union under the British crown. Natal is no whit behindhand, and the resolution of the conference specially referred to the inclusion of Rhodesia in the great South African state at a convenient opportunity.

THE MYSTERY

By STEWART EDWARD WHITE
And SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS

COPYRIGHT, 1907, BY McCLURE, PHILLIPS & CO.

The tug took us in charge and puffed with us down the harbor and through the Golden Gate. We had sweated the canvas on her, even to the flying jib and a huge club topsail she sometimes carried at the main, for the afternoon trades had lost their strength. About midnight we drew up on the Farallones.

The schooner handled well. Our crew was divided into three watches, an unusual arrangement, but comfortable. Two men could sail her handily in most sorts of weather. Handy Solomon had the wheel. Otherwise the deck was empty. The man's fantastic headgear, the fringe of his curling oily locks, the hawk outline of his face momentarily silhouetted against the phosphorescence astern as he glanced to windward, all lent him an appearance of another day. I could almost imagine I caught the gleam of silver butted horse pistols and cutlasses at his waist.

I brooded in wonder at what I had seen and how little I had explained. The number of boats, sufficient for a craft of three times the tonnage; the capacity of the foc'sle with its eighteen bunks, enough for a passenger ship—what did it mean? And this wild, unkempt, villainous crew with its master and his almost ridiculous contrast of neatness and filth—did Dr. Schermerhorn realize to what he had trusted himself and his precious expedition, whatever it might be?

The lights of shore had sunk. The Laughing Lass staggered and leaped joyously with the glory of the open sea. She seemed alone on the bosom of the ocean, and for the life of me I could not but feel that I was embarked on some desperate adventure. The notion was utterly illogical. That I knew well. In sober thought I, a reporter, was shadowing a respectable and venerable scientist, who in turn was probably about to investigate at length some little known deep sea conditions of phenomena of an unexplored island. But that did not suffice to my imagination. The ship, its surroundings, its equipment, its crew—all read fantastic. So much the better story, I thought, shrugging my shoulders at last.

CHAPTER X.

AFTER my watch below the next morning I met Percy Darrow. In many ways he is or was the most extraordinary of my many acquaintances. During that first half hour's chat with him I changed my mind at least a dozen times. One moment I thought him clever, the next an utter ass; now I found him frank, open, a good companion, eager to please, and then a droop of his blond eyelashes, a lazy, impertinent drawl of his voice, a hint of half bored condescension in his manner, convinced me that he was shy and affected. In a breath I appraised him as intellectual, a fool, a shallow mind, a deep schemer, an idler and an enthusiast. One result of his spasmodic confidences was to throw a doubt upon their accuracy. This might be what he desired, or with equal probability it might be the chance reflection of a childish and aimless amiability.

He was tall and slender and pale, languid of movement, languid of eye, languid of speech. His eyes drooped, half closed beneath blond brows. A long wiry hand lazily twisted a rather affected blond mustache. His voice drawled his speech in a manner either insufferably condescending and impertinent or ineffably tired—who could tell which?

I found him leaning against the taffrail, his languid graceful figure supported by his elbows, his chin propped against his hand. As I approached the binnacle he raised his eyes and motioned me to him. The insolence of it was so superb that for a moment I was angry enough to ignore him. Then I reflected that I was here not to stand on my personal dignity, but to get information. I joined him.

"You are the mate?" he drawled.

"Since I am on the quarter deck," I snapped back at him.

He eyed me thoughtfully while he rolled with one hand a corn husk Mexican cigarette.

"Do you know where you are going?" he inquired at length.

"Depends on the moral character of my future actions," I rejoined tartly.

He allowed a smile to break and fade, then lighted his cigarette.

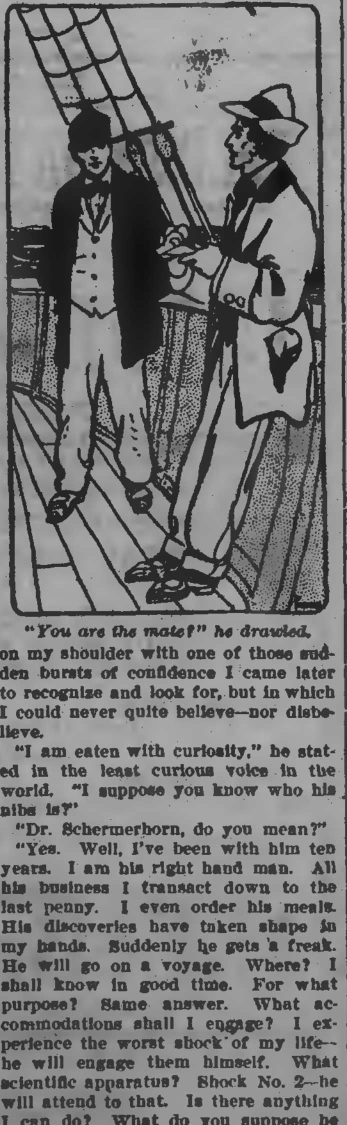
"The first mate seems to have a remarkable command of language," said he.

I did not reply.

"Well, to tell you the truth I don't know where we are going," he continued. "Thought you might be able to inform me. Where did this ship and its precious gang of cutthroats come from anyway?"

"Meaning me?"

"Oh, meaning you, too, for all I know," he shrugged wearily. Suddenly he turned to me and laid his hand on my shoulder with one of those sudden bursts of confidence I came later to recognize and look for, but in which I could never quite believe—nor disbelieve.



"You are the mate?" he drawled.

"I am eaten with curiosity," he stated in the least curious voice in the world. "I suppose you know who his nibs is?"

"Dr. Schermerhorn, do you mean?"

"Yes. Well, I've been with him ten years. I am his right hand man. All his business I transact down to the last penny. I even order his meals. His discoveries have taken shape in my hands. Suddenly he gets a freak. He will go on a voyage. Where? I shall know in good time. For what purpose? Same answer. What accommodations shall I engage? I experience the worst shock of my life—he will engage them himself. What scientific apparatus? Shock No. 2—he will attend to that. Is there anything I can do? What do you suppose he says?"

"How should I know?" I asked.

"You should know in the course of intelligent conversation with me," he drawled. "Well, he, good old staid Schermie with the vertebrated thoughts gets kittinish. He says to me: 'Joost imachin, Percy, you are all alone on a desert island placed and that you will sit on those sands and wish within yourself all you would buy to be comfortable. Go out and buy me those things—in abundance.' Those were my directions."

He puffed.

"What does he pay you?" he asked.

"Enough," I replied.

"More than enough by a good deal, I'll bet," he rejoined. "The old fool! He ought to have left it to me. What is this craft? Have you ever sailed on her before?"

"No."

"Have any of the crew?"

I replied that I believed all of them were Selover's men. He threw the cigarette butt into the sea and turned back.

"Well, I wish you joy of your double wages," he mocked.

So he knew that, after all! How much more of his ignorance was pretended I had no means of guessing. His eye gleamed sarcastically as he sauntered toward the companionway. Handy Solomon was at the wheel, steering easily with one foot and an elbow. His steel hook lay fully exposed, glittering in the sunlight. Darrow glanced at it curiously and at the man's headgear.

"Well, my genial pirate," he drawled, "if you had a line to fit that hook you'd be equipped for fishing." The man's teeth bared like an animal's, but Darrow went on easily as though unconscious of giving offense. "If I were you, I'd have it arranged so the hook would turn backward as well as forward. It would be handier for some things—fighting, for instance."

He passed on down the companion. Handy Solomon glared after him, then down at his hook. He bent his arm this way and that, drawing the hook toward him softly, as a cat does her claws. His eyes cleared, and a look of admiration crept into them.

"By God, he's right!" he muttered, and after a moment: "I've wore that ten year and never thought of it. The little son of a gun!"

He remained staring for a moment at the hook. Then he looked up and caught my eye. His own turned quizzical. He shifted his quid and began to hum:

'The bos'n laid aloft, aloft laid he,
Blow high, blow low, what care we!
'There's a ship upon the wind'ard, a wreck upon the lee,'
Down on the coast of the high Barbare-e-e."

We had entered the trades and were making good time. I was content to stay on deck, even in my watch below. The wind was strong, the waves dashing, the sky very blue. From under our forefoot the flying fish sped; the monsters pursued them. A tingle of spray was in the air. It was all very pleasant. The red handkerchief around Solomon's head made a pretty spot of color against the blue of the sky and the darker blue of the sea. Silhouetted over the flawless white of the deckhouse was the sullen, polished profile of the nigger. Beneath me the ship swerved and leaped, yielded and recovered. I breathed deep and saw cutlasses in harmless shadows. It was two years ago. I was young—then.

At the mess hour I stood in doubt. However, I was informed by the captain's falsetto that I was to eat in the cabin. As the only other officer, I ate alone, after the others had finished, helping myself from the dishes left on the table. It was a handsome cabin, well kept, with white woodwork spotlessly clean, leather cushions—much better than one would expect. I afterward found that the neatness of this cabin and of the three staterooms was maintained by the nigger—at the peril of his neck. A rack held a dozen rifles, five revolvers and, at last, my cutlasses. I examined the lot with interest. They were modern weapons—the new high power 30-40 box magazine rifle, shooting government ammunition—and had been used. The revolvers were of course the old 45s. This was an extraordinary armament for a peaceable schooner of 150 tons burden.

The rest of the cabin's fittings were not remarkable. By the configuration of the ship I guessed that two of the staterooms must be rather large. I could make out voices within.

On deck I talked with Captain Selover.

"She's a snug craft," I approached him.

He nodded.

"You have armed her well."

He muttered something of pirates and the China seas.

I laughed.

"You have arms enough to give your crew about two magazine rifles apiece, unless you filled all your berths forward."

Captain Selover looked me direct in the eye.

"Talk straight, Mr. Eagen," said he.

"What is this ship and where is she bound?" I asked, with equal simplicity.

He considered.

"As for the ship," he replied at length, "I don't mind saying. You're my first officer, and on you I depend if it comes to—well, the small arms below. If the ship's a little under the shade, why, so are you. She's by way of being called a manner of hard names by some people. I do not see it myself. It is a matter of conscience. If you would ask some interested, they would call her a smuggler, a thief, a wrecker and all the other evil titles in the catalogue. She has taken in Chinks by way of Santa Cruz island, if that is smuggling. The country is free, and a Chink is a man. Besides, it paid $10 a head for the landing. She has carried in a cargo or so of junk. It was lying on the bench where a fool master had piled it, and I took what I found. I couldn't keep track of the underwriters' intentions."

"But the room forward"— I broke in.

"Well, you see, last season we were pearl fishing."

"But you needed only your diver and your crew," I objected.

"There was the matter of a Japanese gunboat or so," he explained.

"Poaching!" I cried.

"So some call it. The shells are there. The islands are not inhabited. I do not see how men claim property beyond the tidewater. I have heard it argued"—

"Hold on!" I cried. "There was a trouble last year in the Ishigaki Jima islands, where a poacher beat off the Oyama. It was a desperate fight."

Captain Selover's eye lit up.

"I've commanded a black brigantine, name of the Petrel," he admitted simply. "She was a brigantine aloft, but alow she had much the same lines as the Laughing Lass." He whirled on his heel to roll to one of the covered yacht's cannon. "Looks like a harmless little toy to burn black powder, don't she?" he remarked. He stripped off the tarpaulin and the false brass muzzle to display as pretty a little Maxim as you would care to see. "Now you know all about it," he said.

"Look here, Captain Selover," I demanded, "don't you know that I could blow your whole shooting match higher than Gilderoy's kite? How do you know I won't do it when I get back? How do you know I won't inform the doctor at once what kind of an outfit he has tied to?"

He planted far apart his thick legs in their soiled blue trousers, pushed back his greasy linen boating hat and stared at me with some amusement.

"How do you know I won't blow on Lieutenant or Ensign Ralph Slade, U. S. N., when I get back?" he demanded. I blessed that illusion anyway. "Besides, I know my man. You won't do anything of the sort." He walked to the rail and spat carefully over the side.

"As for the doctor," he went on, "he knows all about it. He told me all about myself and everything I had ever done from the time I'd licked Buck Jones until last season's little diversion. Then he told me that was why he wanted me to ship for this cruise." The captain eyed me quizzically.

I threw out my hand in a comic gesture of surrender.

"Well, where are we bound, anyway?"

The dirty, unkempt, disheveled figure stiffened.

"Mr. Eagen," its falsetto shrilled, "you are mate of this vessel. Your duty is to see that my orders as to sailing are carried out. Beyond that you do not go. As to navigation and latitude and longitude and where we are, that is outside your line of duty. As to where we are bound, you are getting double wages not to get too curious. Remember to earn your wages, Mr. Eagen."

He turned away to the binnacle. In spite of his personal filth, in spite of the lawless, almost piratical character of the man, in that moment I could not but admire him. If Percy Darrow was ignorant of the purposes of this expedition, how much more so Captain Selover. Yet he accepted his trust blindly, and as far as I could then see intended to fulfill it faithfully. I liked him none the worse for snubbing me. It indicated a streak in his moral nature akin to and quite as curious as his excessive neatness regarding his immediate surroundings.

CHAPTER XI.

DURING the next few days the crew discussed our destination. Discipline, while maintained strictly, was not conventional. During the dog watches often every man aboard would be below, for at that period Captain Selover loved to take the wheel in person, a thick cigar between his lips, the dingy checked shirt wide open to expose his hairy chest to the breeze. In the twilight of the forecastle we had some great sea lawyer's talks—I say "we," though I took little part in them. Generally I lay across my bunk smoking my pipe while Handy Solomon held forth, his speech punctuated by surly speculations from the nigger, with hesitating deep sea wisdom from the hairy Thrackles or with voluminous bursts of fractured English from Perdosa. Pulz had nothing to offer, but watched from his pale green eyes. The light shifted and wavered from one to the other as the ship swayed; garments swung; the empty berths yawned cavernous. I could imagine the forecastle filled with the desperate men who had beaten off the Oyama. The story is told that they had swept the gunboat's decks with her own rapid fires turned in.

No one knew where we were going nor why. The doctor puzzled them and the quantity of his belongings.

"It ain't pearls," said Handy Solomon. "You can kiss the book on that, for we ain't a diver among us. It ain't Chinks, for we are cruising sou'-sou'-west. Likely it's trade—trade down in the islands."

We were all below. The captain himself had the wheel. Discipline, while strict, was not conventional.

"Contrabandista," muttered the Mexican, "for dat he geev us double pay."

"We don't get her for nothing," agreed Thrackles. "Double pay and duff on Wednesday generally means get your head broke."

"No trade," said the nigger gloomily.

They turned to him with one accord.

"Why not?" demanded Pulz, breaking his silence.

"No trade," repeated the nigger.

"Ain't you got a reason, doctor?" asked Handy Solomon.

"No trade," insisted the nigger.

An uneasy silence fell. I could not but observe that the others held the nigger's statements in a respect not due them as mere opinions. Subsequently I understood a little more of the reputation he possessed. He was believed to see things hidden, as their phrase went.

Nobody said anything for some time. Nobody stirred except that Handy Solomon, his steel claw removed from its socket, whittled and tested, screwed and turned, trying to fix the hook so that, in accordance with the advice of Percy Darrow, it would turn either way.

"What is it, then, doctor?" he asked softly at last.

"Gold," said the nigger shortly. "Gold—treasure."

"That's what I said at first!" cried Handy Solomon triumphantly. It was extraordinary, the unquestioning and entire faith with which they accepted as gospel fact the negro's dictum.

There followed much talk of the nature of this treasure, whether it was to be sought or conveyed, bought, stolen or ravished in fair fight. No further soothsaying could they elicit from the nigger. They followed their own ideas, which led them nowhere. Some one lit the forecastle lamp. They settled themselves. Pulz read aloud.

This was the programme every day during the dog watch. Sometimes the watch on deck was absent, leaving only Handy Solomon, the nigger and Pulz, but the order of the day was not on that account varied. They talked, they lit the lamp, they read. Always the talk was of the treasure.

As to the reading, it was of the sort usual to seamen, cowboys, lumbermen and miners. Thrackles had a number of volumes of very cheap love stories. Pulz had brought some extraordinary garish detective stories. The others contributed sensational literature with paper covers adorned lithographically. By the usual incongruity a fragment of "The Marble Faun" was included in the collection. The nigger had his copy of "Duvall on Alchemy." I haven't the slightest idea where he could have got it.

While Pulz read, Handy Solomon worked on the alteration of his claw. He could never get it to hold, and I remember as an undertone to Pulz's reading the rumble of strange, exasperated oaths. Whatever the evening's lecture, it always ended with the book on alchemy. These men had no perspective by which to judge such things. They accepted its speculations and theories at their face value. Extremely laughable were the discussions that followed. I often wished the shade of old Duvall could be permitted to see these, his last disciples, spelling out dimly his teachings, mispronouncing his grave utterances, but believing utterly.

Dr. Schermerhorn appeared on deck seldom. When he did, often his fingers held a pen which he had forgotten to lay aside. I imagined him preoccupied by some calculation of his own, but the forecastle, more picturesquely, saw him as guarding constantly the heavy casket he had himself carried aboard. He breathed the air, walked briskly, turned with the German military precision at the end of his score of strides and re-entered his cabin at the lapse of the half hour. After he had gone, remained Percy Darrow leaning indolently against the taffrail, his graceful figure swaying with the ship's motion, smoking always the corn husk Mexican cigarettes which he rolled with one hand. He seemed from that farthest point aft to hold in review the appliances, the fabric, the actions, yes, even the very thoughts, of the entire ship. From them he selected that on which he should comment or with which he should play, always with a sardonic, half serious, quite wearied and indifferent manner. His inner knowledge, viewed by the light of this manner or mannerism, was sometimes uncanny, though perhaps the sources of his information were commonplace enough after all. Certainly he always viewed with amusement his victim's wonder.

Thus one evening at the close of our day watch on deck he approached Handy Solomon. It was at the end of ten days, on no one of which the seaman failed to tinker away at his steel claw. Darrow balanced in front of him with a thin smile.

"Too bad it doesn't work, my amiable pirate," said he. "It would be so handy for fighting— See here," he suddenly continued, pulling some object from his pocket, "here's a pipe; present to me. I don't smoke 'em. Twist her halfway, like that, she comes out. Twist her halfway, like this, she goes in. That's your principle. Give her back to me when you get through."

He thrust the brier pipe into the man's hand and turned away without waiting for a reply. The seaman looked after him in open amazement. That evening he worked on the socket of the steel hook, and in two days he had the job finished. Then he returned the pipe to Darrow with some growling of thanks.

"That's all right," said the young man, smiling full at him. "Now, what are you going to fight?"

CHAPTER XII.

CAPTAIN SELOVER received as his due the most absolute and implicit obedience imaginable. When he condescended to give an order in his own person, the men fairly jumped to execute it. The matter had evidently been thrashed out long ago. They did not love him, not they, but they feared him with a mighty fear and did not hesitate to say so vividly and often when in the privacy of the forecastle. The prevailing spirit was that of the wild beast cowed but snarling still. Pulz and Thrackles in especial had a great deal to say of what they were or were not going to do, but I noticed that their resolution always began to run out of them when first foot was set to the companion ladder.

One day we were loafing along, everything drawing well and everybody but the doctor on deck to enjoy the sun. I was in the crow's nest for my pleasure. Below me on the deck Captain Selover roamed here and there, as was his custom, his eye cocked out like a housewife's for disorder. He found it, again in the evidence of expectoration, and as Perdosa happened to be handiest fell on the unfortunate Mexican.

Perdosa protested that he had had nothing to do with it, but Captain Selover, enraged as always when his precious deck was soiled, would not listen. Finally the Mexican grew sulky and turned away as though refusing to hear more. The captain thereupon felled him to the deck and began brutally to kick him in the face and head.

Perdosa writhed and begged, but without avail. The other members of the crew gathered near. After a moment they began to murmur. Finally Thrackles ventured most respectfully to intervene.

"You'll kill him, sir," he interposed. "He's had enough."

"Had enough, has he?" screeched the captain. "Well, you take what's left."

He marked Thrackles over the eye. There was a breathless pause, and then Thrackles, Pulz, the nigger and Perdosa attacked at once.

NOTES OF THE DAY

Admiral Richard Moorman, the Father of the British Navy, died recently at Exmouth in his 99th year.

During the year ten bronze medals for gallantry in saving life at sea have been awarded by the King.

CANADIAN LACROSSE TEAM WON FROM THE BRITISHERS

London, Oct. 24.—The Olympic lacrosse championship game between the United Kingdom and Canada was played to-day. McLeod, Lyon and Mara were omitted from the Canadian line-up.

Gorman scored in two minutes, Buckland equalized immediately after.

England had her share of the game but lacked finesse, missing opportunities in front of the goal.

At the end of the first quarter the score was, Canucks four, United Kingdom 2. Broderick, Gorman, and Turnbull did the scoring.

On resuming the Britons were less flurried, and Buckland immediately reduced the Canucks' lead. It was a ding dong game which ensued, the Englishmen being faster on the slippery turf. Just before the interval Brennan added a goal.

At half-time the score was:—Canucks, 6; United Kingdom 2.

The score was 9—9 in the last quarter with 15 minutes to play.

The final score was, Canada, 14; England, 10.

BRITONS BRACED UP.

In the second half the Britons quickly scored twice through Jones, after pretty work. The Canucks then took chances, and Turnbull added two, Hoobin doing much of the work leading to them. Play was as keen as mustard, but very clean. Brennan scored. Then Buckland put on three for England, in succession, and at the third quarter the score was Canada 9, United Kingdom 7. The excitement was great, as the Britains seemed much fresher, and added the eighth goal through Jones, and then immediately afterwards drew level.

Brennan, however, soon gave the Canucks the lead again after a nice pass from Turnbull. Two minutes later Brennan added the eleventh. Subsequently Turnbull made the result sure with a twelfth.

The Canucks' terrific rally came after a bad fright, and they produced another two goals via Gorman and Brennan. England scored the tenth and final score in the exciting game.

"BOBS" CONGRATULATIONS.

After the game Lords Roberts and Desborough visited the Canadians in their dressing room, where "Bobs" shook hands with each member of the team, offering his heartiest congratulations on their splendid game. Lord Desborough also praised the team and thanked them for coming to England. On behalf of the Olympic Council he expressed the hope that the visit would be returned in future. The Canadians loudly cheered the visitors.

The Lord Mayor of London and the sheriffs also witnessed the game, and the greatest good feeling was shown by the respective players. Several exchanged sticks after the match with mutual good wishes.

Conspicuous among the Canadians were Hoobin, Turnbull, Brennan, Rennie and Gorman.

MUNRO'S COLTS AND NATIONALS; UNITEDS AND CAIRN'S FIVE

Tuesday will be a busy one at the PEC alleys, two matches being down for decision. The most interesting, will probably be that between Munro's Colts and the National Hotel team. The captains of these two teams have got into a rather heated argument as to the relative bowling merits of themselves and their bowling colleagues and the result was a challenge for a game tomorrow night for an oyster supper. The game was eagerly accepted by the Colts and the teams will hook up in deadly strife to see who pays for the bivalves.

The National team numbers such stalwarts as Tommy Boyd, Ambrose Regan and Vic McCarthy, one of the most promising of the younger element.

The Colts will be represented by Herb Martin, MacRae, Huston, Pete Lang and Ernie Bruce, and they should give the Nationals a merry chase for the honors.

The second match game will be between Hemstead's United and Geo. Cairns team. These two are the sole survivors in the recent tournament and they will fight out the question of supremacy in the concluding game of the consolation series.

AN INTERESTING COMPARISON OF THE WRESTLERS' CHANCES

Montreal, Que., Oct. 24.—Westergaard defeated Mohl here last night at Sohmer Park, two straight falls, first in 27, second in 22 minutes. Match was the fastest seen here for some time, and Westergaard, who made his second appearance here last night, certainly looks one of the best heavyweights in the business.

It was generally expected that Mohl would have even-up chances against Westergaard, but the latter proved too strong for him, and wrestled in great form in close quarters. Mohl's vanquisher is a man who loses few matches, and among his sparse defeats is one by Young Hackensmidt, who bumps up against Rogers here on Oct. 30th. Mohl keeps Rogers going all his time to turn him, and Westergaard's defeat of the German was accomplished in shorter order than that of Rogers, and on that dope Hack's chances of defeating the Yankee are good. In the past week Rogers has won three matches in New Hampshire towns. If Hackensmidt expects to beat him he will have to let out to the limit, for Yankee can't afford to lose if there is any possibility of staving off defeat. On Hackensmidt's defeat of Mohl, however, Hack should have a pretty good chance of coming out with the laurels his.

FRED SIMPSON RAN SIXTH IN MONTREAL STAR RACE

Peterborough Indian Gave Longboat Great Battle up to Last Two Miles—His Standing Didn't Count for I. C. A. C.—Ran Splendid Race.

Montreal, Oct. 24.—Longboat today again demonstrated the fact that he is the champion long distance runner of Canada. He won the fifteen mile road race, organized by the Independent Harriers, on Saturday from a large field of competitors.

About one hundred started in the race, which was over a hard course around the mountain. An immense crowd lined the course and applauded the different runners. Longboat and Abbie Wood, the latter being a local man, were favorites. Longboat responded to the cheers of the thousands who lined the route and ran a strong race, finishing with a smile of satisfaction that spread from ear to ear. His time was 1.25.43 2-5.

Holmer, of Halifax was far behind Longboat, and third came Abbie Wood, one second behind Holmer. The race for second place was practically neck and neck, with the crowd yelling for Wood to win out. Sellen of Toronto was fourth, and the others came in the following order:—Rogers, Halifax; Fred Simpson, Peterborough; E. Cotter, Hamilton; John Roe, West End Y.M.C.A., Toronto; J. Gordon, Waverleys, Montreal; Black, Irish-Canadians, Toronto; James Robson, Central Y.M.C.A., Toronto; John Near, Central Y.M.C.A., Toronto; Downey, Halifax; G Adams, Hamilton; H. O. Kerr, Central Y.M.C.A., Toronto; Claude Pierce, Irish-Canadians, Toronto; George Gates, Gordons, Montreal.

Simpson went right out after Longboat from the crack of the pistol and followed him hard up to the last two miles. At five miles he was second with 100 yards between him and his fleet brother redman. He was running right up to him at ten miles with only sixty yards between the two, and at the 13th mile he was still in second place. But after this he was passed by Holmer, Wood, Sellen and Rogers, and crossed the tape sixth.

Simpson was running for the I.C.A.C. The Flanagan team were winners, but the judges ruled that Simpson's position couldn't count, as he had been entered unattached, and the Halifax team was awarded first place.

Simpson's next race will be the Hamilton Herald run on Thanksgiving Day. On the form he showed Saturday, and with some of Flanagan's long-headed coaching, he should stand a good chance for second place. Longboat looks pretty nearly invincible for first. Corney Burns will take the Peterborough Indian in hand and act as his trainer.

DICK BAKER THINKS SIMPSON WILL YET SURPRISE THEM ALL

Mr. Dick Baker, of the shipping department of the Canadian Kodak Company, Toronto, is in the city today. Dick is looking well and says he is enjoying his residence in the Queen City. He of course won't be in his element unless he is connected with some athletic body, and is trainer at the West End Y. M. C. A. He says the athletes there are the finest lot of boys imaginable.

The popular ex-Peterborough man says that West End could have sent a far more representative team to the Montreal Star race on Saturday. Lawson, Tait and Meadows, three of the leading distance men, did not run. Dick thinks highly of the ability of the West End runners and has a very strong fancy for Jack Tait. Tait is getting into shape for the Thanksgiving Day race at Guelph, and will also compete in the Harriers' indoor meet at Port Hope.

Speaking of Simpson's showing at Montreal on Saturday, he said:

"Simpson has it in him all right, and some day I think he will spring a big surprise by the speed he will show. His performance on Saturday was good, and with good generalship he can make the fastest of them go to beat him."

LINDSAY WON BY 9-6 IN A HARD AND VERY INTERESTING GAME

Y.M.C.A. Lost Saturday's Junior O.R.F.U. Match—Local Team Had Score 5-0 at Half Time—Kelly's Punting Feature of First Half.

Those who thought Lindsay would have a runaway match with the Y.M.C.A. when the Scugog pigskin men ran up against the locals on Saturday were somewhat surprised by the fine showing the local outfit made against the visitors in the Junior ORFU game at Riverside park on Saturday afternoon. The score was 9-6 in favor of Lindsay and taking the game all the way through shows pretty well the merits of the play. The locals got away like winners and at half time had Lindsay blanked by 5-0. These points were made by Caniff in the first quarter that player getting over the line for a sneaky touch on a timely play. He only carried the ball a few feet, but pounced on the leather in the right time, beating out an opposing man who was just ready to fasten onto the ball. In the second quarter there was no scoring and half time saw the score 5-0 in favor of the locals.

In the next quarter however, a drop from the field gave Lindsay four and to this they added a rouge, making it a tie 5-5 at three quarter time. On another goal from the field the score was 9-6 with Lindsay represented by the big end and although YMCA fought hard to make the points necessary to win, the best they could obtain was one rouge and the final result was 9-6 9. When it is borne in mind that it was junior rugby and so early in the season the quality of play exhibited was pretty satisfactory. The gridiron was made a little uncertain by the rain that fell but this did not materially affect the work of the teams. The crowd certainly enjoyed the game and as it was always very close and in doubt quite a lot of enthusiasm was worked up among the spectators and the attendance was good, in fact well up to the standard of that at most of the games played here since the times when the teams with Dr. Macpherson, Andy Scott, Vic McWilliams and other old boys used to draw big houses. The game which is new to Lindsay, has certainly taken well in that town and a special with about sixty supporters of the team arrived at the station at three o'clock.

The visiting rooters made themselves heard and grew especially enthusiastic when their team began to overcome the small lead of the locals.

Lindsay, although new at the game showed the effects of constant practice and had their plays well figured out and were in splendid condition. In the latter respect they appeared superior to the home aggregation, which played somewhat stronger up to about three quarter time, than in the last quarter. At a critical period towards the finish of the game, YMCA lost a valuable chance to boost their standing at just the time it was 5-5 and Peterborough had a down, a short distance from the Lindsay line. A drop from the field was in order, but the home team did not seem to see it that way and apparently wanted to take chances in getting nearer the goal. On the second down however, they lost the ball to Lindsay and with the game the goal from the field which the visitors made, giving them a margin which was not overcome.

The play was more open the first half than in the second, the frequent punts and runs making quite a lot like the Burnside article.

In the second half the checking was closer and the wings broke through and went right after the leather with the result that the playing was less open than in the first part of the game.

The YMCA wings and scrimmage looked after their checks all right, but the Lindsay back division did more telling work than that of the locals. The half line of the visitors has three good men in Green, Cotton and Sylvester. Green and Cotton shared the honors about evenly. In the first half Green made some beautiful ground, gaining runs and in the second Cotton did good work by his heady playing, punting to advantage on many occasions. Killen at quarter also played a tireless game and bucked nicely. The scrimmage and wings are heavy and were always willing and effective.

Undoubtedly the most brilliant play of the day was executed in the first half by Tom Kelly, who played centre half for the Y's. The ball kept coming his way repeatedly and he punted it back in splendid form. To this great work the fact that the visitors did not score at all up to half time, may be largely attributed. He should prove a valuable man on the half line when the TASAC play TAAC here next Saturday. Evans at full did well and McDonald played an excellent game at quarter. The wings all played good games with Caniff and Walker showing up well at outside.

Dr. Macpherson, who refereed, handled the game with the greatest of satisfaction and no complaint whatever was made on Frank O'Connor's decisions as umpire.

THE PLAY.

Lindsay kicked off, playing south. There was an exchange of punts for a few minutes and when the ball was almost on the Lindsay line, Caniff dropped on it and squirmed over for a clever touchdown, 5-0. Moore failed to convert the try.

Lindsay kicked the ball over and Evans had to rouge but the point wasn't given he being given no yards. No further scoring was done in the first quarter.

In the second quarter neither team made anything and half time was called with the score the same as at the end of the opening quarter, 5-0.

There was nothing sensational done in the first part of the third quarter until Killen got away for a big gain and was brought down by Kelly who was the only man between the runner and the goal line. It was dangerously near a touch down. A drop from the field woke up the Lindsay supporters. Y. M. C. A. 5; Lindsay 4.

The play that elicited the greatest applause of the day from the spectators was made by Green who made a splendid dash hurdling over a Y.M.C.A. man before he was downed. Just before three-quarter time was called Evans had to rouge, —5-5.

In the final quarter Cotton got a nice drop from the field, making it 9-5 in favor of Lindsay.

YMCA obtained a rouge before time was called and the game was Lindsay's by 9-6.

The match was fought hard all the time of play but the exhibition was not a rough one and any injuries to the players were of a more or less trifling nature.

The teams were;

SPORTING TALK

Miss Marguerite Binford, who plays the character part of Mrs. Pranz in the Marie Cahill company at the Princess this week, scores a big hit. This is Miss Binford's first appearance in a part of this kind, having been under Belasco's management in heavier work. Too much credit cannot be given Miss Binford for her perfect portrayal of the character Mrs Pranz, and the audience greatly regrets that Miss Binford does not appear in all three acts. Miss Binford is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Ray during her stay here.—Toronto Star.

That this old town is footballmad was shown this morning, when a small newsboy was asked whether he was a Grit or a Tory. "Neither," replied the lad. "I'm a Tiger."—Hamilton Spectator.

Accuracy Quality and Price

Are three prime considerations in eye glasses. In price we please our patrons, and this is an important factor in our increase of business. We supply glasses from one dollar up, according to requirement of the eyes. And all our kinds of lenses, qualities of frames are of unsurpassed value. In quality of material, style, workmanship we speak with confidence of the eye glasses and spectacles, which we are daily supplying. Accuracy in focal powers best suited to the special requirements of each individual eye, is of course, of first importance, each case receives our undivided attention. In Accuracy, Quality and Price we are pleasing our patrons.

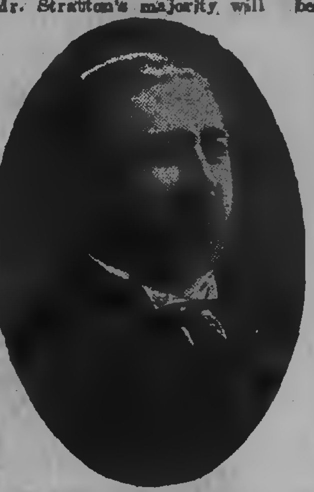
A CONSERVATIVE GAIN IN EAST PETERBOROUGH WEST RIDING RETURNS THE LIBERAL CANDIDATE

MR. STRATTON VICTORIOUS IN WEST PETERBOROUGH

Majority Will be About 375—Mr. Burnham Had Small Lead in City—Large Vote Was Polled.



MR. J. R. STRATTON
The Victorious Candidate in West Peterborough.

The election in West Peterborough resulted in the return of Mr. J. R. Stratton, Liberal candidate, over Mr. J. H. Burnham, the choice of the Conservative party.

Mr. Stratton's majority will be 375, secured entirely in the rural divisions of the riding. Mr. Burnham has a majority of four in the city, the vote in the city being 1,807 for Burnham and 1,803 for Stratton. The Monaghans gave a slight majority for Stratton, and the other townships all gave Liberal majorities.

The vote polled was the largest in the history of the riding, 3610 ballots being marked in the city alone. The total vote polled in the riding will be nearly 5,400. The total vote cast at the Hall-Kendrey election in 1904 was 4,747.

The returns from the city came in very quickly last night, and the result in Peterborough was known by half-past five o'clock. It was expected that the country divisions would go Liberal, and when it was seen that Mr. Burnham only had a small majority in the city, the Conservatives knew they had lost the battle.

The contest yesterday was one of the hardest in the history of the riding. Both were keen for victory and every vote possible was got out. The keenest interest was manifested in the campaign in both city and country and the election will go down on record as one of the most exciting known in West Peterborough.

The vote in detail was as follows:

MR. STRATTON'S MEETING AT GRAND OPERA HOUSE

Following the procession in honor of Mr. Stratton's victory, a meeting was held at the Grand Opera House, where speeches were made by prominent Liberals of the West Riding. The ground floor was filled with enthusiastic supporters of the elected candidate, but the balcony was only partly occupied, and there was no one in the top gallery. Seated on the platform were Messrs. J. R. Stratton, R. R. Hall, the Chairman; J. Hartley, W. H. Meldrum, R. H. Leary, James Duffus, F. D. Kerr, H. McFarlane, Walter Davidson, Adam Hall, William Yelland, John O'Brien.

After a few introductory remarks by the chairman Mr. Stratton addressed his hearers, thanking them for his election and promising to do all in his power for the good of the constituency of West Peterborough.

Short congratulatory speeches were made by Messrs. R. R. Hall, W. H. Meldrum, R. H. Leary, Jos. Duffus, F. D. Kerr, A. McFarlane, Walter Davidson, Adam Hall, Wm. Yelland and John O'Brien.

The meeting closed with [illegible]

LAURIER RETURNED TO POWER WITH A SMALLER MAJORITY

Returns Give Liberals a Majority of 39 Seats—With 211 Constituencies Reported Grits Have 125 and Conservatives 86.

Toronto, Oct. 27.—It is four more years of Laurier. Probably in the general result the public were not surprised, but the good guessers in arriving at their total figures were a long way out in many instances.

At midnight there were 125 Liberals and 86 Conservatives elected. Seven constituencies will vote later.

The surprises were Ontario, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and the west.

Ontario was expected to give a much larger majority to the Conservative party. The majority in the old House was eight, and the Conservatives confidently expected it would exceed 20, some even predicting as many as 40 to the good. But Mr. Borden's followers from Ontario has been increased by two only.

HE FOUGHT A GOOD FIGHT.

Among the Conservative gains in Ontario were Centre York, North Grey, Parry Sound, North Ontario, West Hamilton, South Bruce, East Peterboro, but they made losses in North Waterloo, Brantford, Stormont, Prince Edward, South Ontario, East Simcoe and North Perth. No one had any idea that Alex. Maclaren would lose his seat for North Perth. The Perths were to be "solid for Borden," but both went Liberal, and the Simcoes were likewise in the Borden column until the returns began to come in, when Mr. Bennett, the "stormy petrel," was found to have lost his place in the House.

The Conservative leader has two seats to sit in, for he was also elected in Carleton. As Carleton is a Conservative hive, he will likely decide to sit for Halifax.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has also too many seats, having been elected for Ottawa as well as Quebec East.

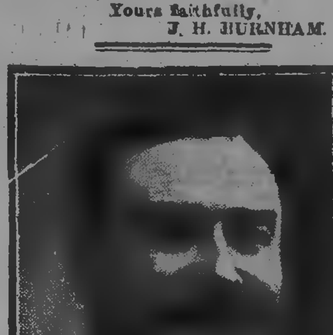
CARD OF THANKS.

To the electors of West Peterborough, I wish to tender my grateful acknowledgements for their support at the polls yesterday. To the workers, I am especially grateful and beg them to accept my gratitude and sincerest thanks. We had a clean and efficient organization and as a consequence have nothing to reproach ourselves with.

Yours faithfully,
J. H. BURNHAM.



MR. J. H. BURNHAM.

MR. SEXSMITH ACHIEVED SPLENDID VICTORY IN EAST

Majority Over Mr. E. A. Tanner is About 300—Riding Has Been Liberal for Many Years.

Mr. J. A. Sexsmith redeemed East Peterborough for the Conservatives at yesterday's election. His majority over Mr. E. A. Tanner, the Liberal candidate, will be about 300.

Mr. Sexsmith put up a splendid fight against the strong forces that were arrayed against him and is being heartily congratulated on his victory. At the election in 1904, Mr. Findley, Liberal, had a majority of 71. To turn this into a Conservative majority of 300 is a splendid achievement.

The last Conservative elected in East Peterborough was in 1891, when Mr. John Burnham, the Conservative was returned.

A big vote was polled in the East riding, both parties putting up a hard fight. Mr. Tanner polled a large vote in Lakefield and vicinity while the eastern part of the riding went for Mr. Sexsmith.

The returns up to the time of going to press are as follows:

MR. J. A. SEXSMITH.
The victorious Conservative candidate in East Peterborough.

REVIEW BULLETINS WERE WATCHED BY BIG CROWD

The Review had a splendid bulletin service last night, and it was taken advantage of by a large crowd. Hunter street was blocked from six o'clock until eleven, and the prompt manner in which the returns were thrown on the canvas was greatly appreciated.

A special wire had been placed in the Review office by the C.P.R. Telegraph Company, and the service was the best ever furnished in the city. The instrument was in charge of Mr. Melville Jamieson.

The stereopticon lantern, with which the returns were thrown upon the canvas, was supplied by the "Crystal" and was in charge of Mr. Stanley Coon, who operated it in a very efficient manner.

The Review desires to thank all those who contributed in furnishing the excellent bulletin service that was given.

Probably more interest was manifested in yesterday's election than any contest in Peterborough for years. The people began to gather shortly after five o'clock and stood in the street for four or five hours to hear the results.

A GOOD SHOWING

We give the returns up to the hour of going to press. The figures are complete, with the exception of one division of Galway and two divisions of Cavendish. If we allow to Mr. Stratton the whole vote in all three divisions, which will not be the case, Mr. Stratton's majority would be 384. The three divisions named polled, at the Kendrey-Hall-election, a total of 29 votes. Mr. Burnham has surprised his friends and the Opposition as well by the strength he developed in the country. He did not reach the majority in the city that his friends expected, and the Opposition feared. But the country did well, and gave his candidature a capital support.

AMERICA'S EX-CHAMPION WRESTLER

SAYS:

"After my great wrestling match with J. Mellor, of Staleybridge, at the Crystal Palace, England, for the International Championship, I was covered with cuts and bruises. I applied my favorite balm, Zam-Buk, and in a marvellously short time the abrasions and cuts were healed and I was fit and well again. At another time I had a piece of flesh almost torn completely off my arm above the elbow. I anticipated being unable to do anything with the arm for a long time. To my delight, however, Zam-Buk closed up the wound in two days. In three days it was covered with new skin, and a few days after, there was no trace of the injury. I recommend Zam-Buk for cuts, bruises or skin injuries of any kind.

Yours truly,
HUGH LANNON.

The above testimony given by Mr. Lannon when visiting Toronto shows the great value of Zam-Buk for injuries received in out-door sport.

Baseball, Football and Lacrosse Players should always keep Zam-Buk handy. It prevents cuts and injuries "taking the wrong turn." It stops the pain and smarting, and heals. It is also an excellent embrocation, curing stiffness, [illegible] sprains, etc. Used and recommended by [illegible], the [illegible] [illegible], the world's [illegible] [illegible], etc.

THE RECENT CONTEST

The London Times's correspondent in Canada was recently called sharply to account for cabling that electoral corruption was widespread here. He has verified his statements and makes them a little more emphatic and stronger. The evidences of civilization are not with us as yet to any alarming extent. The solid part of public opinion is still solid in both on all parties, but the general business and political zones when combined here are wonderful in the extreme. Meanwhile Great Britain looks at Canada as the nurse of a lot of lusty young animals not yet tamed or controlled either by themselves or others. It will no doubt all come out in the washing, but it will take a deal of washing and time. Some of the "foreign missionaries" had better have begun at home. Corruption is a science in Canada at present, as it was at one time in Great Britain and the U. S. Cynicism and a contempt for the moral law comprise the peril in whose path we lie.

THE CAMPAIGN

Locally the campaign as a struggle in representative government was a farce. The Liberal candidate was bound to win at all hazards and he took the hazards. The contest is not got over as some surmise. It will continue in the courts, without let, hindrance or compromise. That circumstance was contemplated from the beginning and the plan of campaign laid accordingly. There is evidence enough to unseat a regiment and it is collected and systematized. We can promise plenty of food for thought and a new election before the natural order of events takes its full course. The contest was waged with unabated vigor on both sides. It was known or at least confidently suspected that the Conservative organization had "watchers" but when it was announced by one of his supporters last evening that Mr. Stratton had a corps of Pinkertons a great shout of laughter arose. It was one of the humors of an otherwise somewhat lugubrious campaign. The great mass of solid public opinion was undoubtedly on the Conservative side. That is generally admitted. Money however, was more potent than opinion. There is a general feeling of determination on the part of the Conservative party to straighten things out here before they have done with it and some exposures will follow of a no doubt surprising kind. It will be for some of those concerned to continue to make the farce complete by taking upon themselves the duties of office or position in the "sacred edifice." The public will not be satisfied until the courts have decided. Opinions to that effect continue to pour in upon us. The Conservative party is re-united and strong. Look out for it.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The "vindication" did not arrive on schedule time. Beaten in the city and snubbed in Smith, and with a lowered majority everywhere it is no longer possible to cry vindicated. Just wait.

In view of the fact that our GTP essay competition was a failure having been sprung upon the public at the wrong time, we take pleasure in offering the second prize, viz., $5.00, to the first person finding and producing any reference in the Globe of the day following the election, that is today, to its joy over the return of Mr. Stratton for West Peterborough.

It is reported that a pamphlet or circular was distributed here as elsewhere calculated to inflame the public mind or at least a portion of it. We shall be glad to get a copy of it in order that it may be found if possible who performed this "election trick." It is about time this sort of nonsense was tabooed by men of sense. Anonymous pamphlets or sheets are on the face of them suspicious. They are welcomed however, sometimes by those who know better, as an aid to canvassing without an attempt being made to find out if they are authentic or otherwise. Hitherto they have been largely accredited to one body. In the future if no other means can be found they will doubtless be used to discredit other bodies. It is a poor rule that does not work in more than one way.

RAILROAD TAXATION

It is plain to all who study the reports of our railroads that the direct taxation takes almost 5 per cent. of their gross earnings and well toward 20 per cent. of their net earnings; while the direct taxation upon this industry is three times that amount. Everybody who pays a dollar to a railroad for a freight account or for a ticket should know for his own good in the study of the railroad question as projected into popular debate, that 25 cents of that dollar is not the cost of the service he receives, but taxation unduly imposed on railroads in regard to the net results of these vast transportation interests, these railroads exist largely as tax gatherers of hundreds of millions of dollars for public functionaries. Under present conditions, one man in each thirteen adults of the nation, is a functionary. Almost one-half of the enormous sums of money wrung from the industries of the country by taxation go in salaries to functionaries.—Wall Street Summary.

A CREDITABLE NUMBER

There is no more important question engaging the attention of Canadians to-day than the great transportation problem and what is being done to enable the abundant products of the farm, forest, fishery and mine to be marketed expeditiously and profitably. The development and expansion of our transportation facilities is the subject of an instructive and timely contribution from Major G. W. Stephens, chairman of the Montreal Harbor Commission, in the November number of The Busy Man's Magazine. Another article that will be read with interest is "Making Canadian Weather Predictions," by Mr. A. P. McKishine, who is rapidly forging his way to the front as one of the brightest of young Canadian short story writers. The illustrations are attractive and effective. In both contents and make-up the improvements in Busy Man's will be appreciated, while the selections from the leading magazines and publications of the day will be perused during long evenings of November with pleasure and profit. The department devoted to what the current editions of the world's periodical press presents cannot fail to be of the greatest help and convenience to the student, the man of affairs or the general reader who desires instruction along special lines and an acquaintance with what is being discovered, thought and written in the various avenues of activity, progress and development.

Sheep and Lambs.

Export ewes sold at $3 to $3.40; rams, $2.25 to $2.75; lambs, $4 to $4.40.

Hogs.

Gunns, Limited, quoted hogs 10c per cwt. lower; selects, $6.15, fed and watered at the market, and $5.90 to drovers, f.o.b. cars at country points.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, Oct. 26.—(Special.)—At the Montreal Stock Yards West End Market, the receipts of live stock for the week ending Oct. 24 were 2254 cattle, 780 sheep and lambs, 1770 hogs and 324 calves, while the supply for local consumption this morning consisted of 1200 cattle, 250 sheep and lambs, 650 hogs and 175 calves.

A weaker feeling developed in the market for cattle, and prices were fully ¼c per lb. lower than a week ago, owing to the fact that the offerings were much heavier than they have been at any previous market this season, and largely in excess of the requirements of the trade. The average quality of the stock was better than usual, which in many instances cost more money in the country than holders could realize here for them, and in consequence they would not sell; therefore a number will be carried over for another market day. The demand from local and outside buyers was good for the best beeves at the above reduction in values, and there was also some demand from exporters for small lots to complete shipments with, but the trade in common and inferior cattle was slow. Cable advices from Liverpool on Saturday reported trade slow but firm, at a further advance on prices for Canadians and ranchers. Choice cattle here sold at 4½c; good at 4c to 4¼c; fair at 3½c to 3¾c; common at 2½c to 3c, and inferior at 1½c to 2½c per lb. The supply of lambs was much smaller than a week ago, but, notwithstanding this fact, the tone of the market was weaker and prices scored a further decline of ¼c per lb. The demand was fairly good, and sales of choice lots were made at 4½c, and good at 4c to 4¼c per lb. There was no change in sheep, for which the demand from exporters was better, on account of the firmer advices from abroad, and sales of choice lots were made at 3½c, and culls at 3c to 3¼c per lb. A fair trade was done in calves, and, as the supply was small, prices ruled steady, with sales ranging at from $3 to $8 each, as to quality.

There were no new developments in the live hog situation, prices being steady, under a good demand, and small supplies, and sales of selected lots were made at $6.50, and rough stock at $6 to $6.25 per 100 lbs., weighed off cars.

RESCUED JUST IN TIME

Crew and Passengers of Iroquois Had Narrow Escape.

Twenty-Five on Board Mail Boat Which Went on Reef In Lake Huron Were Taken Off by Tug Fraser—Iroquois Was In Flames and a Few Minutes After Rescue Steamer Burned to Water's Edge.

Toronto, Oct. 27.—Wrecked on a reef near Spanish Mills in the smoke and fog on the lake, and half an hour later burned to the water's edge, after twenty-five people had been safely taken ashore, the steamre Iroquois on Saturday closed its career as mail boat plying between Manitoulin Island and Cutler. Through the timely appearance of the tug B. M. Fraser, sixteen men, seven women and two children were rescued from dire peril, and some mail bags were saved. The wreck took fire a few minutes after all souls had been taken off, while the crew in a small boat floated alongside their craft burned. Everything but three bags of mail was destroyed, the passengers losing all their belongings.

The crash came while the ship was en route from Little Current to Cutler and passing East Rost, which is about twelve miles from Spanish River.

The boat was going at a high speed, and the fog and smoke from the bush fires made it impossible for the men at the wheel to tell just in which direction the reef was situated. When the steamer hit the rock she ran right up on it, settled astern, and fell over to port.

The crash was terrific, and consternation reigned aboard. The men did not lose their heads, however, and the crew, assisted by the male passengers, properly looked to the safety of the less able ones, who were fearfully frightened. The women and children were carried to the starboard side of the boat, which was away out of the water, and were made as comfortable as possible. The rain was falling in torrents, but they were beyond the reach of the waves, which were rolling heavily on the wrecked ship.

The tug Fraser had passed the Iroquois only a very short time before. Fortunately the ill-fated vessel was able to give steam signals of distress and in less than half an hour's time the nose of the little tug poked its way through the mist to the wreck, much to the delight of the cuddled up human freight to whom the short wait had seemed like many hours.

When the passengers were all taken off by the tug the crew remained to save the mails and were successful.

The boat was in flames in a very few minutes after the wholesale rescue. From the time the passengers escaped from the Iroquois until the time she caught fire not more than fifteen minutes had elapsed, and soon after she had burned to the water's edge. The passengers lost everything they had with them and escaped with only what they had on.

Daughter Has Dream.

Brockville, Oct. 27.—L. N. Catlin, a watchman on the Cleveland Canal work at Cardinal, was found dying between midnight and 6 o'clock in the morning yesterday. The man was alone, and symptoms went to show that he had been seized with heart failure, from which he never rallied.

A strange feature of the case is that about the hour he is supposed to have been in the agonies of death, his daughter, Flora Catlin, visiting at Hounsfield, was suddenly awakened from a deep slumber by the voice of her father calling her name in agonizing tones. This strange experience was followed by a wire notifying her of his death.

Chinamen Proved Citizenship.

Brockville, Oct. 27.—The courts at Ogdensburg have just discharged six Chinamen who have been in jail for several weeks on a charge of entering the United States illegally. It was presumed they had been smuggled across the river from Brockville, as they were caught on Uncle Sam's property shortly after making the landing on a dak night. They have proved their citizenship.

Unions Can't Fine Men.

Boston, Oct. 27.—The supreme judicial court of Massachusetts in making permanent an injunction against several labor unions yesterday ruled in a decision attending the decree, that labor unions cannot impose fines on their members in order to force them to go out on a strike.

New Local Master.

Ottawa, Oct. 27.—John Bishop of the legal firm of Bishop & Smith, has been notified of his appointment as local master of the Superior Court. He is a native of Ottawa, and was called to the bar in 1878.

Ruth Butler, alias Miller, was arrested by Detective Tipton at the request of the Hamilton police yesterday, where she was sent later in the day, for theft of clothing.

A Wild West Tragedy.

New Orleans, Oct. 27.—At Gulfport, Miss., a cowboy belonging to a wild-west show, rode into a crowd of negroes, beating them over the heads with a revolver. Policeman Varnadoe started in pursuit of Seely and the two men were lost to view in a cloud of dust. Later their bodies were found, each bearing a single bullet wound and each man's revolver containing one empty chamber.

Seized Indecent Postcards.

Montreal, Oct. 27.—The police have seized some 3,000 postal cards alleged to be indecent and the stereotype plates for printing the same in the printing establishment of David Allan, Notre Dame street. The proprietor was placed under arrest, but as he was a returning office in yesterday's election, he was released on bail.

Bryan Was Kissed Twice.

New York, Oct. 27.—When W. J. Bryan entered the Astor gallery at a reception of the Woman's Democratic Club at the Waldorf-Astoria yesterday, he was kissed by two women, in the presence of nearly seven hundred others, and narrowly escaped the embraces of a third. Mrs. Bryan was present. Mr. Bryan displayed some embarrassment.

Women Shorter and Broader.

London, Oct. 27.—(C.A.P.)—Robert McKay, Hamilton, Ont., has lost the case brought against him by S. J. Lyons, wholesale costumer, claiming payment for a number of costumes supplied. McKay said he ordered the American model and was supplied the English, which was no use in America, because the women were shorter and broader.

When the Kettle Sings.

The reason why hot water makes a simmering noise is a very simple one. As the water heats little bubbles of steam are formed at the bottom of the kettle. These rush upward, and, being attracted to the sides of the kettle, they make a commotion which sets the metal in vibration, and the kettle "sings."

RAISING CHICKENS.

Her Theory Was Right, but a Flaw Marred Her Practice.

"Yes, farming is all very easy," the farmer said. "Any city person could make a success of it at the first go-off. Mrs. Jack Frost took the farm next to mine one year. Being from the city, she thought she would show us country people a thing or two about real farming. She began on a chicken yard.

"It was a fine yard. Pretty soon a hundred eggs hatched out. There were half hens and half roosters. Mrs. Jack Frost, before sailing for Europe, separated the two sexes, and, killing all the roosters, she sent them to her friends. A fine lot of spring broilers they made. They were no bigger than squabs.

"But when Mrs. Jack Frost got back from Europe a strange sight her chicken yard presented. It was nothing but young roosters—young roosters, crowing, young roosters swaggering about, while here, with flying feathers and squawks and blood, a terrible fight went on, and there, disregarded by all, lay the corpses of brave birds slain in single combat. At sunrise you could hear the crowing of those roosters all over the county.

"Poor Mrs. Jack Frost understood the theory of chicken raising all right, only in separating the young birds she mistook the males for the females, and vice versa."

WHEELBARROW TRAVEL.

A Common Method of Transportation in China.

"Probably more freight and more passengers are transported in China by the wheelbarrow than by any other land method," said a Hongkong man who is interested in the shipping trade in the far east.

"The wheelbarrow used in China differs from that used in America in the fact that the wheel is set in the center and thus supports practically the entire load, while the handles are supported in part by a strap or rope over the shoulders of the man who operates it.

"As a result the cooly in China will transport nearly half a ton on his wheel. Wheelbarrows are much used in the country, where the roads are but little developed, and I have heard that passengers sometimes make the entire trip from Shanghai to Pekin, a distance of 600 miles, by barrow.

"A two passenger barrow will make about twenty miles a day, and the cooly is content with a pay of about 20 cents a day or an average of about half a cent a mile for each passenger. On the level, well kept streets of the foreign quarters of such cities as Hongkong, Shanghai and Pekin the wheelbarrow cooly will struggle along with a load of six or even eight people."

A Hard Language.

"Leesten!" said the perplexed Frenchman. "When you give a sing, you cannot keep 'eem! So?"

"So," said the English instructor.

"But when a hones' man gives 'ees word, 'ee keep 'eem. So?"

"So," said the instructor.

"But when 'ee give 'ees word, 'ow can 'ee keep 'eem? Does 'ee take 'eem back?"

"No," said the instructor.

"But if 'ee keeps 'ees word 'ee does not give 'eem!"

"Oh, yes! If he does not keep his word he is not an honest man."

"Ah, I beegeen to see! 'Aving given 'ees word and not taken 'eem back, 'ee keep 'eem all se while?"

"That's it!"

"Oh, la, la, la! What a language ees se Englishe!"

Mme. de Stael.

Bonaparte said France was not large enough for himself and Mme. de Stael at the same time and exiled her. Next to Bonaparte she was, through her salons, the most powerful personage in the country in her time. "If I were empress of the world," exclaimed the brilliant Mme. de Tesse, "I would command Mme. de Stael to talk to me forever."

A Bit of a Bull.

One day an Irishman was asked to come to work an hour earlier than usual. This he promised to do. Next morning he was an hour late.

"Shure, sor, I should have been no good if Oi'd come, as I was fast asleep."

Reversed.

"Yes," remarked the race horse, "all my achievements have been due simply to putting my best foot forward."

"Yes?" replied the mule. "Now, I find that I accomplish most by putting my best foot backward."

LIBERALS HAVE BEEN PUT IN JAIL AT SEVERAL PLACES

Conservatives Swear Out Three Warrants on Charges of Bribery in Winnipeg and Prisoners Are Remanded—Picton and Smith's Falls Men Arrested.

Brockville Oct. 27.—Victor Tedford, who claims to be a Montreal sleuth on the staff of the Thiel Agency, was taken into custody yesterday morning on a charge of vagrancy for the purpose of holding him on accusations of electoral corruption, preferred by the local Conservatives.

He is out on bail furnished by Liberal workers. In the Police Court he changed his name to Quinn, and said he was sent here to keep an eye on election matters without regard to party. Conservatives have been shadowing him for over a week, and claim to have incriminating evidence connecting him with the Liberal machine.

P. Brady, now of Smith's Falls, and Don McLennan of Picton were challenged and sworn. Immediately afterwards they were locked up on charges of perjury, only to be quickly bailed out by party friends.

John A. Derbyshire was served with a summons for his appearance at the Police Court on the 31st inst. on a charge of bribery. He is a son of Senator Dan Derbyshire. He was the victim of a trap laid in a polling sub-division of the west ward. The Conservatives allege that money was used wholesale, reaching the purchasable element by letter through the postoffice.

Winnipeg, Oct. 27.—The provincial authorities yesterday morning arrested R. R. McLennan, a prominent Liberal, and former well-known hockey player, at breakfast in his home on bribery charges. Later he appeared before Judge Meyers, together with W. A. Carson and George McLean, who had been in the provincial jail over Sunday, and the three were released on bail.

W. A. Carson, ex-president of the Manitoba branch of the Caledonian Club, and a prominent Liberal, was arrested Sunday night by officials of the provincial police and taken to the provincial jail.

No charge has been preferred against Carson as far as can be learned.

E. J. Rochen, proprietor of the Clarendon Hotel, immediately hurried down to the jail and offered bail, but access to the prisoner was refused Rochon, the prisoner's friends and even his counsel.

SOMETHING ABOUT THE COMEDY ALL THE COMFORTS OF HOME

"All the Comforts of Home," as the title of the play suggests, is about ninety per cent of laughing gas, and, to use the words of Mr. W. Winter, the veteran critic of the New-York Tribune, "it is a perfect antidote to melancholy." With the possible exception of "Charley's Aunt," it has been the most popular comedy of Modern times and those who go to see it on the 3rd and 4th of November will not be disappointed. Mr. Wm. Gillette, the eminent actor and playwright, who is playing at the Princess in Toronto at present, is the author of this delightful four-act comedy, and Burns Mantle, the dramatic critic of the Chicago Tribune, has said "If Mr. Gillette had never written anything but "All Comforts of Home," it would have been enough to make him famous."

Although the situations and lines are intensely humorous, and the climaxes irresistibly funny, there is not a word in it that would bring a blush to the most modest cheek. The scene of the piece is laid in a private drawing room of a residence in one of the residential quarters of London, England, and one Pettibone, the owner of the house, has a young wife of whom he is very jealous, without cause, and in the midst of his heat and fury suddenly abruptly takes the entire family away on a three months' trip to Venice and other places, leaving his nephew, Alfred Hastings, a young doctor, who is always broke, to take charge of the house, during his absence. Pettibone gone, Alfred is man behind the gun and after rapturously surveying his new surroundings and looking at the keys to the wine cellar, which his uncle has left him, calls in a partner Tom McDow, the funniest ever, and they both decide to turn the Pettibone mansion into a lodging house. A crude mode of rules and regulations is drawn up by Alfred in which a concondition is enacted that children and dogs must keep off the grass and Tom McDow, a jack of all trades, puts a sign out in front of the house, announcing "Lodgings to Let," with a blazing footnote to the effect that lodgers will have "All the Comforts of home." A lodging or boarding house in that locality is surely a new thing, and , a very brief space, the house is full of all sorts and conditions of men and women; country town folk, mad musicians, opera singers, English dudes and dead beats, dope fiends, men with minds and and men without minds.

All sorts of complications arise and the fun at once becomes fast and furious. Old Bender falls in love with the opera singer; Alfred falls in love with Bender's daughter. Tom has his troubles with the mad musician and the dope fiend up-stairs. Mrs. Bender is on the war path, the officers of the law come in to arrest Langhorne and the queer entanglements that follow are just the funniest ever seen amid the glare of the footlights. Things are going from bad to worse when the Pettibones return home. What happens after that is too funny to tell. You'll have to come and see it in the Grand Opera House, Peterborough, on November 3rd and 4th.

Following are the principals forming the cast; Messrs. Chas. Barber, Geo. Lynch, Irving Beers, Mort Johnston, A. C. Yokome, F. D. Craig, D. B. McRae, W. G. Ferguson, Claude Brady, and C. G. Graham.

Ladies, Misses L. L. Hallihan, Nellie Hallihan, Pearl Morgan, Nell Graham, Mona O'Shea, Agnes Pentland and Mrs. J. N. Barber.

The play will be staged under the direction of Irving Beers, who put it on with marked success in all the western cities of Canada and the United States.

The eye is such a delicate organ that it should never be trifled with.

This is why our optician has followed the teachings of only recognized authorities on the eye.

Many opticians take half a dozen or more correspondent courses, costing from $7.50 to $25 each. With this limited knowledg it is little wonder that so many are wearing glasses that do not suit them—others who do not require them.

If you have eye trouble you should only consult an optician who has a thorough knowledge of every branch of the optical business.

A BIG DROP

When Mr. Stratton appealed to the electors of West Peterborough for their votes last time he had a majority somewhere in the vicinity of a thousand. Yesterday he had less than four hundred. From this it is plain that Mr. Stratton has taken a drop in the estimation of the electors and a big drop at that.

THE DUTY OF THE HOUR

It is rumored that local Liberals claim that whiskey and bribery were rife also on the Conservative side. If this claim is well-founded, although so far as we know there is absolutely nothing in it further than an attempted offset to Conservative charges, yet it makes it all the more necessary that the protest against Mr. Stratton's return should be gone on with. Now is the time to clear the atmosphere in West Peterborough. Such a chance must not be missed. A protest evidently will secure this and no doubt all right-thinking men will welcome it as we do. Men who shrink from their duty in probing to the bottom the charges against both parties are recreant to that duty and cannot reasonably bemoan a state of things which will be assumed as being continued under their auspices. Now is the time to show up the whole campaign here in West Peterborough. Liberals will have the opportunity afforded by legal procedure of preferring all charges possible against local Conservatives. We invite the co-operation of Liberals in the work of rescuing West Peterborough from the slavery of corruption. Such an opportunity as the present may never occur again. It is now not a Conservative protest, but the people's protest. Both parties are on trial. Let those who agree with this view speak out fearlessly and repeatedly until the desired end is secured. It is the duty of the hour.

NEW METHOD OF BUILDING

Erection of Structure in Ohio Being Watched With Interest

Columbus Oct. 26.—The State of Ohio is erecting a building at Camp Perry, the State range in Ottawa county, which will doubtless be a centre of interest for architects and builders throughout the continent. The reason is that it is constructed on a method almost entirely new, and an additional reason is that the builder, who will get about $12000 for his work, will put nearly the whole amount in advertising the building.

The building is to be used for armory purposes. It is two stories high, of reinforced concrete and is being built in sections. The sections are then raised into position, concrete poured between them, making the whole a solid mass. The advantage in the method is very easy to see.

In the past, in building concrete buildings, the structure was practically built of frame before it was concreted. The forms for the concrete beams, walls, etc., were built up in the air, and then it was necessary to carry the concrete up to the top and pour it in.

By the new method a flat framework, like a big shallow box, is used. The window sash, door frames or whatever is needed, are laid flat in the box, then comes the wheelbarrow brigade and dumps in the concrete. It is allowed to set while the workmen start work on another section.

The flat box is rested on jackscrews before any concrete is poured in, and it is this part of the method which is protected by patents giving the builder a Monopoly. With the ordinary jackscrew it is said it would be impossible to raise the 100-ton section of wall without stretching or cracking them, but the newly patented devices are manipulated by a traction engine of very low power, with no trouble whatever.

After the sections are raised the boards are knocked off and the outside may be treated with cement and sand to make it any color desired. The coloring is not done, of course, until after concrete has been poured into the cracks between the sections. In the Camp Perry Building white sand is used as a dressing, making a building of dazzling whiteness.

The United States Government is watching the erection of the building with much interest, as it has long been looking for something as substantial and as enduring as granite which would make imposing looking structures at a less cost than granite.

Not only is tea grown at a high elevation finer flavored and more healthful than ordinary tea, but it is much more economical. That is why one pound of "Salada" will make more cups of tea than one and one-quarter pounds of any other kind.

SKIES YIELD RAIN AT LAST

Every Drop of it is Welcome—will Mean Much to the Country

The murky skies which have hidden the sun from the people of this district for week upon week have at last yielded rain, and every bit of it was welcome.

The immediate effect as noticed in the city was the clarification of the air from the smoke of bush fires. These fires have been raging on almost all sides of the city for weeks and the air had become almost poisonous to those afflicted with any bronchial or asthmatic trouble and was particularly severe on infants. Twenty-four hours' rain has apparently extinguished the fires. It has at any rate cleared the atmosphere.

To the farmers the rain comes as a God-send. For over a month there has been no water in wells or creek bottoms, and it has been necessary to drive cattle long distances to water, or to haul water weary miles to the stock. Pastures were dried up and burned, and many who keep large herds had become despondent and spoke of killing their cattle for sale. If, as the probabilities say, the rains continue for several days, it will mean the saving of many thousands of dollars throughout the district.

While the rain which has fallen since Saturday has so far not raised the water in the Otonabee river to an unnoticeable extent, it has at least stopped the steady fall which has been going on for several months. Millmen and owners of water powers say that a few days more of steady rain will increase the power, and the increase will be noticed as soon as the added waters from the tributaries of the Otonabee come to swell the flow of the larger stream.

NEWSY NOTES FROM BETHEL

Oyster Supper Will be Held on November 5th

Special to the Review.

Bethel, Emily, Oct. 26.—A large congregation was present last Sunday at the evening service. Rev. Mr. Latimer, of Selwyn, was present and delivered a very enthusiastic and interesting address on missionary work.

On Sunday, Nov. 8th the annual anniversary service will be held. Rev. Mr. Reel, pastor of Queen Street Methodist Church, Lindsay, will preach at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. We hope that a large congregation will be present.

An oyster supper under the auspices of L. O. L. No. 294 will be held on Thursday evening, Nov. 5th. Supper will be served from 5 to 7 in the basement of Bethel Methodist Church, after which a grand concert will be held at the Orange Hall, programme to commence at 8 o'clock. Do not fail to come, as this will be one of the best entertainments ever held under the auspices of the brethren.

Rev. J. H. Teney, pastor of the Anglican churches of this vicinity, intends going on the Hunters' Excursion, leaving Oct. 29th. During his absence Mr. Lynch, of Trinity College, will occupy the pulpit next Sunday, and Rev. Rural Dean Allan, of Millbrook, will take charge of the services the following Sunday.

Mrs. J. T. Switzer spent last week visiting friends in Peterborough and vicinity.

Miss Winnifred Purdy, teacher in Smith, was the guest of Mr. Wm. Purdy, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Switzer and Alto, of Lindsay, visited friends in Emily last week.

Mrs. Robert Guthrie left on Monday last to visit friends in Western Ontario at Cookstown, Orillia, Midland, etc.

Commencing Nov. 1st, the Fast Canadian Pacific Train 95, which now leaves Toronto at 9:30 p.m., for Winnipeg and the Canadian Northwest, will leave Toronto at 10:15 p.m. Change made to secure connections from all points, and to suit convenience of travelling public. 3d

HEADACKE SPOILS EYES

"Why on earth do you women wear white veils when motoring?" said the old physician, irritably. "Nothing on earth is so bad for the eyes. Don't you know how the glare of the sun on a white sandy road, or the snow, hurts your eyes? A white veil is the same in principle."

"But nothing else looks well with a white costume," objected the woman in white. "And a white veil is so dainty—"

"Dainty!" snorted the old physician, "Very dainty they look after a ride through dust. And although it gives you nervous headache and spoils your eyes! No, no. Leave the white veil to the lady motorist in the musical comedy, and choose a sensible green veil, which is good for the eyes, and can be pretty and becoming, if you choose the right shade."

OBITUARY

The death occurred in Ennismore yesterday of Mrs. Wm. Crough, after a lengthy illness from rheumatism. The deceased was 71 years of age and was born in Emily. Her maiden name was Ellen Scollard. She was widely known and highly respected.

Besides her husband three sons are left to mourn her loss. The sons are Messrs. William, Daniel and Michael, all residing in Ennismore.

The funeral will take place to-morrow Morning at 10 o'clock to St. Martin's Church, and thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery.

WEDDING BELLS

HUNTER—MORRISON.

At St. Justine Station, Que., this afternoon, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Morrison, the marriage took place of Miss Rodena S. Morrison, formerly of this city, to Mr. George Warren Hunter, of Toronto. The bride was unattended, and wore a pretty dress of cream voile over taffeta with bouquet of bridal roses. After the wedding dejeuner, the happy couple left for Montreal and New York before taking up residence in Toronto. The bride's going away dress was of navy blue cloth with hat to match.

The groom is a brother of Mrs. J. A. Dickson, Rogers street, Ashburnham.

GROCER FINED TWO DOLLARS

For Purchasing on the Market Before Ten o'clock Saturday Morning

Mr. Frank Hamilton, of the W. H. Hamilton Co., grocers, appeared before Magistrate Dumble this morning charged with purchasing ducks on the market last Saturday morning before 10 o'clock. Mr. Hamilton pleaded guilty, but explained that it was simply to oblige a couple of customers that the purchases were made. A lady telephoned the shop and asked Mr. Hamilton to purchase the fowl, as she was unable to get down town.

Chief Rowsel remarked that it was just about ten minutes to ten when he saw Mr. Hamilton coming up from the market with four or five ducks.

His Worship imposed a fine of $3 for the offence.

Prof. Warner Can't Lecture in Peterboro' 17th—Has Had Attack of Typhoid

Prof. Warner, of Cleveland, O., inventor of the world famous telescopes, who was to visit Peterborough on the 17th of October under the auspices of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, is convalescent from an attack of typhoid fever, and asks that his engagement in Peterborough be deferred for a few weeks.

The Peterborough public will not be disappointed, however, as Prof. Warner is sure to be here.

HALLOWE'EN ON SATURDAY

Next Saturday is Hallowe'en, the time when the ubiquitous small boy unbridles himself, and gates and vehicles disappear as if by magic.

In other years damage had been done to property in the city, and the authorities intend to see that no vandalism is committed next Saturday evening. Those interested should govern themselves accordingly.

SHOULD HAVE RECEPTION ROOMS

At Lodging and Rooming Houses for Young Girls in Cities

"I have spoken plainly, perhaps you think too plainly from a pulpit; but I would rather dig dirt than muffle my convictions," declared Rev. Dr. Perry, of Jarvis Baptist church at the close of an outspoken sermon on "Dangers in the city for young women away from home."

"One of the gravest dangers," stated the preacher, "is the large number of rooming houses in Toronto where there is no reception room where the young ladies may receive their callers. I am told that there are numbers of such places, houses above reproach. The result is, the young girl away from home must receive her caller in her parlor-bedroom, or else in the hall the verandah or on the street."

At this point Dr. Perry read a letter from a woman philanthropist of the city who felt very strongly on this question. The letter pointed out how inevitably the girl's sense of decency was deadened by being compelled to use her parlor-bedroom as a reception room.

"Do you know," exclaimed the minister, "I believe that the city should require that in every rooming house where young ladies are staying there should be a reception room for their use.

"There are, according to a conservative estimate, 40,000 wage earning women in the city. Of these, 10,000 are away from home. In the factories and such concerns are 30,000 and 10,000 in the stores and offices." Why do so many come to the city. Throughout the homes of this continent a restless movement citywards has developed. Some girls leave home, driven by misfortune, some to enjoy the advantages the city offers in music and education. Some are tired of home restraints and come to the city 'We'll have our own way, and have our own way.' Numbers come for the gaiety of the city to lead a free life.

"Many useful qualities may be added by the business girl, such as promptness, self-reliance, self-denial, bravery and orderliness; I believe the majority pass through the dangers of the city unscathed.

"The danger from a small income is great. It must be almost impossible to live on some of the incomes paid, $4 and $5, or even the higher wages of $6 and $9. The appetite for amusement must be gratified somewhere and they go to the cheap theatres. These would have to close down in a few weeks, a factory manager told me, without the support of the poorly-paid young women."

The danger of answering promiscuous advertisements for board was also alluded to.—Toronto News.

NEW MODELS in KABO CORSETS NOW ON DISPLAY AT THIS STORE

KABO STYLE 888

During the next ten days we shall have displayed upon forms in our Corset Department the very latest Models in the Celebrated Kabo Corsets.

The Styles this Fall require a more or less re-moulding of the figure. The slender figure is the thing. If your figure is not naturally slender, you should choose a CORSET which will make it appear so. This you can easily do without detriment to your health or comfort if you select a KABO MODEL.

The wrong Corset was always disastrous, but with the styles this season an improper selection would be fatal. The Corset is really the foundation of the gown, for on its correctness depends your stylish appearance.

KABO CORSETS Are Absolutely CORRECTLY STYLED

The models now on display are the very latest and most fashionable that have been produced. But the greatest reputation of the KABO isn't founded merely upon style—they are also famous for comfort. Comfortable, stylish and MODERATELY PRICED.

YOU WILL DO WELL TO FILL YOUR CORSET NEEDS HERE

SPORTING NEWS

QUITE AN INTERESTING CASE ARISING OUT OF PROTEST

Quite an interesting complication has arisen in the case of Walter G., the horse against which a protest was entered at the summer meet of the Peterborough Turf Club by Dr. Leach, owner of Holland Boy and Gerald Dinsford, manager of Hazel Belle; Mr. Hodgins, of Orillia, owner of the horse which is suspected of being Little Hector, took a declaration to the effect that the horse was racing under its true name but did not prove its identification in the thirty days allowed for him to do so. The National Trotting Association has placed the matter in the hands of the Peterborough Turf Club and Dr. Johnson informed the Review that he does not see anything to do but to impose the measures within their power.

If the protest is upheld, and from all indications it will be, Dr Leach will sue the West Peterborough Agricultural Society for the money due him and which was paid to the owner of Walter G. while the protest was against him and should it be found that the protested horse was being campaigned under a wrong name, the owner is in danger of a charge of obtaining money under false pretences being laid against him.

BEELL WILL BE NEXT OPPONENT OF THE GREAT WESTERGAARDE

Fred. Beell, ex-heavyweight champion, will be the next wrestler to face Westergaarde, the pair being matched for Sohmer Park for next Friday night. The match will bring together wrestlers of entirely different physique, Beell being only 5 feet 3, while Westergaarde stands 6 feet 2 inches in height. There will also be a difference of about 65 lbs. in weight. Beell, however, has successfully gone up against the biggest and best men in the game, winning through his remarkable speed.

Raoul de Rouen, now on his way to Montreal, is expected to arrive in New York from Buenos Ayres, on November 6th.

Westergaard has received much praise for his clever defeat of Fritz Mehl at Sohmer Park on Friday night. A match may be arranged between him and Young Hackensmidt. Westergaarde is anxious to meet Hackensmidt and wants to wipe out the defeat he met at the latter's hands when they wrestled before. Westergaarde is one of the best heavyweights in the arena, but it is not thought that he would have much of a chance of defeating Hack. The latter, it would seem, would be too strong and a shade too scientific for the fast Westergaarde.—Montreal Gazette.

THE LINDSAY WARDER ON THE Y.M.C.A.—LINDSAY GAME

The Lindsay Warder says the following about the rugby match between Y.M.C.A. and Lindsay last Saturday:—

A special train, which left Lindsay at two o'clock, conveyed the team and their followers to Peterborough. There were about sixty supporters and the return trip was a joyous one.

Cotton's work in "booting" the pigskin was easily the feature of the game. It was "Dukey" who drove the ball between the goal posts twice with drop kicks from the field, one kick being made from the thirty-five yard line. He also kicked the ball over for a rouge.

A husky lad with the Celtic appellation of Kelly was the mainstay of the Peterborough team. He played centre half and had a "hefty boot" when it came to kicking the ball. However, Kelly didn't have the drop kick which Cotton possesses, and his belligerent tactics were the cause of his banishment to the lines on several occasions, he being the only man put off during the game. Kelly's chief offence was deliberate "scragging."

Peterborough's try was a flukey one at that, but flukes count just as good as hard-earned ones. It happened thus: The ball was kicked over the Lindsay line and Cotton caught it to kick it back. The pigskin was greasy with the wet, however, and it slipped from his hands. He tried to fall on it, but the elusive oval rolled away. Then Watson made a grab for it, but likewise missed, and a Peterborough man reached out his bread hook and the deed was done.

There was a goodly crowd at the game and excitement ran high, especially in the last three minutes, when the home team came nearer to scoring another try and winning the game.

As a curtain-raiser two city league teams, the Collegiate Institute and the Junior T.A.S., furnished the fun, the school boys winning by a wide margin.

Then commenced the real game of the afternoon. Both teams came on the field seemingly in good shape, and apparently evenly matched in weight, the Peterborough boys being a shade heavier if anything. Both teams started in aggressively and the play varied from one end of the field to the other, until by a couple of bad fumbles by local men, the home team scored a try, which they failed to convert. This awakened the mettle of the Lindsay boys and the play was evenly divided until the second half.

The visiting team forced the play from the start to the second half, and before fifteen minutes were up had evened the score, a rouge and a drop kick from the field doing the trick. Early in the last quarter another drop-kick that sailed fairly between the goal posts raised a cheer from the ranks of the Lindsay rooters. With three minutes to play Coulter made a foul and the ball was brought back to within ten yards of the Lindsay line. Another Lindsay offside, which brought the ball back an additional five yards, nearly gave the Lindsay backers heart failure, while the Peterborough crowd roared with delight. Kelley couldn't get his men over the solid line, however, and apparently hadn't the ability or the nerve to place a drop kick so finally, he kicked for a rouge, Cotton holding the ball on his mark. Thus ended the game.

FRED SIMPSON RAN FAST TEN

Fred Simpson, the Peterborough Indian, who is now an Irish-Canadian was the only other contender for second place. He was second after the sixth mile, and to the tenth laid within reach of Longboat. Then Wood and Holmer pulled up again, and hot on their trail came Percy Sellen, of the Irish-Canadians.

Simpson ran the fastest ten miles he ever ran, and then weakened. At that he gave Sellen an awful fight before he relinquished his place to either Homer, or Wood, or Sellen. At the 13 mile mark he was fifth, but he went all to pieces on the final mile, and finished sixth.

SIMPSON SPEAKS.

Fred Simpson, the Indian runner from Peterborough, said: "The crowd at the finish was quite as large as that near the Stadium at the time of the Olympic Marathon race.

"I have had lots of pleasure out of my trip here, and I shall always remember the Star race of 1908."

RUNNING

Montreal, Oct. 26—The report that the Irish-Canadian team of Toronto won the team trophy in the fifteen-mile road race on Saturday was erroneous the coveted prize going to the Halifax runners. The rule was the first four men in of a team of five should win it. The Halifax men got Holmer second, Rogers fifth, Lennerton tenth and Downey fifteenth, while Wolfe, the last man on the team, finished twenty-first, which although it did not affect the result, was a good showing, in such a large field. The Irish-Canadians secured first, fourth, ninth and sixteenth, the fourth man of the Halifax team getting in ahead of the fourth Irish-Canadian.

The reason Halifax got the fifteen-mile road race team trophy was because the claim that Simpson, the Peterborough Indian, was a member of the Irish-Canadians was disallowed by the judges. Simpson is a member of that team, but entered in the race individually, and could not, therefore be counted a member of the team. Had the claim been allowed, it would have been the Irish-Canadians' cup.

The Halifax score was 32; Irish-Canadians 35; Hamilton 69; Gordons of Montreal, 74; West End YMCA, Toronto 75.

The other teams were "nowhere."

THINKS SHRUBB WOULD BEAT LONGBOAT HANDILY

A prominent follower of athletes who is familiar with the ability of both Longboat and Shrubb, was asked by the Review how he thought the men shaped up in comparison. The gentleman in question is well qualified to express an opinion, as he has seen both men perform on different occasions and has himself long been identifeid with the handling and training of athletes.

"Longboat wouldn't have a chance against Shrubb," he stated. "The latter has made time which the Indian, fast as he is, can never equal. In fifteen miles Shrubb would beat Longboat by a big margin. What I am saying is not merely unfounded talk but good hard facts. I have seen both men run and will be borne out in my opinion by competent and impartial judges. Longboat is undoubtedly a magnificent runner, but Shrubb is his superior."

HACKENSCHMIDT WILL LEAVE THIS EVENING

For Peterborough—Has Returned From New York to Montreal

Mr. Chris Graham received the following telegram this afternoon from George Kennedy, of Sohmer Park, Montreal:—

Montreal.
27th Oct., 1908.
Chris Graham,
Oriental Hotel:
Hack arrived this morning from New York, leaving for Peterborough to-night by C.P.R.
KENNEDY.

SPORTING TALK

By the fine showing he made in the Montreal Star race up to the last two miles, Fred Simpson showed that he certainly "has it in him," as Dick Baker says.

RUNNING

Montreal, Oct. 26.—Shrubb has issued the following challenge to Longboat: "I hereby challenge Mr. Tom Longboat to a series of three races at ten, twelve or fifteen miles, or such other distances as may be agreed upon, and I back myself to any amount agreed upon to beat him in at least two out of three of the races."

BASKETBALL

Two good basket ball games will be played tonight at the YMCA, between Maple Leafs and Rustlers, and Turners and Tigers.

Two good games are expected. Everyone invited. Game commences at nine o'clock sharp.

RUGBY

All YMCA senior rugby men turn out for signal practice tonight at the YMCA at 7.15. The practice practice will be immediately followed by a run.

They caught the master unawares and bore him to the deck. I dropped at once to the ratlines and commenced my descent. Before I had reached the deck, however, Selover was afoot again, the four hanging to him like dogs. In a moment more he had shaken them off, and before I could intervene he had seized a belaying pin in either hand and was hazing them up and down the deck.

"Mutiny, would you?" he shrilled. "You poor swabs! Forgot who was your captain, did ye? Well, it's Captain Ezra Selover, and you can lay to that! It would need about eight fathom of stuff like you to tie me down."

He chased them forward, and he chased them aft, and every time the pins fell blood followed. Finally they dived like rabbits into the forecastle hatch. Captain Selover leaned down after them.

"Now tie yourselves up," he advised, "and then come on deck and clean up after yourselves!" He turned to me. "Mr. Eagen, turn out the crew to clean decks."

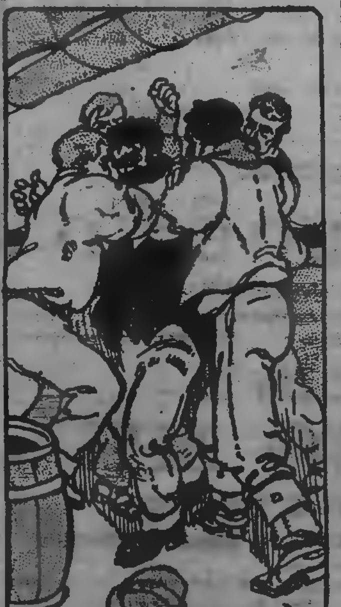
I descended to the forecastle, followed immediately by Handy Solomon. The latter had taken no part in the affair. We found the men in horrible shape, what with the bruises and cuts, and bleeding freely.

"Now, you're a nice looking Sunday school!" observed Handy Solomon, eying them sardonically. "Tackle Old Scrubs, will ye? Well, some needs a bale of cotton to fall on 'em afore they learns anything. Enjoyed your little diversions, mates? And w'at do you expect to gain? I asks you that now. You poor little infants! Ain't you never tackled him afore? Don't remember a little brigantine, name of the Petrel! My eye, but you are a pack of fools!"

To this he received no reply. The men sullenly assisted each other. Then they went immediately on deck and to work.

After this taste of his quality Captain Selover enjoyed a quiet ship. We made good time, but for a long while nothing happened. Finally the monotony was broken by an incident.

One evening before the night winds I sat in the shadow of the extra dory on top of the deckhouse. The moon was but just beyond the full, so I suppose I must have been practically invisible. Certainly the nigger did not know of my presence, for he came and stood within three feet of me without giving any sign. The companion was open. In a moment some door below was opened also, and a scrap of conversation came up to us very clearly.



Selover was afoot again, the four hanging to him like dogs.

"You haf dem finished?" the doctor's voice inquired. "So, that iss well." Papers rustled for a few moments. "And the r-result—ah—exactly—it iss that exactly. Percy, mein son, that maigs the experiment exact. We haf the process"—

"I don't see, sir, quite," replied the voice of Percy Darrow, with a tinge of excitement. "I can follow the logic of the experiment, of course; so can I follow the logic of a trip to the moon. But when you come to apply it how do you get your re-agent? There's no known method"—

Dr. Schermerhorn broke in: "Ach, it iss that I haf perfected. Pardon me, my boy; it iss the first I haf worked from you apart. It iss for a surprise. I haf made in small quantities the missing ingredient. It will form a perfect interruption to the current. Now we go"—

"Do you mean to say," almost shouted Darrow, "that you have succeeded in freeing it in the metal?"

"Yes," replied the doctor simply.

I could hear a chair overturned.

"Why, with that you can"—

"I can do efferything," broke in the doctor. "The possibilities are enormous."

"And you can really produce it in quantity?"

"I think so. It iss for us to discover."

A pause ensued.

"Why!" came the voice of Percy Darrow, awestricken. "With fifty centigrams only you could—you could transmute any substance—why, you could make anything you pleased almost! You could make enough diamonds to fill that chest! It is the philosopher's stone!"

"Diamonds—yes—it is possible," interrupted the doctor impatiently, "if it was worth while. But you should see the real importance"—

The ship careened to a chance swell. A door slammed. The voices were cut off. I looked up. The nigger's head was thrust forward fairly into the glow from the companionway. The mask of his sullenness had fallen. His eyes fairly rolled in excitement. His thick lips were drawn back to expose his teeth. His powerful figure was gathered with the tensity of a bow. When the door slammed he turned silently to glide away. At that instant the watch was changed, and in a moment I found myself in my bunk.

Ten seconds later the nigger, detained by Captain Selover for some trifling duty, burst into the forecastle. He was possessed of the wildest excitement. This in itself was enough to gain the attention of the men, but his first words were startling.

"I found de treasure!" he almost shouted. "I know where he kept!"

They leaped at him—Handy Solomon and Pulz—and fairly shook out of him what he thought he knew. He babbled in the forgotten terms of alchemy, dressing modern facts in the garments of mediæval thought until they were scarcely to be recognized.

"And so he say dat he fine him, de philosopher stone, and he keep him in dat heavy box we see him carry aboard, and he don' have to make gol' with it—he can make diamon's—diamon's—he say it too easy to fill dat box plum full of diamon's."

They gesticulated and exclaimed and breathed hard, full of the marvel of such a thought. Then abruptly the clamor died to nothing. I felt six eyes bent on me, six unwinking eyes moving restless in motionless figures, suspicious, deadly as cobras.

Up to now my standing with the men had been well enough. Now they drew frankly apart. One of the most significant indications of this was the increased respect they paid my office. It was as though by prompt obedience, instant deference and the emphasizing of ship's etiquette they intended to draw sharply the line between themselves and me. There was much whispering apart, many private talks and consultations in which I had no part. Ordinarily they talked freely enough before me. Even the reading during the dog watch was intermitted—at least it was on such days as I happened to be in the watch below. But twice I caught the nigger and Handy Solomon consulting together over the volume on alchemy.

I was in two minds whether to report the whole matter to Captain Selover. The only thing that restrained me was the vagueness of the intention and the fact that the afterguard was armed and was four to the crew's five. An incident, however, decided me. One evening I was awakened by a sound of violent voices. Captain Selover occasionally juggled the watches for variety's sake, and I now had Handy Solomon and Perdosa. The nigger, being cook, stood no watch.

"You drunken greaser swab!" snarled Handy Solomon. "You son of a Yaqui! I'll learn you to step on a seaman's foot, and you can kiss the book on that! I'll cut your heart out and feed it to the sharks!"

"Potha!" sneered Perdosa. "You cut heem you finger wid your knife."

They wrangled. At first I thought the quarrel genuine, but after a moment or so I could not avoid a sort of reminiscent impression of the cheap melodrama. It seemed incredible, but soon I could not dodge the conclusion that it was a makeup quarrel designed to impress me.

Why should they desire to do so? I had to give it up, but the fact itself was obvious enough. I laughed to see them. The affair did not come to blows, but it did come to black looks on meeting, muttered oaths, growls of enmity every time they happened to pass each other on the deck. Perdosa was not so bad. His Mexican blood inclined him to the histrionic, and his Mexican cast lent itself well to evil looks. But Handy Solomon for the first time in my acquaintance with him was ridiculous.

About this time we crossed into frequent thunders. One evening just at dark we made out a heavy black squall. Not knowing exactly what weight lay behind it, I called up all hands. We ducked the staysail and foresail, lowered the peak of the mainsail and waited to feel of it, a rough and ready seamanship often used in these little California wind jammers. I was pretty busy, but I heard distinctly Handy Solomon's voice behind me:

"I'll kill you sure, you greaser, as soon as my hands are free!"

And some muttered reply from the Mexican.

The wind hit us hard, held on a few moments and moderated to a stiff puff. There followed the rain, so of course I knew it would amount to nothing. I was just stooping to throw the stops off the staysail when I felt myself seized from behind and forced rapidly toward the side of the ship.

Of course I struggled. The Japanese have a little trick to fool a man who catches you around the waist from behind. It is part of the jiu jitsu taught the Samurai, quite a different proposition from the ordinary "policeman jiu jitsu." I picked it up from a friend in the nobility. It came in very handy now, and by good luck a roll of the ship helped me. In a moment I stood free, and Perdosa was picking himself out of the scuppers.

The expression of astonishment was fairly well done—I will say that for him—but I was prepared for histrionics.

"Senor!" he gasped. "Eet is you! Sacrosanta Maria! I thought you was dat Solomon! Pardon me, senor! Pardon! Have I hurt you?"

He approached me almost wheedling. I could have laughed at the villain. It was all so transparent. He no more mistook me for Handy Solomon then he felt any real enmity for that person. But, being angry and perhaps a little scared, I beat him to his quarters with a belaying pin.

On thinking the matter over, however, I failed to see all the ins and outs of it. I could understand a desire to get rid of me. There would be one less of the afterguard, and then, too, I knew too much of the men's sentiments if not of their plans. But why all this elaborate farce of the mock quarrel and the alleged mistake? Could it be to guard against possible failure? I could hardly think it worth while. My only theory was that they had wished to test my strength and determination. The whole affair, even on that supposition, was childish enough, but I referred the exaggerated cunning to Handy Solomon and considered it quite adequately explained. It is a minor point, but subsequently I learned that this surmise was correct. I was to be saved because none of the conspirators understood navigation.

The next morning I approached Captain Selover.

"Captain," said I, "I think it my duty to report that there is trouble brewing among the crew."

"There always is," he replied, unmoved.

"But this is serious. Dr. Schermerhorn came aboard with a chest which the men think hold treasure. The other evening Robinson overheard him tell his assistant that he could easily fill the box with diamonds. Of course he was merely illustrating the value of some scientific experiment, but Robinson thinks and has made the others think that the chest contains something to make diamonds with. I am sure they intend to get hold of it. The affair is coming to a head."

Captain Selover listened almost indifferently.

"I came back from the islands last year," he piped, "with $300,000 worth of pearls. There was sixteen in the crew, and every man of them was blood hungry for them pearls. They had three or four shindies and killed one man over the proper way to divide the loot after they had got it. They didn't get it. Why?" He drew his powerful figure to its height and spread his thick arms out in the luxury of stretching. "Why?" he repeated, exhaling abruptly. "Because their captain was Ezra Selover. Well, Mr. Eagen," he went on crisply, "Captain Ezra Selover is their captain, and they know it. They'll talk and palaver and git into dark corners and sharpen their knives and perhaps fight it out as to which one's going to work the monkey doodle business in the doctor's chest and which one's going to tie up the sacks of them diamonds, but they won't git any farther as long as Captain Ezra is on deck."

"Yes," I objected, "but they mean business. Last night in the squall one of them tried to throw me overboard."

Captain Selover grinned.

"What did you do?" he asked.

"Hazed him to his quarters with a belaying pin."

"Well, that's all settled then, isn't it? What more do you want?"

I stood undecided.

"I can take care of myself," he went on. "You ought to take care of yourself. Then there's nothing more to do."

He mused a moment.

"You have a gun, of course?" he inquired. "I forgot to ask."

"No," said I.

He whistled.

"Well, no wonder you feel sort of lost and hopeless. Here, take this; it'll make a man of you."

He gave me a Colt's 45, the barrel of which had been filed down to about two inches of length. It was a most extraordinary weapon, but effective at short range.

"Here's a few loose cartridges," said he. "Now, go easy. This is no warship, and we ain't got men to experiment on. Lick 'em with your fists or a pin if you can, and if you do shoot just wing 'em a little. They're awful good lads, but a little restless."

I took the gun and felt better. With it I could easily handle the members of my own watch, and I did not doubt that with the assistance of Percy Darrow even a surprise would hardly overwhelm us. I did not count on Dr. Schermerhorn. He was quite capable of losing himself in a problem of trajectory after the first shot.

CHAPTER XIII.

I CAME on deck one morning at about 4 bells to find the entire ship's company afoot. Even the doctor was there. Everybody was gazing eagerly at a narrow, mountainous island lying slate colored across the early morning.

We were as yet some twenty miles distant from it and could make out nothing but its general outline. The latter was sharply defined, rising and falling to a highest point one side of the middle. Over the island and raggedly clasping its sides hung a cloud, the only one visible in the sky.

I joined the afterguard.

"You see?" the doctor was exclaiming. "It iss as I haf said. The island iss there. Everything iss as it should be!" He was quite excited.

Percy Darrow, too, was shaken out of his ordinary calm.

"The volcano is active," was his only comment, but it explained the ragged cloud.

"You say there's a harbor?" inquired Captain Selover.

"It should be on the west end," said Dr. Schermerhorn.

Captain Selover drew me one side. He, too, was a little aroused.

"Now, wouldn't that get you?" he squeaked. "Doctor runs up against a Norwegian bum who tells him about a volcanic island and gives its bearings. The island ain't on the map at all. Doctor believes it and makes me lay my course for those bearings. And here's the island! So the bum's story was true. I'd like to know what the rest of it was." His eyes were shining.

"Do we anchor or stand off and on?" I asked.

Captain Selover turned to grip me by the shoulder.

"I have orders from Darrow to get to a good berth, to land, to build shore quarters and to snug down for a stay of a year at least."

We stared at each other.

"Joyous prospect," I muttered. "Hope there's something to do there."

The morning wore, and we rapidly approached the island. It proved to be utterly precipitous. The high rounded hills sloped easily to within a hundred feet or so of the water and then fell away abruptly. Where the earth ended was a fantastic filigree border, like the fancy paper with which our mothers used to line the pantry shelves. Below the white surges flung themselves against the cliffs with a wild abandon. Thousands of sea birds wheeled in the eddies of the wind, thousands of ravens perched on the slopes. With our glasses we could make out the heads of seals fishing outside the surf and a ragged belt of kelp.

When within a mile we put the helm up and ran for the west end. A bold point we avoided far out lest there should be outlying ledges. Then we came in sight of a broad beach and pounding surf.

I was ordered to take a surf boat and investigate for a landing and an anchorage. The swell was running high. We rowed back and forth, puzzled as to how to get ashore with all the freight it would be necessary to land. The ship would lie well enough, for the only open exposure was broken by a long reef over which we could make out the seas tumbling. But inshore the great waves rolled smoothly, swiftly, then suddenly fell forward as over a ledge and spread with a roar across the yellow sands. The fresh winds blew the spume back to us. We conversed in shouts.

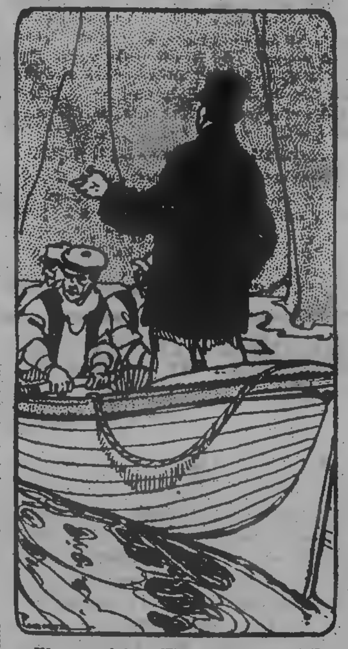
"We can surf the boat," yelled Thrackles, "but we can't land a load."

That was my opinion. We rowed slowly along, parallel to the shore and just outside the line of breakers.

I don't know exactly how to tell you the manner in which we became aware of the cove. It was as nearly the instantaneous as can be imagined. One minute I looked ahead on a cliff as unbroken as the side of a cabin; the very next I peered down the length of a cove fifty fathoms long by about ten wide, at the end of which was a gravel beach. I cried out sharply to the men. They were quite as much astonished as I. We backed water, watching closely. At a given point the cove and all trace of its entrance disappeared. We could only just make out the line where the headlands dissolved into the background of the cliffs and that merely because we knew of its existence. The blending was perfect.

We rowed in. The water was still. A faint ebb and flow whispered against the tiny gravel beach at the end. I noted a practicable way from it to the top of the cliff and from the cliff down again to the sand beach. Everything was perfect. The water was a beautiful light green, like semiopaque glass, and from the indistinctness of its depths waved and beckoned, rose and disappeared with indescribable grace and deliberation long feathery sea growths. In a moment the bottom abruptly shallowed. The motion of the boat toward the beach permitted us to catch a hasty glimpse of little fish darting, of big fish turning, of yellow sand and some vivid color. Then came the grate of gravel and the scraping of the boat's bottom on the beach.

We jumped ashore eagerly. I left the men very reluctant and ascended a natural trail to a high sloping down over which blew the great trades. Grass sprung knee high. A low hill rose at the back. From below the fall of the cliff came the pounding of surf.



We rowed in. The water was still.

To Be Continued.

THE FRUITS OF THE EARTH

Seem To Be Nature's Provision For Keeping Man Healthy and Warding Off Disease.

Cereals, vegetables and meat supply the elements needed for man's nourishment. Yet fruit — though it has very little food value—has proved to be absolutely necessary for perfect health.

Careful investigation has shown that all the common fruits act on the Liver, Kidneys, Bowels and Skin. These are the organs that rid the body of dead tissue and waste products, and the fruit juices stir them up to more vigorous action, thus keeping the whole body clean and healthy.

But few people eat enough fruit. Realizing this, after several years of experimenting, a prominent Canadian physician succeeded in combining the juices of apples, oranges, figs and prunes in such a way that the medicinal action is many times multiplied. Then he added valuable tonics and made the combination into tablets called "Fruit-a-tives." They are really Nature's cure for Constipation, Indigestion, Biliousness and Stomach Troubles. Mild as Nature itself — but more prompt and effective. Sold by dealers at 50c. a box—6 boxes for $2.50—trial size box 25c. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

CAUSE FOR ALARM

Epidemic Influenza, Grippe, Catarrhal Troubles, Pneumonia Increasing

A marked increase in troubles of the breathing organs is noted in many localities. If you will only have Hyomei at hand to use with the first attack of cold in the head, pneumonia, colds, bronchitis, hoarseness, sore throat, croup, in fact any respiratory affection, the trouble will be quickly overcome.

If the attack is neglected and becomes severe, speedy relief will come in most cases and a persistent use of Hyomei will cure.

The directions for using it vary, but the principal is always the same that of destroying all the germs in the air passages with dry medication from the Pine and Eucalyptus forests.

Remember that liquids or moisture is barred from the bronchial tubes and lungs. It's the dry air of Hyomei that reaches the spot. W. Madill, corner of Hunter and George streets, Peterborough, guarantees it complete outfit $1.

BRAKEMAN FELL AND HAD BOTH LEGS CUT OFF BY TRAIN

Terrible Accident to John A. McDermott at Myrtle Yesterday—His Remarkable Pluck—Tied One of His Legs With Boot Lace to Stop Flow of Blood.

Myrtle, Oct. 26.—With both legs cut off by a train, conscious, yet game, in the face of the agony he was suffering, John A. McDermott, a C. P. R. brakeman, who lives at 180 Dundas street east, West Toronto, was brought into the Union Station this morning on the 7.30 train from the east. McDermott had been run over by a train of twenty cars at a siding about five miles east of Myrtle at 4.30 o'clock. The story of the accident shows remarkable pluck and presence of mind on the part of the unfortunate brakeman.

DARKNESS AND FOG.

McDermott was one of two brakemen on the C. P. R. freight train which left Toronto at midnight. When the siding at Myrtle was reached the darkness and fog combined to make almost all attempts at signalling very difficult. J. H. Leggett, the other brakeman, was at the front of the train, which was made up of twenty-five cars in charge of Conductor Barney Laroche. When the train was backing into the siding McDermott was in the caboose. Not being able to distinguish the signals given from the front of the train he walked back four cars. Then in some way he fell down in the darkness between the fourth and fifth car from the rear, and the twenty-one remaining cars and engine passed over him, severing his legs below the knees. The train passed on. The noise and jarring of the cars drowned the cries for help and he was left alone in the darkness with his legs cut off.

DRAGGED HIS MANGLED LIMBS.

Fearing that another train should come along, McDermott wormed his way across two sets of tracks and up an embankment to a spur fifty feet distant, dragging his mangled and bleeding stumps behind him. The lower portions of his limbs were still fastened by some of the muscles, so McDermott reached down and took one shoe off, and removing the lace from it, bound it around one leg as tightly as he was able in his weakened condition to stop the bleeding, and was in the act of using the other lace when the search party from the train heard his groans and thus located him.

Everything that was possible was done for him, but it was necessary to remove him to the city to a surgeon. The Montreal train was flagged and McDermott was placed aboard. Leggett, his mate, accompanied him to Toronto. The train was met by the police ambulance, in which he was removed to the Western Hospital.

It was Leggett who missed him when the train came to a stop on the siding, and who heard his feeble cries for help which aided the search.

REMOVED FROM FERGUS

McDermott is about thirty years of age and had been engaged at his work as brakeman for about a year. He has been married for five years and has two sons of three years and fourteen months respectively. Only a week ago the little family moved down to West Toronto from Fergus, Ont. The furniture is still partly packed. Previous to living at Fergus McDermott worked on his father's farm at Living Springs.

Mrs. McDermott received a telegram about 7.30 this morning telling her of the accident and stating that her husband was being brought to the city. Not knowing to which hospital he would be brought she rushed to St. Michael's, only to find that he had been taken to the Western Hospital. The meeting was pathetic. The injured man was rapidly growing weaker from the loss of blood and was still conscious enough to speak to his wife and ask about the children. He did not remember how he came to fall, but thinks he tripped on the platform.

BROKE WINDOWS OF HOUSE; $100 REWARD IS OFFERED

Some contemptible rowdy or rowdies busied themselves early this morning by throwing a big stone through the front door and inner front door of the residence of County P. M. Edmison, Rubidge street, and also breaking two panes of glass in the front parlor window. The stone that was hurled through the large panes in the doors rolled down the hall into the kitchen, and the noise awoke the occupants of the house. The offence was committed at 3 o'clock this morning, and the police were summoned, P. C. Adams responding.

The authorities now have the matter in hand, and Chief Roszel has handed the following statement to the press:

I am authorized to offer and will give a reward of one hundred dollars for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person who threw a stone through the glass in the door of the residence of George Edmison, Esquire, on Rubidge street, at an early hour on the morning of October 27th, 1908. —Geo. I. Roszel, Chief Constable.

YOUNG MAN HELD UP IN WEST END OF THE CITY

William McIntee, a young man residing in the west end of the city, reported to-day that when returning to his home last evening he was was the victim of a hold-up. He said that it was in the vicinity of the Separate School. Two rough fellows, shabbbily dressed, accosted him, first inquiring as to the result of the election, and then asking what time of night it was.

When they saw that the young man had a watch they rushed at him and tried to get it away from him, but after a desperate struggle McIntee got away and ran for home. The ruffians did not pursue the young man.

It is thought that they were the same parties who threw the stone through Magistrate Edmison's door.

WORMS OFTEN DAMAGE CORK

And Wine in Bottles Becomes Bad as Result

"To the average person a cork is a cork," said a well-known restaurant man the other day. "But smell this cordial. Would you believe it?" and he held up a bottle supposed to have the bouquets of cherries all the way from the blossom to the pit. The odor was musty and altogether unpleasant; in fact, it was decidedly bad. He continued;—

"Now, the man paying 20 cents for his tiny glass of cordial after dinner is entitled to have it free from imperfections. If he bought a bottle of wine with that flavor he would say the wine was bad, for ninety men out of a hundred know nothing about bad corks. He would want another bottle of wine or his money refunded, and he would be right.

"The deceit is in a tiny worm in the cork that is often invisible to the man cutting corks, and sometimes cannot be seen after the cork is drawn. A customer will taste the wine and say 'Bad wine.' You explain about the cork and and he will say, 'Impossible; that was a beautiful cork, beautiful.' And yet we know that the contents of the bottle never could have that flavor under other conditions.

"I tell you there are millions of dollars waiting for the man who can invent a perfect cork that will stand the test of years for flavor and preserving qualities. If it could be proved that his invention was perfect he would make millions in a month."—New York Herald.

Accuracy Quality and Price

Are three prime considerations in eye glasses. In price we please our patrons, and this is an important factor in our increase of business. We supply glasses from one dollar up, according to requirement of the eyes. And all our kinds of lenses, qualities of frames are of unsurpassed value. In quality of material, style, workmanship we speak with confidence of the eye glasses and spectacles, which we are daily supplying. Accuracy in focal powers best suited to the special requirements of each individual eye, is of course, of first importance, each case receives our undivided attention. In Accuracy, Quality and Price we are pleasing our patrons.

SAW BIG BEAR ON THE ROAD

Unique Experience of Manvers Farmer Driving to Lindsay

Saturday evening about 4 o'clock a Manvers farmer while driving to Lindsay had the unusual experience of seeing a black bear cross the road in front of him near Clabo station.

He was driving along leisurely in his buggy and fancied he thought he heard rifle shots in the neighboring woods. He concluded that it was the work of small boys on a squirrel hunt. Imagine his surprise, however, when Mr Bruin emerged from the woods and crossed the road in front of him on a brisk trot. His horse became unmanageable and threatened to run away being frightened at the appearance of the bear on the scene. Having no firearms the Manverine could do nothing but allow Bruin to go his way unmolested. He met two men on the road near the station and told them of his experience. They promised to get down their trusty rifle and give chase, but as darkness was setting in, it is not likely that they disturbed the shaggy visitor.

It was rumored on Sunday that the bear had not been shot but the report could not be verified.—Lindsay Post.

LORD MILNER VISITED LINDSAY

Was the Guest of Col. Hughes on Saturday

Lord Milner, the distinguished African War Lord, was the guest of Col Hughes for a few hours on Saturday. He arrived in town on Earl Grey's private car and was met at the CPR station by a number of prominent citizens. The visiting peer expressed himself as well pleased with his visit to Canada and his reception by Canadians. He earned merited glory in the war in South Africa and there he and Col. Hughes were warm friends. Not only is Viscount Milner a great soldier but also an accomplished statesman and his visit to Canada, it is said will have a vital bearing on the future history of the British dominions. —Lindsay Warder.

FELL FORWARD INTO THE MUD

An incident that afforded much amusement to the passersby, but one that to say the least caused quite a bit of embarrassment to the party uncomfortably concerned, occurred this morning on Hunter street. A man was walking along the pavement when he slipped and fell face forward off the sidewalk and into the mud.

He was under the influence of liquor and was a sorry sight when he got up against it. The laughter of those nearby didn't tend to make his language by any means mild.

SUITS MADE IN FOUR DAYS

Semi-ready Company Tailor Suits to Measure for Special Order

To supplement their system and to prove their physique type method of designing, the Semi-ready Company tailor suits to special order in four days at their factory. The measurements are taken just as a custom tailor takes them, with the additional measurements of height, weight and physical conformation. The customer makes a selection of cloth from 2250 samples shown by all semi-ready agents, and the order is sent by telegraph or by mail, according to the wish of the customer.

The price is just the same as though one bought direct from the factory.

PROTESTS ON THE HORIZON WORKERS ALLEGE CORRUPTION

There Are Evidences of Bribery.

Glaring Cases of Irregularities in West Kent May Result in Protest.

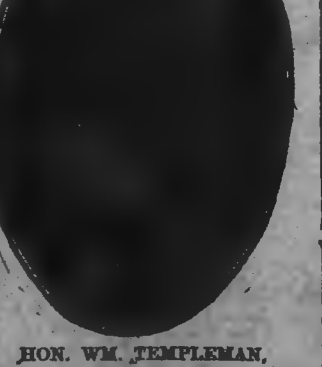
Toronto, Oct. 28.—There will be a protest in Centre Toronto if the statement given last evening are adhered to.

T. C. Robinette, the defeated Liberal candidate, said last night:

"The election in Centre Toronto will certainly be protested. Mr. Phalen will look after the legal proceedings. He has been making them all day. Already we have evidence of money being paid for votes."

Mr. Phalen said: "All that I care to say at present is that we have definite information that things were done in connection with Mr. Bristol's election which were irregular."

Vincenzo Cuchero, 8 Henry street, and Stanzio Zincera, 73 Elm street, were arraigned in the Police Court yesterday morning charged with personation in the Dominion election on Monday. The charges will, however, be changed during a week's remand to attempting to vote while not fully naturalized.



HON. WM. TEMPLEMAN,
Cabinet Minister Who Went Down In Victoria, B.C.

A Renfrew despatch says that Montreal detectives were in the riding for the last two weeks on behalf of McGarry, the Conservative candidate, and that they have evidence that bribery took place. It is not likely, however, that any action will be taken to protest owing to apparent hopelessness of a reversal in the general result.

The election of A. B. McCoig, Liberal in West Kent may be protested on the ground that there were glaring irregularities. Bribery, impersonations and other corrupt methods are charged. Conservative workers say that as high as $12 was paid for votes in Chatham and that many "doubtfuls" received large bribes to stay away from the polls. Dozens of drunken men, parading the streets, they declare, openly boasted that they had received high prices for their votes.

FOUR LYNX KILLED AT HEAD LAKE

Mr. Henry Goslin Came Upon a Nest of Five of Them

Mr. Henry Goslin, of Head Lake, had an exciting chase the other day, while strolling in the woods adjoining his farm. Mr. Goslin was walking leisurely through the woods when of a sudden he came upon a nest of five large lynx. With great promptitude he put his gun to his shoulder and fired.

At the first shot he killed two and with the two next shots he killed two more. The other by this time had made off and succeeded in getting away.

Mr. Goslin is very much pleased over his capture and intends having their skins preserved.

THEY REJOICED AT HAVELOCK

Over Election of Mr. Sexsmith—Will Make a Good Member

Special to the Review.

Havelock, Oct. 27.—The elections are over and Belmont is proud of the fact that it has produced a man who will represent East Peterborough in the Dominion House for at least the next five years. They are also proud of the fact that, although he was defeated twice, he had the courage to try once more and win. They are also proud that during the many years he has been trying for the seat he has always acted fairly and honorably.

Mr. Sexsmith is a young farmer who has lived at Preneveau, in Belmont township, for a number of years. He has represented the township as Councillor, and Reeve on several occasions, and is at present a member of the School Board for his school section.

In 1900 he was the Conservative candidate against John Lang, and in 1904 against John Finlay.

Things were exciting here last night. A very large crowd were present at the town hall, where the returns were received. When it was learned that Sexsmith was elected he was called on for a speech, and afterwards was driven around town, followed by a large torchlight procession.

The people in town hope that Mr. Sexsmith will make a good member of Parliament.

A GOLDEN WEDDING

Celebrated by Venerable Couple

At Bewdley, Hamilton Township—Sons Reside in Peterboro'

Mr. and Mrs. William Christopher Coates, near Bewdley, Hamilton township, celebrated their golden wedding on Friday, October 23rd.

Many friends of the venerable couple took advantage of the occasion to tender heartiest congratulations and a large number of children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Coates were present to join in the festivities.

Mr Coates' parents came to Canada in 1820 and were of that sturdy class of pioneers who successfully made for themselves a home in what was at that time a dense forest.

Mr. Wm. C. Coates was born on lot 23, concession 7, Hamilton township, where his parents settled and whereon which his parents settled and where he has resided ever since. He is now seventy-two years of age.

Mrs. Coates' maiden name was Letitia M. Ford, and she was born near Dungannon, county Tyrone, Ireland, on the 18th day of July, 1836. Her grandfather was a member of No. 1, LOL, at the Diamond, county Tyrone, Ireland. This was the first Orange lodge ever organized in Ireland.

There were fifteen children and grandchildren present at the golden wedding. The daughters and sons are: Mrs J. Gilmour, Campbellcroft, Ont.; Mrs. O. H. Coulter, Islington, Ont.; Miss Teressa, at home; Mr. A. A. Coates, Peterborough and Mr. F. A. Coates, Peterborough.

Among the many presents to Mr. and Mrs. Coates, were two pairs of gold rimmed glasses.

SKIDOO NIGHT DREW BIG CROWD

At the Auditorium Roller Rink Last Evening

Skidoo night last evening at the auditorium roller rink drew a large crowd. A large number of both skaters and onlookers were present. The selections rendered by the band were much enjoyed, and the twenty-three events were interesting and exciting.

The prize winners were Mr. Harvey Staunton, Misses Reilley, Manhardt, Walsh and Misses Carson, Orval Hooper and Davis.

The next attraction will be the band concert on Friday night, and Hallowe'en sports on Saturday evening. Monday night will be coronation night with prizes for graceful skating in couples.

MAJORITY IS NOW FORTY-SIX FEW CHANGES TAKE PLACE

W. R. Smyth is Elected in East Algoma, According to Latest Returns, Instead of Dyment the Liberal Candidate—Conmee is Elected in Thunder Bay—Henri Gervais May go to Cabinet.

Toronto, Oct. 28.—Corrected returns of the Federal election make few changes in the general result. W. R. Smyth (Cons.) is elected in East Algoma, which was yesterday given to the Liberals; Jas. Conmee (Lib.) is elected in Thunder Bay, and Dr. Rankin (Lib.) has carried North Perth. The standing in Ontario is now, therefore, Conservatives 49, Liberals 37, a Conservative majority of 12.

The despatches from Victoria yesterday verified the reports that Hon. William Templeman was defeated in that city. He lost his seat to G. H. Barnard, the Conservative candidate. Barnard's plurality is five votes.

There are no changes in election results in Quebec except to strengthen the Government's position as some of the Ministerial majorities are even larger than last evening. The figures stand 50 Government supporters, and it will be 51 in a few days, as it is not probable that Mr. Flynn will stay in the field in Gaspe against the Postmaster-General. Then the two elections yet to be held will make the Ministerial 54 against 11 Conservatives.

The statement is made in opposition circles that Mr. Bergeron's election was lost by 13 and it is suggested by Montreal Conservatives that Mr. Borden should induce the Carleton Conservatives to elect Bergeron for that county.

Revised returns from the west show that Selkirk has gone Conservative. Bradbury leading by over one hundred, with only nine small polls to come in, which will not affect the result.

There will certainly be a recount in Brandon, where Sifton has 16 final majority, while there are 47 protested ballots, which Conservatives claim will give Daly the seat when adjucated upon.

On the other hand, Liberals claim that they have a chance of electing Burrows in Dauphin, when outlying polls come in.

The present summary for Manitoba is eight Conservatives and two Liberals, with the recount in Brandon.

Later figures do not suggest any change in Saskatchewan, Lake holding the only Conservative seat and the other eight going Liberal.

In Alberta Conservatives still hope to win Red Deer, but outlying polls are swelling Clark's majority. Strathcona will go Liberal.

The summary is: Four Liberals and three Conservatives.

In British Columbia the situation is unchanged, with three Conservatives and one Liberal.

Henri Gervais, with his splendid majority in St. James, is now slated for Cabinet rank as the statement is made amongst his friends, that Hon. L. P. Brodeur will soon leave the Cabinet and become Chief Justice of the Superior Court.

Latest returns from Queens-Sunbury, N.B., gives McLean a majority of 40. Conservatives, however, are confident that there is some mistake somewhere, and will make every effort to discover it.

AFFECTS LIGHTS

Havelock Company Has Trouble

Power is Very Poor as Result of Low Water—Falls Almost Dry

Special to the Review.

Havelock, Oct. 27.—The electric lights in town at present are very bad or might be classed no good, on account of the present dry spell which has made the water very low and the wheel at the power house at North river is but partly covered with water and the lights are therefore worse than they have ever been.

At High Falls, near Cordova, which is considered one of the best falls in this vicinity is nearly completely dry.

The Havelock electric light company will have to take precautions next year, so that they will have plenty of water if a dry spell should set in.

About July next year a man will be sent back to Kashabogamog Lake to put in stop logs and these will be kept in until October and thus the company will have enough water to run them until Christmas if such a dry spell as this fall should set in.

PRUSSIAN PRINCE RUNS ZEPPELIN'S NEW AIRSHIP

LOCAL MAN HAS RETURNED FROM COLUMBUS

Mr. Walter Dawson Attended Bible Study Convention There

Mr. Walter Dawson, of the Dental College, Toronto, was in the city to-day on his return from Columbus, Ohio, where he was attending the first International Bible Study Convention, being held under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. Over twelve hundred students were present, delegations being sent from each of the Universities. Toronto sent twelve, Mr. Dawson and Mr. Armstrong being from the University. Queen's, Kingston, sent two; McGill, Montreal, two; Wesleyan College, Montreal, one, and other western and eastern colleges a large number. The convention was from Thursday to Sunday, with three sessions each day. Addresses were given by prominent men, including John R. Mott, of the Bowery Mission, New York City; Bishop McDowell, of Chicago University; Rev. J. A. MacDonald, and Dr. Faulkner, of Toronto, and many others.

Kaiser's Son at Steering Wheel.

Of Counts's Remodelled Dirigibl Balloon—Gets an Ovation From Crowds on Streets of Constance.

Friedrichshafen, Oct. 28.—Prince Henri of Prussia spent several hours in the air yesterday as the guest of Count Zeppelin, who made an ascension in his remodeled airship at a comparatively early hour. Not only did the prince thoroughly enjoy his experience, but he sat at the steering wheel for many miles of the flight, guiding the movements of the craft and compelling it to execute all kinds of complicated manoeuvres.

Prince Henri's satisfaction at the great flight was unbounded, and he gave expression to it in a telegram which he sent to the Emperor:

"Under Zeppelin's guidance I felt just as safe as in my own flagship."

Capt. Mischke also was a passenger when the start was made, in the direction of Uberlingen, to the northward of Constance. With Count Zeppelin himself at the wheel, the airship rose to an altitude of 600 feet, and, moving rapidly against a strong wind, soon disappeared behind a bank of clouds. Soon messages began to arrive from the towns in the Rhine Valley announcing the passage of the airship, but about 2 o'clock in the afternoon a sonorous sound from the sky indicated that the craft was returning. Soon it appeared above the thronged streets of Constance, where the prince gracefully saluted in acknowledgment of the ovation from the cheering crowds below.

After manoeuvring above Lake Constance in full view of the city for some time the airship made its way toward the Swiss frontier, disappearing in the direction of Tyrol. It returned to its moorings about sunset. Capt. Mischke said that the prince was anxious to remain for a few more flights, but that he was uncertain whether his engagements would permit. The prince expressed himself as astonished to find that the lengthy body of the airship showed only the slightest vibration. He regarded the vertical steering gear as simply perfect.

STRUCK ON ROCK

Scow Met With Accident in Lovesick Lake

After running on a rock in Lovesick Lake last week, a scow, loaded with 100 cords of hardwood for Peterborough, smashed a big hole in the bottom, and sank. However, instead of disappearing altogether, the water did not quite reach to the deck of the boom after it had settled down. The water through the Kawartha chain is said to be lower than it has been in years, and in Lovesick it is similar to the other lakes. A smaller scow was procured and the 100 cords were taken off in three trips. The steamer Beaver was doing the towing work and finally it smashed its wheel and twisted the rudder on a rock, and the work had to be stopped for the present.

The Trent Canal is being used extensively in towing wood and stone.—Lindsay Warder.

Kind Words From Globe

Jean Blewett has been called "The poet of the people," the "morning-hearted poet," the "singer of heart songs," and other beautiful titles. She is perhaps the best known, certainly the best beloved of Canadian poets. —Toronto Globe.

Hear her on Friday evening at Charlotte street Victoria. Admission 25 cents.

HOUSE OF REFUGE

Many Inmates at Present Time

Largest Number in History of Institution—Crop was Good One

There are thirty-five inmates in the county house of refuge at Lakefield at the present time. This is the largest number that have been in the institution since it was opened. Mr. and Mrs. Beavis are very busy looking after their charges and expect to have a very busy winter.

Reeve Scott, chairman of the house of refuge committee, stated today that an excellent crop had been harvested on the county farm. Both grain and roots yielded well and have been garnered in good condition.

Several improvements have been made recently at the farm. The fences have been improved in several places and a new one has been built along the road. It adds greatly to the appearance of the property.

Splendid work is being done at the county house of refuge. When the large number of inmates is considered, at the present time, it seems strange that the county got along without it so long.

LINDSAY CLAIMS OLDEST VOTER

John Butler Who Voted Monday is Over One Hundred Years Old

John Butler, the oldest voter in Ontario, who lives with his daughter Mrs. John Collins, on Durham street, at the head of Victoria ave., again registered his vote yesterday. Mr. Butler is well over a hundred years old and it is estimated that his age reaches the amazing number of one hundred and six years.

This remarkable man has lived in Lindsay for upwards of forty-five years and has many interesting reminiscences to relate of the early history of the town. At present he is in fair health and his vitality is marvellous.—Lindsay Warder.

A. E. Taylor, late of McGill, has been elected to the London County Council, beating the first lady candidate put forward.

THE PROTEST

It is not at all likely that there was ever a more thoroughly shameless use of money in Canada for the bribery of electors than in the contest of Monday in West Peterborough. This is no raving of disappointed politicians. It is the tragic fact that will be revealed by the proceedings of protest, the instructions for which have already been given. There will be a deluge of cases of corruption and—no saw-offs. The beautiful language attributed to Mr. Stratton on the occasion of his rejoicing after his supposed or pro tem victory, is such an arrant piece of hypocrisy as to be laughable. There may be some Liberals so hidebound as to believe the nonsense talked on that occasion by himself and others but they are, in all probability very few. As the day of reckoning drew nigh it became evident what was going to happen and then the money began to flow. Polling-day itself furnished a sight for the gods on Simcoe street. The tide of corruption gathered weigh and was plain to the least astute observer. It will all be made plainer in the courts.

THE UNEMPLOYED IN BRITAIN

There are at the present moment two millions of unemployed men in Britain. It is proposed to go on with great national and municipal works in order to help them out. Keir Hardie promises to preach a revolution if something of a tangible nature is not done and done speedily. Glasgow is in the very throes of a socialistic turmoil. Manchester and Liverpool are scarcely less affected. As one shrewd observer, Mr. Cunningham Graham, puts it: "Something deeper than bad trade was the cause of unemployment. We were on the eve of the breakdown of our commercial and social system! This is to say the least pessimistic. A winter ahead and no work for the men walking the streets looks serious. No doubt the cities and towns have at last become overloaded. The cry must soon be "Back to the land."

THE BERLIN TREATY

The aged Emperor of Austria seemed to have decided that he had been far too long the old man of the east in Europe, and that he would provoke a crisis by tearing up the Berlin treaty, of which he was a signatory. He has succeeded in his object. He held for many years the respect of all the European powers, including Great Britain, but he has forfeited it at one blow. It is difficult to account for his action, unless it was brought about through the instrumentality of Germany. He seems to have gone on a "tear." The whole emeute is the result of an effort of the latter country to restore the balance of power upset through the agency of Great Britain last summer. The isolating of Germany has been a failure.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has been able to triumph in the face of a strong opposition. While personally, he is an ornament to the country that gave him birth, his cabinet has bad weak spots that from this distance look like San Jose scale or black rot. It is surprising that he should not have rid it with a more ruthless hand in this respect. As the Liberal Toronto Star truly observed it is not necessary for the Liberals to be cocky over this business. The Conservatives also had their weak spots. Some of them have been obliterated by the negative process of leaving at home the candidates concerned. There is no joy in Sir Wilfrid's heart or in the Liberal press over the return of Mr. Stratton. That Sir Wilfrid Laurier will continue to represent Canada abroad and at home with his accustomed credit is a matter of course. Doubtless the election courts will make some important changes.

From "The Toronto Star"

The Toronto Star is a thoroughly Liberal journal, which gave the Government its most active support during the recent contest, but here is what it says in support of Conservative contentions:—

"Some of the dealings with the timber limits undoubtedly created a bad impression. A better impression was created by the change in the law providing for greater publicity in sales. But the vote does not mean that the people are indifferent to the manner in which the public resources are dealt with. Whatever profit comes from the handling of lands, timber and mines, must go the people of Canada, and, if necessary, the laws and regulations must be made more rigorous.

The charges of extravagance and graft in connection with purchases of supplies also call for serious consideration and vigorous action. Practically all supplies must be purchased by tender, and at prices so close as to render it impossible for any middleman to make profits out of these transactions. Political influence ought to be wholly eliminated and supplies purchased as they would be by a well-managed private business concern. The Liberals who have renewed their expression of confidence in the Government have done so in the expectation that the reforms will be carried out. They have not condoned any wrong-doing.

Certain changes in the personnel of the Cabinet have been expected for some time. It is generally believed that Mr. Mackenzie King will have a portfolio, and Liberal leaders cannot do better than call to their aid men who are young not only in years but in ideas and will keep Liberalism in touch with the progressive spirit of the age and the country. The mandate given by the country is a mandate for reforms and progress."

EDITORIAL NOTES

Bryan's private fortune is a moderate one, being $125,000, all of which he got by earning it.

"Spotless Jim" Stratton will help Laurier finish his work. Cap. Sullivan will be on the job, too.—Belleville Intelligencer.

The centre of attraction at two or three street-corners last evening was a man shouting in a loud and defiant tone, "Hurrah! for Stratton. We've got the money and we don't give a damn."

The scandal in Belgium involving M. Alberti is one of large dimensions. He "put away" five or six millions of dollars through misappropriations. His scheme was the get-rich-quick one. The victims of his swindles are widows and orphans.

There is much cause for irritation that race and religion should be again to the fore as campaign cries. Each of the offended bodies thinks the other, the one who made the original vopes on that ground and so it goes. However it has been demonstrated clearly that people who know better are quite willing to make profit out of it. Money on the whole is stronger than any other force religious or racial. It only requires enough of it to turn all but the most upright to its use.

SAYS THERE IS NO SEX IN HEAVEN

Common Doctrine Horrible Heathen and Mormon Says Evangelist

Toronto, Oct. 28.—"There is no sex in heaven," declared Rev. Mr. Newell at the last week-night meeting to be held in Carlston street church in connection with the present evangelistic services.

"That common doctrine that that there will be anything such as sex or anything like it is horrible, apostate, heathen and Mormon.

Most of the common ideas regarding the future, maintained Mr. Newell, were entirely at fault.

"If you go to the judgment you will be damned," he went on. "The judgment of sin is past, the judgment of sinners is to come.

"Many thousands who attend church in Toronto are going to hell. They go to church simply because they think it is the proper thing. My heart aches for you who are in that condition. I tremble when I think of the religious sinners who are blind and see not their sins.

"'What are you down on the Baptists for?' someone asked me. I'm not preaching against anyone. I'm preaching Christ.

"The doctrine of evolution is a lie. There is not a shred or a thread of truth in it," declared the preacher emphatically. "Man is getting farther from God, not nearer to Him.

"It was in some other connection let 'be hope,'" the evangelist explained.

"I'd like to shout 'Hallelujah' so loud that it would shake up Mars."

Toronto Live Stock.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—Receipts of live stock at the City Market were, as reported by the railways, 69 carloads, composed of 1018 cattle, 1111 hogs, 1810 sheep and lambs, with 71 calves.

Exporters.

None were offered, unless it was a few picked out of loads of butchers. Good to choice export steers are worth from $4.75 to $5; bulls, $3.75 to $4.25.

Butchers.

One small lot of butchers sold as high as $4.90, which was the highest price quoted. George Rowntree bought 100 butchers for Harris Abattoir Company at following prices: Steers and heifers, $3.50 to $4.25; cows, $2.25 to $3.50; canners and bulls at $1 to $3 per cwt.

Feeders and Stockers.

H. & W. Murby report few good feeders or stockers on sale, altho there is a good demand for those of choice quality. Messrs. Murby bought 100 cattle at $3 to $3.35 for feeding steers, and $2.75 to $3.25 for stockers.

Milkers and Springers.

Between 40 and 50 milkers were on sale, and prices ranging at from $30 to $62 each.

Veal Calves.

About 70 veal calves were on sale. Prices ranged at from $3 to $6.50 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Receipts of sheep and lambs were fairly large—over 1800. Prices were steady, at $3.25 to $3.40 per cwt. for ewes, and $2.50 to $2.75 for rams; lambs at $4 to $4.50 per cwt.

Hogs.

About 1100 hogs were reported from all sources. Mr. Harris reported the market easier, at $6 for selects, fed and watered, and $5.75 for lights.

Murderer's Clever Escape.

Eureka, Cal., Oct. 28.—Denny Hazel, who was to have been sentenced on Thursday for the murder of Joseph Silva, Monday night effected his escape from the county jail, leaving E. I. Dudley, the jailer, locked in his cell.

Hazel was standing behind the cell door in the darkness when Dudley led a squad of trusties into the cell. As the jailer stepped in Hazel stepped out and turned the key in the lock.

Dies of Exposure.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 28.—The body of a man, identified as Paul Pilky of Wyandotte, Mich., was discovered by street railway employes below Sandwich yesterday at noon. He is supposed to have died of exposure. The body had evidently been where it was found since Sunday, as he had a street car transfer in his pocket bearing that date. A small sum of money was found in his pockets. An inquest is probable.

Three Cardinals For America.

London, Oct. 28.—A despatch from Rome to a London news agency says the Pope has decided that a special consistory shall be held for the nomination of new American cardinals after the reorganization of the American dioceses, and that the United States shall have three cardinals.

TWO DROWNED.

Empty Boat Found Near Toronto and Duck Hunters Are Missing.

Toronto, Oct. 28.—An empty duck punt, overturned, floating between the Humber and Sunnyside, in which "Jack" Devins of the Devins' Cafe at the Humber, and Edward Exton, a motorman on the York Radial line, set out in early Monday morning on a hunting expedition, picked up yesterday by a stone hooker schooner, two miles off the Humber, to all appearances tells a tragic tale of the men's experience.

Upon receiving word of the finding of the boat search parties renewed their efforts, hoping that by chance the unfortunate hunters might have found a haven, and, exhausted, were awaiting aid. Early this morning, however, no further results had rewarded their search.

Girl Falls Into Ditch.

Newmarket, Oct. 28.—Miss Stella Drecken, Miss Irene Moore and Miss Emma Strassler, living at Queensville, six miles north, went to the Metropolitan station to watch the crowded cars on Monday night. About 9.30 a car came in. Miss Stella Drecken slipped away from her friends behind the car, to the dark side of the station, and fell into a ditch, breaking her neck. When the car pulled out her two friends began a hurried search. They also fell into the ditch, but were unhurt. They called for help. The whole district around about was gone over by a search party, which finally discovered the girl in the ditch, quite dead.

London Press Views.

London, Oct. 28.—(C. A. P.)—The Chronicle says Laurier's personal popularity and eloquence and his own high character carried him to the front. The existing preference ought now to be retained, not as bargain demanding a quid pro quo, but "out of gratitude."

The News says the tariff crase is killed and Canada responded to its grand old man's appeal for a chance to "finish his work."

The Morning Post says that at the next Imperial Conference, Canada will be represented by a Government averse from taking any step towards closer union except along the path of co-operation in commerce.

Roosevelt Has Birthday.

Washington, Oct. 28.—President Roosevelt observed his 50th anniversary yesterday very simply. He attended to his executive duties as usual, and, except for the reception of a delegation from the Hungarian Republican Club of New York, in the east room of the White House, and the receipt of a large number of congratulatory messages, some floral tributes and gifts from the members of his family, the day was the same to him as any other day.

King Edward of Great Britain sent one of the first of the congratulatory messages received.

Beaten and Robbed.

New York, Oct. 28.—Accusing a man whom she had frequently met socially of having bound, gagged, beaten and robbed her of $800 in jewelry and $50 in cash, Mrs. Anna B. Plough, widow of a former president of the St. Paul & Duluth Railroad Co., caused the arrest of Elmer M. Swallow, a public weigher.

She said the robbery occurred in her home in Brooklyn last Friday night, only a few hours after she had been playing cards with Swallow.

Ontario's wheat yield this year totalled 17,264,000 bushels or 21 bushels per acre.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

Spittal Vindicated.

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—The council of the National Rifle Association of England have now endorsed the Spittal position of firing at the ranges, and have written expressing regrets that Lieut. Spittal should have been interfered with at a critical period in his Bisley shooting by the range officer. The letter of the secretary of the N.R.A. states that there is nothng laid down in the Bisley regulations against such a position as that assumed by Spittal.

Chinook Saves West.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 28.—All transcontinental trains are now running through Western Canada. The snow has disappeared and there is a warm wave through Saskatchewan and Alberta and grain continues to be rushed to the lakes in enormous quantities. Freight trains are being operated within sight of each other for the greater part of 600 miles.

Farmer Suicides.

Woodstock, Oct. 28.—James Barber, aged about 50, a well-known farmer of Blenheim, committed suicide by taking poison. He had just returned from a trip to the Northwest, and appeared to be suffering from melancholy, though the cause is unknown, as he was in good financial circumstances.

Ashanti Floated.

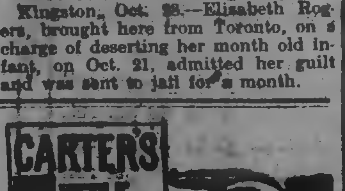
Montreal, Oct. 28.—The Elder-Dempster line steamship Ashanti, bound from Barbadoes to Montreal with sugar, which went aground at Madam's Reef, below Quebec, has been floated, and is now on her way to this port. She was evidently not much injured.

Floods Drown Eight Hundred.

Manila, Oct. 28.—Official despatches received from the sections visited by the typhoon and resultant floods that devasted Caygan Province recently, place the death roll at 800 and the damage of property at $1,000,000 gold.

To Cell For Deserting Baby.

Kingston, Oct. 28.—Elisabeth Rogers, brought here from Toronto, on a charge of deserting her month old infant, on Oct. 21, admitted her guilt and was sent to jail for a month.



CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head

ACHE is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., NEW YORK.

Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.

$1,500 Fire in Whitby.

Whitby, Oct. 28.—Yesterday at noon the evaporator works of the Whitby Fruit and Vinegar Company were partially destroyed by fire. The blaze originated from some unknown cause in the upper story. The building was a frame structure and the roof and walls were burned to the second floor, all below that being saved. About 250 cases of evaporated apples were destroyed, also several small machines. The loss will be about $1,500, with no insurance.

British Emigration to Canada.

London, Oct. 28.—(C.A.P.)—The Board of Trade emigration returns for the year 1907, issued yesterday states that British and Irish emigrants to Canada in that year numbered 117,525. Of these 290 were rejected by the Canadian authorities for the following causes: As paupers or likely to become public charges, 153; for disease, 24; idiocy or insanity, 89; convicts, 4; returned with rejected emigrants, 9; immoral, 10; not stated, 1.

Twelve Killed on Canal.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Information reached the Isthmian Canal offices in this city yesterday concerning two explosions of dynamite which occurred on the canal on Oct. 15, whereby 12 men were killed and 18 were injured, and the second at Mendi, where five men were killed, 10 injured and one missing. All of those killed and injured at Culebra Cut were negroes, excepting W. J. Davis, an engineer, and George Goodley, a crane man.

Took Coal Oil Shampoo.

Kingston, Oct. 28.—Louise Meakins, an English immigrant, went suddenly insane here and had to be taken in charge by the authorities.

She soaked her head with coal oil and was just in the act of applying a match when her rash act was discovered by people in the house.

Recommend Glass Floors.

London, Oct. 28.—Representatives of the Manchester libraries committee, who recently visited a number of libraries in Canada, is a report just issued, recommended glass floors with ventilation openings in the centre, as at McGill University Library in Montreal.

Spanish Cardinal Dies.

Barcelona, Oct. 28.—Monsignor Salvador Casanas y Pages, Bishop of Barcelona and one of the Spanish cardinals, died in this city of apoplexy yesterday. He was born in 1834 and was created a cardinal in 1895.

Fog Hampers Boats; Barge Aground.

Kingston, Oct. 28.—Fog and smoke continues to block navigation. The steambarge Fred Mercer, coal laden, on her way from Oswego, is aground near Cape Vincent. A tug has been sent to pull her off.

W.C.T.U. Re-Elect Miss Stevens.

Denver, Col., Oct. 28.—Miss Lillian M. Stevens, of Portland, Me., yesterday was unanimously re-elected president of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

It's a Girl.

Budapest, Oct. 28.—The Budapest newspapers announce that the Countess Szechenyi, formerly Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, has given birth to a daughter.

Ooraon Courtship.

A pretty courtship custom prevails among the Ooraon maidens, who at stated intervals assemble in the market place. In front of each is a lighted lamp, emblem of conjugal fidelity. A young man feels attracted. He gently blows upon the flame, extinguishing it. The girl relights it. It is a rejection. If she leaves it alone, the implied offer is acceptable.

RECEPTION TO LAURIER.

Premier Is Given Torchlight Procession In Ottawa.

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—Although it was not made known until late in the afternoon that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was to reach the city last night it looked on the streets and at the station as though the whole city had turned out to do him honor, when the Prime Minister's car backed into the Union station shortly before midnight.

There were hundreds of broom torches, an abundance of pyrotechnics and three bands of music, one of them Scotch and another French-Canadian. The procession traveled most of it afoot, from the Union depot for more than two miles to Sir Wilfrid's residence on Sandy Hill.

Sir Wilfrid had planned for himself and for Lady Laurier a quiet homecoming and had seemingly chosen a late train for that purpose.

Among those in the procession were Hon. L. P. Brodeur, Hon. Chas. Murphy, H. B. McGiverin, M.P., E. B. Devlin, M.P., and Senator Belcourt.

Scott as Senate Speaker.

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—It is not at all improbable that the Speakership of the Senate will be given, when Parliament assembles, to Hon. R. W. Scott, the late Secretary of State.

Mr. Scott has an experience in public affairs which is not equalled by any other man in the upper House. In spite of his advanced age, it is believed he would make an ideal presiding officer.

The Senate elects an English and a French-speaking Senator, turn about.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

Fire destroyed 100 cottages at Salisbury Beach, Mass.

The father of Dr. A. E. Ross, Conservative candidate in Kingston, is seriously ill at Cobden.

Windsor's population has increased 402, to 15,819. The total value of real property is given as $8,066,325, an increase of $418,950.

As a precaution against any disturbance during the visit of the second squadron of the American battleship fleet to Amoy, invitations to Chinese for the reception to the fleet have been limited in number to 400.

Always on Time.

A man who is constitutionally late surprised his friends by leaving the house at 1 o'clock to keep a 2 o'clock appointment.

"Jim's watch must be wrong or he wouldn't have started so early," they said. "He will surely be on time today. Where in the world can he be going?"

"He is going to a funeral," volunteered one who knew. "He is one of the pallbearers. Very seldom are pallbearers behind time. I have known men who were late on every other imaginable occasion—late for their own weddings, even—but if chosen for pallbearers they always came up to the mark."

Infantry.

The term "infantry" soldiers originated with the Spanish and was first applied to the military force employed by an infante, or young prince of Spain, to rescue his father from the Moors.

Washington.

George Washington received his early military training in the Virginia militia, and in 1751, at the age of nineteen years, he was appointed adjutant of the militia, and in 1753 he was made commander of the northern military district of Virginia, and in 1755 he was commissioned commander in chief of all the Virginia militia.

Sacred Fire.

A Parsee sacred fire which is burning in a temple at Ligigull, Persia, is known not to have been extinguished since the days of Rapbereth, who lived twelve centuries ago.

The Battleship Ram.

The battleship ram was first used in the civil war of 1861-5 in the action between the Federal fleet and the Confederate ironclad Virginia or Merrimac, in Hampton Roads, 1862.

Dangers in Mercury.

Mercury is a foe to life. Those who make mirrors, barometers or thermometers, etc., soon feel the effect of the nitrate of mercury in teeth, gums and the tissues of the body.

Politeness in Tibet.

In Tibet it is a sign of politeness when meeting a person to hold up the hand clasped and protrude the tongue.

Wales.

Wales is the richest part of Great Britain in mineral wealth. England produces annually about $10 to each acre, Scotland a little less than $10, but the produce of Wales amounts to over $20 per acre.

The Rhododendron.

The native homes of the rhododendron are the temperate regions of North America and the mountains of India. Many splendid species of the plant were discovered in the Himalayas by Dr. Hooker and others and were introduced by them to Europe.

SPORTING

SHRUBB MAY COME HERE

Mr. Genno Trying to Get Him to Run Against Roller Skaters—Would be Strong Attraction

In order that the crowd may be accommodated for the races between Hoagland the the relay team of roller skaters at the Auditorium Roller Rink on Nov. 5th and 6th, two galleries are being placed in the rink and will afford an additional seating capacity of 1,000. This will make a total seating accommodation of 1,500.

Mr. Genno, manager of the rink, is endeavoring to secure an appearance here of Alfred Shrubb to run against roller skaters. The world's champion distance man would certainly draw an immense house.

SPORTING TALK

Lindsay has a Collegiate Football team which has yet received no challenges from any other town teams. Considering the way Lindsay seems to take to the game it would seem that a good town league could have been organized this year.

There will be no high tackling from Peterborough football teams in the next few years. Dr. A. W. McPherson, the ex-Varsity player, now stationed at the Electric City, is referee of most of the rugby games played there, and any such tackles qualify the guilty player to a few minutes' rest on the touch line.

Fred Whitcroft, the manager and captain of the Edmonton team, challengers for the Stanley Cup, is visiting his old home in Peterborough. He says he is going to have a good team out west this year, so look out for them when they come east.

WRESTLING

As a preliminary to the Rogers-Young Hackenschmidt bout, arrangements are being made to have a match if possible, between Ned Fitzpatrick and a recent arrival in Peterborough by the name of Cottrell, Fitz to throw his opponent twice in half an hour.

Cottrell is a powerful fellow and has thrown Jack Crough in a workout it is said. Crough will be remembered as giving Fitz a hard run in a half hour bout at the Brock street rink in which the latter got one fall.

It looks as though Fitz would have a pretty heavy task if he tackles Cottrell.

RUGBY

Last night in a close and interesting game T.A.A.C. defeated McMaster University 6—4. T.A.A.C. are getting all kinds of practice and will bring down a fine team to meet the locals at Riverside Park next Saturday.

Madame—You don't like my dress? Oh, well, I don't care. I have taste, and you have none.

Monsieur — That's quite true. Our marriage proves it.

Not For Him.

Mrs. Newliwed—It's just brutal of you to call it "this stuff." You said you'd be glad if I baked my own bread and—

Mr. Newliwed—Yes, but I didn't say I wanted you to bake mine.—Philadelphia Press.

Arabian Sand Pits.

In the sandy deserts of Arabia whirling winds sometimes excavate pits 200 feet in depth and extending down to the harder stratum on which the great bed rests.

Horsepower.

The unit of horsepower varies greatly in different countries.

Effect of Liquid Air.

A ball of india rubber immersed in liquid air becomes brittle and if dropped to the floor breaks like glass. A lead ball acquires elasticity and will rebound like the rubber in its normal state.

A Contrast in Dinners.

A French writer has ascertained that Napoleon's favorite dish was bean salad and that he held that 60 cents a day ought to be enough for any one's meals. Louis XV., on the contrary, had a favorite dish, made of the eggs of various birds, which cost $100.

Bathing in Abyssinia.

Three good washes are received by an Abyssinian during his career—at his birth, on his marriage morn and at his death. At all other times he shuns soap and water.

Lightning Rods.

Lightning rods seem to have been known in Spain seven centuries ago. A writer in the Frankfurter Zeitung cites an author of the thirteenth century who refers to "some savants of our time who know how to conduct the lightning to a given spot."

CONSULT OUR OPTICIAN

The eye is such a delicate organ that it should never be trifled with.

This is why our optician has followed the teachings of only recognized authorities on the eye.

Many opticians take half a dozen or more correspondent courses, costing from $7.50 to $25 each. With this limited knowledg it is little wonder that so many are wearing glasses that do not suit them—others who do not require them.

If you have eye trouble you should only consult an optician who has a thorough knowledge of every branch of the optical business.

Such a man is our Mr. Taylor.

SEAWEEDS CONTAIN ABUNDANT BREAKFAST FOOD MATERIAL

Statement Made by Bonnycastle Dale Who is Well Known in Peterborough—Interesting Magazine Article.

Dr. Bonnycastle Dale, a scientist, of the Pacific Coast, has, says the N. Y. Post, made a strong bid for either fame or infamy by his suggestion contained in a serious magazine article that the seaweeds that grow in such profucion along every coast supply inexhaustible quantities of ideal raw materials for digestible and nutritious breakfast foods. That the hint will, sooner or later, be acted upon by some enterprising manufacturer, can hardly be doubted, and it is within the bounds of reasonable expectation what we shall soon see "Shredded Seaweed," Flaked Fucus,' "Dessicated Dulse," "Predigested Sargassum," "Puffed Nereocystis," "Malto-Kelp," "Cream of Sea Moss," and a score more marine substitutes for hot cakes and maple syrup done up in one-pound packages, "guaranteed under the Pure ood Laws," and crammed down the throats of a long-suffering and surfeited people.

It is just ten years since Sir William Crookes, president of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, presented his alarming array of statistics, proving that by the year 1928 the entire population of the globe would be face to face with starvation, or at best half-rations, for the season that the production of wheat could not possibly keep pace with the progressive increase in the world's population, Sir William failed to take no consideration the neglected and ungathered harvests of the seas. In the great Sargasso Sea alone, in the North Atlantic Ocean, sufficient nutritious vegetation flourishes and decays to support the entire population of Europe, if it were harvested and prepared in a manner fitting it for human consumption. On the sea beaches of the United States, enough proteids are cast up by the waves, and allowed to decay and dessicate into their original elements, to take the place of the whole product of the Northwest wheat fields. If the world's teeming millions ever face wholesale hunger it will not be on account of any niggardliness of nature, or any shortsightedness of Providence, but because mankind lacks the wit to utilize the food materials that exist in superabundance.

Of course, there is nothing new in the idea of eating seaweeds. They have been eaten and enjoyed for unaccounted centuries. Many varieties are nearly pure gelatine. These have been eaten for ages by the Chinese, Japanese and Sandt dwellers gather a sufficient quality of seaweed in July, August and September to last them until the next season's harvest. The people go out to the marine harvest fields in row-boats, armed with long poles, to the end of each one fo which a hook is attached. With these queer implements they tear the seaweeds loose from the submerged rocks, and take them ashore, and spread them out to dry in the sun. Then they are taken to local factories, boiled, shredded, and prepared for food. A cleaner and more wholesome article of diet cannot be imagined, and travelers who have tasted it say that the taste is pleasant. As a base for cheap candy, preserves, jellies, and puddings it is infinitely superior to materials often used.

SPLENDID FIELD FOR THE PETERBORO LUBRICATOR CO.

Mr. Pennington and Mr. Currier, who were in Philadelphia the past weeks in the interests of the Peterborough Lubricator and Manufacturing Company have returned and are elated beyond all expectation with the way they found everything working there. The capacity of the Philadelphia plant is taxed to the utmost and the company is months behind in filling its orders.

In their statement to the president and secretary of the company here, Messrs. Pennington and Currier claim that half was never told by Mr. Boerema with regard to the splendid prospects in Canada.

Mr. Pennington is now in Toronto buying machinery for the equipment of the Peterborough factory and the company hope to have it installed at an early date.

MAGISTRATE SAYS THAT P. C. ADAMS IS ENTITLED TO REWARD

Dispute Between Milbrook Constable and Local One as to Who Should Have Reward for Arrest and Conviction of Horse Thief

A dispute as to which constable, P. C. Adams, or Thomas Miller, of Millbrook was entitled to the reward offered for the arrest and conviction of John Carroll, of Cavan, who stole from the sheds of the New Oxford Hotel, on October 21th, a horse and buggy belonging to Mr. Harry Fowler, of this city, was heard by Magistrate Dumble, at the police court this morning. Mr. F. D. Kerr appeared for Mr. Miller.

After hearing the evidence of both parties, he decided that P.C. Adams was entitled to the twenty dollars reward, but suggested that five dollars be given Constable Miller for his expenses and time lost. His Worship didn't think that the Millbrook constable had earned any money. He gave the prisoner every chance to escape, had he so desired.

Constable Miller stated that he first heard of the horse being stolen on October 10th. He met Police Constables Newhall and Meharry and Mr. Fowler. The latter asked witness if he knew a man by the name of Carroll. Mr. Miller said yes, and then Fowler said that Carroll had stolen his horse and buggy. That was all that passed until the next day, when Fowler came to Millbrook, and he with Constable Miller drove to Carroll's home. Carroll was not at home but he afterwards got him and brought him to Millbrook. He did not recover the horse and buggy, but he got the thief. He di dnot lock Carroll up, but he let him go to see if he could find the horse. He then learned that someone came down from Peterborough and had arrested him.

Mr Harry Fowler, the man who lost the horse, was called. After Miller had arrested Carroll, Fowler suggested that he be let go again to allow him to look for the horse and buggy.

P.C. Meharry stated that Mr. Fowler came to the police station on Saturday night and said that his horse and buggy had been stolen, he thought by John Carroll. Witness hunted up Constable Miller, who was in the city that night and told him to arrest Carroll. Miller said that he couldn't arrest him without a warrant. Carroll, he said, lived three miles out of the city.

P.C. Adams said that on Monday, Oct. 12th, in the afternoon, he was instructed to go down to Millbrook to arrest John Carroll. The warrant was at the station, and Fowler gave Adams directions to the man's place. He went and arrested Carroll, bringing him back with him. Mr. Adams said that he claimed the reward. He admitted to Mr. Kerr that his warrant was not backed by any Justice of the Peace in the township of Cavan.

WEDDING BELLS

CROWE—GILCHRIST

Below will be found an account of the wedding of a former Peterborough boy, Mr. Charles Crowe, son of the late Chas. Crowe, of Peterborough and a brother of ex-Ald. Jos. Crowe. The account of the wedding is taken from the Davenport, Ohio, News:

In the presence of a brilliant wedding company of two hundred at the Outing club last evening Miss Mary Gilchrist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gilchrist, of 1207 East River street, Davenport, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles H. Crowe, of Los Angeles, Cal. The appointments were beautiful throughout. Yellow and white, the autumnal colors, were carried out artistically with an abundance of the October foliage and great golden and white chrysanthemums. The ballroom floor was used for the ceremony, the nuptial bower being arranged in the centre arch of the colonnade that divides the ballroom from the wicker room. Southern smilax interwoven with autumn foliage hid the stately white columns and reached in graceful beauty about the railing of the balcony overhead. A wedding bell of white crysanthemums and smilax was suspended in the centre of the archway. Seasonable foliage massed the chandeliers of the ballroom and banked the wicker room mantel and fireplace.

Just preceding the ceremony hour, 8 o'clock, Mrs. Arthur P. Griggs sang "Love's Coronation." Miss Edna Leischer at the piano, Ogden's orchestra stationed in the north end of the ballroom announced the coming of the bride by Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bridal party, coming through the banquet room on the east traversed the length of the ballroom. Miss Grace Gilchrist sister of the bride, as maid of honor led the way. She was gowned in a soft pink crepe de chine over yellow taffeta silk, the effect being that of the Marechal Neil rose tint. It was made in a modified directoire style, entraine, with the sheath skirt and the garniture was gold Grecian border. She wore a pink ribbon coronet in her hair and carried an arm bouquet of bridesmaid roses.

The bride followed on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. The bridal robe was a beautiful creation of white satin, made demi-Empire, entraine, with yoke and bodice trimmings of Duchesse and satin folds. Her long tulle veil was caught to the coiffure with lilies of the valley an bride's rosebuds. She wore the groom's gift, a necklace of diamonds and pearls, and her flowers were a shower bouquet of bride's rose and valley lillies.

The groom, with his best man, Mr. F. L. McCullough, of Davenport, enteringthe ballroom through the south door, met the bride at the nuptial arch. Here the service was impressively spoken by Rev. LeRoy Coffman, pastor of the first Presbyterian church. During the ceremony the strains of "O!, Thou Sublime Evening Star," were softly heard.

Felicitations were showered on the happy couple at the conclusion of the service, when a short informal reception was held. Mrs. J. W. Gilchrist mother of the bride, was gowned in grey crepe de chine; Mrs. John Crowe, of Virginia, Minn., sister-in-law of the groom, was in pale blue silk and lace.

An 9 o'clock an elegant wedding repast was served in the dining room of the club. The bride's table, with covers for thirty-four, was laid in the square dining room and was artistically decorated in yellow and white chrysanthemums and maidenhair ferns, with touches of autumn leaves.

Unshaded candles glowed softly among the flowers and greenery. The ong the flowers and greenery. The other guests were seated at small tables throughout the dining room suite and halls. The ground floor parlors were done in autumn greenery and chrysanthemums, with touches of the southern smilax. Dancing followed and the festivities continued until the departure of the bridal couple on an early morning train for Chicago, from where they go to Virginia, Minn. to visit in the home of the groom's brother. They will return to Davenport before going to Los Angleles, their future residence. There the groom has a handsome home prepared for his bride at 2028 Oak street, where they will be at home after Dec. 1.

The bride's going away gown was a tailored cloth costume in the Wisteria shade, with a Pocohontas hat to match.

The bride is an attractive Davenport young woman who has been a favorite socially since leaving school. She is a graduate of St. Katharine's school and studied later in the University of Illinois. Possessing artistic ability she has done some creditable work in art. She is a member of the Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Crowe is a native of Canada. He came to Davenport several years ago and was connected with the Armour Packing Company's offices in this city, at which time he made a host of friends. He is a member of the firm of the Wreden Packing Company of Los Angeles.

The bride's gift to her maid was a hand painted ice cream set and the groom's favor to his best man, a gold watch fob.

THESE WILL GO HUNTING ON SATURDAY

Up to noon today fifty deer hunting licenses had been issued. The season opens, as is generally known on Nov. 1st, but this year that date falls on Sunday, so that the devotees of the chase cannot hunt until Monday. Many of them are making extensive preparations for their annual two weeks' outing. Most of them will leave the city on Saturday so as to be ready for an early start on Monday.

Colonel Miller, who is issuing the license in this city expects a big rush of applications during the next two days.

Those who have taken out licenses are as follows:

Messrs. J. G. Stinson, F. Stinson, A. Blade, Peterborough; P. Nichols, E. Pesson, Smith, J. Tedford, R. Hamlin, Wm. Tedford, George Moore Rich Tedford, Warsaw; T. Rutherford, A. J. Hoolahan, I. Upset by Elections

A young farm laborer from Ops township who came in last evening to hear the election returns, was invited by friends to imbibe corn juice at their boarding quarters. He left for home late in the evening and must have fallen asleep in his buggy, as he was found "dead to the world" about one o'clock this morning on the Little Britain road. He had fallen out of the buggy and his horse was found at his employer's gate awaiting the return of its driver.—Lindsay Post.

OBITUARY

JAMES MILLER.

The death occurred last night at his late residence, corner of Division and Dublin streets, of James Miller, after an illness of some weeks' duration. He was 88 years of age and was born in Burwell, Cambridgeshire. He came to this country 38 years ago, first settling in Millbrook, but two years later moved to this city. He was married four times. For thirty years he was a member of the 57th Regimental Band. He was identified with the Methodist Church.

Three sons and four daughters are left to mourn his loss. The sons are Messrs. Finch and J. C. Miller, of this city, and Alfred, of Calgary. The daughters are Mrs. William Osborne and Mrs. Edwin Avery, of London, England, and Mrs. Nicholas Rowse, of Nebraska, and Mrs. Jas. Rowse, of Alberta.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, to the Little Lake Cemetery.

ISABELLA ELLIOTT

The death occurred yesterday afternoon of Isabella Elliott, widow of the late Rev. A. L. Adam, after a short illness. The deceased was born in the township of Smith in 1862, and lived at her home until she was married to Rev. Mr. Adam, who died in Hastings in 1902. Since then she has resided at 284 Hunter street, where she passed away. The late Mrs. Adam was well known in the city and very highly respected and her death is much regretted. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon from the residence of her brother, Mr. E. M. Elliott, 28 Manning avenue at three o'clock and interment will take place in Little Lake cemetery.

Those who are left to mourn her loss are one son, George Adam, of the Bank of Commerce, staff here; two brothers, E. M. Elliott, county treasurer, and Ald. Geo. E. Elliott, and one sister, Mrs. J. K. Moore, of Smith.

JOHN A. SAVIGNY.

On Tuesday at noon John A. Savigny, of Otonabee, an old, well-known and highly respected resident, passed away at his home. He was 82 years, 9 months old, and had lived in Otonabee the greater part of his life. Besides his widow he is survived by three sons, Bruce, Gordon and Frank, and one daughter, Mrs. W. Taylor, of this city. Messrs. John, George, James, William and Thomas Savigny, of the city, are nephews, while Mr. Alex. Savigny and Miss Jane Savigny are brother and sister. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from his late residence on lot 15, con. 16, Otonabee, and interment will take place in Little Lake Cemetery.

NEW MODELS in KABO CORSETS NOW ON DISPLAY AT THIS STORE

KABO STYLE
888

During the next ten days we shall have displayed upon forms in our Corset Department the very latest Models in the Celebrated Kabo Corsets.

The Styles this Fall require a more or less re-moulding of the figure. The slender figure is the thing. If your figure is not naturally slender, you should choose a CORSET which will make it appear so. This you can easily do without detriment to your health or comfort if you select a KABO MODEL.

The wrong Corset was always disastrous, but with the styles this season an improper selection would be fatal. The Corset is really the foundation of the gown, for on its correctness depends your stylish appearance.

KABO CORSETS Are Absolutely CORRECTLY STYLED

The models now on display are the very latest and most fashionable that have been produced. But the greatest reputation of the KABO isn't founded merely upon style—they are also famous for comfort. Comfortable, stylish and MODERATELY PRICED.

STILL KEEPS AFTER INDIAN

Shrubb Now Offers to Beat Longboat Two Out of Three

The following challenge has been issued by Alfred Shrubb at Montreal: "I hereby challenge Mr. Tom Longboat to a series of three races at ten, twelve and fifteen miles, or such other distances as may be agreed upon, and I back myself to any amount agreed on to beat him in at least two out of the three races."

The great English "pro." climbed into the grand stand at Buffalo on Sunday after he defeated a three-man relay at five miles, and made the same crack.

It is just the same with a pugilistic champion who draws the color line. Every black battler in the country immediately hurls a challenge at him, knowing that he will not accept it. Shrubb is doubtless sincere in his desire to meet the big Indian, but the Indian and the Irish-Canadians have told the game little Englishman in no measured terms that Longboat will not run him at any distance for any money, and Tom Flanagan tried to impress it upon his memory, in the Windsor Hotel, Montreal, by a swing to his jaw.

"Why doesn't Shrubb shut up and leave the big Indian in peace. Longboat is the champion amateur long distance runner of the world, and Shrubb is the king of the pro. brigade. No one disputes their titles. So long as Longboat desires to remain amateur, Shrubb should leave him in peace.

If Longboat ever turns pro. the first man he will take a whirl at is Alfie Shrubb.

A CANUCK AFTER HIM.

Shrubb's desire to race some good man in Canada may be realized here in Toronto, much sooner than he expects. A Canadian runner, recognized as one of the best in Canada, a man who is considered Longboat's most serious rival in amateur ranks, is considering a proposition to turn professional and run Shrubb 10 to 20 miles indoors here.

If he does run the race will attract a bumper crowd, for the runner is about as popular as the erratic Indian.—Toronto Star.

HOCKEY

Montreal, Oct. 27.—With the rugby season just half over the hockey management have been stirred into activity by the signing on by Montreal of at least one player, to wit, Riley Hern, late goal-keeper for the Wanderers. This declaration on the part of the Montreal Club, puts at rest, for the time at least, all talk of an amateur league being the chief body in hockey circles during the coming season.

Things as they stand look pretty black for Wanderers. Blachford has stated definitely that he will not play again, Hern has signed with Montreal, Arthur Ross is more than likely to do so, although his intentions are unknown; Glass and Johnston's movements are doubtful, while Bruce Stuart was reported some time ago as about to manage the Ottawa team. The Wanderers would need an absolutely fresh team if things turn out as predicted and if they took the ice with a weak septette might easily have the Stanley cup snatched from them. There is, however, not much fear of their going into the game with a weak team for the club is owned by a few individuals, and in the event of a bad season they would have to stand heavy financial loss without a strong organization like M.A.A.A. or Shamrock at their backs. If the Wanderers still play it will be with a strong team and there are many fine hockey players outside Montreal who can be got.

There is another possibility. Grand Trunk may attempt to take over Wanderers' franchise should the latter club decide to retire from the union. They are known to be keen on doing so, but it is early in the season yet to discuss the matter, especially when the Wanderers annual general meeting has not been held yet.

MAPLE LEAFS WON THE GAME

Defeated Rustlers in Fast Game at Y.M.C.A. Last Night

In a league basketball match at the Y. M. C. A. last night the Maple Leafs defeated the Rustlers, 36 points to 29. Greater weight and better combination won the game for the Leafs. The Rustlers put up a plucky game but could not cope with their more expereinced opponents. The teams were as follows:

Maple Leafs.	Rustlers.
R. Best	Hall
S. Laing	Pringle
G. Martin	Leed
J. Downing	Meldrum
D. Sutherland	M. Dobbin

THE RING

Jeffries' demand of $5,000 for refereeing the Johnson-Burns go set the tongues of the pugilistic game wagging, and if he never goes to the Antipodes the asking him to go and his high priced answer served to bring the contest before the public in a forcible manner again.

Jeffries as the third man in the ring would be almost as big a drawing card as either of the fighters, and what a rude awakening it would be to the Australians to get a look at the giant who retired because he could not find anyone who could give an argument in the ring says Jim Corbett, in the Chicago Times.

When Burns lines up with the ebony hued giant he will look like a pygmy. Johnson has it on Burns to the extent of about a foot in height and thirty-five pounds in weight. But Johnson with all his size, would look like a man whose growth had been stunted if he appeared in a squared circle with Jeffries.

And if Jeffries goes to the antipodes he may stay there long enough to show the fight promoters that he still has a couple of fights in him. In fact, the Australian capitalists who have put up the enormous guarantee for the Johnson-Burns bout and then cabled Jeff the offer to boss the job have a method in their madness. They realize that the winner of the battle and Jeffries would make the greatest card in the pugilistic world.

I believe if Johnson won there would be no amount of money that would induce Jeff to climb into the ring with the black man. The big fellow has some pretty set ideas about the colored race, and unless he becomes influenced by the Australian customs where a colored man is respected more than in America, he will never meet him. And if Jeff did it would be all day with Johnson for no matter how the fight results with Burns, Jeffries could whip the colored man as he liked.

In travelling about the country, I have learned that Tommy Burns is not taken seriously as heavyweight champion and I cannot understand why. Tommy has done more to earn the title than half the big men that ever reached the top. He whipped the champions of England, Ireland, Europe, Australia and the would-be champion of America. He has side-stepped no white man and is one of the gamest toughest nuts that ever donned a padded mitt. Tommy has never taken the full count in a battle, and has served a sleep punch to a large and varied assortment of pugilists.

If Jeff is finally induced to go to the Antipodes, and Burns wins and there is any chance to get Tommy and Big Jim together, I cannot for the life of me see why some American promoter cannot outbid the Australians. In America Jeff and Burns would draw a great house, providing of course that Tommy puts the kibosh on Johnson.

THE RUSSIAN LION'S COUSIN MEANS TO DEFEAT ROGERS

Is Here for His Bout With Yankee on Friday Night—Has Been Training With the Big Fellows at Brown's Gymnasium, New York—Has Taken Mohl Into Camp.

Young Hackenschmidt, arrived in Peterborough from Montreal last night and brings the reputation of being a pretty nearly unbeatable catch as catch can wrestler. Among his victories the one the people of Peterborough will probably take the most interest in is his defeat in Glace Bay, NS., about a year ago, of Fritz Mohl, the big German that Rogers threw in two hard matches here. Hack is a cousin of the famous Russian Lion and although he speaks with a noticeable foreign accent his English is pretty good on account of the fact that he has wrestled for some time in England and America.

Referring to his bout with Mohl, he said:

"I had it all over him in five minutes and knew that I could beat him. He was not strong enough for me, although he is a pretty strong fellow, and a good man at Graeco-Roman. I got the first fall on him in 20 minutes and the second in 7. He is too slow and fat for catch as catch can and is so big he can not get into shape to have the staying power for a hard match."

For the past three weeks Hackenschmidt has made Brown's gymnasium in Buffalo his headquarters for training and has worked out there with the big men in the mat world. Previous to that he had three matches in Columbia Theatre, Boston, and won them all. He beat Perelli, the Fighting Dago, getting two falls in short order and also easily disposed of Pardello another far famed heavy weight from Sunny Italy in two falls straight, getting them both on the holds.

Zimmerman, the American crack, also went down to him on a crotch and neck hold in 17 minutes. The bout was a little too strenuous for him and he did not come on for the second fall.

Hackenschmidt pretty nearly had a match arranged with Rogers for last year in Sohmer park but Rogers never signed the articles leaving the city for some reason or other before terms had been come to.

Hack is very pleasant to converse with and while he is willing to talk quietly of his matches is not in the least boastful. He is in the condition of his life and strips at 190, all bone and muscle and with not an ounce of flesh to spare.

When he meets Rogers at the Brock street on Friday night it will be one of the most important bouts of his career. He knows Yankee as a wonderful wrestler but feels that he can defeat him. The foreigner has the reputation of being even a speedier man than the whirlwind Rogers.

FRED MOHL AND NOT FRITZ LOST TO WESTGAARDE

Fritz Mohl was not beaten by Westergaarde at Sohmer Park on Friday night, as was stated in dispatches received at this office. It was Fred Mohl, another American heavyweight and no relative of the Buffalo wrestler.

The sporting editor of the Reveiw received a letter from Fritz Mohl to-day and hastens to correct the statement that Fritz was beaten by Westergaarde. Mohl has several matches to wrestle this season, among them one with Maupas, who is the leading French-Canadian heavyweight at the mat game.

The wrestling game is a little quiet on the other side at present, as are all other big sports and theatrical affairs, and will be until the election is over.

RUGBY

The Collegiate Football Team has as yet received no challenge from any of the town teams for a game. Other years there have been many exciting games between the Collegiate and the town teams. What is wrong with all the town boys this year? A series of games between two teams would draw a large crowd to the school grounds, and the games would be watched with interest.—Lindsay Post.

A GOOD OFFICIAL

Dr. Macpherson, who refereed the Lindsay vs Peterborough YMCA game on Saturday, used judgment and impartiality. He is a good official. "Chummy" O'Connor is a well-known umpire and as honest and square as they make 'em. There's no kick coming from Lindsay re the two officials.—Lindsay Warder.

NED FITZPATRICK AND HARRY BURRIDGE MATCHED TO-DAY

Will Wrestle in Week of November 23rd—Forfeits Deposited and Articles Signed by Both Men—A Bout That Has Been Looked Forward to.

This afternoon a match was made between Ned Fitzptarick and Harry Burridge for a catch as catch can bout between November 23rd and 28th. The bout will be for a side bet of $50 and the $10 forfeits of both boys have been posted. A. C. Yokome, sporting editor of the Review, has been agreed upon as referee. The articles have been drawn up and signed.

This match will create a great deal of interest as it has been a live topic in local sporting circles for some time. A go between Fitzpatrick and Burridge has been talked of a long while. However, the principals didn't come to any agreement and the match was not brought about until to-day. Definite arrangements as to the place of holding it have not been made, although it will perhaps be pulled off in the Brock street rink.

PETERBOROUGH TURF CLUB ELECTED IT'S OFFICERS AT MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT

Hon. President—A. H. Strattton.
President—Dr. Johnston.
1st Vice-Pres.—Dr. King.
2nd Vice-Pres.—Dr. Leach.
Secretary—E. Jones.
Asst. Sec.—M. Storey.
Treasurer—A. A. Hollingshead.
Track Manager—M. Connors.
A board of eleven directors.

The above were the officers appointed at the meeting of the Peterborough Turf Club last night at the Snowden House. The meeting was largely attended and the club has a membership of 27. Race matters, among them the annual winter meet, were discussed with enthusiasm, and the prospects are that some more successful race meetings will be held by the club.

In the matter of the protest against Walter G., the horse that was raced here under a false name, it is alleged, the owner, Hodgens, of Orillia was given until November 1st to return the money he obtained from the West Peterborough Agricultural Society as winnings at the races held at the last fair here. He did not establish the identity of his horse in the time given him to do so.

Marathon in Lindsay

A Marathon road race, under the auspices of the local YMCA, will likely take place on Thanksgiving day if enough entries can be secured. Mr. Eadie, the physical director, has notices placarded in the building to this effect and will no doubt have a large contingent entered. Several prizes have been offered for the event and should be the means of bringing out all the local Longboats.

The junior debating club will hold an open debate on Thursday night next. The theme is "Resolved that the women of Canada should have right of franchise". Every person present will be invited to take part.

THE MYSTERY

By STEWART EDWARD WHITE
And SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS

COPYRIGHT, 1907, BY McCLURE, PHILLIPS & CO.

I walked to the edge. Various ledges sloping toward me ran down to the sea. Against one of them was a wreck not so very old, head on, her afterworks gone. I recognized the name Golden Horn and was vastly astonished to find her here against this unknown island. Far up the coast I could see, with the surges dashing up like the explosion of shells and the cliffs and the rampart of hills grown with grass and cactus. A bold promontory terminated the coast view to the north, and behind it I could glimpse a more fertile and wooded country. The sky was partly overcast by the volcanic murk. It fled before the trades, and the red sun alternately blazed and clouded through it.

As there was nothing more to be seen here I turned above the hollow of our cove, skirted the base of the hill and so down to the beach.

It occupied a wide semicircle where the hills drew back. The flat was dry and grown with thick, coarse grass. A stream emerged from a sort of canyon on its landward side. I tasted it, found it sulphurous and a trifle worse than lukewarm. A little nearer the cliff, however, was a clear, cold spring from the rock, and of this I had a satisfying drink. When I arose from my knees I made out an animal on the hill crest looking at me, but before I could distinguish its characteristics it had disappeared.

I returned along the tide sands. The surf dashed and roared, lifting seaweeds of a blood red, so that in places the water looked pink. Seals innumerable watched me from just outside the breakers. As the waves lifted to a semitransparence I could make out others playing, darting back and forth, up and down like disturbed tadpoles, clinging to the wave until the very instant of its fall, then disappearing as though blotted out. The salt smell of seaweed was in my nostrils. I found the place pleasant.

With these few and scattered impressions we returned to the ship. It had been warped to a secure anchorage and snugged down. Dr. Schermerhorn and Darrow were on deck waiting to go ashore.

I made my report. The two passengers disappeared. They carried lunch and would not be back until nightfall. We had orders to pitch a large tent at a suitable spot and to lighten ship of the doctor's personal and scientific effects. By the time this was accomplished the two had returned.

"It's all right," Darrow volunteered to Captain Selover as he came over the side. "We've found what we want."

Their clothes were picked by brush and their boots muddy. Next morning Captain Selover detailed me to especial work.

"You'll take two of the men and go ashore under Darrow's orders," said he.

Darrow told us to take clothes for a week, an ax apiece and a block and tackle. We made up our ditty bags, stepped into one of the surf boats and were rowed ashore. There Darrow at once took the lead.

Our way proceeded across the grass flat, through the opening of the narrow canyon and so on back into the interior by way of the bed through which flowed the sulphur stream. The country was badly eroded. Most of the time we marched between perpendicular banks about forty feet high. These were occasionally broken by smaller tributary arroyos of the same sort. It would have been impossible to reach the level of the upper country. The bed of the main arroyo was flat and grown with grasses and herbage of an extraordinary vividness, due, I supposed, to the sulphur water. The stream itself meandered aimlessly through the broader bed. It steadily grew warmer and the sulphur smell more noticeable. Above us we could see the sky and the sharp clay edge of the arroyo. I noticed the tracks of Darrow and Dr. Schermerhorn made the day before.

After a mile of this the bottom ran up nearly to the level of the sides, and we stepped out on the floor of a little valley almost surrounded by more hills.

It was an extraordinary place, and, since much happened there, I must give you an idea of it.

It was round and nearly encircled by naked painted hills. From its floor came steam and a roaring sound. The steam blew here and there among the pines on the floor; rose to eddy about the naked painted hills. At one end we saw intermittently a broad ascending canyon, deep red and blue black, ending in the cone of a smoking volcano. The other seemed quite closed by the sheer hills. In fact, the only exit was the route by which we had come.

For the hills were utterly precipitous. I suppose a man might have made his way up to the various knobs, ledges and inequalities, but it would have required long study and a careful head. I myself later worked my way a short distance merely to examine the texture of their marvelous color.

This was at once varied and of great body, not at all like the smooth, glossed color of most rock, but soft and rich. You've seen painters' palettes. It was just like that, pasty and fat. There were reds of all shades, from a veritable scarlet to a red umber; greens, from sea green to emerald; several kinds of blue and an indeterminate purple mauve. The whole effect was splendid and barbaric.

We stopped and gasped as it hit our eyes. Darrow alone was unmoved. He led the way forward and in an instant had disappeared behind the veil of steam. Thrackles and Perdosa hung back murmuring, but at a sharp word from me gathered their courage in their two hands and proceeded.

We found that the first veil of steam and a fearful stench of gases proceeded from a miniature crater whose edge was heavily incrusted with a white salt. Beyond, close under the rise of the hill, was another. Between the two Percy Darrow had stopped and was waiting.

He eyed us with a half lazy, half quizzical glance as we approached.

"Think the place is going to blow up?" he inquired with a tinge of irony. "Well, it isn't." He turned to me. "Here's where we shall stay for awhile. You and the men are to cut a number of these pine trees for a house. Better pick out the little ones, about three or four inches through. They're easier to handle. I'll be back by noon."

We set to work then in the roaring, steaming valley with the vapor swirling about us, sometimes concealing us, sometimes half revealing us gigantic, again in the utterness of exposure showing us dwindled pygmies against the magnitudes about us. The labor was not difficult. By the time Darrow returned we had a pile of the saplings ready for his next direction.

He was accompanied by the nigger, very much terrified, very much burdened with food and cooking utensils. The assistant was lazily relating tales of voodoos, a glimmer of mischief in his eyes.

CHAPTER XIV.

I LIVED in the place for three weeks. We were afoot shortly after daybreak, under way by sunup and at work before the heats began. Three of us worked on the buildings, and the rest formed a pack train carrying all sorts of things from the shore to the valley. The men grumbled fiercely at this, but Captain Selover drove them with slight regard for their opinions or feelings.

"You're getting double pay," was his only word. "Earn it!"

They certainly earned it during those three weeks. The things they brought up were astounding. Besides a lot of scientific apparatus and chests of chemical supplies, everything that could possibly be required had been provided by that omniscient young man. After we had built a long, low structure, windows were forthcoming, shelves, tables, sinks, faucets, forges, burners, all cut out, fitted and ready to put together, each with its proper screws, nails, clamps or pipes ready to our hands. When we had finished we had constructed as complete a laboratory on a small scale as you could find on a college campus, even to the stone pillar down to bed rock for delicate microscopic experiments and hot and cold water led from the springs. And we were utterly unskilled. It was all Percy Darrow.

I was toward the last engaged in screwing on a fixture for the generation of acetelyne gas.

"Darrow," said I, "there's one thing you've overlooked. You forgot to bring a cupola and a gilt weathercock for this concern."

After the laboratory was completed we put up sleeping quarters for the two men, with wide porches well screened, and a square, heavy storeroom. By the end of the third week we had quite finished.

Dr. Schermerhorn had turned with enthusiasm to the unpacking of his chemical apparatus. Almost immediately at the close of the freight carrying he had appeared, lugging his precious chest, this time suffering the assistance of Darrow, and had camped on the spot. We could not induce him to leave, so we put up a tent for him. Darrow remained with him by way of safety against the men, whose measure, I believe, he had taken. Now that all the work was finished, the doctor put in a sudden appearance.

"Percy," said he, "now we will have the defense built."

He dragged us with him to the narrow part of the arroyo just before it rose to the level of the valley.

"Here we will build the stockade defense," he announced.

Darrow and I stared at each other blankly.

"What for, sir?" inquired the assistant.

"I haf come to be undisturbed," announced the doctor, with owl-like, Teutonic gravity, "and I will not be disturbed."

Darrow nodded to me and drew his principal aside. They conversed earnestly for several minutes. Then the assistant returned to me.

"No use," he shrugged in complete return to his indifferent manner. "Stockade it is. Better make it of fourteen foot logs slanted out. Dig a trench across, plant your logs three or four feet, bind them at the top. That's his specification for it. Go at it."

"But," I expostulated, "what's the use of it? Even if the men were dangerous that would just make them think you did have something to guard."

"I know that. Orders," replied Percy Darrow.

We built the stockade in a day. When it was finished, we marched to the beach, and never save in the three instances of which I shall later tell you did I see the valley again. The next day we washed our clothes and moved ashore with all our belongings.

"I'm not going to have this crew aboard," stated Captain Selover positively. "I'm going to clean her." He himself stayed, however.

We rowed in, constructed a hasty fireplace of stones, spread our blankets and built an unnecessary fire near the beach.

"Clean her!" grumbled Thrackles. "My eye!"

"I'd rather round the cape," growled Pulz hopelessly.

"Come, now, it can't be as bad as all that," I tried to cheer them. "It can't be more than a week or ten days' job, even if we careen her."

"You don't know what you're talking about," said Thrackles. "It's worse than the yellow jack. It's six weeks at least. Mind when we last 'cleaned her?' " he inquired of Handy Solomon.

"You can kiss the book on it," replied he. "Down by the line in that little swab of a sand island. My eye, but don't I remember! I sweated my liver white."

They smoked in silence.

"That's a main queer contrivance of the perfessor's—that stockade-like," ventured Solomon after a little.

"He doesn't want any intrusion," I said. "These scientific experiments are very delicate."

"Quite like," he commented noncommittally.

We slept on the ground that night, and next morning, under Captain Selover's directions, we commenced the task of lightening the ship. He detailed the nigger and Perdosa for special duty.

"I'll just see to your shore quarters," he squeaked. "You empty her."

All day long we rowed back and forth from the ship to the cove, landing the contents of the hold. These by good fortune we did not have to carry over the neck of land, for just above the gravel beach was a wide ledge on which we could pile the stores. We ate aboard and so had no opportunity of seeing what Captain Selover and his men were about until evening. Then we discovered that they had collected and lowered to the beach a quantity of stateroom doors from the wreck and had trundled the galley stove to the edge, where it awaited our assistance. We hitched a cable to it and let it down gently. The nigger was immensely pleased. After some experiment he got it to draw and so cooked us our supper on it. After supper Captain Selover rowed back to the ship.

"Eagen," he had said, drawing me aside, "I'm going to leave you with them. It's better that one of us—I think as owner I ought to be aboard"—

"Of course, sir," said I, "it's the only proper place for you."

"I'm glad you think so," he rejoiced, apparently relieved. "And anyway," he cried, with a burst of feeling, "I hate the gritty feeling of it under my feet! Solid oak's the only walking for a man."

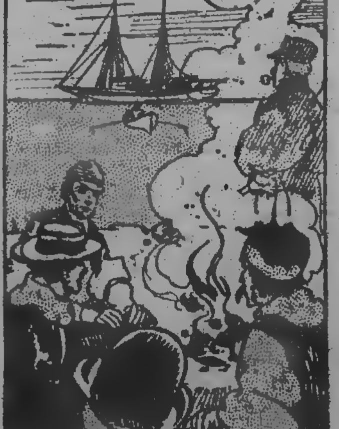
He left me hastily as though a trifle ashamed. I thought he seemed depressed, even a little furtive, and yet on analysis I could discover nothing definite on which to base such a conclusion.

It was rather a feeling of difference from the man I had known. In my fatigue it seemed hardly worth thinking about.

The men had rolled themselves in their blankets, tired with the long day.

Next morning Captain Selover was ashore early. He had quite recovered his spirits and offered me a dram of French brandy, which I refused. We worked hard again. Again the master returned at night to his vessel, this time without a word to any of us. Again the men, drugged by toil, turned in early and slept like the dead.

We became entangled in a mesh of days like these, during which things were accomplished, but in which was no space for anything but the tasks imposed upon us. The men for the most part had little to say.



In the evening sometimes we lit a big bonfire.

"Por Dios, eet is too mooch work!" sighed Perdosa once.

"Why don't you kick to the old man, then?" sneered Thrackles.

The silence that followed and the sullenness with which Perdosa readdressed himself to his work was significant enough of Captain Selover's past relations with the men.

And how we did clean her. We stripped her of every stitch and sliver until she floated high, an empty hull, even her spars and running rigging ashore. I understood now the crew's grumbling. We literally went at her with a nailbrush.

Captain Selover took charge of us when we had reached this period. He and the nigger and Perdosa had long since finished the installation of the permanent camp. They had built us huts from the wreck, collecting stateroom doors for the sides and hatches for the roofs, huge and solid, with iron rings in them. The bronze and iron ventilation gratings to the doors gave us glimpses of the coast through fretwork. The rich inlaying of woods surrounded us. We set up on a solid rock the galley stove, with its rails to hold the cooking pots from upsetting in a seaway. In it we burned the debris of the wreck, all sorts of wood, some sweet and aromatic and spicy as an incensed cathedral. I have seen the nigger boiling beans over a blaze of sandalwood fragrant as an eastern shop.

First we scrubbed the Laughing Lass, then we painted her and resized and tarred her standing rigging, resized and rove her running gear, slushed her masts, finally careened her and scraped and painted her below.

When we had quite finished, we had the anchor chain dealt out to us in fathoms, and scraped, pounded and polished that. These were, indeed, days full of labor.

Being busy from morning until night, we knew but little of what was about us. We saw the open sea and the waves tumbling over the reef outside. We saw the headlands and the bow of the bay and the surf with its watching seals and the curve of yellow sands. We saw the sweep of coast and the downs and the strange huts we had built out of departed magnificence. And that was all. That constituted our world.

In the evening sometimes we lit a big bonfire, sailor fashion, just at the edge of the beach. There we sat at ease and smoked our pipes in silence, too tired to talk. Even Handy Solomon's song was still. Outside the circle of light were mysterious things—strange wavings of white hands, bendings of figures, callings of voices, rustling of feet. We knew them for the surf and the wind in the grasses, but they were not the less mysterious for that.

Logically Captain Selover and I should have passed most of our evenings together. As a matter of fact we so spent very few. Early in the dusk the captain invariably rowed himself out to his beloved schooner. What he did there I do not know. We could see his light now in one part of her, now in the other. The men claimed he was scrubbing her teeth. "Old Scrubs" they called him to his back, never Captain Selover.

"He has to clean up after his own feet, he's so dirty," sagely proffered Handy Solomon. And this was true.

The seaman's prophecy held good. Seven weeks held us at that infernal job—seven weeks of solid, grinding work. The worst of it was that we were kept at it so breathlessly, as though our very existence were to depend on the headlong rush of our labor. And then we had fully half the stores to put away again and the other half to transport painfully over the neck of land from the cove to the beach.

So accustomed had I become to the routine in which we were involved, so habituated to anticipating the coming day as exactly like the day that had gone, that the completion of our job caught me quite by surprise. I had thrown myself down by the fire prepared for the same old half hour of drowsy nicotine, to be followed by the accustomed heavy sleep and the usual early rising to toil. The evening was warm. I half closed my eyes.

Handy Solomon was coming in last. Instead of dropping to his place he straddled the fire, stretching his arms over his head. He let them fall with a sharp exhalation:

" 'Lay aloft, lay aloft,' the jolly bo's'n cried.
Blow high, blow low, what care we!
'Look ahead, look astern, look a-windward, look a-lee.'
Down on the coast of the high Barbare-e-e."

The effect was electrical. We all sprang to our feet and fell to talking at once.

"By God, we're through!" cried Pulz. "I'd clean forgot it!"

The nigger piled on more wood. We drew closer about the fire. All the interests in life, so long held in the background, leaped forward, eager for recognition. We spoke of trivialities almost for the first time since our landing, fused into a temporary but complete good fellowship by the relief.

"Wonder how the old doctor is getting on?" ventured Thrackles after awhile.

"The devil's a preacher! I wonder?" cried Handy Solomon.

"Let's make 'em a call," suggested Pulz.

More proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restores women to normal health.

Mrs. Henry Clark, Glandford Station, Ont., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for years, and never found any medicine to compare with it for sick women.

"I had ulcers and a displacement of the feminine organs, and doctors did me no good. I suffered dreadfully until I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has cured me, and also helped other sick women to whom I have recommended it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat your letter in confidence and advise you free. No woman ever regretted writing her, and because of her vast experience she has helped thousands. Address, Lynn, Mass.

THEY SHOULD TRY THIS MIXTURE

Home Made Remedy Which Acts Promptly on Kidneys and Bladder

Cut this out and put in some safe place for it is valuable and worth more than anything else in the world if you should have an attack of rheumatism or bladder trouble, or any derangement of the kidneys whatever.

The prescription is simple and can be made up by anyone at home. The ingredients can be had at any good prescription pharmacy and all that is necessary is to shake them well in a bottle.

Here it is: Fluid Extract dandelion, one-half ounce; compound Kargon, one ounce; compound syrup of sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. A few doses is said to relieve almost any case of bladder trouble, frequent urination, pain and scalding, weakness and backache, pain above the kidneys, etc. It is now claimed to be the method of curing chronic rheumatism, because of its direct and positive action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys. It gives them life and power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood, relieving the worst forms of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles. The extract dandelion acts upon the stomach and liver and is used also extensively for relieving constipation and indigestion. Compound sarsaparilla cleans and enriches the blood. There is nothing better than Kargon Compound for the kidneys.

This prescription is safe to use at any time.

The grim reaper has again been in our midst and removed from a loving home one of our popular young women in the person of Miss Mary Birt, aged 33 years, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Birt, of Belmont St.

The deceased lady had not been in the best of health of late and a week or two ago took seriously ill with heart trouble which gradually grew more serious and for several days before her demise her friends realized that the end was fast drawing near. Death released her from her sufferings at about three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon last.

Miss Birt was a young lady of exemplary character. She was a faithful member of the Methodist church and it can be truly said of her, "It was not all of life to live or all of death to die."

The funeral took place to the Norwood cemetery on Friday afternoon and was attended by a large number of sympathizing friends. The service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. H. Adams. The bearers were: Messrs. Earl Kidd, Gordon Kidd, W. Puckenham, George Buck, Fred Buck, Fred Niebel.

Mr. Frank Raddon, of Peterborough was in town on election day.

Mrs. Edgar has sold her residence on Belmont street to Mr. J. Frost, and intends going to visit her son in Saskatchewan.

Mrs. A. Davidson has returned from Stony Lake after spending the summer at that place and is now visiting her daughter, Mrs. Andedrson of Keene.

Mrs. Wm. Metcalfe has purchased the frame house on Colborne street, which is now occupied by Mrs. J. Page. Mr. Paget intends moving into the residence on that street owned by Mr. B. Stewart.

THE STRENUOUS LIFE

Pulls so Hard on the Stomach it Must Have Help

The stress and strain of the strenuous life in both city and country makes stomach troubles. Five people suffer to-day where one did ten years ago with sick headache, dizziness, flatulence, distress after eating, specks before the eyes, bloating, nervousness, sleeplessness, and the many other symptoms of indigestion.

All who are suffering with stomach troubles, and that means at least two out of every three in Peterborough and other towns, should use Mi-o-na stomach tablets. Nothing else is as safe, yet as effective; nothing else can be so thoroughly relied upon to relieve all troubles from indigestion as Mi-o-na.

So reliable is Mi-o-na that M. Madill, druggist, corner George and Hunter Sts., Peterborough, with every 50 cent box he sells, gives a guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy, apres.

Mr. Gordon McIntosh, who formerly resided in town, was married in Toronto on Wednesday last.

Mr. C. E. Tamgan, formerly of the Sovereign Bank staff here, has accepted a position as general salesman for the State of New York for the Crown Ribbon and Carbon Manufacturing Co., of Rochester, N. Y.

A big shooting match will be held in the park on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 9th, for geese and turkeys, by Mr. A. Sinclair, of town.

The Havelock Standard since its appearance in its new dress of type and headings has received many compliments from papers of the surrounding towns.

DIVINE SARAH AT SIXTY FOUR

The Final Retirement of the Greatest Living Actress

Paris, Oct. 27—At the climax of her career, Sarah Bernhardt, regarded by millions as the greatest living actress has reached her sixty-fourth birthday yesterday and the time of her retirement from the stage.

The retirements of Bernhardt have long been regarded as jokes. This time however, it is no joke. It is tragedy; a surrender of time after a life spent in devotion to her art.

Sarah Bernhardt was born on Oct. 22, 1844. Until within the last year or two she has been equally successful in preserving her health and usefulness. In her long and triumphant life Madame Bernhardt's unbroken health has seemed technique. Her life work has never been interrupted by sickness yet she is known as the busiest as well as the most gifted woman of France.

Madame Bernhardt spent the day quietly with friends and received many tokens from friends in all parts of the world.

The Ducks are Scarce

Mr. Arthur Simpson returned yesterday from Sandy Point, where he spent some days duck shooting with the Knowlson party. He found the birds numerous, but extremely difficult to approach, owing to the mild weather; the extreme lowness of the water is also a drawback, it being impossible to paddle a canoe to favorable shooting spots, while any attempt to walk over the bottomless bogs would be practically suicidal. All duck hunters are praying for cold, blustry weather with frequent snow storms.

Hot Box Causes Trouble

One of the rear coaches on the regular 9.15 train, while leaving Peterborough this morning, met with a serious mishap, one of the boxes taking fire.

The fumes of the burning grease were not noticed until about two miles out of the city. The train was brought to a stop by the conductor, who after an examination, found it necessary to have the car taken back to Peterborough and repaired. The accident delayed the train about twenty minutes.—Lindsay Free Press.

Accuracy Quality and Price

Are three prime considerations in eye glasses. In price we please our patrons, and this is an important factor in our increase of business. We supply glasses from one dollar up, according to requirement of the eyes. And all our kinds of lenses, qualities of frames are of unsurpassed value. In quality of material, style, workmanship we speak with confidence of the eye glasses and spectacles, which we are daily supplying. Accuracy in focal powers best suited to the special requirements of each individual eye, is of course, of first importance, each case receives our undivided attention. In Accuracy, Quality and Price we are pleasing our patrons.

MAJORITY IS INCREASING NOW PLACED AT FORTY-NINE

Two More Ridings Go Grit.

Protest in West Kent Will be Supported by Bribery Charges.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—A special despatch from North Bay announces that final returns in Nipissing give C. A. McCool (Lib.) a majority of 112, with one poll to hear from. This again makes the Ontario standing at: Conservatives, 48; Liberals, 38.

In the Comox-Atlin district of British Columbia, W. Sloan (Lib.) was yesterday elected by acclamation.

The Liberal majority is now 49.

Chatham, Oct. 29.—The election of A. B. McCoig in West Kent will be protested, was the statement of one of the leading officers of the local Conservative Association yesterday.

Tuesday night, even King street, the main thoroughfare, was alive with drunken and half-drunken men, who, it is alleged, bought their liquor with election boodle. The aftermath of the election was marked by most disgraceful orgies all over the city. For the most part the celebrants were negroes and tough characters.

It is claimed that there were irregularities in Tilbury. One man said yesterday that if the protest were set in progress it would mean that over two hundred men would have to be arrested on charges of flagrant violations of the Election Act.

The Liberals assert that the Conservatives also had a hand in irregularities.

The official count has not yet been made, but it is believed that McCoig's majority will be about seventy.

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—T. B. Caldwell, Liberal candidate, defeated in North Lanark, will institute proceedings against the return of Thoburn, who is elected by 9 majority. Action is being taken on the usual allegations.

A rumor from Labelle is to the effect that the Liberals will report to the archbishop the action of certain parish priests, who it is alleged were on Sunday outspoken in favor of Conservative candidates. Since Cardinal Merry Del Val's visit here in 1896 there have been few complaints of a similar sort.

The Cabinet Ministers in the city last night were Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, Hon. Sydney Fisher, Hon. Geo. P. Graham, Hon. L. P. Brodeur and Hon. Chas. Murphy. A Cabinet council is being held to-day.

Rumor has it that Chas. Marcil will be appointed Speaker of the Commons.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 29.—W. W. B. McInnes, the defeated Liberal candidate in Vancouver, has received an invitation from the Yukon Liberal Association to contest the constituency at the deferred election and is now considering the offer. It is felt that one of the seats in the deferred election in British Columbia should be opened to McInnes and his services retained for the province. In the event of his being elected it is practically certain he will gain Cabinet rank.

Belleville, Oct. 29.—In East Hastings it is alleged that at Stoco, the deputy returning officer, Pat Murphy, gave ballots to four voters whose names were not on the lists, in spite of protests of the Conservative scrutineers.

McLeod, Sask., Oct. 29.—Local Liberals claim that all the southern points, numbering thirty-one, will give them a majority, and that Herron (Con.) will be beaten by a narrow margin.

London, Oct. 29.—The Free Press last night said that a count is certain to be demanded in West Middlesex. Mr. Calvert, the Liberal candidate, was reported upon the night of the election to have a majority of 17 votes. This is believed to have included some votes which are open to question, while votes thought to be valid were not counted for the Conservative candidate, Mr. Robert McLachlin. A report current yesterday was to the effect that the Liberal majority in the west riding has been discovered to be only four.

HAS LEFT THE CITY

And Several Creditors Behind.

J. Tappie, New York Ladies' Tailor, is Charged With Passing Worthless Notes.

That several business men of Peterborough have been the victims of fraudulent means to obtain money and goods has been realized by them during the past few days.

By the passing of worthless notes Tappie, who has been known in the city since his arrival here in the spring, as the high-class New York ladies' tailor, obtained, it is said, money and goods from local parties and has absconded.

He left the city a week ago yesterday and his departure was unknown until some time after. He did not go by train, but was driving. Where he went is not known, but it was rumored that he was seen in Lakefield last Sunday. The police have been notified and a warrant has been issued for his arrest.

The horse he was driving was purchased from Lee & Cavanagh, and the buggy he had was got from Akey & Milburn. Both firms were paid by notes on one of the local banks. Doris & Godfrey, harnessmakers at the corner of Hunter and Water streets, were also done by this alleged swindler. Tappie got a thirty dollar set of harness from them, giving in payment a bogus cheque.

Several merchants had similar experiences, and Mr Martin Connors, proprietor of the City Hotel, gave him one hundred dollars on his note.

All the towns and cities have been communicated with and everything is being done to arrest the man.
